

FARMER'S REPOSITORY.

CHARLES-TOWN, (Jefferson County, Virginia,) PRINTED BY RICHARD WILLIAMS.

Vol. XI.]

WEDNESDAY, May 13, 1818.

[No. 527.]

JUDGE TUCKER'S FAREWELL TO THE MUSE.

As by some tyrant's stern command,
A wretch forsakes his native land,
In foreign climes condemn'd to roam,
An endless exile from his home; Pensive he treads the destin'd way,
And dreads to go, nor dares to stay; Till on some neighbouring mountain's brow, He stops and turns his eyes below:
There melting at the well-known view, Drops a last tear and bids adieu!
So I, thus doom'd from these to part, Gay queen of Fancy and of Art, Reluctant mov'd with doubtful mind,
Of stop and often look behind!
Companion of my tender age, Serenely gay and sweetly sage,
How blissful were we wont to rove, By verdant hill or shady grove;
Where fervent bees with humming voice, Around the honied oak rejoice;
And aged elms, with awful bend, In long cathedral walks extend.
Lull'd by the lapse of gliding floods—Cheer'd by the warbling of the woods; How blest my days, my thoughts how free,
In sweet society with thee!
Then all was joyous, all was young,
And years unheeded, roll'd along.
But now the pleasing dream is o'er,
These scenes must charm me now no more!
Lost to the field and torn from you—Farewell! a long—a last adieu!
Mewranging Courts and stubborn Law,
To smoke and crowds, and cities draw.
There selfish faction rules the day,
And Pride and Avarice through the way; Diseases taint the murky air;
And midnight conflagrations glare.
Loose Revelry and Riot hold,
In frighted streets their orgies hold;
Or when in silence all is lone, Till murder walks her lonely round.
No room for peace—no room for you, Adieu, celestial nymph, adieu!

[Judge Tucker's Blackstone.

A spleeny blacksmith, that fancied himself sick, would frequently tease a neighboring physician to give him relief; knowing him to be in perfect health, yet not willing to offend him, told him not to eat any thing that was heavy or windy. The blacksmith went off well satisfied—but on considering in his mind what food was heavy and windy, and being ignorant, took he posts to the doctor, who being out of patience, said, "don't you know what things are heavy and windy?"
"No," answered the blacksmith—"Why, then I will tell you, said the doctor, there's your anvil is heavy and your bellows are windy—do not eat either and you will do well enough."

DAYS OF OLD.

The townships of Dartmouth, Newport, New-Bedford, Freetown and Fairhaven, comprising one tract were purchased by Gov.
Bradford and his associates, in 1665, of Wasemquin, and Wamsutta, his son, for the following considerations; 30 yards of cloth, 8 moose skins, 14 axes, 15 hoes, 15 pair of breeches, 8 blankets, 2 kettles, 1 cloak, 2 pounds of wampum, 8 pair of shoes, 1 iron pot and 10 shillings in other commodities.

We may add to this curious article, the fact that the whole of the land on which the flourishing town of Norfolk now stands, was bought from the original Indian proprietor (Old Nick Wise) and the title confirmed by his son (Young Nick Wise) for 10,000 lbs.
Tobacco, valued at 228 dollars 89 cents.

The Elegant Horse PRINCE REGENT.

WILL stand this season at the subscriber's stable, about five miles from Charlestown, and the same distance from Shep-herdstown, near the main road leading from the one place to the other, and be let to mares at Six Dollars the season, and be let the first day of September next, but may be discharged with Five Dollars, if paid in the season. Two Dollars and Fifty Cents the single leap, to be paid when the mare is put to the horse, if not then paid, to be considered as engaged for the season. Ten Dollars for insurance, to be paid when the mare proves with foal. Removing the mare out of the county, or not attending regularly every eighth or ninth day throughout the season, forfeits the insurance money. The season will commence the first day of April and end on the 27th day of June. The greatest attention will be paid, but no responsibility for accidents.

PRINCE REGENT is a beautiful Chesnut sorrel, handsomely marked, five years old this spring, sixteen hands and a half high, and well proportioned. His sire was the well known horse Irish Grey, which stood in this county several seasons, his dam was a Paul Jones mare. It is deemed unnecessary to say any thing more of his pedigree, as by his appearance will recommend him to all impartial judges.
JOHN ENGLE.
April 1.

The full bred Horse,
YOUNG ARCHDUKE, WILL stand the ensuing season, at my stable, two miles from Shepherds-Town, on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays; and on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays in each week, in Charlestown, and be let to eight dollars the season—sixteen dollars to ensure a foal, and four dollars the single leap; parting with, removing, or irregular attendance with the mare, forfeits the en-surance. The season commenced on the 1st of April, and will end the last of June.

PEDIGREE.
Young Archduke was got by the imported horse called Archduke, his dam was got by the imported horse called the Dey of Algiers; Old Archduke was bred in England by Sir Frank Standish, and was got by the celebrated stallion Sir Peter Tazell, his dam Horatio, sister to Achilles, his grandam Concess, by Blank Ribb, his g. grandam by Governor, his g. g. grandam by Wynne's Arabian, his g. g. g. grandam was Grasshopper, with a pointed stick, inconceivable numbers of grubs have perished in a letter to the Society, on the information of one who actually experienced the fact, it appears that
by a ditch dug for the purpose, across a field, the passage of cutworms from a field which had been destroyed, to one uninjured, was obstructed, and six bushels of grubs were thus collected. This would seem indubitably to prove that they are migratory, and to show the consequences of leaving part of a field unploughed in the autumn, which affords harbour for grubs, which may from thence vanish over the fall ploughed portion. Several farmers have escaped the grubs, by steeping the seed corn in spirits of turpentine, and rolling it in plaster.

Soddy grounds should be rolled, and well harrowed, in the direction of the furrows; after being broken up so deeply, as to place beyond vegetation, the sods; and by this excluding air, and by clean, shallow and frequent stirring, so as not to disturb it, to prevent its decay until a capacity to grow.
The dead fibres (nature's restoratives), are thus retained in the soil, for appropriate mature. Lime, plaster, marle, &c. to co-operate with. The sod left on edge, either dries uselessly, or vegetates, with all its pests.

THE COLLER is too little used; and mistakenly supposed to consolidate too much; whereas it crushes and separates clods, and loosens the soil. On clay, and heavy ground, the SPRAY COLLER is best; it is on all hide bound surfaces—of meadows and mowing grounds particularly; but like all other operations, rolling must be performed judiciously, and adapted to soils and circumstances. Few, indeed, are the soils, on which it is not highly beneficial.

GOLDEN RULE IN AGRICULTURE.
A practical husbandman of the highest authority assures us, that the golden rule of agriculture—to use such manures as will make heavy land lighter, and light land heavier, cold land hotter, and hot land colder—must never be lost sight of. He who knows and follows this rule, and he only, is a farmer.

WELLINGTON,
WILL stand this season at the subscriber's stable, about four miles from Charlestown, on the Warm Spring road, and be let to mares at SIX DOLLARS the season, payable the first day of September next, but may be discharged by the payment of FIVE DOLLARS if paid within the season.
THREE DOLLARS the single leap, to be paid when the mare is put to the horse, but if not paid then, to be considered as engaged for the season. TEN DOL-LARS for insurance, to be paid when the mare proves with foal. Removing the mare out of the county, or not attending regularly every eighth or ninth day throughout the season, forfeits the insurance money.
The season will commence the first of April, and end the 25th of June. The greatest attention will be paid, but no responsibility for accidents.

WELLINGTON is a beautiful chestnut sorrel, handsomely marked, four years old this spring, seventeen and a half hands high, and well proportioned. His sire was the well known horse Irish Grey, which stood in this county several seasons; his dam was a Florizel mare. It is deemed unnecessary to say any thing more, as his appearance will recommend him to all impartial judges.

AGRICULTURAL

FROM NOTICES FOR A YOUNG FARMER.
BY JUDGE PETERS.

Plough and harrow soddy fields in the fall; and add Lime, harrowed in that season, if it be within your power. In addition to other advantages of this operation, you will thereby escape either wholly, or for the most part, the annoyances of the Corn Grubbs. In what mode the destruction of the grubs, or the eggs of their parent, (be it a Beetle, or what it may, for on this subject there are varieties of opinion;) is by these operations accomplished, or their ravages prevented, is a subject of laudable curiosity, but the fact of the purpose being achieved is all important; and in numerous instances, inconceivably proved. That spring ploughing is generally inefficient, is too frequently and fatally known. Instances of failure to produce the effect mentioned, by fall ploughing, have been adduced. On examination into the facts of some, it is found, that the operation has not been performed either well, or in due time, and only partially, and in other cases either uncommonly grub years, or other peculiar circumstances, have occurred. The great balance of facts is, most assuredly, favorable to this practice; and warrants its adoption. It is so beneficial, in other respects, that it should be followed, even without regard to its effects on the grub. Some acute diseases defy common remedies, as dama and mumps resist common foods; yet yield to extraordinary means. Nevertheless, medicine and medical skill, and the ventures of overflows, should not be set at nought. Nor should any beneficial operation in husbandry be disregarded, because it does not in every instance succeed.

Fall ploughing enables you to plant corn early; and it is better thus to risk spring frosts, which do less injury to your plants, than do early frosts, in autumn, to the corn fully grown.

It is alleged by several highly respectable farmers, that in holes made near the hills
with a pointed stick, inconceivable numbers
of grubs have perished in a letter to the Society, on the information of one who actually experienced the fact, it appears that
by a ditch dug for the purpose, across a field,

THE greatest extent of inland navigation known to the world, is between the cities of New Orleans and New York; there being 27 miles land carriage in all that great northern route of near 4000 miles. This communication, though at present but little, if at all used, was evidently intended to answer some wise purpose, as nature never exerts herself in vain; and may, in the course of human events, become a chain of social union, and a high road of commerce, between those remote sections of our vast and growing republic.

Lake Pontchartrain, approaching the city on the west, and communicating with it through a canal into the Bayou St. John, although important, will assume a new
character in relation to New Orleans, when the Floridas are made a component
part of the United States.

With the most unparalleled endowments,
New Orleans languishes under an unwise administration. The last summer, they were

NEW ORLEANS.

Extract of a letter to a gentleman in London, dated N Orleans, March 10, 1818.

This city is destined at no distant period to become to the United States, what Alexandria was to Egypt, and what Paris is to France; the emporium of its commerce, its wealth, its population, and its political greatness, in relation to the rest of the world; and also the hot bed of contagion, luxury, effeminacy, crime, treachery, and civil discord.

A philosopher standing on an eminence at the source of Alleghany or Monongahela, and casting the eye of fancy down the stupendous plain inclining to the Gulf of Mexico, would recognize New Orleans as the great reservoir of its overflowing opulence; the Ohio, Illinois, Missouri and Mississippi, together with all their constituent branches, would only be regarded as so many natural highways, through which the tributary fruits of those vast and fertile countries that they water, must be poured into this depot of the commerce of a continent.

The more we contemplate the present and prospective resources of New Orleans, the less will we be prepared to set the limits to its increase. The city is built in the shape of a crescent, the curve of the river constituting a safe and commodious harbor, in which there are at this time 250 sail of vessels. With what transport does the eye of patriotism repose on this spectacle! It is the angust evidence of the present prosperity of our country, and the earnest of her future political glory.

Defended on one side by the river, and on the other by a swamp that no labor can reclaim, and no effort can penetrate; it is only to be approached through a defile three fourths of a mile in width, which being protected by a breast work, manned by 5000 men (for a greater number could not operate) New Orleans in point of strength, is another Gibraltar; she laughs defiance at the most powerful and disciplined invaders.

The wealth of a country is to be estimated by the number and wealth of its inhabitants; or in other words, by the extent of its agriculture and commerce. The citizens of Mississippi and Louisiana will vend at this port during the present year, 2,000,000 dollars worth of cotton and sugar, the fruits of their last year's industry, beside great quantities of rice, indigo, &c. It is not uncommon for the planters of these states, to receive an annual income of 250,000 from their farms; there are instances of their incomes amounting to 500,000 dollars, and that of Hampton is conjectured to be upwards of 120,000 dollars. The humble laborer, whose all consists in eight or ten mules, has been known to make 100 dollars per day during the present winter, by dragging cotton from the levee to the warehouses, usually about 200 yards; for which he is paid the enormous sum of one dollar per bale. The aggregate increase of the commerce of this port, during the last twelve months, according to the report from the custom house, was more than one fifth. Where the earth is thus bountiful, where industry is thus rewarded, what human prescience can fix bounds to the prosperity of the country?
Though already a rallying point for the luxuries of the world—the theatre of enterprize for people of all tongues and nations; although the ensigns of every country are proudly pressing forward, in competition for her commerce, New Orleans is but the germ of what she must necessarily become.

When De Soto discovered the Mississippi, he mistook it for a great inland lake—such was the usurpation of its waters. Women have been persuaded that at this time, that immeasurable waste of inundation could be transformed into a continued village from New Orleans to Baton Rouge, fronted by delightful orange groves, and ornamental gardens bordering the margin of the water; and that by means of the steam engine, that stupendous discovery in mechanical philosophy, the traveller would be propelled at the rate of four miles an hour against this angry and overwhelming current, surrounded by all the elegancies and luxuries of a modern hotel!

The greatest extent of inland navigation
known to the world, is between the cities of New Orleans and New York; there being 27 miles land carriage in all that great northern route of near 4000 miles. This communication, though at present but little, if at all used, was evidently intended to answer
some wise purpose, as nature never exerts herself in vain; and may, in the course of
human events, become a chain of social
union, and a high road of commerce, between those remote sections of our vast and
growing republic.

Lake Pontchartrain, approaching the city
on the west, and communicating with it through a canal into the Bayou St. John, although important, will assume a new
character in relation to New Orleans,
when the Floridas are made a component
part of the United States.

With the most unparalleled endowments,
New Orleans languishes under an unwise administration. The last summer, they were scourged by the Yellow Fever; still no effort is made to pave the streets, or improve their cleanliness—when by a disbursement of 100,000 dollars, water could be conveyed to the door of every citizen.

thousand mounted men—and the most of them having very valuable horses. A victory had been obtained over an isolated party of the Pindarces. The Nizam assists the British all in his power against the Marhattas, who are his natural enemies, and by the success against them already, his subjects have been relieved from the immense tribute.

FROM A LIVERPOOL PAPER OF MARCH 27. Received at the office of the New York Commercial Advertiser.

Recent French papers abound with accounts of earthquakes and other natural phenomena which continue to strike the various nations of the Continent with terror.

Letters from the Tyrol announce that the Glacier of Orler, in the vicinity of Chiavenna, has increased this winter, in a most extraordinary manner, notwithstanding the general mildness of the season.

FROM THE NORFOLK BEACON. The following relation is given by gentlemen who were witnesses of the fact while going up James River, on Friday last, in the steam boat Powhatan.

Point they observed an Eagle, which, after hovering about the shore for some time, made a sudden dart into the water, where he remained, caught sight, about two seconds, and then re-appeared, bearing in his talons a fish, apparently three feet in length.

THE MARYLAND HERALD. Hagerstown, and Washington, Leesburgh, are requested to insert the above till day of sale, and send their accounts to this office for payment.

LAND FOR SALE. The subscriber offers for sale, on very moderate terms, a valuable tract of land, lying about four miles from Shepherdstown, containing

One Hundred Acres, about 75 of which are in a tolerable state of cultivation. The soil is inferior to none in the county. There is a good well of water on the premises—the buildings are excellent. For further particulars, apply to Robert A. H. at Harper's Ferry.

Burr Mill Stone Manufactory. THE subscriber informs his friends and the public in general, that he has just received a fresh supply of first quality of Burr Blocks, direct from France. Persons desirous of getting burr mill stones of the first quality, can have them on the shortest notice at my shop in Alexandria. I flatter myself to be able to make burr stones equal to any in the country—All work done at my shop will be warranted.

Overseers of the Poor. THE annual meeting of the Overseers of the Poor, for the county of Jefferson, will be held at Henry Haines's Tavern, in Charlestown, on the second Monday in June next. All the members of the board, and all persons concerned are requested to attend.

By order of the President, CHARLES GIBBS, C. O. P.

ESTRAY HORSE. STRAYED from the subscriber, on or about the 24th of April last, a Light Sorrel Horse, about seven years old, no particular marks recollected, but that of the saddle having rubbed the hair off his side under the flap, fish faced and short ears. Any person giving me information of said horse that will enable me to get him in again, or bringing him home, shall be liberally rewarded.

ESTRAY MARE. TAKEN up trespassing on the subscriber's farm, a small brown Mare, with a large blaze in her face, and three white feet, about 13½ hands high, and 6 or 7 years old.—Appraised to 35 dollars.

MATTHEW RANSON, Charlestown, May 15.

of Rio Janeiro, bearing N. W. by N. and the following day we anchored off the town. We found here several men of war of different nations. Upon entering the harbor, two salutes of twenty one guns each were fired from this ship; the first of which was returned, gun for gun, from one of the Forts, and the second was answered by the Portuguese Admiral's ship.

On the 6th inst, the Coronation of the Prince Regent was solemnized, when he was proclaimed King of Portugal, under the title of John VI. The morning of that day was ushered in by a discharge of cannon from the fortresses, and vessels of different nations lying in the harbor. The salutes were repeated at meridian and sunset of that day; for three days in succession the same ceremony was observed, and at night, the town, and many vessels in the harbor were splendidly illuminated. Three salutes were fired from our ship on the 6th, but they were not repeated on the ensuing two days.

Our whole ship's company have been uncommonly healthy, and continue so to this moment. We sail to-morrow, I believe, for St. Catharines.

WILMINGTON, (DEL.) MAY 2. LATEST FROM SOUTH AMERICA. By a late arrival several gentlemen in this neighborhood have received letters from the frigate Congress, at Buenos Ayres, where she arrived the 25th February. One of them has been kindly put into our hands, and we have the promise of several more, in season for next paper: from this we make the following extracts:

BUENOS AYRES, MARCH 4. "The Portuguese are still in possession of Montevideo. They have there four or five thousand men. Artigas, who is in possession of the surrounding country, keeps them cooped up within their lines, (extending about three miles from the city.) Without these they dare not venture, unless in considerable bodies.—The Portuguese and Buenos Ayrean government are on good terms: Artigas is at war with both. The Buenos Ayreans sent lately several hundred men against him: These, it is said, he defeated. He carries on a sort of Partizan warfare; his soldiers are little better than savages, generally mounted men, admirable riders, inured to hardship and danger. It is impossible for any army to operate successfully against them. They make an attack or an incursion, and are off in a moment.

"We could not get our frigate higher up the river than Monte Video: We made our passage from there to this place in a small schooner.

"Mr. M. received yesterday a letter from Chili, in which the arrival of the Ontario is mentioned; he went into Valparaiso, notwithstanding her having been forbidden by the Blockading Squadron. A large Spanish vessel lately arrived there, prize to the Adaline privateer. San Martin is in the neighborhood of Valparaiso.

"Puerreydon is still in power here; and according to all accounts is not a little despotic. The clergy have great influence: there is nothing like toleration, or liberty of the press.

"It is rumored that Puerreydon the Director will shortly be displaced by the Congress, by whom this officer, the chief magistrate, is elected.

"The Commissioners have not yet been presented. They are, I believe, to wait upon the Secretary of State to-morrow. How long we shall remain here, or what course we shall pursue, I know not.—I think it probable that our stay here will be limited to a month, or at the extent, six weeks.—I hope to be at home the latter part of June.

"The weather here is very warm. The climate, though a fine one, does not correspond to what I expected. We have a profusion of fine fruit, particularly.—The heat and dust (the latter is particularly annoying) render walking so disagreeable, that I have not yet been much abroad."

We are verbally informed that another letter gives some account of the rescue of a Portuguese sailor, belonging to the Congress, while on shore at Rio Janeiro. This circumstance, with some inadmissible requisitions from the authorities on shore, occasioned a correspondence, of considerable spirit on the part of Capt. Sinclair, which occasioned the King of Brazil, &c. who ordered the spirited department of Capt. Sinclair, to desire his attendance at Court, where he met with a flattering reception from the Portuguese monarch, who, in the course of conversation, observed, that he wished to cultivate the good will of the Americans; among whose virtues, he said, that of sincerity was beyond any other nation.

It was signified by the municipal authority that Capt. Sinclair must not depart without permission.—This however was disregarded; and the frigate passed the fort with lighted matches, prepared to resist any attempt to interrupt her.—(Watchman.)

CINCINNATI, April 15. THE VERMONT PILGRIMS. On Saturday afternoon last these miserable looking men, women, and children passed through the skirts of this place, and encamped, in the woods, about a mile from town. The Mayor and Council, having authentic information of their affliction by the small pox, and of their extreme illness, very wisely, by a committee, requested them to pass by at a great distance from town as convenient as would permit.

During the whole of Sunday curiosity led of citizens and people from the surrounding country, to see them. The road from Cincinnati in the direction of these wayfaring Pilgrims, was almost literally choked with passengers, each with anxious eye, pressing forward, for a peep at the seat of filth. Few, however, returned with "showers of compassion" for them. The society consists of about forty five persons, including children, of which there are a great number. Their theological reason for this wandering about the country without a home, and without scarcely any of the necessaries of life, was readily and willingly given: "It is imitating the practice of the ancient patriarchs and good men of old," say they. But the basis of their dirty religion they seemed unwilling to disclose. Perhaps they have been subdued and are treacherously governed by a strong natural inclination to hate every thing bordering upon industry. It may not be. We suspect it.

The children excited the most compassion. Many of them are interesting and handsome, and might, perhaps, if separated from the cloud of ignorance and superstition and indolence that confines them, become useful and honorable members of society. Reared up in their present situation we question their usefulness to themselves, to society, or to their God. They may, like their parents, excite curiosity and contempt.

We could not learn, for it was unknown to ourselves, where their travelling will end.—They take water passage here, and it is very probable we see them no more; a source of no regret.—Spy.

PITTSBURG, (PENN.) April 13. UNFORTUNATE OCCURRENCE.—A gentleman direct from the head of Allegheny river, informs us of an unhappy accident which took place a few miles above the town of Warren, Venango county, on the 4th of the present month. Two boats fished together, were descending the river from the Orleans Point, and navigated by persons, presumed to be acquainted with the river, they ran upon the head of an Island which was covered with driftwood. One of them was driven upon the wood, and sustained no material injury. The other, in which were a man and his wife, an elderly lady and several children broke loose from the boat to which it was lashed, and went to the bottom. The unhappy mother, in her efforts to save her offspring caught three of them in her arms, and struggled a long time to keep them above water until some other boats, which were in company, could come to their relief; but the strength of the current overpowered and swept her away. Two of the children, however, were saved, and taken on board the other boat, which, by this time had been wrecked. Those who perished, were the mother, her child, and the old lady, whose bodies have not yet been found, having been probably driven under the timber, along the side of the island. The survivors arrived at Warren the next day, in a condition truly deplorable. The husband is a man of about forty years of age, and a decent appearance.—His daughter, a girl of near fifteen, was almost distracted with grief, and around her clung the remaining part of the family apparently miserable. All the gentleman's effects were lost.

BALTIMORE, MAY 6. DEATH OF PETION. By the brig Homer, Capt. THOMAS, arrived at this port last evening from Port au Prince, intelligence has been received of the death of ALEXANDRE PETION, President of Hayti, on Sunday, the 29th March, after an illness of eight days. On the following Tuesday his body was interred with much pomp and splendor under the Liberty Tree, opposite the Capitol; his bowels in the National Port, and his heart bequeathed to his daughter. The following was the order of procession observed on the occasion:—A car was erected on four wheels, like a bedstead; on the pillars was a canopy very handsomely decorated, drawn by six horses. Each horse had a covering of black cloth. He was laid in the bed with his uniform on. His hat and sword by his side. A small coffin in front, in which were his bowels, carried by some of his officers—from thence they proceeded to church, and then to the place of interment.

Twenty four hours after, General John P. Boyer was unanimously elected President of the republic of Hayti by the senate, and every thing remained tranquil on the 14th April.

General Boyer is the youngest general officer in Hayti.

The following extract was translated from L'Abeille Haytienne, of the 3d April:— Never has mortal been lamented as President PETION: the annals of nations do not afford us any similar example. It is the strictest truth to say, that citizens generally, of the Republic, have given proofs of the deepest grief, during these days of desolation, and even strangers have united in our regrets. They wear, like us, the funeral crape; they honor, or no less, the memory of our illustrious Chief, and they have been the first to say, "you have lost your WASINGTON." The virtues of lost your WASINGTON, our man may be judged by the unanimity of the testimony in his favour. He was wise and humane and just, and has caused no tears to flow but in descending to the tomb. He had the soul of a hero, and the most tender of parental hearts. He has defended our rights, has reconciled us with ourselves, and with strangers; he has rendered illustrious, the Haytian name. Citizens, magistrates, sovereigns, you will be like him the delight of the world, by imitating his moderation, his kindness, his benevolence, his clemency. His example belongs to the world.

SAVANNAH, April 22. THE CROPS. We have seen a letter from May River (S. C.) dated April 20, to a gentleman in this city, which states, that "The frost of last night, (Sunday night last), has been a dreadful scourge to the cotton planters in this part of South Carolina.—As far as the Bahaw I have heard that it has been equally fatal, there—this evening, I have had three applications for cotton seed—I am one of those who have suffered—11 acres of Cotton of mine was up and putting out the third day yesterday, was fair and promising to-day withered and blighted to the roots. I understand from a gentleman who resides near Crosswaters that all the cotton in that neighborhood is killed, and that in the vicinity of Bahaw the inhabitants were visited with a most severe hail storm, on Friday night last, the hail stones were 3 inches in circumference—that 3 of them fell a half pint tumbler—that wherever they struck the Pride of India Tree, the bark was torn off.—Cotton Seed will be in great demand no question."

We dread to hear from the interior of the country, for we fear the frost has done great injury, as vegetation was far advanced.

April 30. We learn that a deputation of Indians, from some of the tribes, went into St. Augustine, on last Monday week, with an interpreter, for the purpose of ascertaining, from the Governor, whether it was his wish, or advisable for them, to take up arms against the white inhabitants, and attack the frontier, or not—and whether they should oppose the forces under Gen. Jackson. The Governor returned for answer, that it was his decided wish, that they should not take up arms or make the least resistance to any of the United States' troops, should they even enter their towns. He requested them to return home, and adhere to his advice, and enjoined on them the necessity of giving up, forthwith, the negroes that are caught them, who have either been stolen or run away from their owners, in Georgia and elsewhere. The number of fugitives with the Indians are supposed to be between two and three hundred.—Provisions are scarce and high in Augustine, and the inhabitants of that place are apprehensive of a visit from Gen. Jackson.

We have had the perusal of a file of King's-ten-papers of the 1st inst.—We observe therein, that two independent privateers had committed great depredations in the South Seas, having captured and burnt a number of Spanish vessels, valuably laden.—They sailed about a month ago, supposed with the intention of obtaining among the friendly Isles, (where the celebrated circumnavigator, captain Cook met with great hospitality,) supplies and reitting. It is also stated, that Don Sebastian de Kendaan, appointed Governor of Santo Domingo had arrived at that city, and was doing every thing in his power to encourage foreigners to settle in the colony.

It was currently reported at Cape Henry, last month, that the British government had asked the Island of Cuba of the court of Madrid, as a set-off against the debt of Spain.

BALTIMORE, MAY 7. THE MAIL ROBBERS. The Circuit Court of the United States for Maryland District commenced its session in this city on the first instant, present, Judges Duvall and Houston. Indictments were found by the Grand Jury against William Alexander, Lewis Hare, Joseph Ware and Thomas Hare, charging them with the robbery of the mail, on the night of the 12th March last, near Havre de Grace. These indictments, we learn, charge the prisoners with using weapons which endangered the life of the carrier of the mail; convictions on them will therefore subject the prisoners to the sentence of death.—The three first named were arraigned on Saturday last, and being called on, in the usual way to answer the charges, pleas were filed for each; but on the application of their counsel suggesting, that more time was necessary to decide on the proper pleas and prepare them, the court permitted the pleas to be withdrawn. Yesterday being the day appointed to receive the pleas, the prisoners were brought into the pleas, the prisoners were brought into the Court and being again called on to answer, they remained silent, or, in the law language, they maintained silence. The Missouri traders will thereby, in future, be protected from Indian hostility and British interference in their lawful pursuits within the proper jurisdiction of the United States.

Major BRADFORD, with a detachment of 200 riflemen, are said to be ordered to repair to this point, where a fort will be immediately constructed. The Missouri traders will thereby, in future, be protected from Indian hostility and British interference in their lawful pursuits within the proper jurisdiction of the United States.

During Lord Selkirk's visit at Washington last winter, he is said to have requested permission of the government to draw his supplies of provisions, for the use of the North West and Hudson's Bay companies, from the U. States' territories, which proposal, we hear, was immediately rejected.

THE REPOSITORY. WEDNESDAY, MAY 13.

The account published in our last week's paper, of the burning of Mrs. Morgan's barn, was incorrect as to its being set on fire by a negro girl. It is not known how the fire was communicated, but supposed accidentally.

DIED, about one o'clock yesterday, at his residence, near this town, John Briscoe, Esq. in the 67th year of his age.

The population of the territory of St. Louis is estimated at 60,000; and it is not more than three years since the first settlement was made in it.

Counterfeit Spanish milled dollars are in circulation, which are very difficult to discriminate from the true ones. They are thicker than the genuine, and have a sharp sound.

Plumart and Emmons, supposed to have robbed the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Pittsburgh, on the 6th ultimo, were apprehended in Cincinnati on the 14th ult. and committed to prison.

Paris Papers, of the 27th of March, have been received at Boston. They mention, that a violent earthquake was felt in Sicily on the 20th February, which occasioned much damage. In Catania a great part of the Cathedral and of the seminary were shaken down, and many ecclesiastics were crushed under their ruins.—In Zafarana the people were assembled for public worship, when the church fell, and crushed the preacher and fifty persons under its ruins.—All the villages on the side of Mount Etna were ruined; but as the houses were light buildings, few lives were lost.

A Bank has been established at Botany Bay, and a charter of incorporation has been obtained from the English Governor General.

Dreadful accident from a polecat. A horrible occurrence recently took place in a family. The wife of a farmer at Soiry suckled two infants, one of which she was present, the other given her to nurse. They were put to sleep in the same bed. In the course of last night, the child at nurse was found dead in bed with the face eaten away on one side. The attention of the family had been called by the crying of the other. When the child was taken out of the bed it appeared the right hand and part of the wrist had been eaten away. The little creature was losing all its blood. Upon examining a pole cat or ferret was found stretched between the two children with its jaws all bloody. The persons in the house succeeded in killing it.

The animal had, it appeared, established itself in the palliasse. It is thought extraordinary that so wild an animal should come into an inhabited house.

NEW MILITARY POST ON THE MISSOURI. We are informed, from a respectable source, that orders have recently been issued by our government, for the establishment of a military post at the mouth of Yellowstone River, (lat. 48,) where it enters the Missouri, about 1,800 miles above St. Louis. The contemplated object of this post, it is stated, is to control the communication of the Indian nations within the boundaries of the territories of the United States with the North West and Hudson's Bay companies: Lord Selkirk has, it is said, become proprietor of both of these establishments. To keep open the line of communication between Fort Clarke (at present the highest military post on the Missouri) and the intended settlement at the mouth of the Yellowstone River, it is conjectured that two additional intermediate posts will be necessary; that is to say, one at the Great Bend, and the other at the Mandan villages, about 150 miles from, and due south of, the British Factory at the mouth of Moose river, where it enters the Assiniboin. Thus a complete check might be given to all attempts at violating the laws prohibiting the British from trading with the Indian nations within our boundaries: this is rendered the more essential at the present moment, in order to curb the views of the aspiring and ambitious Selkirk, who has of late years given such a bold direction to the affairs of the fur trade companies.

Major BRADFORD, with a detachment of 200 riflemen, are said to be ordered to repair to this point, where a fort will be immediately constructed. The Missouri traders will thereby, in future, be protected from Indian hostility and British interference in their lawful pursuits within the proper jurisdiction of the United States.

During Lord Selkirk's visit at Washington last winter, he is said to have requested permission of the government to draw his supplies of provisions, for the use of the North West and Hudson's Bay companies, from the U. States' territories, which proposal, we hear, was immediately rejected.

ANOTHER INDIAN BATTLE. Copy of a letter from General William McIntosh, commanding the Creek Warriors, to D. B. Mitchell, Esq. Agent for Indian Affairs.

Camp 30 miles from Micksaukie, (on the way to Sawanee,) 13th April, 1818.

Sir: Since I left you I have not sent you a talk of what we have done, and I now send you this. I heard yesterday of Peter McQueen being near the road we were travelling, and I took my warriors and went and fought him. There seemed to be a considerable number collected there. When we first began to fight them, they were in a bad swamp, and fought us there for about an hour, when they ran, and we followed them three miles. They fought us in all about three hours. We killed 37 of them, and took 98 women and children and six men prisoners, and about 700 head of cattle and a number of horses, with a good many hogs and some corn. We lost three killed and had five wounded. Our prisoners tell us that there was 120 warriors from six different towns. From what we saw, I believe there was more than they say, as some of our prisoners say there was 200 of them. Tom Woodward and Mr. Brown, and your Son, our Agent, and all the white men that I've in our country, were with us through the whole fight, and fought well. All my officers fought so well I do not know which is the bravest. They all fought like men and ran their enemies. General Jackson waited for us about six miles from where we fought. After the fight I went and joined him, and we are going this morning to fight the Negroes together. They are at Suwannee, and we shall be there in four days. There was among the Hostiles a woman the white people were killed on the river below Fort Scott. We gave her to her six children, her husband and father are with General Jackson—Major Kinnard took her himself. This is all I have to tell you. I wish you would send a copy of this to the Big Warrior and Little Prince.

Your Friend, WILLIAM MCINTOSH, Brig. Gen. Comm'g C. W. D. B. MITCHELL, Esq. Agent I. A.

Maj. Woodward of Baldwin.

AN AFFECTING DESCRIPTION. Extract of a letter from a gentleman in the Western Country, to the Editor.

"I rejoice that Congress have done something for Gen. St. Clair. On our journey we stopped at his log house, to warm us. He was then confined to his chamber with illness. His wife exhibited a most striking picture of fallen greatness. She was a tall, majestic figure, 56 years of age (I think she said). Her features were noble, and her deportment lady like. She is of the Bowdoin family, of Boston. The substantial part of her dress was of the coarse fabric of the country, to which were superadded such ornamented articles as were in fashion probably 45 or 50 years ago, and which, like herself, bore visible marks of the hand of time. She conversed with us in his language, which was familiar to her. Her manners were so French. But time and sorrow had evidently weakened her mind, which, judging from her countenance, was originally vigorous. This mental debility was strikingly exhibited in her, confounding important events of distant dates, and almost forgetting that we had an American government. Her latter ideas were obliterated, and those of early youth had assumed their place. Mrs. — was extremely affected with the picture which I have so imperfectly sketched, and for a long time could not speak of it without tears."

"Ellis's Biographical Dictionary informs us that the ancestors of the Bowdoin family were French refugees, who left their country after the revocation of the edict of Nantz, that they first went to Ireland, and then came to New England, 1688."

IMPORTANT. The editors of the New York Gazette have received per the Adriana, the following from their correspondent at Gibraltar, under date of March 23.

"New York Flour will not bring more than 9 3/4 dollars; Baltimore and Philadelphia 10 50 cts. at 2 months credit. Rice 6 50 to 6 75." The same letter adds, "I have little news to give you. Our squadron are at present at Messina, but are expected here about the tenth to the 15th April; and I suppose Commodore Chauncey will leave this for home about the 25th April.—The plague still rages at Algiers, and other ports in Barbary. No communication is permitted between this and the Barbary shore.

"In Spain the greatest misery and distress prevail. The government have resorted to every expedient to raise money, but all to no purpose. A meeting of merchants was called in Cadiz a short time since, under a penalty of $50 for every absentee, and a demand made of $120,000. No sum was granted, but the Governor has agreed to collect what each individual may be willing to give. It is not more than two months since the merchants of that city were squeezed out of £15,000. It appears that Cadiz as well as many other ports in Spain, have been made ports of deposit and not free ports as called by some. The object is to relieve the merchants and put them in good humor, so that they may squeeze a little more money out of them, neither of which objects I think will be attained.

"About three weeks since, the officer who went to the proper department for the pay of his corps, found an empty chest, and it is said began to damn His Majesty, and all who were connected with him. Another went to the 'Terriente Key,' and told him he would not be responsible for those under his command, if funds were not provided for them very soon. Another meeting of merchants has in consequence been called. If all this can happen after Gary's system of May last, and the monies have been promptly paid into the treasury under that system, and after receiving the 400,000 sterling from Great Britain for abolishing the slave trade, what more may be expected in a few months more?—nothing short of rebellion, notwithstanding the patience inherent in this people.

"The fleet the Spaniards received from the Dutch, are laid up in dry dock, and will there rot. They have neither money to fit them out—no seamen—and no provisions for the sea; and of course no means to procure any.

"The treaty between the Portuguese and Tunisians has expired, and as no treaty has been concluded upon, the Portuguese detain all Tunisians; at least they cruise off here and prevent vessels of that flag from going through the Straits. Two Portuguese frigates, and some smaller vessels, are here watching the Tunisians. Two sloops of war, and a schooner under that flag are here, and afraid to move."

FROM THE NORFOLK BEACON. The following relation is given by gentlemen who were witnesses of the fact while going up James River, on Friday last, in the steam boat Powhatan. In passing Day's Point they observed an Eagle, which, after hovering about the shore for some time, made a sudden dart into the water, where he remained, caught sight, about two seconds, and then re-appeared, bearing in his talons a fish, apparently three feet in length.—A minute or two, however, he plunged again into the water, and again appeared with his prey. This operation he repeated a second time, still holding the fish in his claws; a third time he descended with it, but was seen no more! The conjecture was that the Eagle had got his talons so deeply inserted in his scaly prize that he could not extricate them, and his strength was not adequate to bear it away to the shore.

HYDROPHOBIA. A melancholy instance of this dreadful disease occurred in Richmond a few weeks ago. A boy of fourteen, who was bit in the hand, was attacked with all the symptoms of the disease about six weeks after the wound was entirely healed. He died in the greatest agony upon the fourth day. The India stone generally applied in such cases, was placed upon the wound a few hours after the accident happened, and other medical remedies were also given.—He appeared to experience no uneasy sensations from the time he was bit until the symptoms of Hydrophobia appeared; but attended school as usual. This furnishes another proof to many others, of the inefficiency of the India stone, which has frequently sold for several thousand dollars.—[Pet. Int.]

We understand that the brig Rambler, recently arrived at Providence, brought home from Canton 90,000 dollars in specie! Such had been her success in a trading voyage, that the above sum was over after the purchase of her cargo at Canton. The R. performed a voyage round the world in fifteen months and twenty days! Seven months and ten days of the time, she lay in port.

The Ship Angelica, arrived at New-York from Lisbon, has sixteen thousand seven hundred pieces of gold (value eight dollars each) for the United States' Bank.

From the Belfast News Letter. A Freemason, perhaps, will be gratified to learn, that Mr. Moorcroft, in his journey to Lake Manassawara, in the midst of the Himalaya mountains, many thousand feet above the level of the sea, met with a native officer, on whose outer garment "were sewed the saw, adze, chissel, rule, and all the insignia of Freemasonry in iron; the symbols of a fraternity of which he said he was a member."

"The Himalaya or Himmaleh mountains, are a vast chain of mountains, in Asia, extending from Cabul along the N. of Hindostan, through the whole extent from the Ganges, to the river Testa. They inclose a tract of country from 100 to 180 miles in breadth. The ridge was known to the ancients by the name of Imans, and the Indian Caucasus. The natives now call it Hindoo-Koo, as well as Himmaleh, which last is a Sanscrit word, signifying snowy; their summits being covered with snow."

PHILADELPHIA, MAY 7. A letter received by a respectable mercantile house in this city, from Port au Prince, dated April 13, says:—"We have just received authentic news of the death of CHRISTOPHE."

It is singular, that the two rival sovereigns of St. Domingo, should have died within a few days of each other. Will not France eventually obtain possession of that Island?

DISSIPATION. Riches are an absolute ruin to a dissipated owner; the same confusion which distracts his mind produces an inconsistency in all his actions; one while you see an astonishing prodigality; at another are shocked with as unreasonable avarice. He can throw away money, but he cannot use it: He sacrifices every thing to pleasure and pride, but nothing to justice.
