CHARLESTOWN, TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 14, 1848.

TO THE CITIZENS OF JEFFERSON

djoining Counties, and all whom

THE undersigned, for himself and others, having purchased the Water Power and Estate known as Strider's Gulf Mills, at the upper terminus of Harpers-Ferry—and a Company having been organized, and application made to the Legislature of Virginis for a Charter—proposes, as soon as the Charter is obtained, the crection of large and extensive Paper and Woollen Factories, which will give employment to 250 to 300 hands, and with machine shops and machanics, probably over 100 families, who must necessarily purchase their provisions and sustenance from the farmers occupying the fertile valleys around, from which it is to be hoped they will be liberally supplied.

But as the erection of such extensive Pastories and furnishing them with machinery, the erection of dwellings for so large a number of hands, and the large amount of funds requisite for stocking or furnishing the mills with materials, for manufacture, involves a very large outlay of capital, and the proprietors are anxious as fast as possible to push the improvements even greatly beyond those proposed above, the limit of means alone seeming almost the only limit of useful and profitation in the improvement. We are induced to propose, that the citizens in this vicinity unito their means with ours in carrying forward these great and a cital improvements, by becoming subscribers to the stock in "The Shenandach Paper, Manufacturing Lompany," as we think a more useful or profitable investment of fands could not be made, independent of the benefits such establishments confer on the adjacent country.

Should the citizens in this vicinity take stock independent of the benefits such establishments confer on the adjacent country.

Should the citizens in this vicinity take stock to the amount of eight or ten thousand dollars, or more, we shall proceed at once to the erection of a Factory not less than sixty, five by two hundred teet, four stories in height, and of the most per manent materials and work manship, for the double purpose of the manufacture of paper and of woulen goods. We have secured the means of filling them with the requisite machinery, and supplying them with the requisite machinery, and supplying them with workmen; we however wish your aid in amounts equal to the cost of erecting the buildings, or greater, if you desire, and books will be opened for subscriptions as soon as the Charter is obtained.

will be opened for subscriptions as soon as the Charter is obtained.

We also invite the attention of capitalists to the purchase of lots and erecting houses to accommodate the large number of families to be employed; for a reasonable number we would guaranteether ent at fair prices for a term of years. We believe that safer and more profitable investments could nowhere be made.

The above may seem premature, but as the season for commencing is so rapidly approaching, we throw out these suggestions thus early, that the citizens may be informed upon a subject which we believe cannot be indifferent to them, and hope, they having an opportunity to examine which we believe entant be indifferent to them, and hope, they having an opportunity to examine the subject fully, will have their minds made up and be prepared to act as soon as the books are opened. MANUFACTURERS of Grand and Square Pianos, No. 9, Estaw street, Baltimore, beg leave to refer to the following letter from Mr. Knoop, the distinguished Professor, whose Concerts to Baltimore, and elsewhere, have given so much gratification to the musical public:

The GRAND PIANO, which Mesers. K. & G. had the politeness to furnish me for my recent Concert, was of their own manufacture. The execution of that splendid instrument elicited universal admiration—its superiority was acknowledged by every judge present, and won for its constructors that applause which discriminating minds never fail to award to distinguished merit. # DOINGS AT RICHMOND.

[The following letter from our Richmonis Correspondent, was intended for our last week's paper, but failed to reach us in time. It will, however, prove equally interesting at the present moment.]

Correspondence of the **Spirit of Jefferson.**

JAMES W. BELLER, Esq :- Dear Sir-Well the merry time of Spring" has come and instead of bright sunshine and balmy breezes, we have had quite a heavy snow storm driving all day.-Trilly as "Father Ritchie" was wont to say " winter lingers in the lap of Spring".--but we have no right to complain as the past winter has been one, take it all in all," of most remarkable mildness and beauty.

I wee by the "Spirit" which reached me this nothing, that you have shrouded your columns n mourning, as a token of respect to the memory of the filustrious John Quincy ADAMS. That s right-for if ever this nation had reason to mourn over the loss of an eminent citizen since he death of the illustrious Washington-now is the time-one of the most resplendent lights (if not the very greatest) on this continent, has gone out in death -and as that pure patriot and christian, Gov. McDowell of Virginia, truly, and s loquently remarked in his speech- Where else could be have been relieved from the yoke of his labors so well as in the field where he bore them? where else could be bimself have been so willing to have yielded up his life as upon the post of duty, and by the side of that very after to which he had de-voted it? where but in the Capital of his country, to which all the throbbings and hopes of his heart had been given would the dying patriot be so will-ing that those hopes and throbbings should couse? And where, but from this manslon house of liberty on earth, could this dying christian more fitly go to his maneion house of eternal liberty on high ?" Talways entertained the highest and most exravagant admiration for the character, bearing and opinions of that venerable sage and patriot. That he was as true and sound a Republican as ever lived I have not the least shadow of a doubt; that he was a devoted patriot, let his long, distinguished and devoted service to his country speak for him. At an early age -you might almost say while yet a boy-he entered into the diplomatic service of his country-receiving his first appoint-service of his country—receiving his first appointment from the illustrious Washington, whose discerning judgment fixed upon him at an early age as one fit to be trusted with the highest and most responsible duties, and whose service most fully confirmed the correctness of that great man's sagely and penetration.

This venerable man has been engaged perhaps mere than any other of our statesmen since the foundation of our government, in the diplomatic service of the country. In all of the great controversies that have arisen between this country and foreign powers he has had something to do, and no man can point to a single instance where he was not always as true to the rights and honor of his own country as "the needle to the pole"—

Yes, the enemy never received any "aid and comfort" from him—he was always bendeavoring to keep her in the right and to place her upon high and lolty ground before the world. He was perhaps the most accurate text-book upon all questions in the right and to place her upon high and so general respect shown to Mr. Adams' memory—the leads of past events, and eternity opens up its prospects, then shall never eclipse, and whose service of the country that confidence he leaned upon the stong arm of Mr. A.

Hence does Mr. Holmes of Sonth Carolina portray his character—what more noble inscription could be made to shine more originity than that where it shall be written!—when the written!—when the written!—when the written!—when the written!—when the written!—when the read or proscription; he left no heritage of widow's cries or orphan's tears."

But yet and to crown all, amidst his greatness.

But yet and to crown all, amidst his greatness.

He was ready—"this is the end of earth—I am content." How admirably does this portrait of a christian which I take from the writings of an old college companion, apply to him—"therefore the was ready—"this playing the spling mere than the rule graph, of proscription; he left no heritage of widow's cries or orphan's tears."

But yet and to crown all, am FIRLIP B. SADTER & 50NS, Opticism, Watch Makers and Silversmith, No. 212 Bullimore Street, bensean Charles and Silversmith, Mos. 212 Bullimore Street, bensean Charles and Silver Mos. 212 Bullimore Street, bensean Charles and Silver Watches, Special Silver Watches, Speci

ions he was guided by "his country's good."

The last time I had the pleasure of seeing this venerable man was in the House of Representatives in the winter of 1842. I was in the Gallery of the House not more than 25 or 30 yards from which he manufactured out of the band hit which is the white of 1842. I was in the Gallery of the Huuse not more than 25 or 30 yards from him whenche presented a petition from sundry ofticens of Massachusetts in praying for a dissolution of the Union"—which he moved, be referred as a Scheet Committee with instructions to report of the result of the Property of the property of the property of the petitioners. I well result of the Huuse not make the angry and tumuluous scene which immediately followed in the House: I well result of the Huuse of the petitioners. I well result of the Huuse of the petitioners. I well result in the Huuse of the petitioners. I well result in the Huuse of the petitioners. I well result in the Huuse of the petitioners. I well result in the Huuse of the petitioners. I well result in the Huuse of the petitioners of the petitioners. I well result of the petitioners of the petitioners. I well result in the petition has been a petitioned the petitioners of the petiti

Line" is, I am free to admit, but that he was an Abolitionist I deny—there is not one sentiment of his, as far as I am aware, on record, which shows him in that light—on the contrary, I heard him in the very debate to which I have referred, repudiate and disayow any such character. He was the warm and ardent-friend of the "right of petition," and claimed the right for Abolitionists to petition," and claimed the right for Abolitionists to petition Congress upon the subject of Slavery, but that he was in favor of granting their prayers is allogether a mistake. Had the House of Representatives adopted the course of the Senate, and received the petitions, they would have gone to "the tomb of the Capaleta" and quietly slept there, and the country both North and South have been spared much of the trouble and vexation which has grown out of its continued agitation in Congress by the extreme and ultra men from both Congress by the extreme and ultra men rom both sections of the Union. Had Mr. Adams been al-lowed the opportunity to have reported, I dare say he would have announced to the North from the

he would have announced to the North from the Halls of Congress, that the institution of slavery was entirely under the control and government of the States, &c., where it existed, and that Congress had no power over it in any shape or form. It was the misapprehension of his views upon this subject that caused a prejudice to grow up against him in the South, which will now be dispelled as soon as "his life and writings" come into the possession of the public. session of the public.

As, a man of learning Mr. Adams was perhaps the greatest man on this continent, certainly is all that constitutes solid learning, and that which a truly great mind would grapple and control. I have always supposed that his reason for remaining in Congress was that he might be upon the great theatre of the nation, and be an observer for himself and one of the "dramatis persona," and not rely for his information upon "second hand" testimony—so that in his great history of the na-tion he might have everything correct. I make no doubt that he has left the "richest legacy" that has ever yet been bequeathed to this nation, and that his "writings" will constitute a work which will not only be sought after and treasured in this country, but will find a place in every great library throughout the enlightened world, and command the admiration of statesmen, philosophers and the lovers of learning, knowledge and liberty, overywhere. But it is not alone in the foregoing lights tha we are to look upon this great man and admire him? In whatever light we view him there is something to admire—something that shows the enlightened mind and the enlarged heart. How beautifully and how expressively in one little sentence does Mr. Holmes of South Carolina pourray his character-what more noble inscription could for his country, and his country's rights.

His connection with the government at home is familiar to us all; it is now a part and parcel of the national history and posterity will judge it impartially—as we perhaps will not incor it here—suffice it to say that I believe in all his actions he was guided by "his country's good."

The last time I had the pleasure's good."

shall be here 'till, "All Fool's Day,"—but I hope the result of our labors will not give the people the idea that we deserve the title. But last week the Democrats went to the "African Church" to see the Whigs fight—which by the way they didn't—and then this week the Whigs went to the same place to see the Democracy in Council and hear them laugh at their right in their face, which they did in right down good and their face which they did in right down good and their face which they did in right down good and their face which they did in right down good and their face which the pleasure to the country's good." same place to see the Democracy in Council and hear them laugh at them right in their face, which they did in right down good gusto. Mr. President, John M. Patton, leading off the dance in quite a spirited manner, to a nice little song and tune which he manufactured out of the hard hit which which he manufactured out of the hard hit which "Olk Zac" gave "Jimmy Polk" about "the wolf and the lamb." The fact is, Mr. Patton is a good hand at anecdote and repartee, and the best of the joke is, he tells some "good uns" on himself, as you will see in his speech, which you will find in the Enquirer, about "the little Conservative, rariy" to which he used to belong. I heard him tell a better one than that on himself—he has two fine little sons—one about 12 and the other 10 years of age probably—in 1844 he came out for Polk — (having been in 1840 a Harrison man)—his little chaps had been to the log cabin and heard the Whigs in full blast, and when they returned home they got into a dispute—the younger one "lick-

He would in that report, have defined his position upon the "Abolition question," which would have as isfied the whole country.— That he was an anti-Slavery man in the abstract, as every man North of "Mason's and Dixon's Line" is, I am free to admit, but that he was an anti-Slavery man free to admit, but that he was an anti-Slavery man in the abstract, as every man north of "Mason's and Dixon's Line" is, I am free to admit, but that he was an anti-Slavery man free to admit, but that he was an anti-Slavery man in the abstract, as every man north of "Mason's and Dixon's land the time on the out-slike the form of the time. A SINGULAR FIGHT.—The Miners' Prospect gives an account of a regular set to in Potosi, Mo., the other day, between a man named Silvers, and a bear weighing 300 pounds. It was a field fight, rough and tumble. The bear was placed in a room and unchained, when his daring antagonist, descend from head of the installant and his daring antagonist. oom and unchained, when his daring ablagoust, lreased from head to foot in huckskin, met him, and after a severe struggle, in which the man was elightly wounded, Bruin fairly turned tail, and the pectators acknowledged the powerful animal conquered. Silvers has challenged the boar for a second fight.

Lusus Nature.—Great Obstetrical Phenomenon.—We were called, yesterday, to look at the bedies of two female children, grown entirely together from the upper portion of the breast bone to the lower part of the abdomen—forming one trunk with two heads, two sets of arms, and two sets of feet. These parts are well proportioned in every way, with the exception of the joining of the trunk, as before stated. The teatures are in every way comely, and the heads are covered by a beautiful coat of fine dark hair. These children were born about two months ago, of Mrs. Ross, of Texas county, Mo. At the suggestion of several medical gentlemen, the parents were induced to embalm them —St. Louis Reseille, 17th ult. LUSUS NATURE .- Great Obstetrical Pheno grandeur inspired by death in high station, which adds depth to the moral impression made by meritaring and the regret. Through such visitations of the mighty ones and rulers of the earth death speak to all beneath them, and gives a warning which reaches alike tothe humblest subject and the great eat of rulers and leaders.

The strange and stately verses of Shirker (which are said to have chilled the heart of Cromwell himself, by moving some mystic sympathy, marked as they are by an obscurity which deepens their gloomy sublimity, suggest themselves here, as they often do in similar circumstances. The glories of our mortal time.

Are shadows, not substantial things:
There is no armor against the;
Death lays his ley hand on kings.
Sceptre and crown
Must tumble down.
And in the dust be equal made
With the poor crocked scythe and spade,
Soms men with swords may reap the field,

Some men with swords may reap the field.
And plant fresh laurels where they kill;
But their strong nerves at fast must yield.
They tame but one another still,
Early or late,
They etoop to fate.
And must give up their conquering breath.
When thoy, pale captives, creep to death.
The grained withsees,

The garlands wither on your brow;
Then boast no more your mighty doeds;
Upon death's purple cilin now,
See where the victor-victim bleeds!

THE TWO LETTERS.

set attom to which he might be gailed. Your Convention has pat dereads a ceries of residualities and an address which you of course will publish, and therefore it will be unnecessary for metocasy any thing of them here. The campaign may now be considered to have commenced, and I preame the tirere will be fiscework from now till November. What are to be the issues between the parties? That is a question more easily asked than any sweet. But "ve shall see what we shall see." The "two letters" of Gen. Taylor, the one to Marke him and the parties of the parti the other hand, the late Gov. Thomas Randoiphesys in his letter of 1837, that towards Mr. Clay Mr. Jefferson always manifested the most "constant repugnance," looking upon him as a mereorator," without useful information, derived either from books or experience." Gen. Taylor has repeatedly assured us of his total ignorance upon the subject of politics, and if any thing could make that assurance doubly sure, this notion as to the identity of Jefferson's and Clay's political principles must be that thing

Now, then, what is Gen. Taylor, fish or fowl.

Whig or Democrat, Jeffersonian or Clayite—for to be both is a contradiction? it seems to be as difficult for him to answer this important question as it is for any one else. Yet the Whigs would as it is for any one else. Yet the Whigs would call him to the office where more knowledge of State affairs is required than all the other offices. as It is for any one else. Let the Wings wond call him to the office where more knowledge of State affairs is required than all the other offices in the country put together. Why is this? Some of them have the impudence to run a parallel between Taylor and Washington, and to talk of making him President on the same grounds. And Taylor himself, in demanding his election by the whole people of the Union, after giving them to understand that II. Clay shall be the guiding star of his administration, if so elected, favors that dea. Though we think well of his personal character, we must say that this is a piece of insuffarable arrogance in Gen. Taylor, in those who uphold him in such pretensions, it is little short of biasphemy. He is a brave and deserving officer, and excepting the overcagerness for office which he has manifested of late—a very common frailty among ment be seems to be a well disposed man; but he is nothing more. Nothing he has either done or said gives the idea of a mind at all superior to the common run of men. His battles show great courage, but they do not; like Scott's, exhibit any great talent. Wing was drawn up against wing, and centre against centre, and there the men fought it out. As for despatches, these fate letters prove beyond all question that he did not write a sentence of them. Upon civil affairs, he is confessedly as ignorant as a school bey. Why then do the Whig party fing off the Great Embodiment, like an old coat, to take up a new man?—Simply because they regard bim as an available, man. Simply because they look on the people as simply as boors, who can be always dazzled with that glittering bauble, military success. No principle, no argument, no reason, have they offered against the Teople's Party; they, go about to break it down with a popular man. Well may they style themselves the no-principle party, for truly they are unprincipled, or rather let us say, their principles are summed up in this one word—faction.

A Dig AT THE LAWYERS.—The lawyers of A Dig at the Lawyers.—The lawyers of the county of York, Par, were required to, be in Harrisburg one day last week, and scarcely one was left behind. The citizens of the county, feeling relieved by the absence of these gentry, very naturally desired permanent relief, and therefore got up the following petition, which was duly prescribed to the Legislature a few days since, and referred to the judiciary committee:

"We, the undersigned, citizens of York co., being convinced, from the present peace and queltness of our town, of the usefulness of all lawyers as a body, do pray for the passage of a law, to keep our lawyers in Harrisburg, where they now are, and we will ever pray, &c."

Innerantry.—John Jacob Astor has faid aside nearly half a million for the establishment of a free library in the city of N. York. He has wisely limited the cost of the building at 850,000.

lature of Virginia, from the county of Page.

According to the recommendation of the recent Democratic County Convention, a MASS MEET-ING of the Party will be held at the Court-House in Charlestown, on Monday next, 1st day of March Court. The object of the Meeting will be to take into consideration the propriety of presenting candidates for the Legislature at the coming Spring election, and to consider such other matters as may be necessary to the more thorough and complete organization of the Democratic Party. The different Precincts, it is hoped, will be fully represented. The hour of meeting will be 2 o'clock, P. M.

WHIG NOMINEES.

The Whig Delegates of Jefferson County, ap-pointed by the several Precincts, met in Convention at the Court-House on Saturday last, and after considerable debate, nominated WILLIAM C. WORTHINGTON and JOHN A. THOMSON, Esq'rs., as the Whig candidates for the next House of Delegates from this county. Mr. McMurkan, one of the present members, declined we are told another nomination. For his place, there was a host of aspirants, and a few days will serve to demonstrate the unanimity with which the nominations will be received by the different Precincts. Breakers are ahead, depend on it!

MORE HARMONY.

The Charlottesville Advocate, the only paper in Virginia, (says the Richmond Whig.) except Democratic, which sustains the obsolete idea of running Mr. Clay, makes many grave charges against the late Whig Convention. Among other things, it affirms, that the Convention " was nothing more than a packed caucus, which misrepresented the Whig sentiment of Virginia: That the machinery of the Convention had been prepared before hand by members of the Legislature. All the committees were packed, and by the foulest means Taylor Electors and Delegates to the National Convention were appointed," &c.

Upon this, the Whig undertakes to speak in the following authoritative manner to the "Advocate," and all others who dare to urge the " obsolete idea' of running Mr. Clay for the Presidency. What say you, Clay Whigs, to being read out of your party, by the leading organ of your State? That paper says:

The Advocate expresses the belief, that the "The Advocate expresses the belief, that the action of the Whig Convention will lead to a dissolution of the Whig party. Let it indulge in no such fear, or, if it be so, hope—for Charlottesville is not the world—and no such anticipation will is not the world—and no such anticipation will ever be realized.

"But if the Advocate and its few aspiring followers are incurably dissatisfied with the Whig party, and prefer association with the Democrats, we say, let them go in peace. We would part with great reluctance with any of those with whom we have been so long connected in feeling and opinion;—but better do that, than to remain together and scandalize our cause by wrangling. We can spare them without missing them. Their places, few and far between, will be more than filled up by the crowds of new recruits rushing to the rescue. The question is no longer who will vote for Gon. Taylor—but who will not! We Con Taylor-but who will not! W vote for Gen. Taylor—but who will not? We should rejoice that every man who calls himself a Whig should be able to rejoice with us at the great national deliverance, which impends. But if any of them prefer defeat under the black banner of Locolocolsm, their freedom of action is unrestrained-they are at perfect liberty to gratify their de-

CONGRESS.

It is needless to cumber our columns with the proceedings of Congress, as they have been entirely void of interest the past week. A disgraceful fight occurred in the House on Friday, between Mr. Harralson of Georgia, and Mr. Jones from Tennessee. But a few blows passed before they were separated, and the gentlemen having apologized to the House, for an infringement of its dignity, they were acquitted of any farther censure The cause of the difficulty originated from a vote which had been cast by Mr. Harralson. The Senate, after passing the Treaty on Friday night, adjourned until Tuesday.

The Five million Losp has been taken, at 1 26 per cent, premium. Upwards of 17,000,000 were bid for at par! What becomes of Whig predictions of min to the country, and bankruptcy t the government? Mr. WALKER deserves the gratitude of the country, as he will assuredly receive at least the applause, and high rewards of his political friends. BATIFICATION OF THE TREATY. After a long and protracted debate, the Treaty terms of a settlement with this Government, was ratified on Friday night, by a vote of 38 to 15 three Senators absent. Numerous alterations were made in the original document, but none of a character, it is believed, to prevent the acquiescence of the Congress of Mexico. The seal of secrecy has not yet been removed, and the exact terms of the treaty cannot as yet be known.

The Baltimore Clipper, in speaking of the Trea ty of Peace, says :--" We have not received any event for many years past, which gives us greate satisfaction than that of the ratification of the treaty between Mexico and the United States by the Senate. Although it is understood that the treaty has undergone some modification in the Sonate, yet as the essential articles have been preserved, it is not supposed that there will be any obstacle to its acceptance by the Mexican Congress-so that we consider ourselves authorized to congratulate the people of the United States or. the restoration of peace between the two nations. The treaty will no doubt be forthwith transmitted to Mexico, that it may be submitted without delay to the proper authority of that country for ratification. It may be necessary for our government to send out a new agent, or to authorize Mr. Trist to give explanations in respect to the rejected portions of the treaty, which are understood to relate principally to the grants of land in Texas and

FOREIGN LITERATURE.

We desire to call the particular attention of our of Messrs. Leonard Scott & Co., of New York It will be seen that an opportunity is now offered the reading community to possess themselves, fo comparatively a small sum, of as rich intellectua ford as has yet been presented to the America

When we reflect upon the vast amount of Liter ature that is constantly being sent forth to th world, and the utter impossibility of almost any man-by a perusal of the works themselves-to keep pace with them, we can better appreciate the value of a publication, which, while it is a faithful chronicler of the passing events in the great mental world, condenses all that is valuable in a tangible form, and enables one to possess himself the substance, stript of the cumbrous mass that accompanies it. The British Periodicals, in a literary point of view, deservedly stand pre-eminent; their pages being adorned by the productions of the first scholars and writers of this or any other age. In them we have a reflex of all that is interesting in the Literature, Politics, Arts and Sciences of Europe. In this age of progression and improvement, in all that is useful and ornamental to the race, the importance of being possessed of such means of knowledge is at once apparent. .

For the sum of $10, the reader can possess himself of four of the British Quarterlies and a Monthly for a year—not much over the original publication price of any one of them. A fine opportunity is presented to persons for clubbing, as will be seen by the advertisement.

We hope the enterprising publishers orks will succeed in their landable undertaking. The reading public should feel under obligations to them, to have placed within their reach such a rich store of the Literature of the day. To a nation of readers, as we are, their utility cannot fail to strike every reflecting mind, nor should we suffer ourselves to be prejudiced from the fact of their being foreign. Fine gold is not the less so rom its being found in other mines than our own The emanations of true genius belong to the world, and need not the endorsement of "home manufacture," to give them corrency. An able writer of our own country, Everett, has said :-The curiosity of our country is not sufficiently expansive; our public refuses its attention to works written for another hemisphere, and a different state of society; this is natural, but it is not vise. Such an opinion could be explained only as the result of mental imbecility, of a narrowness hat submits to the shackles of prejudice."

Of these publications, we cannot at presen peak separately as to their merits. Of the "Westinster Review," however, quoting the language f the American Prospectus, "it has ever be especially devoted to the great topics that interest he mass of the people : its pages have been rife with a series of powerful articles, tending to the eduction of Tory and Exclusive privileges, herediary rights, kingly prerogatives, &c. + n many particulars, the Westminster Review spouses a political faith closely allied to that of our own country."

Blackwood's Edinburg Magazine,-barring of course its tory principles—is one of the best liter-ary journals of the age. Its reputation is world vide. It has now reached the 31st year of its existence, and circulates more than 40,000 copies a Great Britain alone.

We say, then, let every reading man have one r more of these Journals upon his table-let him take them to his home-circle, and we feel confident that he will feel himself more than rewarded for the small amount expended in the subcription.

Report of Dr. Francis T. Stribling.

The report of this Institution, located at Staunton, Va., for the year ending on the 30th September, has been received, and contains much that is interesting with reference to that unfortunate class of our fellow-citizens, the insane of our Commonwealth. There have been in the Asylum within the period specified in the report, (nine months.) two hundred and fifty-six patients-(142 males and 114 females)—of whom 40 were discharged, including one elopement and eighteen

In the Annual Report there are many matters of interest, which we shall refer to at an early period.

Ma. Beller:—By re-publishing the resolutions adopted by a large meeting of the Republican party of Lancaster county, Va., inserted in the Richmond Enquirer, of the 3d inst., and by omitting hereafter, those long letters from your Richmond correspondent, you will much oblige the undersigned, (one of your subscribers,) and no doubt a large majority of your other Democratic patrons. I also request the insertion of this naccin your next paper.

Longer in requesting the re-publication of the Lancaster Resolutions. ROB'T LUCAS.

[It will afford us great pleasure to publish the proceedings of the "Lancaster County Meeting, as requested, in our next paper, the press matter compelling us, from the number of resolutions, to postpone them this week. As to the latter request, we must decline the suggestion made. We have reason to know that the communications referred to, have proved highly interesting to a large majority of our " Democratic" as well as Whig patrons, and as we have heretofore been able to find room for these favors, as well as any other necessary or proper demand upon our columns, we doubt not we shall be able to do the ame for the future. These Richmond letters have been kindly and gratuitously furnished us by gentleman who is a member of the Legislature close observer and one among the finest writers of the State, and if he has at any time given expression to opinions which were not in consonance with the views of any of our readers, (as he has most certainly widely differed with us on many questions,) our columns have always been open t a full and free investigation. This word of explanation, we hope may be sufficient ]

The following paragraph, which we copy from an article in the Union, shows, in truthful colors, the ludicrous position which Gen. Taylor occupies, as a politician:

"With the aid of the variety of letters which the General has written to define his position, the world is at some loss to understand it. The 'Trenton News' contends that he has come out at last. He no longer cloaks his opinions, but has laid them down in the broadest terms that language offers. A democratic meeting sent him a series of resolutions, to which he replied, 'the resolutions have given me great satisfaction.' A federal meeting sent him a batch of resolutions. He replied, 'I have read the resolutions with great pride and pleasure.' He is, with great satisfaction, a Democrat, and with great pleasure a federalist!—a perfect streak-of-fat and streak-of-lean politician." "With the aid of the variety of letters which

Mixon we may be permitted to say, that there is no gentleman in the County more deserving of support at the hands of both parties. We ha our Democratic friends at least, will extend to him a flattering testimonial of their approbation of the gentleman, and the active, energetic, intelligent

Application has been made to the Legislature for the renewal of a Charler, which tad expired, for manufacturing purposes, passed in 1837. MR. ADAMS .- The remains of Mr. Adams hav been conveyed to Quincy, accompanied by a committee consisting of one representative from each state. In all the intermediate places, solemn and appropriate demonstrations have been made by the people and authorities. An idea of the imsity of the funeral demonstration at New York, may be judged of by the following from the Sun

"There could not have been less than 350,000 people from the Battery to the Park. It took just two hours and ten minutes to pass the corner of Maiden lane and Broadway, and calculating the Maiden lane and Broadway, and calculating the pace at two miles per hour, the funeral would cover over four miles of ground! At the Park the crowd became concentrated, and the appearance of the huahed assembly, during the recital of the prayer for the dead, was a we-inspiring."

We acknowledge our indebtedness to Mr E. H. CARRELL, of the Exchange Hotel, Harpers-Ferry, for a fine large Shad, the very first of the season. Eighteen thousand dollars, or one-half of the whole amount of capital that will be required, is ALRADY SUBSCRIBED, by four enterprising gentlemen of our county, and no apprehensions are felt that the whole capital stock will be taken in the course of a lew weeks. It is confidently expected that the Factory will be in successful operation in less than six months! The inducements for an investment in this enterprise, are certainly very strong; the situation is commanding, the water power capacious enough for a dozen factories, the amount of money comparatively small, and a speedy return of the principal inducements for an invostment in this enterprise, are certainly very strong; the situation is commanding, the water power capacious enough for a dozen factories, the amount of money comparatively small, and a speedy return of the principal in the shape of dividends, may be calculated upon with an almost unerring certainty."

RETURNED.

Lieut. McCormick and Mr. James W. Duke, both formerly of Capit Rowan's Company, returned home on Teesday last. The one resigned his office, and the other received an honorable discharge, on account of sickness. A Mexican Boy about fourteen years of age accompanies them, and is quite a likely looking youth. He is a few shades lighter in complexion than the Indian.—Mr. Duke represents the Jefferson Company, and in fact the entire Virginia Regiment, as being in good health and spirits.

MB. CLAY IS NEW YORK.—Five columns of the New York Herald are occupied with an account of the reception of Mr. Clay in that city, on Tuesday last, which must have been one of the most enthusiastic public demonstrations ever witnessed in this country. All agree in representing it as such. The triumphant march of the procession, amidst the enthusiastic masses of men and women, made it a most brilliant affair.

From every window could be seen ladies, who waved to the venerable statesman their handkerchiefs a hearty welcome, while huzzas rung from altoop and iousetop.

In the response of Mr. Clay to the Mayor's welcome, he alluded to the nature of his reception, the discharge of cannon, the display of flags, and the discharge of cannon, the display of flags, and the discharge of cannon, the display of flags, and the discharge of cannon, the display of flags, and the discharge of cannon, the display of flags, and the gay and exulting sounds of music, and most feelingly contrasted that welcome with the sad and mournful duty they must perform to morrow, in regard to the venerable remains of the late exPresident of the United States, Mr. Adams. He thought that such a contrast should make men re-President of the United States, Mr. Adams. He thought that such a contrast should make men remember how vain the contentions of party strike were; it should moderate, if not still the anger of political feeling, and lessen, if not destroy, the acrimony to which party conflicts give rise.

Reaching at length the New York Hotel, after bowing repeatedly to those without, Mr. Clay, fatigued and worn out, entered, the multitude the while however, demanding a speech—or as some of them expressed it—"only one word" from Harry of the West. No remonstrance was of any avail, and Mr. C. had again to appear and excuse himself, acknowledging their love and too high appraciation of him. Hastily leaving the balcony, he exclaimed, "My friends make me run—a thing my enemies never did." In the evening, he was entertained at a dinner party at the New York Hotel; and on Wednesday united with the municipal authorities in the solemnities to Mr. Adams. Yesterday, he was to receive the citizens, and last evening a grand ball was to be given in compliment to him, at the Broadway Theatre, and an oratorio, at the Tabernacle, by the Sacred Music ecciety. has been great, it is presumed will be denied by none. If a hero or a statesman dies, the light ning's flash and the flight of the immortal spirit towards its destined home, is not more rapid than it he intelligence of its dissolution is conveyed to the most distant varge of the Union; and like the "Mene Tekle" upon the walls of Beishazzar's Palace, its characters are decyphered and made plain to all. The sun that lights the Earth, is made to draw and paint, with a beauty and delicacy of which Reubens never dreamed;—and bound by the inventive genius of man, Steam is made to act in obedience to his will, to supply his wants or administer to his pleasure. Does humanity suffer?—the Letheon or Chloroform has ten to its aid and pain is pain no longer,—wrapt in slumbers dreamless as the grave, the patient sleeps, and wakes minus a leg, an arm, a tooth, perhaps a head. Wonderful and mysterious power—may it not be to thy influence that some heretofore exponent of the Whig doctrines, inhaling thy suble power, have awoke to find the past a dream!

Not so with myself. Clearly and distinctly do I recollect that on more than one occasion, during the past, I have had the pleasure of listening to the eloquent, instructive, and powerful appeals of one who was a very Hunter of Locofoce errors, and have not yet forgotten the principles imbited under his tuition. Principles by which the Government of this country should be guided. Principles which I still clerish. And yet more,—we were taught the doctrines and warned of the danger to be incurred from the elevation of a man to the Presidency who had no other claim to distinction save that which had been gathered on the field of battle. It is unnecessary to particularize upon this point, for I doubt not it has been so thoroughly Mnemotechnicized upon the minds of all as to need no other cabalistic word than "Jackson," to bring it fresh to mind. But a few years have passed since the great Whig party entered the political arens. Nerved to the contest by the clarion voice of the renow which were inscribed our mottoes, and our principles, which then nor now, needs no concealment.

If Victory did not enure, disgrace was not incurred—beaten, but not dismayed—we but waited the time to enter the list again, and strike one ed the time to enter the list again, and strike one more blow for country, for principles and for Harry Clay, when lo! a glittering meteor fis-shee athwart the sky—struck by its brilliancy, blinded by its dazzling aplendor, Captains and Lieutenants, Office Seekers and Politicians of the Whighost, threw up their caps and shouted—Hurrah for General Taylor!

Not so with the rank and file. They had seen the meteor—admired its beauty—but looked again and saw their mon bright star screnely gleaming, and gathering under its steady ray and guiding light, are marching on to clear the track for old Kentucky!

Whigs of Jefferson, it has been proclaim Whigs of Jefferson, it has been proclaimed by those who were once our leaders, that the voice of the county is for Taylor. What say you—Party, or No Party—Principles, or no Principles; Statesman, or Hero; General, or Civilian; Veiled, or Unveiled? Choose ye—but remember the words addressed by the Prophet of Koorhansan, to his deluded followers, when casting from his face the mantle which had so long concealed his hideous deformity, he exclaimed:—"Ye would be dupes and fools, and ye are."

Perhaps this is not so much their feeling, as the legitimate result of their practice. Now, Mr. Editor, if a stranger might be permitted to obtrude his thoughts or queries upon a community, he probably might ask, why like causes should not produce like results? and why the opening up of great avenues of commerce into the interior, among your Mountains of lumber and minerals, as well as along your fertile Valley, with the improvement of your water falls for Factories, would not work beneficially here as elsewhere, and millions upon millions be added to the resources of your fertile district, giving room for your sons to enter the manufacturing or commercial lists, instead of bringing them up to the professions now already over-stocked—or to the entui of a life of inactivity, or the precarious business of politics and office hunting—and giving additional employment and wages to the laborer the mechanic and the artisan—as well as compelling the elements and wack for your individual good, and the common benefit of mankind. "Spirit of Jefferson," will you suffer any to doubt its practicability? Yours respectfully.

Capt. George Nauman, Pa. Reg't, says: "Mexico is atterly, hopelessly, irrecoverably prostrate, and cannot stike another blow, but her pride and her hopes are not yet subdued. She trusts much to our political differences at home. She fancies that if the Whig party gets into power, we will abandon the country, and even pay her for the mischief she has suffered at our hands. Without intending it, some of our politicians have done us much injury in this unhappy and benighted land. You cannot imagine the deep and bitter execrations that are heaped by the army on the heads of Clay, Webster, and others, for their speeches against the war."

It would astonish you to witness with what composure these men met their certain fate. They mo the scaffold smoking their cigars, and one of them seized the rope from the hand of the executioner, and placed the noose around his own neck!-These facts involve a question of gravity and interest :- what gave the culprits this firmness under such trying circumstances? It was not a

The courage they displayed was that of ignorance dyed in wickedness. I mention this particularly, because on the day of execution, their conduct was a subject of much remark.

In regard to the future prosecution of the war, the President's Message is a bulwark which no fact, nor argument, nor ingenuity can successfully attack. And it meets the fullest measure of approbation. The Secretary of War most justly says that, in future "by making them (the rich and the rulers) feel the usual calamities of war, they must be made to desire peace." It is a source of gratification that the House of Representatives has so decidedly rejected the passive policy, so strenuously advocated by Mr. Calhoun; the impolicy and futility of which the President has demonstrated to every impartial understanding.

There is with the American people an internal energy, a spirit of progress,—call it progressive Democracy if you will—that is destined to accomplish splendid and valuable results in its march. And yet there are men of letters and character, even American statesmen, who would trammel and impair this sublime principle. It may be retarded for a season, it may be temporarily diverted from its object, but ultimately, its great and noble ends will be attained, and its true character illustrated in the development of manifold advantages to the human race.

This idea, from its truth, led me away from the domestic remark I was about to make in connection with the internal police of the camp:—that our-wives and sweethearts may rest assured that we suffer but little from privatiens, except that of their inestimable presence. The operation of the Democratic Tariff is a matter of congratulation. That a measure should have proved so eminently succeesful, which had been confidently prophesied by the 'great Pacificator,' and the 'God-like Daniel' et id omne genus would apread ruin and dismay over the land, is an event of much interest; and should stand conspicuous, by the way, to mark their future vaticinations. Can it be possible there is any aconsiderable portion of the American peoplehonestly desirous of changing a policy so eminently prosperous? But as in the world at large, we find persons, who, from jealous temperament or disappointed views, can never witness with satisfaction the prosperity attending others; so in politics, there are men who are continually, and find their sport in railing against their Government and these measures of policy, however favorably recommended by their effects on the nations welfare, because, forsooth, in the promotion of these measures of policy, however favorably recommended by their effects on the nations welfare, because, forsooth, in the promotion of these measures of policy, however fa

DOINGS AT RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, March 10, 1848. James W. Briller, Esq:—Deer Sir—The ention of the House of Delegates has been al-bet exclusively taken up for the last week with the consideration of the "Lynchburg and Tennes-see Railroad Bill," and upon which there has been one of the most able and interesting debates of the session. The vote was taken to-day about

2 o'clock, P. M .- Ayes 43, Nays 75. I look upon this contemplated improvement as one of the greatest, if not the very greatest to which the attention of the State could be directed; and so thinking, you may think it a little atrange when I tell you that I voted against it—yet it is even some and my sole reason for doing so, was, that I did not think it politic and prudent to the present condition of our State debt, and the monetary affairs of the world, to make a dip of several millions—any at least four millions—into the coffers of the State. We cannot tell clearly what is the attact of the money affairs of the country at this time—we might get ourselves into the mire—commence this great improvement—be overwhelmed with an enormous debt—have to grind the people with taxets, and cause them to rise up against as, and put their veto upon the whole system of internal improvement. We must be cautious, careful and prudent, and then we shall sustain and keep up the system, aye, and the spirit of the people for future improvement. That the scheme which we have voted down, ought to succeed at a proper time, I have no hesitation in saying—and I am sure it will succeed. Before we adjourn I may take occasion to treat at large uponthis "Tennessee Raifroad," as much to open up to your view the South-Western portion of our State and its vast mineral resources asany thing else—you will then see something of the importance of the contemplated road.

I have taken occasion once or twice to express to you the opinion that we were not conducting our Improvement system in the safet and most judicious manner. Virginia is a little bewildered—she is like one who has suddenly wakened up from a long sleep, and has not got her eyes quite opened yet—she is groping somewhat in the dark. For the last half century, almost, her politiciaus have been wasting the time of the Legislature in discussing "Pederal Relations"—but for the last five years past "a change has come over the spirit of tupic dreams, "and a just spirit of improvement has seized them. But here is she mistake, every man is f latterals as are necessary to them be entered upon and constructed. We must take some warning from the indebtedness of our sister States, brought on by too hasty and injudicious improvement. Our State credit is now on high ground; let us keep it there, which we can easily do hy taking good common sense views of things, go along slow and sure, and not with too much not haste and perhaps thereby kill the whole spirit of improvement in the State.

I regret sincerely to announce to you that death has again come among us; one of our members, John D. Hamilton, Eq., the Delegate from Bath county, died at his lodgings in this city to-day, at 20 minutes past 1 o'clock, P. M. "Truly what shadows we are and what shadows we pursue"—Mr. Hamilton i suppose was about 40 years of age—a very large, hale, healthy, athletic looking man—one who seemed to me to have had the prospect of a much longer life than almost any member upon the floor of the House. He sat immediate by in my rear, in the House, and I had become quite well acquained with tim; he was a noble hearted man, and one whose kindness of heart, free, open, and pleasant countenance was well calculated to win him friends. He was a remarkably plain man, very modest in his demeanor, and who always seemed to me to be decirous to do right. He was a Farmer, and has left a family; a wife and children I believe General Dorman announced his death to the House in a neat and feeling address and concluded by offering a series of appropriate resolutions as a token of respect to announced his death to the House in a neat and feeling address and concluded by offering a series of appropriate resolutions are tolsen of respect to his memory, which were usanimously adopted and sent to the Nenate who concurred, and the House immediately adjourned. The Funeral I presume will take place to-morrow. Mr. Hamilton was a member of the Democratic party. He was faithfully attended to throughout his illness by Dr. Henry S. Wunder, the worthy De'egate from Shensndosh; a "finer man" than whom I have not met in the Genral Assembly. We will adjourn I presume about the 1st of April.

Very respectfully yours, PHILO.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.

The Senate, on Mospar, March 7th, passed the bill creating the new County of Putnam out of the counties of Kanawha, Cabell and Mason. Also, counties of Kanawia, Cabell and Mason. Also, several Internal Improvement bills.

In the House, a bill was reported to increase the number of Directors in the New Shenandoah Company to ten f a bill to incorporate Winchester Lodge, No. 35, inbependent Order of Old Fellows; and a bill to incorporate the Winchester and White Sulphur Springs Stage Company. Also, eight or ten other bills.

or ten other bills.

On motion of Mr. Snowden, a resolution was adopted, that the committee on Roads and Internal Navigation enquire into the expediency of reporting a bill to explain and amendan act entitled "an act incorporating the Alexandria and Harpers-Ferry Railroad Company, passed March 20th 1847."

pera-Ferry Railroad Company, passed March 20th 1847."

A very important bill, upon which the committee of Courts of Justice have been laboring the greater part of the seasion, was passed, with very little opposition. It is the bill to reduce into one, the several acts concerning crimes and punishments, and proceedings in criminal cases. This bill condenses the laws on the subject into a much smaller compass than heretofore, and will be found to be a very great improvement.

Among the petitions presented on Monday, was one by Mr. McMurran, from citizens of Jefferson, for an act for the better protection of sheep; and on Tussday a bill was reported to authorize the County Court of Jefferson to impose a tax on dogs. In the Senate on Tussday, the bill concerning the Criminal code was referred to a select committee.

Mr. Thompson, from the committee of General Laws, seported the bill incorporating the Sons of Comperance of Shepherdstown.

Mr. Gallaher reported a bill concerning the Juil of Frederick county.

In the House, Mr. Thompson of B., from the committee on Agriculture and Manufactures, presented the following bill:

A bill incorporating the Shenandoah Paper Manufacturing Company in the county of Jefferson.

Mr. Scott of F., from the committee of Courts Justice, presented an adverse report upon the stition of Wm. J. Armstrong, and of the Society Friends or Ouskers.

of Friends or Quakers.

The State's rote in Joint Stock Companies.

The following bill was reported to the House of Delegates on Friday last:

Be it enacted by the General Assembly, that in all cases in which the State becomes a subscriber in a Joint Stock Company, no location of the route of the improvement shall be made until the State is fully represented in the Directory, nor unless a majority of the State Directors shall be present at such location. Nor shall the Board of Pablic Works pay any instalment or subscription on the part of the Commonwealth, until the location shall have been made as herein provided.

This act shall be in force from its passage,
On motion of Mr. McMunan—Resolved,
That the committee on Agriculture, &c., be in atructed to report a bill reviving the acts, passed March 24th, 1837, and January 7, 1840, incorporating the Madison Manufacturing Company in Jefferson county.

On Thursday, the Senais agreed to the amend-rating the Madison Manufacturing Company in Jefferson county.

On Thursday, the Senite agreed to the amendment of the House of Delegates, to go into the election of Councillor on the 11th instant.

The House was engaged principally, upon the bill to incorporate the Lynchburg and Tennessee Railroad Company.

Mr. Dorman concluded his speech against the bill, and Mr. Thompon of Jefferson and Mr. Thompon of Botetourtalso opposed its passage.

Very little other business was transacted.

THE TERRITORY CEDED BY THE TREATY. The Territory Cened by the Treatry.—
A correspondent of the National Intelligencer gives the following as the territory ceded to the United States by Mexico, agreeably to the Treatry, according to the area as computed by Mexican authority:

*Texas proper, 100,000 square miles
New Mexico, 214.800 do
Up. California, 376,344 do
To the above should be added portions of Tamaulipas, Coahuila, Chibunhus, estimated area 60,000 square miles, making a total of 751,144 square miles.

uare miles. Prior to the annexation of Texas the United Prior to the annexation of Texas the United States was estimated to contain 2,000,000 square miles, and Mexico 1,690,304 square miles. If the above treaty is adopted, the United States of America, according to the above estimates, will then contain 2,751,144 square miles, and the republic of Mexico 939,160 square miles.

*Coabuila and Texas united, in 1828, was es timated to contain 193,600 square miles according to the above authority.

Snow to the depth of six inches, fell at Cumperland, Md., on Friday Capt. Owens, of the western train, says it snowed all that day west of Harpore-Ferry.

D. The Conference of the M. P. Church assembled in Georgetown on Wednesday. About 90 Ministers and Lay Delegates and in attendance. ANOTHER VICTIM .- Mr. Isaac Thompson, fell ana, Pa. He drank about one quart of whiskey, fell from his chair and died. He was a mun of some property, but intemperate habits.

The Markets.

BALTIMORE MARKET-

BALTIMORE MARKET—

Reported weekly for the "Spirit of Jefferson," by Walters & Ge., Flour and Commission Muschants and General Produce Dealers, Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Saturday evening, March 11, 1848.

J. W. Beller, Dear Sir.—We closed our report of the Flour market last week with a sale of 300 bbls at 59-94, dealers bolding for 86. This price was contended for but without sales up to Saturday nown, when the steamer Britannia's news was received which unsettled the market and nothing was done until Monday, when sales were made at 85-814, at which price cales were uniformly made throughout the week, to the extent of 3.500 bbls. Dealers generally would not sell yesterday for less than $5-874.

GRAIN—Whent comes forward in very small parcels; sales of red at 125 to $1-35; white 145 to $1.50. Corn is in fair supply with sales of withe at 35 to 47 and yellow 45 to 48 cents.

WHITE BEANS—Good quality command $1.

SEEUS.—Sales of Clover Seed at 375 to $1.25 as in quality. Timmity 2.75 to $2.5.

BUTTER—In tegs and firking 11 to 13, in rolls, 14 to 17 cents.

PLASTER.—Very little coming in for the past month,

17 cents.
PLATER - Very little coming in for the past mouth, also at $350 per ton by eargo.
CATTLE - At last Monday's market 720 head were offered, and but 500 head sold 3 to $4 per 100 lbs, the batance driven North.
HOGS-The supply is good, sales at 6 to $650.

At the Store of Lloyd Logan, in Winchester, HOGS—The supply is good, sales at 6 to $650.

Balthmore, Monday Monning, March 13, 1848.

J. W. Briller, Dear Sir.—The unfavorable news received by the steamer has week, produced very little effect upon the Flour Market; some sales were made at $575 up to Friday, or which day an advance of 6f etc. per bbl. was obtained, and on Saturday I notice a sale at $581t. I therefore quote Howard street brands at these figures, and City Mills at $6. Our receipts continue light, viz. 9,670 bbls, and lair bbls, and our exports mostly to the West Indies, amounted to 7,895 bbls. for the last weeks. The stock on hand is supposed to be from 40 to $5,000 barrels.

I quote red Wheat at 130 a $1.35. Corn 43 a 48 cents. Section 10,000 for the last weeks. The stock on hand is supposed to be from 40 to $5,000 barrels.

WISTAR'S BALSAM AT HOME. Mr. S. W. Fowle, Dear Sir:—I have been induced at the suggestion of many of my friends, to make known to the public through you, the great benefit I have derived from the use of the medicine called WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY in the hope that others suffering from long complaints may find the same relief from its use that I have doon. The latter part of last summer and in the fall, I suffered greatly from a severe cough, pair in the side, difficulty of breathing, loss of appielite, and other symptoms which indicated a rapid decline. Three of the most learned and intelligents medical practitioners pronounced my case consumption, and stated to me that nothing but a change of climate could be of the least possible benefit to me, as my lungs were in a very inflamed and diseased state. At this time, it hopes I might find a tempory relief for my cough, I bought a bottle of the Baisam, which not only gave me the relief shad my fauling strength required, but seemed to give me new life and energy.

After taking several bottles of the medicine, my appetitic returned and with it my strength; my could entirely left me, as also the night sweats, which, previous to this had been very profuse. In five weeks' time I gained eight pounds of flesh; and have been able over since to faste my accusioned exercise, a walk of from three to four miles a day, and attend to my regular business. I about be most supply to have you refer any one, who may wish further particulars, to me at my place of business, No. 305 Washington street. Yours truly.

TO DRY GOODS MERCHANTS.

THE undersigned would respectfully call the attention of Merchants to the article of yard wide Shectings and Shirtings, now manufactured by the Harpers-Ferry and Shemandoah Manufacturing Company at Harpers-Ferry.

He helieves the goods of their Mill to be fully equal to any manufactured in the country, and therefore solicits the attention of purchasers.

The contiguity of the Mill to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, the Winchester & Potomac Railroad and the Chesapeake & Ohio Canal, will enable the undersigned to fill orders for any portion of Western Virginia with promptness, and at less than Baltimore prices. He would ask Merchants to give these goods a trial before purchasing elsewhere.

ALL'S FOR THE BEST.

Als for the best; be sanguine and cheerful;
Trouble and sorrow are friends in disguise;
Nesting but Folly goes faithless and fearful,
Courage forever is happy and wise:
All's for the best—if a man would but know it,
Providence wishes us all to be blest;
This is no dream of the bundit or poet;
Heaven is gracious, and—All's for the best!

Heaven is gracious, and—All's for the best!

All's for the best! set this on your standard,
Soldier of sadness, or pligtim of love,
Who to the shores of Deapair may have wandered,
A way-wearted swallow, or heart-stricken dove:
All's for the best!—be a man but confiding,
Providence tenderly governs the rest,
And the frail bark of His creature is guiding,
Wisely and warily—all for the best.

All's for the best! then fling a way terrors,
Meet all your fears and your foes in the van,
And in the midst of your dangers or errors,
Trust like a child, while you strive like a man:
All's for the best!—unbiassed, unbounded.
Providence reigns from the East to the West;
And by both wisdom and mercy surrounded,
Hope and be happy that All's for the best.

THE "SHIRTLESS PARTY."—Mr Magrader, of Albemarle, (brother of the gallant Capt. Magrader.) suggested in the Whig Couvention, yesterday a name which will stick to the Whig party of Virginia with the burning adhesiveness of "the Shirt of Nessus." When the question upon the passage of the resolution avowing a preference for Gen. Taylor as President was about being put, Mr. M. rose and declared that he represented 1,200 good Henry Clay Whigs, and he could not vote for a proposition which was not true, viz: that the Whigs of Virginia preferred General Taylor to Mr. Clay. He leared that the Whig party had placed themselves in a dilemma, from which they could not retrieve themselves. He very much leared that they would find themselves in the condition of the Eastern monarch, who was laboring under the leprosy, or some THE "SHIRTLESS PARTY, "-Mr Magrader, who was laboring under the leprosy, or some other terrible disease, and who was advised that the only remedy was to wear the shirt of a "per-fectly happy man." After a long and labored search; he found such a man, but to his horror and amazement, it was ascertained that the "pe fectly happy man" had no shirt! Thus, he appr hended, it would be with the Whig party, staking themselves upon the supposed "avail staking themselves upon the supposed "availability" of Gen. Taylor. The remarks of this Henry Clay Whig were recieved with marked dissatisfaction, and he was compelled to take his seat, amidst the clamors of the arbitrary Taylor majority! A fair specimen of the "decency, lav

"On the great questions which have divided the public mind for the last twenty years, General Taylor has rever expressed an original—What does the public know of him? First—in the capacity of a Colonel in the Bloodhound Florida war—chasing and massacreing a poor miserable band of naked and half starved Seminole Indiana—and capacity. dians—and secondly, as a rook in the hands of a Usurper, in breaking the Constitution of his coun-Usurper, in breaking the Constitution of his country by commencing an unjust, unnecessary, and aggressive war on a weak, distracted and defenceless neighbor. And for these exploits—equalled only in atrocity to those by the soldiers of Bonaparte and Nicholas—he is regarded as a successor of Washington! He is emphatically A MAN OF BLOOD—an executioner in infamous wars—AN IGNORAMUS IN STATE AFFAIRS, and fit only for the station he occupies. only for the station he occupies. What possible contingency could ever induce the Whigs of Ohit to vote for Zachary Taylor."

Value of a Dollar.—If you would learn the value of a dollar, go and labor two days in the burning sun as a hod carrier. This is an excellent idea; and, if many of our young gentlemen had to earn their dollars in that way, how much less dissipation and crime would we witness every day? So of our fashionable young ladies; if they, like some of the poor seamstresses of our large cities, had to earn their dollars by making shirts at ten cents apiece, how much less finery would we see about them, and how much more truthful notions would they have of their duties of life and their obligations to the rest of the world.

HOGAN & THOMPSON, Wholesale Booksellers, Stationers, AND PUBLISHERS,

No. 30 North Fourth Street, Philadelphia, No. 30 North Fourth Street, Philadelphia,
A NNOUNCE to their friends, and to merchants generally, in the Valley of Virginia, that their stock of Booka and Stationary for the coming business season of 1848 will be larger and better assorted than at any former period. It will embrace every article in the trade which is required for the aales of the country merchant.

In consequence of the change in their terms of selling, they are enabled to offer SCHOOL AND MISCELLANEOUS BOOKS, PAPERS, and BLANK BOOKS, &c. at prices so greatly reduced from former rates, as to make it to the interest of all who deal in these articles to purchase from their stock.

Hitherto the system of crediting small amounts has involved an expense in their collection, and as II. & T. now sell only for CASH, or such negotiable notes as are sure to be paid in bank at their maturity, the saving in those who choose to deal in this manner will be a very considerable per centage on their purchase.

Fow dealers in the country bay more than $200

Fow dealers in the country bny more than $200 worth of stationary in a season, many not over one-half, and a large portion not more than one-fourth of that amount. There is not a dealer, therefore, who visits Philadelphia who would be inconvenienced by paying these small sums in Cash, and as each can save money by doing so. H. & T. believe they are offering an inducement which will gladly be embraced by those who make their purchases in Philadelphia. Those who enter into such an arrangement will be enabled to sell at prices much below their former rates at home, and will consequently reap a larger siggregate profit from the increased amount of their sales.

Having a PRINTING OFFICE for copperplate and type work, and an extensive BINDERY, H. & T. are prepared to fill orders from Banks and Public Offices, when forwarded through merchants, at exremely low prices. Philadelphia, January 18, 1848.—tf.

DR. SWEETZER'S PANACEA.

THIS Medicine is warranted, on oath, not to contain a particle of Calomei, Corrosive Sublimate, Arsenic, Chloride of Gold, or any deleterious minerals.

The principle upon which this medicine acts, is by assisting and harmonizing with nature; it drives out all foul acrimonious humors from the blood and body, and by assimilating with and strengthening the gastric juice of the stomach, it assists digestion; in short there is not a vein, artery, muscle or nerve in the human body, that is not strengthened by the PARACEA, and it also possesses the remarkable property of removing mercury from the bones and joints.

FOR ERUPTIONS OF THE SEIN,
Scurvy, Scorbitic Affections, Tumora, Scrofula or King's Evil, White Swellings, Erysipelus, Ulcers, Cancers, Running Sores, Scabs and Biles, time and a determined perseverance in Dr. Swertzer's Panacea, will effect a cure.

FOR INDIDESTION,

Rejection of food, Nausea, Yomitings, Nervous affections, Bilious complaints, Head-ache, Paleness, or Fernale Irregularities, Dr. SWEETZER'S PANACEA will soon effect a cure; but if obstinate, or attended with griping, flying pains, the dose should be increased, and the cure will soon be effected. Let not the patients frighten themselves with the idea that they are too weak to take much medicine; but bear in mind that this mildly operating medicine puts not weakness into the frame, but most certainly draws weakness out, leaves strength in its place, and by giving composed sleep at night, and an appetite for any kind of food, re-animates the whole frame with vigorous action, improving the mind and clearing the sight.

SCROFULA AND GLANDULAR AFFECTIONS.

Scrotula is said to be hereditary, the infant receiving from its parents the seeds of this disease, which increases with its years, if neglected and not subjected to frequent putification with Da. SWEETZER'S PANACEA. The glands are placed in the corners of the body, and out of the way of direct communication; their real use is a subject on which much difference of opinion prevails; it suffices us to know that when in a diseased state, they are capable of being purified and cleansed by fices us to know that when to a diseased state, they are capable of being purified and cleansed by a long course of Dr. Sweetzer's Paracea, which restores them to sound and proper action. Scrofulous persons can never pay too much attention to their blood, its purification should be their first thought, for after a long course of persecutives they will even cure hereditary disease.

In case of Jaundice, Asthma, Liver complaints, Tic Doloreux, Rheumatism or Rheumatic Gout, Dr. Swzetzer's Paracea cannot be too highly extolled; it searches out the very root of the disease, and by removing it from the blood, makes a ease, and by removing it from the blood, makes a cure certain and permanent.

For diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys, Strictures, Gravel, Stope, Piles, Fistula, Urmary Obstructions and Extreme Costiveness, Dr. Sweetzer's Panacea is the best rewedy ever tried; it removes all those acrimonious humors from the blood which give rise to the above diseases, and by keeping the blood in a pure condition, insures leading.

health.
For Dropsy, Falling of the Bowels, Impurities of Blood, Mercurial Taint, Weakness of the Spine, Flow of blood to the head, Gildiness, Singing or Buzzing noise in the head and ears, Dr. SWEETZER'S PARACEA will give certain relief; in all severe and chronic cases, the patients cannot be too will effect a cure. *
In Chills and fevers, bilions fever, affections of the eyes and curs, spongy and bleeding gums, Bronchitis, and recent coughs and colds, Dr. Sweetzer's Paracea will be found perfectly sure and certain in its effects.

GRAVEL AND URINARY COMPLAINTS. These complaints are generally attended with the most fatal consequences, and are seldom or never, cured by the present mode of treatment; they usually accompany the patient to the grave, aiter suffering the most exerutating pain and forture. The cause of these complaints are the same as all others, the dross of the blood becomes increased on the finest parrow passages, where as all others, the dross of the blood becomes incrusted on the finest narrow passages, whence arise morbid secretions and stoppages of orize.—You will find the most powerful disretice of no use, as they only increase the quantity of urine and do not purify and strengthen the parts. By purifying the blood with Dr. Sweetzer's Panacea, you remove the cause of the disease, consequently it cannot exist any longer, after sufficient perseverance in its use has deprived the blood and body of all acrimonious humors and incrustations.

This land can be divided into two farms, giving both wood and water to each.

The subscriber respectfully invites a call from those desirous of purchasing land, as he is prepared to accept a price that would make the purchase a valuable investment, even as a speculation, to any disposed to engage in such an enterprise. To a gentleman of fortune, who desires a diseases; where the cause, instead of having been the cause in the control of the price that would make the purchase a valuable investment, even as a speculation, to any disposed to engage in such an enterprise. To a gentleman of fortune, who desires a diseases; where the cause, instead of having been the cause of the diseases; where the cause, instead of having been thoroughly removed from the blood and body, have only been palliated or removed from one part to break out in another. By divesting your bodies from all foul humors, through the medium of Dr. SWESTZER'S PARKCEA, the cure is at once readered certain and permanent. Recollect while there is acrimonious humors floating in the circulation, it is as apt to settle on the lungs as any other part of the body; this is the reason that consumption is so prevalent.

BILES, SORES AND ULCERS,

Which you see on the exterior, come from, and have their source in, the interior, and might just as well have settled on your langs, liver, or any other part; which we know they frequently do, and produce most violent inflamatory disorders. The humor which occasions these sores is of a highly acrimonious burning nature. We know it from the pain it gives in forming, and afterwards from its rapidly ulcerating and corroding the fiesh and skin of the part where it breaks out. This shows the necessity of frequently purifying the plood with Dr. SWEETZER'S PANACEA, and keeping such malignant humors in subjection. Should not have a bile or place to thankful that nature blood with Dr. SWEETZER'S PANACEA, and keeping such malignant humors in subjection. Should you have a bile or ulcer, be thankful that nature has taken the trouble to warn you of the danger your life and body is in, for it is a warning that the blood is foul. Had this same acrimony selected the lunga instead of the surface of your budy for its seat, consumption of the lunga would have been the consequence. Delay not then to purify and cleanse with Dr. Sweetzer's Panaces.

SPINE DISEASE. Spinal affections, enlargement of the bones and joints, white swellings, hip joint complaint, ruptures, falling of the bowels and womb disease, will find a speedy cure in Dr. Sweetzer's Paracera. Where the disease has been of long standing, the time required to make a cure will be longer, but the patient may rest assured that a determined perseverance will effect it. BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA AND DISEASES OF THE

These diseases proceed from the seriosity or corrupt humors of the blood, having settled itself on the throat and lungs, and stopped them up, so that they cannot draw sufficient air in for respiration: Dr. Sweetzer's Panacea will give immediate relief, and to make the cure perfect and certain, it should be continued some time after, to free the system from all bad humors.

DR. SWEETSER'S PANACEA, being composed only of a vegetable matter, or medicinal herbs, and warrented, on oath, as containing not one particle of mercurial, mineral, or chemical substances, is found to be perfectly harmless to the most tender age, or the weakest frame, under any stage of human suffering.
