MASS MEETING AT NEW MARKET.

Letters were read from many eminent and distinguished gentlemen who were invited to be present, but whom circumstances prevented .-The following are all that have as yet been pub-

WASHINGTON, August 9, 1852; GEFTLEMEN: The state of the public business in Congress will deprive me of the pleasure of accepting your invitation to attend the Democratic rally and festival at New Market, on the 20th inst. I should like to be with you upon that interesting occasion, for my own sake and not for yours, for I lived, when a lad in your section of the country. But you need no services of mine, for when was the Democracy of Virginia faithless to the principles of our party, or to the men selected to carry them into the administration of the government. And least of all does the renowned Tenth Legion, as indomitable as their Roman predecessors, need any foreign aid in the pending campaign? You are sure of success, and so indeed in my opinion is the great Democratic party. We have all the elements at work to encourage us. Dear, and time honored principles, true, able and patriotic nominees, the conviction, that the public good requires a change in the administration of public affairs, and the confident belief, justified by all we see and hear, that a decided victory awaits our exertions. If we are true to ourselves we cannot fail, and such a spirit, everywhere animates the party that our hopes of success are no greater than the auguries which promise it.

I am, gentlemen, resp'ly, your ob't. serv't., LEWIS CASS. To A. R. Meem and others, Committee.

WHEATLAND, July 21, 1852. GENTLEMEN: I have been honored by your kind invitation to the Democratic Rally and Festival proposed to be held at the Town of New Market on the 30th of August. I deeply regret that I cannot accept this invitation, without breaking up all my arrangements for the summer. It would be not only a pleasure but a great privilege for me to meet the Democracy of the glorious Tenth Legion of Virginia and advocate the election of our chosen standard bearers, as the good old cause which both have long so ably and faithfully represented.

Be kind enough to present to the Company assembled at your Festival the following sentiment, at my behall: The Tenth Legion of Virginia Democracy .-

Steady to their principles as the needle to the pole; - They have never deserted the path which their fathers trod in pursuit of any of the modern isms which have led so many others astray. Yours, very resp'ly, JAS. BUCHANAN.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., August 9, 1852. GENTLEMEN: Your flattering note, writing me to attend a Grand Democratic Rally and Festival to be held by the citizens of Shenandoah, Rockingham and Page counties, Virginia, at New Market on the 20th inst., reached my residence during my absence, or it would sconer have receive in all his views of public policy, and confided in whether the outrage shall seem to fall upon S.

Every pulsation of my heart bear witness to the gratitude and affection I entertain for a people who have not only extended me their most generous confidence in various forms, but have proffered me unsolicited their highest honor; and regret that circumstances will not permit me to be present upon an occasion which promises to be so replete with interest, that I might tender my acknowledgements in person from the overflowing of a grateful heart. Though exempted from the active excitement of political affairs, I feel a deep and abiding desire for the success of the Democratic party, not as a mere partizan, for I claim to be much more:not merely, that the party may enjoy power and place, and receive from the people and distribute among its members the honors and emoluments of office; but, that it may as it should, uphold the integrity of its own pure principles, preserve our country's Constitution and maintain these immutable principles which your noble State so early inculcated and so beautifully illustrated; principles which he at the foundation of civil liberty and will survive when we and our children's children are all laid in the dust. The late Democratic Convention at Baltimore, rising above the calculating and sectional spirit which for the last few years has unfortunately made serious inroads upon our catholic faith, boldly renewed the party covenant, republished a declaration of principles becoming the occasion, and placed in nomination candidates whose lives of fidelity and devotion to truth, give promise that its observance will be the guiding star of their

The times, my friends, are auspicious for the Democratic cause. There is much that consoles for the past and gives hope for the future, -no threatening clouds portend, no sterm howls in the distance,-the sky is bright and beautiful, union is the watchword: A union of all true Democrats in maintaining in spirit as well as in name the union of the States as prescribed by the Constitution and moulded by tathers of the Republic. I have the honor to be sincerely your friend in the faith. D. S. DICKINSON.

SHERWOOD FOREST, Va., July 27, 1852. GENTLEMEN: Your letter of the 15th inst., inviting me to meet the citizens of Shenandoah, Rockingham and Page, at New Market, on Friday the 20th day of August, reached me a day or two ago, and I take the earliest moment to acknowledge its receipt.

est gratification from accepting your invitation, but an indisposition of many months continuance admonishes me to decline it. I should rejoice to meet ' the Tenth Legion' in all its strength-to interchange salutations with the unbending and inflexible advocates of those principles, upon the maintenance of which depends, as I solemnly believe, the perpetuity of the government, under which it is our happiness to live. In this day and at this hour, a necessity greater than has ever before existed, demands a rally on the part of every lover of the peace and quiet of the country, in support of the principles which have canonized the Jeffersonian era, and every banner should have inscribed upon it confederation against consolidation. The spirit has been unceasingly manifested, to convert the government by a broad and unwarranted construction of the Constitution into a National and unit system, wherein a majority-power shall rule supreme and the States be reduced to the condition of mere Provinces of one vast empire-and this spirit has of late years exhibited itself still more extravagantly and dangerous in the bold and daring attempt on the part of a portion of the inhabitants of some of the States, to interfere and control the internal structure of society in other States-a matter in which the States are quite as foreign to each other as if they were separated by boundless oceans. What can excuse much less justify such interference other than the belief on the part of those who are guilty of it, that the government is national and not federative, and therefore subject to the unlimited action and under the influence of a morbid sentimentalism, to any American born citizen, or one capable of control of a congressional majority which they seek in every way to attain. But one other supposition can exist, and that is, that the agitators, earnestly desire the destruction of the Uniona supposition I should be unwilling to indulge as appreciating the important blessings which Union bestows. Let us then with our united voices proclaim the great truth that the government is the creature of a compact between sovereign States. who have granted to a common agent specified and limited powers to be administered for the common benefit, according to the letter of the grant and not otherwise - and that what is stipulated to be done is equally obligatory upon the contracting parties, as the opposite. That constitutional compact appeals to the good faith of each of those States and its inhabi-

Democratic State Central Committee. TO THE PEOPLE OF VIRGINIA.

FELLOW-CITIZENS: The time rapidly approaches, when you will be called on to exercise the most important right of citizens of the Republic. You are to vote for a President and Vice President of the United States, for four years from the 4th of March next At no former period in the history of our country, has this election been fraught with deeper interest, or more important consequences to the happiness of the people, or the permanance of our glorious institutions:-Solemnly impressed with this belief, we address you, and earnestly recommend organization, concert, harmony and zeal in the support of those candidates who have been nominated by the Democratic party,

Let every voter be animated by a determined purpose to maintain the time-honored principles Virginia, and exert every honorable means to the country, by the Democratic party, are worthy of your zealous support, and the cause which they represent, demands your untiring We confidently believe, that it is by apathy and over-confidence alone, that the vote of Virginia can be lost. FRANKLIN PIERCE, of New Hampshire, is our candidate for the office of President and WM, R. King, of Alabama, for that of Vice President of the United States.

Of Col. King it is not necessary that we say more, than that he has served his country for forty years, in both branches of Congress, and in diplomatic stations abroad, and now presides over the Senate of the United States, with unquestioned fidelity and with distinguished ability. Thus qualified by ripe experience, he enjoys a spotless personal character; and the highest tribute to his merit and competence has been offered by political opponents.

The Democratic candidate for the Presidency is a native of New Hampshire; a State which has given to the service of the country, John Langdon, Levi Woodbury, and many other of our most virtuous and distinguished public men. Gen. Pierce has been trained in the school of strict Democracy. Having received an excellent education, he was elected by those who. had known him from his boyhood, as soon as he was soon distinguished and elevated to its highest honor-then to the House of Representatives, and then to the Senate of the United States .-He has thus had experience in the affairs of Gocommanded a larger share of the esteem and respect of those with whom he was associated, both for his public and private character. Possessing talents of a high order, singularly eloquent and and beloved by his constituents, he had every forts of home, and his choice was to lapor for the support of those dependent on him, rather than to seek for the gratification of selfish pleasure, in the emoluments of the trappings of office. His characteristics are maniness, moral and physical courage, modesty, frankness and generosity. Not yet fifty bears of age, he has exhibited proofs of patriotism, and of devotion to the Constitution, of profound attachment to the Union of the States, and to the rights of the States, worthy of the best days of the Republic. While in Congress, the disturbing influence of the agitation of the abolitionists was constantly felt, and his firm and manly opposition to their wicked purposes, was so uniform as to command the admiration of the South and of patriots of every section, and to draw down on him the unmitigated hatred of the agitators themselves. And when, before a New Hampshire audience, John P. Hale, declared that he desired to abolish slavery, either by "peace or blood," FranklinsPierce boldly replied, "that he did not think Hale's party could mean what they said that is, to effect the abolition of slavery by force of arms; and if they did, he was sure that every good citizen would be willing, at least he would, to lay down his dead body to protect the Constitution." President Polk who had long known and appreciated his worth, invited him to aid in his administration of the Government, as Attorney General of the United States, an office conferring high honor, and promising professsional fame and large emoluments. He modestly declined the flattering distinction, and declared his purpose to be, to devote himself as a private citizen, with one reservation: that if his country should be involved in war, he would hold himself ready to enter the military service. War did come, and he volunteered as a private soldier. He was promoted to the rank of Colonel, and to that of

Brigadier General. When the war was ended, and, the restoration of peace certain, his services not required, acting on principles which had marked his whole life. he returned home and tendered the resignation of his commission. We have it from high authority, that the resident advised him to postpone the execution of this purpose, as it was not certain whether Cangress might not find it necessary to give protection to our extended territory by an increase of the army, and thus retain Did my health permit, I should derive the highliked the military service, but he had entered the army because the country was at war, and now that peace was restored, he could not consent to retain high rank, to the exclusion of those who at the North to show that he is a supple tool of had served in lower grades, and had adopted the military service as a profession.

His nomination by the Baltimore Convention. was as unsolicited as it was unexpected. The Democracy of New Hampshire had, in a State Convention, by an unanimous, nomination, presented his name to the National Convention as a suitable person to be the candidate of the Democracy for the office of President of the United States. He promptly declined the flattering distinction. When the Convention at Baltimore, had, in vain, attempted to unite on any one of the other eminent public men whose names were presented, the name of Franklin Pierce, without his authority or knowledge, was brought forward, and his unanimous and enthusiastic nomination stilled all angry discontent, and was sent forth to the Democracy of this great country, as the harbinger of peace, union and success. It gives us the highest pleasure to assure you, that from Maine to California, from Michigan to Florida, the party is united in his support; and if there be not an over-confidence, his election is certain. With him it is emphatically true that the Presidency has been neither sought nor declined. He has accepted the nomination, and it his countrymen elect him, he will carry into the administration of the Government those principles on which he has always acted. He is the friend of religious toleration; and will never be found favoring measures which aggrandize the lew at the expense of the many, which disturb the relations of business, or enable debtors voluntarily to discharge themselves of their obligations to their creditors, but will in all things favor those measures which will secure to labor its just reward, and promote the great interests of agriculture, commerce and manufactures with equal justice. He will never discourage the oppressed of other nations from seeking an asylum under our Constitution and laws, nor will he hesitate to exercise the great conservative veto power vested in the President, for the protection of the Constitution from violation, or the rights of the minority from invasion. His political course afforded conclusive evidence, that he was prepared to adopt those principles of strict construction which have ever been disinterestedly cherished by Virginia, and which become more obviously necessary to the preservation of the Union and the rights of the States, as the territory of the United States expands, the States multiply in number, and the population increases: those principles which inculcate the necessity of maintaining the Constitution according to its true intent, by confining the Federal Government within its prescribed orbit, and leaving the domestic concerns of the States to their own management and direction. Such, fellow-citizens, we believe to be the character of Franklin Pierce, and we ask you is he not worthy of your support? We know what your answer will be, when given at office. He entered the regular army in 1807, training, in the opinion of our General, for the the polls in November.

It was not to be expected that his conduct and character would escape severe examination by the active intelligence of the strong party which opposes his election. But the bitter denunciation, absurd abuse and gross accusations that have followed in quick succession, originating sometimes in misapprehension, sometimes in malignity, were not to be anticipated. Honest men are sometimes deceived by such accusations, and may be unjust in repeating them, but they ever confide in truth and facts, and when undeceived, are sure to be just and generous. To these we appeal, under the firm conviction that our candidate has nothing to lear from a candid scrutiny of his whole history. In a spirit of cruel and unjust misrepresentation, an effort has been made to disparage his military conduct. It is sufficient to say, that he received the high commendation of the commanding General; and his brother officers of all grades have promptly vindicated his character, and by a minute detail of facts shown the utmost gallantry on his part, and the futility of the attempt to injure him. The claims of General Pierce to your support are not based on mere ensure success. The candidates presented to military service. He has shown himself ready. at any personal sacrifice, to take up arms in defence of the honor of his country; and, as far as circumstances allowed, he has shown the ability to maintain her rights. But his claims rest on the solid basis of acknowledged talent, knowledge of our institutions, experience in the civil affairs of his country, loyalty to the Constitution.

and firmness and fidelity in defending the just rights of all parts of his whole country.

An effort has been made to excite doubts in your minds of his fidelity on the subject of the Fugitive Slave Act. The truth is, when the country was distracted by the agitations of the Abolitionists, and timid men at the North cowered before the raging spirit of fanaticism, when Southern men were murdered in the effort to recover their property he among the lew who boldly came forward and risked himself in favor of creation of wretches, who answered his manly arguments in favor of the act by impudent hisses; and, unable to overawe his gallant spirit, and induce him to unite with them in opposition to its provisions and its enforcement, have sought to gratify their malignant hatred by falsely representing him as holding opinions in common with themselves. His enlarged patriotism regards the whole country, and each and all, as entitled was eligible, to the State Legislature, where he to his zealous support in the maintenance of their rights against outrage, from whatever quarter it may fall: "Having fought the battle in New Hampsnire upon the Fugitive Slave Law, and upon what we believe to be the ground of constivenment, both State and federal, and no man has tutional right, we should, of course, desire the approval of the Democracy of the country .-What I wish to say distinctly is this: if the Compromise measures are not to be substantially and firmly maintained, the plain rights secured impressive as a public speaker, with a strong by the Constitution will be trampled in the dust. are characteristic of the man.

his own language, and these noble sentiments We are aware, fellow citizens, of the sensitive ions of Northern men on questions connected with negro slavery. These charges of hostility to the law which was intended to secure the right to pursue and recover our fugitive slaves, are designed to excite your distrust in the democratic party, and to withdraw your attention from the known character and opinions of many more violent in opposing this very act. We warn you not to suffer yourselves to be misled by any such device. There are patriotic public men at the North who contemn the foul spirit of abolitionism, who love the Union, and are ready to protect and defend the constitutional rights of the South, at the risk of life itself. In corroboration of these views, we quote the language of a distinguished Whig of this state, who, a short time since, was one of the Whig Electors for the State at large, and who has lately witnessed what he affirms: "I take leave to say that I was a very highly gratified spectator, and only regret that every man in the South, could not see and hear all that I saw and heard in Faneuil Hall last night, and at the great meeting at Ilillsbo rough; for they would then feel, I am sure, as I now do, that the Democratic party of New England is as sound upon the Compromise question and the constitutional rights of the South, as the South itself, and that the Union is safe in its Reeping."-We have no doubt of the truth of this remark. We believe that Franklin Pierce, the representative of that party, is sound upon these questions, and that the history of his public career proves it.

We believe that he is devoted to the constitutional rights of the South, and that the Union will be safe in his keeping. .The abolitionists are the enemies of the Union; for, in their madness, they urge measures which must, if successful, destroy the Federal compact; and, to gain their ends, their course is to denounce, traduce and prostrate every Northern man who dares to defy them. Do not let us be guilty of the folly of promoting their policy by listening to falsehood, and retusing our confidence to Northern men whose whole lives show they are entitled to it. The sentiment, founded on a supposed law higher than the Constitution, which is entertained by some at the North, is by him in his rank. He promptly replied, that he no means universal, and those who do hold it, are the unrelenting enemies of Franklin Pierce. Even now, while an attempt is made to excite distrust of him at the South; the effort is made slave owners. An abolition paper issued in Washington, has published an article headed, " Mr. Pierce and the Anti-Slavery Movement," in which are carefully compiled all his votes in the House of Representatives and in the Senate, on questions growing out of the Anti-slavery agitation since 1833, and which concludes with the following paragraph: "It may be said that others, in those days, voted as he did, who, since then, have shown their devotion to freedom. True, but he continued inchanged. When John P. Hale, his intimate friend for twenty years, faithful to his protection against legislation, fatal to them, desconvictions of right, denounced the annexation of Texas in defiance of the edicts of his party. Mr. Pierce, trampling under foot his long standing friendship, turned upon the independent representative, followed on his track with relentless hostility, utterly proscribed him, and compelled the Democratic press of his State to eat its own words on that question. From that time he has been the leader of the Hunker Democracy of New Hampshire; and when Mr. Atwood, the regular nominee of the Democratic party, frankly avowed his disapprobation of the Fagitive Slave Law, Mr. Pierce attempted first to utter disregard of the rights of the States, and brow-beat him into a retraction of his honest words, and then led on the party in the work of making a new nomination of ascertained devotion to the slaveholding interest."

A member of Congress informs his constituents in Tennessee, over his own signature, that of the Union. thousands of copies of this document are now being circulated at the North, with the view of showing there, that Gen. Pierce is devoted to the | States, of the Bankrupt Law of '41. establishslave interest, while at the South the effort is | ing a voluntary system of bankruptey, without made to excite distrust of his fidelity to the Constitution, by representing him as having opposed the Fugitive Slave Law.

It is an insult to your understanding to suppose that you can be cajoled by such an artifice; or that you can be deceived into the abandonment of a public man, who is the unanimously selected candidate of your party, who has virtue and ability, with whom you agree in political principle, whose enemies are not your friends, and who will exult over his degradation, the result of their arts, and laugh at your credulity, if you permit them to succeed. The Whig party have presented to the country as the opponents of Pierce and King, Major Gen. Winfield Scott, of the Army of the United States, and Wm. A. Graham, Esq., of North Carolina. Their candidate for the Vice Presidency has enjoyed the advantage of some service in the Legislative and Executive Departments of his could have conceived such a school for educanative State, has served in the United States Senate several years, and as the head of the Navy Department, since Mr. Fillmore's accession to the Presidency. commission in the highest rank. When I Graham accepted the nomination, he resigned his office, and became a private citizen. Gent Scott has not resigned; but wears his epaulette and sword, and is exercising all the powers and privileges of his high command. We do not intend to question the military service which he has rendered his country. He has been a successful soldier, and, although he has not been. exempt from military criticism, and has not unfrequently been embroiled with brother officers. we take pleasure in conceding the gallantry and skill with which he has served his country as a soldier; and we are happy that he has received from his grateful countrymen, the appropriate rewards of military service and success. We would, too, have been the last to make objection to him, if he had been content with his rank in the army, or to complain if he had been promoted to a military rank still higher, even if created for the purpose. But, after more than twenty years of anxious solicitude, to become a selected candidate for the presidency, his aspirations have been at length gratified, and we deem it our right as freemen, and our duty as the devoted friends of the civil institutions of our country, to express frankly and plainly, our objections to his claims. We object to the election to the presidency of an officer of the army-of one who has spent nearly half a century in actual military service ; a school illy adapted to inculcate the principles of equality amongst men, and a knowledge of our constitution and laws. This is the second instance, in which the same party has taken their candidate from the army. Four years ago the experiment succeeded-Gen. Taylor was elected by the aid of Democratic votes-bilinded by the glare of brilliant military success, and deluded by the hope of an administration free from the influence of party. Now time has afforded opportunity to distinguish between the meteor flash of mere military glory, and the calm light of civil qualification.

Now, in the administration of the Government, General Scott declares, in his letter-accepting the nomination: " In regard to the general policy of the administration, if elected, I should, of course, look among those who may approve that he rights of the South, secured to them by the | policy for the agents to carry it into execution. Constitution, and entorced by this act. The and I should seek to cultivate harmony and fraproofs are beyond doubt, that the charge is a base | ternal contiments throughout the Whig party without attempting to reduce its members by proscription, to exact conformity to my own views.

There is no hope of any political millennium, if General Scott shall be elected-and no Democrat can contribute to his election, by any of the delusive hopes, which induced many to give their support to the other candidate from the Army. Without any purpose or desire to disparage the brave old man, who was thus elected, we appeal to the whole country if the experiment of making a President of the United States out of a successful soldier did not prove an utter tailure? and whether his administration, for the brief period in which he survived his inauguration, is not a beacon to warn the country against its repetition, rather than a successful example recommending itself, by its results, as worthy of being followed.

We object to General Scott's election because of his expressed and unretracted political opinpractical judgment, faithful to the Constitution | What difference does it make to you or me, lions. The vast powers of the office of President invests the incumbent with an influence powerful for good or for evil over the legislation of the temptation to ambition, and every reason to know | the rights of all equally dear to all ? This is country-and his opinions, therefore, ought to be carefully examined, to enable you to determine what system of measures and what policy he will exert his official influence to promote. General state of the Southern mind, in regard to the opin- Scott has never served, or given a vote, in either house of Congress, or in a State Legislature .-But, within a very few years past, when speaking of the promulgation of his opinions on questions of State Rights and federal administration. he declared that, as he "could not plead ignorance of the partiality of a few friends in several parts of the Union, who may, by possibility, in a certain event, succeed in bringing me within the field from which a Whig candidate is to be selected, I prefer to err on the side of frankness and candor, rather than by silence to allow any stranger unwittingly to commit himself to my support;" and his prolific pen gave to the pubic, through several years, carefully prepared letters, in which he avowed his opinions on the most interesting questions, which involving the true construction of the constitution, had divided political parties and exerted a mighty influence on the business and prosperity of the country. We content ourselves with stating some of > these opinions: 1. He has avowed himself, as late as 1843, after all excitement had passed away, in favor of the gradual emancipation of slaves; (and declared that it he had " had the honor of a seat in the Virginia Legislature, in the winter of 1831-'32, when the bill was brought forward for that purpose he would have given it his hearty support.") He has declared, "I am persuaded, that it is a high moral obligation of masters, and slave holding States, to employ all the means, not incompatible with the safety of both colors, to meliorate slavery even to extermination." He concedes the power of Congress over slavery in the District of Columbia, and maintains the Constitutional right of Congress to receive, refer and re, ort upon petitions on the subject, while he declares that under the Constitution, there is no color of authority in Congress, for touching the relation of master and slave wi hir a State. For what end then, does the right of petition exist? Is it, that, while the relation of master and slave cannot be touched, the right of property cannot le destroyed, the value of that right may be destroved, by legislative acts, on which the Executive Veto world not be applied?

2. He has declared, in his letter of acceptance. that the " veto power ought always to be most cautiously exercised, and under the strictest restraints and necessities"-and in 1841, he expressed, a hope, that " by an early amendment of the Coustitution, to see a reduction of the President's veto;" and his plan of amendment, was thus stated by himself. "There can be no good reason, why the veto should not be overcome, by a bare myority of each House of Congress, of all the members elected to it-say, for the benefit of reflection, at the end of ten days from the return of the Bill." These extracts show the General's appreciation of this great conservative principle of the Constitution-the principle on which the minority, and especially, the South, already in a tructive of their rights of property, their peace. and the lives of their women and children, but by which, however unwise, the sectional majority which may pass the acts, will suffer nothing.-And Gen. Scott avowed himself in favor of an a nendment to that sacred instrument the Constitution, by which the same sectional majority may nullify the Executive Vete. There is either a want of consideration, a manifest want of reflection on this deeply in eresting subject, unwortry of one who as; ires to the Presidency, and who ought to be a statesman, or there is an a readines, to surrender all power to a sect onal majority; and by consolidating all power in the Federal Government, to establish the most oppressive Tyranny, without a hope of escape by the oppressed, unless by a dissolution

From his published or inions, we are satisfied that he is in favor of a bank of the United limitation of time, and in favor of the distribution of the proceeds of the public lands amongst the States. He is in favor of acquiring the British provinces of Canada, and incorporating them as States of this Un on. He is known to have been opposed to the annexation of Texas. The Canadas contain 350,000 square miles. and would form many States; destroying all approach to an equilibrium of power in the Federal Government between the Northern and Southern States, and giving to the sectional northern majority irresistible power.

The circumstances under which Gen. Scrtt's in tion was made, are worthy of your terious amination. Emisent public men of the Whig arty have denounced it as sectional, and effectd mainly by the non s'aveholding to e. He who is now the Chief Executive of the United States, performing his duties under his election as Vice President, who has been called by his party the Model President, and he who has been called the reat exponent of the Constitution, after a long and distinguished public service in the Senate and the Cabinet, were set aside, under an influence which we do not characterize, but which leading Whigs have decounced as originating with, and yielded to a considerable extent by, those whose consciences will not permit them to support, approve or execute the act of Congress which carries out the plain injunctions of the Constitution, by returning fugitive slaves to their dawful owners.

It is usual for the friends and supporters of Gen Scott to refer to his efforts in South Caro. lina, when nullification and a collision between the State and FeJeral Governments were apprepended, in proof of his abil ty as a civilian. To show the nature of the duty with which he was entrusted at that time by the General Government, and the character of the services expected and required of him, under instructions, we insert the following extract from a letter to him taken from the Message of the President of the United States, of the 12 h February, 1833, transmidling in compliance with a resolution of the Senate, the orders given to the land and naval forces at Charleston:

Your duty will be one of great importance and of great delicacy. You will consult freely and fully with the Collector of the port of Charleston, and with the District Attorney of South Caro-'ling and YOU WILL TAKE NO STEP, except what relates to the immediate defence and security of the post, without their order or concurrence. The execution of the laws will be enforced through the civil authority, and by the mode pointed out by the acts of Congress. Should, unfortunately a crisis arise, when the ordinary power in the bands of the civil officers shall not be sufficient for this purpose, the President will determine the "course to be taken and the measures to be adopted. "Till, therefore, YOU ARE OTHER WISE INSTRUCTED, you will act in OBEDIENCE, to the legal requisitions of the PROPER CIVIL OFFICERS of the United States."

From this extract it will be seen that General Scott's duty was wholly military; that beyond t is, he was to do nothing without the "order and concurrence" of the civil authorities, and that even in the event of a crisis, the "President" was to determine the course to be taken and the mea sures to be adopted.

Viewing, then, the history of Gen. Scott's life. devoid of experience in any civil capacity, trained in a military school where rigid discipline and strict subordination to the will of the military chief, constitute the great fundamental principle; scanning his political creed, at war as it is with all the doctrines entertained and revered by the Democratic party, and, as we believe, with the best interests of the country, -seriously deprecating the malign influences which have brought about his nomination; and believing that, to a great extent, these influences must predominate in his administration if he should be successful we call upon you solemnly to exert the great power you possess to avert the calamity. Virginia has the honor of having made the nomination of Franklin Pierce. Let her give him a majority that shall approve him good and true. Other States will tollow her lead, and a glorious triumph will be ensured. The voice of North Carolina has been heard. and cheering intelligence comes up from every quarter, that the Southern States, probably unantmously, will repudiate the Wing nomination; and we have every reason to believe that the Democratic Northern States will, by their triumphant and faithful support of Pierce and King, signally rebuke the spirit of sectionalism which assails him, and restore the feeling of brotherhood, without which the Union is broken down and its cement destroyed.

THE WHIG PARTY.

If there ever was an exhibition of useless political malignity, it has been affiriled by the present campaign. No sooner was the nomination of Pierce, publicly announced, than the Whig press set upon his track. They followed him into the recesses of his private hie, and nosed among the many records of his pofitical career. We were told that he was a drunkard, and the names of so called honorable men were given in proof. We were assured that he was a bigot; and the exclusion of Catholics, from office in New Hampshire was the demonstration. We were tauned with his cowardice; and his fainting upon the held of battle was the token. We were called to account for his maignificance, for his want of reputation and capacity; and the strangeness of his name in the political history of the country was commented on. The Tribune sent out its Commissioners of Sewers to drain the channels of private slander. His personal enemies filled the bag of every orator, who travelled through the land with lies for circulation. All that misued talent, att that speclous suphistry, all that libel and slanderous im putation, could effect, has been done. And what

The Democratic party in this State, and in the country, have remained tranquil spectators of the scene. They have watched each new slander, as it rose, sink into disgraceful oblivion, to be succeeded by the quick uprising and speedy decline of other slanders, fouler than the first .- | They have asked themselves with whom they had to deal. They have looked around for the gentlemen of the Whig party-the high, honorable and chivalrons names, which were associated with its past history—the men who were the companions of Clay and Webster, and who drew the nutriment of their opinion from Statesmen, in whom men of all parties felt a just pride, even while they differed from them as to the great questions upon which the policy of the country de-

They have set below the horizon. Clay is dead, and the great name of Webster has become a mark for the sling and arrows of every sectionatist, who is aggriesed that he will not lend the lustre of his intellect and services to brighten the escutcheon of their new hero. Because he will not come under the leadership of Seward, and utter, at the word of command, such sonorous praises as will tend to the successful issue of his contest, he is defied and spit upon with the rest, and turned out, a tlind and aged general, in hopes that he will be compelled to beg alms of the very men whom he ted as his subordinates.

We have a sense of indescribable sickening at this whole performance. But, thank God, the heart of the country is now alive to the truth .-It sees at last this fair Why party, whose maiden purity has been the theme of so much adulation, turning, when its hour is at hand, into the serpent, that it is; its lair attire falling off, and the histheome scales shining through its miment and the torked tongue possoning all with which it comes in contact. - Bultimore Argus.

SPECIMEN OF WHIG VERACITY.

The Memphis (Tenn) Whig says of Gen.

Pierce : " Reared within the limits of the Granite State. he has ever been one of those close tisted locofo-C w, better known throughout the South as the FREE DEMOCRACY As a President of an Aboli tran Society, he is said to have acquired consider able popularity at home!"

This is a fair and common specimen of the manner in which the Whige are conducting this campaign. The northern Whig press, under the learnt the New York Tribune, denounces Gen. Pierce as the "worst kind of an old hunker, pro slevery locoforo"-while the Southern Whige. swear that he is the "President of an abolition enetery " They beat the devil at the business of lenge Popere for the People.

NOTICE.

A meeting of the Democratic Committees of Vigilance for Jefferson county, as appointed by the State Convention and the Mass Meeting of the county, will be held at the Court-House, in Charlestown, on Friday next, 10th instant, at half-past two o'click, P. M.

DEMOCRATIC ADDRESS.

We publish in our paper to day, the Address of the Democratic State Central Committee to the people of Virginia. It is a document that should command the careful consideration of every citizen of the Commonwealth, and its impregnable positions tell with wonderful effect upon the public voice in November next. We need but recommend it to the careful consideration and to pass by unheeded.

DESTRUCTIVE FLOODS. The papers from all sections of the country, bring to us most lamentable accounts of the great destruction to life and property, by the unprecedented rains during the latter part of August .-In the South, generally, the loss to the crops is unprecedented, and the growing crops of whole plantations have been swept away. The western rivers have also become considerably swollen, though not so disastrous in their results as in other sections of the country. Great loss has also resulted in Eastern Virginia, especially along the James River.

TOURNAMENTS.

The present promises to be a week of more than ordinary attraction at the Watering Places of our immediate vicinity.

To day, (Tuesday,) there is to be a Grand Tournament, and on Wednesday night a Fancy Ball, at Jordan's White Sulphur, the preparation for both of which is of the most novel and attractive character. The company still remains. ing at Jordan's is quite respectable in number, and the amusements of the week will draw hither more than have been present at any time during Shannondale will present a most attractive and inviting bill of fare for Thursday, in the Tournament, Fancy Ball and other amasements which are contemplated. We hope the citizens of our own and the neighboring counties may be disposed to give the worthy Proprietor of Shannondale a substantial benefit the present week, as from a combination of circumstances over which the Proprietor could exert no control, "what it used to was." Every preparation is down the canal. Amount of tolls paid here, souls lett this neighborhood by train for Dublin, being made to accommodate in the best possible $1,978 02-paid elsewhere, $2,006:98; total, en route to America." manner all who may be in attendance, and the $3,995. grave and the gay, fair ladies and gallant beaux, may all find subjects of novelty and interest in the sports of the present week. A truce then to business and politics, and hie to the blue mountains of Shannondale. THE WHEELING BRIDGE.

The Pittsburg Journal contends that the recent act of Congress, declaring this Bridge to be a public highway goes to " legalize a nuisance to the injury of a State," and adds that "at the appointed time the States Attorney General will apply to the Supreme Court for an order to enforce their decree by a removal of the nuisance."

CHARLESTOWN MARKET.

It has for several years been a matter of just reproach to our town, that we have had no regular market, where the seller might at stated periods send his meats, vegetables, poultry, butter, eggs, &c., and the consumer, supply himselt in just such quantities as his necessities required. We take pleasure, however, in saying, that this hitherto neglected convenience to our town, and a matter of paramount importance to every housekeeper, is about being remedied, if both buyers and sellers will but second the efforts of the corporate authorities of the Town.-The Market-House has been neatly and most conveniently fitted up, and on Saturday morning next, the first market will be held, and on every Wednesday and Saturday thereafter. Mr. WILLIAM P. EASTERDAY has been appointed Market Master, and the Rules, Regulations, By-Laws, &c., of the Market will be hereafter published. We hope our farmers may be disposed to furnish such articles as they can very well afford to spare from their super-abundance, and the ladies will give to the effort their countenance and approval. The present season is a most prolific one, and our market might present for variety and abundance no mean comparison to the most favored towns. Our Butchers cheerfully second the efforts of the authorities in establishing a market, and no meats will hereafter be sold or delivered except during market hours.

GRAND RALLY AT FREDERICK.

Saturday next, is the day fixed upon for the Grand Rally of the Democracy at Frederick city, upon Sumner's amendment? Maryland. It will be a tremendous outpouring Solomon D. Hubbard of Connecticut, was, of the people, and we hope the Democracy of our own region may be present in sufficient numbers to gladden the hearts and strengthen the hands of the Maryland Democracy in their noble efforts to redeem and disenthrall the State. Among the speakers expected to be present, is the Hon. Henry A. Wise, Hon. Henry Bedinger, Col. John B. Weller of California, Ex-Gov. Thomas, Charles F. Mayer, Henry May, and other distinguished citizens of Maryland and Virginia.

POLITICAL SPEECH.

We have been requested to state that John RANDOLPH TUCKER, Esq., Democratic Elector for this District, will address the Democracy of Page on the first day of the Circuit Court, being the 11th of September.

SENTENCED TO BE HUNG.

Discussion at the Court House on Wednesday. The Elector for the Accomac District of Vin At Two Dollars per annum, payable in advance minia, the Hon. HERRY A. Wise, being now on a visit to Jefferson, will address the people of the County at the Court-House on to morrow, Wednesday, 2 o'clock, P. M. Our Whig friends desire, and will endeavor to have present, one of their "big guns," and when "Greek meets Greek, will come the tug of war." The discussion will no doubt be conducted in the best spirit and the kindest temper, and the speakers on the occasion rather appeal to the intelligence than the passions of men. Mr. Wise has not only a notoriety co-extensive with the Union, but an intellect and a genius surpassed by no man of the nation. We have always regarded him as one among the most remarkable men of the age, and congratulate our fellow-citizens that they are to have an opportunity of hearing him vindicate those great political principles which are as dear to him as life. In the mad fury of the storm and the tempest, is Mr. Wise most at ease, and to properly develop the true characteristics of the man, and the brilliant store house within, we hope he may have a competitor fully booted and spurred, and who will drive in the rowels at every jump.

Mr. Wise addressed the people of Harpers-Ferry on last night, but at the time of putting our paper to press, we have learned none of the particulars as to the discussion. A Mr. Merrick, of Bultimore, we learn, was expected to have been present to reply to Mr. Wise. At Martinsburg, Mr. Wise's speech is regarded as one among the ablest ever delivered. Mr. Z. Collins Lee; attempted a reply, but fell far short of even what his friends had anticipated .-The discussion commenced at 4 o'clock in the evening, and was continued until about one in Spain and the Cuban Invaders.

It is said the Spanish minister at Washington has called the attention of the President to the fact that organizations are now forming in various sections of the Union, for another invasion of Cuba. The Washington correspondent of the New York Courier, in announcing the alarm of the Spanish minister, adds:

Spain will contest the possession of Cuba, as it is her just right to do, at every hazard and with every means of defence that can be procured by her own resources, or if need be, by alliance with other Powers. A vigorous policy has been ordered. and the Captain General of the Island, in obedience to instructions, under the apprehended revolt and invasion, has directed that every person taken with arms in his hands against the authoriies, shall be shot within three hours afterwards. A further order has been issued, that in case any officer should refuse to execute the foregoing penalty he shall be shot instantly for contema y .-The failure of our courts to convict the expeditionists engaged in the last crusade against Cuba, has not only encouraged others to repeat that lawless enterprise, but it has created a bad impression abroad as to the ability of the judicial tribunals to administer the law in the face of a

SEWARD DODGING TO SAVE SCOTT. At the close of Congress, Mr. Sumner moved an amendment to the appropriation bill, to the effect that "no part of the appropriation for exeating the laws should be used for the execution of the fugitive slave law." Messrs. Hale, Chase, Sumner and Wade voted for it, but Seward, of the same abolition clique, was missing. The N. York Herald noticing this matter, says, very

"The reason is evident, however, why Sew ard declined to vote on Senator Sammer's amendment. It might, perhaps, have injured his friend, Gen. Scott, whose prospects in Maryland and Tennessee are already sufficiently doubtful to be desperate. And so the arch agitator, when called to toe the mark upon the fugitive law dodges it, and, as a thieving dog, who knows when a kick is coming, tucks his tail between his legs and creeps away, so did the great leader of Northern disunion steal off from the direct quesion in the Senate. What became of Seward when that vote was taken? Can Mr. Mangum on Mr. Fish, or anybody else, answer the question? And why was it that Seward did not vote

CUMBERLAND COAL .- As a new feature in the states that there is now at New York a vessel

By the papers received by the Atlantic we learn that the probability of another failure in the staple food of Ireland, in conjunction with other causes, has given a fresh impetus to the emigration menia, and the exodus from the West has commenced in earnest. The Ballin-

Within the last fortnight the number of emigrants from this province has been more than loubled, and we have been assured that very many who had heretofore no thought of quitting the country are at present setting their houses in order'-in other words, packing up their traps, preparatory to taking their departure for America. And again, to quote the same authority, great numbers from this part of the country are daily passing away to take shipping in Liverpool for

America. In the early part of this week a great many people left the parish of Moore, and several from this locality; in fact the railway trains and canal boats are daily filled by crowds of the peasantry, who are burrying away as if they were escaping from a plague. From Australia several remittances have been received by the poor people here, sent by their relations who went out as paupers; and that distant country is now being added to in population by many of our strong and willing hands. The bad harvest prospect in the loss of the potato crop will startle many others; and all who can gather together merely as much as will pay the passage money will follow their friends and relatives.

The present distracted state of public feeling, nduced and renewed by the unholy agitation which attended the late election warfare-the excessive taxation-the want of manufacturing industry, are all sufficient to make any and all who are enabled to go, to quit this country, and employ their energies and capital elsewhere. We confess we are rejoiced to see those poor people fleeing from the accumulated evils which are crushing every interest in this unfortunate country. From the south, too, the emigration tide pours outwards with unabated force, and a Waterford paper calculates that, from present apnearances, the numbers leaving that and other ports will be quintupled in a few months hence. The Mars steamer sailed from Waterford for Liverpool on Saturday with 150 passengers, many of them of the better class, nearly all bound to the United States. The Galway Packet states, that while the disease has made great ravages in some parts of that county, in others its traces are barely visible; and adds that, upon the whole, the evil is not so extensive as was supposed, at the outset. Even in places where last week the loudest complaints were heard, farmers begin to say that an improvement has exhibited itself, and that the root is not at all affected. From the neighborhoods of Tuam, Ballinasloe, and other districts of the country, the accounts are less cheering, but still it is admitted that there are as yet no inst grounds for giving way to despondency, since no real estimate can be formed as to what extent the crop is likely to be effected.

"It is a mistake to suppose, as many alarmists have already done, that the loss by the potato crop will be anything like as bad as it was in the year 1846. Since 1846 a great improvement has taken place in the planting of the potato. It was this year planted a month earlier than it was in 1846, and the disease did not appear until about ten days later, so that there has been an advantage of about six weeks gained, and that, too, when a considerable quantity has been plantedquite sufficient, it is believed, for the population, now so thinned since 1846 by famine and emigration. As to the other crops-wheat, oats, turnips, &c, an abundant harvest is calculated

From Newry, it is stated that "the blight is exceptional rather than general." From Clonmel, it is confessed that "the potato is going, it not faster, at least as quick as it did when attacked by the disease in the ever memorable year 1846;" and notwithstanding the great breadth sown, it is doubted that one half of them can be saved. In Tipperary and Waterford the same complaints are made; and the disease appears to be especially virulent in the northern counties. In Clare the loss is aggravated by the fact that the people appear to have confined their sowings to the potato, neglecting the cultivation of tur nips altogether. The result has been to give a great impetus to emigration. From Galway it is said :- "The people only appear bent on leaving the country as tast as they can. It is lamentable to see men fleeing from the land of their nativity as from a pest-house. The young, and the strong, and the vigorous, aye, and many of the compara tively wealthy, too, are thronging to the emigrant ship. On yesterday morning no fewer than 200

CAUSES OF WILLG REBELLION.

Democratic Mass Convention at Reading

READING, Pa., Sept. 4. The gathering of the Democracy here to-day, under the call of the State Centual Committee, is exceedingly large, numbering many thousands, and crowds and delegations are still pouring in from every quarter. The delegations from the surrounding country began to arrive as early as sunrise, and the throng has since been steadily increasing. The trains from Pottsville and Philadelphia were literally loaded down.

The meeting organized at 1 o'clock, the Hon. James Buchanan being chosen as Chairman, and Gov. Bigler, of Pa., and Gov. Lowe, of Md., and numerous others, as Vice Presidents.

The crowd is immense, and the city is filled with banners of every description, bands of music, &c. The numbers are estimated at least 50,000. There are 3,000 here from Philadelphia, and as many more from the counties of Dauphin and Lebanon. The number of the military is large. They were reviewed during the morning notice of Mr. Faulkner is from the Philadelphia Pennsylvanian, the leading Democratic paper of the old Keystone State:

This gentleman, at present the sole representative in Congress from the Tenth Congressional District, Virginia, and for years a member of the Whig party has received many encomiums from the press for his speech in the House on the 2d ult. The Whig-press seem to have resolved to exhaust calumny in their strictures upon him; he meets their accusations with defiance, and shows how impossible it is for any southern man to vote for General Scott. Mr. Faulkner has made a most favorable impression upon men of all parties in Congress, as well by his gentlemanly deportment, as by his unquestioned abilities and his industrious attention to business. . We are glad to see that he is sestained by the Democratic party of his district, and that his reasons for taking his stand among the Democracy of the country, are so widely circulated and so warmly applauded. We hope it is true, as rumored, that Mr. Faulkner will make one of the visiters to the great Reading Mass Meeting, on the 4th of September-in which event he will deliver a speech worthy of being heard by friend and foe.

LETTER FROM GEN. PIERCE. The following letter in relation to the reli gious test in New Hampshire, was written to John E. Warren, Esq., of Cooperstown, N. Y.:

CONCORD, (N. H.,) July 16, 2852. My Dear Sir : It is impossible that a charge should embrace a more direct attack upon truth than that with which the Whig papers have teemed, in relation to my sentiments upon the religious tests contained in our State Constitution, which was adopted in 1792, and never amended since. The charge is contradicted by every word and act of my life having reference to the question, in any form, directly or collaterally. I ad vicated the call of the Convention for the amendment of the Constitution, which assembled in November, 1850, and the most prominent object in my mind was to strike out the unjust and odious provisions, commonly called the religious and property qualification tests from our fundamental law. In haste, your ob't servant. FRANK PIERCE. (Signed)

NORTH CAROLINA.

A large meeting of the Whigs, opposed to the election of General Scott, was held in Wilmington, N. C., on Monday week. It nominated Webster and Graham, and repudiated Gen. Scott. R. H. Cowan, Esq., addressed the meeting in support of its action.

The following extract from his remarks explain very pertinently the motives for his repudiation of the Baltimore nominee:

Mr. Cowan took a rapid glance at the events of the last four years-the movements connected with the slavery, and the passage of the compromise; dwelt upon the efforts of Fillmore and Webster in favor of that passage; spoke of the opposition to the enforcement of the Fugitive Slave Law at the North, and the rallying of the abolitionists under a banner gotten by Seward. in New York, with this device-" Repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law, and Winfield Scott for President." That same banner was hoisted by the Pennsylvania Convention which nominated Gov. Johnston, and that same notorious "higher law" man bore it aloft in the canvass for Governor, and was defeated to the great satisfaction of the Vinton, of Ohio, while a candidate for Governor in that State, hoisted the same banner. All this General Scott knew-he knew that while all good men and patriots were throwing themselves into the breach for the just and glorious defence of the Constitution, and maintenance of the law, his own great name was used by the enemies of both, and yet he was silent;-from him the Fugitive Slave Law received no support-the law-breakers no rebuke, nor their use of his name any contradiction. To please these people, he was silent, and they rewarded him by the nomination, against the protest of the whole South. Can that South support Gen. Scott?

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THEM.

LET THE PEOPLE REMEMBER-That General Scott stands committed to a uniform system of Bankruptcy, such as the Whigs passed at Harrison's extra session. That was a law by which poor and honest creditors all over the country were diddled out of more than TWO HUNDRED MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, which they never can hope to collect. It became so odious that the people throughout the whole land rose up as one man, and forced its repeal.

Gen. Scott says if he had been in Congress when that bankrupt law was passed, he would have voted for it. On that ground he stands yet. Now, LET. THE PEOPLE REMEMBER -- That Franklin Pierce was in Congress at that'same session, and in common with the Democracy opposed that bankrupt law.

LET THE PEOPLE RUMEMBER-That General Scott stands committed in favor of a U. States Bank, such as that which Jackson overthrewwhich by its speculations, and final failure, involved thousands of poor men, widows and orphans in ruin! ON THE OTHER HAND REMEMBER-That Franklin Pierce, while in Congress, opposed with his great eloquence and his votes that monster of corruption and iniquity.

These facts speak volumes, and no voter who correctly estimates the future welfare of his country, as superior to all party, can vote to place a man in power whose name has been given under his own hand in favor of a bankrupt law; and a National bank, and against a man whose public life has been devoted to the overthrow of such pernicious institutions .-Such a man as the former is General Scott such as the latter, General Pierce. Let the bonest voter choose between them. Ohio Statesman. HORRIBLE OUTRAGE.

The Staunton papers give an account of a most liorrible outrage committed a few miles West of that place on Wednesday evening of last week. The outrage was perpetrated upon the person of a respectable young lady of Augusta co., who with a young gentleman, her intended husband, was on her way to get married. The lady and gentleman were riding in a buggy, and when near West View, and on the line of the Central Railroad, they were forcibly dragged from their vehicle by tour fiends in human shape, (laborers on the railroad,) and the person of the lady was outraged by the whole gang of brutal ruffians. The young man was bliged to leave her in the hands of the villians whilst he sought assisfance for their apprehension in the neighborhood. The community promptly turned out, and at a late hour of the night they were all arrested and carried to prison at Staunton. At an examining Court held the day after the outrage, they were all fully identified, and now await a regular trial, when justice will be awarded them, so far as the infliction of the light penalty (light when compared with the

New Post Routes .- We learn that upon the motion of Mr. Faulkner, the General Post Route bill, before the House of Representatives, has been so amended as to secree permanent post routes from Winchester, by Ashton's Mill, to Jacob Lauck's Cross Road's sin Frederick county, where a new post office will no doubt soon be established; from Front Royal through the eastern portion of Warren and Page, to Conrad's store, in Rockingham; from Garardstown to Glengary, west of the North Mountain, in Berkeley; from North Mountain Depot, by Hedgesville and Tomahawk Spring, to Jones'Spring, west of the North Mountain, in Berkeley; from Charlesnument Square Tuesday evening, which drew together an immense crowd. The meeting was organized shortly after 8 o'clock, by nominating as President, Col. Jacob G. Davies.

Col. Davies returned his thanks in a few pertinent remarks, when Gen. Lewis Cass came forward and was intruduced smid boud cheers. Previous to addressing the audience, William P. White, Esq , presented him in behalf of the Empire Club of Baltimore, a magnificent bouquet of flowers, contained in a silver holder, bearing the inscription " Presented to General Lewis Cass by the Empire Club of Baltimore." Gen. Cass, accepting the presert in an approriate manner, turned to the people in the square and delivered an exceedingly entertaining political address, being frequently interrupted by the plaudits of his hearers. He alluded to the principles of the two parties, and remarked that those who came there to hear abuse of General Scott, would go away disappointed-thathe was a highminded, honorable man, who had rendered his country distinguished services. He differed with Gen. Scott politically, however, and did not believe that he would administer the government, f elected, as he would have it administered.

During Gen. Case' remarks the different wards and associations arrived in the square, bearing their flags, banners and transparencies, containing various political mottoes, causing him to stop several times until they ceased their music and took their positions in front ; the flags and transparencies being displayed along the Court-House vall, presenting a fine appearance. It was computed that there were from twenty to twenty five thousand persons in the Square, the whole space from Lexington to Baltimore street, being completely blocked up by a dense mass of persons. It was certainly one of the largest meetings ever held in the city on any

When Gen. Cass concluded, the Hon. Stephen Douglas, of Illinois, was introduced and adlressed the meeting for an hour and a half in his forcible and eloquent style, being received throughout with great favor. At 11 o'clock the Hon. Mr. Switzer, of Ohio, was introduced, and at the close of his remarks the meeting adjourned.

The Greys' Band was in attendance, and enivened the occasion by their fine music. During the evening guns were fired, rockets set off, and the highest degree of enthusiasm manifested, during all of which the best order and decorum prevailed, nothing occurring to cause the slightest disturbance.

BREADSTUFFS.

The London correspondent of the New York Commercial, writing under date of 17th of Au-

The last letters described the continued fluctuations that were taking place in the English funds, chiefly in consequence of tears that the harvest, which had promised to be more than an average one, would ultimately prove, from the effect of blight and heavy rains, to be actually deficient both in quality and quantity. The rapid spread of the potato disease was also an important element in the tendency to depression. At the same time your readers were warned that there was reason to believe that those statements were more or less exaggerated, and that as regards the rain, notwithstanding its remarkable leaviness, it was doubtful whether it had not done good instead of harm, by checking the rapid blight, not only in the wheat, but in po-

Since that time the funds, upon the who'e, have been steady, and the impression stated with that not only has there been no further advance in the corn market, but advices have been received from Ireland that after all the outcry which has been raised, there has been such a sudden arrest of the potato disease as to warrant the opinion that looking at the increased supply rom the total breadth of land which was planted, he aggregate yield will be found equal to an verage. Should the weather now clear up, it is said there will be the almost certain prospect of the loss by the blight being no greater than hat sustained last year. The appearance of the other crops in Ireland is still said, moreover, to be highly favorable, the cases in which serious injury has been caused being exceptional. In the south of England, on the other hand, there can be no question that severe losses have been sustained. From the north and from Scotland, however, the accounts are, by no means, bad. Hence, under all the circumstances, the hope of a moderately good general harvest can vet be entertained, and although the recent rise rom the low prices which prevailed when an unusual degree of abundance was anticipated. may be considered as fully justified, there is room to doubt if any further considerable advance will take place. Still these remarks must be taken subject to the state of the weather for the next fortuight. At present all the indications are uncertain, and the barometer stands fixedly midway between fair and rain. If it should again go down, it would renew the most grave apprehensions; but after the deluge and storms we have had, it is fair to anticipate some. thing & ferent.

The Mortality among the U. S. Troops on the Isthmus.

The Panama Star gives in (urther detail, an account of the terrible sufferings of the troops, who, under command of Lieut, Col. Bonneville, left New York on the 5 h of July last, for California, via the Isthmus. Out of the seven han dred enlisted, one hundled or more are said to have died of cholera. Only one commissioned officer fell a victim to the disease. The Star charges the officers with having deserted the men, and pushed on ahead by themselves. The consequence was, the men give way to every species of indulgence, such as drunkenness, going without food other than green truit, and sleeping in the open air. This, it says, brought on the cholera; and it then adds: "On the road over the lathmus some died by the road side, some in the rude huts of the natives, without medicine or medical attention -One soldier and his wife died on the road, leaving four or five little children, the oldest not over four or five years of age, the youngest a nursing babe. The woman was left in a native had but in a dying condition! Those who survived arrived at Panama in three days after leaving Cruces, wet and almost tamished having been without food for twenty-four hours -Soon after, the cholera broke out among them again and raged with terrible effect for several

This was accordingly done, and it is alleged that the commissioned officers again exhibited no disposition to take charge of them.

The mail steamship company, who had agreed to convey these troops from New York to California for $120,000, and await payment until Congress made the necessary appropriation. seem to have acted with great humanity. They brought them from New York to Navy Bay with out a single case of sickness, and then furnished each soldier with four days' provisions; but the desertion of their officers gave a license to the men, which eventually resulted in their ranks being terribly thinned by the pestilence. It appears, &c., absorb about a tenth part of the gross pears that while seven per cent, among the poor soldiers lost their lives, only one per cent. among the officers laid their bones in Panama. The survivors and their officers are now on their way to Benicia, California, where a court martial should be convened at once to try the officers for their dereliction of duty.

SUPREMELY REDICULOUS .- The Boston Bee, a Webster paper, thinks General Scott's election supremely rediculous. Hear it buzz about it for a moment : "The Scott men have made their boast that they could elect their candidate in spite of the Webster men, and now all we want is to see the tools they will do it with. If they adhere to their opinion, they will wake up the morning of. the 5th of November, the most astonished set of individuals that ever saw day-light. Mr. Webster's friends will not relinquish the field .-Mark that. If it is chimerical to indulge in the hope of Mr. Webster's election, it certainly supremely ridiculous to think of General Scott's."

FOUND DEAD - We learn from a gentlemen in this city, that the body of a man by the name of McCafferty was found a few days since, near Georgetown, D. C., who is supposed to have been murdered, as he had about $3,000 in his possession, which was missing. He was well known in this section, as he did quite an ex ensive business in trading in grain, &c., and was much respected by all who knew him.

To the School Commissioners of Jefferson.

Once more I claim your attention. Your "statement" of receipts and disbursements, published in the Free Press of April 1st, 1852, ra too general and indefinite. The public want specific information on sundry points, and we ask you to furnish it as soon as practicable, and annually hereafter. But permit me, before I specify them, to call your attention to some singular facts developed by your "statement." That statement contains the receipts and disbursements for the preceding year, ending April,

1851; the receipts being $10,221 34, and the disbursements $10,173 63. For the year ending April, 1852, the receipts were $9,326.88, and disbursements $8,302 50. Now, gentlemen, unless my memory is greatly at fault, your assessment upon the State revenue of 1852, was greater than for the previous year, being up to the maximum last fall. How happens it, then, that your receipts were so much less, even altea deducting the collateral tax on Isaac Strider's real estate, amounting to about $390 more than such tax in 1852? Where, too, was the necessity of levying on us a tax last year, of about 11 per cent, more than your purposes required; the Again, your statement gives the white titheables of the county at 2.311, of which 775 aredelinguents. Thus in the rich county of Jefferson, sell-applanded as the garden spot of the Union. more than one third of the adult white male population are as unwilling to pay one dollar each towards this popular system, gotten ap express ly for themselves, as they are safe from the grasp of the Sheriff. Can you believe that one third of your fellow-citizens, whom you are striving mainly to benefit, cannot enlarge that benefit by the triffing payment of one dollar each? Is you not know-that it is the want of the will more than of the mrans! And is it just and hir! I put it to you, individually, and to every taxpayer, is it just and lair, that thousands should be taken from us, for the benefit of those who

By the census of 1840, the number of children at schools and academies in Jefferson county, the previous year, was 737. Our boasted system, then, brings under some degree of instrucon only about 450 more than were then at school. We may fairly estimate at 300, those now at the public schools who would be sent to private schools, if the former were not in exist. ence. We have thus about 900 children attending more or less punctually at public schools, who would go no where else, at a cost of some eleven dollars per bead per annum. But as they are usually absent one half the year, or more, each costs as at the rate of some twenty or twenty-live dollars per annum; whilst in the public schools in New York and New England, the maximum cost of taition is fixed by law at about

As one of those who are rubbed-ave, rubbed their means, I demand that you show us, as in notely as possible, the number of children at school in each D strict-the number of days lost by each, or the number of days at school-the formes of the fathers or guardians, distinguishing between those you deem able, and those unable, to pay the 50 cents per quarter; and a list of deiquent titheables. It is just as necessary and proper that you publish these lists, as that the Sheriff publish his. And a little more sa, as it rests with you to decide who shall, and who shall not, pay the 50 cents per quarter. Do not understand me as doub ing in the least the honesty and sincerity of your acts. I believe you to be as capable and conscientious as any others who could be put in your place. - I only go upon the broad ground, that every act of those in authority, I owever brief that authority, should be p n to the inspection, and within the reach, of all. In like manger, without designing to attach any blame to you officially or individually, I am opposed to our achool system, because it gives to School Commissioners the power of taxation It thus creates a fourth taxing power in the coun'y. Who believes that the taxes levied by the Legisature, the County Court, the Overseers of the Poor, and the School Commissioners, were to be assessed by any one of those bodies, the people of the county would be spoiled of fifty or sixty housand dol ars? Each body incurs liabilities, and levies money, in total disregard of the exactions of the others. It often reminds me of the table of the fox and the flies: when the poor fox b gged his friend-not to drive off the swarm then thing his life's blood, lest i should be succeeded by another swarm demanding a fresh supply. often observe that districts are without feachers. What becomes of the salary accruing during a vacancy? Does the Commissioner get it as a-sistant feacher? It appears that the sheriff, clerk, commissionreceipts.

ISAAC WILLIAMS, a negro man, whilst in the employ of Mr. JACKSON McDANIEL, in a brick yard, on the lands of T. B. It was deemed prudent by Jons Avis, jr., Esq., to whom the information was given to inquire into the facts of the case. He accordingly held an inquest over the body. The verdict of the Jury was, that the "said Isaac Williams came to his death by hemorrhage from the lungs"-there being "no evidence of his having been killed by any person, or by any means or weapon or instrument in the hands of any person." Situated as this town is, at the junction of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, with the Northwestern Turopike leading from Winchester to Parkersburg; and being a point to which already a large amount of travel and merchandize is concentrated in its destination West from Baltimore, it is unnecessary to say much in support of its advantages or the inducements thus offered to purchasers.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company have purchased at this place a large piece of ground, for an extensive depot and workshops, and are now erecting extensive buildings for purposes connected with their business. Being about midway between the Ohio River and Baltimore it is destined to be the principal stopping place for the railroad cars.

THE CHARACTER OF THE WHIG CANYASS.

It is not within the compass of our mother longue to furnish epithets that can fully present the character of the warfare adopted by certain Whig politicians and Whig editors against Gen. Franklin Pierce. It would seem, indeed, that their fear of defeat-their great dread of losing their hold on the political power and the spoils in which they now participate—has induced a recklessness of conduct approaching the vagaries of monomaniacs. Look at them! In the leeth of their present idol, Gen. Scott, who, in his official communications, repeatedly commended Franklin Pierce for his gallantry and efficiency as an officer, their stump speakers and editors are laboring to spread among the people the foulest slanders, representing him as inefficient and cowardly. And yet these speakers and writers would fain be considered men of honor and veracity!

Look at them! From the capital of the republic they are sending to the North and East productions from the abolition press in this city, the National Era, written and circulated for the sole purpose of keeping alive the hostility of abolitionism against the people of the Southern States, and uniting all who have at any time partaken of that hostility to oppose Gen. Pierce, because of his uniform opposition to abolition movements in Congress and in his own State. At the self-same moment these party managers are sending to the Southern States the Republic, (co-laborer with the Era in defamation,) containing labored and reckless misrepresentations touching Gen. Pierce's views on the fugitive slave law, and holding him up to our southern fellow-citizens as entertaining opinions thereon quite satisfactory to abolitionists! And yet these editors and party managers would fain be considered as regardful of the restraints which should govern the conduct of honest men!

It will plant point rows, and all irregular shaped fields, with a saving of from 10 to 15 per cent. in abor, it will, with ease for two horses, plant from 8 to 10 acres per day of Wheat, Barley, and other small grains. This Machine has been in use two seasons, and wherever it has been introduced has given entire satisfaction. This Drill took the first premium at the Valley

Henson, O'Bannon and Hunt. I do not suppose any intelligent farmer would now dispute the advantage of drilling over broadcast sowing; I also consider the above Drill altogether equal to any drill now in use, and the advantage of apply. ing a compost box to it, makes it very desirable-The compost part of the drill acts well in every particular and is one of the greatest inventions of the day for the farmer; it might well be called the farmer's friend, as it saves both time and labor. Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with a ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes, with derangement of mind, were cured imme-fitting them for either business or society.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil of forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c., and some of the evils produced.

Weakness of the system, nervous debility and prema ture decay, generally arising from the destructive habit of youth, that solitary practice so fatal to the healthful existence of man, and it is the young who are most apt to become its victims from an ignorance of the dangers to which they subject themselves. Parents and guardians are often misled with respect to the cause of source of disease in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they ascribe to other causes the wasting of the frame, Palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, indigestion, derangement of the nervous system, cough, and symp-toms of consumption, also those serious mental effects, such as loss of memory, depression of spirits or peculiar fits of melancholy, when the truth is they have been into both body and mind. Thus are swept from existcountry, a pleasure to their friends, and ornaments to society.

DR. JOHNSON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS. This grand and important Remedy has restored trength and vigor to thousands of the most debilitated individuals, many who had lost all hopes, and been abandoned to die. By its complete invigoration of the nervous system, the whole faculties become restored to their proper power and functions, and the fallen fabric of life is raised up to beauty, consistency and duration, ipon the ruins of an amaciated and premature decline, sound and pristine health. Oh, how happy have undreds of misguided youths been made, who have seen suddenly restored to health from the devastations of those terrific maladies which result from indiscretion. Such persons before contemplating ould reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote commubial happiness.— Indeed, without this, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and He who places himself under the care of Dr. John-

8500 CHALLENGE. WHATEVER concerns the health and hap-piness of a people is at all times of the mest valuable importance. I take it for granted that every person will do all in their power, to sage the lives of their children, and that every person will endeavor to promote their own health it all sacrifices. I feel it to be my duty to solemnly assure you that WORMS, according to the opinion of the most celebrated Physicians, are the primary causes of a large majority of diseases to which children and adults are liable; i you have an appetite continually changeable from one kind of food to another, Bad Breath, Foreign and Domestic Exchanges, Time Bills, | Pain in the Stomach, Picking at the Nose, Hardness and Fullness of the Belly, Dry Cough, Slow Fever, Pulse Irregular-remember that all these denote WORMS, and you should at once apply the remedy: Hobensack's Worm Syrup. An article founded upon Scientific Principles, compounded with purely vegetable substances, being perfectly safe when taken, and can be given to the mast tender Infant with decided beneficial effect, where bowel complaint and diarrhea have made them weak and debilitated the Tonic properties of my Worm Syrup are such, that it stands without an equal in the catalogue of medicines, in giving tone and strength to the Stomach, which makes it an Infallible remedy for those afflicted with Dyspepsia, the astonishing cures performed by this Syrup after Physicians have failed, is the best evidence of its superior efficacy over all others. The Tape Worm. This is the most difficult Worm to destroy of all that infest the human system, it grows to an almost Indefinite length becoming so coiled and fastened in the Intestines and Stomach effecting the health so sadly as to cause St. Vitus Dance, Fits, &c., that those afflicted seldom if ever suspect that it is Tape Worm hastening them to an early grave. In order to destroy this Worm, a very energetic treatment must be pursued, it would therefore be proper to take 6 to 8 of my Liver Pills so as to remove all obstructions, that the Worm Syrup may act direct upon the Worm, which must be taken in doses of 2 Tablespoonfulls 3 times a day. These directions followed have never known to fail in curing the most obstinate case of Tape Worm. Hobensack's Liver Pills. No part of the system is more liable to disease than the LIVER, it serving as a filterer to puriy the blood, or giving the proper secretion to the bile; so that any wrong action of the Liver effects the other important parts of the system, and results variously, in Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, &c. We should, therefore, watch every symptom that might indicate a wrong action of the Liver. These Pills being compos ed of ROOTS and PLANTS furnished by nature to heal the sick: Namely, 1st, An EP. PECTORANT, which augments the secretion from the Pulmonary mucus membrane, or promotes the discharge of secreted matter. 2nd: An ALTERNATIVE which changes in some inexplicable and insensible manner the certain morbid action of the system. 3d. To Females. You will find these Pilis an invaluable medicine in many complaints to which you are subject. In obstructions either total or partial, they have been found of inestimable benefi, restoring their functional arrangements to a healthy action, purifying the blood and other fluids so effectually to put to flight all complaints which may arise from female irregularities, as headache, giddiness, dimness of sight, pain in the side, back, &c. NORTHAMPTON Co., April 13, F852. Messrs, Tyler & Adair : I have been afflicted withheumatism at times, from my twelfth year. I will be 50 years of age the 18th of this month; the attacks vere so severe at times as to render me helpless. I have ried various remedies to very little effect. Last October I was attacked in my shoulders, sides, back and hips; I could not rest day or night; I could not move any part of my body without crying with pain. At this time l'also tried many remedies, internal and external, without relief. I was at hist advised to try HAMP. TON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE. Before I had taken one bottle of which, I felt much better, and as I ontinued taking it I felt strength coming into my back and limbs, and my stomach strengthened and revived petter than I ever expected to be. I intend to use it whenever I need, and would recommend it to the afflicted, believing it unequalled.

Yours, ELIZABETH BAGWELL. Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray : Mrs. Elizabeth Bagwell is a lady of the highest respectability, wealthy and influential. The cure in her case speaks volumes in favor of this wonderful Tincture. Several other persons we have heard of, have derived great benefit from its use in our county. We are entirely out of the article, and have daily anxious enquirers to know when we will receive another supply. We expect large sales of it from the present demand, and want you to send us a bux as soon as possible.

I. MACH OF THE OX, after directions of BARON LIEBIG, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S.
HOUGHTON, M., D., Philadelphia, Pa.
Thisis a truly wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyapepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation, and Debility, Curing after Nature's own method, by Nature's own Agent, the CASTRIC JUICE.

TRIC JUICE. Half a teaspoonful of PERSIN, infused in water, will digest or dissolve, Five Pounds of Roast Beef in about PEPSIN is the chiefelement, or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastrie Juice—the solvent of the food, the purifying, Preserving, and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an Artificial Digestive two hours, out of the stomach. Fluid, precisely like the natural Gastrie Juice in its chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it. By the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils of INDIGESTION and DYSPEPSIA are removed, just as they would be by a healthy Stomach.

It is doing wonders for Dyspeptics, curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the verge of the grave. The Scientific Evidence upon which it is based, is in the highest degree curious and remarkable. SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE! BARON LIEBIG in his celebrated work on Asimal Chemistry, says: "An artificial Digestive Fluid, analyous to the Gastrie Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Call, in which various articles of food; as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed, and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach " Dr. COMBE, in his valuable writings on the "Physiology of Digestion," observes that "a diminution of the due quantity of the Gastric Juice is a prominent and all prevailing cause of Dyspepsia;" and he states that "a distinguished professor of medicine in London, who was severely afflicted with this complaint, finding every thing else to fail, had recourse to the Gastrie Juice, ob-ained from the stomache offiving animals, which proved completely successful." Dr. GRAHAM, author of the famous works on " Veetable Diet," says: "It is a remarkable fact in physiclogy, that the stomachsof animals, macerated in water, impart to the fluid the property of dissolving variets ar-ticles of food, and of effecting a kind of artificial digestion of them in no wise different from the natural digestive process." Call on the Agent, and get a Descriptive Circular, gratis, giving a large amount of Scientific Evidence, similar to the above, together with Reports of Remarka-ble cures, from all parts of the United States. AS A DYSPEPSIA CURER, Dr. HOUGHTON'S PEPSIN has produced the most marvellous effects, in cusfng cases of Debifity, Emacia-tion, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption. It is impossible to give the details of cases in the limits this advertisement; but anthenticated certificates have been given of more than Two Hundred remarkable cures, in Philadelphia, New York and Boston alone. TO THE PUBLIC. THE introduction of Dr. John Bull's unequalled Sarsaparilla, has formed an era in the political world. Its rise, progress, and the many wonderfull cures it has effected, since it was in roduced to the public, have been a subject of great astonishment, and even commanded the admiration of the American people. When the history of this truly wonderful medicine is known, together with the extraordinary exertions made by Dr. Bull, to make it the most valuable compound of Sarsaparilla known to the world, it's rapid and unprecedented rise and progress, will no longer be a theme of astonish-Twenty-six years since Dr. Bull, then a boy, came to Louisville, and was employed for a number of years in studying the business of an Apothecary, with Messrs. Byer. & Butler, Dr. T. E. Wrison, and the lamented L. George, Jr. After leaving the service of Dr. Wilson, Dr. Bull was employed by Dr. F. Scorch, an old and celebrated German physician of this city, and who was for many years, a Surgeon in the Grand Army of Napo leon. Dr. Scorch, during his life, made a fluid Extract of Sarsaparilla for the especial use of the physicians of this city, and which was considered at that time by far the most superior article made. Dr. Hall was employed by Dr. Scorch, in compounding this celebrated Sarsapa rilla, and he then conceived the idea and finally fully determined (seventeen years since) to introduce at some future period, for the consideration of the afflicted, a preparation of Sarsaparilla.

since that time his maid has been constantly employed in studying the ingredients, and experimenting to find a complete, safe, and valuable compound of Sara-parilla, such a one as would be acknowledged by physi-cians as undoubted in its efficacy, and hasled by the afflicted with demonstrations of joy. By close and unremitting study, he at last succeeded in gaining the desired end. His Extract taving been several years before the public, and its merits completely tested, he confi-dently appeals to the thousand certificates of its wonderful cures, and hence for its great superiority over all other similar compounds. It is therefore a matter of no surprise, that the question is frequently asked "Why does Dr. Bull's Sarsaparil'a continue to advance rapid y in the favor and confidence of the public, when all other similar preparations, which have preceded his have been cast aside as unworthy of the slight at no-Though it is not required yet this question is easily answered. Dr. Bull nas not worked alone for pecuniary preferment; gain has not been his sole object: he has had a higher and a nobler aim constantly in view that of relieving the sufferings of his fellow creatures. Inlike those who compound a good article for a short time that they may gain a reputation, and having attained the object of their wish, neduce their article, b) leaving out its most valuable ingredients, to a worthless mixure, in order to accumulate wealth, Dr. Bull has con tinued to use the costly ingredients which his long study and experience enabled him to discover, and which has been of such invaluable service to suffering humanity — He seeks to gain an unspotted reputation, not only for him eff, but also for his renowned Sarsaparilla, and t is a fact worthy to be recorded, that every gallon of the sarmparilla sold by Dr. Bull is made with his own hands and under his immediate superintendence. For several years past he has been daily experimenting in administ-ring his mixtures, without charge to patients pronounced incurable, and to his eternal fame be it recorded, his efforts have been crowned with the most wonderful success. His Sarsaparilla has now gamed such a wide spread reputation, and been established upon such a solid basis, that he is firmly satisfied of its andoubted merits, and confidently challenges the combined Medical skill of Europe and America to produce, out of Sarsaparilla, a superior preperation to his Fluid Extract.

GEN. SCOTT AND ANTI-SLAVERY. POETRY. From the Richmond Esquirer.

The following letter of Henry Bradley, who was the abolition candidate in 1846, for the office was the abolition candidate in 1846, for the office of Governor in New York, is an ominous feature in this campaign. It proves that the recent abolition Convention at Pittaburg was but a sham. It demonstrates, that the influence of the New York Tribune and Albany Evening Journal, is still omnipotent in the abolition party of the North, against all conventions, sham or genuine. And it teaches the Southern Whig party how fallacious is their objection to General Pierce, viz: that he is supported by individual members of the Free Soil party, who recent their old doctrines; when compared with the fact, that the abolitionists proper, with such liberty men as Bradley standing as the head and front of their organization, rally to the support of Gen. Scott as the champion of "Hunan Freedom, whateve is might cost in the sent of slavery, the South relieve

of that party for Governor of the State of New York. The letter is in reply to one of inquiry, from one of our citizens, Mr. W. W. Hayt. At this juncture this letter possesses peculiar interest—following so close upon the Pittsburg convention, it shows that the nomination there made will not be supported by a large portion of those will not be supported by a large portion of those who have for many years, constituted the life and soul of the liberty party. Mr. Bradley has been, for fifteen years, identified with the abolition party, and at much sacrifice labored to diffuse anti slavery principles among the people. His time, money and talents, were cheerfully devoted to the work, and his zeal in behalf of freedom none can question. We rejoice that his influence and vote are to be found, at this election in favor of Gen. Winfield Scott:—

PENN YAN, Aug. 16, 1852. WILLIAM W. HAYT, Esq:Dear Sir:-Your favor of the 9th came duly to Dear Sir: —Your favor of the 9th came duly to hand, in which you say that it is reported in your section that, in a conversation with Mr. Hull, I declared my intention to rote for Gen. Scott, for President, and you ask in the name of a "number of citizens" if this be trees. of citizens," if this be true. versation with Mr. Hull, it is substantially as folows: There was a third individual present, and the topic was slavery, and its usurpations and abuses. It was said that the South were opposing Gen. Scott on the ground that he was antislavery, and that he was in sympathy with Wm. H. Seward. I remarked that if it could be shown that the assumptions of the South were founded on truth, I would readily vote for Gen. Scott, for desired to cast my vote against slavery.

Perhaps I ought to say, from the commence-ment of the public life of Mr. Seward, I have had the most unwavering confidence in him as a man, as a statesman, and as a true and reliable friend of freedom. So far as his influence shall prevail I doubt not it will be just and constitutional towards the North and towards the South-towards the slaveholder and towards the slave. From the first announcement of the doings of the Democratic BaltimoreConvention in the adoption of its platform and the nomination of Gen Pierce, to the present time, I have regarded the country as in a state of imminent peril. The ninth article of that platform had been twice ninth article of that platform had been twice placed before the American people, and received with great offence by a large portion of the Democratic party, instructor hat in 1848 many of the leaders of the party as well as thousands of the rank and file, planted themselves upon the Buffalo platform, pledging unyielding hostility to slavery. With this movement I sympathized and co-operated in good faith. Judge then of my surprise to find this same ninth article again adorted. prise to find this same ninth article again adopted lection that has been made. Franklin Pierce is with expletives, if possible infinitely more anti republican and offensive, closing up with this most, unreasonable, unphilosophical and insulting resogranted, no matter what you may hear to the contrary. He is pure in his private character. You may take that too as granted, and lay it up Resolved. That the Democratic party will resist But this is not all. Franklin Pierce is a man all attempts at renewing in Congress or out of it. the agitation of the slavery question, under what-ever shape or color the attempt may be made. To all this Gen. Pierce, the nominee for Pre-This gentleman, presented to you by the Demo-cracy, was brought before the Carvention by the delegates from that State whence, I am happy to say, I came. (Hurrah for Old Virginny! sident, responds:—"I accept the nomination upon the platform adopted by the Convention, not because it is expected of me as a candidate, but because it is expected of me as a candidate, but because the principles it embraces command the approbation of my judgment, and with them I be-lieve I can safely say there has been no word or act of my life in conflict." Immediately all the laughter.) It was Virginia that brought him forward. (More applause.) It was that dear old State in which I first drew the breath of life, Democratic papers, barnburner and hunker, from Bennett's Herald and the Albany Argus, down to the lowest country issue, fall to glorifying the Democratic platform and the nominee, Gen. ing that is dear to me; it was Virginia that brought him forward. I pray you to excuse me while I call attention to the fact that on the 35th Pierce, without a word against slavery; and all this is echoed by the public speakers, the Van Burens, the Butlers, the Dix's down to the small-est hunker that holds forth his sentiments in the ballot, the Virginia delegates same forward voconcert, without arrangement, without expecta-tion on the part of any one, and cast filteen votes for Franklin Pierce. (Cheers) Fellow-citi-zens, the next vote gave Franklin Pierce but forum of a bar-room. Now, in all this, are the party and its nominee nonest and candid? If so, they should be indicted and punished for treason against humanity and for a cowardly and craves surrended ty to slavery; if, on the other hand, this is simply ty to slavery; if, on the other hand, this is simply he was proclaimed to the Demoracy of the country as their choice for President of the United States. (Loud applause.) Allow me to ask you this, what is he recommended to you for?—His antecedents are spotless. He is a sound a ruse to gull the South, then are they dishonest, and for that reason are unworthy to be trusted. For years past the Democratic party have rung the changes on the words "harmonious Democracy;"and the Whig press has furnished amusing proofs of the absurdity of such a play upon words. But now they are full of meaning; they are portentous. If the party succeeds we are to have he has antecedents which wil carry him successfully and triumphantly into the Presidency of the Union as the endorsement of the great Democratic family through their National Conventions. Let me give you this assurance, on which slavery in perpetuity, without agitation in Congress or out of it, under the special care and auyou may rely—that it you elect him President of the United States, you will have a sound, solid, straight forward, apright and thoroughly Demo-cratic President. (Loud and long applause.)— With him as President of the United States, you thority of the government; or the party are prac-ticing a ruse, and the South are cheated.

I turn from the Democratic to the Whig party. In no instance, I believe, have the Whig party adopted sectional slavery doctrines. An attemp was made at the commencement of the present session of Congress, to pass the compromise measures through a Whig caucus of members of Congress. But a fragment of the party were present, and though it was declared formally passed, such were the indications attending its passage, that in the judgment of both the South and the North, it was bereft of all strength.

Again at the Baltimore Whig Convention, the adoption of the alstorm (which have been to the past of the second of and fig tree, and have mose to make us afraid.—
(Cheers.) We shall carry our stars and stripes, (in peace, I would trust, forever, but in tones of thunder if necessary.) spreading American liberty and human rights to the utmost bounds of the earth. (Great applause.) I say, therefore, come up to the daty before you, and do your duty. (More applause.) Come up to this duty for your country and for youselves, and manfully determine that the humbur of our political adversaries shall prevail no longer.

Having said thus much in reference to Gene-

Again at the Ballimore Whig Convention, the adoption of the platform (which must be admitted to be wrong in principle and offensive in language,) was the work of but a portion of the Convention, and to this day the South refuse to regard it as affording any security that the party or rerelies shall prevail no longer.

Having said thus much in reference to General Pierce, let me call your attention to William R. King, our nomines for Vice President. He is from the sunsy South. I know him well, love him dearly, and am proid to be called one of his friends. (To be sure he has never brought a woman to his boson, (langhter,) but he is, nevertheless, kind and attractive in his disposition, and is in every respect qualified for the position to which we are about to call him. Let me tell your that he likewise is one who would worthily fill the office of President, should it be the unhappy fortunts of General Pierce to be gathered to his fathers. But there need be no such appreciation entertained: Democratic Presidents never the. (Great outburst of applause.) Fellow citizens, this has been the unbappy fortune of our opponents (and God knows I don't repote at it,) on two necessions, and it seems to gard it as affording any security that the party or its nominee will favor sectional slavery.

Both the convention and Geleral Scott, as its nominee, have gone quite as far as, in my judgment, they could, with any show of consistency, to convince the South that both stood upon a national and not a sectional platform; and that while the federal government would not interfere with State sovereignty, by legislating for or against slavery in the States where it exists, it would by no means consent to its extension into territory where it does not exist.

It is right and proper that the parties should be

It is right and proper that the parties should be national 4 the South has rights as well as the North, and these are to be regarded and protected by the government. But this does not seem to cover the whole ground. There is a political element in American slavery, which is far more effective for good or evil than all the questions of abstract right. In the very necessities of the case, slavery must rale or must be ruled; and up to this time none can fail to see that whatever there may have been of the carrying out of the doctrines of the declaration of independence and of the federal constitution, has been by yielding to slavery so much that in its picthoca it had but little activity to exert in the suppression of others' rights.

In such an issue can any one doubt where Gen Scott will be found? His whole life, in public and in private, has exhibited the fixed purpose of promot-ing the cause of human freedom, whatever peril or sucrifice it might cost him. That he will ever con-simple act of duty I had inflicted a testing injury upon the slare and upon the country.

With great respect, I remain your friend, HENRY BRADLEY. ANTI-SCOTT WHIGS OF THE SOUTH.

A considerable portion of the Whig party of A considerable portion of the Whig party of the South refuse to yield their support to Gen. Scott. Such are Faulkuer and Lyons, of Viginia; Outlaw and Clingman, of North Carolina; Waddy Thompson, of South Carolina; Toombs and Stephens, of Georgia; Gentry, of Tennessee; Marshall, of Kentucky, and a great many others in the Line When ples and measures of the Whig party, to which they have been hitherto attached. On the contrary, it is they who adhere to principles while the party to which they belong yields itself to the malign influences of sectional fanaticism. No party can abandon principle with impunity. -. There is an inherent weakness and mortality in error and falsehood. He, therefore, is the true friend of the party who adheres to its principles. It is an adherence to political principles—it is honesty and truth alone that give solid and permanent strength to any party. If, therefore, the whole of the Southern delegation that voted for Mr. Fillmore in the Baltimore Convention had refused to endorse the nomination of Gen. Scutt -if they had stood out against him in a bodyalthough it would have insured the defeat of the Whig party in the present canvass, yet it would have strengthened that party far more in the long run, than the course which they have pursued. If they had repudiated Gen. Scott, be cause his election under abolition influences would be incompatible with Southern Rights and the safety of the Union, they would have held a praise was awarded for the satisfactory manner in strong position of armed neutrality, resting on and detraction which their course has provoked. Sinister and selfish motives are of course imputed to them by trading politicians who judge others by themselves. — Petersburg. Democrat.

A SOLITARY WHIG STATE.

The Tribune glories over Vermont as a Whig State, "whose pure breezes never fanned the cheek of a slave," and says the Democrats "have not the assurance to claim it as likely to support their candidate or in any manner contribute to their triumph."

Well, we can spare you that much comfort, and congratulate General Scott and the Southern Whigs upon their possession of a State, and an editor, so inimical to all the feelings and interests of the South. The fling of Greeley at the slave States is in perfect keeping with the Scott wing of Whiggery, especially at the North, and must be delightful to our opponents in this quarter. Down with the Union, the South, Pierce, King and Democracy, is the sentiment of these Scottites; and up with Vermont, because it is a sure Scott State, "whose pure breezes have never fanned the cheek of a slave."

We find the following companion plece to the New Boston fabrication, circulating briskly through the press. Its authenticity is beyond question. It looks very like a clincher. It was addressed to the "Trenton Gasette," a genuine Scott organ :

The new postage bill, in the amended form in which It has passed the Senate, it is said will be a vast improvement on the existing law and afford relief both to the people and to the postmasters from the misunderstanding which the present complicated system imposes. The advantages of the new bill are thus pointed out by Mr Barnabas Bates in a communication to the New York Journal of

1. By placing all printed matter upon the same footing, postmasters and the public will be able to decide the character of publications, whether newspapers or periodicals and the postage to be charged upon them, without an appeal to the Post Office Department or the Attorney General.

2. Making three ounces the maximum, will embrace all the newspapers, and a vast number of valuable periodicals, which will be sent by mail, instead of private conveyances, and thus increase the revenue of the Post Office. 3. One ounce and a half will include all the weekly country papers sent within each State at half the price of the above. There is no sense whatever in limiting these papers to the State where published. Why not extend the limit, as on the other papers, to three thousand miles? They are only half the weight, and therefore should have the same privilege. 4. The pre-payment of postage, either at the office where a newspaper or periodical is mailed of delivered, is a great convenience both to the publisher and the public, as the postage to Canada, &c., may be paid at the office of mailing.

5. The reduction of postage to one half, when paid quarterly in advance, will be a great incentive both to publishers and subscribers to pre-pay their

He had been in love with a young lady, but was prevented, by some means, from marrying her, and wedded another. Soon after his marriage, he carried his wife to see his parents, and there met the young lady, his former love, to whom he appeared to have been devotedly attached. Their feelings upon meeting overcame their sense of propriety, and they rushed into each other's arms, embraced, and were melted to tears. This seems to have revived, in a ten fold degree, his love for her; and after earrying his wife back to her parent, said that he would go to Troy and mail a letter, which he had written; but it appears he came to the determination on the way to destroy himself, which he did, in the manner above described.

MR. WISE'S SPEECH.

The Hon. HENRY A. Wise, being on a visit to our Valley, has addressed the people at several points in this and the neighboring counties, on the questions of the approaching canvass. Wedonter of the people assembled at our he speaker and the notoriety which eive him, which duly the Committee at onc riormed, and he was introduced to the meet ing in a few brief and appropriate remarks by the Hon, WILLIAM LUCAS. Mr. Wisz's speech extended beyond three and a half hours, and of course we can have no hope of doing justice to the argument which be made, the positions which he assumed, or the principles which he so ably and elequently descanted upon. Commencing with the memorable canvass of 1840, he reviewed the whole history of the country, and the important questions which have arisen, from that day to the present. A prominent actor in the stirring scenes incident to the administration of President Tyler, he gave a deeply interesting account of their rise and progress, and the difficulties and embarrassments which were to be met and overcome. The annexation of Texas he regarded as the great measures of interest to the country, the whole benefits of which had been eventually frittered away by the betrayal of the South, as consummated by the Taylor Cabinet, through their supple agent, Gen. Reily. He dwelt at great length and with just severity upon this most iniquitous and unjust proceedings, by which the South had been robbed of an empire in losing California. The act was consummated in violation of law, against the wishes of the State of California itself, and contrary to every principle of right, justice and fair dealing. The position of parties in the present canvass was of course dwelt upon at great length, and the principles advocated and defended by the Democratic party so clearly set forth, that even many of our Whig friends found themselves involuntarily offering their tribute of approbation. The contrast as drawn between the candidates of the two parties, the principles which they advocated and the platforms from which it came, and by your votes at the upon which they stood, no less than the influences by which they were surrounded, was of of the auditory. The letter of acceptance on the part of Gen. Scott was completely riddled, and its absurdities exposed to the discriminating judgment of every one present. The life and public service of General Pierce, his devotion to the principles of the Constitution and the rights of the South, were eloquently and most touchingly dwelt upon. The speech throughout was not only able, eloquent and argumentative, but most original and unique. It was a grand and glorious effort in defence of the Constitution and the advocacy of the Democratic party. Men of all parties regarded this effort of Mr. Wise's as among the very ablest ever listened to in our county, and one that will accomplish great good for the Democratic cause. On behalf of the Democracy of Jefferson, we tender their most cordial acknowledgments to the distinguished speaker, and hope opportunity may offer to hear his elequent voice in our midst again during the

COURT DAY.

Monday next being our Court day, a large concourse of people will doubtless be present. The Hon. CHARLES J. FAULKNER, the Representative in Congress from this District, purposes, as we learn, to give an account of his Stewardship, which will prove of benefit and interest to all who may be fortunate enough to be present. To our Whig friends, who were but so recently Mr. F.'s supporters, we can only say "strike, but hear." The Hon. Mr. ISBELL, State Senator from the Buckingham District of Virginia, has kindly accepted the invitation of the Democratic party, to dress them on the occasion. Our Elector, Mr. POCKER, will also endeavor to be present, and a ghly interesting discussion may be anticipated

MUSICAL WONDER.

Notwithstanding the impudence and black-guardism of the "Richmond Ving" have been so often rebuked for its foul aspersions upon the Democratic party of Virginia, yet it seems almost a "hopeless hope" that it will ever learn good manners. From its colutions we have had more than once reflections upon the "loppedeared Dutch"-the "stolid Swabians of the Tenth Legion"-as it terms the unwavering, the "tried, true and trusty" Republicans of Shenandoah, Bockingham and Page, Now we have another " low fling" at the Democracy of Western Virginia, in the " Whig" of the 7th instant, in which the Western Virginia Democracy are styled the "ignorant Democracy" whom "the leaders have so long led by the nose." Now we harl back with scorn upon this mendacious print, the base imputation which it has cast upon the Democracy of Western Virginia, and wecall upon the Democracy of the West to note this " low fling" at them by this organ of Whig aristocracy. Let them rally it a solid cole ma at the polls in November next and teach the abolition allies of Scott, Seward & Co. that as " ignorant" as they may be deemed they are intelligent enough to rally themselves as they have always done-in hundreds and thousands upon the side of the Constitution, the Laws, and the Union-and that they are made of too " stern stuff" to be led off from their daty to their country by the cry of "Lundy's Lane," " Chernons-

We are well aware of the opinion entertained of Western Virginia people by the bloated and self-sufficient aristocracy of the east, and especially by this leading organ at Bastern Whigstitution, and would lovever have excluded the feeting of poor man in Virginia from the right of suffrage. After So much chaprined is it even just that after the W. A. I defeat of the Whiga in the less North Carolina in D. Med election, it railed out and said from "its knowledge and experience of the sockings of reform Lai, 2d a in Virginia, it hoped North Carolina might be. nory its exact words, but the substance we re in all its force and volume. We had hopeu ne able and talented delegation in the late " Reform Convention" from Western Virginia had taught even the incorrigible arrogance and impudence of the " Richmond Whig" some appreciation of the intelligence and worth of the west.

But the pretext for this last emptying of its bile upon the gallant democracy of the West, is an exulting article under the caption of "Good News," in which the "Whig" pretends to have most encouraging intelligence from Wesiera Virginia of the progress of Scottism. Were it to be believed - Democratic orators are crest iallen and dispirited, and the rank and file of our party falling like autumn leaves. Yes! in very with the force of a tropical ternado. How ridiculous-how false-how desporate are such givings out. The truth is the Democracy were never more firm, united and confident of victory. In this district our vote will be largely increased, and so our intelligence throughout the whole West and Southwest assures us will the case. If there are any crest fallen and discontited looking people about this country-they are Whigs. But the "Whig" expects to recruit forces from the ranks of the Democracy, as it considers them so " IGNORANT" that they can be humbugged with any humbug that can be started-even the humbuggery of abolitionism dressed in epaulettes and " Fuss and Feathers." Hence it says: "All accounts tell as that Loco prators (of Western Virginia) have an up-hill business with Pierce. The fact that he is an obscure Yankee is telling with the IGNORANT DEMOCRAcy." There it is Democrats of Western Virginia-you are considered so ignorant, that you | youthful, so modest. cannot even tell who is the candidate of your party. Throw back this impudence to the source polls show whether you are the " ignorant De-mocracy" which this Journal considers you. MARYLAND.

This State at length gives evidence that she designs in earnest, to shake of the shackles of Whiggery, and to enter the Democratic fold .-Among the thousands who are repudiating Scott, we notice in the Baltimore Argus of Saturday, a powerful letter from the Hoa. EDWARD LONG, of Somerset county, lately a Whig member of Congress from Maryland, repudiating Scott and pledging his best exertions to secure the election of Pierce and King. Major Eog of Carroll co., one of the Whig Electors in 1348, has also repudiated Scott, and addressed the Democracy of Maryland at their Mass Meeting in Hagerstown. Mrs. Rice will still give her personal supervision to the young Ladies who may be placed in the school, and we learn is prepared to receive several more pupils as boarders. This Seminary all things considered, offers advantages for the edication of young ladies, not surpassed by any other school in the Valley. Mr. W. is a teacher of very superior qualifications, who gives his most indefatigable efforts to the improvement of his scholars, and their moral and intellectual culture. The terms for both tuition and board, are e fire that is nes, but has no posed for some few weeks past to the intense heat immense fires which are at certain intervals known to break out spontaneously in that region, the combustible mass has become ignited and is being swept off like stubble.

At last accounts the indications were that it had spread, without hope of subding it, throughout the whole South and West, and had also got a firm foothold in the North and East, and that those who have been laboring with every means in their power to quench the fixmes without the slightest effect, were on the point of giving up in despair; for it seemed apparent that the greater their efforts to extinguish the spreading fire, the more intensely it burned.

The most calamitous effects yet heard of have taken place in North Carolina, where it has left neither "root nor branch" of the consuming frail combustible. Hon. Wm. A. Graham, ex-Score-

tary of the Navy, is said to have made the most vigorous and untiring efforts at first to arrest the progress of the calamity, but was forced to abandon the effort as a hopeless task. A Mr. Kerr, a gentleman of some distinction, also worked don the effort as a hopeless task. A fir. her, a gentleman of some distinction, also worked gallantly, but, we regret to learn, has fallen a wictim to the resistless element.

General Scott, Commander-in-Chief of the American forces, has been appealed to in the trying emergency, as it was supposed that his experience in a terrible "fire" which occurred a few years since, would enable him to cope successfully with the conflagration. But his efforts thus far seem only to have added fuel to the flames, for, while he is continuously making provision against encroachments "in his rear," the hostile element is spreading on every side of him, hostile element is spreading on every side of him, and he is forced to make a "hasty" retrogade movement. From present appearances, it seem med of the progress of this extraordinary confla-gration.—Albany Atlas.

THEN AND NOW.

When Gen. Pierce resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate, the Editor of the New York Express, who was at Washington at the time, thus wrote

" Hon. F. Pierce, U. S. Senator from the State of New Hampshire, has resigned his seat in the Senate. Mr. Pierce will hardly have a more acceptable man to succeed him. To his political friends he has partizan enough to be always faithful to the party of which he was a member. He was a faithful member of the Senate, and much more unexceptionable to his opponents than many of his opponents. In the committee room he was laborious, attentive and just, and there, where a member may be most useful, he has been of good service to the country."

In the Express of Saturday last, its editor says: he is no statesman at all; and his chief recommendation to the party consisted in the fact, that because of the insignificance of his career, they supposed nothing could be raised against him Let us appeal to history for the truth of this supposition. Whilst a member of Congress he originated no measure; he gave no proof of ability; he left his mark nowhere."

When Gen. Pierce resigned his seat in the Senate he was not a candidate for the Presidency; since then the Democracy have chosen him as their nominee for that important position, which has wrought a wonderful change in the Express man's opinion. The weather-cock.

The Whig Leaders in Washington.

It is known that there is now, and there has been for months, in this city, a Whig National Committee, to which the cause of General Scott has been especially entrusted. Several very extraordinary scenes took place while this committee was in session during the sitting of Congress, all going to show that the abolition influence always controlling in the Whig party, was the leading and despotic element in the National Whig Committee. Since Congress has adjourned, however, it appears that even the doubtful outhern members of that committee have gone home; leaving in the hands of the abolition mem bers the entire management of its operations .-The presiding genrus of the National Whig Committee now, as in 1848, is Mr. Truman Smith of Connecticut, and he is assisted by such politicians as the Rev. The first part of this acr, be shows then Scott making soldiers of all foreigners for one year before they can become citizens. Germans, Irishmen and Englishmen, you may live here Irishmen and Englishmen, you may live here twenty, year fifty years in peaceful obedience to the laws of our lands and yet you do not acquire the merits of a citizen until you serve in the "Army or Navy one year," this is Military despotism. Secondly, he shows Scott carrying into the Presidential household, Military discipline; and instead of acknowledging the Civil paramount to the Military power, as it is said in the Constitution it shall be, he will require the peoples' representatives to remain passive, until they are instructed by the Executive Departments and those departments are to be command-

they are instructed by the Executive I ed by him.

The refugence and force of those facts was so clearly reflected by Mr. W., as to shed a convincing and converting light upon the mind of a here-tofore unterrified Loudoun Whig, who like a sinner of old cried "what shall I do !" those facts are too plain to be controverted! A Jefferson Whig said, I admired and believed when he was a Whig.

TO THE FRIENDS OF TEMPERANCE

A circular, addressed to one of the Delegate from Jefferson to the late State Temperance Con vention held in Staunton, contains the following paragraph, which is earnestly commended to the attention of the riends of the cause throughout

The undersigned, State Central Committee apheld in Staunton, respectfully ask your co operation in the great movement now in progress for the suppression of the Liquor traffic in Virginia. In order for specess there must be simultaneous and concentrated action among its friends; and to this end it is earnestly recommended that a Central Committee be formed in each county, without delay, to consist of fice faithful and energetic Temperance men residing at the county seat, or as near the centre of the county as may be convenient, and a Subordinate Committee very neighborhood or district, to act in concer with the former. You are therefore urgently requested to take mmediate steps to liave the above recommendation carried out in your county. First, secure the election of an efficient Central Committee; and as soon as it is organized, let Subordinate Committees be raised in every section of the county, in such way as will insure good and faithful men-The various and important duties that will devolve on these committees, in the prosecution of the good work, it would be useless for us now to attempt to enumerate. But enough is plainly before us for the present. Mass meetings should be called at as early a day as possible, for the purpose of endorsing the action of the late Convenion, and arousing the people and enlisting them in the cause.

Signed, LUCIAN MINOR, 1 S. K. TAYLOR, R. H GAMBILL, P. POWERS, J. CROSS.

The undersigned, acting as they suppose, in ccordance with their appointment to attend the Convention referred to, would respectfully and earnestly recommend that a Friday meeting be held in Charlestown, on the 17th inst., for the Jefferson county, and of adopting such other measures as may be necessary to promote simultaneous and concentrated action among the friends of the great Temperance Reform.

JOHN M. JEWETT, Delegates CHAS. ANDREWS, LAWSON BOTTS, Temperance. P. FLETCHER Convention. A. C. HEATON.

ADJOURNED TEMPERANCE MEET-The meeting assembled agreeably to adjourn nent, Dr. R. S. BLACKBURN in the chair.

The object of the meeting was explained to be the further consideration of the resolution ofered by the Rev. D. A. Tyng. The chair then read the resolution as follows: Resolved, That the traffic in intoxicating uors as a beverage is not only useless, but abutely injurious to society-a drain upon its nysical resources-destructive of health and pappiness, and a fruitful source of immorality and crime; that experience has shown the futility of all attempts to license it, and then regulate its mischief; that it is a wrong principle of government to derive revenue from the licensing of that which is morally wrong; that the right and laty of a State to protect her citizens extends to and covers the evils which grow out of this traffic; and, that the passage of a law prohibiting it altogether, and enforcing such prohibition, among other penalties, by the confiscation and destruction of the article itself, when illegally held and exposed for sale, would be legislation sound in principle, wholesome in operation, and greatly to a majority of the voters of Virginia are in favor R. H. LEE, Esq., then arose and addressed the meeting. 'He said when the resolution was first presented to him, it did not meet his entire-apobation, but with a desire for the truth, he gave it his calm and careful consideration, which esulted in the removal of all the doubts he had entertained on the subject. Mr. L. then took up and answered the common objections urged against the enactment of prohibitory laws. Mr. J. D. Hubspern, followed Mr. Lee, in dees were made by Hon Jas. Buchanan, Hon. S. A. Douglas, Hon. Charles J. Faulkner, and various other individuals. Delegates were present from nearly every county in the State, and the most cheering enthusiasm pervaded the entire mass of the immense multitude. All appeared to be of the immense multitude. All appeared to be confident that the State would go for Pierce, and some predicted that his majority would be 30,000. The Democracy are animated by the spirit which burned within them in the days of Andrew Jackson, and that spirit is a certain forerunare of victory: Pennsylvania promises to do her duty nobly—will not Virginia foll up 20,000 majority for the gallant sen of New England?

Speech of Mr. Faulkner at Reading

We agree with the Romney Argus that Mr. Faulkner's speech is one of the best which we have seen during the canvass. Delivered in the midst of non-slaveholding Democrats it takes as strong ground in favor of the execution of the Fugitive clave law as was ever taken in Virginia, and was as enthusiastically applauded as if Pennsylvania were a southern State. He told the people that he had come there to learn from them, not from politicians nor from designing mensulation the susembled multitude. VARIETY

A COOL FELLOW.

In El Dorado county, California, a fellow was arrested charged with stealing a horse and mule. He was tried by a jury chosen on the spot, and sentenced to be hung or shot, as he might prefer. He chose the latter mode of shuffling off his mortal coil. The California Union says:

During these proceedings the prisoner is re-presented as being the most unconcerned man present, talking with those around him, and look-ing upon the whole affair with the most entire indifference. After supper he lay down and slept soundly until he was awakened by some of those about, late in the morning. Before being led out for execution, Hibbard made a confession, which I have not seen, acknowledging his guilt, and implicating others as belonging to the gang. He stated that their plan was to steal stock from the emigrants as they passed through

At the appointed hour he was led out, and after stating to the crowd that he belonged to a good family, and the first in it ever charged with crime, he was placed in position, and his hands tied : but he refused to have his eyes bandaged, and directed the six men detailed as executioners to stand so near as to make sure work of it. The men fired at the word-three guns loaded with balls, and three with blank cartridges -the three balls, taking effect in the breast, producing death instantly. A physician present claimed the body for dissection, on the ground that he had bargained with the man for it before that he had bargained with the man for it before he was shot, but he only wanted the head, and if no one objected, he would take it off, which he proceeded to do with a large bowie knife—placed it in a bag, slung it on his horse, and marched off with it. A shallow grave was then dug, and the headless trunk tumbled into it. Comment on such transactions is unnecessary. THE MONK OF LA TRAPPE.

We learn from the Madison (Wisconsin) Argus, of the 27th ult., that Leahey, so well known as the "Monk of La Trappe," recently murdered Edward J. Manley at Pardeville, Columbia county, in that State, by shooting.— He also shot at Esquire Morton twice, one shot slightly wounding. He was finally arrested, examined and committed to jail to await his trial for murder. The cause of the murder was jealousy of Manley and his (Leahey's)

The Spiritual Rappers at Backhannon The County Court of Upshur county, having refused to license the sale of ardent spirits in heir county, we learn that the lovers of the "creeter," resorted to the spiritual rappers for the article wherewith to quench their thirst. It is said the spirits never failed to make their appearance when properly called for. The modus erandi was, to go to a certain house in Bucknon, give three raps upon a plank partition, and say—"If there are any good spirits present, they will please manifest themselves." Quick as thought a box presented itself through an aperture in the partition, not before seen, into which the percent and the partition, not before seen, into which the percent calling, deposited a five or ten cent piece, when the box disappeared and again manifested itself with a tumbier of straits. These mysterious manifestations, however, were put an end to, week before last, by the grand jury of that county finding some four bills of indictment against the occupier of the house for allowing,

I have used on my farm and am still using one of the Wheat Drills, patented by Gervis S. Gard-ner and George Rohr, and now sold by Messrs. Henson, O'Bannon and Hunt. I do not suppose any intelligent farmer would now dispute the advantage of drilling over broadcast sowing; I also consider the above Drill altogether equal to any drill now in use, and the advantage of apply ing a compost box to it, makes it very desirable The compost part of the drill acts well in every particular and is one of the greatest inventions of the day for the farmer; it might well be called the farmer's friend, as it saves both time and labor. MARRIAGE.

DR. JOHNSTON,

TAKE PARTICULAR NUTICE.

Dr. I. addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgences, that secret and solitary habit, which rain both body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Paint in the Head, Dinness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power. Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The featful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil of forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c., and some of the evils produced.

NERYOUS DEBILITY.

Weakness of the system, nervous debility and premature decay, generally arising from the destructive habit of youth, that solitary practice so fatal to the healthful existence of man, and it is the young who are most apt to become its victims from an ignorance of the dangers to which they subject themselves. Parents and guardians are often misled with respect to the cause or source of disease in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they ascribe to other causes the wasting of the leart, dyspensia, indigestion.

DR. JOHNSON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

This grand and important Remedy has restored strength and vigor to thousands of the most debilitated individuals, many who had lost all hopes, and been abandoned to die. By its complete invigoration of the nervous system, the whole faculties become restored to their proper power and functions, and the allen fabric of life is raised up to beauty, consistency and duration, upon the ruins of an amaciated and premature decline, to cound and pristing health. Oh, how happy have to sound and pristine, health. Oh, how happy have hundreds of misguided youths been made, who have been suddenly restored to health from the devastations I those terrific maladies which result from indiscretion.

should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness.—Indeed, without this, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. Johnsron, may religiously confide in his honor as a Gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

North anaron Co., April 13, 1852.

Messrs. Tyler & Adair: I have been afflicted with rheumatism at times, from my twelfth year. I will be 50 years of age the 19th of this month; the attacks were so severe at times ha to render me helpless. Have tried various remedies to very little effect. Last October I was attacked in my shoulders, sides, back and hips; I could not rest day or night; I could not move any part of my body without crying with pain. At this time I also tried many remedies, internal and external, and limbs, and my stomach strengthened and revived every way. I have taken five bottler, and am much better than I ever expected to be. I intend to use it whenever I need, and would recommend it to the afficted, believing it unequalled.

Yours, ELIZABETH BAGWELL. Yours, ELIZABETH BAGWELL.

Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray: Mrs. Elizabeth Bagwell is a lady of the highest respectability, wealthy and influential. The cure in her case speaks volumes in favor of this wonderful Tincture. Several other persons we have heard of, have derived great benefit from its use in our county. We are entirely out of the article, and have daily anxious enquirers to know when we will receive another supply. We expect large sales of it from the present demand, and want you to send us a box as soon as possible. TYLER & ADAIR. Yours, April 16, 1852. April 16, 1852.

OJ-This is the testimony of thousands. Cure of consumption, neuralgia, pain in the side, &c.
Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray—Gentlemen: It is with pleasure I can testify to the great healing powers of HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE. My wife had been afflicted for three years, laboring under a constant backing cough, with a most violent pain in ner right side, neuralgia in the head, and a dinness of ight; very little rest day or night, and much emacia on, and to all appearances a rapid consumption inevitable. We had the most eminent physician in Annapo-lis, but his medicine did not give her any relief at all but growing worse if any change in the least; and af-ter having read one of your pamphlets, in July last, she concluded to try Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, and after taking but two bottles of which (under a kind Providence) we perceived a great change for the better: her appetite improved, her skin became quite clear, cough, pains, neuralgia, &c., entirely left her, and by the time she had taken a few bottles more she was completely cured, and is now in the enjoyment of most excellent health.

I have seen also its beneficial effects on several other ladies of Annapolis, and I think I can say from what I have seen of the Medicine, I do not believe its carative powers can be equalled. A sense of duty to the afflicted has induced me to drop these few lines for their benefit.

Baltimore, May 1st, 1852. Wonderful cure of hereditary scrofula by Hampton's Vegetable Tincture!
This certificate is from the pen of a gentleman whose name appears on the journal of Congress, one who is extensively and favorably known: 'It affords me pleasure to state that Dr. Jesse Hamp-ton's Tincture has effected a most extraordinary cure of my slave boy, Albert. The patient was three years old, and had the scrofula-(his father was scrofulous.)-The boy was a moving mass of sores from head to foot; the upper lids of the eyes were much swollen, and turned inside out, exhibiting horrible mattering ulcers that protruded over the eye balls so as to produce blindness. It is strange, yet true, this child, that I felt resigned to see die as a relief from suffering, has been re-
