

Foreign Intelligence.

New York, September 14.

The ship Susan left Liverpool on the 26th July, capt. Delano has furnished the Editor of the Mercantile Advertiser...

LONDON, JULY 16.

Accounts were received yesterday from Italy, which state that the Pope, summoning the Cardinals to an extraordinary meeting...

This step will afford equal uneasiness and displeasure to Bonaparte. The military power of the Pope he cannot of course, have any dread of...

No intelligence has arrived this morning from Portugal or Cadix. Rumors however are circulated, of some success obtained over the French at Badajos...

We are anxious for intelligence from Cadix. By the last accounts Dupont remained at Andujar—he would either try to continue his retreat to the Morena...

The Orestes is arrived at Plymouth with dispatches from lord Collingwood and sir Charles Cotton. They have not brought any further accounts relative to Dupont...

The Junta of Seville have sent orders to the Spanish squadron at Minorca to return to Carthagen.

Late on Friday evening, sir John Moore, with the troops under his command, arrived in the Downs...

to be revivified, and proceed immediately to Gibraltar. That is to be the general rendezvous, and from thence troops will sail to those points where their efforts may be deemed most likely to be useful to the Spanish Patriots.

A report is prevalent on the continent, and has excited great sensation in Holland, that Bonaparte had announced his purpose of removing his brother Louis to Naples...

The report of marshall Brune having been sent to the Temple, is revived, with the addition that Talleyrand had shared the same fate.

Another letter from off Cadix, dated 20th ult. says—"The news to day is, that Dupont is endeavoring to retreat, and that the Spaniards have already taken 3000 of his men."

By the last accounts Dupont remained at Andujar—he would either try to continue his retreat to the Morena, or to keep his position at Andujar...

French naval officers have been sent to all the ports of the Baltic, for the purpose of engaging German and Polish volunteers for the French navy.

A convention has been concluded between the Emperors of Austria and Russia for the mutual surrender of deserters.

Yesterday government received advices from St. Andro, dated on Sunday last, by the Cadmus sloop of war...

noon communicated in the official circles by the following note:

"Downing Street, Saturday evening. Captain Winter, of the Cadmus, who reached the Admiralty this morning from St. Andro, has brought advice of the evacuation of that city by the French troops...

The accounts from Bilbao state, that Joseph Bonaparte has at length entered Spain—he was crowned King at St. Sebastian on the 9th.

Marshall Bessieres had on the 12th assembled a body of about 18,000 men, including some Polish regiments, and was stationed between Bilbao and Marquina.

In addition to the important communication which we made in our last number, of the Emperor of Russia and Austria having sent Ambassadors to Paris...

Notwithstanding these hostile demonstrations on the part of the Russian Majesty, he still seems desirous to cultivate the friendship of Napoleon...

French naval officers have been sent to all the ports of the Baltic, for the purpose of engaging German and Polish volunteers for the French navy.

A body of 10,000 Poles are under orders to march from Warsaw, through Brandenburg to Holstein.

Yesterday government received advices from St. Andro, dated on Sunday last, by the Cadmus sloop of war...

restrictions, provided Great Britain will consent to do the same." If this be true, Bonaparte consents to repeal his Milan and Hamburg decrees against commerce.

A gentleman lately come from Paris states, that before his departure the last battalion of Imperial Guards had left that capital for Spain...

On Wednesday last, the citizens of this town gave a dinner to Col. James Monroe, at Mr. Wilson's inn.

The President of the U. States, in the Constitution of the U. States, an adherence to its first principles, will perpetuate the Republic.

The Emperor of Russia and Austria having sent Ambassadors to Paris, to remonstrate against the occupation of the ecclesiastical states by French troops...

The memory of George Washington; brass and marble will do him justice, but his fame shall endure forever.

By Mr. Thomas T. Barr—Gen. Armand Strong, our minister at the court of France, may his negotiation with that government be speedily and honorably terminated.

By Mr. Barr—Liberty and Equality. By Mr. Robert Miller—The adopted sons of America; may they duly appreciate their change.

After Col. Monroe had retired, the able statesman and negotiator...

has added a new and brilliant star to the American Constellation, will ever be claims to the respect and gratitude of his countrymen.

HARLES TOWN, September 23.

At a meeting of the Democratic Republicans of Jefferson county, at the house of Capt. Geo. Hite, in Charles-town on Tuesday the 13th inst. Geo. Hite, Esq. was chosen chairman and John Humphreys secretary—when the following resolutions were unanimously agreed to.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting, the affairs of the people of the U. S. under the guidance of the present administration, have been conducted with wisdom and prudence...

Resolved, That upon the most mature reflection, we cannot but approve of the laying an Embargo, and the continuation of it, until the causes by which it is produced, are removed.

Resolved, It is with astonishment and concern we hear the evils of the present times attributed to the embargo, when it is evident to all who can add will and heart, that those evils proceed from the other Orders of Council, and French decrees...

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting, Col. John Morrow is a proper person to be chosen at the next election, to represent this district in Congress, and that they will support his election by every fair and honorable exertion in their power.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be signed by the president and secretary, and offered for publication in the Farmer's Repository, and Berkeley Intelligencer.

GEO. NORTH, President. J. HUMPHREYS, Sec'y.

WASHINGTON'S EMBARGO. The most shameful, the most base, the most detestable manoeuvres have been resorted to by men who call themselves disciples of Gen. Washington...

with the opinion that unprecedented power has been given to the president in relation to the embargo. No assertion was ever more false. Upon Washington—upon that great man, who, were he living, would look with horror upon the actions of those men who call themselves his friends...

Resolved, That the many and important services rendered to his country through the years, the undoubted talents, well tried patriotism and integrity of our fellow citizen, JAMES MADISON, eminently point him out as the fittest person for our next president.

Resolved, That upon the most mature reflection, we cannot but approve of the laying an Embargo, and the continuation of it, until the causes by which it is produced, are removed.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting, Col. John Morrow is a proper person to be chosen at the next election, to represent this district in Congress, and that they will support his election by every fair and honorable exertion in their power.

GEO. NORTH, President. J. HUMPHREYS, Sec'y.

WASHINGTON'S EMBARGO. The most shameful, the most base, the most detestable manoeuvres have been resorted to by men who call themselves disciples of Gen. Washington...

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be signed by the president and secretary, and offered for publication in the Farmer's Repository, and Berkeley Intelligencer.

GEO. NORTH, President. J. HUMPHREYS, Sec'y.

Treasury, at his request, by the Register. I am, respectfully, Your obedient servant, G. DUVAL.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be, and he hereby is authorised and empowered whenever in his opinion, the public safety shall so require, to lay an embargo on all ships and vessels in the ports of the United States...

Resolved, That upon the most mature reflection, we cannot but approve of the laying an Embargo, and the continuation of it, until the causes by which it is produced, are removed.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting, Col. John Morrow is a proper person to be chosen at the next election, to represent this district in Congress, and that they will support his election by every fair and honorable exertion in their power.

GEO. NORTH, President. J. HUMPHREYS, Sec'y.

WASHINGTON'S EMBARGO. The most shameful, the most base, the most detestable manoeuvres have been resorted to by men who call themselves disciples of Gen. Washington...

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be signed by the president and secretary, and offered for publication in the Farmer's Repository, and Berkeley Intelligencer.

GEO. NORTH, President. J. HUMPHREYS, Sec'y.

no parallel. For years we have been looking as spectators on our brethren of Europe, afflicted with those evils which necessarily follow an abandonment of the moral rule which bind men and nations together...

Resolved, That upon the most mature reflection, we cannot but approve of the laying an Embargo, and the continuation of it, until the causes by which it is produced, are removed.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting, Col. John Morrow is a proper person to be chosen at the next election, to represent this district in Congress, and that they will support his election by every fair and honorable exertion in their power.

GEO. NORTH, President. J. HUMPHREYS, Sec'y.

WASHINGTON'S EMBARGO. The most shameful, the most base, the most detestable manoeuvres have been resorted to by men who call themselves disciples of Gen. Washington...

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be signed by the president and secretary, and offered for publication in the Farmer's Repository, and Berkeley Intelligencer.

GEO. NORTH, President. J. HUMPHREYS, Sec'y.

WASHINGTON'S EMBARGO. The most shameful, the most base, the most detestable manoeuvres have been resorted to by men who call themselves disciples of Gen. Washington...

