

FARMER'S REPOSITORY.

CHARLES-TOWN, (Jefferson County, Virginia,) PRINTED BY RICHARD WILLIAMS.

Vol. VI.]

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1814.

[No. 307.]

A Valuable Farm FOR SALE.

CONTAINING TWO HUNDRED ACRES, situated on the east side of the Short Hill, in Loudoun County, Va. distant five miles from the Potomac river, eight from Harper's Ferry, three from Hillsborough, five from Waterford, twelve from Leesburgh, fifty from George Town, fifty five from Alexandria, and sixty-six from Baltimore. About 150 acres of this farm is a rich soil, of improvement, laid off in convenient fields, all inclosed with good fences; the balance is very heavily timbered with locust, walnut, hickory, &c. &c. The improvements are a log dwelling, with three rooms below and two above, with an excellent cellar under one half, a new log barn, with stone sheds, all under a single roof, large enough to hold 20 head of horses, with a complete threshing floor in the middle; near the House is a ring of the best water in the county, also an orchard of choice fruit trees.—As persons desirous of purchasing such property, will no doubt view it, any further description is deemed unnecessary.

PETER MILLER, junior,
January 27, 1814.

NOTICE.

THERE has a misunderstanding taken place with many respectable farmers of Jefferson and Frederick counties, relative to terms offered for manufacturing wheat at the Rock's Mill, Jefferson county, that it was the subscriber who made these proposals. This is to inform the public that he gives twenty barrels of superfine flour for every hundred bushels of merchantable wheat, delivered at Muse's Mill, and delivers flour to market at the market price for freight, and the highest price for wheat in cash.

ROBERT BOND,
Muse's Mill, January 27.

Fulling and Dying.

THE subscriber takes this method to inform his friends and the public that he intends to quit the employ of Mr. Wickersham, with whom he has been for three seasons, and has rented Mr. Benjamin Deeler's Fulling Mill, at Mill's Grove, three miles from Charles-Town, where he intends carrying on the Fulling and Dying business in all its various branches. He hopes by his strict and steady attention, and the knowledge he has of the business, to be able to render general satisfaction to all who may please to favour him with their custom.

Those who are necessitated for their cloth can have it dressed on the shortest notice.

Persons having undressed cloth, at the Fulling Mill will be well served if they measure, and give directions for dressing it.

JAMES L. MORRIS,
January 27.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber informs the public that James L. Morris has left my employ by consent of both parties. Those who have cloth to be dressed may depend on having it well coloured, and finished with as quick dispatch as possible.

JONA. WICKERSHAM,
January 27.

BOATING.

THE Subscribers have rented the Ware House formerly occupied by Messrs. Wager & Ball, and are now ready to receive and transport flour to George-Town or Alexandria, at the customary price.

ANNI & BECKHAM,
Harper's-Ferry, Jan. 27. 4w.

30 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living near Charles-Town, Jefferson County, Va. on Sunday the 23d instant, a negro man named formerly the property of John Wager, at Harper's Ferry. He is about 21 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, very black, can speak Dutch, and is very talkative. Had on when he went away new pantaloons, waistcoat and roundabout of mixed black and white linsey, new shoes with double soles full of nails, yarn stockings footed with a different colour from the leg, and an old fur hat pretty much worn; he is an excellent boatman, and may endeavor to get employment in that way.—All boatmen and others are cautioned against employing him at their peril. 10 Dollars will be given for apprehending said negro in jail, so that I get him again, if taken 15 miles from home; 20 dollars if 30 miles, or the above reward if any further distance.

JERRY,

HENRY GARNHART,
January 27, 1814.

Valuable Property FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale the lot of land on which he now resides, near Charles-Town, Jefferson County, Va. This lot contains about 20 acres of first rate limestone land, is well improved, and in a high state of cultivation. It lies immediately adjoining said town, on the road leading from thence to Harper's Ferry, and is admirably calculated as a stand for a tavern. Also a valuable lot adjoining the above, upon which there is a comfortable small dwelling house, and an excellent brick yard. Also several valuable unimproved lots in said town, the most of which are in good situations on the main street. An additional quantity of from 30 to 60 acres of land adjoining the above mentioned lot of 30 acres, with a proportion of timber convenient thereto may be had should a purchaser require it. Any person wishing to purchase may know the terms by applying to the editor of the Farmer's Repository, or to the subscriber, on the premises.

JAMES ANDERSON,
Jan. 6.

Berryville Academy.

THE Trustees of Berryville Academy give notice that they have succeeded in their attempts to obtain a suitable person to preside over the Institution under their care. The Reverend Charles Henry Kennon, late Vice-President of Hampden Sydney College, Prince Edward County, Va. is to take charge of the Academy for the future, and will enter upon the duties of his office on Monday 23d instant.

The English, Latin, and Greek languages, and the usual academical course of science will be taught by, and under the direction and superintendance of Mr. Kennon. The Latin and Greek languages and the higher branches of science will be taught by Mr. Kennon himself. English, Arithmetic, the Mathematics, &c. by a teacher of Mr. Kennon's selecting. The respectability of this Gentleman's character, the sacred office he sustains, his well known reputation as a teacher, and the high and important trust heretofore reposed in him, where he was best known, by the very respectable board of Trustees of Hampden Sydney College, are securities amply sufficient of his being well qualified for his present office. And the Trustees pledge themselves to the public to use every exertion in their power to assist in superintending the conduct and morals of the students, and in suppressing vice and impiety in the village in which the Academy is situated.

The price of tuition, will continue till next new-year's day, as heretofore—when it is probable some alterations may take place, of which timely notice shall be given.

By order of the TRUSTEES,
November 20. 2m.

NOTICE.

NEARLY one year has elapsed since the dissolution of the partnership of Thomas N. Bennett, J. C. and still there remains many accounts due them; and to enable me to discharge the same from my mind, I expect those indebted to call and settle the same before the first day of next March, as it will have been long since to me, and unprofitable to them. I must also request those who have contracted debts with me, to settle the first of last March to attend to the above notice.

To my old and punctual customers I tender my sincere thanks, and hope for a continuance of their favors.

FROM THE MARYLAND REPUBLICAN.

THE RUSSIAN CELEBRATION, OR, Modern Toryism in Maryland exposed.

Agreeably to public notice, on Thursday last about an hundred bravos and desperadoes from different parts of the state, and Tory-town in the district of Columbia, assembled in this city to celebrate, by a public procession and an oration, the late reported victories of the allies in Germany, over Bonaparte. Great preparations had been made by the procurators, and we are credibly informed that upwards of five hundred special invitations were sent out with a view of having it "fully attended." All, however, would not do. The federalists generally did not come into the measure, and of course refused to join in the unparliamentary and unbecoming display of their own impudicium. In the whole state, and the district of Columbia, there was but about one hundred capital villains to be found, who possess the consummate impudence, publicly to show their attachment to the British government, and disaffection to their own. A number of these fellows arrived in the city the preceding evening, and so conscious were they of their diabolical purposes, that with a cowardice characteristic of villainy, they absolutely refused to sleep in separate rooms, (although in a federal boarding house) and we are informed, had nine beds put in one apartment for their accommodation. We only mention this circumstance to prove the impudence of those who were concerned in the celebration, sensibly felt the compunctions of their own consciences, and feared the revenge of an insulted populace.

The procession, (headed by the committee of arrangement, Levin Winder, three of his council, and a number of the federal members of the house of delegates) was formed at the federal hotel about half past eleven o'clock, and arranged and conducted by two noted Englishmen, one of them actually a Tory during the American Revolution.

Such were the principal actors in the scene of their procession. From the hotel they marched to the church of England, (all in character) where the oration was to be delivered by Robert G. Harper, (not in his shirt tail as on a former occasion) the service was opened and closed by parson Weems, (who had been prevailed upon to officiate after the refusal of all the rest of the ministers in the city) in two short prayers, the latter of which only, we had an opportunity of hearing.

To the honor of this occasion we must say that he acquitted himself on this occasion every American ought, but in a style not very palatable we presume, to the Gossack gentry. His prayers for the President of the United States, and the heads of departments, was given by parson Weems, (who had been prevailed upon to officiate after the refusal of all the rest of the ministers in the city) in two short prayers, the latter of which only, we had an opportunity of hearing.
