

SPRIT OF JEFFERSON.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY, BY JAMES W. BELLER, (OFFICE ON MAIN STREET, A FEW DOORS ABOVE THE VALLEY BLANKS.)

At $3 00 in advance—$3 50 if paid within six months—or $3 00 if not paid until after the expiration of the year.

General Intelligence.

REDUCTION OF FARE.—The travelling public generally will be gratified to learn that the bill reducing the rate of fare on the Baltimore and Washington Railroad by one dollar and a half was on Wednesday passed by the Senate.

Wm. Webber, Esq., has disposed of his interest in the Hagerstown Mail, to John A. Freaner Esq.

JOHN VAN BUREN, son of the ex-President, has been elected Attorney General of New York.

RICH COUNTY.—The real and personal estates of Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, are valued at twenty-five millions.

The number of hogs packed in the Washah valley this season is stated at 63,400—a falling off compared with last season, of 62,600.

The New Orleans Bulletin of the 26th ultimo says that the quantity of pork received at that port the present season, is less by more than one-half the quantity received to the same time last year.

WISCONSIN.—This Territory is rapidly increasing in population and in wealth. It was organized into a territorial government in 1836, embracing 47,000,000 acres, of which 10,000,000 acres had been surveyed.

OREGON HO.—The Burlington (Iowa) Gazette contains a call of the emigrants to Oregon, to be held at Fort Madison, 25th inst., remarking—"Iowa, it is known, is at present well represented on the western slope of the American continent, and the prospect now is that the number will be considerably increased before the close of the year upon which we have just entered.

MURDER.—Mr. Crandall, of Peeksville, N. Y. who had some difficulty with an Irishman, named Hugh Lynch, was waylaid about half a mile south of Peeksville, on Sunday last, by Lynch, who split his skull with an axe, and knocked him over the side of the bridge.

MAGNETISM.—The Lancaster, Pa., Intelligencer says: "We had the pleasure of witnessing a most successful operation for the cure of cataract of the eye, performed by Dr. Wm. B. Fahnestock, on Sunday.

A GREAT LEADER.—The Lockport Courier relates that Dr. W. Bristol, of that village, while denuding the roof of his office from snow on Thursday week, took a fearful leap, which should serve as a caution to persons who go upon roofs of houses for like purpose.

THE RAZOR STROP MAN is again in this city.—He had quite a crowd around him yesterday in Third street. He talked a great many out of their money.—Phil. Times.

FEMALE ODD FELLOWSHIP.—The great success which has attended these associations in New York has prompted similar combinations with the same philanthropic views among the female portion of the community.

INDIAN PANCAKES.—Scald a quart of Indian meal—when lukewarm, stir in half a pint of flour, half a teaspoon of yeast, and a little salt.

WONDERFUL PHENOMENON.—There is exhibiting at Southron's Hall to-day, one of the most wonderful nondescript nature has ever perhaps produced.

Since clipping out the above article for insertion, the same object has been exhibited in Raymond. We have examined it carefully, and are fully persuaded that it is a human creature, mal-formed. It has that most unfailing mark of human nature—a well developed chin—for man only has a chin.

ROMANTIC WEDDING.—The Princeton, Ky., Examiner, gives the following rather romantic incident, connected with the marriage of a gentleman and lady of Christian Co., Ky.

At night they stopped at the house of a relative in Christian county, near the Tenn. line, and a few miles from there home. The gentleman came there and had an interview with the lady, the result of which was that he returned by times next morning, and the lady concluded to remain in Kentucky.

A SAD STORY.—The Frankfort correspondent of the Maysville (Ky.) Eagle, tells the following sad story of the blighted hopes of a too fond and trusting heart.

There is nothing very exciting question for a divorce. The petition is presented by a young lady about 16 years of age, of very respectable family, who, by some singular accident, conspiracy or folly, was induced to run off with a man double her age—of character infamous, without property, profession or avocation of any kind—so when she awoke from her delusion, and found herself wedded to infamy and poverty.

AN ILLUMINATED BIBLE.—We were strolling down the Third Municipality about dusk, says the New Orleans Republican, when we were attracted by a bright light through the window of a low hotel.

AN OLD FASHIONED SLEIGHING PARTY.—The Springfield (Mass.) Republican of Saturday, states that last week, a party of ninety-nine persons, old and middle aged ladies and gentlemen, from Bristol, Ct., arrived here in the morning, spent the day after the old fashioned sort, and returned in the afternoon.

The New York Express says, "that the Bishop's Pamphlet is now the chief cry of the news boys in that city. Every step one takes in the street is encountered by the salutation, 'Bishop's Pamphlet Underunk's Trial! very right! Only fifty cents!'"

JOWA AND FLORIDA.—It will be seen, in our congressional columns says the Globe, that Iowa and Florida come into the Union with full sails.

COL. BENTON AND TEXAS.

[COMMUNICATED.]

What the object of Col. Benton can be in waiting until this late period of the Session of Congress, to introduce his bill for the Annexation of Texas, I cannot even conjecture, unless it be toward altogether a project of Amputation.

It is this last bill, or one framed on similar basis, is the only one that can receive his support, why did he not as a Democrat, and as a member of the Union of Texas to this country, endeavor to have the provisions of his bill incorporated into the House bill, so that there would have been no pretext for delay in the Senate, at least so far as he is concerned.

It seems from this bill, however, that he has now given up his idea of extending the United States territory to the Gulf of California, and the Mexican government, if such a thing exists, and has his consent, to the annexation of Texas to this nation.

AN EXTRACT.—Could we draw back the covering of the tomb—could we see what those are now, who once were mortal.—Oh! how would it surprise and grieve us to behold the prodigious transformation that has taken place on every individual—grieve us to see the dishonour done to our nature in general, within these subterranean lodgments—here the sweet and winning aspect, that were perpetually an attracting smile, grins horribly—a naked ghastly grin!

MIND AND MANNERS.—There seems to be some congeniality between a fine form and a virtuous mind. When we meet an individual in the walks of life, who unites pleasing manners with beauty of person there is none that can withhold from him the need of approbation.

CHEESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL.—The President and Directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company have made a supplementary report to the Board of Directors, in relation to the operations during the entire year 1844; the annual report having brought an account of the affairs of the company only to the 31st of May, which concluded its fiscal year.

Good vinegar is truly a valuable article in every family, but in almost all new countries is very scarce and dear; and so much so, in many countries it cannot be found.

CHINESE WORSHIP.—Kneeling down in front of the idol, the suppliant to the particular god in whose honor it had been erected, and whose figure was represented immediately behind it, commenced by repeatedly bowing his head, each time touching the ground, sighing, and reciting, in a low tone of voice, certain words.

A THIEF.—Some rascal entered our office on Monday, when the workmen were gone to dinner, and stole six dollars from the desk.

LOOK ALOFT.

BY JONATHAN LAWRENCE.

In the temple of life, when the wave and the gale are around and above, if thy footing should fall, if thine eye should grow dim, and thy caution depart, "Look aloft!" and be firm and be fearless of heart.

Like strains of the rainbow, but brighter to fly; Then turn, and through tears of repentance regret, "Look aloft!" to the Sun that is never to set.

Midnight.

It is midnight—the clock is striking twelve.—How finely the full tones sweep past through the air, as if they would take up our thought, and carry it miles away to the very friend you are thinking of at the moment.

Many a wife sits watching with a broken heart for her husband's step—many a mother for her child's—and many a venturesome merchant lies haunted with fears of shipwreck and fire—many an undetected defaulter fancies voices at the door—many a young girl just finding out that love is not a heaviness and a fear, mutes bitterly over the caprice of a moment or an unmeant trifle.

Culture of the Mind.

Culture of the understanding is, indeed, one of the best methods of subduing the heart to softness, and redeeming it from that savage state, in which it too often comes from the hand of nature.

Music, painting, and poetry, teach the mind to select the agreeable parts of those objects which surround us, and by habituating it to a pure and permanent delight, gradually superinduce an habitual good humor.

THE LAST FAREWELL.

ROBERT, EMMETT AND HIS LOVE.—'Twas the evening of a lovely day—the last day for the noble and ill-fated Emmet. A young lady stood at the castle gate and desired admittance into the dungeon.

Like strains of the rainbow, but brighter to fly; Then turn, and through tears of repentance regret, "Look aloft!" to the Sun that is never to set.

NAPOLEON IN ELBA.

When we had come quite close and halted my eyes devoured him, and I frankly confess that I felt much disappointed, and that for the moment the film seemed to fall from my eyes, and the man who had been the idol of my imagination for years stood before me with a round ungraceful figure, with a most unpoetically protruded stomach, bringing forcibly before my mind's eye Stern's description of Doctor Slop, sending his way to Shandy Hall armed capapie, when Obadiah, mounted on the coach-horse, so unceremoniously upset him at the turning of the lane.

Hay's Liniment for the Piles.

PILES effectually cured by this certain remedy. The sale of this article is steadily increasing, notwithstanding the many counterfeits got up in imitation of it. Persons troubled with this distressing complaint, declare that they would not be without this preparation in their houses for the price of ten boxes. The public will recollect, that this is the only remedy offered them that is in reality of any value whatever. In places where it is known every family has it in their house—
Its price is not considered at all. It is above all price.

Blacksmithing, &c.

THE undersigned would beg leave to inform Farmers and others, that he has taken charge of the shop in Charlestown, where he has been for the last few years engaged in connexion with his father, and is prepared to do all work in the Blacksmithing line. His charges shall be as moderate as any other shop in this place. Several years experience in the business, enables him to assure those who may favor him with their custom, that their work shall be executed in the most approved and substantial manner.

Every description of work relating to wagons and ploughs, (whether to be made or repaired) will be executed at the shortest notice and on reasonable terms. He desires a call from old friends and new. JOSEPH C. RAWLINS,

Lin's Balm of China.

AN infallible cure for all cuts, burns, sores,
&c. &c. The worst cut may be cured in a few hours by the use of this all-healing compound.—
Its healing qualities are wonderful. One bottle of this is worth ten dollars worth of all other salves and remedies in existence. The most severe cut, which by delay might disable the patient for days,
weeks, or months, can be cured without difficulty by using a bottle of this preparation. It is a valuable article, requiring such a small quantity in application, that one bottle will last for years.

The above medicine is sold wholesale by Com-

- stock & Co., 21 Cortland street, New York; and by J. H. BEARD & Co., Charlestown.

HANCE'S MEDICATED CANDY,

FOR COLDS, COUGHS & HOARSE-NESS.
" It has long been the effort of man,
To save fellow mortals from death;
To cure them of coughs and of colds,
Consumption and shortness of breath,
The way then at length has been found,
For man to obtain quick relief,
Its virtues will surely astonish
And make him the same of belief;
Would you live then in joy and in health,
Feel here when old age shall advance—
If so, by far better than wealth,
Is the Candy, made only by HANCE."
Price 25 cents per package, or five for $1.
For sale by SETH S. HANCE, corner of Charles and Pratt streets, Baltimore, and by J. H. BEARD & Co.
