

Spirit of Jefferson.

CHARLESTOWN.

Friday Morning, August 14, 1846.

Whig Arguments Tested by the Touch-stone of Consistency.

When the new Tariff Bill was taken up in the Senate for discussion, the great bug-bear that was to frighten Democratic Senators from their duty, was its inability to produce sufficient revenue for the wants of the Government.

First Effects of the Tariff of 1846.

The day after the receipt of the news at Boston of the passage of the Tariff, the manufacturers put down the price of their goods from five to ten per cent.

Education—Loudoun County.

The County of Loudoun seems to be excited to an unusual degree on the subject of Education. The special School Bill was not acted upon there at the last spring's election, but adjourned until April next.

Foreign News.

The Great Western, arriving six days later intelligence from England, brought at New York on Monday. Her news is not of much importance.

Terrible Storm at Baltimore.

On Friday last, Baltimore City was visited by one of the most terrible thunder storms, the following particulars of which we gather from the Baltimore Sun, of Monday:—

TEST FROM THE ARMY.

Arrival of the Steamer New York—Disbanding of troops—Return of Alabama volunteers to New Orleans—March of the regular troops to Camargo—Governor Henderson not expected to live, &c.

As we have heard, since the appearance of Mr. Bessemer's Letter to the Editor of the Martinsburg Gazette, much said by the Whigs, relative to the accuracy of his calculations as to the per cent paid upon the "Log Chain" of the farmer, as well as upon other articles manufactured of wrought iron, we propose here, in addition to his letter, to give a few facts and figures, to convince, if possible, these profound calculators, that they, as well as others, may at least sometimes be mistaken.

The Valley of Wyoming was made to figure largely in the "panic" memorials presented to the Senate. The world was informed that every species of industry in that portion of Pennsylvania was to be ruined, and the operatives to be turned out, penniless, upon the world.

Monday next is the day fixed upon for the first meeting of the Education Society of Jefferson. A Constitution, &c., will be reported for its consideration. Several speeches, explanatory of the Bill proposed to be carried into operation, may be expected on the occasion.

An Adversary in the Camp. By a late number of the New Orleans Picayune, it seems that the favor of the people of Matamoros is to be disputed by a spirited advocate of the cause of Mexico.

IMPORTANT NAVAL MOVEMENTS.—Contemplated Attack of the Castle of St. Juan de Ulloa.—The New Orleans Bulletin contains the following paragraph foreshadowing events of great magnitude on the Gulf, which are believed to be contemplated:—

THE MEXICAN PEACE RUMORS. The Washington Union, in reference to the rumors that a mission from Mexico had arrived in Washington, and that a proposition for peace had been laid before the Senate by the President, says:—

GEORGE M. DALLES, Esq., the Vice President of the United States, is now on his way to the Warrenton Springs, Va., with his family.

Genl. Armstrong, our resident Consul at Liverpool, England, passed through Baltimore on Tuesday night, on his way to Washington.

Ms. DALLES.—A meeting is about to be held in New York by the Democrats of that city, for the purpose of appointing a committee of two hundred who will proceed to Philadelphia and meet the Hon. Vice President after the adjournment of Congress.

When the fire occurred at Fall River, the people of Nantucket sent relief to the very liberal amount of $5000. On the present occasion the fall river people, through their own calamity is so recent, forwarded to Nantucket $1200 in cash, and provisions, &c., sufficient to increase the amount to $1000.

EFFECTS OF THE CORN LAW REFORM.—AMERICAN PRODUCE.—The Corn Law Reform is producing the happiest results for the masses in England, and so far as the effects have been developed here, as the N. Y. True Sun says, they have proved eminently beneficial to our own country.

MONTEREY.—The Matamoros Revolve mentions one incident connected with the history of Monterey, in Nuevo Leon, which is not generally known. The streets of that city were paved by American prisoners, taken by the forces of Gen. Arredondo from Mier's unfortunate expedition of 1816, and cemented with their blood.

Closing Scenes in Congress.

Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun. WASHINGTON, Aug. 8, 1846. SENATE.—After the disposal of numerous private bills from the House, the bill reported by Mr. McDuffie, from the committee on Foreign Affairs, authorizing the issuing of letters of marque and reprisal against Mexico, was passed.

Mr. Hunt, of N. Y., was opposed to the further acquisition of territory, especially in the South. Mr. Sims, of S. C., eulogized the message, and contended that the President had behaved with great magnanimity towards Mexico. Mr. Adams gave his hearty assent to the bill. The message of the President was, in the words of a certain gentleman, "refreshing." With regard to slavery there was no necessity for any amendment, as Mexico herself had already abolished it in California.

After further debate, the amendment of Mr. Wilmot prohibiting slavery in California in case it shall be acquired, was agreed to. After the rejection of numerous proposed amendments, the bill was reported to the House, when the amendment prohibiting slavery was concurred in. After an ineffectual motion to lay it on the table, the bill, as amended, was ordered to be engrossed by a vote of yeas 55, nays 70. The bill was then read a third time and passed without a division. Its title was amended so as to read "A bill making further provision for the expenses attending the intercourse between the United States and foreign nations."

A motion to reconsider the vote on the passage of the bill was negatived—yeas 76, nays 83. After a great struggle to act upon other bills, the House, at 11 o'clock, adjourned for want of a quorum. It will meet on Monday at 8 o'clock. The naval appropriation bill and the general appropriation bill have yet to be acted upon. It is understood that the President has sent a veto message to the Senate on the French spoliation bill. That body has been in executive session most of the day.

WASHINGTON, August 10, 1846. SENATE.—The Smithsonian Bequest bill was passed in the shape in which it came from the House. The following Regents of the Institute were appointed on the part of the Senate, viz: Messrs. R. Choate, G. Hawley, W. C. Preston, A. D. Bache, Richard Rush and Col. Patten. The vote on the French Spoliation bill was taken up, and the question put: "Shall the bill become a law, the veto notwithstanding?" The vote was yeas 29, nays 15, which not being the requisite majority of two-thirds, the bill did not become a law.

Several private bills from the Senate, to which there was no opposition, were taken up and passed. A motion to take into committee for the purpose of considering a bill for the relief of the widow of Alexander Hamilton, was most indignantly negatived. Here the uproar was almost deafening, and members kept calling on the Speaker, and waving bills and resolutions in their hands like mad men. One refractory gentleman suggested that the Speaker had better employ some one to hammer him, while he attended to the requests of members.

VETO MESSAGE.

THE FRENCH SPOILIATION BILL. The following is the message of the President giving his reasons for refusing to sign the French Spoliation Bill. It will be read with interest, especially by those interested in the fate of the bill.— To the Senate of the United States: I return to the Senate, in which it originated, the bill entitled "an act to provide for the ascertainment and satisfaction of claims of American citizens for spoliation committed by the French prior to the 31st of July, 1801," which was presented to me on the 6th instant, with my objections to its becoming a law.

On Friday last a young man named Benjamin Bowers, aged about 21 years, whilst with a party of neighbors engaged in fishing near Leitersburg, was, as is supposed, seized with the cramp, and before assistance could be rendered, was drowned. After a search of about three quarters of an hour, his body was recovered, when an inquest was held and a verdict rendered in accordance with the above facts.—Hagerstown News. SUPPOSED TO BE LOST.—The ship Vesper, sailed from New York on the 28th of February last, with a full cargo and several passengers, bound for Kingston, Jamaica, since which time nothing has been heard of her. It is supposed that she was lost in that terrible gale of the 2nd of March, in which John Minton and other vessels were lost.

THE BALTIMORE MARKET.—Reported weekly for the "Spirit of Jefferson," by WILLIAM RAYLIFE, Flour and Commission Merchant and General Produce Dealer, Baltimore. BALTIMORE, WEDNESDAY MORNING, August 12, 1846. DEAR SIR.—Our Flour market has been in a very state for the last week. Holders are asking $4 1/4 for fresh ground, but shippers will not pay that price.
