TO THE Friends of Improvement. There is now at my Farm upon the AVON, (commonly called Bullekin,) THE THORO' BRED IMPORTED Merino Ram, DON CARLOS, in health and vigour, of the best cast of Spain; the property of Judge Cranch and Doctor Thornton, of Washington City; to be let to Ewes the present season. Upon the encouragement given to him on this experiment, will depend his continuance in this neighbourhood. It is therefore hoped that Farmers and others, will avail themselves of the favorable opportunity now offered, of improving their Flocks, from the most valuable race of animals that is known; by making early engagements of their finest Ewes; which ought immediately to be separated from the rest of their flocks, and sent without delay. It is generally known that Rams of this Race sell at very high prices. I am informed that the prices of all the degrees of Merino blood still keep up; that even the half-blooded ewe lambs sell readily at 25 dollars each! that the first cross upon almost any ewe makes an astonishing improvement of the fleece, and that the animals are hardy and easily kept fat. Here, then, is every encouragement for getting into the breed. I have only to add, that great care will be taken of Ewes sent to my Farm; having disposed of my own flock of sheep, to make ready for them—and having now a pasture where they can run to themselves: but I will not render myself liable for accidents or escapes. ELIJAH CHAMBERLIN. N. B. Rams very inferior to the above, stand at 15 dollars and upwards per ewe, without insurance; but he will stand at Ten Dollars, and the owners of the Ram insure the Ewes to be with lamb, if retained by their owners, and well treated, till they year. The money to be returned, if they do not prove with lamb. The most respectable certificates of the origin and race of the Ram are now in my possession, properly attested both in Spain and in America. August 17, 1810.

THE Constitution, Captain Hull, in the Delaware Bay; the brig Argus at Boston; and the schooner Revenge at Newport, Rhode Island—with orders to make short cruises and return occasionally to their respective stations. The frigate United States, Commodore DeCatur, and the frigate Essex, Captain Smith, are stationed at Hampton Roads; the John Adams, Capt. Dent, at St. Mary's; the ship Wasp, Capt. Jones, & the brig Ferret, Lt. Gadsden, at Charleston, S. Carolina; the brig Siren, Capt. Tarbell, at Savannah; the brig Nautilus at Wilmington, N. C. with similar orders. The brig Hornet, Capt. Hunt, is on foreign service; and the brig Vixen, Lt. Bainbridge, and the schooner Enterprise, Lt. Read, are stationed at New Orleans, where there are about 20 gun boats stationed. The frigate U. States, the Wasp, the Siren, and the Ferret, are now cruising near our Southern extremity. All the British armed vessels lately about Amelia Island have disappeared and gone, it is believed, to Halifax. A DEFaulTER.—According to the last accounts from Massachusetts, Barnabas Bidwell, the Attorney General of the State, and for 17 years Treasurer of the County of Berkshire, has committed a fraud upon the fund of the county, and attempted to conceal that fraud by a forgery.—In that state, it seems, there are certain items of expense, which are discharged in the first instance out of the county Treasury, and then repaid to the county Treasurer by the Treasury of the Commonwealth. Such as the costs of prosecutions in the Supreme Courts, maintenance of criminals in goal, when it amounts above a certain sum, &c. Mr. B. received these dues from the Commonwealth, and failed to give credit to the county. On being called before the Committee of the Court to settle his accounts, these omissions were pointed out to him—and he subsequently took care to alter his accounts, which were filed in the state Treasury, so as to engrafe these credits upon them—finding, however, that the Committee had previously obtained a transcript of these same accounts, he restored them, it is said, to their original shape—but not until the committee had procured a second transcript of them, in the state—in which his alterations left them. The variance created the suspicion, and led to the detection of the forgery. A warrant was taken out for his apprehension—but the bird had flown. These circumstances strike every man with disgust—nor is there one who can hesitate a moment, if they are true, to abandon Mr. B. to public infamy and contempt. But he has been a democrat—and leader in congress.—“Aye! there's the rub.” For the Federalists must make a terrible rout about the matter—and with that liberal and charitable spirit which becomes them, are visiting—the sins of one man upon the whole republican party. We must all be a set of rascals, because B. B. was one.—Is this the language of charity or of reason?—“They endeavor to make the people believe, that they are cheated out of their money, when they well know that Bidwell scarce owes any thing to the county of Berkshire, and has left a large property behind him. How is the republican party implicated in his guilt? Because B. B. called himself a republican, is every republican a rascal? Because pretended christians lead an abandoned life, is every christian a sinner?—Because A. Dexter, junr. a violent federalist, swindled the people of New England out of more than ten times the amount of all other defalcations, is every federalist a cheat?—Remember, that the Hon. B. B. was elected the Berkshire Treasurer, when that county was federal.” What is the true conclusion? That public officers should be regularly called upon to settle their accounts—nothing should be taken upon trust—their responsibility should be something more than a name—every one should be periodically brought to the test, as far as it is practicable. Congress should act upon this principle.—Committees should be raised, each session, to inspect the books and vouchers of the departments—and not only to see that the work has been done, but as far as they can, to see how it has been done &c.—For want of this accountability what a host of mischiefs may accrue? The officers themselves should wish it.—Indifference on the part of the employer leads to remissness on that of the agent—remissness leads to fraud—& fraud to forgery. With some persons, these steps are natural and sure. Richmond Eng. It is somewhat singular, that every circumstance having relation to Jackson, the ex-minister from the British court, is connected with Copenhagen.—The frigate Venus which has conveyed to this country his successor, and which is also destined to carry Jackson home, was one among the number of those vessels of war, which the Pirates stole from the Danes at Copenhagen. Pub. Adv. William Smith, a free black, steward of the packet Sea-Island, between this port and Savannah, has been convicted of inveigling out of the state of Georgia a negro wench and child, and sentenced to be hanged. We have not heard of any punishment inflicted by our Georgia brethren on their citizens who inveigled the blacks from Africa, though they brought them away into slavery, while poor Bill Smith only attempted to introduce them into liberty. And supposing Bill to have stolen them, the humane legislature had no idea that a “second thief had the best right.” N. Y. Columbian. Gen. Sarazin, who lately deserted from France, is not an old man; he has been distinguished on many signal occasions of arduous service; he was with Hoche on the Rhine, he accompanied Hoche in the expedition to Ireland, which he failed through a storm; he was with Gen. Le Clerc, at St. Domingo; and remained in Philadelphia several weeks on his return to Europe. He has frequently acted in stations which demonstrate his acknowledged talents, having been several times chief of the staff. Sudden Death.—At a ball, in Bennington Vermont, on the evening of the 16th ultimo, a young lady, before in perfect health, fell dead while performing a figure of the dance. So sudden a call will naturally lead one to the reflection of how little certainty we can calculate on life.—When the smallest breeze will part the thread that serves as a cable to bind us to it, and drive us on eternity's ocean. From the London Courier of the 14th of July. It is reported that Bonaparte has issued an order for imprisoning all the Americans in France, and sequestering their property. We know not whether this measure has actually been adopted, but it is certain that several citizens of the United States have lately arrived in this country from France, in consequence of an apprehension that Bonaparte would resort to some violent proceedings against them. An American gentleman who arrived in three days from Paris, was on 'Change yesterday, and he stated that he had left the French capital to avoid that detention which was about to be imposed on all his countrymen who remained in France. New-York, August 27. On Thursday evening last, during a severe storm of rain, thunder and lightning, three seamen belonging to the British frigate Venus, effected their escape at the imminent danger of their lives, by swimming at least three quarters of a mile, to a vessel which lay off the North River: the captain being alarmed with the cry of “help, help,” ran upon deck, lowered his boat, and picked two of them up. The third made out to reach a Spanish vessel near at hand. One of the poor fellows was an American by birth, and had been impressed—he declares that there are a number of our impressed countrymen now on board. They all protest against the abominable tyranny exercised by the British officers, and say they would rather suffer death than go back again. Yesterday afternoon, five men deserted from the British frigate Venus, lying at anchor about five miles below the city, in the following daring manner: A boat that went from the city was lying along side the frigate, when five of the crew jumped from the port holes into the boat and took their oars and made off. The boats were immediately manned from the ship, and pursued the deserters by five of musketry. At the same moment two boats pursued from the fort at Ellis's Island; but the fugitives succeeded in landing near Powles Hook, and made their escape. Another man jumped from the ship with the others, but missed the boat and fell into the river, and was afterwards taken up and secured.

THE Council of the regency at Cadiz has issued a proclamation dated at Cadiz, June 11, calling a meeting of the Cortes on the island of Leon, in August. They are convened in the name of his majesty Ferdinand VII. Gen. Sarrazin who so singularly abandoned his post at Boulogne and went to England, it is said designs coming out to America. A compromise is stated in a London paper of the beginning of July, to have been permitted between the captors and owners of American vessels and their cargoes, in two French ports, (we think Nantz and Boulogne) by which the captors get one half, and the remainder to be delivered to the suffering owners. Capt. Whitney, of the ship Erato, arrived at N. York from Havannah, informs us, that a Spanish vessel had arrived there from Montevideo, with intelligence of that place having declared itself independent. Philadelphia, August 30. LATEST FROM CADIZ. By the ship Magnet, Myrick, arrived this morning, advices are received from Cadiz to the 28th of July, at which time no occurrence of importance had taken place. Fifteen thousand of the British and Spanish troops were encamped beyond the walls of Cadiz on the Isla. Nothing is said of the defeat of Gen. Crawford's division—and the account of that action, received by a vessel, which left Cadiz on the 15th of July, is said to be incorrect. Flour had fallen in price to 12 dollars and was of dull sale. A distant cannonade and bombardment were continued between the French and the garrison, but with little effect on either side. FIRE AT CONSTANTINOPLE. Extract of a letter from an American at Constantinople, to a gentleman in Boston, dated April 21, 1810. “Yesterday a fire broke out in Pera, one of the divisions of the suburbs, and to the N. and E. of Constantinople.—It raged with the greatest degree of rapidity, and presented a truly terrific sight to the spectators. At 11 o'clock it extended nearly a mile, and formed one continual flame: nor was any stop put to it until sunset, when some stone buildings stopped in some measure its progress, and about midnight its ravages were nearly at an end. The distress of the inhabitants is very great. It is supposed that 30,000 are now in the fields with what they were able to snatch from the destructive element.—It is supposed that about 8000 buildings were entirely consumed.” Lynchburg, Aug. 31. Creston, alias Walsingham. A paper, of which the following is a copy, was found in the jail of Fincastle, on the same morning that the fate of that unfortunate man was discovered; and of whom some notice has already been taken in our former numbers. On being brought before a court, called for the purpose, bail to the amount of two thousand dollars was demanded for his appearance at the next term. This bail Walsingham obtained and offered to the court; but we are told that, on the suggestion of the state's attorney, the further sum of a thousand dollars was required. It was then on the exorbitance of the demand which he deemed oppressive; that this ill-fated man formed his final desperate determination. Whatever may have been his failings or his crimes, the following cannot be read with indifference by any man of sense or sensibility. “The object and end of justice is defeated if laws are made a nullity by irregular commitments, and excessive bail demanded for a bailable offence. Honor is unsafe in such keeping. I prefer death to a forced submission, and indignities consequent on persecution. Spare the stranger, for whom alone my last pulse beat—a knowledge of what would be to her a scene of honor. Let it suffice that I die for her.—She is the innocent, injured victim of circumstances, which she neither (could) foresee or avoid.—No person can claim the trifling property left in this room. Let it be given to some one in charity, without parade. I have no other estate, I have no family. The spirit that once animated this mangled body disdains to ask the least grace for it, of fellow worms.—Perhaps the first paragraph in this note is unjust; if so, let those whom it concerns be happy—to err is human. Let no one say too much or too little has been written.—The dead cannot reply.” From the American Daily Advertiser. Mr. Pulson—I wish you to inform the public, that an ounce of Coloquintida, boiled half an hour in three pints of water, is an effectual preventative against flies settling upon or biting animals; if a sponge is dipped in this liquid, and the animal is rubbed over with it, no fly will molest it. If the Coloquintida, is old, add only a quart of water to an ounce. [Coloquintida is also known by the name of bitter apple.] NOTICE. MY fellow citizens who became purchasers at the sale (on the 30th of Dec. last) of the property of Mary Ridgway, dec'd, are hereby informed that their obligations became due and payable on the first inst. All such as do not tender payment on or before the 15th instant, may expect their notes, &c. will be lodged in the hands of proper officers for collection. This task, although painful in the extreme, must and will be resorted to, in every case of delinquency. GEO. NORTH, Sheriff. September 7, 1810. James O. Boyle, RESPECTFULLY acquaints the merchants and millers of Jefferson, Frederick and Berkeley counties, that he has removed from Pughtown to Market (near Howard) street, Baltimore, where he has commenced the GROCERY BUSINESS, and to purchase and take on storage flour and all other kinds of country produce, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the public. He will give as high for any kind of country produce as the market affords—all orders in his line of business shall be executed with fidelity. His character as a merchant, and knowledge of the market is sufficiently known to need any professions necessary. Suffice for the present, that on trial he will be found to execute orders from the country to the satisfaction of his employers, with punctuality and dispatch. September 7, 1810. The Printers of the Martinsburgh Gazette, the Winchester Gazette, and Republican Constellation are requested to publish the above three times, and forward their accounts to this office. Land for Sale. I WILL sell from 600 to 700 acres of Land, lying in the county of Loudoun, near the mouth of Broad Run, and bounded on the Potomac river and said run. This land is worthy the attention of purchasers, as the utility of plaster in that county has been fully verified. JESSE MOORE. September 7, 1810. Take Notice. THE subscriber intending to remove to the western country about the tenth of October next, requests all persons having claims on him to bring them in for settlement; and those indebted to him to make immediate payment. WM. MALIN. September 7, 1810. Public Sale. ON Tuesday September 11, being the first day of Jefferson court, I will sell for cash, at public sale, 3 valuable young Horses, a cart, a variety of geers, plows, one harrow, and other farming utensils, together with sundry other articles.—The sale to commence at my house at 12 o'clock. FRANCIS TILLET. Charles-Town, Sept. 7, 1810. HANNAH M'NIT, administratrix of William M'Nit, deceased, take notice, that upon the first Saturday in October next, at the house of Jesse Moore, at the Old Furnace, in the county of Jefferson, I shall take the depositions of witnesses, which I shall offer in evidence in a suit in chancery, depending in the county court of Jefferson, in which I am complainant, and you are defendant. A paper, of which the following is a copy, was found in the jail of Fincastle, on the same morning that the fate of that unfortunate man was discovered; and of whom some notice has already been taken in our former numbers. On being brought before a court, called for the purpose, bail to the amount of two thousand dollars was demanded for his appearance at the next term. This bail Walsingham obtained and offered to the court; but we are told that, on the suggestion of the state's attorney, the further sum of a thousand dollars was required. It was then on the exorbitance of the demand which he deemed oppressive; that this ill-fated man formed his final desperate determination. Whatever may have been his failings or his crimes, the following cannot be read with indifference by any man of sense or sensibility. “The object and end of justice is defeated if laws are made a nullity by irregular commitments, and excessive bail demanded for a bailable offence. JOHN AGER. September 7, 1810.

THE Council of the regency at Cadiz has issued a proclamation dated at Cadiz, June 11, calling a meeting of the Cortes on the island of Leon, in August. They are convened in the name of his majesty Ferdinand VII. Gen. Sarrazin who so singularly abandoned his post at Boulogne and went to England, it is said designs coming out to America. A compromise is stated in a London paper of the beginning of July, to have been permitted between the captors and owners of American vessels and their cargoes, in two French ports, (we think Nantz and Boulogne) by which the captors get one half, and the remainder to be delivered to the suffering owners. Capt. Whitney, of the ship Erato, arrived at N. York from Havannah, informs us, that a Spanish vessel had arrived there from Montevideo, with intelligence of that place having declared itself independent. Philadelphia, August 30. LATEST FROM CADIZ. By the ship Magnet, Myrick, arrived this morning, advices are received from Cadiz to the 28th of July, at which time no occurrence of importance had taken place. Fifteen thousand of the British and Spanish troops were encamped beyond the walls of Cadiz on the Isla. Nothing is said of the defeat of Gen. Crawford's division—and the account of that action, received by a vessel, which left Cadiz on the 15th of July, is said to be incorrect. Flour had fallen in price to 12 dollars and was of dull sale. A distant cannonade and bombardment were continued between the French and the garrison, but with little effect on either side. FIRE AT CONSTANTINOPLE. Extract of a letter from an American at Constantinople, to a gentleman in Boston, dated April 21, 1810. “Yesterday a fire broke out in Pera, one of the divisions of the suburbs, and to the N. and E. of Constantinople.—It raged with the greatest degree of rapidity, and presented a truly terrific sight to the spectators. At 11 o'clock it extended nearly a mile, and formed one continual flame: nor was any stop put to it until sunset, when some stone buildings stopped in some measure its progress, and about midnight its ravages were nearly at an end. The distress of the inhabitants is very great. It is supposed that 30,000 are now in the fields with what they were able to snatch from the destructive element.—It is supposed that about 8000 buildings were entirely consumed.” Lynchburg, Aug. 31. ## TO THE Friends of Improvement.

There is now at my Farm upon the Avon, (commonly called Bulskin.)

THE THORO' BRED IMPORTED

Merino Ram, DON CARLOS,

in health and vigour, of the best cast of Spain; the property of Judge Cranch and Doctor Thornton, of Washington City; to be let to Ewes the present season. Upon the encouragement given to him on this experiment, will depend his continuance in this neighbourhood. It is therefore hoped that Farmers and others, will avail themselves of the favorable opportunity now offered, of improving their flocks, from the most valuable race of animals that is known; by making early engagements of their finest Ewes; which ought immediately to be separated from the rest of their flocks, and sent without delay.

It is generally known that Rams of this Race sell at very high prices. I am informed that the prices of all the degrees of Merino blood still keep up; that even the half-blooded ewe lambs sell readily at 25 dollars each; that the first cross upon almost any ewe makes an astonishing improvement of the fleece, and that the animals are hardy and easily kept fat. Here, then, is every encouragement for getting into the breed. I have only to add, that great care will be taken of Ewes sent to my Farm; having disposed of my own flock of sheep, to make ready for them—and having now a pasture where they can run to themselves; but I will not render myself liable for accidents or escapes.

ELIJAH CHAMBERLIN.

N. B. Rams very inferior to the above, stand at 15 dollars and upwards per ewe, without insurance; but he will stand at Ten Dollars, and the owners of the Ram insure the Ewes to be with lamb, if retained by their owners, and well treated, till they year. The money to be returned, if they do not prove with lamb.

The most respectable certificates of the origin and race of the Ram are now in my possession, properly attested both in Spain and in America.

It is also hoped that the patriotic and public spirited will be disposed to countenance and encourage a measure which has for its object the facilitating a ready and convenient communication between the western country and the Atlantic, tending to connect the interests of the eastern and western states, and to perpetuate their union.

New-York, Sept. 3.

By the Fanny, from Liverpool we have received London papers to the 15th July, and Liverpool to the 16th. The following articles, extracted from the papers, are interesting. By a paragraph in a paper of the latest date (the 14th) it appears that a secret treaty has been made between Bonaparte and the emperor of Austria, wherein the latter engages to furnish 150,000 men for the service of the former.—A part of this army was to march into Spain, and the main body, under an archduke, is destined to the east—probably to second Bonaparte's views on the grand seignor. Hostilities had been commenced between Russia and Turkey.

LONDON, July 11.

The ramifications of distress, occasioned by the recent great failures, are extensive; upwards of 70 dockets have already been struck in consequence of them, and more are expected to take place. In the course of yesterday, two considerable failures were announced in the city.

July 12.

Admiral sir Richard Keats is appointed to the command of the British squadron in the Bay of Cadiz. He is universally considered one of the best officers in the navy.

A ship arrived yesterday from the French coast, which she left four days ago. According to the advices brought by her, Bonaparte had enacted a law, which inflicted the penalty of death against any subject of France, who should, after a certain period, visit England. The prohibitory decree against the exportation of grain has been extended from L'Orient to Bordeaux. This report, however, does not accord with the recent information received from Mr. McKenzie, in France: that gentleman is said to have stated in his letters, that his mission goes on smoothly; that he was every where well received; and that he expected shortly to be called from Morlaix to Paris.

It is reported that Custavus Adolphus, the deposed king of Sweden, has made his escape from Switzerland, leaving his family in the care of his father-in-law, the elector of Baden.—According to one account he has reached the Baltic, and is on board the flag ship of admiral Saumarez. Another version of the rumour is, that he had only got four days start of his pursuers, and is supposed to be on his way to England.

The reported rigorous regulations by the French government, against the very limited personal intercourse that subsists between that country and this, are confirmed by letters from Paris of the 4th inst.

They also communicate the following explanation of the decree lately passed, respecting the maritime trade:—

Imperial decree of the 2d July.
The prohibition of grain (established by the decree of the 2d July) from the Island of Schowen to L'Orient, extends itself also to vessels provided with licences.

"No grain may be exported between L'Orient and Bordeaux but by French ships, which shall, at the same time, be obliged to take half their cargoes of wine or brandy.

"Foreign vessels provided with licences, which may enter the ports of France, shall not be allowed to make any further use of the same.

The coasting trade is reserved exclusively, according to the old laws, to French vessels; of which the crews must consist of French masters, and three fourths French sailors."

July 13.
The Funds have experienced a considerable fall, in consequence of the late failures in the city; Omnium being down, at the opening of the market, to par, but towards the close it got up an eighth.

The commercial arrangements between this country and Portugal, were yesterday finally concluded, and are expected to be published in the Gazette of to-morrow evening.

A bag of letters arrived this morning from Heligoland—they mention that
