 A Cure Warranted or no Charge, in from one to two days.
 The many thousands cured at this Institution, and the very extensive practice of Dr. Johnston (exceeding all others) is a sufficient gravantee that he is the only proper Physician to be consulted.
 Br. Johnston,
 Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most as tonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with a ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended some-times with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

A Certain Disease.

A Certain Disease. When the misguided and impudent votary of plea-sure finds he has imbibed the sceds of this painful dis-ease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from apply-ing to those who, from oducation and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deal-ness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head face and extremitice, progressing on with ness, nodes on the shin bones in mices of a split, the on the head, face, and extremities, progressing on with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisera-tion, till death puts a period to their dreadful suffer-ings by sending them to " that bourne from whence no traveller returns." To such therefore, Dr. JOHN-STON pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable secrecy, and from his extensive practice in the first hospitals of Europe and America, he can confidently recommend the most sale and speedy cure to the un-fortanate victim of this horrid disease. It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fall victims to this dreadful disease, owing to the unskillfulness or ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, ruin the constitution, and either send

I'd slumber at her side.

Hoetry. THERE'S WORK ENOUGH TO DO. The blackbird early leaves its nest To meet the smiling morn, And gather fragments for its nest From upland, wood and lawn. The busy bee that wings its way

'Mid sweets of varied hue, At every flower would seem to say-"There's work enough to do." The cowslip and the spreading vine, The daisy in the grass, The snow-drop and the oglantine, Preach sermons as we pass. The ant, within its cavern deep, Would bid us labor too, And writes upon its tiny heap-"There's work enough to do."

The planets, at their Maker's will, Move onward in their cars, For Nature's wheel is never still-Progressive as the stars; The leaves that flutter in the air,

And Summer's breeze woo, One solemn truth to man declare-"There's work enough to do." Who then can sleep when all around Is active, fresh, and free? Shall man-creation's lord-be found Less busy than the bee?

Our courts and alleys are the field, If men would search them through, That best the sweets of labor yield, And "work enough to do."

To have a heart for those who weep The sottish drunkard win; To rescue all the children, deep In ignorance and sin; To help the poor, the hungry feed

To give him coat and shoe, To see that all can write and read— Is "work enough to do." The time is short-the world is wide,

And much has to be done; This wondrous earth, and all its pride, Will vanish with the sun ! The moments fly on lightning's wings, And life's uncertain too ; We've none to waste on foolish things-

"There's work enough to do," THE CHILD'S PRAYER.

BY SIDNEY DYER. Alas! when years were still so brief,

I scarce could lisp a name, My tongue was taught the note of grief For clouds of sorrow came; And now I seek a mother's grave At every eventide; Oh! could I have the boon I crave,

I leave the birds that sing so sweet,

THE CHILD IS DEAD. It is hard to believe it: that we shall no more hear the glad voice, nor meet the merry laugh that burst so often from its glad heart. Child as it was, it was a pleasant child, and to the partial parent there are traits of loveliness that no other eye may see. It was a wise ordering of Providence that we should love our own children as no one else loves them, and as we love the children of none besides. And ours was a lovely child. But the child is dead. You may put away its playthings. Put them where they will be safe. I would not like to have them broken or lost; and you need not lend them to other children when they come to see us .-It would pain me to see them in other hands, much as I love to see children happy with their toys.

Its clothes you may lay aside; I shall often look them over, and each of the colors that he wore will remind me of him as he looked when he was here. I shall weep often when I dead. think of him; but there is a luxury in thinking of the one that is gone, which I would not part with for the world. I think of my child now, a child away, though an angel among angels.

The child is dead. The eye has lost its lustre. The hand is still and cold. Its little heart is not beating now. How pale it looks ! Yet the very form is dear to me. Every lock of its hair, every feature of the face, is a treasure that I shall prize the more, as the months of my sorrow come and go.

Lay the little one in his coffin. He never was in so cold and hard a bed, but he will feel it not. He would not know it, if he had been laid in his cradle, or in his mother's arms. Throw a flower or two by his side; like them he withered.

Carry him out to the grave. Gently. It is a hard road this to the grave. Every jar seems to disturb the infant sleeper. Here we are, at the brink of the sepulchre. Oh how damp, and dark, and cold ! But the dead do not feel it. There is no pain, no fear, no weeping there. Sleep on now and take your rest 1

His dust, precious dust, indeed, is there, but our child is in heaven. He is not there; he is risen. I shall think of the form that is mouldering here among the dead ; and it will be a mournful comfort to come at times, and think of the sumating the plan originally devised by him for the destruction of man, a plan that is just child that was once the light of our house, and the idol-ah! that I must own the secret of as sure to succeed, if man lends himself to it, as if no redemption had been offered for him. this sorrow-the idol of my heart. Dr. P. was thereupon introduced to the Bishop, and by him to the Conference. He remarked that he was a by him to the Conference. He remarked that he was a stranger to the preachers of the Conference, but that they would find his feelings towards them expressed in the first five verses of the 20th Psalm: "The Lord hear thee in the day of trouble; the name of the God of Jas cob defend thee; send thee help from the Sanctuary; and strengthen thee out of Zion; remember all thy offerings and accept thy burat sacrifice. Selah. Grant thee according to thise own heart, and fulfil all thy counsel; we will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners; the Lord fulfil all thy petitions." The Rev. John A. Collins moved, That the kind feelings of the Rev. Dr. Plummer, as expressed in the first five verses of the 20th Psalm, be reciprocated by this Conference, both for the Doctor personally, and the pious and respectable denomination to which he was at-tached." The resolution was passed unanimously by a rising vote:

THE LATE DR. GARDNER.

The coroner's jury, summoned on the 3d instant to hold an inquest over the body of Dr. Gardner, after examining a number of witnesses, adjourned over until yes-terday, when they again convened at the jail. In the meantime, Drs. Breed and Steiner made an analysis of the stomach of the deccased, and also of a powder found in his pocket, by request of the jury.

These two gentlemen, yesterday morning, gave the following testimony, jointly, in writing: "Having, in conformity with your instructions, insti-tuted a careful chemical investigation of the contents of the stomach of the late Dr. George Λ. Gardiner, and also of the powder found in his pocket, both submitted to us by you on the 4th instant, we hereby report. That, in the stomach we have detected substances affording the chemical reactions characteristic of strychnine and bru-cin, and from the large portion of the contents of the stomach not yet completely analyzed, we are convinced that these virulent poisons are present in quantity more than sufficient to have produced death. "The powder found in the pocket of the deceased, has proved to be commercial-strychnine, or, chemically, a mixture of that poison with brucin, according to the tests for these alkaloids, as given by the most eminent toxicolo-gists. The weight of this powder is 95 millogrammes. "We would also mention that we have found in the stomach several pieces of paper, one of which was folded at the margin in the manner that druggists wrap pow-ders. Signed, DANIEL BREED M. D

Several other witnesses were examined, when the ary rendered the following verdict:

"We are of the opinion that Dr. George A. Gardiner came to his death from strychnine and brucin, voluntarily taken after conviction and seatence."

as a crooked twig makes a crooked tree. Who ever saw a boy grow up in idleness that did not make a shiftless vagabond when he becomes a man, unless he has a fortune left him to keep up appearances? . The great mass of penitentiaries and alushouses, have come to what they are by being brought up in idleness. Those who constituted the business portion of community, those who make our useful men, were trained up in their boyhood to be industrious. When a boy is old enough to begin to play in the street, then he is old enough to be taught how to work. Of course we would not deprive children of healthful, playful exercise, or the time they should spend in study, but to learn at school. In this way he will acquire when he grows up. Many parents who are poor, let their children grow up to fourteen or sixteen years of age, or until they can support them no longer. before they put them to labor. Such children, not having any idea of what work is, and having acquired habits of idleness, go forth to impose upon their employers with laziness. There is a repulsiveness in all the labor set before them and to get it done, no matter how, is their only aim. They are ambitious at play, but dull at work. The consequence is, they rove about the world, get into mischief, and finally find their way to the prison or almshouse. With the habits of idleness, vice may generally if not invariably be found. When the mind and hands are not occupied in some useful employment an evil genius finds them enough to do. They are found in the street till late in the evening, learning the vulgar and profane habits of the older in vice, they may be seen hanging around groceries, bar rooms, and streets, where crowds gather, but they are seldom found engaged in study. A lazy boy is not only a bad boy, but a disgrace to his parents, for it is through their ne glect that he becomes thus. No parents, however poor, in these times of cheap books and newspapers, need let their children grow up in idleness. If they cannot be at work-make them industrious at any business they may undertake in after life.

Her familiarity with various French and English authors rendered her an agreeable companion for the man of letters, and proved a valuable assistant to her husband in recalling to mind some opinion or ex-pression of an author which had escaped his memory. She cultivated, to some extent, a taste for poetry, and produced several pieces which are still in existence. But it is only in the everyday affairs of life that we can gain a perfect knowledge of the true character of individuals. It was with this peculiar sphere that Mrs. Blannerhassett exhibited an uncommon degree of excellence, and won the affection of all within her influence. She adapted her customs to the society around her, and joined in their amusements and festivities with all the spirit of one accustomed to frontier life from earliest infancy. Riding on horseback was a delightful and healthy exercise, in which she frequently participated. At such times she was made a hell; from he who presented to our usually habited in a fine cloth dress, of scarlet guiless parents the forbidden fruit and temptcolor, richly bespangled with gold and glitter-ing buttons. FIRE IN LOUDOUN.

It appears that the citizens of Leesburg and vicinity, notwithstanding the vigilant efforts of their nightly patrol, are not yet free from the torch of the incendiary On last Sunday morning, between two and three o'clock, the Barn of Gen. George Rust was fired. Through the active exertions of his large number of servants, aided by many persons from town who promptly repaired to the spot, only the east wing of the building was conumed.

The rascal who perpetrated the act escaped on a valuable horse which he took from the stable.

SHOCKING AFFAIRS

One of the most unhappy circumstances which has ever come to our notice, occurred on Bond's creek, in Ritchie county, on the evening of Tuesday, the 14th ult., which resulted in the death of a man by the name of John S. Millhone by the hand of his own father-in-law. It was brought about by a family difficulty, the facts of which, as near as we can obtain them, are as ellows: time since, Millhone, who is matried to a daugh-Some ter of Mr. Richard Aakrum, by whom he was he was killed, went to the east to purchase goods, and while there courted a woman and promised to marry her.killed, went to the east to purchase goods, and while there courted a woman and promised to marry her.— After his return home, the woman wrote to him, prer-sing the fulfilment of his promise; which letters, com-ing into his wife's possession, caused her to leave his home, withher children, and remove to the home of her father. This greatly excepterated Millhoure, who swore vengeance against both his wife and her mother, which he several times endeavored to execute. On one coes-sion, a short time before his death, he assaulted and beat Mrs. Ankrum his mother-in-law, and injured her so as to confine her to her bed. On the evening of his death, he went to the house of Mr. Ankrum, and while there a quarrel was raised between himself and his wife, when he struck her to the floor, with his first, and otherwise misused her. Mr. Ankrum then interfered, and several blows were interchanged, which ended in Mr. Ankrum stabbing Millhone to the heart, causing death almost im-stantly. A coroner's jury was called which returned a verdict of "justifiable homicide," On the following day Mr. Ankrum delivered himself up to the authorities, and was released on bail, to appear before an examining court, to be held at Harrisville, on Wednesday last.— The decision of the court has not at this time been re-ceived by us.—Parkersburg News. ceived by us .- Parkersburg News.

THE CASE OF WILSON.

The recent act of Gov. Johnson, communiting the sentence of Wilson to eighteen years confinement in the penilentiary, meets with little favor at the hands of the Staunton Vindicator. That paper concludes an editorial on the subject thus:

"But the deed of commutation is signed, and it is irrevocable. Fortune makes many freaks un-solvable to us. Trayer, the copartner in the murder, expiated the crime upon the gallows, leaving a legacy of infamy to be inherited by his innocent a legacy of infamy to be inherited by his innocent children. Wilson, equally guilty—tried and con-victed on the same evidence, and before the same jury with Trayer—is left to serve a comparatively short apprenticeship at a trade, and then, if living to be turned out upon the broad earth, to seek a support, it is likely, by the means which brought him to the condition that he now graces. This is one of the unsolvable things which now and then startle communities, and which are perpetrated either in the name of Justice or Mercy.

The Staunton Messenger entertains very nearly the same opinion.

Spirit of Jefferson. BY JAMES W. BELLER, AT $2 PER ANNUM, PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.

CHARLESTOWN: TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 21, 1854.

A SPECK OF WAR.

The steamer Black Warrior, belonging to the New York and Alabama Steamship Company, was seized by the Cuban authorities on the 28th ult, soon after entering the harbor of Havana. The alleged cause of the seizure was that the steamer had violated the custom house regulations of the island by the mode of her entrance and clearance; in other words that she entered in ballast and yet had on board 400 bales of cotton for New York. Her owners protested that she had already made thirty-six voyages in exactly. the same way; that her papers were correct, as it made no difference whether her ballast were stones or cotton bales; or if they were not correct, they were entitled, under the regulations, to twelve hours to correct them. These representations were of no avail The steamer was seized, her cargo confiscated and a fine of nearly half a million of dollars placed upon her owners. The case was immediately brought to the notice of the government at Washington, and considerable excitement exists throughout the country in relation to it. A proposition has been made in Congress to suspend the neutral relations of the Government with Spain, and the matter has not yet been decided. If this is done, the Fillibusters will take possession of Cuba in sixty days. In the meantime it is said the Captain General of Cuba has made an apology to the President, and offered to pay all the damages sustained by the owners. This, how- The Bill in the shape in which it passed is not obever, it is stated, the President has rejected, and has determined to send the steamer Princeton directly to Spain with a call on the Home Government for satisfaction. The affair creates considerable excitement, and the hopes of the Cuba Annexationists are revived and very much elevated.

FROM CALIFORNIA. We have intelligence from CALIFORNIA, to the 19th of February. The political news is not very important. The bribery case, wherein Mr. Palmer of the banking house of Palmer, Cook & Co. was accused of having attempted to bride Senator Peck to use his influence to bring on the election for U. S. Senator -so as to secure the choice of D. Broderick, over the Hon. W. M. Gwin-has resulted in the acquittal of the party accused. The theatre and other buildings in Placerville, were barned on the 30th of January. The celebrated Peralta claim has been decided by the United States Land Commissioners, in favor of the claimants to the extent of 40,000 acres covering the four towns of Alemada, Clinton, San Antonio and Oakland, across the bay from San Francisco .-The emigration of Chinese to California has set in again, 800 having arrived in three vessels. The prospects of the miners were good, and rich diggins are constanty discovered in different quarters. From Lowen CALIFORNIA, there is news of the Fillisbusters to the 27th of January. Forty-five of Col. Walker's band had left him and returned to San Francisco. That redoubtable leader was preparing to march with the remainder on Sonora, ostensibly to rescue the people from the incursions of the Apaches. Meanwhile the Mexicans are making preparations to receive him in warm style.

DOINGS AND GOSSIP OF WASHINGTON Correspondence of the Spirit of Jefferson WASHINGTON, March 18, 1854.

J. W. BELLER, Esg.-Dear Sir : I have but a few moments of leisure this morning, and shall be obliged therefore to be brief in my comments upon matters and things, this week.

The admirable message of the President to Congress upon the subject of the "Black Warrior" outrage meets with approval by all parties here, excent the miserable little cabal of abolitionists, perse, Giddings, Gerrit Smith & Co. You will see by a eport of the proceedings of Congress, that Giddings made the message, the pretext, of a low attack upon the President and his administration, not really because he had any grounds of attack upon the message, or any honest plea to put in for the conduct of. the Cuban authorities, but because he wanted another opportunity to abuse a Northern President, who is a National man, and a National democrat. Judge-Bayly of our State made a brief but cutting reply to him, not because Giddings is entitled to a reply upon any subject, but merely to prevent a misrepresentation of truth and facts from going out to the country. The message will find a hearty response from the people, and Congress stands prepared to back the President to the fullest extent that may be necessary "at all hazards and to the last extremity." The message needs no comment, it speaks for itself. and is worthy of the Chief Magistrate of this great American Republic. The outrages of the Cuban authorities have become intolerable. They have repeated them once too often, and unfortunately the parent government is too imbeeile and stupid to correct the evil, or too knavish to wish to do it. Like Mexico, she has construed our magnanimity and forbearance to her weak and distracted condition, as a license to do as she pleases, with impunity. But like Mexico she must be made to learn "that there is a point beyond which forbearance ceases to be a virtue."

"nine times in ten," under such a condition of af-fairs, the successful candidate is elected by a minority of votes. Hence, we find that this game of an open field and fair fight," is always popular, with those aspirants whose merit is not equal to their asnirations.

Now what is proposed by this meeting in Clarke, which has so excited the ire of "Anti-Caucus," but to give the majority of the people the right to determine who shall serve them as Sheriff, the ensuing term. Already is the Whig candidate in the field, and it is certain he will be the only representative of his party in that contest ; but there are some two or three Democrats spoken of as candidates. If they all run it is almost certain, the victor will be elected by a minority of voles, therefore, in order to give the majority control of this election, the number of candidates must be reduced to two, which can only be done by a Democratic nomination But says " Anti-Caucus" this. "is an innovation on the time honored usage" of our fathers, "which was for the people to select their own agents, without the intervention or dictation of a caucus." "George Washington, Jefferson, Madison and Monroe, were all elected without a caucus." His history of this "time honored usage," is certainly different from any we have read. Save in the election of the "Father of his Country," which was the outburst of a nation's gratitude, history informs us that no President has ever been elected, who was not a caucus nominee. Prior to the adoption of the "time honored system" we advocate, nominations for President were made by a Congressional eaucus .-Mon elected as Legislators, without consulting the wishes of their constituents, took upon themselves the illegitimate business of dictating to their sovereigns, the person for whom they should vote for this distinguished office;-and however deep a hold any man might have on the affections of the people, if he was so unfortunate as to excite the opposition of their representatives, his name must sink into oblivion .--The corruptions which grew out of this "time honored usage," impelled the Democratic party to adopt our "time honored system." Which system, is not. as "Anti-Caucus" would make us believe, so designed "that a few men in caucus must suggest and dictate to the people for whom they are to vote," but that the people themselves, should meet in primary ssemblies, and select from among their number, delegates to meet with others in general convention, and nominate candidates for office. It was in fact

THE MASSACHUSETTS MEMORIAL. The following interesting discussion took place in the United States Schute, on Tuesday, 14th instant, on a memorial, numerously signed, from Mas setts, protesting against the passage of the Nebraska and Kansas Bill :

Mr. Everett presented the mammoth memorial, signed by three thousand and fifty clergymen of setts, remonstrating against the passage of the Nebraska and Kansas Bill. The memorial was laid on the table, and when folded appeared about three feet long by one foot

Mr. Douglas called for the reading of the mammoth memorial presented Mr. Everett, He said it was not respectful to the Senate, and he desired to say a word upon it. He then, in the strongest lan-guage, condemned the statements of the memorial as atrocious slander on the Senate of the United

The memorial was read as follows: To the Honorable, the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled. The undersigned, clergymen of different religious enominations in New England, hereby in the name of Almighty God, in his presence, do solemnly protest against the passage of what is known as the Nebraska Bill or any repeat or modification of the ex-isting legal prohibition of slavery in that part of our national domain which it is proposed to organise into the territories of Nebraska and Kansas. 8th nlt

We protest against it as a great moral wrong, as a breach of faith, eminently injurious, to the moral principles of the community, and subversive of all confidence in national engagements, as a measure full of danger to the peace and even existence of our beloved Union, and exposing us to the righteous judgments of the Almighty. And your protestants, as in duty bound, will ever

Mr. Douglas denounced the language of the mem rial as disrespectful to the Senate, and denied the allegations contained therein. He contended that the preachers had no right to medule in political affairs, and said it was evident that they did not know what they were talking about. He continued in a very violent strain to assail the memoralists, chargcuses rendered for inferior officials to their superiors, ng them with neglecting their holy religion, violatn reply to representations of misconduct. Mr. Houston said he saw nothing informal or nonstrous in the memorial. It was dated the 1st of er responsibility for the conduct of these authorities. Messrs. Mason and Butler followed in reply to Mr. Houston and in opposition to the memorial. Mr. Everett warmly defended the characters of the gners of this memorial and eulogized them as men pure and upright intentions and of the highest ingence and respectability.

Mr. Pettit suggested that the memorial be referred to the Rev. Henry Slicer, Chaplain of the Senate, with instructions to report whether the Nebraska Bill was contrary to the law of God. (Laughter.) Mr. Douglas again spoke denouncing the memorial as an attempt to put the Legislation of the counry under the control of the Clergy, at the same time harging them with the most complete ignorance on ures as the exigency may seem to demand.

EURNING OF THE MONOCOCY BRIDGE.

This important structure, on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, was entitely consumed on Friday last. The fire was discovered about 3 o'clock and the alarm given but all efforts to save it were unavailing. So quick, indeed, was the action of the fiames, that in less than ten minutes after discovering the smoke the greater portion of the wood work was in a blaze, and in less than thirty minutes the burning ruins of the whole structure had fallen with a tremendous crash into the waters of the Monococy.

FIRE! We regret to state, that the same alarm which has fallen upon the cars of our neighboring towns, has at length visited our own, The Stable of Mrs. Shirley was set on fire last night, and burned to the ground, endangering the premises of all those in proximity to it, but by the exertions of our Fire Company and the active aid of others, the Fire was suppressed with comparatively slight damage.

VIRGINIA PAPERS.

A new paper has been started at Front Royal, with the title of Zion's Advocate, and under the editorial control of Elder JOHN CLARKE, formerly of the county of Stafford. The people of Wairen will doubtless give it a liberal support.

The Bath Enterprise has been greatly enlarged, and so the Fairmont Republican, the name of which has been changed to the Western Virginia Republican, and the editorial columns of which display ability and courteous bearing. It is pleasant to note all these evidences of Virginia newspaper Success. EICHARD MAUZY has withdrawn from the Lewis-barg Chronicle, and S. A. B. GILMER is now sole proprietor and editor. The paper is an efficient advocate of Whig principles.

Buren, a proposition which no well informed Democrat will admit; and every true Democrat, would feel his native pride wounded in introducing the name of this arch-traitor into a communication. So far as the convention system has been abused. and converted into a caucus, we join with "Anti-Caucus" in his condemnation; but, at the same time, we hold to the old adage, "that the abuse of any thing, is no argument against its use."

We differ with "Anti-Caucus," as to the "aspirations and motives" of the advocates of this system rest, J. Thompson ; Anne Arundel, R. T. On the contrary, our observation teachesthat among the most invelerate opponents of this system, are to be found disappointed political asnirants and demagogues, who do not possess sufficient solid merit to commend them to public favor. and who can never hope to gain their "selfish ends" by a majority vole or through this system, hence their

How is it with the Democrats? Their condition is truly set forth in the preamble referred to. Several prominent and deserving candidates are before them, and unlike the Whig aspirants, none of them are disposed to wait for a " more convenient season." With such odds against them defeat is certain, for like the Whigs their success depends on their unity. Therefore, if their object is success, there is no other means of obtaining it than the one suggested.

Towards the close " Anvi-Cancus" appears to lose his temper, and exclaims: "Away, then, with the caucus, for all parties. Surely, if neither use it, they will be on terms of equality."

MR. MASON ON THE HOMESCEAD BILL. Recently, when the question was on the reference of the homestead bill, just received from the House, Mr. Mason made the following remarks:

"The triends of this bill, Mr. President, are those who have ar ested its progress to the committee so far as debate has that effect; and they must exerse me. therefore, for mingling in it. I want to say but a very few words The Senator from Michigan says the day has come when this government should cease to derive revenue from the public lands. I should expect the nonorable senator to connect with the expression of the opinion that the day has arrived when this government should cease to become the purchaser of public at the third interview, Captain Bulloch suspec land; for I can hardly suppose that it would be a part of the policy of the senator from Michigan to expend the public treasury in the purchase of public lands, in order to give them away to anybody who will come and take them. I have been impressed with the remark that fell from the senator from Arkansas, [Mr. Johnson.] It may be and doubtless is, that the new States, in which a large body of public land is found are repressed, both in their population and their resources, by the government being a landholder; and it may be that it would be wise, on the part of the government to modify its former policy in relation to the public lands, which treated them as a subject of revenue only. But I trust the day has not come when this government is to be the recipient of property purchased by the whole nation, that the government should held up the public domain, as I understand this bill proposes to do to individual foreigners to come here from every quarter, utterly inacquainted with our institutions, to become the owners of it. 1 cannot imagine upon what, foundation any policy could rest which would lead this government from year to year to purchase, for millions and tens of millions of dollars, large domains of public land, in order that it may then give it to those who will come and take it. And yet such must be the result if the senator's policy is carried out. We must cease to derive a revenue from the public domain, but continue purchasers in the market, I say again that I am perfectly prepared to admit that the time has arrived when the condition of our country is such that it may be necessary to modify the policy in regard to the public lands, but I would not modify it by purchasing it only to be given away. I have not matured any views upon this subject. but it is more than probable, when this bill comes up for consideration, that I shall, if no other gentleman does, offer some substitute for it which will take away, or mitigate at least, the evil complained of by the new States, and yet not make the public lands subject of largess by the federal government-a policy that I should deprecate as the most injurious and demoralizing that the government has ever em-

STIZURE OF A STEAMSHIP.

Washington, March 15, 1854.

The mail steamers running to Havana, which out government and citizens have established in such numbers within three or four years past appear to be eye-sores to the Spanish authorities of that place notwithstanding the great benefits they have conferred on the trade and general industry of the island. Scarcely one of them has escaped insult or obstruction of one kind or another ; and, as the cass invariably turned out, without any tangible provocation. The last instance is that of the Black Warrior, a fine ship running between N. York and Mobile, by way of Havana. She was seized on the 28th ulf., under the following circumstances, as given by the Charleston Mercury :

"It has been the custom at Havana for some eighsatisfactory proposal. THE GARDINES INVESTIGATION.

We observe with unfeigned satisfaction that Congress is prosecuting an investigation into the Gardiner fraud with a manifest determination to unravel the mystery of the transaction and to. bring accessories and accomplices to justice. Mr. Perkins, of Louisiana, deserves the praise of the initiatory movement in the matter. Mr. Elisha Whittlese first Comptroller of the Treasury, has submitted to the Judiciary Committee of the House, by whom the investigation is conducted, a copy of the papers in his bureau touching the case of Gardiner, and Mr W. FIRE IN SHEPHERDSTOWN!

About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon an alarm of fire was heard, and it was soon ascertained that the ase of Mr. WM. BRADSHAW, a very worthy citizen, was in flames. A strong breeze was blowing from the Southeast, which endangered the upper por-tion of the town. No human efforts could have saved Mr. Bradchaw's house, and it was soon in ruins.-Mr. B's furniture was generally saved, though in a demaged condition. The Brick Dwelling of the for next canght, but after great exertions. as seved. Soon a blaze was seen issuing from the roof of the M. E. Church, and in a moment the whole ice was one vast sheet of flame, and the blackened walls alone remain. The dwelling house owned by Dr. E. C. Williams, on German Street, two squares off, was in flames, but was extinguished after great ns. At various times some dozen Dwellings, ables, Corn Houses, &c., &c., were ou fire, and nothing but the almost superhuman exertions of the cit-izens saved one-half the town from ruin. The "Dili-gent Fire Company," lately organized, with a new Beetion and Hose, worked like veteran firemen, and fully fested the capacity of there apparatus, which sted the capacity of there apparatus, which like a charm, and saved a large amount of

We lay down as cardinal principles of the Democratic party-that the people are the sovereigns, and representatives are their trustees or agents : and that the mujorily of the people have the right to select their trustees and agents, and decide who shall serve them. To these doctrines, we suppose even "Anti-Caucus" will subscribe. If then, the people in the exercise of their sover eignty, have the right to "exercise their judgment, man by man, and voter by voter" at the polls, in choosing who shall serve them, can it be denied, that they have the right to "exercise this judgment" in advance by designating in some public manner gallantry of the men will not permit them , when we say the the Ladies deserved to than all. They worked for hours with falacrity worthy of the stronger sex. Re-the loss sustained is accompanied with a chulness for the miraculous escape and the houses sayed.—Shepherdstown Ragister, now appeal to him whether there is any other plan

This is an expression common to both parties when in the minority. They have no hope of success, in a single contest, but must seek for it in the divisions of the dominant party, and we doubt not the Whig party of Clarke would adopt it at the present time. We fear " Anti-Caucus," with all his patroitic efforts, will never be able to do away with caucuses, and we are surprised that his whole venom should be spent on the form of the one proposed by us, while others, far more objectionable, have escaped even his notice. We are frank to admit that we have never been able to comprehend the distinction drawn between the Convention system, advocated. "Anti-Caucus" says that the "system is itself by us, and where a few political or personal friends meet in secret conclave and request a man to present himself as an independent candidate, and pledge to him their influence and support. If there is any difference, in our opinion, these secret caucuses are the most objectionable; and who does not know that such infinences operate on all such candidates .---Who ever heard of a man offering himself as a candidate without solicitation, counsel, or assurance of support from some source, With all the seal and professions of attachment, manifested by "Anti-Caucus," for the dear people we have more confidence in their independence, intelligence and virtue, than he expresses, when he declares, "it is idle to say the people are not bound by the nomination of the caucus, and that they may still rote as they please." For, though unworthy men have been elevated to high stations and the people have refused to take others at their own estimated value, we cannot agree with him, even is so doing, that they have exchanged their own "free choice" for " the spawn and foul brood of the cancus system." EXAMINATION IN DISTRICT NO. 19.

[FOR THE SPIRIT OF JEFFERSON.] Mr. BELLER: I was one of a very fair auditory to witness the examination and exhibition of the pupils of District School, No. 19, under the charge of Mr. J. R. Cone. To say that it was extremely gratifying? would be to express, no doubt, the opinion of every one present. The questions (some of which would have puzzled older heads) were promptly and properly answered, and they embrace a large circle of knowledge. The profound silence and respectful demeanor of the pupils showed the thorough training and discipline they had been accustomed to under their teacher. It was an interesting sight, to see such an assemblage of fair young beings, whose bark of life had not yet been launched on the broad ocean of time. but as yet glided noiselessly by banks filled with flowers, inhaling odors from every breeze. There they sat, with faces happy and innocent, and hearts big with the importance of the occasion. They had festooned the school room, and, no doubt, to them, or the evil, the bright fruitions or the crushing disappointments which would be their portion in this world; and who could not but offer a prayer that they, one and all, might he ornaments to the State, useful to the world, and at last citizens of that upper world where an troubles or no trials afflict, and where their thrist for knowlege may be slaked from A SPECTATOR. a perennial fountain.

THE BRIDAL AND THE BURIAL. BY JAMES MONTGOMERY. ed is the bride whom the sun shines on; Blessed is the corpse which the rain rains on.

I saw thee young and beautiful, I saw thee rich and gay; In the first blush of womanhood Upon thy wedding day; The church bells rang, And the little children sang-"Flowers, flowers, kiss her feet; Sweets to the sweet ! The winter is past, the rains are gone, Blessed is the bride whom the sun shines on."

Hoetical

I saw thee poor and desolate, I saw thee fade away, In broken-heartel widowhood, Before thy locks were grey ; The death bell rang, And the little children sang,-"Lilies press her winding sheet; Sweets to the sweet !

The summer's past, the sunshine's gone ; Blessed in the corpse which the rain rains on."

THE BIRTHDAY WISH. What shall I wish thee !- that the rose Upon thy sunny cheek may stay, Thy mild blue eyes may long retain Undimn'd their liquid ray? This may not be, my gentle maid,-The fairest things are first to fade.

That thou may'st tread the mazy round Too swift the laughing hours! Not so, not so. Alas, we see Where roses are, the thorns must be!

That thou may'st prove sweet friendship's power, Best solace on life's weary way. While hope's bright visions cheer thy soul, That basks beneath love's sunny ray ! May these be thind 1-but better things, For love and hope have fairy wings.

The bright, the beautiful of life Too soon will pass away; The lovely promise of thy spring, May in the bud decay; Then let thy gentle heart be given, With sweet affections all-to Heaven.

SELF IMPROVEMENT.

Young men who have rare and brief intervals of leisure to devote to mental cultivation, have after all, more to encourage them than they are apt to imagine It is astonishing how fruitful even these fragments of time become, when faithfully improved. An hour or even half an hour a-day, devoted strenuously to the acquisition of any art or science, will bring un-expected accumulations of knowledge. All our real labor to muster any particular branch of study lies in a nutshell. The mind makes, at some period or other, one Herculean effort, and the rest is mechanical. We have to climb a steep and narrow precipice at first, but after that the way is broad and easy, where we drive several accomplishments abreast.be both agreeably and advantageously diversified with lighter ones.

BE CAREFUL TO WHOM YOU TALK .- Two young ladies were once singing a duett in a concert room. A stranger who had heard better performances, turned to his neighbor, saying:

"Does not the young lady in white sing wretchedly."

"Excuse me, sir," replied he, "I hardly feel at liberty to express my sentiments being not impartial in the case, it is my sister."

"I beg your pardon, sir," answered the stranger, in much confusion, "I mean the lady

Batent Medicines.

WILL YOU READ THE TRUTH. MEDICINE must have merit and great mgrit, to A stand the test of public opinion. No art of man can galvanise a worthless articleso as to keep it up as a good medicine, if it be not really so. A good medicine will live, become popular, and ex-tend its sales year after year, in spite of opposition.— The people readily find out its virtues, and the fame of them passes from mouth to mouth with more ra-pidity than newspapers can spread it. A Living Witness testifying to the cure a medicine has made for him, is of far more service than any newspaper advertising.

for him, is of far more service than any newspaper advertising. In proof of what we say above, we refer you to HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE, and its effects. Its praise is in the mouths of multitudes. The best men in our country give their testimony to its wonderful cures. Among them we name Hon. H. Clay, Hon. Richard M. Johnson, Vice President of the United States, with hundreds of others. Capt. Thos. Canot—brother to the celebrated physician of the Em-peror of France—was cured by it of a disease of seven years' standing after the skill of all the Doctors of Europe and America had failed to cure.

Europe and America had failed to cure. In fact, the rich and the poor, young and old, in every place, in the city and country, find that the same success attends its use.

same success attends its use. TRUTH IS MIGHTY. A Plain and Unvarnished Statement. We commend the perusal of the extract below to our readers. Mr. Bull is a merchant of high character. SANDY BOTTOM, Middlesex County, Va., } August 29th, 1853. } Measrs. Mortimer & Mowbray-Gents: You may think it strange that I have taken the liberty to write you this letter, but I do so under circumstances that justify it. As you are the Agents for HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE, I deem it expedient to address you this note, hoping it may be a part of the honora-ble means of giving this medicine that notoriety which its merits deserve.

its merits deserve. Being in the habit of vending medicines which re-Being in the habit of vending medicines which re-late to the patent, and regular system, I consider my-self to some extent, a judge of the real merits of many of them. My experience teaches me that "Hamp-ton's Tincture" is a medicine of real merit and intrin-sic value. When I say this, I do not say that it is an infallible cure, in all cases, but I mean to say that "Hampton's Tincture" will favorably operate in all diseases originating from a want of proper secretiens of the gastric juices, bad digestion, and consequently bad deposit of animal matter from that source. I be-lieve that many diseases located in various parts of the system, such as inflamination, Ulcers, Scrofula, etc., originally have their being in the stomach, from tions of the circulation to those parts; and I will be-lieve Hampton's Vegetable Tincture will even react these causes. Having found out, myself, what it is, I recommend it to others in such cases, as I have described, and I it to others in such cases, as I have described, and I have done it upon the "no cure no pay system," and I have yet to have the first bottle returned, or the first objection about the pay. It is a great pity it cannot be more extensively circulated among the people. * I warrant it in the following cases.-Gout, Photometry Inflammations which proceeds from Rheumatism, Inflammations which proceeds from the stomach, Sores, Scrofula, Dyspepsia, long stand-ing cases of Ague and Fever; first stop the chill, and then give the Tincture—the difficulty in this case is not in stopping the chill, but the return of it, this the Tincture will certainly do. In general debilitations, I warrant it, and as I said before, I have procured a trial of it in this way, which otherwise 1 could not; the people have been humbugged by patent medicines so long, that they are afraid of all. This is clearly a stomach medicine, it works all its wonders there, and in all such cases it is a specific, if anything in the world is.

Having given the Tincture a fair trial with myself, in my family and neighborhood, I think I am warrant-ed in what I say about it, and which I do without any other interest than the wish to see it in general circu-lation, and in every man's family, where it ought to

Stabler's Anodyne Cherry

STABLER'S DIARRHEA CORDIAL, STABLER'S DIARRHEA CORDIAL, THE valuable medicines above named, are not em-pirical, but are prepared in agreement with the experience of some of the most learned and judicious practitioners, and are not secret, further than is ne-cessary to protect the proprietors and those who use them from loss and imposition, as the component parts have been made known, confidentially, from time to time, to perhaps 500 Physicitas !!! in Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia, Ohio, and other placen-all of whom, without a single exception, have spuroved of the formula, and most of them acknowledge that they are the best remedies that they have ever known for the cure of the diseases for which they are recom-mended. Our confidence in the excellence of these medicines, added to our desire to avoid the just preju-dice of the medical profession against secret and quack-mostrums, induced us to adopt this candid course.---We append a few of the notices we have received from Physicians:

From Dr. Wn. H. Farrow, Snowhil, Md. GENTLEMEN-I have frequently in my practice pre-scribed your "Stabler's Anodyne Cherry Expecto-rant" and "Diarrhyza Cordial," with great satisfic-tion to myself, and to the entire relief of auch diseases as they profess to cure. I consider them happy com binations of some of our most valuable and safe thera-peutical agents, and must be of infinite worth to the afflicted and mankind at large. In furnishing the medical profession with these active and concentrated preparations, so convenient for administration, and of a standard quality, you have rendered them an emi-nent service, and I can do no less than earneally recom-mend these preparations to practitioners, and especial-ly in the country, where the impurity of commercial Drugs is one of the greatest obstacles to the success of the Physician.

"I have given your Expectorant and Diarrhea Cor-dial a fair trial, and am delighted with their effects, dial a fair trial, and an delighted with their effects, never having had them to fail in a single instance. I shall take pleasure in recommending them. We have been favored with a writter certificate, cheerfully given by numerous Medical gentlemen, in Maryland, Virginia and Ohio, which alone should con-vince the most doubting, that these are really "Good Medicines;" after stating that they are acquainted with the composition of both the Expectorant and Cor-dial, and that they have administered them to their patients, they testify "that they are remedies of great value, safe, efficient and well worthy of the patronage of the Profession and the Public, that they are more reliable than any other proprietary medicines with
