

Spirit of Jefferson.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY, BY JAMES W. HELLER, In Charlestown, Jefferson County, Virginia, (OFFICE ON MAIN STREET, A FEW DOORS ABOVE THE VALLEY BANK.)

Spirit of Jefferson

Debated to News, Politics, Agriculture, General Miscellany and Commercial Intelligence.

VOL. 4 CHARLESTOWN, FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 10, 1847. NO. 22

THE undersigned has leased the Store Room in Berryville, Clarke County, Virginia, recently occupied by Boteler & Johnson, and has just returned from the East with an entire new stock of Fall and Winter Dry Goods.

THE undersigned has just returned from the East, and has now on hand at his Merchant Tailoring Establishment, a few doors from Boteler's Hotel, Shepherdstown, every variety of Cloths, Cassimeres, Cashmeres, Vestings, &c.

LOOK HERE! THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

PUBLIC SALE, Of Valuable Real Estate, and the best Water-Power in the Valley of Virginia.

THE subscribers as Trustees, and in virtue of a decree of the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery for Jefferson County, will sell at public auction, on the premises, on

REAL ESTATE, of the late John Strider, lying on the Great Falls of the Shenandoah River, in the county of Jefferson and State of Virginia, in the immediate vicinity of the flourishing town of Harper's Ferry.

Two Tracts of Land, One on the East and the other on the West side of the river, (Shenandoah), the former containing SIXTY ACRES, and the latter 219, making together Two Hundred and Seventy-nine Acres.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

THE undersigned has on hand, and manufactures to order, at the shortest notice, all descriptions of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes.

J. RANDOLPH TUCKER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Winchester, Virginia.

D. J. O. STANNY, HARPER'S-FERRY, VA. OFFERS his Professional Services to the public.

SAMUEL J. MOORE, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Charlestown, Jefferson County, Virginia.

J. GREG GIBSON, II. D. RESPECTFULLY offers his services to the public.

RICHARD PARKER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, HARPER'S-FERRY, VA.

DOCTOR O. G. MIX, (Late of Washington City, D. C.)

NEW GOODS, NEW GOODS! AT THE LEETOWN STORE.

Valuable Jefferson Land for Sale.

Valuable Landed Estate, situated three miles North West of Charlestown.

Containing 600 Acres.

DWELLING HOUSE, containing eleven rooms.

GRASS TRAIL, growing and yielding upon the Estate.

A SAW MILL, now upon it, nearly new.

DWELLING HOUSE, handsomely built, with Stables and other Out-buildings.

Marble Establishment.

Marble Yard, in Charlestown, a few doors West of the Post Office.

REMEMBER ME, to Miss M. E., of MIDWAY, VIRGINIA.

REMEMBER ME, my lady, when twilight is falling.

REMEMBER ME, my lady, when twilight is falling.

REMEMBER ME, my lady, when twilight is falling.

REMEMBER ME, my lady, when twilight is falling.

REMEMBER ME, my lady, when twilight is falling.

REMEMBER ME, my lady, when twilight is falling.

REMEMBER ME, my lady, when twilight is falling.

REMEMBER ME, my lady, when twilight is falling.

REMEMBER ME, my lady, when twilight is falling.

REMEMBER ME, my lady, when twilight is falling.

REMEMBER ME, my lady, when twilight is falling.

REMEMBER ME, my lady, when twilight is falling.

REMEMBER ME, my lady, when twilight is falling.

REMEMBER ME, my lady, when twilight is falling.

REMEMBER ME, my lady, when twilight is falling.

From the Richmond Equivoc.

ANOTHER "SHOWER-BATH."

Should there be any doubt left on the public mind that the factious course of the Whig party...

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

THE POST-MASTER GENERAL, The Washington Correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, referring to the management of the Post-Office, Department, by Mr. CAYL JONSON, says—

It may be as well to say, a few words on the subject of the Post-Office Department, so often attacked by the friends of railroad and steamboat monopolies, and so often unjustly exposed to public censure.

I do not believe that any thing similar in its ever occurred before, the business of the Department having often been done about four years ago.

The receipts of the Department from 1st of July, 1845, till 1st of July, 1847, exceeded the sum of seven millions three hundred thousand dollars, and of this vast amount only $21,000, or less than one-third of one per cent, remain unexpended.

Now, this is a very extraordinary fact, and one which, if it were not for the fact that the Department is administered by a man who is not only a man of high talents, but also a man of high integrity, would be a very extraordinary one.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

It is, as I have before remarked, a hard case, full of tort, privations and danger.

Darwin.

How the universal power of man bleeds flowers! As they are washed round the cradle, the marriage altar, and the tomb.

THE LITTLENESS OF THE EARTH.—The universe at large, would suffer as little in its splendor and variety by the destruction of man, as the verdure and the sublime magnificence of a forest would suffer by the fall of a single leaf.

THE LITTLENESS OF THE EARTH.—The universe at large, would suffer as little in its splendor and variety by the destruction of man, as the verdure and the sublime magnificence of a forest would suffer by the fall of a single leaf.

THE LITTLENESS OF THE EARTH.—The universe at large, would suffer as little in its splendor and variety by the destruction of man, as the verdure and the sublime magnificence of a forest would suffer by the fall of a single leaf.

THE LITTLENESS OF THE EARTH.—The universe at large, would suffer as little in its splendor and variety by the destruction of man, as the verdure and the sublime magnificence of a forest would suffer by the fall of a single leaf.

THE LITTLENESS OF THE EARTH.—The universe at large, would suffer as little in its splendor and variety by the destruction of man, as the verdure and the sublime magnificence of a forest would suffer by the fall of a single leaf.

THE LITTLENESS OF THE EARTH.—The universe at large, would suffer as little in its splendor and variety by the destruction of man, as the verdure and the sublime magnificence of a forest would suffer by the fall of a single leaf.

THE LITTLENESS OF THE EARTH.—The universe at large, would suffer as little in its splendor and variety by the destruction of man, as the verdure and the sublime magnificence of a forest would suffer by the fall of a single leaf.

THE LITTLENESS OF THE EARTH.—The universe at large, would suffer as little in its splendor and variety by the destruction of man, as the verdure and the sublime magnificence of a forest would suffer by the fall of a single leaf.

THE LITTLENESS OF THE EARTH.—The universe at large, would suffer as little in its splendor and variety by the destruction of man, as the verdure and the sublime magnificence of a forest would suffer by the fall of a single leaf.

THE LITTLENESS OF THE EARTH.—The universe at large, would suffer as little in its splendor and variety by the destruction of man, as the verdure and the sublime magnificence of a forest would suffer by the fall of a single leaf.

THE LITTLENESS OF THE EARTH.—The universe at large, would suffer as little in its splendor and variety by the destruction of man, as the verdure and the sublime magnificence of a forest would suffer by the fall of a single leaf.

THE LITTLENESS OF THE EARTH.—The universe at large, would suffer as little in its splendor and variety by the destruction of man, as the verdure and the sublime magnificence of a forest would suffer by the fall of a single leaf.

THE LITTLENESS OF THE EARTH.—The universe at large, would suffer as little in its splendor and variety by the destruction of man, as the verdure and the sublime magnificence of a forest would suffer by the fall of a single leaf.

THE LITTLENESS OF THE EARTH.—The universe at large, would suffer as little in its splendor and variety by the destruction of man, as the verdure and the sublime magnificence of a forest would suffer by the fall of a single leaf.

THE LITTLENESS OF THE EARTH.—The universe at large, would suffer as little in its splendor and variety by the destruction of man, as the verdure and the sublime magnificence of a forest would suffer by the fall of a single leaf.

THE LITTLENESS OF THE EARTH.—The universe at large, would suffer as little in its splendor and variety by the destruction of man, as the verdure and the sublime magnificence of a forest would suffer by the fall of a single leaf.

SPRIT OF JEFFERSON.

CHARLESTOWN: Friday Morning, December 10, 1847.

CONGRESS AND THE MESSAGE.

Both Houses of Congress were organized on Monday. Mr. WINTROP, a Whig from Massachusetts, was elected Speaker of the House, and Mr. CAMPBELL, of Tennessee, in the place of Mr. FRENCH, the former able and efficient Democratic incumbent. The act of Federal proscriptio...

The Message was sent in on Tuesday, at 1 o'clock, P. M. It is of considerable length, and is universally regarded as an able and statesman-like Document. To enable us to lay it before our readers at the earliest moment, we procured from Baltimore a supply of the "Clippers" furnished to our order. Thus we were able to harp on Harpers Ferry, Charlestown, Shepherdstown, Smithfield, Winchester, the Depots on the line of the Railroad, and other less important points, on Wednesday evening. To others, we furnish it with this day's paper, in an Extra Clipper. In the hurry of sending the Message abroad, some of our friends may have failed, by mistake, to receive a copy. Should any have done so, we hope they will inform us of the fact, and they will be supplied with a copy, as we do not design publishing it in our paper—having sufficient Extras for the purpose.

THE MESSAGE.

We have not been able, as yet, to read the Message with that attention, which would enable us to speak of the position which it assumes upon the various important topics discussed. Every reader, however, we hope, will give to it that attention which it merits, and be prepared to form an intelligent conclusion for himself.

The Baltimore Sun presents a summary of its views on the War, &c., which we subjoin: With reference to the further prosecution of the war, the President recommends the permanent appropriation and occupation of California and N. Mexico, and the prompt execution of territorial government over them. He also recommends the retaining, with a view to coercion, all the other provinces which are at present under the military dominion of our arms, and the appointment of civil officers to conduct the government thereof. The withdrawing of our troops, although the act of retreating to a line, the President equally disapproves; the effect of the former would be to degrade the nation, while the latter would not be likely to terminate, but rather to prolong the war. This latter project is then reviewed at some length with much point.

DEBATE POSTAGE.

We are glad to see that the attention of newspaper readers is called to the necessity of taking proper measures, for the repeal of a law, in relation to papers circulating within thirty miles of the office of publication. We trust that our readers will take care of their interests in this matter. This is a great popular movement, in which no subscriber can refuse to participate.

THE BARRAGE.

The following is a copy of a memorial for this purpose, brief yet sufficiently comprehensive: Let copies be prepared in every village, signed by all newspaper readers, and forwarded immediately to the member of Congress from this District. To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, in Congress assembled.

VALUABLE PAPERS.

Those wishing to be informed as to the proceedings of Congress in detail, should by all means subscribe for the "Congressional Globe" and Appendix, published by Messrs. Blair & Rives, or the "Congressional Register," by Messrs. Ritchie & Helm. The Prospectus of both, setting forth terms, &c., are to be found on the outer form of to-day's paper.

THE PORK TRADE.

The Cincinnati commercial of Monday last says:—During Friday night a number of sales of hogs were made, mostly in the evening, and none of them were reported until Saturday. The particulars were as follows: 206 and 120, average weights 190 a 200 lbs., at $8 16; 600, 400, 300 and 70 do, same averages at $8 20. On Saturday no sales transpired. The little improvement of the previous day rendered holders still more firm, whilst most buyers refused to "budge a penny."

CONSISTENT VERB.

Mr. Clay, in one paragraph of his late speech, says that "actual hostilities might have been probably averted by prudence, moderation and wise statesmanship."

INDOLYING TRUTH.

Mr. Clay, in his late speech, says that General Taylor ordered his cannon opposite to Matamoros "while Mr. Sillidell was wending his way to Mexico with his credentials."

THE TRUTH.

The "truth" is, General Taylor was not ordered from Corpus Christi to the Rio Grande, till it was known to the Administration that the Mexican Government had refused to receive Mr. Sillidell.

THE TRUTH.

Mr. Clay asserts that Gen. Taylor's "good sense" prompted him to believe, in the beginning of the year 1846, that our army ought to remain at Corpus Christi.

THE TRUTH.

Mr. Clay asserts that the war of 1812 was one "purely of defence."

THE TRUTH.

Mr. Clay asserts that the justice of the war of 1812 was admitted by the Federal party.

THE TRUTH.

The foregoing statements in the speech of Mr. Clay are truly remarkable, considering that he is, as usual, a member of the late Capt. Walker's company of Mounted Riflemen, and who was supposed to have been killed in a skirmish with the guerrillas, he having been taken prisoner by the body guard of Santa Anna. At the last accounts he was in good health and was treated well by his captives.

THE LEGISLATURE.

A quorum was present in both Houses of the Legislature on Monday. E. P. SCOTT, Esq., was re-elected Speaker of the Senate. The Democrats presented no opposition for Speaker of the House of Delegates, and James P. STRONGER, of Rappahannock, was unanimously elected. All the old officers, Sergeant-at-Arms, Door-keeper, &c., were re-elected without opposition.

AMERICAN VALOR.

There is a great work yet waiting for some skillful pen, in grouping together the thousand incidents connected with the Mexican war, illustrating the valor of individuals and small bodies of men, which have as yet been only briefly noticed in reports and letters. We take from the report of a New York officer the following, the like of which is not to be found in all the annals of war. A small party of wounded men in a hospital forcing a large body of Mexicans to surrender!

OBEDIENT POSTAGE.

We are glad to see that the attention of newspaper readers is called to the necessity of taking proper measures, for the repeal of a law, in relation to papers circulating within thirty miles of the office of publication. We trust that our readers will take care of their interests in this matter. This is a great popular movement, in which no subscriber can refuse to participate.

THE BARRAGE.

The following is a copy of a memorial for this purpose, brief yet sufficiently comprehensive: Let copies be prepared in every village, signed by all newspaper readers, and forwarded immediately to the member of Congress from this District. To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, in Congress assembled.

VALUABLE PAPERS.

Those wishing to be informed as to the proceedings of Congress in detail, should by all means subscribe for the "Congressional Globe" and Appendix, published by Messrs. Blair & Rives, or the "Congressional Register," by Messrs. Ritchie & Helm. The Prospectus of both, setting forth terms, &c., are to be found on the outer form of to-day's paper.

THE PORK TRADE.

The Cincinnati commercial of Monday last says:—During Friday night a number of sales of hogs were made, mostly in the evening, and none of them were reported until Saturday. The particulars were as follows: 206 and 120, average weights 190 a 200 lbs., at $8 16; 600, 400, 300 and 70 do, same averages at $8 20. On Saturday no sales transpired. The little improvement of the previous day rendered holders still more firm, whilst most buyers refused to "budge a penny."

CONSISTENT VERB.

Mr. Clay, in one paragraph of his late speech, says that "actual hostilities might have been probably averted by prudence, moderation and wise statesmanship."

INDOLYING TRUTH.

Mr. Clay, in his late speech, says that General Taylor ordered his cannon opposite to Matamoros "while Mr. Sillidell was wending his way to Mexico with his credentials."

THE TRUTH.

The "truth" is, General Taylor was not ordered from Corpus Christi to the Rio Grande, till it was known to the Administration that the Mexican Government had refused to receive Mr. Sillidell.

THE TRUTH.

Mr. Clay asserts that Gen. Taylor's "good sense" prompted him to believe, in the beginning of the year 1846, that our army ought to remain at Corpus Christi.

THE TRUTH.

Mr. Clay asserts that the war of 1812 was one "purely of defence."

THE TRUTH.

Mr. Clay asserts that the justice of the war of 1812 was admitted by the Federal party.

THE TRUTH.

The foregoing statements in the speech of Mr. Clay are truly remarkable, considering that he is, as usual, a member of the late Capt. Walker's company of Mounted Riflemen, and who was supposed to have been killed in a skirmish with the guerrillas, he having been taken prisoner by the body guard of Santa Anna. At the last accounts he was in good health and was treated well by his captives.

DALLAS LODGE.

At the late annual Meeting of Dallas Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, Brucetown, Frederick county, the following Brethren were elected Officers for the ensuing year, viz: James W. BELL, W. M.; Frank W. Harris, S. W.; Daniel Metzger, C.; Jos. O. Coyle, J. W.; Levi Hielt, S. D.; Lewis Fry, Sec'y; Wm. McClure, J. D.; Wm. Timberlake, Treas'r; Jacob Shilp, T.

SEND ON YOUR NAMES.

The last month has made a considerable addition to our subscription list. The kind words of our friends—the presentation of our prospectus, when convenient—the exhibition of our paper, when opportunity offers—may all be of great benefit to us at this time. These kind offers, often rendered by those with whom we have no personal acquaintance, are duly appreciated, and shall always be gratefully remembered on our part.

A LARGE RADISH.

Mrs. E. C. BRECKENRIDGE of this town, has shown us a Radish, the product of her garden, weighing five pounds.

MEETING IN FREDERICK.

A large Democratic meeting was held in Winchester on Monday last, and Delegates were appointed to the meeting which is to be held in Richmond during the present Session of the Legislature, for the appointment of Electors—also to the Senatorial Convention which is proposed to be held in the District on the 1st February next for the nomination of a Democratic candidate for the Virginia Senate—and to the Convention, which is to be held in this Electoral District, to appoint Delegates to the National Convention, for the nomination of candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

FINE BEEF.

We are indebted to Mr. SAMUEL H. STRIDEL, of Harpers-Ferry, for a surnion of choice Beef, slaughtered by him within the last few days. The cattle, from one of which this was taken, were raised by Mr. Isaac Strider of the county, and are said to be a little superior to any put in market this season.

THE CANNAL.

The CANAL.—We learn from the Cumberland Citizen, that Mr. W. V. Boel, one of the contractors, who has a very large contract, has been at work for two weeks. Mr. McManus will also get under way in a short time. The other contractors are preparing materials, &c., and will go on with the work as soon as ready.

THE TRUTH.

The "truth" is, General Taylor was not ordered from Corpus Christi to the Rio Grande, till it was known to the Administration that the Mexican Government had refused to receive Mr. Sillidell.

THE TRUTH.

Mr. Clay asserts that Gen. Taylor's "good sense" prompted him to believe, in the beginning of the year 1846, that our army ought to remain at Corpus Christi.

THE TRUTH.

Mr. Clay asserts that the war of 1812 was one "purely of defence."

THE TRUTH.

Mr. Clay asserts that the justice of the war of 1812 was admitted by the Federal party.

THE TRUTH.

The foregoing statements in the speech of Mr. Clay are truly remarkable, considering that he is, as usual, a member of the late Capt. Walker's company of Mounted Riflemen, and who was supposed to have been killed in a skirmish with the guerrillas, he having been taken prisoner by the body guard of Santa Anna. At the last accounts he was in good health and was treated well by his captives.

THE VIRGINIA REGIMENT.

We have received but recently a letter from an officer in the Virginia Regiment, speaking in the most decided terms of indignation, against the efforts which are being made by anonymous correspondents, to make it appear that the rank and file of the Army are for General Taylor for President.

MR. CLAY IN NEW YORK.

Preparations are making in New York city, for the purpose of holding a mass meeting of the Whigs, to manifest their approval of the sentiments set forth in the resolutions and speech of Henry Clay. The Whig party are not, however, united in the movement. There is a widening breach between the various divisions of the party in that city, as is manifest from the language of their respective organs.

MEETING OF CONGRESS.

The Assembling of Congress—Election of Officers—Excitement in the House—The Vote of the Abolitionists—Levin, the Notice, &c. The galleries of the House were thronged this morning, by a crowd of strangers, who seemed to take a deep interest in the proceedings attending the organization of the body.

COLLISION OF THE TALLISMAN.

The St. Louis Republican extra, of the 23d ult., brings us full details of the thrilling disaster in the sinking of this steamer, by collision with the Tempest, on the Mississippi, on the 19th ult. Although the loss of life is not near so great as was first reported, yet it is truly frightful.

DEATH OF DR. HAY.

We regret, deeply to hear of the untimely and melancholy death of Dr. James Hay, of Clarke County, Va. Dr. Hay had been laboring, for several weeks, under a severe bodily affliction, which had unsettled his mind, and on Friday morning last, put a period to his existence, by shooting himself through the heart with a rifle.

POK.—The Williamsport Times speaks of the size and numbers of the droves of hogs that passed through that place, during the past week, that there is $6, while in Baltimore it is but $5.

DEATH OF AN EDITOR.—Geo. H. Colton, Esq., the editor and proprietor of the "American Review," a Whig periodical published in New York, died in that city on Wednesday evening, of typhus fever. Mr. Colton was a young man of much ability as a writer, and won for himself an enviable reputation in the literary as well as political world.

SNOW ON THE MOUNTAINS.—The Pittsburg American, of Saturday evening, says:—The passengers arriving by the western stage inform us that they found snow to the depth of twelve inches on the mountains.

GREAT FAZE.—Mr. Cassell, of New Orleans, has drawn $100,000, the highest prize in the Havana lottery.

MR. CLAY IN NEW YORK.

Preparations are making in New York city, for the purpose of holding a mass meeting of the Whigs, to manifest their approval of the sentiments set forth in the resolutions and speech of Henry Clay. The Whig party are not, however, united in the movement. There is a widening breach between the various divisions of the party in that city, as is manifest from the language of their respective organs.

MEETING OF CONGRESS.

The Assembling of Congress—Election of Officers—Excitement in the House—The Vote of the Abolitionists—Levin, the Notice, &c. The galleries of the House were thronged this morning, by a crowd of strangers, who seemed to take a deep interest in the proceedings attending the organization of the body.

COLLISION OF THE TALLISMAN.

The St. Louis Republican extra, of the 23d ult., brings us full details of the thrilling disaster in the sinking of this steamer, by collision with the Tempest, on the Mississippi, on the 19th ult. Although the loss of life is not near so great as was first reported, yet it is truly frightful.

DEATH OF DR. HAY.

We regret, deeply to hear of the untimely and melancholy death of Dr. James Hay, of Clarke County, Va. Dr. Hay had been laboring, for several weeks, under a severe bodily affliction, which had unsettled his mind, and on Friday morning last, put a period to his existence, by shooting himself through the heart with a rifle.

POK.—The Williamsport Times speaks of the size and numbers of the droves of hogs that passed through that place, during the past week, that there is $6, while in Baltimore it is but $5.

DEATH OF AN EDITOR.—Geo. H. Colton, Esq., the editor and proprietor of the "American Review," a Whig periodical published in New York, died in that city on Wednesday evening, of typhus fever. Mr. Colton was a young man of much ability as a writer, and won for himself an enviable reputation in the literary as well as political world.

SNOW ON THE MOUNTAINS.—The Pittsburg American, of Saturday evening, says:—The passengers arriving by the western stage inform us that they found snow to the depth of twelve inches on the mountains.

GREAT FAZE.—Mr. Cassell, of New Orleans, has drawn $100,000, the highest prize in the Havana lottery.

MR. CLAY IN NEW YORK.

Preparations are making in New York city, for the purpose of holding a mass meeting of the Whigs, to manifest their approval of the sentiments set forth in the resolutions and speech of Henry Clay. The Whig party are not, however, united in the movement. There is a widening breach between the various divisions of the party in that city, as is manifest from the language of their respective organs.

MEETING OF CONGRESS.

The Assembling of Congress—Election of Officers—Excitement in the House—The Vote of the Abolitionists—Levin, the Notice, &c. The galleries of the House were thronged this morning, by a crowd of strangers, who seemed to take a deep interest in the proceedings attending the organization of the body.

COLLISION OF THE TALLISMAN.

The St. Louis Republican extra, of the 23d ult., brings us full details of the thrilling disaster in the sinking of this steamer, by collision with the Tempest, on the Mississippi, on the 19th ult. Although the loss of life is not near so great as was first reported, yet it is truly frightful.

DEATH OF DR. HAY.

We regret, deeply to hear of the untimely and melancholy death of Dr. James Hay, of Clarke County, Va. Dr. Hay had been laboring, for several weeks, under a severe bodily affliction, which had unsettled his mind, and on Friday morning last, put a period to his existence, by shooting himself through the heart with a rifle.

POK.—The Williamsport Times speaks of the size and numbers of the droves of hogs that passed through that place, during the past week, that there is $6, while in Baltimore it is but $5.

DEATH OF AN EDITOR.—Geo. H. Colton, Esq., the editor and proprietor of the "American Review," a Whig periodical published in New York, died in that city on Wednesday evening, of typhus fever. Mr. Colton was a young man of much ability as a writer, and won for himself an enviable reputation in the literary as well as political world.

SNOW ON THE MOUNTAINS.—The Pittsburg American, of Saturday evening, says:—The passengers arriving by the western stage inform us that they found snow to the depth of twelve inches on the mountains.

GREAT FAZE.—Mr. Cassell, of New Orleans, has drawn $100,000, the highest prize in the Havana lottery.

MR. CLAY IN NEW YORK.

Preparations are making in New York city, for the purpose of holding a mass meeting of the Whigs, to manifest their approval of the sentiments set forth in the resolutions and speech of Henry Clay. The Whig party are not, however, united in the movement. There is a widening breach between the various divisions of the party in that city, as is manifest from the language of their respective organs.

MEETING OF CONGRESS.

The Assembling of Congress—Election of Officers—Excitement in the House—The Vote of the Abolitionists—Levin, the Notice, &c. The galleries of the House were thronged this morning, by a crowd of strangers, who seemed to take a deep interest in the proceedings attending the organization of the body.

COLLISION OF THE TALLISMAN.

The St. Louis Republican extra, of the 23d ult., brings us full details of the thrilling disaster in the sinking of this steamer, by collision with the Tempest, on the Mississippi, on the 19th ult. Although the loss of life is not near so great as was first reported, yet it is truly frightful.

DEATH OF DR. HAY.

We regret, deeply to hear of the untimely and melancholy death of Dr. James Hay, of Clarke County, Va. Dr. Hay had been laboring, for several weeks, under a severe bodily affliction, which had unsettled his mind, and on Friday morning last, put a period to his existence, by shooting himself through the heart with a rifle.

POK.—The Williamsport Times speaks of the size and numbers of the droves of hogs that passed through that place, during the past week, that there is $6, while in Baltimore it is but $5.

DEATH OF AN EDITOR.—Geo. H. Colton, Esq., the editor and proprietor of the "American Review," a Whig periodical published in New York, died in that city on Wednesday evening, of typhus fever. Mr. Colton was a young man of much ability as a writer, and won for himself an enviable reputation in the literary as well as political world.

SNOW ON THE MOUNTAINS.—The Pittsburg American, of Saturday evening, says:—The passengers arriving by the western stage inform us that they found snow to the depth of twelve inches on the mountains.

GREAT FAZE.—Mr. Cassell, of New Orleans, has drawn $100,000, the highest prize in the Havana lottery.

