MASS MEETING AT ARW MARKET. Letters were read from many eminent and dis-tinguished gentlemen who were invited to be present, but whom circumstances prevented.— The following are all that have as yet been published: GEFTLEMEN: The state of the public business in Congress will deprive me of the pleasure of accepting your invitation to attend the Democratic rally and festival at New Market, on the 20th inst. I should like to be with you upon that interesting occasion, for my own sake and not for yours, for I lived, when a lad in your section of the country. But you need no services of mine, for when was the Democracy of Virginia faithless to the principles of our party, or to the men selected to carry them into the administration of the government. And least of ministration of the government. And least of all, does the renowned Tenth Legion, as indomitaall, does the renowned Tenth Legion, as indomitable as their Roman predecessors, need any foreign aid in the pending campaign? You are sure of success, and so indeed in my opinion is the great Democratic party. We have all the elements at work to encourage us. WHEATLAND, July 21, 1852 GENTLEMEN: I have been honored by your kind invitation to the Democratic Rally and Festival proposed to be held at the Town of New Market on the 30th of August. I deeply regret that I cannot accept this invitation, without breaking up all my arrangements for the summer. It would be not only a pleasure but a great privilege for me to meet the Democracy of the glorious Tenth Legion of Virginia and advocate the election of our chosen standard bearers, as the taithfully represented.

Be kind enough to present to the Company assembled at your Festival the following sentiment, The Tenth Legion of Virginia Democracy .-Steady to their principles as the needle to the pole ;- They have never deserted the path which their fathers trod in pursuit of any of the modern est honor-then to the House of Representatives, may fall: "Having fought the battle in New isms which have led so many others astray. BINGHAMTON, N. Y., August 9, 1852. GENTLEMEN: Your flattering note, writing me to attend a Grand Democratic Rally and Festival to be held by the citizens of Shenandoah, Rockingham and Page counties, Virginia, at New Market on the 20th inst., reached my residence during my absence, or it would sconer have received my attention. For I should have responded

Every pulsation of my heart bear witness to the gratitude and affection I entertain for a people who have not only extended me their most generous confidence in various forms, but have proffered me unsolicited their highest honor; and regret that circumstances will not permit me to be present upon an occasion which promises to be so replete with interest, that I might tender my acknowledgements in person from the overlowing of a grateful heart.

Though exempted from the active excitement of political affairs, I feel a deep and abiding desire for the success of the Democratic party, not as a mere partizan, for I claim to be much more:not merely, that the party may enjoy power and place, and receive from the people and distribute among its members the honors and emoluments of office; but, that it may as it should, uphold the integrity of its own pure principles, preserve our country's Constitution and maintain these immutable principles which your noble State so early inculcated and so beautifully illustrated; principles which lie at the foundation of civil liberty. and will survive when we and our children's children are all laid in the dust.

The late Democratic Convention at Baltimore. rising above the calculating and sectional spirit which for the last few years has unfortunately made serious inroads upon our catholic faith. boldly renewed the party covenant, republished a declaration of principles becoming the occasion, and placed in nomination candidates whose lives of fidelity and devotion to truth, give promise that its observance will be the guiding star of their

The times, my friends, are auspicious for the Democratic cause. There is much that consoles for the past and gives hope for the future,-no threatening clouds portend, no storm howls in the distance, the sky is bright and beautiful, union is the watchword :: A union of all true Democrats in maintaining in spirit as well as in name the union of the States as prescribed by the Constitution and moulded by fathers of the Republic. I have the honor to be sincerely your friend in the faith. D. S. DICKINSON.

SHERWOOD FOREST, Va., July 27, 1852. GENTLEMEN: Your letter of the 15th inst., inviting me to meet the citizens of Shenandoah. Rockingham and Page, at New Market, on Friday the 20th day of August, reached me a day or two ago, and I take the earliest moment to acknowledge its receipt.

Did my health permit, I should derive the highest gratification from accepting your invitation, but an indisposition of many months continuance admonishes me to decline it. I should rejoice to meet ' the Tenth Legion' in all its strength-to interchange salutations with the unbending and inflexible advocates of those principles, upon the maintenance of which depends, as I solemnly believe, the perpetuity of the government, under which it is our happiness to live. In this day and at this hour, a necessity greater than has ever before existed, demands a rally on the part of every lover of the peace and quiet of the country, in support of the principles which have canonized the Jeffersonian era, and every banner should have inscribed upon it con-federation against consolidation. The spirit has been unceasingly manifested, to convert the government by a broad and unwarranted construction of the Constitution into a National and unit system, wherein a majority-power shall rule su-preme and the States be reduced to the condition of mere Provinces of one vast empire—and this spirit has of late years exhibited itself still more extravagantly and dangerous in the bold and dartrol the internal structure of society in other states—a matter in which the States are quite ed by boundless oceans. What can excuse much | men elect him, he will carry into the admini lief on the part of those who are guilty of it, that the government is national and not federative, and therefore subject to the unlimited action and control of a congressional majority which they seek in every way to attain. But one other supposition can exist, and that is, that the agitators, under the influence of a morbid sentimentalism, earnestly desire the destruction of the Union—a supposition I should be unwilling to indulge as to any American bors citizen, or one capable of appreciating the important blessings which Union bestows. Let us then with our united voices probestows. Let us then with our united voices pro-claim the great truth that the government is the creature of a compact between sovereign States, who have granted to a common agent specified and limited powers to be administered for the common benefit, according to the letter of the grant and not otherwise—and that what is atipu-lated to be done is equally obligatory upon the contracting parties, as the opposite.

That constitutional compact appeals to the good faith of each of those States and its inhabi-tants, and upon its observance, the perpetuity of tants, and upon its observance, the perpetuity of this great and glorious republic.

It is because I believe that Franklin Pierce is It is because I believe that Franklin Pierce is the true and faithful representative of these great principles in all their essence and purity, that I cordially concur with you in the desire for his election to the chief magistracy of the United States, and that my heart and judgment are in strict unison with those of the unterrified Democracy of the Tenth Legion.

I pray you gentlemen to accept my warmest salutations, and believe me to be truly, yours, JOHN TYLER. ADDRESS

Democratic State Central Committee. TO THE PEOPLE OF VIRGINIA.

FELLOW-CITIZENS: The time rapidly approach es, when you will be called on to exercise the most important right of citizens of the Republic. You are to vote for a President and Vice President of the United States, for four years from the dent of the United States, for lour years from the 4th of March next. At no former period in the history of our country, has this election been fraught with deeper interest, or more important consequences to the happiness of the people, or the permanance of our glorious institutions.—Solemnly impressed with this belief, we address you, and earnestly recommend organization, con-cert, harmony and zeal in the support of those candidates who have been nominated by the De-candidates who have mocratic party.

Let every voter be animated by a determine purpose to maintain the time-honored principle of Virginia, and exert every honorable means ensure success. The candidates presents the country, by the Democratic party, morths of your realous support, and the

we confidently believe, that it is by apathy we are true to ourselves we cannot fail, and such and over-confidence alone, that the vote of Virginia can be lost. FRANKLIN PIERCE, of New Hampshire, is our candidate for the office of President and WK. R. Kins, of Alabama, for that of Vice President of the United States. Of Col. King it is not necessary that we say more, than that he has served his country for forty years, in both branches of Congress, and in diplomatic stations abroad, and now presides over the Senate of the United States, with unquestioned fidelity and with distinguished ability. Thus qualified by ripe experience, he enjoys a spotless personal character; and the highest tribute to his merit and competence has been offered by political opponents. The Democratic candidate for the Presidency s a native of New Hampshire; a State which has given to the service of the country, John good old cause which both have long so ably and | Langdon, Levi Woodbury, and many other of our most virtuous and distinguished public men. Gen. Pierce has been trained in the school of strict Democracy. Having received an excel-lent education, he was elected by those who had known him from his boyhood, as soon as he was eligible, to the State Legislature, where he to his zealous support in the maintenance of their was soon distinguished and elevated to its high- rights against outrage, from whatever quarter it and then to the Senate of the United States .- Hampsnire upon the Fugitive Slave Law, and He has thus had experience in the affairs of Govenment, both State and federal, and no man has commanded a larger share of the esteem and respect of those with whom he was associated, both for his public and private character. Possessing promise measures are not to be substantially talents of a high order, singularly eloquent and and firmly maintained, the plain rights secured impressive as a public speaker, with a strong practical judgment, faithful to the Constitution in all his views of public policy, and confided in and beloved by his constituents, he had every temptation to ambition, and every reason to know that its highest gratification was within his reach. | yield to a craven spiril, that from considerations His preference, however, was for the quiet comforts of home, and his choice was to labor for the support of those dependent on him, rather than to seek for the gratification of selfish pleasure in the emoluments or the trappings of office. His characteristics are manliness, moral and physical courage, modesty, frankness and generosity. Not yet fifty years of age, he has exhibited proofs of patriotism, and of devotion to the Constitution, of profound attachment-to the Union of the States, and to the rights of the States, worthy of the best days of the Republic. While in Congress, the disturbing influence of the agitation of the abolitionists was constantly felt, and his firm and manly opposition to their wicked purposes, was so uniform as to command the admiration of the South and of patriots of every section, and to draw down on him the unmitigated hatred of the agitators themselves. And when, before a South, at the risk of life itself. In corroboration New Hampshire audience, John P. Hale, declared that he desired to abolish slavery, either | tinguished Whig of this state, who, a short time by "peace or blood," Franklin Pierce boldly replied, "that he did not think Hale's party could mean what they said, that is, to effect the abolition of slavery by force of arms; and if they did, he | a very highly gratified spectator, and only regret was sure that every good citizen would be will-ing, at least he would, to lay down his dead body to protect the Constitution.'

President Polk who had long known and anpreciated his worth, invited him to aid in his ad ministration of the Government, as Attorney General of the United States, an office conferring high honor, and promising professsional fame and large emoluments. He modestly declined the flattering distinction, and declared his purpose to be, to devote himself as a private citizen, with one reservation: that if his country should be involved in war, he would hold himself ready to enter the military service. War did come, and he volunteered as a private soldier. He was promoted to the rank of Colonel, and to that of

Brigadier General. When the war was ended, and, the restoration of peace certain, his services not required, acting on principles which had marked his whole life. he returned home and tendered the resignation of his commission. We have it from high authority, that the President advised him to postpone the execution of this purpose, as it was not certain whether Congress might not find it ne- they are entitled to it. The sentiment, founded cessary to give protection to our extended terri-tory by an increase of the army, and thus retain him in his rank. He promptly replied, that he no means universal, and those who do hold it, liked the military service, but he had entered the are the unrelenting enemies of Franklin Pierce. army because the country was at war, and now that peace was restored, he could not consent to distrust of him at the South, the effort is made retain high rank, to the exclusion of those who at the North to show that he is a supple tool of had served in lower grades, and had adopted the slave owners. military service as a profession.

His nomination by the Baltimore Convention was as unsolicited as it was unexpected. The Democracy of New Hampshire had, in a State Convention, by an unanimous nomination, pre-sented his name to the National Convention as a suitable person to be the candidate of the Democracy for the office of President of the United States. He promptly declined the flattering dishad, in vain, attempted to unite on any one of the other eminent public men whose names were presented, the name of Franklin Pierce, without his authority or knowledge, was brought forward, and his unanimous and enthusiastic nomination stilled all angry discontent, and was sent forth to the Democracy of this great country, as the harbinger of peace, union and success. It gives us the highest pleasure to assure you, that from Maine to Californis, from Michigan to Florida, ing attempt on the part of a portion of the inhabi-tants of some of the States, to interfere and con-be not an over-confidence, his election is certain. With him it is emphatically true that the Presias foreign to each other as if they were separat- has accepted the nomination, and if his countryless justify such interference other than the be- tion of the Government those principles on which he has always acted. He is the friend of religious toleration; and will never be found favoring measures which aggrandize the few at the expense of the many, which disturb the relations of business, or enable debtors voluntarily to discharge themselves of their obligations to their creditors, but will in all things favor those measures which will secure to labor its just reward, sures which will secure to labor its just reward, and promote the great interests of agriculture, commerce and manufactures with equal justice. He will never discourage the oppressed of other nations from seeking an asylum under our Constitution and laws, aor will be hesitate to exercise the great conservative veto power vested in the President, for the protection of the Constitution from violation, or the rights of the minority from invasion. His political course afforded conclusive evidence, that he was prepared to adopt those principles of strict construction which have ever been disinterestedly cherished by Virginia, and which become more obviously necessary to the preservation of the Union and by Virginia, and which become more obviously necessary to the preservation of the Union and the rights of the States, as the territory of the United States expands, the States multiply in number, and the population increases: those principles which inculcate the necessity of maintaining the Constitution according to its true intent, by confining the Federal Government within its prescribed orbit, and leaving the domestic concerns of the States to their own management and direction. Such, fellow citizens, we believe to be the character of Franklin Pierce, and we ask you is he not worthy of your support? We know what your answer will be, when given at the polls in November.

It was not to be expected that his conduct and character would escape severe examination by the active intelligence of the strong party which opposes his election. But the bitter denunciaon, absurd abuse and gross accusations that have followed in quick succession, originating sometimes in misapprehension, sometimes in ma-lignity, were not to be anticipated. Honest men are sometimes deceived by such accusations, and may be unjust in repeating them, but they ever confide in truth and facts, and when undeceived, are sure to be just and generous. To these we appeal, under the firm conviction that our candidate has nothing to lear from a candid scrutiny of his whole history.

In a spirit of cruel and nojust misrepresentation, an effort has been made to disparage his military conduct. It is sufficient to say, that he received the high commendation of the commanding General; and his brother officers of all grades have promptly vindicated his character, and by a minute detail of facts shown the utmost gallantry on his part, and the futility of he attempt to injure him. The claims of General Pierce to your support are not based on mere military service. He has shown himself ready, at any personal sacrifice, to take up arms in defeace of the honor of his enginery, and as far as circumstances allowed, he has shown the ability to maintain her rights. But his claims rest on the solid basis of acknowledged talent, knowledge of our institutions, experience in the civil affairs of his country, loyalty to the Constitution, and firmness and fidelity in defending the just rights of all parts of his whole country.

An effort has been made to excite doubts in your minds of his fidelity on the subject of the Fugitive Slave Act. The truth is, when the country was distracted by the agitations of the Abolitionists, and timid men at the North cowered before the raging spirit of fanaticism, when Southern men were murdered in the effort to recover their property he among the few who boid ly came forward and risked himself in favor of he rights of the South, secured to them by the Constitution, and enforced by this act. The proofs are beyond doubt, that the charge is a base creation of wretches, who answered his manly arguments in favor of the act by impudent hisses; and, unable to overawe his gallant spirit. and induce him to unite with them in opposition to its provisions and its enforcement, have sought to gratify their malignant hatred by falsely representing him as holding opinions in common with themselves. His enlarged patriotism regards the whole country, and each and all, as entitled tutional right, we should, of course, desire the approval of the Democracy of the country.-What I wish to say distinctly is this: if the Comby the Constitution will be trampled in the dust. What difference does it make to you or me, whether the outrage shall seem to fall upon S. Carolina, Maine or New Hampshire? Are not the rights of all equally dear to all? I will never of policy would endanger the Union." This is his own language, and these noble sentiments are characteristic of the man. We are aware, fellow citizens, of the sensitive state of the Southern mind, in regard to the oninions of Northern men on questions connected with negro slavery. These charges of hostility to the law which was intended to secure the right to pursue and recover our fugitive slaves, are designed to excite your distrust in the democratic party, and to withdraw your attention from the known character and opinions of many more violent in opposing this very act. We warn you not to suffer yourselves to be misled by any such device. There are patriotic public men at the North who contemn the foul spirit of abolition-ism, who love the Union, and are ready to protect and defend the constitutional rights of the of these views, we quote the language of a dissince, was one of the Whig Electors for the State at large, and who has lately, witnessed what he affirms: "I take leave to say that I was that every man in the South, could not see and hear all that I saw and heard in Fanenil Hall last night, and at the great meeting at Hillsborough; for they would then feel, I am sure, as I now do, that the Democratic party of New England is as sound upon the Compromise question and the constitutional rights of the South, as the South itself, and that the Union is safe in its keeping."-We have no doubt of the truth of this remark. We believe that Franklin Pierce, the representative of that party, is sound upon these questions, and that the history of his public career proves it. We believe that he is devoted to the constitutional rights of the South, and that the Union will be safe in his keeping. The abolitionists are the enemies of the Union: for, in their madness, they urge measures which must, if successful, destroy the Federal compact; and, to gain their ends, their course is to denounce, traduce and prostrate every Northern man who dares to defy them. Do not let us be guilty of the folly of promoting their policy by listening to falsehood, and relusing our confidence to Northern men whose whole lives show on a supposed law higher than the Constitution. which is entertained by some at the North, is by

An abolition paper issued in Washington, has published an article headed, "Mr. Pierce and the Anti-Slavery Movement," in which are carefully compiled all his votes in the House of Representatives and in the Senate, on questions growing out of the Anti-slavery agitation since 1833, and which concludes with the following paragraph: "It may be said that others, in those days, voted as he did, who, since then, have shown their devotion to freedom. True, but he continued unchanged. When John P. Hale, his intimate friend for twenty years, faithful to his convictions of right, denounced the annexation of Texas in defiance of the edicts of his party, Mr. Pierce, trampling under foot his long standing friendship, turned upon the independent representative, followed on his track with relentless hostility, utterly proscribed him, and compelled the Democratic press of his State to eat its own words on that question. From that time he has been the leader of the Hunker Democramaking a new nomination of ascertained devo-tion to the slaveholding interest."

A member of Congress informs his constituents in Tennessee, over his own signature, that thousands of copies of this document are now being circulated at the North, with the view of showing there, that Gen. Pierce is devoted to the slave interest, while at the South the effort is made to excite distrust of his fidelity to the Constitution, by representing him as having opposed the Fugitive Slave Law.

It is an insult to your understanding to suppose that you can be esjoled by such an artifice; or that you can be deceived into the abandonment of a public man, who is the unanimously selected candidate of your party, who has virtue and ability, with whom you agree in political principle, whose enemies are not your friends, and who will exult over his degradation, the restriction of their acts and language at your credition if sult of their arts, and laugh at your credulity, if you permit them to succeed.

The Whig party have presented to the country as the opponents of Pierce and King, Major Gen. Winfield Scott, of the Army of the United States, and Wm. A. Graham, Esq., of North Carolina. Their candidate for the Vice Presidency has esjoyed the advantage of some service in the Legislative and Executive Departments of his native State, has served in the United States Senative State, has served in the United States Senate several years, and withe head of the Navy Department, since Mr. Fillmore's accession to the Presidency. His associate in the nomination, Gen. Scott, has never served in any civil office. He entered the regular army in 1807, has served in it ever since, and now holds his commission in the highest rank. When Mr. Graham accepted the nomination, he resigned his office, and became a private citizen. Gen: Scott has not resigned; but wears his epaulettes and sword, and is exercising all the powers and privileges of his bigh command. We do not intend to question the military service which he tend to question the mintary service which he has rendered his country. He has been a successful soldier; and, although he has not been exempt from military criticism, and has not unfrequently been embioiled with brother officers, we take pleasure in conceding the gallantry and skill with which he has served his country as a soldier; and we are happy that he has received from his grateful countrymen, the appropriate rewards of military service and success. We would, too, have been the last to make objection to him, if he had been content with his rank in the army, or to complain it he had been promoted to a military rank still higher, even if created for the purpose. But, after more than twenty years of anxious solicitude, to become a selected candidate for the presidency, his aspirations have been at length gratified, and we deem it our right as freemen, and our duly as the devoted friends of the civil institutions of our country, to express frankly and plainly, our objections to his claims. We object to the election to the presidency of an officer of the army—of one who has spent nearly half a century in actual military service; a school illy adapted to inculcate the principles of equality amongst men, and a knowledge of our constitution and laws. This is the second instance, in which the same party has taken their candidate from the army. Four years ago the experiment succeeded—Gen. Taylor was elected by the aid of Democratic votes-blinded by the glare of brilliant military success, and deluded by the hope of an administration free from the influence of party. Now time has afforded opportunity to distinguish between the meteur flash of mere military glory, and the calm light of civil qualification.

Now, in the administration of the Government, General Scott declares, in his letter accepting. the nomination: "In regard to the general policy of the administration, if elected, I should, of course, look among those who may approve that policy for the agents to carry it into execution, and I should seek to cultivate harmony and fraternal sentiments throughout the Whig party without attempting to reduce its members by proscription, to exact conformity to my own views. There is no hope of any political millennium, if General Scott shall be elected—and no Democrat can contribute to his election, by any of the delusive hopes, which induced many to give their support to the other candidate from the Army. Without any purpose or desire to disparage the brave old man, who was thus elected, we appeal to the whole country if the experiment of making a President of the United States out of a successful soldier did not prove an utter tailure? and whether his administration, for the brief period in which he-survived his i tion, is not a beacon to warn the country against its repetition, rather than a successful example recommending itself, by its results, as worthy of being followed. We object to General Scott's election because of his expressed and unretracted political orinions. The vast powers of the office of President invests the incumbent with an influence powerful for good or for evil over the legislation of the Union, and on measures deeply affecting the rights of the people and the prosperity of the country-and his opinions, therefore, ought to be -carefully examined, to enable you to determine what system of measures and what policy he will exert his official influence to promote. General Scott has never served, or given a vote, in either house of Congress, or in a State Legislature .-But, within a very few years past, when speaking of the promulgation of his opinions on questions of State Rights and federal administration, he declared that, as he "could not plead ignorance of the partiality of a few friends in several parts of the Union, who may, by possibility, in a certain event, succeed in bringing me within the field from which a Whig candidate is to be selected, I prefer to err on the side of frankbess and candor, rather than by silence to allow any stranger un vittingly to commit himself to my support;" and his prolific pen gave to the pubic, through several years, carefully prepared letters, in which he avowed his opinions on the most interesting questions, which involving the true construction of the constitution, had divided political parties and exerted a mighty influence on the business and prosperity of the country. We content ourselves with stating some of these opinions:

1. He has avowed himself, as late as 1843, afer all excitement had passed away, in lavor of the gradual emancipation of slaves; (and declared that if he had " had the honor of a seat in the Virginia Legislature, in the winter of 1831-'32. when the bill was brought forward for that pur-'pose he would have given it his hearty support.")
He has declared, "I am persuaded, that it is a high moral obligation of masters, and stare-holding States, to employ all the means, not incompatible with the safety of both colors, to meliorate slavery even to extermination." He concedes the power of Congress over slavery in the District of Columbia, and maintains the Constitutional right of Congress to receive, refer and report upon petitions on the subject, while he declares that under the Constitution, there is no color of authority in Congress, for touching the relation of master and slave wi hin a State. For what end then, does the right of petition exist? Is it, that, while the relation of master and slave cannot be touched, the right of property cannot te destroyed, the value of that right may be destroyed, by legislative acts, on which the Executive Veto would not be applied?

2. He has declared, in his letter of acceptance. that the "veto power ought always to be most cautiously exercised, and under the strictest restraints and necessities"-and in 1841, he expressed, a hope, that " by an early amendment of the Constitution, to see a reduction of the President's velo;" and his plan of amendment, was thus stated by himself. "There can be no good reason, why the veto should not belovercome, by a bare myjority of each House of Congress, of all the members elected to it—say, for the benefit of reflection, at the end of ten days from the return of the Bill." . These extracts show the General's appreciation of this great conservative principle of the Constitution-the principle on which the minority, and especially, the South, already in a minority, on the absorbing questions, arising out of slavery, must, under the Constitution, rely for protection against legislation, fatal to them, destructive of their rights of property, their peace. and the lives of their women and children, but by which, however unwise, the sectional majority which may pass the acts, will suffer nothing .-And Gen. Scott avowed bimself in favor of an amendment to that sacred instrument the Constitution, by which the same sectional majority may nullify the Executive Vetc. There is e ther a want of consideration, a manifest want of refleccy of New Hampshire; and when Mr. Atwood, tion on this deeply interesting subject, unworthe regular nominee of the Democratic party, thy of one who as ites to the Presidency, and tive Slave Law, Mr. Pierce attempted first to utter disregard of the rights of the States, and brow-beat him into a retraction of his honest a readiness to surrender all power to a sec-words, and then led on the party in the work of tonal majority; and by consolidating all power in the Federal Government, to establish the most oppressive Tyranny, without a hope of escape by the oppressed, unless by a dissolution of the Union.

From his published of infons, we are satisfied that he is in favor of a bank of the United States, of the Bankrupt Law of '41, establishing a voluntary system of bankruptcy, without limitation of time, and in favor of the distribution of the proceeds of the public lands amongst the States. He is in favor of acquiring the British provinces of Canada, and incorporating them as States of this Un on. He is known to have been opposed to the annexation of Texss. The Canadas contain 350,000 square miles. and would form many States; destroying all approach to an equilibrium of power in the Federal Government between the Northern and Southern States, and giving to the sectional northern majority irresistible power. His epinions on natural zation are crude and contrad ctory; at one time d nying the right altogether, or requiring 21 years residence-at another, one year's service in the army or navy in time of war, with an honorable d'scharge, to in time of war, with an honorable discharge, to give the rights of citizenship. It is hardly possible that any one, but a professional soldier, could have conceived such a school for education in the character of our institutions, and for learning the duties of a republican tree citizen. Military service in time of war, when our ships of war will be abroad, and the strictest discipline enforced in our army, is the best training, in the opinion of our General, for the

there is such a thing as swategy. The circumstances under which Gen. Sectt's nomination was made, are worthy of your serious examination. Eminent public men of the Whig party have denounced it as sectional, and effected mainly by the non slaveholding vo'e. He who is now the Chief Executive of the United States, performing his duties underthis election as Vice President, who has been called by his party the Model President, and he who has been called the great exponent of the Constitution, after a long and distinguished public service in the Senate and the Cabinet, were set aside, under an influence which we do not characterize, but which leading Whigs have decounced as originating with, and yielded to a considerable extent by those whose consciences will not permit them to support, approve or execute the act of Congress which carries out the plain injunctions of the Constitution, by returning fugitive slaves to their lawful owners.

It is usual for the friends and supporters of Gen. Scott to refer to his efforts in South Caro lina, when nullification and a collision between the State and Federal Governments were apprehended, in proof of his abil ty as a civilian. To show the nature of the duty with which he was entrusted at that time by the General Government, and the character of the services expected and required of him, under instructions, we insert the following extract from a letter to him taken from the Message of the President of the United States, of the 12 h February, 1833, transmitting in compliance with a resolution of the Senate, the orders given to the land and naval forces at "Your duty will be one of great importance 'and of great delicacy. You will consult freely and fully with the Collector of the port of Charleston, and with the District Attorney of South Caro-'ling, and You WILL TAKE NO STEP, except what relates to the immediate defence and security of 'the post, without their order or concurrence. The 'execution of the laws will be enforced through 'the civil au hority, and by the mode pointed out by the acts of Congress. Should, unfortunately 'a crisis arise, when the ordinary power in the 'hands of the civil officers shall not be sufficient for this purpose, the President will determine the 'course to be taken and the measures to be adopted. 'Till, therefore, YOU ARE OTHERWISE INSTRUCTED, you will act in OBEDIENCE, to the legal requisitions of the PROPER CIVIL OFFICERS of the United States."

From this extract it will be seen that General Scott's duty was wholly military; that beyond t is, he was to do nothing without the "order and concurrence" of the civil authorities, and that even in the event of a crisis, the "President" was to determine the course to be taken and the mea-

Viewing, then, the history of Gen. Scott's life, devoid of experience in any civil capacity, trained in a military school where rigid discipline and strict subordination to the will of the military chief, constitute the great fundamental principle; scanning his political creed, at war as it is with all the doctrines entertained and revered by the Democratic party, and, as we believe, with the best interests of the country,-seriously deprecating the malign influences which have brought in his administration if he should be successful along the James River. we call upon you solemnly to exert the great nower you possess to avert the calamity. Virginia has the honor of having made the nomination of Franklin Pierce. Let her give him a majority that shall approve him good and true. Other States will follow her lead, and a glorious triumph will be ensured. The voice of North Carolina has been heard, and cheering intelligence comes up from every quarter, that the Southern States, probably unanimously, will repudiate the Whig nomination; and we have every reason to believe that the Democratic Northern States will, by their triumphant and faithful support of Pierce and King, signally rebuke the spirit of sectionalism which as sails him, and restore the feeling of brotherhood. without which the Union is broken down and its

THE WHIG PARTY.

If there ever was an exhibition of useless political malignity, it has been afforded by the present campaign. No sooner was the nomination of Pierce, publicly announced, than the Whig press set upon his track. They followed him into the recesses of his private life, and nosed among the many records of his po litical career. We were told that he was a drunkard, and the names of so called honorable men were given in proof. We were assured that he was a bigot; and the exclusion of Catholics from office in New Hampshire was the demonstrat on. We were taunted with his cowardice; and his fainting upon the field of battle was the token. We were called to account for his insignificance, for his want of reputation and capacity: and the strangeness of his name in the political history of the country was commented on. The Tribune sent out its Commissioners of Sewers to drain the channels of private slander. His who travelled through the land with lies for circalation. All that misused talent, all that specious sophistry, all that libel and slanderous im-

The Democratic party in this State, and in the country, have remained tranquil spectators of the scene. They have watched each new slander, as it rose, sink into disgraceful oblivion, to be succeeded by the quick uprising and speedy decline of other slanders, fouler than the first .-They have asked themselves with whom they had to deal. They have looked around for the gentlemen of the Whig party—the high, honora-ble and chivalrous names, which were associat-ed with its past history—the men who were the companions of Clay and Webster, and who drew the nutriment of their opinion from Statesmen, in whom men of all parties felt a just pride, even while they differed from them as to the great questions upon which the policy of the country de-

Of such men, there are none now wisible. They have set below the horizon. Clay is dead, and the great name of Webster has become a mark for the sling and arrows of every sectionalist, who is aggrieved that he will not lend the lustre of his intellect and services to brighten the escutcheon of their new here. Because he will not come under the leadership of Seward, and utter, at the word of command, such sonorous praises as will tend to the successful issue of his contest, he is defied and spit upon with the rest, and turned out, a blind and aged general, in hopes that he will be compelled to beg alms of the very men whom he fed as his subordinates. We have a sense of indescribable sickening at this whole performance. But, thank God, the heart of the country is now alive to the truth.—

It sees at last this fair Whig party, whose maiden purity has been the theme of so much adulation, turning, when its hour is at hand, into the serpent, that it is; its fair attire falling off, and the loathsome scales shining through its raiment, and the forked tongue poisoning all with which it comes in contact.—Baltimore Argus.

DESTRUCTIVE FLOODS

The papers from all sections of the country bring to us most lamentable accounts of the great destruction to life and property, by the unprecedented rains during the latter part of August .--In the South, generally, the loss to the crops is unprecedented, and the growing crops of whole plantations have been swept away. The western rivers have also become considerably swollen, though not so disastrous in their results as about his nomination; and believing that, to a in other sections of the country. ginia, the Hon. HERRY A. Wise, being now on a visit to Jefferson, will address the people of the County at the Court-House on to morrow, Wedsesdsy, 2 o'clock, r. M. Our Whig friends desire, and will endeavor to have present, one of their "big guns," and when "Greek meets Greek, will come the tug of war. The discussion will no doubt be conducted in the best spirit and the kindest temper, and the speakers on the occasion rather appeal to the intelligence than the passions of men. Mr. Wise has not only a notoriety co-extensive with the Union, but an intellect and a genius surpassed by no man of the nation. We have always regarded him as one among the most remarkable men of the age, and congratulate our fellow-citizens that they are to have an opportunity of hearing him vindicate those great political principles which ere as dear to him as life. In the mad fury of he storm and the tempest, is Mr. Wise most at case, and to properly develop the true characteristics of the man, and the brilliant store-house within, we hope he may have a competitor fully pooted and spurred, and who will drive in the owels at every jump.

Mr. Wise addressed the people of Harpers-Perry on last night, but at the time of putting our paper to press, we have learned none of the particulars as to the discussion. A Mr. Merrick. of Bultimore, we learn, was expected to have been present to reply to Mr. Wise.

At Martinsburg, Mr. Wise's speech is regard ed as one among the ablest ever delivered. Mr. Z. Collins Lee attempted a reply, but fell far short of even what his friends had anticipated .-The discussion commenced at 4 o'clock in the evening, and was continued until about one in the morning.

It is said the Spanish minister at Washington has called the attention of the President to the fact that organizations are now forming in various sections of the Union, for another invasion of Cuba. The Washington correspondent of the New York Courier, in announcing the alarm of the Spanish minister, adds:

Spain will contest the possession of Cuba, as it is her just right to do, at every hazard and with every means of defence that can be procured by her own resources, or if need be, by alliance with other Powers. At the close of Congress, Mr. Sumner moved an amendment to the appropriation bill, to the effect that "no part of the appropriation for executing the laws should be used for the execution of the fugitive slave law." And again, to quote the same authority, great numbers from this part of the country are daily passing away to take shipping in Liverpool for

In the early part of this week a great many ple left the parish of Moore, and several from this locality; in fact the railway trains and canal boats are daily filled by crowds of the peasantry, who are hurrying away as if they were escaping from a plague. From Australia several remittances have been received by the poor people here, sent by their relations who went out as paupers; and that distant country is now being added to in population by many of our strong and willing hands. The bad harvest prospect in the loss of the potato crop will startle many others; and all who can gather together merely as much as will pay the passage money will follow their friends and relatives.

The present distracted state of public feeling, nduced and renewed by the unholy agitation which attended the late election warfare-the excessive taxation-the want of manufacturing industry, are all sufficient to make any and all who are enabled to go, to quit this country, and employ their energies and capital elsewhere. We confess we are rejoiced to see those poor people fleeing from the accumulated evils which are ushing every interest in this unfortunate country. From the south, too, the emigration tide pours outwards with unabated force, and a Waerford paper calculates that, from present appearances, the numbers leaving that and other ports will be quintupled in a few months hence. The Mars steamer sailed from Waterford for Liverpool on Saturday with 150 passengers, many of them of the better class, nearly all bound the United States.

The Galway Packet states, that while the dis se has made great ravages in some parts of at county, in others its traces are barely visie; and adds that, upon the whole, the evil i ot so extensive as was supposed, at the outset. Even in places where last week the loudest comlaints were heard, farmers begin to say that an mprovement has exhibited itself, and that the oot is not at all affected. From the neighborgoods of Tuam, Ballinasloe, and other districts f the country, the accounts are less cheering, out still it is admitted that there are as yet no nst grounds for giving way to despondency, since no real estimate can be formed as to what extent he crop is likely to be effected.

The Dublin Telegraph remarks in relation to

"It is a mistake to suppose, as many alarmists ave already done, that the loss by the potato crop vill'be anything like as bad as it was in the year 1846. Since 1846 acgreat improvement has taken place in the planting of the potato. It was this year planted a month earlier than it was in 1846, and the disease did not appear until-about tage of about six weeks gained, and that, too, when a considerable quantity has been plantedquite sufficient, it is believed, for the population, now so thinned since 1846 by famine and emigration. As to the other crops-wheat, oats, turnips, &c., an abundant harvest is calculated

From Newry, it is stated that "the blight is exceptional rather than general." From Clonmel, it is confessed that "the potato is going, i not faster, at least as quick as it did when attacked by the disease in the ever memorable year 1846;" and notwithstanding the great breadth sown, it is doubted that one half of them can be saved. In Tipperary and Waterford the same complaints are made; and the disease appears to be especially virulent in the northern count In Clare the loss is aggravated by the fact that the people appear to have confined their sowings to the potato, neglecting the cultivation of tur nips altogether. The result has been to give great impetus to emigration. From Galway it is said :- "The people only appear bent on leaving the country as fast as they can. It is lamentable to see men fleeing from the land of their nativit as from a pest-house, The young, and the strong and the vigorous, aye, and many of the compara tively wealthy, too, are thronging to the emigrant ship. The New York Courier, speaking of the nom nation of Mr. Webster by many Whigs, says: "Disgust at the repeated proscription by the Whig party of consummate statesmanship for mere gunpowder availability-suspicion that Gen. Scott, as he was nominated by free soil agency, will hereafter be swayed by free soil influence-a feeling that the battle is already lost by the unfortunate sectional nomination in Baltimore, and that all hope of success is vain-indignation at the contumely poured on the Whig platform by many of the first and foremost triends of Scott, in the first flush of their triumph in the convention-resentment at the recent unprovoked and envenomed insults of Mr Webster by the Tribune and the Times newspapers in this city-disapprobation of the abusive attacks made upon the personal character of Mr. ierce-these and other considerations and infuences will undoubtedly cause many of the friends of Mr. Webster to withhold their votes intirely from any electoral ticket."

COXCORD, (N. H.) July 16, 2852. My Dear Sir : It is impossible that a charge should embrace a more direct attack upon truth than that with which the Whig papers have teemed, in relation to my sentiments upon the religious tests contained in our State Constitution which was adopted in 1792, and never amended since. The charge is contradicted by every word and act of my life having reference to the ques tion, in any form, directly or collaterally. I ad vicated the call of the Convention for the amend ment of the Constitution, which assembled in November, 1850, and the most prominent object in my mind was to strike out the unjust and odious provisions, commonly called the religious and property qualification tests from our fundamen tal law. In haste, your ob't servant. FRANK PIERCE.

(Signed) NORTH CAROLINA.

A large meeting of the Whigs, opposed to the election of General Scott, was held in Wilming ton; N. C., on Monday week. It nominated Webster and Graham, and repudiated Gen. Scott. R. H. Cowan, Esq., addressed the meeting in support of its action.

The following extract from his remarks ex plain very pertinently the motives for his repudiation of the Baltimore nominee:

Mr. Cowan took a rapid glance at the events of the last four years-the movements connected with the slavery, and the passage of the com promise; dwelt upon the efforts of Fillmore and Webster in favor of that passage; spoke of the opposition to the enforcement of the Fugitive Slave Law at the North, and the rallying of the abolitionists under a banner gotten by Seward, in New York, with this device—" Repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law, and Winfield Scott for President." That same banner was hoisted by the Pennsylvania Convention which nominated Gov. lohnston, and that same notorious "higher law" and was defeated to the great satisfaction of the Southern people, Whigs and Democrats. Mr Vinton, of Ohio, while a candidate for Governor in that State, hoisted the same banner. All this General Scott knew-he knew that while all good men and patriots were throwing themselves into the breach for the just and glorious defence of he Constitution, and maintenance of the law, his own great name was used by the enemies of both, and yet he was silent;-from him the Fugitive Slave Law received no support-the law-breakers no rebuke, nor their use of his name any contradiction. To please these people, he was silent, and they rewarded him by the nomination, against the protest of the whole South. Can that South support Gen. Scott?

LET THE PEOPLE REMEMBER-That General Scott stands committed to a uniform system of Bankruptcy, such as the Whigs passed at Harrison's extra session. That was a law by which poor and honest creditors all over the country were diddled out of more than TWO HUNDRED MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, which they never can hope to collect. It became so odious that the people throughout the whole land rose up as one man, and forced its repeal.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THEM

Gen. Scott says if he had been in Congress when that bankrupt law was passed, he would have roted for it. On that ground he stands yet. Now, LET THE PEOPLE REMEMBER -- That Franklin Pierce was in Congress at that same session, and in common with the Democracy opposed that bankrupt law.

LET THE PEOPLE REMEMBER-That General Scott stands committed in favor of a U. States Bank, such as that which Jackson overthrewwhich by its speculations, and final failure, involved thousands of poor men, widows and orphans in ruin! ON THE OTHER HAND REMEMBER-That Franklin Pierce, while in Congress, opposed with his great eloquence and his votes that monster of corruption and injouity. These facts speak volumes, and no voter who correctly estimates the future welfare of his country, as superior to all party, can vote to place a man in power whose name has been given under his own hand in favor of a bankrupt law, and a National bank, and against a man whose public life has been devoted to the overthrow of such pernicious institutions .-Such a man as the former is General Scott; such as the latter, General Pierce. Let the honest voter choose between them. Ohio Statesman.

HORRIBLE OUTRAGE.

The Staunton papers give an account of a West of that place on Wednesday evening of last week. The outrage was perpetrated upon the person of a respectable young lady of Augusta co., who with a young gentleman, her intended husband, was on her way to get married. The lady and gentleman were riding in a buggy, and when near West View, and on the line of the Central Railroad, they were forcibly dragged from their vehicle by four fiends in human shape, (laborers on the railroad,) and the person of the lady was outraged by the whole gang of brutal ruffians. The young man was obliged to leave her in the hands of the villians whilst he sought assisfance for their apprehension in the neighborhood. The community promptly turned out, and at a late hour of the night they were all arrested and carried by prison at Staunton. At an examining Court held the day after the outrage, they were all fully identi-fied, and now await a regular trial, when justice will be awarded them, so far as the infliction of the light penalty (light when compared with the offence) of the law will do it. The excitement and indignation in Staunton. a community most keenly sensitive on a subject of this kind, is represented to have been intense, and had a movement been made to hang the villians guilty of the outrage, it would have been difficult to have restrained the justly exasperated

Gen. Cass, accepting the present in an appropriate manner, turned to the people in the square and delivered an exceedingly entertaining political address, being frequently interrupted by the plaudits of his hearers. He alluded to the principles of the two parties, and remarked that those who came there to hear abuse of General Scott, would go away d sappointed—that he was a high-minded, hoporable man, who had rendered his country distinguished services. He differed with Gen. Scott politically, however, and did not believe that he would administer the government, if elected, as he would have it administered.

The last letters described the continued fluctuations that were taking place in the English funds, chiefly in consequence of fears that the harvest, which had promised to be more than an average one, would ultimately prove, from the effect of blight and heavy rains, to be actually deficient both in quality and quantity. The rapid spread of the potato disease was also an mportant element in the tendency to depression. At the same time your readers were warned that there was reason to believe that those statements were more or less exaggerated, and that as regards the rain, notwithstanding its remarkable heaviness, it was doubtful whether it had not done good instead of harm, by checking the rapid blight, not only in the wheat, but in po- real estate, amounting to about $390mm

Su .e that time the funds, upon the who'e, have been steady, and the impression stated with egard to the crops has been so far borne out hat not only has there been no further advance n the corn market, but advices have been reeived from Ireland that after all the outery which has been raised, there has been such a sudden arrest of the potato disease as to warrant he opinion that looking at the increased supply rom the total breadth of land which was planted, he aggregate yield will be found equal to an average. Should the weather now clear up, it of the Sheriff. Can you believe that is said there will be the almost certain prospect of the loss by the blight being no greater than that sustained last year. The appearance of the trifling payment of one dollar each the other crops in Ireland is still said, moreover, to be highly favorable, the cases in which serious injury has been caused being exceptional. n the south of England, on the other hand, here can be no question that severe losses have een sustained. From the north and from Scotland, however, the accounts are, by no means, bad. Hence, under all the circumstances, the none of a moderately good general harvest can get be entertained, and although the recent rise from the low prices which prevailed when an unusual degree of abundance was anticipated. may be considered as fully justified, there is room to doubt if any further considerable advance will take place. Still these remarks must be taken subject to the state of the weather for the next fortnight. At present all the indications are uncertain, and the barometer stands fixedly midway between fair and rain. If it hould again go down, it would renew the most grave apprehensions, but after the deluge and torins we have had, it is fair to anticipate some

The Mortality among the U. S. Troops on

The Panama Star gives in further detail, an ecount of the terrible sufferings of the troops, who, under command of Lieut. Col. Bonneville, eft New York on the 5th of July last, for Cali fornia, via the Isthmus. POut of the seven hun dred enlisted, one hundred or more are said to have died of cholera. Only one commissioned officer fell a victim to the disease. The Star charges the officers with having deserted the men, and pushed on ahead by themselves. The consequence, was, the men gave way to every species of indulgence, such as drunkenness, going without food other than green fruit, and sleeping in the open air. This, it says, brought on the cholera; and it then adds:

"On the road over the Isthmus some died by the road side, some in the ruce huts of the natives, without medicine or medical attention -One soldier and his wife died on the road, leaving four or five little children, the oldest not over four or five years of age, the youngest a nursing babe. This was accordingly done, and it is alleged that the commissione officers again exhibited no disposition to take Charge of them.

The mail steamship company, who had agreed to convey these troops from New York to California for $120,000, and await payment until Congress made the necessary appropriation, seem to have acted with great humanity. They brought them from New York to Navy Bay without a single case of sickness, and then each soldier with four days' provisions; but the desertion of their officers gave a license to the men, which eventually resulted in their ranks being terribly thinned by the pestilence. It appears that while seven per cent, among the poor soldiers lost their lives, only one per cent. among the officers laid their bones in Panama. The survivors and their officers are now on their way to Benicia, California, where a court martial should be convened at once to try the officers for their dereliction of duty. Or other foo ish caper, I never get to hear of it— I do not take the paper!

Why there's my neighbor, Toby Stout,
He always reads the News,
And having news to talk about,
He never gets the "b wes:"
While others yawn in ennui,
His mind is light as vapor;
The cause is plain to half an eye—
He always takes the paper!

While neighbor Stout hears all the news, And knows each current price,
And always minds the P's and Q's,
By taking good advice;
I cannot tell the price of grain,

Of poultry, coffee, taper, Or any kind of merchandise Because I take no paper!

Though I have studies which require Much time and mental labor, Yet I can spare a little time
As well as Stout, my neighbor; Though time be precious, I can use
A longer midnight taper,
And thus find time to read the News,

Therefore Pll take the paper!

THE CHARACTER OF THE WHIG

It is not within the compass of our mother tongue to furnish epithets that can fully present the character of the warfare adopted by certain. Whig politicians and Whig editors against Gen. Franklin Pierce. It would seem, indeed, that their fear of defeat-their great dread of losing their hold on the political power and the spoils in which they now participate-has induced a recklessness of conduct approaching the vagaries of monomaniacs.

Look at them! In the teeth of their present itol, Gen. Scott, who, in his official communications, repeatedly commended Franklin Pierce for his gallantry and efficiency as an officer, their stump speakers and editors are laboring to spread among the people the foulest slanders, represen-ting him as inefficient and cowardly. And yet these speakers and writers would fain be considered men of honor and veracity!

Look at them! From the capital of the republic they are sending to the North, and East productions from the abolition press in this city, the National Era, written and circulated for the sole purpose of keeping alive the hostility of abolitionism against the people of the Southern States, and uniting all who have at any time partaken of that hostility to oppose Gen. Pierce, because of his uniform opposition to abolition movements in Congress and in his own State. At the self-same moment these party managers are sending to the Southern States the Republic, (co-laborer with the Era in defamation,) containing labored and reckless misrepresentations touching Gen. Pierce's views on the fugitive slave law, and holding him up to our southern fellow-citizens as entertaining opinions thereon quite satisfactory to abolitionists! And yet these editors and party managers would fain be considered as regardful of the restraints which should govern the conduct of honest men!

WHEAT FARS. THE WHEAT FAN, known as the "Genes see Farmer," has superseded the use of al most every other Fan in the State of New York and other Wheat growing States. It is adapte to cleaning every description of seed, and as a Clover Seed or Timothy cleaner has no superior. This Fan has been most fully tested, and every where elicited the highest commendation. It has taken the premium at several of the best Northern exhibit ons, and for superiority of construction struction, capacity for working, and economy of price, stands unrivalled. The following certifirates from some of the most intelligent and suc-ressful agriculturists in the Valley of Virginia, attest its merits wherever tried. Charlestown, Nov. 11, 1851-tf. Cardner & Rohr's Wheat Drill,

SEED PLANTER.

THE undersigned having purchased the right to manufacture and sell this unequalled Drill in the counties of Loudoun, Clarke, and the southern half of Jefferson, are now fully prepared at their establishment in Charlestown to furnish to order any number of Drills, made in the most substantial manner. All orders promptly attended to. This Wheat Drill performs the triple work of Drilling, Sowing and Covering by the same movement, thereby saving much time and labor. It will plant point rows, and all irregular shaped helds, with a saving of from 10 to 15 per cent. in labor, it will, with ease for two horses, plant from S to 10 acres per day of Wheat, Barley, and other small grains. This Machine has been in use wo seasons, and wherever it has been introduced has given entire satisfaction. This Drill took the first premium at the Valley Agricultural Exhibition in October last. Also the first premium at the Agricultural Exhibition for Belmont county, Ohio, October 23, 1851.

O'BANNON, HENSON & HUNT. March 23, 1852.

We have in our possession a large number of certificates, recommending this Drill to the farmer as having no superior. Among the number the following:

I have used on my farm and am still using one of the Wheat Drills, patented by Gervis S. Gardner and George Rohr, and now sold by Messrs. Henson, O'Bannon and Hunt. I do not suppose any intelligent farmer would now dispute the advantage of drilling over broadcast sowing; I also consider the above Drill altogether equal to any drill now in use, and the advantage of apply. ing a compost box to it, makes it very desirable-The compost part of the drill acts well in every particular and is one of the greatest inventions of the day for the farmer; it might well be called the farmer's friend, as it saves both time and labor.

DR. JOHNSTON, DR. JOHNSTON,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with a ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes; with derangement of mind, were cured immedistaly.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured them-Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper induigences, that secret and solitary habit, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, much to be dreaded; loss

&c., and some of the evils produced. NERVOUS DEBILITY. Weakness of the system, nervous debility and prema-ture decay, generally arising from the destructive habit of youth, that solitary practice so fatal to the healthful existence of man, and it is the young who are most apt to become its victims from an ignorance of the dangers to which they subject themselves. Parents and guardians are often misled with respect to the cause or source of disease in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they ascribe to other causes the wasting of the frame, Palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, indigestion frame, Palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, indigestion, derangement of the nervous system, cough, and symptoms of consumption, also those serious mental effects, such as loss of memory, depression of spirits or peculiar fits of melancholy, when the truth is they have been indulging in pernicious but alluring practices, destructive to both body and mind. Thus are swept from existence, thousands who might have been of use to their country, a pleasure to their friends, and ornaments to society. DR. JOHNSON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

This grand and important Remedy has restored strength and vigor to thousands of the most debilitated individuals, many who had lost all hopes, and been abandoned to die. By its complete invigoration of the nervous system, the whole faculties become restored to their experious and the fallen fabric nervous system, the whole faculties become restored to their proper power and functions, and the fallen fabric of life is raised up to beauty, consistency and duration, upon the ruins of an amaciated and premature decline, to sound and pristine health. Oh, how happy have hundreds of misguided youths been made, who have been suddenly restored to health from the devastations of those terrific maladies which result from indiscretion Such persons before contemplating should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness.— Indeed, without this, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own. false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately.

This is the most difficult Worm to destroy of all that infest the human system, it grows to an almost Indefinite length becoming so coiled and fastened in the Intestines and Stomach effecting he health so sadly as to cause St. Vitus Dance, Fits, &c., that those afflicted seldom if ever suspect that it is Tape Worm hastening them to an early grave. In order to destroy this Worm, a very energetic treatment must be pursued, it would therefore be proper to take 6 to 8 of my Liver Pills so as to remove all obstructions, that the Worm Syrup may act direct upon the Worm, which must be taken in doses of 2 Tablespoon fulls 3 times a day. Northampton Co., April 13, 1852.

Messrs. Tyler & Adair: I have been afflicted with rheumatism at times, from my twelfth year. I will be 50 years of age the 19th of this month; the attacks were so severe at times as to render me helpless. I have tried various remedies to very little effect. Last October I was attacked in my shoulders, sides, back and hips; I could not rest day or night; I could not move any part of my body without crying with pain. At this time I also tried many remedies, internal and external, without relief. I was at last advised to try HAMP. TON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE. Before I had taken one bottle of which, I felt much better, and as I taken one bottle of which, I felt much better, and as I continued taking it I felt strength coming into my back and limbs, and my stomach strengthened and revived every way. I have taken five bottles, and am much better than I ever expected to be. I intend to use it whenever I need, and would recommend it to the afflicted, believing it unequalled.

Your, ELIZABETH BAGWELL. Mess.s. Mortimer & Mowbray: Mrs. Elizabeth Bagwell is a lady of the highest respectability, wealthy and influential. The cure in her case speaks volumes in favor of this wonderful Tincture. Several other persons we have heard of, have derived great benefit from its use in our county. We are entirely out of the article, and have daily anxious enquirers to know when we will receive another supply. We expect large sales of it from the present demand, and want you to send us a box as soon as possible. Yours, April 16, 1852. April 16, 1852. Northampton county, Va. Cure of consumption, neuralgia, pain in the side, &c. Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray-Gentlemen: It is with pleasure I can testify to the great healing powers of HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE. My wife had been afflicted for three years, laboring under a constant backing cough, with a most violent pain in ner right side, neuralgia in the head, and a dim sight; very little rest day or night, and much emaciation, and to all appearances a rapid consumption inevitable. We had the most eminent physician in Annapolis, but his medicine did not give her any relief at all, but growing worse if any change in the least; and after having read one of your pamphlets, in July last, she concluded to try Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, and ague, and the evil effects of Quinine, Mercury, and other dense nearly all desperate cases, and the cures were nearly all desperate cases, and the cure all desperate cases are cases. after taking but two bottles of which (under a kind Providence) we perceived a great change for the better: her appetite improved, her skin became quite clear. cough, pains, neuralgia, &c., entirely left her, and by the time she had taken a few bottles more she was completely cured, and is now in the enjoyment of most exrellent health. I have seen also its beneficial effects on several other Wonderful cure of hereditary scrofula by Hampton's egetable Tincture! This certificate is from the pen of a gentleman whose name appears on the journal of Congress, one who is ely and favorably known : "It affords me pleasure to state that Dr. Jesse Hamp ton's Tincture has effected a most extraordinary cure of my slave boy, Albert. The patient was three years old, and had the scrofula—(his father was scrofulous.)— The boy was a moving mass of sores from head to foot; the upper lids of the eyes were much swollen, and turned inside out, exhibiting horrible mattering ulcers that protruded over the eye balls so as to produce blind ness. It is strange, yet true, this child, that I felt resigned to see die as a relief from suffering, has been re-

PEPSIN is the chiefelement, or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the solvent of the food, the purifying, Preserving, and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an Artificial Digestive Fluid, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its case mical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute forit. By the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils of INDIGESTION and DYSPEPSIA are recovered just as they would be by a healthy Stomach. and evils of INDIGESTION and DYSPEPSIA are re-moved, just as they would be by a healthy Stomach.— It is doing wonders for Dyspeptics, curing cases of De-bility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the verge of the grave. The Scientific Evidence upon which it is based, is, in the highest degree curious and remarkable.

BARON LIEBIG in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says: "An artificial Digestive Fluid, analous to the Gastrie Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Cali, in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed, and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach."

Dr. COMBE, in his valuable writings on the "Physiology of Digestion," observes that "a diminution of the due quantity of the Gastric Juice is a prominent and all prevailing cause of Dyspepsia;" and he states that "a distinguished professor of medicine in London, who was severely afflicted with this complaint, finding every thing else to fail, had recourse to the Gastric Juice, obtained from the stomachs of living animals, which proved completely successful." TO THE PUBLIC. THE introduction of Dr. John Bull's unequalled Sar-saparilla, has formed an era in the political world. Isaparilla, has formed an era in the political world.

Its rise, progress, and the many wonderful cures it has effected, since it was introduced to the public, have been a subject of great astonishment, and even commanded the admiration of the American people. When the history of this truly wonderful medicine is known, together with the extraordinary exertions made by br. Bull, to make it the most valuable compound of Sarsangilla known to the world its resident approach.

Byers & Butler, Dr. T. E. Wilson, and the lamented L. George, Jr. After leaving the service of Dr. Wilson, Dr. Bull was employed by Dr. F. Scoreh, an old and celebrated German physician of this city, and who was for many years, a Surgeon in the Grand Army of Napo leon. Dr. Scorch, during his life, made a fluid Extract of Sarsaparilla for the especial use of the physicians of this city, and which was considered at that time by fat the most superior article made. Dr. Bull was employed by Dr. Scorch, in compounding this celebrated Sarsaparilla, and he then conceived the idea and finally fully determined (seventeen years since) to introduce at

It is therefore a matter of no surprise, that the question is frequently asked "Why does Dr. Bull's Sarsaparil'a continue to alvance rapidly in the favor and confidence of the public, when all other similar preparations which have preceded his other similar preparations, which have preceded his have been cast aside as unworthy of the slight at nohave been cast aside as unworthy of the slight state tice?" Though it is not required yet this question is easily answered. Dr. Bull has not worked alone for pecuniary preferment; gain has not been his sole object he has had a higher and a nobler aim constantly in view—that of relieving the sufferings of his fellow creatures. Unlike those who compound a good article for a short time that they may gain a reputation, and having attained the object of their wish, reduce their article, by learing out its most valuable ingredients, to a worthless mixture, in order to accumulate wealth, Dr. Bull has continued to use the costly ingredients which his long study and experience enabled him to discover, and which has been of such invaluable service to suffering humanity—He seeks to gain an unspotted reputation, not only fet He seeks to gain an unspotted reputation, not only is himself, but also for his renowned Sarsaparilla, and it is a fact worthy to be recorded, that every gallon of the Sarsaparilla sold by Dr. Bull is made with his own hands and under his immediate superintendence. For several years past he has been daily experimenting in administering his mixtures, without charge to patients pronounced incurable, and to his eternal fame be it recorded, his efforts have been crowned with the most wonderful success. His Sarsaparilla has now gained such a wide spread reputation, and been established upon such a solid basis, that he is firmly satisfied of in undoubted merits, and confidently challenges the combined Medical skill of Europe and America to predect out of Sarsaparilla, a superior preparation to his Fhail Extract.
