EXTRACTS FROM Hon. Charles J. Faulkner's Speech, DELIVERED AT READING, PA., SEPT. 4TH.

The President of the day, Hon. James Buchanan, introduced to the crowd the Hon. Charles J. Faulkner, of Virginia, as the representative in Congress at that time of the true Democracy of the South.

Mr. Faulkner said—I thank you, fellow-citizens, for the honor you have conferred upon me in placing me upon this platform.

Fellow Countrymen—I have come from the South in the same spirit in which the Roman senator of old made his pilgrimage to the classic groves of Athens, to drink at the pure, undisturbed fountains of the Republic.

THE "STATE OBSTRUCTION LAW" AS A TEST OF THE WILLINGNESS OF OUR PEOPLE TO PAY THE PRICE OF FREEDOM.

of the "State obstruction law" as a test of the willingness of our people to pay the price of freedom. A thousand times has the name been repeated by our enemies from tip to tip, "Pennsylvania is safe for Scott—Pennsylvania has never yet cast her vote against a military candidate—she has not a man in uniform, put equis upon his shoulders and a plume in his cap, and followed him a General, as if Pennsylvania were his private army."

Most truly have you redeemed your pledges to the Constitution and to your Southern brethren. Early in 1851, you did, in no ordinary manner interfere with the constitutional rights of citizens of our sister States in relation to their property.

It is for this that you are now being punished. It is for this that you are now being punished. It is for this that you are now being punished.

Democratic Nominations

FOR PRESIDENT, GEN. FRANKLIN PIERCE, OF NEW HAMPSHIRE. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, WILLIAM R. KING, OF ALABAMA.

Public Discussion. One of the most interesting and exciting discussions which has ever taken place in our country on political topics, occurred at our Court-house yesterday, being Court-day.

How stands Virginia? In the vain hope of galvanizing the dormant corpse of the Whig party, there seems to be a regular and systematic attempt being made to give the idea that by some legendary, good old Virginia is about to be cut loose from her moorings, and to be driven madly into the whirlpool of Whiggery.

The election for Governor, members of Congress and the Legislature took place in Maine on Monday week. The Democrats have lost ground in this State, owing to the fact that there was really no element of national politics involved in the issue, all being absorbed, divided, and confused by the Maine liquor law.

The Magistrates of the County were summoned together on yesterday, to take action as to the tax upon the High Sheriff of the county, which the Legislature gives to the Courts the rights to impose. Upon consultation $500 a year was fixed upon as the amount, which the Sheriff for the ensuing two years was directed to pay.

County Court. The Magistrates of the County were summoned together on yesterday, to take action as to the tax upon the High Sheriff of the county, which the Legislature gives to the Courts the rights to impose.

There is no way to escape the pending curse of slavery extension, save by the defeat of Pierce and King. The Magistrates of the County were summoned together on yesterday, to take action as to the tax upon the High Sheriff of the county, which the Legislature gives to the Courts the rights to impose.

The Whig press, that lie well stuck to as good as the truth. In the progress and inception of the Foss slander, (the most unjust and dishonorable act ever perpetrated by the Whig press of the South), the Free Press was but the echo and sponsor of that most scurrilous sheet, the Richmond Whig, and the Whig, the seditious sewer through which the garbage of Foss and his abolition cohorts found a ready and most fitting vent.

Reddick's Meeting. We learn that a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democracy convened at Hedgesville, Berkeley county, on Saturday last. The meeting was addressed by John T. Gibson, Esq., of Jefferson, John Blair Hoop, Esq., who was recently appointed the Whig elector for Berkeley, and who repudiated the nomination of Scott, and intends to raise his eloquent voice in behalf of Pierce & King, as also the Hon. Charles James Faulkner and John E. Norris, the County elector.

The Vote of Ohio. Horace Greeley, the abolitionist, has been stumping in Ohio for Gen. Scott, and on his return gives rather a glowing view of Whig prospects through his paper, the New York Tribune. He says that "if 20,000 votes are cast for Hale, at least 16,000 of them will be cast by men who were formerly Whigs" and he thus concludes:

Hear the Hero, Gen. Butler. Gen. Wm. O. Butler, the hero and statesman, in a letter of the 23d August, to a Committee in Kentucky, says of Gen. Pierce: "The miserable attacks made upon him by party rancor, have but served to call forth his noble and patriotic qualities, volitions of his, to my indignation and worth which cannot be resisted."

The Canal. The Cumberland Journal says the breach in the canal near Edwards' Ferry has washed its bottom out to the depth of 10 or 12 feet, and that it will require two weeks to repair the damage.

Military Visit. The Washington Light Infantry, a beautiful Military corps under the command of Captain Tate, paid during the last week a visit to Winchester, where they were most heartily received and hospitably entertained.

Mr. Webster. The Boston Courier says, Mr. Webster has written no letters since the subject of the Presidential Election, nor will he do so in a few days. His friends have not solicited his advice as to how they should vote in November next; and as they have not, he will hardly be expected to do so.

Enlarging the Area. It is said that the tract of land lately ceded to the United States by the Sioux Indians, exceeds 800 miles long by 140 broad, making a total area of 112,000 square miles, or nearly three times the size of New York, and almost equal to the area of England, Ireland and Scotland put together.

What does "An Old Whig" mean? "An Old Whig" is a title of honor, and a badge of distinction. It is a title of honor, and a badge of distinction. It is a title of honor, and a badge of distinction.

Parties and Partisans. From the Washington Republic of Sept. 7th. To the Editor of the Republic: I read with pleasure your article published a few days ago, under the above heading.

Hon. Daniel Jenifer's Letter to a Friend. Port Tobacco, Md., Aug. 10, 1852. My Dear Sir: Yours of the 6th inst., is about the 15th letter I have received of similar import.

Temperance Discussion. According to notice, a meeting was held in Shepherdstown on Saturday last, for the discussion of the Maine liquor law. The meeting was very largely and most interestingly attended.

Stamped Envelopes. By a provision in the new postage law the Post Office Department is to cause envelopes to be made, with suitable water marks on the paper, identifying them as official, and with a printed stamp, for single or double postage, with a suitable device.
