Miscellaneous.

DISCONTENT. How universal it is! We never knew the man, says a cotemporary, who would say "I am contented." Go where you will, among the rich or the poor, the man of competence or the man who earns his bread by the daily sweat of his brow, you hear the sound of murwhere. muring and the voice of complaint. The other day we stood by a cooper who was playing a merry tune with an adze round a cask. Ah! sighed he, "mine is a hard lot-forever trotting round like a dog, driving away at a hoop." "Heigho!" sighed a blacksmith, in one of the hot days, as he wiped away the drops of perspiration from his brow, while his red-hot iron glowed on his anvil, "this is life with a vengeance-melting and frying one's self over the fire." "Oh, that I were a carpenter," ejaculated a shoemaker, as he bent over his lap-stone, "here I am, day after day, working my soul away in making soles for others, cooped up in a little seven-by-nine room." "I am sick of this out door work,' exclaims the carpenter, boiling and sweltering under the sun, or exposed to the inclemency of the weather, "if I were only a tailor." "This is too bad," perpetually cries the tailor, "to be compelled to sit perched up here plying the needle all the while-would that mine were a more active life." "Last day of grace, the banks won't discount-customers won't pay-what shall I do?" grumbles the merchant; "I had rather be a truck horse, a dog, anything." "Happy fellows," groans the lawver, as he scratches his head over some perplexing case, or pores over some dry record, "happy fellows! I had rather hammer stone than cudgel my brain on this tedious, vexa-tious question." And through all the ramifications of society, are all complaining of their condition-finding fault with their particular calling. "If I was only this, or that, or the other, I should be content," is the universal cry, "anything but what I am." So wags the world, so it has wagged, and so it

We observe that some of our cotemporaries are discussing the origin of the word gentleman. It seems to us far wiser to consider its true meaning. In a bustling age like this, men have no time for antediluvian inquiries, but require practical information.

What, then, is a gentleman? We can better describe what he is by telling what he is not. He is not the man of mere fortune, birth, or even education. Something more is required to make a gentleman than wealth, family, or a college diploma; in fact, none of these things touch the essentials of the real gentleman. A millionaire may be rude to strangers, brutal to his family, indifferent to suffering, careless of the state. A man This soldier being asked what he had to say with "the blood of all the Howards" may, nevertheless, be a fool, a coxcomb, or a tyrant. nobody can be a gentleman who is not familliar with these things. In popular phrase, indeed, to be a gentleman, and to understand etiquette, are synonymous. But our idea of a lows : "When I count the number of dots on gentleman is of a loftier kind. The conventional code of politeness, indeed, s at best but the imitation of true good breeding. It teaches, for example, that we should never censure a neighbor. But why? Because we may hurt his feelings. The true gentleman, however, always respects the feelngs of others, and only violates this rule when uperior considerations compel him, as, for stance, when he has to expose a knave. And here arises a striking difference between conventional politeness and real gentility. The former is affable to all men alike, whom it is "the thing" to know at all. The lat-ter turns its back, without scruple, on the scoundrel in fine clothes. Ordinary politeness does not recognize the laborer in his working dress, nor the man of business who has been unfortunate. But the true gentleman never "cuts" the humblest acquaintance. who is worthy, whether they meet each other in an alley or in a crowded street. The real gentleman looks to the heart, not to the ac-

NEWSPAPER BORROWERS.

Of the whole catalogue of borrowers, none are so pre-eminently censurable as the habitu-al borrowers of newspapers. As a general rule, so far as our observation has gone, the they eat with relish any ordinary food." It is told of John Bailes, who lived to the age of regular habitual borrowers of newspapers are better able to pay for the papers they bor-row than the owners and just proprietors of the papers themselves. We have known a cases of newspaper borrowers in our lives, which have given us a contemptible opinion of that whole class of persons. For instance: We once knew an individual, worth probably $30,000 or 40,000, who is said never to have

THE STEAMER SAN FRANCISCO. The Telegraphic report received on Thursday fternoon that the above steamer had been seen a sea in a terrible gale of wind, entirely disabled. and that the vessel that met her was unable to render her any assistance, created a great sensation, and has excited the most anxious fears for her safe-ty. This steamer was chartered by the War Department to convey the Third Regiment of Artillery o San Francisco, which, with the women and chil dren, make an aggregate of nearly eight hundred souls that are on board of her, including many officers, some of whom are accompanied by their No details have been received as to the imm diate cause of her situation—whether it is owing to some derangement of her machinery, or to the effects of the gale. The report that her boats were all gone and her decks apparently swept, would lead to the belief that it was the unfortunate result of the storm which she encountered, and under the con-tinuance of which she was still suffering when last een. We learn, however, that the San Francisco seen. We part, however, that the same randing of the seen is a remarkably strong and well-built ship, perfect-ly new, being now upon her first voyage; that she is admirably equipped, with a fine and numerous crew, and under the command of a gallant and ex-perienced officer of the navy. Under these circumstances it is hardly probable that such a ship should founder, and particularly as she was fitted with spars and sails to a sufficient extent to keep her der command, unless the gale was of the most extreme violence, and such that even ordinary sailing vessels could not show their canvass. When seen she was only about three hundred miles from the Capes of Delaware, and so soon as the information was received here the War Department telegraphed to New York to charter and dispatch without delay a steamer in search of her; but we learn that none could be obtained. The Treas-ury Department was then applied to, and four of the revenue cutters—viz, one from New York, one from the Delaware, one from Norfolk, and one from Charleston—were ordered to sea by telegraph, and are all, no doubt, now at sea. Intense anxiety will naturally be felt until further information is received, which we cannot but think will be favorable, so far as the safety of the numerous and valuable lives that are on board of her are concerned. That portion of the Third Regiment of Artillery which embarked on the San Francisco are compa-nies A, B, D, G, H, I, K, and L, together with the non-commissoned staff and band of the regiment. KOSSUTH'S LATE LETTER

Contained a remarkable passage: "As to my na-tion," said he, "I declare solemnly, that, should we be left forsaken and alone to fight once more the battle of deliverance for the world, we will rather choose to be Russians than to remain subject to the House of Austria; rather submit to the open, manly force of the Czar, than to the heart-revolting perjury force of the Czar, than to the heart-revolting perjury of the Hapsburgs; rather be ruled directly by the master than submit to the shame of being ruled by his underling. The fetters of force may be broken once, but the affection of a mortally offended people to a perjurious dynasty can never be restored. Rus-sia we haste with inconceivable hatred; but the House of Hapsburg we hate and despise."

A CHEAP FILTER.

As efficient a filter as can possibly be constructed, may be made in a few minutes by any person, and at the cost of a few pence. Procure a clean flower-pot of the common kind; close up the opening of the bottom by a piece of sponge, then place in the inside a layer of small stones, previously well cleansed by washing; this layer may be about two inches deep the upper stones being very small; next procure some the upper stones being very small; next procure so freshly burnt charcoal, which has not been kept in damp or foul place, as it is rapi strong smells, and so becomes tainted and unfit for such purpose; reduce this to powder and mix it with about twice it bulk of clear well washed, sharp sand; with this mixture fill the pot to within a shor of the top, covering it with a layer of small stones; or what is perhaps better place a piece of thick close flannel over it large enough to tie around the rim of the pot outside, and to form a hollow inside into ich the water to be filtered is to be poured, and which the water to be intered is to be poured, and which will be found to flow out rapidly through the sponge in an exceedingly pure state. The flannel removes the grosser impurities floating in the warter, but the filter absorbs much of decaying animal and vegetable bodies actually dissolved in it; when it becomes charged with them it loses this power, hence the necessity for a supply of fresh charcoal at intervals .- Monthly Obse MEN AND WOMEN. Census Facts and Reflections. We glean from the census of 1850, some interesting facts in relation to the number of males and females of different ages. Classifying the population by ages, it appears that the number of females between fifteen

A SOLDIER'S ALLOWANCE FOR TRAVELING .---- It has heen conceded by the Government's accounting others that a private soldier, who received and ac-cepted a commission as a company officer, claimed travel and allowances under the act of January 29. 1813. on the ground that he was honorably dis-charged as a private, and had a right to travel-pay, in that capacity, from the place of discharge to his residence. It was held that his promotion was not a discharge from the service within the meaning of the law above mentioned, and his claim rejected by the Second Comptroller.

GAS EXPLOSION.—Much excitement was caused in the vicinity of Fourth and Troy streets, New York, about 5 o'clock on Wednesday evening, by the explosion of the large gas piperunning through Fourth street. The report resembled the discharge of a heavy cannon. Some eight or ten covers to of a heavy cannon. Some eight of ten covers to the sewers in the streets were thrown from their places. Fire issued from the sewer-opening im-mediately after the explosion, and it was still burn-ing at 6 o'clock the next morning.

We learn from the Farmville (Va.) Journal that upwards of 100 slaves were sold at auction in that town on Tuesday. Of these 86 belonged to the estate of Josiah Chambers, dec'd, and brought the sum of $46.660, cash, being an average of a frac tion over $542.

It appears that the number of remates between fitteen and twenty is somewhat greater than that of the males, but that the males exceed the females of every other age from one year up to eighty. Beyond that age the number of females between eighty and nine-ty to one hundred and over one hundred is so much larger than that of the males as to show that there must be some law of the female constitution that renders it more favorable to extreme lon that of the other sex. The same phenomer blacemong the statistics of the colored able among the statistics of the colored population. Did our readers ever reflect upon the fact that while there seems to be no rule as to the number of males and females in particular families, the sexes are kept very nearly equal, taking to view large masses of the community? Where, from accidental causes the number of either sex has for a time, in some par able among the statistics of th ticular country, prependerated very greatly, t equality has been uniformly restored. Thus the millions of Frenchmen fell in the wars of the Fren millions of Frenchmen fell in the wars of the French revolution and Napoleon, yet now the sexes are about equal in number. It is stated on good authority that during that period the number of male births increased in France. Can we account for this fact that perfect constancy of proportions on a large scale should be maintained in the mildst of the utmost apshould be maintained in the mids, of the utmost a parent irregularity in the families which make u these large masses, on the hypothesis that this wor is the sport of chance, and of some force destitute intelligence and benificent purpose? THE SAN FRANCISCO. In another column of this paper will be found an account of the loss of the steamer San Francisco, with respect to whose fate there have been felt by the public for some days much apprehension and anxiety. These are now removed by the melanchely intelligence of the loss of that noble ship, and two bundred and forty of the passengers and crew. Great as the disaster bas been, it might have been much greater; and while the public sympathy will deplore the untimely fate of those who have found a watery grave, the public gratitude will be thankful to a beneficent and superintending Providence that so many have been spared. Under the circumstances, it seems to be almost miraculous that all should not have shared the fate of those who perished.

CHANGE IN THE CABINET.

The Washington Correspondent of the Baltimor Sun, under date of Sunday, thus speculates as to the probable aspect of the Cabinet, incident to the election of Col. DAVIS to the U. S. Senate, from Mississippi

The city is full of news. In the first place it is certain that Col. Jufferson Davis is elected to the U. S. Senate, from Mississippi, notwithstanding all the contradictory reports we have had on the subject. Col. Jeff. Davis' place in the Cabinet will, in all probability, he offered to Col. Clemmens of Alabama. This will go far to heal the breach in the Democratic party, and to unite the wings with the centre, in the apport of the Administration. Col. Clemmens is a man of character and genius, and will make a mos capital Secretary of War.

It is further known that Mr. Guthrie is about to retire from the Treasury Department. His place will probably be filled by Mr. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, a gentleman well qualified for any place in the Cabinet, and fortunately for the an anti-fillibuster. Another version is, that Mr. Cushing will take the Treasury, and that Mr. Breckinridge . will be Attor-nev General.

He appeared in his seat for the first and last time on the 1st day of the session—was taken with typhoid fever, from the attack of which he had partially recovered, but a relapse occurred and "congestion of the lungs supervened and terminated his life." He belonged to a distinment at the present session of Congress, to effect this desirable and patriotic object. Resolved, That meeting as we do upon the same ground where our forefathers signed and sent forth their Declaration of Independence, and remembering that we have descended from the Revolutionary stock that assisted in winning the freedom of America from British vassalage, we claim to have done no more than the nation had a right to expect at our hands, by going forth to battle against old England, that attempted so soon to bring us back to foreign subju-gation, from which our gallant fathers had so recent-ity emancipated us. and terminated his life." He belonged to a distin-guished revolutionary family, and well-known in the Valley of Virginia, and where the great-grandfather of the deceased, the Bev. Mr. Mublanberg, of Wood-stock, left his pulpit and shouldered his musket and went forth to oppose the enemy of his country. This reminiscence was fully detailed and developed by Mr. Faulkner in his speech at Reading, Berks coun-ty, Pennsylvania, during the Presidential canvass of 1852

Yet such is the case with the "Albany Atlas," which the "Union" has been bolstering up for months past as "redeemed, regene-rated and disenthralled" from its freesoil hereise, by the Baltimore Platform. Your attention will not fail to be directed to its recent article upon the "Nebraska Bill," and its opposition to it, because of the principles of the Compromise of 1850 being applied to it, as is the case in the organization of the territo-ries of "Utah" and "New Mexico." There is very little change in the Money market since the date of our last. The demand for money is active, but the supply seems to be ample, and there is little difficulty in obtaining accommodation on proper security. The stock market exhibited a fair degree of animation this week, and as usual Baltimore and Obio Railroad shares have constituted the largest part of the iness transacted at the Board, although there have en sales to a pretty large amount of Railroad bouds, Baltimore City 6's and Bank Stock Baltimore and Ohio Railroad shares have declined since the date of our last weekly report $1.50 to $2 per share. There is a general complaint at this time of the great scarcity of oysters in our market, and as a consequence, the price of that delicious bivalve has very much increased. The scarcity will only prove temporary, as the prevailing mild weather will enable those engaged in catching them to prosecute their work with great facility. The late heavy northwest winds have also militated against the arrival of the vessels which bring them to the city. Nearly all those now brought are immediately taken by the large dealers, which deprive the people generally from obtaining them. The total value of the foreign exports for the week ending on Thursday, was $411,328. The export of breadstuffs for the week comprised 29,614 barrels of flour, 1,170 barrels of corn meal, 29,636 busbels of corn, and 11,691 bushels of wheat. Of tobacco 1,366 hogsheads, and of coal, 515 tons went to foreign

WASHINGTON, December 30, 1853. To the Editor of the Union : Sin: A friend ealled my attention to an article in your paper of this morning, headed, "From the Springfield Republican," and purporting to be a "Calm Review of the Armory Question-The Late

The appearance of such an article in that paper would not have surprised any one at all acquainted with its character, or with the recklessness of some of the statements concerning armory matters which have been published therein. For myself, I am at no loss to conjecture who the real author is, nor as little at a loss to point to the source from which the imposition practiced on you emanated. If it had remained confined to the columns of the Springublican, or kindred prints, it would have passed unnoticed by me; but appearing, as it does, without note in your columns, I feel bound to say that it is anything but a "calm" or truthful "review of the armory question," or of the opinions or doings of the commissioners.

RETIRED LIST IN THE U.S. ARMY. It is stated that the Military Committee of the House of Representatives, will in a few days report a bill providing that, if a U.S. Army officer shall have served a certain period and being ordered upon duty, pleads inability on the score of infirmity; or, if the President shall consider him, by reason of length of service, entitled to indulgence, a board of officers shall be assembled, of not more than thirteen, nor less than seven members, who shall decide whether he ought to be retired from service. The pay of retired officers will be the pay proper, with the longevity rations, equal to about half full pay.

AMUSEMENT.

We are pleased to learn that the Company of Dramatic Artists, under the Direction of MR. JOHN WEAVER, formerly of Barnum's Museum, intend giving a series of performances in the upper room of the Court-House, commencing on Wednesday evening, the 18th. We see they are highly spoken of in our exchanges, and the best proof of their ability is that of $2,206 77, but the large increase of $160.203 09 compared with December, 1852. In fact the receipts of the Main Stem for December, 1853, are more than double the amount for December, 1852. The decrease for the past month compared with the previous one is altogether owing to the fact that the boats on the al low stage of water. The falling off, it will be perceived, is in the receipts from passengers, amounting to the sum of $5,168 65, while from freight the revenue is greater by $2,960 98, than in November. The road was formally opened to Wheeling on the 1st of January, 1853, but did not get into full operation until March. The following table will show the receipts for the year ending with Decem-

The transportation eastwardly into the city of Baltimore, of the principal articles over the road during December, was as follows:

Coal, 29,491 tons; fire brick, 62 do.; firewood, 65 do.; flour, 91,187 bbls.; grain, 1,030 tons; granite. 707 do.; iron, 669 do.; iron ore and manganese, 1,317 do.; lard and butter, 904 do.; leather, 199 do.; cotton, 365 bales; wool, 119 do.; lard oil, 12 tons; lime. 62 do.; hemp, 167 do.; soap stone, 109 do. Live stock, viz: Hogs, 1,154 tons; sheep, 50 do.; horses and mules, 41 do.; horned cattle, 323 do.; meal and shorts, 199 do.; pork and bacon, 2,154 do.; tobacco, 345 hhds; whiskey, 2,176 bbls.; miscellaneous, 1,111 tons; hay, 65 do. Flour received from Washington road, during December, 1853, 5,638 bbls.

The falling off in the receipts of flour were one thousand barrels, as compared with November, while there was an increase of 22,908 barrels over October. There was a decrease of 358 tons of grain, and 84 tons in live hogs, and an increase of 184 tons in live horned cattle, 16 tons in live sheep, 8 tons in live orses and mules, and 89 tons in pork and bacon.-The decrease in the receipts of coal was 1,848.

LOSS OF FIVE MILLION DOLLARS BY FIRES .- The people of New York are beginning to get alarmed. and not without reason, at the many and destructive fires that have recently taken place in that city. Within the last three months, the aggregate is estimated at nearly five millions of dollars. The statement is as follows :

"October 28, Fowler's Buildings, loss $250,000, in-surance $100,000; November 17, Empire Iron Works, loss $300,000, insurance $180,000; November 17, Jane and Washington Streets, loss $290,000, insurand washington Streets, loss 5250,000, insur-ance $150,000; December 10, the Harpers' and other buildings, loss $1,500,000, insurance $350,000; De-cember 27, Front street and the shipping, loss $1,-500,000, insurance $600,000; January 8, Metropoli-tap Hall and La Farge Hotel, loss $1,000,000, insurance $350,000. THE RIOT AT WHEELING .- The Intelligencer of Tuesday, says :--

In the article in the Intelligencer yesterday, detail-ing the disorderly proceedings of Saturday night, we omitted to state that a thing designed as an effigy of the Nuncio was burned in front of Washington Hall. The whole proceedings convinced us that there was no concerted plan of violence to persons or proper-ty, or if there was, that it had been abandoned in the early part of the evening, and that the after oc-currences were the work of a noisy crowd largely currences were the work of a noisy crowd largely sed of boys without any leader, filled with the spirit of mischief and rife for a "spree." That they were not at once restrained by summary measures, was, we think, owing to misconceived apprehension of their force and intentions.

red-hot fanatical abolitionist—he does sneakingly and stealthily what the abolitionist does openly and above-board.

The "Atlas" professes to be democratic, and an acquiescer in the " Baltimore Platform," so do other reesoilers. Now they are to be tried and testedfully, squarely, and unequivocally. There can be no dodging now. The faithless and insincere among them must fall, and must take up their line of marc from the democratic party, if the Baltimore Platform means anything, or there is any truth or sincerity in the general acquiescence which the freesoilers profess to accord to the doctrines of President Pierce's Inaugural and Message.

I have no doubt however of the triumphant pasage of Senator Douglas' bill through both Houses of Congress. The democratic party will stand pretof Congress. The democratic party will stand pret-ty much "shoulder to shoulder" upon the bill. Some will fall with the "Atlas" by the wayside, and they will be found to be those representing "the distur-bers of the peace" in the democratic party. The "Union Whigs," both North and South, will stand fire—but freesoil Whigs and abolitionists will of course be found true to their position. I should not be at all constrained to find Giding advectation with be at all surprised to find Giddings advocating "the Missouri Compromise" as the proper principle to be applied to the "Nebraska" territory. The passage of this bill will have two good effects, it will put an end to slavery agitation by making a "fixed fact" of the Compromise of 1850, and purge parties of their excrescences. This troublesome question at rest, the old parties will file off and join issue upon old questions and such new measures as have arisen and may arise involving the principles of Democratic and Whig faith. Whether we shall hear of "Whig faith" again is somewhat doubtful, but there is to b an opposition party, and a powerful and talented one, divested of "the drum and fife" and lead in the next contest by Edward Everett for President, and William C. Rives or John J. Crittenden for Vice President. Mr. Crittenden will be back here in a few days to take his seat in the Senate, and will be one of the main leaders of the opposition in -Congress. It is better for the Democratic party that it hould have a strong and respectable opposition. It will put an end to all bickering and consolidate them upon a fixed platform of principles. The leading feature of the week in Congress has een the discussion of the Clayton-Bulwer Treaty in the Senate by General Cass and Mr. Clayton, of Delaware, its author. It would occupy more time than I have this week to brief the argument for you, so I will defer it to another time, and especially as Mr. Clayton has not yet finished his reply. These two eminent men, however, agree upon the main and es-sential points involved in the construction of the treaty. They both oppose the British construction of the treaty, and the colonization by Englishmen of the Bay Islands. The matter is of small moment to England, and she will contrive some device to slip gracefully out of her position, simply because she cannot maintain it before the world. War-mongers will be disappointed if they expect even a muss to grow out of it. John Bull has enough to do, to go to work honesty and sustain Turkey. Lord Palmerston has gone back into the English Cabinet-now we shall hear the booming of cannon. England and France must act now. Napoleon has been ready long ago-it has been England who has been higgling and piggling about the matter. The day of retribution is co The nephew of the great Napoleon stands up to re-buke the brother of the treacherous Alexander, and to shake in his face the broken faith of the treaty of Tilsit, and to punish his participation in the cruel banishment and overthrow of his illustrious uncleand, the best of the joke is, British cannon is to aid in doing the work. Mysterious are the workings of Providence with nations as well as individuals. In my conversation with you in Jefferson in Octo-ber last, I expressed my full belief that war must en-sue between Turkey and Russia and that in spite of the indisposition (and the general bankruptcy) of most of the nations of Europe to engage in it, a gen-eral war most ensue. I still hold to that belief—the conclusion is irresistable, when the history of the past is joined with the events of the present. Are the people of Europe ready for the change, if so the day of her republicanism is about to dawn and the Cossack to be driven back and permanently? God prosper the cause of popular rights and popular freedom in the Old World, should arise from the altar of every heart in this land.

Now is the time for our farmers to till their crops well and guard them from all possible danger, (so far as in their power,) for, aside from the prospects of a general war, the truth is now fully out, and the statistics show a failure of an average crop in all of Western Europe of fully twenty-five per cent in all kinds of grain. This deficiency cannot be made up next year, even with a full crop—so that prices next year at any rate must rule high. " I forgot to say that the principal topic of discus-sion in the House of Representatives, during the past

CAPT. INGRAHAM AT ALEXANDRIA.-A letter from an officer of the U.S. sloop of war St. Louis, dated Alexandria, Egypt, Dec. 1st, says :---

"Our reception here was of the most gratifying character, owing chiefly to the feelings of respect and admiration which the gallant act of Captain Ingraham at Smyrna, and its decided endorsement and vindication by our government, have inspired throughout the East. Two public demonstrations of respect to that commander, to our country, and to its flag, have already taken place here since our ar-rival. The first was in the form of a serenade on the first evening; the second at the theatre, to which we were invited, for the express purpose, as we afterwards understood. On the first occasion, Mr. Jones, late consul, briefly returned thanks to the crowd for late consul, briefly returned thanks to the crowd for the compliment. On the second, the respect paid to Capt. Ingraham and to the flag (one of which had been prepared, and waved from the box of a party of gentlemen) was acknowledged by Captain Ingraham and Mr. DeLeon, the new consul general, who was conveyed to his post by the St. Louis, simply rising up and bowing to the audience. Upon the whole, these jemonstrations were so significant and so re-spectable in their character as to induce the mention spectable in their character, as to induce the mention of them."

UNIVERSAL WEIGHTS AND MEASURES .- At a meeting of the American Geographical and Statistical Society, held in New York on Tuesday, a con was appointed to address a memorial to Congress praying that body to take into early consideration the subject of a decimal system of weights and measures, with a common standard, with the view to the calling of a Congress of Governmental Dele-gates from the nations most interested in such a inge, to meet at Brussels, or some equally convenient point, to consider the practicability of the adoption of a common standard of weights and measures, or to such other action in that behalf as to the wisdom of Congress shall seem best. FREIGHT ON VESSELS TO SAN FRANCISCO .- It is as tonishing what enormous sums are paid for freights to vessels which arrive at this port. In the Prices Current, published in this city, it is stated that the amount paid or due to vessels which arrived during the last month is $665,557. Of this, $273,537 were for freights from New York, $147,753 for freights from Boston, $85,011 for freights from other Eastern Ports, and $159,256 for freights from Foreign ports. When it is recollected that this sum is for a single month, to a country that has a population of only 300,000, the statement seems extraordinary, incredi month, to a country that has a population of only 300,000, the statement seems extraordinary, incredi-ble. What can the people of the Atlantic States be thinking of? How do they suppose 300,000 people can pay even for the freight of these goods in a sin-gle month, to say nothing of the value of the goods themselves? It is impossible; and the consequence is, what might have been expected—goods of nearly every description are selling here to-day for less than they cost in New York. This is runnus to everythey cost in New York. This is ruinous to every-body but the consumer.—San Francisco Paper.

dex as to the future. Out of 1,200 subscribers, we dex as to the future. Out of 1,200 subscribers, we have not as yet obtained the date, when their cur-rent subscriptions commenced, of over 400. We de-sire therefore a settlement from delinquents, and if they are not disposed to pay us anything, be it so. We shall "pick the flint, and try it again."

We have had arranged, so far as it was possible, our Books, and shall in a few days have in readiness the subscription and advertising accounts of the last year. As to the old accounts we have but the name, (so far as we have been able to gather them,) and again appeal to our friends, one and all, to come forward and give us not only dates and figures, but the money to boot. This latter, you may rest assured, we greatly need, or our former indulgeonce should be the best evidence, that if it were not the case, we should be the last to trouble you with so disagreeable a homily as we have here given. January 9, 1854. THE PRINTER.

January 10, 1954-ta CEDAR LAWN FOR SALE. WILL be sold at private sale, the Farm known by the name of Cedar Lawn, formerly the residence of John T. A. Washington, dec'd., lying in Jefferson county, Va., about three miles S. W. of Charlestown, and about one mile South of the Harpers-Ferry and Smith-field furnpike, adjoining the farms of John R. Flagg, George Isler, Mrs. H. L. Alexander, Thos. B. Wash-ington, Dr. Scollay and others, containing about 245 AGRES, about 35 of which are in fine timber. The improvements consist of a handsome three story Barca DWELLING, forty feet square, with a two story Wing 40 feet by 20 feet attached; a Barn, Corn-house, Milk-house, and Negro Cabins. Also, a large orehard of choice Apples, and a young Peach Orchard recently planted. The Lawn and premises generally are high-some Ormanental and Fruit Trees. There is a Cis-tern convenient, and a never failing well of pure, kinestone Water about 100 yards distant. The farm in singe is nearly square. The land is in a fine state of cultivation, and the soil of superior quality. It has every convenience to market, being in the immediate vicinity of the Winchester and Harpers-Ferry Rail-road, and widhin 7 or 8 miles of the Balto, and Ohio ets, store-room, wash-room, ice-house, porter's room, cooks' room, barber's shop, kituhen, bakery, officers' mess room, engineroom, bath room, and ladies' cabin. The State-rooms were very large, with two doors, one opening into the cabin, the other out upon a fine, spacious walk on deck. The tops of the inside doors of the state-rooms were filligree work—rishly gilded, of the most beautiful description, with the "Phcenix" in the centre, forming altogether the most chaste and clegant, and at the same time one of the est, and most airy and delightful cabins. The style of finish was of the Corinthian order, face work pure white and gold. The state-rooms were carpeted with velvet tapestry. The cabins were covered with oilcloth. The cabinet work oak, black walnut and rosewood, covered with velvet plush. Each state-room had three berths, sofs, lounge, marble top washstand, washbowl, mirror, life preservers, and in fact all the luxuries of a modern hotel. There were also three or tour large double state-rooms for families, and a "bridal room," furnished and fitted up with all the taste and elegance of a Metropolitan or a St. Nicholas.

Below was the gentleman's cabin, less costly furshed, but none the less comfortable. Instead of the oldfashioned "dead lights" which were too small to admit of light and air, windows, twelve by eight-teen inches, have been introduced, keeping the rooms cool and pleasant. The end of this cabin was in the form of a semi-circle, furnished with mirrors, tete-atetes, circular sofas of rosewood, covered with figured damask, answering all the purposes of a drawing-room. On one side was the ladies' toilet, on the other the steward's room. The cabin was used for the dining room, and would dine about two hunother the steward's room. The cabin was used for the dining room, and would dine about two hun-dred at a time. The tables were black walnut ex-tension, with railroad seats, covered with crimson plush. One side of the engine room was the pantry, and adjoining, was the wine and store room, where was kept any quantity of crockery and glassware. was kept any quantity of crockery and glassware. Forward the engine were the cabin and staterooms of the second class passengers, which was very com-fortable. Further forward were accommodations for female steerage passengers.

Her model and outward appearance were very beautiful. Her spar, or hurricane deck extended her entire length and breadth, giving a wider range for both deck and cabin passengers than any vessel, perhaps, ever built. She had a clipper bow, perfect-ly plain, without any ornament or figure head of any kind. She was rigged with two masts, carrying foresail, foretopsail, and two gibs; with smoke papes forward and aft. The following were her dimensions:

The Mexican Mustang Liniment will give the most undoubted satisfaction to every one giving it a trial for stiff joints, stiff neck or sore throat; it has proved itself efficacious in those complaints in many very stubborn cases:

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT.—The five Express Companies of New York city, certify that they have entirely abandoned the use of any other Liniment for the cure of sores, galls, sprains and rheumatic pains among their horses or men. If you have any ugly, painful Corns upon your feet, get a bottle of Mustang Liniment and apply it twice a day for eleven days and the trouble will be gone po-sitively sitively.

Extract from a letter dated Pittsburg, Pennsylva

Extract from a fetter dated Fitsburg, Fennsylva-nia, October 5th, 1852: Another circumstance which I noticed in Ohio a few days ago, I thought spoke highly of the virtues of the Mustang. Being in the office of a Physician of high standing, I noticed as he opened a door of his book-case, several bottles of Mustang, along side of which was an EMPTY Mustang bottle, and a two-ounce vial was an EMPTY Mustang bottle, and a two-ounce vial FILLED WITH MUSTANG LINIMENT, on which was the following directions: "Rub the throat well night and morning with the Liniment, and wrap a woolen cloth around it." J. P. FLEMING.
The Liniment is put up in three sizes and retails for 25 cts., 50 cts: and $1—the 50 cts. and $1 sizes con-tains three and six times as much as the 25 cts. size, and is much cheaper.

OUR OLD KENTUCKY HOME. The sum shines bright in our old Kentucky home, 'Tis summer, the darkies are gay; The corn top's ripe, and the meadows in full bloom, Whilst the birds make sweet music all the day. The young folks roll on the little cabin floor— All more all house and birds. All merry, all happy and bright; By'n bye hard times comes a knocking at the door, Then my old Kentucky home good night!

Chorus: We'll sing one song-for our old Ken-tucky home, For our old Kentucky home far away.

They hant no more, for the 'possum and the coon, On the meadbw, the hill, and the shore ; They sing no more by the glimmer of the moon, On the bench by the old cabin door; The day goes by, like a shadow o'er the heart, With sorrow, where all was delight; The time has come when the darkies have to part. Then my old Kentucky home, good night! Weep no more my lady, &c.

The head must bow, and the back will h've to bend Wherever the the darkey may go; A few more days-and the troubles all will end In the field where the sugar cane grow; A few more days for to toat the weary load, No matter-'twill never be light; A few more days still we totter on the road, Then my old Kentucky home good night ! Weep no more my lady, &c.

THE CHEAT BIVER IN THIS STATE. A correspondent of the National Intelligencer, says of this curious river :

"Few imagined we had near us so great a wonder of nature as the falls of the black fork of Cheat river, which descended five or six hundred feet in a number of successive leaps, and are as great a curiosity as the Falls of Tequendama, in South America. The whole of the Alleghany range, to Georgia, contains remarkable scenery, and no mountains afford finer subjects for the tourist and artist. Correa de Serra, called the Cherokee country, the Tuscany of America ! There is a very remarkable fail in Habersham county, which I believe has never been described.

"The country on the Cheat river, which contains the Falls of Black Fork, is alm st a wilderness. There is a district of at least forty miles by twenty in Randolph county, inhabited only by bears, deers, and other wild animals. I am informed it belongs to the family, and may be shortly brought into the market by sale for taxes. A part of it is a beautiful country, formed by the stream which descend the slopes of the Alleghany mountains to the river. The magnificent timber, chiefly white oak, so important in Western steamboat building, comes directly from the Cheat river. It abounds chiefly in iron ore. The Monongahela, at Morgantown, divides the river which retains the name, coming from the south; the other, the Cheat, which is the main stem, retains the general course, passing through a singularly picturesque mountain region, yet with much fertile land well adapted to cultivation."

the whole round of CHRONIC AFFECTIONS. This article was discovered by Dr. JESSE HAMPTON, now in fine health in the 79th year of liss age. He was born in Virginia in 1775, emigrated to Kentucky—then a wilderness—with his father, in 1779. In early man-hood he was so reduced by disease as to be almost wrecked in constitution. He spent much of his living for medical advice and attention, and grew nothing better, but worse. Finding no relief from his physi-cians, he resolved to try the restorative powers of the roots, barks, leaves, plants, ect., of the forest. He then dwelt in the midst of the Red Men of the Western wilds. Having heard much of their skill in the use of vegetable remedies of the forest, and knowing their mode of medicinal practice must be one of practical experience and not of theoretical speculation, he made himself acquainted with their remedies, and also with the practical inedicinal knowledge of the early settlers of Kentucky, had obtained from the 'medicine men' of the Indians. Acquors. Several large Parlors and airy Chambers marked added since last year. A Splendid Yellow-Mounted Coach attends the Charlestown Depot, upon the arrival of the Cars, which will convey visitors to the Hotel, free of charge. of the Indians. He carefully studied the nature of the medicines used by them, combined them according to the light he had received, used them as he had been taught, and had the cheering satisfaction of finding disease driven from his emaciated body, and vigorous health given in its stead. His case was of no ordinary kind, but astonishing to his friends and neighbors. The fame of it spread ; the people far and near sent to the doctor for his successful and wonderful combination of Indian remedies; which was freely given them, until the cases became so numerous and the demand so great that the doctor was advised by his friends, and induced through justice to himself, to put up his Vegetable Tincture in bottles, and charge a price for it which was freely given. Finding its way into the first and most intelligent families, and astonishing all by its wonderful cures; commanding certificates and testi-mony in its favor from the leading and some of the unost talented men of the comment. dial a fair trial, and am delighted with their effects, never having had them to fail in a single instance. I shall take pleasure in recommending them. We have been favored with a written certificate, cheerfully given by numerous Medical gentlemen, in Maryland, Virginia and Ohio, which alone should con-vince the most doubting, that these are really "Good Medicines :" after stating that they are acquainted with the composition of both the Expectorant and Cor-dial, and that they have administered them to their patients, they testify "that they are remedies of great value, safe, efficient and well worthy of the paronage of the Profession and the Public, that they are more reliable than any other proprietary medicines with of the Profession and the Public, that they are more reliable than any other proprietary medicines with which we are acquainted, "*&c. The above notices of recommendation from mem-bers of the Medical Faculty, Pharmaceutists of high standing, and Merchants of the first respectability, should be sufficient to satisfy all, that these medicines are worthy of triad by the afflicted, and that they are of a different stamp and class from the "Quackery" and "Cure-All" so much imposed upon the public. MARRIAGE, HAPPINESS AND COM-

The Married Woman's

PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION.

BY DR. A. M. MAURICEAU, Professor of Diseases of Woman. One Hundredth Edition. 18mo., pp. 250. Price 50 cts. [ON FINE PAPER, EXTRA BINDING, $1.00.]

First published in 1847, and it is not surprising or won-derful, considering that every Female, whether married or not, can here acquire a full knowledge of the nature, character and causes of her complaints, with the various symptoms, and that nearly half a million copies should have been sold.

have been sold. It is impracticable to convey fully the various sub-jects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intend-ded for the married, or those contemplating mar-riages, but no female desirous of enjoying health, and that beauty, consequent upon health, which is so con-ducive to her own happiness, and that of her husband, but either has or will obtain it, as has or will every husband who has the love and affection of his wife at heart, or that of his own peruniary improvement.

heart, or that of his own pecuniary improvement. QF Upwards of one hundred thousand copies have been sent by mail within the last few months.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

BE NOT DEFRAUDED! Buy no book unless "Dr. A. M. Mauriceau, 129 Liberty street, N. Y.," is on the title page, and the entry in the Clerk's Office on the back of the title page; and buy only of respectable and honorable deal-ers, or send by mail, and address to Dr. A. M. Mauri-in the stove. It was clearly proved before the inquest that he had beaten her severely on the day of her sudden disappearance, and a quantity of bones found in the stove were subjected to the professional and critical examination of three medical gentlemen, who unhesitatingly pronounced them to be human bones, and even went so far as to select and adapt each to each, thus sagaciously and scientifically making out a very perfect skeleton of a woman of about the age of the missing wife. This done, the inquest rendered a verdict in accordance with these circumstances. To their utter consternation, however, the murdered woman now appeared in the flesh, and was duly recognised by her relatives. A re-examination of the remains followed, and the skeleton, instead of being that of a woman, was found to be only that of a pig!

TRUTH STRANGER THAN FICTION.

We have recently heard of a case of desertion on the part of a wife, which, for improbable facts, exceeds any of which we have ever heard. A woman left her husband and children in Taylor county, where they had previously resided, and, disguising herself, went over to Hampshire county, where she married again, and raised a family of children. Her lawful husband could give no satisfactory information as to her whereabouts, and died without having ascertained what had become of her. So mysterious had been her disappearance, that her former neighbors were some of them led to suspect foul play on the part of her husband .--For about forty years, nothing was heard of her, although she was not at a distance of one hundred miles from her former home. Her unlawful and lawful husbands having both died, she returned to Taylor county, where she still resides, and claimed a share of the latter's property. These facts are vouched for by a large number of highly respectable gentlemen in that county .- True Virginian.

MILITARY DIGNITY .- Militia officers are not the proudest men in the world, we always believed, and the following anecdote goes far to prove that their humility is occasionally well mitated, in its preceptive sense.

"Cuff," said one of the dignitaries to a negro at his side, as he prepared to swallow his fifth invoice of "hardwar"-" Cuff, you're a good, honest fellow, and I like to compliment a man what's lived an bonest life, if he is black, you shall take o' somethin' with me, eh?"

"Well, captain," replied Cuff, wiping his mouth with the nether end of his shining coat sleeve, "I'se berry dry, so I won't be ugly 'bout it. Some niggars is to proud to drink with a milishy ossifer-but I think a milishy ossifer when sober-is just as good as a nigga, specially if the nigga is dry ?"

..... A Yankee and an Irishman, riding together, passed by a gallows: 'Pat,' said the Yankee. "give that gallows its due, and where would you be ?" "Faith that's easily known," replied Pat, "I'd be riding to town by myself all alone sure."

The Yankee was beat this time.
