Wool Carding.
The subscriber's Wool Carding Machines are again in operation at Mr. Kable's Mill, on Bullskin and ready to receive Wool to card. They are supplied with new cards of a superior quality. The machines are attended by an experienced hand, and will insure as good work as any machine in the country. It is necessary to have the wool in good order when sent to the machine for carding. The price of carding wool into rolls, is eight cents per pound.
JAMES WALKER.
Avon Mill, May 18, 1817.

FRESH GOODS,
consisting in part of DRY GOODS, accompanied with an elegant assortment of Ladies' Hats, and Bonnets, the newest fashion.
ALSO,
Wine, Spirits, Cogniac Brandy, Sugars, Coffee, Chocolate and Teas, and a good assortment of QUEEN'S WARE, all of which will be sold very low for cash.
JOHN CARLILE.
Charles town, May 14.

Wool Carding.
The subscriber informs his customers and the public in general, that he has again commenced Carding Wool, at his
Woolen Factory,
On the main road leading from Shepherdstown to Martinsburg, about two miles from the former and eight from the latter. He flatters himself he will be able to do his work in a superior manner, having got two new and elegant
Carding Machines,
Which will enable him to do the work as fast as brought to the factory.—Wool brought to the factory must be washed clean, picked and greased, with one pound of clean soft grease to every eight pounds of wool.
JAMES CRAWFORD.

300 Dollars Reward.
RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living near Smithfield, Jefferson county, Virginia, on the 24th instant, two negro men named
BILL AND OSBOURN.
BILL is about thirty-one years of age, a complexion, tolerably well made, has a lump on his right ankle, occasioned by a cut, and limps a little in his walk, has a mole on his left cheek, a mark on one of his eye brows, and a very considerable trembling in his hands. He took with him sundry articles of clothing, among which were a brown coat, dark corded pantaloons, and a fur hat.
OSBOURN is about twenty-seven years of age, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, very black, well made, large white eyes, white teeth with dark gums, and has a good countenance. He also took with him considerable clothing, part of which were a brown coat, silk waist coat, blue cassimere pantaloons, and boots. It is probable that the above negroes have obtained free passes, and may attempt to pass as free men, by changing their names.
The subscriber will give the above reward for said negroes, (if apprehended out of Jefferson county,) or one hundred and fifty dollars for either of them, delivered to the subscriber, or lodged in any jail in the U. States, so that I get them again, and if apprehended in Jefferson county, one hundred dollars for each of them.
JAMES SHIRLEY.

Stray Horse.
Strayed from the subscriber about the middle of last month,
A small bay Horse,
about 14 hands high, rides tolerably well, no marks particularly recollected, but I believe one of his hind feet is white, and has a small star in his forehead. All reasonable charges will be paid to any person who will return said horse.
ROBERT WORTHINGTON.

A few copies of the second edition of Doctor Ewell's celebrated
FAMILY PHYSICIAN.

TREATING in the most clear and concise manner, almost every disease to which the human body is subject, with their names, symptoms, causes, cures, regimen, and means of prevention—A Dispensary for preparing family medicines, and a Glossary for explaining technical terms.
Since, next to good conscience, good health is the greatest of all earthly blessings, it is self-evidently the duty of every one to study such a book as this. But, Housekeepers especially should never be without it. They might learn from it,
1st. How to prevent a great deal of sickness in their families.
2d. They might soon learn to treat common complaints without the expense and trouble of constantly sending for a Physician.
3d. By this learning to administer suitable medicine soon as the disease appeared, they might nip it in the very bud, and thus save all the miseries, also loss of time, which long lingering illness occasions. And above all, they might, under God, often save precious lives in their families, and thus escape all those bitter reflections which have sometimes pierced the hearts of parents and masters, who, because of the inadvertence or expense of sending for a distant Physician, had put off too long, and thus brought on themselves the blood of their children and servants.

The author of the following Poetry is about publishing a volume of his effusions. If his description of the "Isle of Flowers" is a specimen of his poetical abilities, no other recommendation is necessary to secure his book an extensive perusal, and establish his fame as a poet.
Newport, Mer.

THE ISLE OF FLOWERS.

BY N. HILLWRIGHT.
"It is reported that there is a small Island in Lake Huron, remarkable for its romantic scenery. Its shores are composed of granite, which defends it from the encroachments of the waves; and its verdure is represented the most luxuriant that can be imagined.—The Indians suppose it the residence of a good Spirit, and denominate it "The Isle of Flowers."

In Huron's wave a lovely Isle
Gems the blue water's vast expanse—
There Nature wears her sweetest smile,
And sun beams o'er her beauties dance.

In vain the angry billows beat
Against its rock encircled shore;
The spray but makes its blossoms sweet,
Expanding 'mid the tempest's roar.

But when the winds and waves are hush'd,
And evening's shade is stealing on—
When the last beams of day have blush'd,
And Hesper mounts his cloudless throne—

How gently weep the dews of night,
Which bow the slender hare-bell's head,
And falling noiseless, sweetly light
Upon the spotless lily's bed.

Oh! were but man like that fair Isle,
In vain would trouble's tempests gloom;
Hope's faithful flow'rs around should smile,
And Faith and Resignation bloom.

When Life's last lingering beam shall fade,
The radiant star of peace would rise,
And dews of grace at evening shade,
His spirit nurture for the skies.

SOLLOQUY ON A SCULL.

BY LORD BYRON.
Look on this broken arch, this ruined wall, Its chambers desolate, and portals foul; Yes, this was once Ambition's airy hall, The dome of thought, the palace of the soul, Behold through each lack-lustre, eyesless hole, The gay recess of Wisdom and of Wit, And passion's host that never brook'd controul; Can all, saint, sage, or philosopher, e'er writ, People this lonely tower, this tenement reit.

The Taylor's Dream.—A taylor, who was dangerously ill, had a remarkable dream.—He saw fluttering in the air, a piece of cloth of prodigious length, composed of all the cabbage he had made, of a variety of colours. The angel of death held this piece of patch-work in one of his hands, and with the other gave the taylor several strokes with a piece of iron. The taylor, awaking in a fright, made a vow, that if he recovered he would cabbage no more.—He soon recovered.—As he was diffident of himself, he ordered one of his apprentices to put him in mind of his dream whenever he cut out a suit of clothes. The taylor was for some time obedient to the instructions given him by his apprentice. But a gentleman having sent for him to make a coat out of a very rich stuff, his virtue could not resist the temptation. His apprentice put him in mind of his dream, but to no purpose: "I am tired with your talk about the dream," says the taylor, "there was nothing like this in the whole piece of patch work I saw in my dream, and I observed likewise, that there was a piece deficient; that which I am now going to take will render it complete.

From the Sacket's Harbor Gazette.

On Saturday, the 10th inst. two brothers, with their families, consisting of their wives (who were sisters), and four small children, started from Henderson's Harbor up the lake in a small open boat, with their effects, purposing to remove to the Genesee country. We are credibly informed that at the time they left Henderson's Harbor, the gulf of their craft was but a very few inches above water. They were warned of their danger, and entreated, not to hazard their lives by going in so small a boat, on a lake so subject to sudden flaws;—yet it appears the Mr. Whites were determined to proceed let the consequence be what it might—they went—and the only tidings we have from these untimely adventurers, are that their four children, and the boat in which they sailed, had been picked up on the lake. Without doubt these two entire families, together with the mother of the Mr. Whites, and a boy committed to their charge, supposed to have been formerly from Utica, a mounting in all, to eleven souls, have been precipitately hurried from time into eternity. The funeral of the children was attended last Wednesday in the vicinity of this place, at the house of Mr. Smith, the father of the deceased mother—where an appropriate discourse was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Os-

300 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living near Smithfield, Jefferson county, Virginia, on the 24th instant, two negro men named

BILL AND OSBORN.

BILL is about thirty-one years of age, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, of a yellow complexion, tolerably well made, has a lump on his right ankle, occasioned by a cut, and limps a little in his walk, has a mole on his left cheek, a mark on one of his eyes brows, and a very considerable trembling in his hands. He took with him sundry articles of clothing, among which were a brown coat, dark corded pantaloons, and a fur hat.
OSBORN is about twenty-seven years of age, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, very black, well made, large white eyes, white teeth with dark gums, and has a good countenance. He also took with him considerable clothing, part of which were a brown coat, silk waist coat, blue cassimere pantaloons, and boots. It is probable that the above negroes have obtained free passes, and may attempt to pass as free men, by changing their names.

The subscriber will give the above reward for said negroes, (if apprehended out of Jefferson county,) or one hundred and fifty dollars for either of them, delivered to the subscriber, or lodged in any jail in the U. States, so that I get them again, and if apprehended in Jefferson county, one hundred dollars for each of them.

Samuel Wolgamore Defendant.
IN CHANCERY.
The Defendant Samuel Wolgamore, not having entered his appearance and given security agreeably to the act of Assembly and the rules of this Court, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that he is not an inhabitant of this Commonwealth; upon motion of the complainant by his counsel: It is ordered that the said Samuel Wolgamore do appear here on the first day of the next June Court, to be held for this County, and answer the bill of the complainant; and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Farmer's Repository, printed in this county, for two months successively, and posted at the door of the Court-house of said county.
A Copy—Teste,
R. G. HITE, Clk.
