

SPRIT OF JEFFERSON.

CHARLESTOWN. Tuesday Morning, May 2, 1848.

VIRGINIA ELECTIONS.

The Elections throughout Virginia, for Eight State Senators, and members of the House of Delegates, took place on Thursday last, 27th ult. The day was a favorable one, and we may soon expect to hear the result of the contest.

Jefferson County.—The contest in this County has been one of unusual interest and excitement. A measure foreign to the questions at issue, was lodged into the canvass by our political opponents, in hopes of distracting and dividing the Democratic phalanx.

House of Delegates. 1848. 1847. W. D. W. D. Alexandria, 1 0 (new delegates) 1 0 Louisiana, 1 0 1 0 Frederick, 0 2 1 1 Norfolk county, 1 1 3 0 Powhatan, 0 1 1 0 Accomac, 2 0 0 2 Prince Anne, 0 1 1 0 New Kent, 1 0 1 0 Charlotte, 1 1 0 0 Augusta, 1 1 2 0 Rockbridge, 1 1 2 0 Prince Edward, 0 1 1 0 King & Queen, 1 1 0 0 Bedford, 1 1 0 0

Some of these changes are only reported, but are generally made up from announcements in the Virginia papers. This shows a Whig loss of four members. In the last house of delegates there were 72 Whigs and 62 Democrats.

MR. CLAY'S LETTER. The Washington Union contains a capital article on the subject of Mr. Clay's recent letter. We give the concluding paragraph: "This document has fairly filled at last the cup of confusion and calamity for the Whig party."

RECAPITULATION. For the Senate. 1848. 1847. Dem. gain. Jefferson—Whig maj. 167 Dem. maj. 118 54 Frederick—Dem. maj. 100 Dem. maj. 117 17 Clarke—Dem. maj. 17 Dem. maj. 43 26

For the House of Delegates. 1848. 1847. Dem. gain. Ople, (D.) 348 115 74 80 167 61 75 920 Gallaher, 498 95 51 53 23 44 27 802 Wood, (D.) 351 115 77 79 168 63 75 990 Stovner, D 324 114 75 83 155 61 70 882 Wall, (W) 558 99 51 35 63 47 26 887 Mace, (W) 400 93 47 28 67 33 21 740 gold double refined! The majority which she gives Opie is as large, if not larger, than she ever gave before.

Berkeley.—Though the candidates in this county were all Whigs, we regret to learn of the defeat of our friend Stewart by the casting vote of the Sheriff. Single-handed he could have beaten, or can, any one Whig in the county, as his contest against two pretty clearly demonstrates.

Martinsburg, 318 284 192 Hedgewell, 71 70 108 Back Creek, 20 11 49 Falling Waters, 55 49 62 Gerardstown, 140 109 115 Total, 608 516 610

Mr. Boak received the casting vote of the Sheriff. Morgan.—R. C. Gustin, Esq., (Dem.) elected over his Whig opponent by about 60 majority.—A Democratic gain.

Shenandoah.—Pittman said to be elected, and contest between Haas and Rice; the chances of election being in favor of Haas. Richmond.—Joseph Mayo, Taylor Whig, is elected over Peter D. Bernard, Clay Whig, by 230 majority.

Henrico County.—Mr. Lancaster, Whig, re-elected without opposition. Chesterfield.—Alexander Jones, Dem., re-elected without opposition.

Alexandria City and County.—Truman L. Smith, Whig, elected over Powell, Dem., by 208 majority. Hanover County.—Darracott, Whig, re-elected. Petersburg.—Syme, Whig, re-elected without opposition.

Caroline County.—Monroe, Dem., re-elected. Marshall County.—McDaniel, Democrat, elected over Jones, Whig, by 44 majority.

In addition to the above, we give the following election returns, which we gather from our exchanges by yesterday's mail: Whig Counties.—Fairfax, Richmond City, Hanover, Henrico, Henrico, Elizabeth City, Northampton, Cumberland, Lancaster, King George's, Bedford, Nansemond.

Democratic Counties.—Caroline, Spottsylvania, Culpeper, Prince George's, Goochland, Appamattox, Stafford, Chesterfield. In Norfolk city the polls were left open three days, and we are not advised of the result.

CLAY UPON CLAY. Since the last letter of Henry Clay, the letter of Cassius M. Clay, which we published on our first page, is one of the most extraordinary documents which it has fallen to us to lay before the public.

THE LAST EFFORT. On the morning of the election, the Free Press, among other desperate efforts to retrieve the sinking fortunes of its friends, gave expression to the following, which as it regards one of the candidates, was entirely void of truth.

ELECTORAL VOTES. The following table of the number of Electoral votes to which each State will be entitled at the ensuing election, will be useful for frequent reference during the campaign:

STATES THAT VOTED FOR CLAY IN 1844. Ohio 23 Connecticut 6 Kentucky 12 Vermont 4 Pennsylvania 20 Mississippi 6 Tennessee 12 Rhode Island 4 Massachusetts 12 Delaware 3 Georgia 15 Michigan 9 North Carolina 11 New Jersey 7 Total 105

STATES THAT VOTED FOR POLK IN 1844. New York 36 Missouri 7 Virginia 12 Louisiana 6 Indiana 12 New Hampshire 6 Illinois 12 Arkansas 3 Alabama 9 Florida 3 Maine 3 Total 170

THE ELECTORSHIP. Mr. Editor: Among the several names spoken of for the Electorship of the 10th District, in place of the Hon. William Lucas, resigned, I know of none that would give more entire satisfaction than that of Col. JAMES P. RILEY of Frederick.

JEFFERSON. The new steamship America arrived at Jersey City about 12 o'clock on Friday last, 7 days later intelligence from Europe. Her news is fully reported in the Baltimore papers, but does not differ materially from the reports published in our last paper, except as far as it relates to the unsettled state of affairs in the old world.

MR. DANFORTH'S CIRCULAR.—The following is a copy of the circular issued by the American Minister upon the receipt of the news of the death of J. Q. Adams. It is beautifully and feelingly expressed:

Correspondence of the Spirit of Jefferson. WASHINGTON, April 28, 1848. As the exciting subject of Slavery, which was introduced by Messrs. Hale and Giddings in Congress has been dropped, the minds of politicians are more earnestly engaged in advancing the interests of favorite candidates for the Presidency.

THE WHIG SIGNS ARE IN FAVOR OF MR. CLAY. The Whig signs are in favor of Mr. Clay, although a determined opposition is to be made by the friends of the factions, viz: Taylor, Scott, McLean and Webster, to rule him off "into private life."

FUNERAL HONORS TO CAPT. MASON. At a meeting of the Committee to adopt preliminary measures for the proper disposition and reception of the body of the late STEVEN T. CAPT. MASON, which is daily expected, EDWARD HAMMATT was appointed Secretary, pro tem, and the following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That it is proper, in view of the relation which our late and lamented fellow-citizen, S. T. MASON, bore to our country as a native, and to ourselves as a friend, that it is incumbent on the citizens of the county, and more especially upon the citizens of Leesburg and its neighborhood, to pay every mark of respect to his remains.

THE CRISIS IN ENGLAND.—Departure of the Queen to the Isle of Wight.—A London Correspondent of the Boston Atlas, writes under date of April 7th: I have this moment been informed by a gentleman connected with one of the public offices, that the procession will not be allowed to pass over any of the bridges, (Kennington common is on the Surrey side of the Thames), and, furthermore, the military will be stationed on the bridges and will not permit any persons to pass; and if an attempt is made, orders will be given for the troops to fire.
