Public Auction,

on the third day of February next, if fair, if not, the next fair day, on the premises,A Tract of Land containing three hundred Acres,and also the reversion of FIFTY ACRES, adjoining the same tract of three hundred acres, lying and being in the county of Frederick and state of Virginia, situated on the north side of the Shenandoah river, and ad-joining the said river about two miles below Snickers Ferry—one hundred acres of which are finely timbered, and the whole tract well watered with a never failing spring; the buildings are an excellent dwelling house, with other suitable out houses, a good barn, corn house, blacksmith shop, stable, &c. &c.This land, I am told, has for the last seven years been highly improved with clover and Plaster of Paris: upon the whole it is considered to be one among the best farms in the county, combining all the advantages of good soil, salubrity of climate and fertility of soil. Terms of sale will be as follows:$3,000 in cash, or a negotiable note at 10 days

Chinese Liquid Blacking.

THE uncommon blackness and brilliancy of this preparation, is not the only virtue it possesses, it keeps the leather as smooth as satiny and cannot be loosed and made coarse off by any means, therefore it is as valuable for ladies' shoes as gentlemen's; it revives old morocco, by giving it its original gloss and retaining it—it is polished in the usual way, but with one fourth of the labour: those who wish to try the effect of this blacking, can have any quantity they wish to buy, and will save expense by bringing a vessel to carry it in.

which the house could not, with due attention to the necessary measures now before it, investigate and act on this subject with the deliberation and understanding which its importance demanded, and that it would be better to defer the decision of the question to the next session of Congress, when it could be materially acted on, with the view of bringing the discussion now to a close, moved that the resolutions be laid on the table.

Mr. Desha made one or two remarks against the motion of Mr. H. observing, incidentally, that he was opposed to reducing the army, except so far as regards the staff.

The question was then taken on laying the resolutions on the table, and decided in the affirmative, as follows:—Yea 71, nays 66.

So the resolutions were laid on the table.

NEW STATES.

The house then, on motion of Mr. Scott, resolved itself into a committee of the whole, Mr. Smith, of Md. in the chair, on the bills to enable the people of the territories of Missouri and Alabama to form state governments.

The bill relating to the Missouri territory was the first in order, and the first taken up.

The committee were busily occupied until half past 4 o'clock, in maturing the details of this bill, and discussing propositions for its amendment; in which Messrs. Scott, Robinson, Mills, Harrison, Anderson, of Ky., Desha, Tallmadge, Clay and Barbour, participated.

In the course of the consideration, Mr. Tallmadge moved an amendment, substantially, to limit the existence of slavery in the new state, by declaring all free who should be born in the territory after its admission into the Union, and providing for the gradual emancipation of those now held in bondage.

This motion gave rise to an interesting and pretty wide debate, in which the proposition was supported by the mover, and by Messrs. Livermore and Mills; and was opposed by Messrs. Clay, (Speaker) Barbour and Pindall; but before any question was taken, the committee rose; and the House adjourned.

Monday, February 15.

A petition was presented by Mr. Pindall from sundry inhabitants of the state of Virginia, praying to be permitted to settle on Columbia river, in the Missouri territory, at a point below the head of the navigation of said river; and referred to the committee on public lands.

A memorial was presented, also, by Mr. Speaker from George Williams, explanatory of his conduct as a Director, on the part of the government, of the Bank of the U. States; which was read and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Smith, of Md., reported a bill making an appropriation for carrying into effect the provisions of an act passed on the 1st day of March, 1817, "making reservation of certain public lands to supply timber for naval purposes; which was twice read and committed.

Mr. Johnson, of Ky., reported a bill for establishing an additional Military Academy, and a Military School of application; which was twice read and committed.

The House having again resolved itself into a committee of the whole, Mr. Smith, of Md. in the chair, on the bill to authorize the people of the Missouri territory to form a constitution and state government, and for the admission of the same into the Union,

The question being on the proposition of Mr. Tallmadge, to amend the bill by adding to it the following provision:

"And provided, that the further introduction of slavery or involuntary servitude, be prohibited, except for the punishment of crimes, whereof the party shall have been fully convicted; and that all children born within the said state, after the admission thereof into the Union, shall be free at the age of twenty five years."

The debate which commenced on Saturday was to day resumed on this proposition; which was supported by Mr. Taylor, Mr. Mills, Mr. Livermore, and Mr. Fuller, and opposed by Mr. Barbour, Mr. Pindall, Mr. Clay, and Mr. Holmes.

This debate, which was quite interesting, involved two questions: one of right, the other of expediency. Both were supported by the advocates of the amendment, and generally opposed by its opponents. On the one hand it was contended that Congress had no right to prescribe to any state the details of its government, any further than that it should be republican in its form; that such a power would be nugatory, if exercised, since, once admitted into the Union, the people of any state have the unquestioned right to amend their constitution of government, &c.

On the other hand, it was as strongly contended that Congress had the right to annex conditions to the admission of any state into the Union; that slavery was incompatible with our republican institutions, &c.

Besides the above gentlemen, Mr. Harrison, and Mr. Hendricks spoke on points incidentally introduced into the debate.

The question being put on the motion of Mr. Tallmadge, to amend the bill, the vote was:

For the amendment 79
Against it 67

So the amendment was agreed to.

The House then proceeded in the further consideration and maturing of the provisions of the bill; which occupied the house until the usual hour of adjournment.

SAVANNAH, FEB. 4.
VERY LATE FROM ENGLAND.

By the arrival last evening of the fine fast sailing ship Athens, captain Lee, in 37 days from Liverpool, the editor of the Savannah Republican has received Liverpool papers to the 24th December, and London to the 25th of the same month.

The Paris Moniteur mentions that there had been a great commotion at Lyons, alarming in its nature.

Lord Ellenborough, chief justice of England, died on the 13th Dec.

The Courier says, there is no foundation for the reported changes in the ministry, with the exception of the retirement of lord Mulgrave, from the master generalship of the ordinance, which is to be filled by lord Wellington.

A rumor was very prevalent in London, that the king of Spain had absconded from Madrid. By letters received it is stated that he had destroyed himself, and by others, that he had been murdered. The Times observes, that the aspect of affairs in Spain, was such as made it too probable some crisis was at hand.—Certainly something serious has occurred in Spain.

Sir Philip Francis, the supposed author of Junius, departed this life on the 23d of Dec. last, in the 79th year of his age. Papers and documents is said to have been found, which conclusively prove that sir Philip Francis was the author of Junius.

The London Courier is very loud against Mr. Monroe when commenting on his message to congress. The case of Arbuthnot and Ambister is adverted to—and petty anathemas pronounced against the government. The Courier also indulges in the old slang of a division of the states—that we cannot remain long a federate union under our general government. (Alas poor ghost!)

LONDON, DEC. 25.

We have received this morning Bombay papers to so late a date as the 15th of last August; from which we have made some interesting extracts. Intelligence from Ceylon, to the 11th July, states that there appeared to be a great relaxation in the hostile efforts of the rebels. The whole tract of country from the S. E. extremity of Suffragam to the N. E. border of the Seven Korles, embracing about one half in extent, and much more, in value, of the Kandyan territories, continued perfectly quiet. The most gratifying accounts, also had been received from other parts of the island.

Some interesting particulars are furnished by these papers, respecting the proceedings of the Ex-Rajah of Nagore. It appears, that, after his escape, he was enabled to collect a large body of Malcontents, who flocked to him from all quarters, and we regret to add, that, in an engagement with a part of his followers, by captain Sparkes, at the head of a hundred men, the whole of the latter was destroyed. Capt. Sparkes had unfortunately led to believe that only a few plunderers were to be attacked, instead of which there were 3000 of his enemy.—When his gallant little troop was reduced to only 25, and captain S. himself wounded in two places, he wished to surrender, but his flag of truce was rejected, and it was feared he and all his party perished.

The governor general and suite were near Mongher on the 11th July, and were expected to leave the great river in three or four days.—His lordship at that time, was enjoying excellent health, and his arrival at Calcutta, was duly expected.

The Cholera morbus had appeared at Panwell and it was feared would extend its ravages to Bombay. Throughout the whole of the Deaken it was on the decline.

The following is an extract of a private letter from Bombay, dated August 8:

"We have seen letters from Sumburp of the 21st ult. at which place, the detachment hoped to enjoy a rest after their toils.

"The letters describe the country, as abounding in gold dust; and the capital, Alson (called Raigheer) is a large town, built on the Neloo Nuddee, and surrounded by luxuriant topaz.

"The Rajah is supposed to be very wealthy. At one time the Killedar of this place entertained thoughts of resisting our approach; but afterwards changed his mind, and without firing a gun, gave it up to major Roughsedge.

"Diamonds are found in this country.—Our letters represent the Mahrattas of this district as extremely civil."

COMMUNICATED FOR PUBLICATION.

CANIZ, DEC. 1.
The following is a list of the ships of war at present fitting out in this port for the American expedition; these forces are under the orders of brigadier Don Francis Maule, an able officer, who, to the experience and wisdom of his mature age, unites the energy of youth:

"Ships of war of 74 guns each.—The Ferdinand VII, the Northern Eagle, the Lubec, and the Alexander. These four ships were of the number of those composing the squadron purchased of Russia.

Frigates—Three of 44 guns each; La Priera, La Merced, and La Ligero—two of 36 guns each; La Paonta and La Vida; making in all five frigates, the four last of which were purchased of Russia.

Sloops of war—La Fama, of 21 guns, and the Diamond of 20 guns.

Brigantine—L'Heine of 16 guns.

This fleet is on the point of being augmented by some ships and brigs, and 24 gun boats. The light forces will be commanded by the major d'Escadre D. Joseph Primo Rivera.

With respect to the expeditionary army, it is still hoped that it will be composed of 18,000 men of all arms. It will be commanded by gen. count del'Abisal, appointed viceroy of Buenos Ayres, and who, it is said, will preserve the government of Cadiz and Andalusia, at the head of which he is at this moment, until the departure of the expedition. It would be difficult to assign this epoch; there is no want of obstacles which retard the operations, and the least is not the penurious state of finances.

The letter to Mr. McCarty not having been read by that gentleman, it is only thought necessary to give such extracts from it as show clearly that the determination of Gen. Mason was made independently of any consultation with his seconds. This letter is dated "Richmond, January 9, 1819."

The following are extracts from it:

"Sir—I have resigned my commission for the especial and sole purpose of fighting you; and am now free to accept or send a challenge and to fight a duel. The public mind has become tranquil, and all suspicion of the further prosecution of our quarrel having subsided, we can now terminate it without being arrested by the civil authority, and without exciting alarm among our friends."

"This effort has been delayed by my anxiety to effect such an arrangement of my affairs as my duty to my family required. That arrangement is just effected."

"I am extremely anxious to terminate at once and forever this quarrel."

"My friends * * * are fully authorized to act for me in every particular. Upon receiving from you a pledge to fight; they are authorized and instructed at once to give the challenge for me, and to make immediately every necessary arrangement for the duel on any terms which you may prescribe."

The following are extracts from the letter of instructions which is dated Richmond, January 9, 1819.

"Gentlemen—You will present the enclosed communication to Mr. John McCarty, and tell him at once that you are authorized by me to challenge him, in the event of his pledging himself to fight. If he will give the pledge, then I desire that you will instantly challenge him, in my name, to fight a duel with me. You are not authorized to give a verbal challenge. It must be reduced to writing. Agree to any terms that he may propose, and to any distance to three feet, his pretended favorite distance, or to three inches should his impetuosity and rash courage prefer it."

"To any species of fire-arms, pistols, muskets, or rifles, agree at once!"

Other incorrect reports are being current respecting the interviews and communications between the respective friends of General Mason and Mr. McCarty; it is thought proper to state,

"1. That, on presenting the challenge, two modes of terminating the affair were proposed by Mr. McCarty—first, to fight on a barrel of powder; secondly, to fight with dirks: both which were objected to, as not according with established usages, and without example, and as calculated to establish a dangerous precedent.

"2. That a third mode was proposed in the following written acceptance of the challenge; which the seconds of Gen. Mason were bound to accede to, both from the positive instructions of their principal, and from the laws which govern the settlement of disputes in the field of honor.

"3. That it was proposed by the friends of General McCarty to meet and fight your friend, General A. T. Mason, to-morrow evening, five o'clock, at Montgomery Court House. As I am at liberty to select the weapon with which I am to fight, I beg leave to propose a musket charged with buckshot, and at the distance of ten feet."

JOHN M. McCARTY.

February 4, 1819."

3. That it was proposed by the friends of General Mason, and agreed to by the friends of Mr. McCarty, to substitute a single barrel for buckshot.

4. That it was agreed by the friends of both parties to postpone the meeting until ten o'clock, on Saturday morning—and that, on the ground, the distance measured exceeded 12 feet.

It now only remains to state, that all reports respecting the indecorous deportment of either party on the ground, are entirely false—that the unfortunate meeting took place at the appointed time, and that the affair, although fatal, was honorably terminated. No man ever exhibited more perfect coolness and self-possession than did Gen. Mason on this melancholy occasion.

It is due to the friends of Mr. McCarty, who are not aware of this publication, to state, that their deportment throughout the whole business was perfectly correct.

It has been reported that General Mason was struck by three balls. At the request of his friends, the executors of General Mason consented to an examination of the body; and, after a minute dissection, it was clearly ascertained that but one ball had entered the deceased.

GENERAL JACKSON.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Washington to his friend in Virginia.

Last evening I was gratified, in a private circle, with the society of General Andrew Jackson. I never was more disappointed, more interested, nor more delighted with any man I have ever yet met with; disappointed, in meeting with an elegant, easy mannered, attractive gentleman, where I expected to find a savage; interested, in a conversation where modesty, good sense and delicacy formed so great a share in the relation of General Jackson, with whom he appeared the least man, though deservedly the only hero in every sentence; delighted, because, with a free and graceful familiarity, he seemed to invite all around him to call for such information on those great achievements in which his country, his enemies and his friends, feel so much interest, as suited the temper, the talents and the object of every individual present. With a soft and gen-tional—for example, let a line of battle ship be called after each State in the Union—beginning with the old thirteen. It named after men, particularly living ones; it is too apt to happen under ground as of a dreadful cracking, and immediately after there was an eruption from Hecla. The sea was in a state of dreadful commotion. This volcano, which some authors had pronounced extinct, is situated in the southern part of the island, about a league and a quarter from the sea, is triple-topped, and 1500 feet above the level of the sea. It was in 1803 that its eruptions caused most calamity—so violent were they, that the cinders were scattered at a distance of thirty leagues over the island. The latest eruptions took place between 1780 and 1784, and were preceded by very striking phenomena. A noise was heard—the earth gaped wide—meteors appeared in the direction of the volcano—a flame soon followed with smoke, from which issued globes of fire—the stones were discharged to a great distance, and, lastly, the lava flowed out in torrents—from 1000 to 1700, Iceland has experienced sixty-three volcanic eruptions.

NUTS FOR DON ONIS.

The Don it is said is laughing in his sleeve to think how easily the whole national legislature have been drawn off on a false scut. Instead of seeing Congress requiring the President to demand of his pettiot-making master, the punishment of his officers for their encouragement given to the Indian murderers of our citizens—instead of seeing them give him authority to take possession of the Floridas as a set-off against the robberies committed on our merchants, he has had the satisfaction to see Congress converted into a court martial, spending all its time in the trial of general Jackson, on charges preferred against him by this immaculate minister—Don Onis himself. Most laughable!!! Censor.

THE REPOSITORY.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 24.

DIED, on Tuesday the 23d instant, at his residence, near this town, Mr. Jarvis Shirley, aged 82 years. Mr. Shirley was born in this county, and through life supported the character of an honest, upright man.

Extract of a letter to the Editor of the Censor dated,

WASHINGTON, FEB. 16.

"It is generally believed here that the government is on the eve of concluding a treaty with Don Onis for the Floridas, though some apprehend it to be a mere ruse de guerre, to prevent Congress from passing a law, authorizing the President to take possession, many persons well informed as to their temper of mind, affirm that the citizens of the United States bordering on that territory are determined to remove the Spanish authorities from it—amicably if they can but forcibly if they must."

Major General Jackson, and suite, arrived in Philadelphia on Monday the 15th inst.—The General accepted the invitation of his fellow citizens to a public dinner, given on the 18th.

The revision of the laws is drawing towards a close in the house of delegates.—The senate also devote a considerable portion of their time to this important matter. But it is impossible yet to pronounce with certainty, whether they will get through the work.

Enquirer.

A letter from Alexandria states, that Mr. John M. McCarty, who killed General Mason in the late duel, has left the country for England.

Balt Pat.

A law has just been passed by the legislature of Pennsylvania, and approved by the governor, which enacts, "That no female shall be arrested or imprisoned for or by reason of any debt contracted after the passing of the act."

The Vice-Pres. having retired from the Chair of President of the Senate, for the remainder of the present session, the Hon. James Barbour, of Virginia, was yesterday chosen President pro tempore of that body.

Chinese Liquid Blacking.

THE uncommon blackness and brilliancy of this preparation, is not the only virtues it possesses, it keeps the leather as smooth as satin and cannot be loosed and made come off by any means, therefore, it is as valuable for ladies' shoes as gentlemen's; it revives old morocco—it is polished in the usual way, but with one fourth of the labour: those who wish to try the effect of this blacking, can have any quantity they wish to buy, and will save expence by bringing a vessel to carry it in.

JANE WOODS.

MARSHAL'S SALE.

BY virtue of a decree of the Court of the United States for the fifth Circuit in the Virginia District, in a suit in Chancery, wherein Mary Wormley, wife of Hugh Wallace Wormley, by George F. Strother her next friend, and John S. Wormley, Mary W. Wormley, infant children of the said Mary & Hugh W. by the said G.F. Strother, their next friend, Plaintiffs—against Hugh Wallace Wormley, Thomas Stroke, Richard Veitch, David Castleton and Charles McCormick, Defendants, will be sold at

Public Auction,

on the third day of February next, if fair, if not, the next fair day, on the premises, A Tract of Land containing three hundred Acres, lying on Everett's Run, within one mile of Charlestown, Jefferson county, Virginia, on which there is a competent supply of timber. The stream which runs through the land is copious and constant—the soil is fertile and under a good state of cultivation, and the fences are in excellent order. The improvements are a large new barn, and an ordinary farm house. There are few finer tracts of land in the valley of the Shenandoah.

Mr. Anthony Fulton, residing on the premises, will show the bounds of the tract to any person desirous of purchasing. For terms apply to John R. Cooke, esq. in Martinsburg, or to the subscriber in Baltimore.
