

Spirit of Jefferson.

Published weekly, by JAMES W. BELLER, in Charlestown, Virginia. At $3.00 in advance—$2.50 paid within the year—or $3.00 if not paid until after the expiration of the year.

AGENTS. The following gentlemen have kindly consented to act as Agents for our paper, and will forward money for subscriptions, etc., or receive any additional names to our list that can be procured.

- Wm. J. STEPHENS, Harpers-Ferry; John G. WILSON, Harpers-Ferry; Solomon Staley, Shepherdstown; Wm. or James Burr, Elk Branch; John Cook, Zion Church; Wm. H. ROBERTSON, Union School House; George E. Moore, Old Furnace; John H. Smith, Smithfield; Edwin A. Kelly, Summit Point; Dolphus Dew of S. Hefner, Koblitz; Dr. J. J. ANKNEY, Leonard, Wade's Depot; Jacob Latta of Tins, W. Reynolds, Berryville; Wm. A. CARLISLE, Snicker's Ferry; Wm. H. BERLEAKE of J. C. Covick, Bruceton, Frederick; Henry F. Baker, Winchester; Col. Wm. HARRISON of Wm. G. Catlett, Bath, Morgan county; John H. Lerner, Martinsburg; George W. Drake, Snicker'sville; J. H. Hagar, Philmont, Loudoun county; Wm. A. STEPHENS, Upperville, Fauquier county; John Beck, Hillsboro, Loudoun county; George GRUBBS, Campy county; Gabriel Jordan of W. Beck, Luray, Page county; Col. Andrew Keyser, Hope Hills, do; Capt. Peter Pace, Springdale, do; PAMPHIL KEYSER, Marksville, do; F. W. Wood, Cedar Point, do; JOHN S. MORAN, New River, do; Jacob Stroble, Grove Hill, do; Morgan Johnson, Niverville, Warren county; J. H. S. WARD, New River, do; John H. P. Stone, Warrenton, Loudoun county; Edwin W. Massey, White Post, Clarke county; Col. R. W. Tolson, Front Royal, Warren county.

HOGAN & THOMPSON, Wholesale Booksellers, Stationers, and Publishers.

No. 30 North Fourth Street, Philadelphia. ANNOUNCE to their friends, and to merchants generally, in the Valley of Virginia, that their stock of Books and Stationery for the coming business season of 1848, will be larger and better assorted than at any former period.

In consequence of the change in their mode of selling, they are enabled to offer SCHOOL AND MISCELLANEOUS BOOKS, PAPERS, and BLANK BOOKS, at prices greatly reduced from former rates, so as to make it to the interest of all who deal in these articles to purchase from their stock.

Great Clothing Establishment. PHILADELPHIA WARDROBE. No. 105 Chestnut Street, between Third and Fourth, North Side, Philadelphia.

Forwarding and Commission Business. THE undersigned having erected a large Ware House, is now prepared to forward Flour and other produce at the shortest notice to Georgetown and Alexandria.

EXCHANGE HOTEL, WASHINGTON CITY, D. C. BY T. M. McELHANNY, (Late of Virginia.) THIS spacious establishment, having been refitted and furnished in all its departments, is now open to the public, for their patronage and support.

AGENTS WANTED TO CANVAS FOR SOME NEW AND POPULAR WORKS, in every COUNTY throughout the United States. To Agents the most liberal encouragement is offered—with a small capital of from $25 to $100.

NOTICE. THE Notes given at the sale of Mary Hiett, dec'd., was due on the 16th day of January last, and as none of them have been paid, the notes may be sold to advantage in a public sale, with a small capital of from $25 to $100.

2,500 POUNDS of superior Bacon, as cheap as the cheapest. Also, very superior No. 1 Herring, always on hand, for sale by S. H. ALBEMONG, Comm. Merchant, May 30, 1848.

Spirit of Jefferson.

Devoted to News, Politics, Agriculture, General Miscellany and Commercial Intelligence. VOL. 4. CHARLESTOWN, TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 4, 1848. NO. 52.

JAMES MCHERRY, ATTORNEY AT LAW, HARPER-FERRY, JEFFERSON COUNTY, VIRGINIA, PRACITISES in the County and Superior Courts of Jefferson, Berkeley, Morgan and Frederick Counties. Feb. 8, 1848—t.

GEORGE W. RANSON, Attorney at Law, HAS removed his Office to the building recently occupied by John R. Flagg as a Sheriff's Office, two doors East of the Bank. He will attend the various Courts of Jefferson, Berkeley, Frederick and Morgan Counties. April 4, 1848.—t.

DR. S. A. BATES, Smithfield, Jefferson County, Virginia, HAVING located himself in Smithfield, would respectfully offer his Services to his citizens and vicinity. He may be found at all times except when professionally engaged, at his Office, (near the Post Office.) April 25, 1848—3m.

NEW ESTABLISHMENT. THIS subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Charlestown, and Jefferson County generally, that he has opened a new TANNING ESTABLISHMENT in the house formerly occupied by Miss Maria Heath, on Main Street, where he will be in the habit of receiving a constant assortment of TIN WARE, SHEET-IRON, &c., and will make to order, every article in his line of business at short notice and on the most reasonable terms.

SAPPINGTON'S HOTEL. FROM the liberal encouragement extended to the proprietor, he has been induced to add to the establishment Ten new and very commodious rooms; he is therefore prepared to entertain in a very comfortable manner many more visitors and boarders than heretofore, and while he continues to keep his house in the same style, hopes to merit and receive the same generous share of public patronage.

HATS AND CAPS. TO Country Merchants and others. JAS. L. MCPHAIL & BRO. 133 Baltimore Street, next door to the Baltimore Clipper Office, respectfully call the attention of their friends and the public generally, to their large assortment of HATS and CAPS of every style and variety, which they offer for sale upon the most reasonable terms. Wholesale and Retail Baltimore, March 7, 1848.—3m.

CASH FOR NEGROES. THE subscriber is anxious to purchase a large number of Negroes, of both sexes, sound and likely. Persons having Negroes to dispose of, will find it to their interest to give him a call before selling, as he will pay the very highest cash prices. He can be seen at the Berkeley Courts, at Martinsburg, on the second Monday and at Berryville, on the fourth Monday in each month, and usually at his residence in Charlestown. All letters addressed to him will be promptly attended to. WILLIAM CROW. Charlestown, Dec. 3, 1847—t.

REMOVAL. THE undersigned has removed his Shop to the stand of Wells J. Hawks, at his Coach Factory, (formerly occupied by me), where I will for the future keep constantly on hand, and manufacture to order at short notice, every variety of Saddles, Bridles and Harness, together with all kinds of Collars, Travelling Trunks, of all sorts and sizes, and at Berryville, all persons, and all articles in my line of business. I respectfully invite my old friends and customers to call and examine my stock of Saddles, Bridles, Harness, Collars, Trunks, &c., before purchasing elsewhere, as I am determined to sell as cheap, and on as good terms as any other establishment in the county. JOHN BROOK. Charlestown, Jan. 25, 1848.

REMOVAL. THE undersigned has removed his Confectionary and Grocery Establishment to the house recently occupied by Mr. John Brook as a Saddler's Shop, one door east of Carter's Hotel. He has just received a fresh supply of Groceries and Confectionary, which he will sell at very low rates for cash. He respectfully solicits a call from the public, assuring them that he will sell as low as any other house in the county. JOSHUA RILEY. N. B. Four or five genteel Boarders can be accommodated on good terms. J. R. No. 22, 1848.—t.

Herring, Mackerel and Shad. I stores a prime lot No. 1 Herring, Mackerel, and Shad for sale by F. DUNNINGTON, Near Evans' Roads, B. & O. R. R. May 30, 1848.

Hollow Ware. I HAVE received a large assortment of Hollow Ware, viz: Large Washkettles, Pots, Ovens and extra Lids, Skillets and Gridles, which makes my assortment complete, all of which will be sold low for cash. T. RAWLINS. May 30, 1848.

Bacon and Fish. 2,500 POUNDS of superior Bacon, as cheap as the cheapest. Also, very superior No. 1 Herring, always on hand, for sale by S. H. ALBEMONG, Comm. Merchant, May 30, 1848.

FRESH Candies and other Confectionary just received and for sale by T. M. FLINT. June 6.

Poetical. THE BOAT HORN. BY GEN. WM. O. BUTLER. O, boatman! wind that hoist my horn, For never did the lightning stir Up such a tempest in my bosom.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. House of Representatives, June 23d, 1848. The Journal having been read and corrected as to the report of Mr. FARRIS, the business first in order was the consideration of the two reports from the Committee on Public Expenditures, upon which the gentleman from Virginia (Mr. BEDINGER) took the floor.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. The Speaker rose to read a message from the President, which was read and approved. Mr. BEDINGER then resumed the floor, and said: "I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your report, and to thank you for the information it contains."

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Political. SPEECH OF THE HON. HENRY BEDINGER. Mr. BEDINGER said he regretted to attend to the duties of the House, but he felt it his duty to make in defence of the report of the minority of the Committee on Public Expenditures, which he had the honor to present yesterday, and in reply to some of the remarks made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. STROHM), who had addressed the House yesterday morning.

Mr. STROHM reminded Mr. B. that he had explained this on the day before. The gentleman would find that, when the amount was brought over to the next page, it was stated correctly, so that the total would be unchanged.

Mr. BEDINGER said this was very true; but should not their falling into so great an error as this in their own figures teach them to extend more fully charity to the statements of others? Mr. B. had a much right to charge the error on the majority report, as the majority had the charge similar mistakes (if any such there were) upon the Secretary of the Treasury.

The gentleman (Mr. STROHM) had said that portion of the minority report which said the committee had been very lucky, or very fortunate, in balancing one error by another, was particularly false. Now, he (Mr. B.) thought that the committee had been particularly lucky in some portions of their report; and it remained him forcibly of the old adage: "Certain persons are remarkable for good luck." He would not himself apply this adage to the majority report, as it is present in more of the many errors in which the report of the committee abounded. Those who would take the trouble to examine the subject, would find them in almost every page.

To recapitulate, the committee had overlooked one of the most important portions of the existing files, as it was with the very information which they accused the Secretary with having omitted! They had mistaken the tables of the Register for the report of the Secretary. They had attacked these tables upon data procured from clerks alone, and had never produced or exhibited one single table, or definite paper authenticated, or even bearing the signature of anybody! In one of their earliest statements, they had committed and admitted an enormous error of $557,900, and this had become such a favorite, which a pot with them, that they had run it through the whole of the subsequent report, and thus vitiated every other calculation! They had made errors of millions of dollars, of thousands of dollars, of hundreds of dollars, and even down to the trifling sum of three cents; and their errors extended. No rock was too huge for them to stumble over, no public too tiny to trip up their heels! The name of their errors was legion—sixty-four in their aggregate number, and thirty-three millions in whole amount! An efficient weapon, truly, with which to hope to batter down the monument of genius which the Secretary had erected when he completed his annual report.

Sir, to quote the language of a great man upon a different occasion, the gentleman might as well have attempted to storm Gibraltar with a pocket-knife. Mr. B. would take this opportunity to say—what was well known—that the consummate ability with which the Treasury Department and the finances of the Government had been managed under the administration of the present Secretary, had excited the wonder and elicited the applause of many—even of his most determined political opponents. The first step was never in a better condition—the public credit never was higher.

The Secretary had been authorized to borrow, on stock and treasury notes, at interest never higher than six per cent, forty-nine millions of dollars; none of which had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above par for specie at a premium of $600,000; and this, too, during the prosecution of a foreign war, and while influential Whig members on that floor were aiming darts at the Secretary, and, to reach him, were sinking at the credit, had been sold below par, and the four-fifths of it above

SPRIT OF JEFFERSON.

CHARLESTOWN: TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 4, 1848.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION. FOR PRESIDENT, GEN'L. LEWIS CASS, OF MICHIGAN. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, GEN. WM. O. BUTLER, OF KENTUCKY.

CLOSE OF THE VOLUME. The present No. closes the 4th volume of the "Spirit of Jefferson." The occasion is a proper one, to return to those friends who have so liberally sustained us, through evil and through good report, our most grateful acknowledgments.

In commencing our new volume, we design enlarging somewhat the present dimensions of our paper, and making some improvements in its general appearance. The present time is an auspicious one, for the yet farther increase to our list, and we should be glad to record the names of many others, who, in justice to themselves, and the great cause of which they are the advocates, should be numbered among our patrons.

OUR ANNIVERSARY. We have anticipated somewhat the day of our regular publication, to afford those in our office an opportunity of participating in a proper observance of the 4th.

The citizens of our town and neighborhood will have opportunity of hearing an Oration, &c., in the Presbyterian Church at 11 o'clock, A. M. The Ladies, and citizens generally, are cordially invited by the Committee of Arrangements, to be present.

At Shannondale, a favored resort for many of the citizens of our county, on the return of each National Anniversary, a variety of attractions are offered. One or more distinguished gentlemen are expected to be present, and no doubt the day will be most agreeably passed.

At Harpers-Ferry, one or more interesting Processions, &c., will be gotten up under the direction of the Sunday Schools. The President and Directors of the Manufacturing Company, also design, we learn, to give the operatives a Public Dinner, and have such other public demonstrations, as are appropriate to the occasion.

From Shepherdstown and Smithfield, we have learned of no public celebration, yet we doubt not, at both places the day will be appropriately observed.

It is a matter of congratulation, that there is one period, at least, when men of all creeds and all political divisions, can meet on the same common platform. The deeds of our illustrious ancestors, in achieving the liberty and independence of a Nation, is still fresh in the heart of every patriot in this land.

A GOOD ONE. General Taylor being somewhat tardy in response to the nomination of the Philadelphia Convention, and some of his particular friends beginning to suspect that he will make no formal answer, for fear of running upon breakers, the editor of the Winchester Republican, the "keeper of the keys of the sanctuary," has in mercy to the old General, furnished the following:—

From the Winchester Republican of Friday. OLD ZACK'S LETTER.

We have not seen the letter of acceptance of the Old Hero, but we think we can gratify public curiosity by giving something like its substance—though in language far inferior to the original.

Dear Sir:—I have this day received your kind letter, informing me of my nomination by the Whig National Convention, lately assembled at Philadelphia, as their candidate for the Presidency of the United States.

I do so with the more pleasure, because this mark of confidence has been tendered me upon terms altogether compatible with my former position, asking of me no other pledge than that heretofore given, to be governed by the Constitution as expounded by the early fathers of the Republic.

Very respectfully, your old servant. Z. T. HUNTER, J. M. MOREHEAD, President of the Convention. This is decidedly rich, and as it emanates from one "high in authority," and no doubt speaks by the book, will present the Whig party in an interesting attitude.

Under any circumstances, weakness and ignorance, when attended by modesty, are naturally entitled to pardon and pity; but when they impudently pretend to the characters of wisdom and knowledge—when they aim at that which they have not the ability to reach—when they make use of their position to attack others—when they claim to be heard as the "Modern Solomon"—then, as all past experience has proven, they become the proper objects of contempt and ridicule.

Every body must be struck with the peculiar claim of the "Free Press," to be considered the "Modern Solomon" of the day. Indeed, we are almost induced to believe, that the piece we are now answering, might have been written by a certain "Modern Euclid," who once descended from his elevated seat, to enlighten the citizens of our neighboring County of Berkeley.

We confess, we do not understand what is meant by "Charm fugitanti arti." It may suit Modern Solomons to coin words at variance with our books, and if they cannot "furnish the understanding," they should at least, in such a case, furnish an explanation suited to the capacity of their readers.

We confess with a holy pride, that if we have never drawn words for our country, we have never with our pen written "I'll never be a Mexican." I would tell you, "Have you not room in your own country to bury your dead men, if you come into mine, we will greet you with bloody hands, and welcome you to hospitable graves."

As the "Spirit," according to the understanding of the "Free Press," has been compelled to swallow its first statement in reference to what Mr. Hunter said about the Bank, Distribution, and Tariff; and "admitted nearly a column to prove the errors and palpable perversion of Mr. Hunter's figures," we had anxiously expected to have heard something, by way of explanation, for such ridiculous blundering, by the Whig champion.

COMPLIMENT TO THE DEMOCRATS.—The Editor of the Petersburg Intelligencer pays the following compliment to the Democratic party: "Politically speaking, we do not believe there is a profusion in the land who would give up his principles, even if he were doing he could sow rusty nails, and reap doubloons."

Gen. Taylor is sixty-two years old. The age of Gen. Cass is sixty-seven.

THE VETO POWER.

The Opinion of Gen. Harrison in 1841. The Whig party of the present day, defeated upon every issue heretofore presented to the American people, have at once discovered that they are the Democracy par excellence, and the exclusive conservators of the inalienable rights of the people!

There are but few Whigs of the present day, who did not heartily respond to the sentiments uttered by "Harry of the West" at that time. Have they forgotten these sentiments? Let them refresh their memories by a perusal of the following extract from one of Mr. Clay's speeches, and then ask themselves what is consistency?

"Regardless of all imputations, and proud of the opportunity of free and unstrained intercourse with all my fellow-citizens, if it were physically possible, and compatible with my official duties, I would visit every State, go to every town and hamlet, address every man in the Union, and entreat them by their love of country, by their love of liberty, for the sake of themselves and their posterity—in the name of their venerated ancestors—in the name of the human family, deeply interested, in the fulfillment of the trust committed to their hands—by all the past glory we have won—by all that awaits us as a nation if we are true and grateful in gratitude to Him who has hitherto so signally blessed us, to pause—solemnly pause—and contemplate the precipice which yawns before us."

To receive the support of the South, as many of his friends are confidently expecting, General Taylor must declare his opposition to the Wilmot Proviso. On this question, as on every other, the people are as yet in the dark, and any and every construction may be put on it.

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

WHIG CONSISTENCY.

Not many years ago, the modern Whig party, proclaimed that the stability of our institutions would be greatly endangered by the elevation to the Presidency of a distinguished Statesman, who had been, when the country was invaded, connected with the army, and a successful military chieftain.

There are but few Whigs of the present day, who did not heartily respond to the sentiments uttered by "Harry of the West" at that time. Have they forgotten these sentiments? Let them refresh their memories by a perusal of the following extract from one of Mr. Clay's speeches, and then ask themselves what is consistency?

"Regardless of all imputations, and proud of the opportunity of free and unstrained intercourse with all my fellow-citizens, if it were physically possible, and compatible with my official duties, I would visit every State, go to every town and hamlet, address every man in the Union, and entreat them by their love of country, by their love of liberty, for the sake of themselves and their posterity—in the name of their venerated ancestors—in the name of the human family, deeply interested, in the fulfillment of the trust committed to their hands—by all the past glory we have won—by all that awaits us as a nation if we are true and grateful in gratitude to Him who has hitherto so signally blessed us, to pause—solemnly pause—and contemplate the precipice which yawns before us."

To receive the support of the South, as many of his friends are confidently expecting, General Taylor must declare his opposition to the Wilmot Proviso. On this question, as on every other, the people are as yet in the dark, and any and every construction may be put on it.

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

MR. VAN BUREN.

No intelligence has as yet been received from Mr. VAN BUREN, stating whether he would accept the nomination or not, of the recent Utica Convention. It is supposed now, that he will make no formal reply, and if by chance he should be supported and elected he will accept of course; if defeated, his friends can then say he was no avowed candidate for the office.

There are but few Whigs of the present day, who did not heartily respond to the sentiments uttered by "Harry of the West" at that time. Have they forgotten these sentiments? Let them refresh their memories by a perusal of the following extract from one of Mr. Clay's speeches, and then ask themselves what is consistency?

"Regardless of all imputations, and proud of the opportunity of free and unstrained intercourse with all my fellow-citizens, if it were physically possible, and compatible with my official duties, I would visit every State, go to every town and hamlet, address every man in the Union, and entreat them by their love of country, by their love of liberty, for the sake of themselves and their posterity—in the name of their venerated ancestors—in the name of the human family, deeply interested, in the fulfillment of the trust committed to their hands—by all the past glory we have won—by all that awaits us as a nation if we are true and grateful in gratitude to Him who has hitherto so signally blessed us, to pause—solemnly pause—and contemplate the precipice which yawns before us."

To receive the support of the South, as many of his friends are confidently expecting, General Taylor must declare his opposition to the Wilmot Proviso. On this question, as on every other, the people are as yet in the dark, and any and every construction may be put on it.

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

CONGRESS.

An interesting debate has been going on in the Senate the past week, on the Oregon Territorial bill. The whole question of Free or Slave Territory has been opened, and will most likely be very fully discussed. We regret to see that the Hon. JOHN A. DIX from New York, has evidenced by his speech before the Senate on this question, an entire concurrence with the opinions recently put forth by Mr. VAN BUREN.

There are but few Whigs of the present day, who did not heartily respond to the sentiments uttered by "Harry of the West" at that time. Have they forgotten these sentiments? Let them refresh their memories by a perusal of the following extract from one of Mr. Clay's speeches, and then ask themselves what is consistency?

"Regardless of all imputations, and proud of the opportunity of free and unstrained intercourse with all my fellow-citizens, if it were physically possible, and compatible with my official duties, I would visit every State, go to every town and hamlet, address every man in the Union, and entreat them by their love of country, by their love of liberty, for the sake of themselves and their posterity—in the name of their venerated ancestors—in the name of the human family, deeply interested, in the fulfillment of the trust committed to their hands—by all the past glory we have won—by all that awaits us as a nation if we are true and grateful in gratitude to Him who has hitherto so signally blessed us, to pause—solemnly pause—and contemplate the precipice which yawns before us."

To receive the support of the South, as many of his friends are confidently expecting, General Taylor must declare his opposition to the Wilmot Proviso. On this question, as on every other, the people are as yet in the dark, and any and every construction may be put on it.

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

Under this caption, the Richmond Enquirer publishes twenty letters from Gen. Taylor in reference to the Presidency. The leading principle appears to be, "catch every breeze." When the General imagined that he would be elected by the "spontaneous will of the people at large," he declared he "would not be the candidate of any party or party clique."

A WELCOME TO VOLUNTEERS.

A number of the citizens of Jefferson met at the Court-House on Friday last, for the purpose of adopting some measures to welcome in a suitable style, the Volunteers of this county, and such others as may be deemed practicable.

On motion, Maj. A. J. O'BANNON was called to the Chair, and J. HARRISON KELLY appointed Secretary.

The object of the meeting was then stated in eloquent terms by Mr. C. B. HARRISON, and remarks made by Messrs. J. W. BELLE, A. HUNTER and others.

On motion of Mr. Hunter, it was Resolved, That a committee of ten be appointed by the Chair, with power to name some suitable person to address the Jefferson Volunteers upon their return to their homes—to receive subscriptions for a public dinner or barbecue as may be deemed expedient, to be given to the Volunteers to invite guests—and to adopt and carry out all further arrangements required to affect the object of the meeting.

Whereupon, the Chair appointed the following gentlemen: Capt. G. W. Sappington, Joseph Starry, James V. Miller, Wm. B. Thompson, Charles Harding, R. Humphreys, James McDaniel, Capt. John Reed, James Clotier.

On motion of Mr. Hunter, the Committee were requested to conduct the arrangements for the proposed welcome as to each all reference to the party politics of the day.

On motion, the proceedings were directed to be published in the county papers.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

J. HARRISON KELLY, Sec'y.

THE POLITICAL CANVASS. For the Spirit of Jefferson. Mr. BELLE—I seize, with avidity, the feather of a quill, to congratulate you on the wise doings of our recent Democratic National Convention. Cass and Butler! The former for the Presidency and the latter for the Vice Presidency!

And further—who in Cass's competitor in this race for the Presidency, in some respects, is one who is more profound jurist—may, in his own narrow brow, be entwined with garlands won in the faithful and efficient discharge of the arduous functions peculiar to high civil station? By no means; he is Zachary Taylor, who is unquestionably a gallant man, but who, nevertheless, has not the capacity to be the highest and most responsible civil office known to our national constitution. But this will certainly never be done.

Poetry THE WAR CRY OF THE DEMOCRATS.

On a more untried standard, That has cheered our hearts of old; The glorious flag of victory Against our foe...

The Cheapest Clothing Store IN THE VALLEY OF VIRGINIA.

THE undersigned has purchased the entire interest of Ash & Co., in the Clothing Establishment in Charlottesville, and is now prepared to offer greater inducements than ever before offered to the people of this or the neighboring counties.

Having the sole control—and a consequent reduction in expenses—he will be enabled to offer very great inducements in—

NEW READY-MADE CLOTHING Of every description—such as first-rate Coats, Pants, Vests, &c., together with Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c.

JACOB LADOMOUS, Cheap Watch and Jewelry Store.

THE subscriber has constantly on hand one of the largest and cheapest assortments of the above to be found in this city or elsewhere.

Also, Anchor Escapement, 'Ephine and Vertical Watches, some of which are at the following extremely low, reduced prices.

THE CHEAPEST AND LARGEST ASSORTMENT OF Gold and Silver Watches

Small Profits and Quick Returns. Goods Very Cheap.

WE are daily adding new, desirable, and FRESH GOODS to our assortment, both by our presence in the city and by orders, which are purchased as the quality and fashion change, and being purchased as usual, for the cash, we will still persist in stating that we can and will sell as cheap as the cheapest for cash.

U. STATES HOTEL, HARPER'S-FERRY, VA. THE undersigned would respectfully inform the public, that he has leased the Hotel at Harper's-Ferry, (late in the occupancy of Capt. Joseph F. Amey), known as the United States Hotel, by the Rail Road, or travellers, in the most comfortable manner.

REMOVAL. BOOT & SHOE MANUFACTURE.

THE Emporium of Fashion THE Jefferson Boot and Shoe Manufactory has been removed to the Room adjacent to Gibson & Harris's Store, and in the place occupied by Messrs. Miller & Tate.

WHEAT, CORN, &c. WANTED. M. H. & V. W. MOORE want to purchase the citizens of Jefferson and the counties of Washington, Loudoun, and Shenandoah, Md., that have rented the large and commodious Brick Warehouse at Shepherdstown, the Potomac river, where they will all be prepared to furnish transportation, in the superior line of Canal Boats, for any and all quantities of these commodities.

REMOVAL. WAREHOUSE AT SHEPHERDSTOWN.

WHEAT, CORN, &c. WANTED. M. H. & V. W. MOORE want to purchase the citizens of Jefferson and the counties of Washington, Loudoun, and Shenandoah, Md., that have rented the large and commodious Brick Warehouse at Shepherdstown, the Potomac river, where they will all be prepared to furnish transportation, in the superior line of Canal Boats, for any and all quantities of these commodities.

WHEAT, CORN, &c. WANTED. M. H. & V. W. MOORE want to purchase the citizens of Jefferson and the counties of Washington, Loudoun, and Shenandoah, Md., that have rented the large and commodious Brick Warehouse at Shepherdstown, the Potomac river, where they will all be prepared to furnish transportation, in the superior line of Canal Boats, for any and all quantities of these commodities.

REMOVAL. WAREHOUSE AT SHEPHERDSTOWN.

WHEAT, CORN, &c. WANTED. M. H. & V. W. MOORE want to purchase the citizens of Jefferson and the counties of Washington, Loudoun, and Shenandoah, Md., that have rented the large and commodious Brick Warehouse at Shepherdstown, the Potomac river, where they will all be prepared to furnish transportation, in the superior line of Canal Boats, for any and all quantities of these commodities.

WHEAT, CORN, &c. WANTED. M. H. & V. W. MOORE want to purchase the citizens of Jefferson and the counties of Washington, Loudoun, and Shenandoah, Md., that have rented the large and commodious Brick Warehouse at Shepherdstown, the Potomac river, where they will all be prepared to furnish transportation, in the superior line of Canal Boats, for any and all quantities of these commodities.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

LOOK OUT FOR A SCOUNDREL. BENNETT FRANCISWAY, on the 18th day of July, 1848, was married in Berkeley Co., Va., by the Rev. John Winter, to Mary Virginia Shull, a respectable and deserving female, and about three months afterwards left her for the West under pretence of looking for a situation.

LEATHER FOR SALE. I HAVE a large stock of Leather on hand and for sale. Spanish Sole, Harness Leather, Bridle do., Collar Leather, Upper do.

LIQUORS. I BARREL best French Brandy, 1 " Peach-Brandy, (a superior article), 1 " Port Wine, 2 " Madeira do., 1 " Malaga do., 1 " Corn Whiskey, 7 " Corn do.

FOR HARVEST. OAF Crushed, Pulverized and Brown Sugar; Molasses, Coffee, and Chocolate; Rice and Macaroni; Eldorado and Old Rye Whiskey; Pale and Dark Brandy; Holland Gin, and Port Wine; Madeira and Sherry do.; Tin and Earthen Ware, &c.

HARVEST GROCERIES. JUST received a large lot of Groceries, and very cheap. New Orleans Leaf Lard, Lamp and Pulverized Sugar, O. a. Porto Rico Molasses, prime new Rice, Cider Vinegar, Wine Bicuites, Sugar Crackers, &c., very strong dark Green Coffee, prime old Rye and good Whiskey, &c., &c., for sale very low for cash.

GRAIN CRADLES, RAKES, SCYTHES, RIFLES, &c. Also 400 gallons superior Whiskey, all of which will be sold low by J. W. GRANTHAM.

1000 LBS. very superior hams; 500 shoulders and Middles; Country cured and strictly prime do. Country cured and strictly prime do. Family Flour, containing secure coming very superior will call early. J. J. MILLER.

MACCARONI, fresh; also Rice at reduced prices, for sale by J. J. MILLER.

MIXED PAINTS—Of all kinds and colors, can be had at all times, from T. M. FLINT, Drug.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

LOOK OUT FOR A SCOUNDREL. BENNETT FRANCISWAY, on the 18th day of July, 1848, was married in Berkeley Co., Va., by the Rev. John Winter, to Mary Virginia Shull, a respectable and deserving female, and about three months afterwards left her for the West under pretence of looking for a situation.

LEATHER FOR SALE. I HAVE a large stock of Leather on hand and for sale. Spanish Sole, Harness Leather, Bridle do., Collar Leather, Upper do.

LIQUORS. I BARREL best French Brandy, 1 " Peach-Brandy, (a superior article), 1 " Port Wine, 2 " Madeira do., 1 " Malaga do., 1 " Corn Whiskey, 7 " Corn do.

FOR HARVEST. OAF Crushed, Pulverized and Brown Sugar; Molasses, Coffee, and Chocolate; Rice and Macaroni; Eldorado and Old Rye Whiskey; Pale and Dark Brandy; Holland Gin, and Port Wine; Madeira and Sherry do.; Tin and Earthen Ware, &c.

HARVEST GROCERIES. JUST received a large lot of Groceries, and very cheap. New Orleans Leaf Lard, Lamp and Pulverized Sugar, O. a. Porto Rico Molasses, prime new Rice, Cider Vinegar, Wine Bicuites, Sugar Crackers, &c., very strong dark Green Coffee, prime old Rye and good Whiskey, &c., &c., for sale very low for cash.

GRAIN CRADLES, RAKES, SCYTHES, RIFLES, &c. Also 400 gallons superior Whiskey, all of which will be sold low by J. W. GRANTHAM.

1000 LBS. very superior hams; 500 shoulders and Middles; Country cured and strictly prime do. Country cured and strictly prime do. Family Flour, containing secure coming very superior will call early. J. J. MILLER.

MACCARONI, fresh; also Rice at reduced prices, for sale by J. J. MILLER.

MIXED PAINTS—Of all kinds and colors, can be had at all times, from T. M. FLINT, Drug.

REMOVAL.

THE undersigned has removed his Tailoring Establishment to the Room recently occupied by Mr. John Davidson at a Hat Store, two doors West of Capt. Sappington's Hotel, where he will, as heretofore, carry on the TAILORING BUSINESS in all its branches.

PHILIP B. SÄPTLER & SONS, Opticians, Watch Makers and Silversmiths. No. 219 Baltimore Street, between Charles and St. Paul Streets, Baltimore.

Watches, Jewelry and Silver Ware. Having arranged all their goods in the Optical line on one side of their store, this branch of the business will occupy the undivided attention of one of the firm, (surviving partner of T. FERRON HAMILTON & Co.), who flatters himself from his long experience in adapting glasses to the sight, to give satisfaction.

SCALES, SCALES. GIBSON & HARRIS have on hand Brown Sugar, 6 to 8 cents; Superior Loaf; Rio and Java Coffee; Rice, Rico, Chocolate, Pepper, Spices, Ginger, Cloves, &c., &c.; Molasses, N. O. and S. I. Syrup; Rakes, Cradle Scythes, Mowing Scythes, Rifles, Whet Stones, Tin Cups, Pans, and Earthenware, with sundry other goods that we will sell as cheap as any House in town; we ask a call from the farmers. WM. H. MOORE.

GRAIN CRADLES, RAKES, SCYTHES, &c. CRANE & SÄDLER. AN extensive assortment of Tin Ware, just received and for sale low by J. J. MILLER.

MIDDINGS. 1000 LBS. Heavy Sides, which will be exchanged for Hams at fair rates. J. J. MILLER.

DR. McMANUS'S ELIXIR OF OPTIUM. THIS is the essential Extract from the native Drug, and contains all the valuable qualities of Optium, without its deleterious and useless principles, for sale by T. M. FLINT, Drug.

JAYNE'S KARMINATIVE BALM. THIS is one of the most useful and effectual remedies for Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, &c., and only needs a trial to give satisfaction, for sale by T. M. FLINT, Drug.

MINERAL WATER. THE subscriber has fitted up his new apparatus for vending this article and thinks that he can say in future, that if the people will call, they will find it better than heretofore. T. M. FLINT.

REMOVAL.

THE undersigned has removed his Tailoring Establishment to the Room recently occupied by Mr. John Davidson at a Hat Store, two doors West of Capt. Sappington's Hotel, where he will, as heretofore, carry on the TAILORING BUSINESS in all its branches.

PHILIP B. SÄPTLER & SONS, Opticians, Watch Makers and Silversmiths. No. 219 Baltimore Street, between Charles and St. Paul Streets, Baltimore.

Watches, Jewelry and Silver Ware. Having arranged all their goods in the Optical line on one side of their store, this branch of the business will occupy the undivided attention of one of the firm, (surviving partner of T. FERRON HAMILTON & Co.), who flatters himself from his long experience in adapting glasses to the sight, to give satisfaction.

SCALES, SCALES. GIBSON & HARRIS have on hand Brown Sugar, 6 to 8 cents; Superior Loaf; Rio and Java Coffee; Rice, Rico, Chocolate, Pepper, Spices, Ginger, Cloves, &c., &c.; Molasses, N. O. and S. I. Syrup; Rakes, Cradle Scythes, Mowing Scythes, Rifles, Whet Stones, Tin Cups, Pans, and Earthenware, with sundry other goods that we will sell as cheap as any House in town; we ask a call from the farmers. WM. H. MOORE.

GRAIN CRADLES, RAKES, SCYTHES, &c. CRANE & SÄDLER. AN extensive assortment of Tin Ware, just received and for sale low by J. J. MILLER.

MIDDINGS. 1000 LBS. Heavy Sides, which will be exchanged for Hams at fair rates. J. J. MILLER.

DR. McMANUS'S ELIXIR OF OPTIUM. THIS is the essential Extract from the native Drug, and contains all the valuable qualities of Optium, without its deleterious and useless principles, for sale by T. M. FLINT, Drug.

JAYNE'S KARMINATIVE BALM. THIS is one of the most useful and effectual remedies for Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, &c., and only needs a trial to give satisfaction, for sale by T. M. FLINT, Drug.

MINERAL WATER. THE subscriber has fitted up his new apparatus for vending this article and thinks that he can say in future, that if the people will call, they will find it better than heretofore. T. M. FLINT.

REMOVAL.

THE undersigned has removed his Tailoring Establishment to the Room recently occupied by Mr. John Davidson at a Hat Store, two doors West of Capt. Sappington's Hotel, where he will, as heretofore, carry on the TAILORING BUSINESS in all its branches.

PHILIP B. SÄPTLER & SONS, Opticians, Watch Makers and Silversmiths. No. 219 Baltimore Street, between Charles and St. Paul Streets, Baltimore.

Watches, Jewelry and Silver Ware. Having arranged all their goods in the Optical line on one side of their store, this branch of the business will occupy the undivided attention of one of the firm, (surviving partner of T. FERRON HAMILTON & Co.), who flatters himself from his long experience in adapting glasses to the sight, to give satisfaction.

SCALES, SCALES. GIBSON & HARRIS have on hand Brown Sugar, 6 to 8 cents; Superior Loaf; Rio and Java Coffee; Rice, Rico, Chocolate, Pepper, Spices, Ginger, Cloves, &c., &c.; Molasses, N. O. and S. I. Syrup; Rakes, Cradle Scythes, Mowing Scythes, Rifles, Whet Stones, Tin Cups, Pans, and Earthenware, with sundry other goods that we will sell as cheap as any House in town; we ask a call from the farmers. WM. H. MOORE.

GRAIN CRADLES, RAKES, SCYTHES, &c. CRANE & SÄDLER. AN extensive assortment of Tin Ware, just received and for sale low by J. J. MILLER.

MIDDINGS. 1000 LBS. Heavy Sides, which will be exchanged for Hams at fair rates. J. J. MILLER.

DR. McMANUS'S ELIXIR OF OPTIUM. THIS is the essential Extract from the native Drug, and contains all the valuable qualities of Optium, without its deleterious and useless principles, for sale by T. M. FLINT, Drug.

JAYNE'S KARMINATIVE BALM. THIS is one of the most useful and effectual remedies for Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, &c., and only needs a trial to give satisfaction, for sale by T. M. FLINT, Drug.

MINERAL WATER. THE subscriber has fitted up his new apparatus for vending this article and thinks that he can say in future, that if the people will call, they will find it better than heretofore. T. M. FLINT.

REMOVAL.

THE undersigned has removed his Tailoring Establishment to the Room recently occupied by Mr. John Davidson at a Hat Store, two doors West of Capt. Sappington's Hotel, where he will, as heretofore, carry on the TAILORING BUSINESS in all its branches.

PHILIP B. SÄPTLER & SONS, Opticians, Watch Makers and Silversmiths. No. 219 Baltimore Street, between Charles and St. Paul Streets, Baltimore.

Watches, Jewelry and Silver Ware. Having arranged all their goods in the Optical line on one side of their store, this branch of the business will occupy the undivided attention of one of the firm, (surviving partner of T. FERRON HAMILTON & Co.), who flatters himself from his long experience in adapting glasses to the sight, to give satisfaction.

SCALES, SCALES. GIBSON & HARRIS have on hand Brown Sugar, 6 to 8 cents; Superior Loaf; Rio and Java Coffee; Rice, Rico, Chocolate, Pepper, Spices, Ginger, Cloves, &c., &c.; Molasses, N. O. and S. I. Syrup; Rakes, Cradle Scythes, Mowing Scythes, Rifles, Whet Stones, Tin Cups, Pans, and Earthenware, with sundry other goods that we will sell as cheap as any House in town; we ask a call from the farmers. WM. H. MOORE.

GRAIN CRADLES, RAKES, SCYTHES, &c. CRANE & SÄDLER. AN extensive assortment of Tin Ware, just received and for sale low by J. J. MILLER.

MIDDINGS. 1000 LBS. Heavy Sides, which will be exchanged for Hams at fair rates. J. J. MILLER.

DR. McMANUS'S ELIXIR OF OPTIUM. THIS is the essential Extract from the native Drug, and contains all the valuable qualities of Optium, without its deleterious and useless principles, for sale by T. M. FLINT, Drug.

JAYNE'S KARMINATIVE BALM. THIS is one of the most useful and effectual remedies for Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, &c., and only needs a trial to give satisfaction, for sale by T. M. FLINT, Drug.

MINERAL WATER. THE subscriber has fitted up his new apparatus for vending this article and thinks that he can say in future, that if the people will call, they will find it better than heretofore. T. M. FLINT.

REMOVAL.

THE undersigned has removed his Tailoring Establishment to the Room recently occupied by Mr. John Davidson at a Hat Store, two doors West of Capt. Sappington's Hotel, where he will, as heretofore, carry on the TAILORING BUSINESS in all its branches.

PHILIP B. SÄPTLER & SONS, Opticians, Watch Makers and Silversmiths. No. 219 Baltimore Street, between Charles and St. Paul Streets, Baltimore.

Watches, Jewelry and Silver Ware. Having arranged all their goods in the Optical line on one side of their store, this branch of the business will occupy the undivided attention of one of the firm, (surviving partner of T. FERRON HAMILTON & Co.), who flatters himself from his long experience in adapting glasses to the sight, to give satisfaction.

SCALES, SCALES. GIBSON & HARRIS have on hand Brown Sugar, 6 to 8 cents; Superior Loaf; Rio and Java Coffee; Rice, Rico, Chocolate, Pepper, Spices, Ginger, Cloves, &c., &c.; Molasses, N. O. and S. I. Syrup; Rakes, Cradle Scythes, Mowing Scythes, Rifles, Whet Stones, Tin Cups, Pans, and Earthenware, with sundry other goods that we will sell as cheap as any House in town; we ask a call from the farmers. WM. H. MOORE.

GRAIN CRADLES, RAKES, SCYTHES, &c. CRANE & SÄDLER. AN extensive assortment of Tin Ware, just received and for sale low by J. J. MILLER.

MIDDINGS. 1000 LBS. Heavy Sides, which will be exchanged for Hams at fair rates. J. J. MILLER.

DR. McMANUS'S ELIXIR OF OPTIUM. THIS is the essential Extract from the native Drug, and contains all the valuable qualities of Optium, without its deleterious and useless principles, for sale by T. M. FLINT, Drug.

JAYNE'S KARMINATIVE BALM. THIS is one of the most useful and effectual remedies for Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, &c., and only needs a trial to give satisfaction, for sale by T. M. FLINT, Drug.

MINERAL WATER. THE subscriber has fitted up his new apparatus for vending this article and thinks that he can say in future, that if the people will call, they will find it better than heretofore. T. M. FLINT.