The many thousands cured at this Institution, and the very extensive practice of Dr. Johnston (ex 'ed-ing all others) is a sufficient guarantee that he is the only proper Physician to be consulted. Dr. Johnston, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, I ondon Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose tife has been spentin the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadel-phia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most as tousishin-cures that were ever known. Many troubled touishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with a ringing in the cars and head when askeep, great nervoucness, b ing alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended some-times with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

A Certain Disease.

A Certain Disease. When the misgaide land impudent votary of ph .-sure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful das-ease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from apply-ing to these who, from elucation and respectability, can alone befriendhim, delaying till the constitutional symptom of this horrid disease make their appearance, which as the action and respectations. such as alcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deaf-ness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face, and extremities, progressing on with feightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose full in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisera-tion, till death puts a period to their dreadful suffer-ings by sending them to "that bourne from whence n, traveller returns." To such therefore, Dr. JOHN-STON ple i ges himself to preserve the most inviolable sucrecy, and from his extensive practice in the first hospitals of Europe and America, he can confidently recomm ind the most safe and speedy cure to the unfortunate victim of this horrid disease. It is a m lancholy fact, that thousands fall victims to this dreadful discase, owing to the unskillfulness or ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, ruin the constitution, and either send the unfortunate sufferent oan untimely grave, or makes the residue of his life miscrable.

Poetry.

The locks upon her lovely brow -Rest with a sweet, fantastic lightness : And in her eve's bewitching glow, We dream of Heaven, and all its brightness.

Her voice is like the song of birds When spring puts forth her fairest flowers: And sweetly flow her graceful words As flows a brook through summer bowers.

Over her mild, angelic face, The rays of soul are ever beaming: And ber sweet form's surpassing grace Excels the poet's wildest dreaming.

Look on her soft and snowy hand, Remark each straight Patrician finger: And, as upon a fairy's wand,

Your eye would there forever linger. Like the young fawn's, her tiny foot Touches the earth with fairy motion: Or, like a little wavelet, mute

Upon the stormless breast of ocean.

Oh! for some spell of magic power, Some lamp-Arabian and enclianted-To bear me to that gentle flower For whom my soul so long hath panted.

Alas! three thousand stormy miles-Three thousand miles of stormy water. Debar me from the spot where suiles Virginia's fairest, rarest daughter !

But, if that Eagle, which was seen Once on a tisle, by Harper's Fewry, Would lend his golden wings, I ween This drooping heart would soon be merry.

Oh! swifter than his swiftest flight-Cleaving the calm or stormy Heaven; Regardless of the day or night, Unmindful of the morn or even.

Like to the lightning's vivid flash, Like to some wild thing driven frantic-I'd fling me, at a single dash, Across the broad, storm-vex'd Atlantic.

will be cloaked in a secrecy similar to that which now conceals Know Nothingism. The world's Con-vention of Abolitionists, at London, recommended, the formation of anti-slavery societies in the South-ern States. Popular sentiment opposes a formidable and insuperable barrier to the public execution of this plan. But when the operations of the parties, have become secret, how soon may we not expect such an organization as the World's Convention has before the world's Convention has have become secret, how soon may we not expect such an organization as the World's Convention has advised? We respectfully and earnestly beg you to consider whether any good which this organiza-tion may be expected to effect, can compensate for the least of the evils that may follow in its train. What have we to expect from the action of this party upon those other subjects which the Demo-cratic party has been accustomed to regard as so important in the Administration of the Federal Gov-ernment? After the ardnous contests which we have invaluationed for so many years—inst as the Democraternment? After the arduous contests which we have maintained for so many years—just as the Democrat-ic policy is fully established, and the country is gladdening under its influence—shall we blindly els-vate into power a party which may revolutionize the whole system? However carefully they may conceal their political views, it cannot be denied that this party is principally composed of the same materials which, combined under a different name, have been heretofore in opposition to the Democratic party. The same indiscriminate hostility to nata-ralized citizens that now distinguishes Know Noth-ingism, characterized the Federal party in the times of John Adams and of the Hartford Convention— The Democracy, under the lead of Jefferson and of Madision, have successfully encountered in heretofore, The Democracy, under the lead of Jefferson and of Madison, have successfully encountered it heretofore, and are not afraid to meet it again. The annihila-tion of the Democratic party in the Union is a lead-ing object of the Know Nothing organization. Fluah-ed with its Northern triumphs, it comes here upon Virginia soil to encounter a party that wears the insignia of its victories through half a century, and that has never known defent. Whenever disaster has overwhelmed the Democracy of the Union, they have always look d to the Party in Virginia to re-trieve the fortunes of the day. Once more we are have always look d to the Party in Virginia to re-trieve the fortunes of the day. Once more we are called to perform that duty. If we arrest the pro-gress of this new enemy, and lift the trailing banner of our party, we rally the Democracy of the confed-erncy for a successful struggle in the Presidential con-test of 1356. If we are defeated in Virginia, we dis-appoint the hopes of the best friends of the Constitu-tion. We are looked to with hope or with far by the whole confederacy. Let the Democracy of Vir-ginia be equal to the emergency. JOHN RUTHERFORD, CHARGING.

Terrible Excitement in a Church While a very large andience of some twenty-five hundred persons were assembled, on Sunday evening last, in the St. Mary's (Catholic) Church at Oswego, New York, an alarm was given that the church was on fire. A scene of intense excitement ensued, which is thus described by the Palladium: "A panic instantly seized the whole audience, the crowd at the door rushed with terrific fright back towards the altar, trampling and crushing each other in the most frantic manner. Women screamed and fainted, children screeched with terror, men rushed to the windows and dashed through them, carrying sash and all; women and men were seen rushing across the tops of the pews to the rear of the building-presenting a scene of confusion, fright and terror, that is totally indescribable. "The dense mass in the aisles was forced back toward the altar with irresistible power, in hopes of getting egress through the vestry, and a large numher succeeded in getting out that way. #### The Oath at Valley Forge.

It was at Valley Forge that Washington I order of Congress administered the oath of allegihas maintained a permanent existence coeval with our present Constitutional system. The history of our party is so fortunately identified with the history of our country, that the prosperity and glory of the one have been coincident with the success of the other. The fact that its leading measures are now in full operation, and have been sanctioned repeatedly by the approval of the country, and that no open organization now opposes them, stamps it as the Constitutional party of the Union, and renders it unnecessary to set out here in detail its principles, already so familiar to the people of Virginia. In me carcer of its history, the Democratic party has to encounter the oppositon organized in different forms, and bearing different designations." So far, it has overpowered all resistance, and annihilated the national organizations that have opposed it .-The Whig party, which for some years past has combined the elements of antagonism to Democracy, has apparently succumbed. The opposition scems once more to be arraying itself in new forms and under new names. Taught by past experience, those who oppose the Democratic party dare not risk them-selves any longer upon a fair comparison of principle and policy before an enlightened popular judgment. We have to meet, in the impending canvass, a party which avoids an open encounter, and withdraws from public observation its, discussions of political topics and its deliberations upon public affairs. This new party artfully adapts its appeals for votaries to the national and religious prejudices of the country, while it proposes to retain, by the most rigid and imposing party discipline, those who may be entic-ed into its ranks. If it succeeds in the effort to ed into its ranks. If it succeeds in the choir to obtain control over the Federal Government, it indist use its powers for purposes not now disclos-ed-perhaps not contemplated by many of its adhe-rents. It must have its measures upon the great subjects which are so frequently agitated in Con-gress-the Tariff, the Finances, the Public Lands, Internal Improvements, and the Constitutional rights of the slavcholders. It can have no measures of material importance relating to the avowed objects of its organization-the immigrant and Catholic population. If it goes into power, it goes with purposes unavowed and unknown on those great subjects concerning which its action may be of the last consequence, while it flatters the public prejudices re-specting subjects upon which it can really accomlish little or nothing. The Federal Government, with all its departments combined, can apply no effective remedy for the alleged evils incident to the residence of the immigrant population within our limits. The naturalization laws may be amended or repealed. But irrespective of those laws, the most valuable privileges may still be granted to the alien by the State Governments. The right of residence, the right to acquire and hold lands, the right of suffrage, may all e testowed upon the alien by the State authorities, without regard being had to the naturalization laws. The power to refuse residence to the immigrant population appropriately belongs to the State governments. The power of the Federal Government to expel any portion of the alien population, whose residence is permitted by the State Government, was indignantly repelled by the Republican party in 1798. The celebrated alien law provided for the expulsion of a portion of the resident aliens. Both Virginia and Kentucky denounced the law as an unconstitutional usurpation. In the address to the people of Virginia accompanying the resolutions of 1793, it is emphatically declared that " there is noth-ing in the Constitution distinguishing between the power of a State to permit the residence of natives and aliens. It is, therefore, a right originally possessed and never surrendered by the respective States, and which is rendered dear and valuable to Virginia, because it is assailed through the bosom of the Constitution, and because her peculiar situation renders the easy admission of artizans and laborers an interest of vast importance to her." The fourth Kentucky Resolution of 1798-drawn by Mr. Jefferson-asserts " that alien friends are under the jurisdiction and protection of the laws of the State wherein they are: that no power over them has been delegated to the United States, hor prohibited to the individual States, distinct from their power over citizens." Mr. Madison's Report of 1799 maintains similar positions. It is presumed that this exposition of the Constitutional powers of the State and Federal Governments, over this subject, will not be questioned in Virginia at this day. Each State has the exclusive right to determine for itself, to what extent the residence of alien immigrants in its limits shall be permitted. The governments of the respective States alone have the right to refuse residence to such of the immigrant population as may be considered objectionable by them. While some of the advocates of a latitudinarian construction of the States are uniting in an assault upon the vital inter-Federal authority contend that the power of the ests of the South, ought we to abandon the vigi-States over the admission of aliens is limited in cer- lant care of our own affairs, in a gratuitous effort to a Protestant achievement, and Protestantism in Virginia rudely despoils itself of the fairest ornament with which it is decorated by history, when it vio-lates the letter or the spirit of that celebrated law. The men who now seek to renew the doemas of religious intelerance, pay an appropriate homage to the virtue and intelligence of this country, when they conceal themselves from public observation .-Those who are airaid to meet the Roman Catholic arguments in the field of fair discussion, may well be alarmed at its anticipated progress; but its more intelligent opponents will regard with composure what they consider its errors, so long as reason is left free to combat them. For every Roman Catholic Priest in the United States, there are some 25 Protestant preachers; for every Catholic altar, there are 30 Protestant pulpits. Scarcely one-twentieth part of the population of the Union is attached to the Roman Catholic religion. If Protestantism is not sale with these heavy odds in its favor, itsascendancy will not be maintained by persecutions and civil disabilities imposed upon its opponents .-Know Nothingism may do more to advance the Catholic cause than all its Priesthood, and place Catholicism on the right side and Protestantism on the wrong side of the great question of Religious Liberty, by a course so illiberal and unwarrantable.

This is attempted to be justified by an absurd exaggeration of the political influence of Catholicism in this country. Mr. Chandler, of Pennsylvania, addressing the House of Representatives a few weeks since, declared that lie know of but one Catholic besides himself, who was a member of that House of Cougress. We may then, at least, proncunce the Legislative Department to be tree from Catholie control. There ecems to be no occasion to organize a new party to protect that branch of the Federal Government, and the Catholic influence is equally feeble in the Executive and Judicial Departments. What then can Know Nothingism accomplish upon the subjects which it undertakes to agitate? It may expel from the Executive department a few naturalized citizens who are incumbent, of office-but as nine-tenths of the Faderal offices are said to be already filled by native citizens, that can scarcely be an object worth the attention of a national party. Those who originated and expect to control this organization, must have other and undivided objects in view, Temporary prejudice and excitement on the subjects of Foreignism and Catholicism may serve to place them in power. How will they use power when so acquired ? We may well recall the eloquent warning of a great English statesman, and beware of "so trying a thing as new power in new persons, of whose principles, tempers and dis-positions we have little or no experience, and in situntions where-those who appear most stirring on the scene may not be the real movers." this new party expected to do upon those great subjects of practical interest to which we have before referred? The elections in which they have already triumphed afford us sufficient data to infer their upon the most important of these subjects--SLAVERY. Know Nothingism has had its origin and growth in those quarters of the Union where Abolitionism is most powerful. At the very instant that Know Nothingism has swept over the non-slaveholding States, Abolitionism has acquired an ascendency to which it never before aspired. Every election in which

Northern Know Nothingism has triumphed, has enuted to the benefit of Abolitionism. Every individual whom the Northern Know Nothings have elected to either branch of the Federal Legislature, is committed to the most violent views of the Abolitionists. They have prostrated, wherever they had the power to do so, the same men whom the Abolitionists wished to prostrate. They have sustained every man whom the Abolitionists wished to save. Know Nothingism, in the ascendant throughout the non-slaveholding States, does not elevate into power a single friend to the South. No solitary exception breaks the gloomy uniformity of the scene .-Everywhere they are doing the work which Aboli-

tionism has been unsuccessfully attempting for years. And yet we are required to believe that they were not organized to perform this part, but only to do those other things which, as we have endeavored to show, no such party can effect. It must be apparent to every intelligent observer that the anti-slavery sentiment now domineers over the public mind in the non-slaveholding States. In all the recent elections in that quarter of the Union, the ordinary political issues have been made subordinate to the slavery subject. Is it not surprising that Southern men should, at such a moment, be expected to waive this issue, and elevate a new party into power, without even inquiring their purposes upon this subject? Just at the time when the Northern

The right to acquire and hold real estate, and the right of suffrage, are equally subject to State au-thority. The powers of the States over these subjects have been too often exercised and too generaly admitted to need any discussion at this time .--Probably all the States permit resident aliens to acquire and hold real estate prior to naturalization -Virginia certainly does. Some of the States conin partisan contests. How can you complain when it is practiced upon yourselves by your own confederates? Know-Nothingism does not pretend to disfer the right of suffrage upon aliens who have declared their intention to become citizens, while others require them to be fully naturalized before close to its Southern adherents its designs upon any of the questions concerning which Federal Legisla-tion can really affect Southern interests. Will you they are allowed to vote. The whole subject of suffrage is exclusively regulated by the State constitu-tions. SIXTE DAY, March 13,-Conference met at 9 0' clock, Bishop Waugh in the Chair. Minutes read and approved. Bishop James introduced to the Conference Rev.

Diron H. Louis, (Indian,) of the Indian Mission ance of the Church South, Rev. Mr. Dugan, of N. E. Conference, and Rev. Mr. Atwood of the Phila-delphia Conference.

Rev. R. S. Vinton presented a paper from J. F. Hay, setting forth the condition of Cottage Hill Fe-male College, York, Pa, and after being read was referred to the Committee on Seminaries. The Conference now proceeded to the examination of the character of effective Elders, and the name of Rev. S. V. Blake being called, represented the condition of his district as pretty good. The number of conversions during the year was 500.

A communication was received from Rev. J. Mc-Clintock, editor of the Methodist Quarterly Review, in which he states that the number of paying subscribers were not sufficient to pay the expenses of is publication-that the number of subscribers is only 1,500-five hundred less than is necessary to sustain it. The causes of its limited circulation the editor next referred to, and concluded by urging the preachers to interest themselves in extending te circulation.

On motion of Rev A. A. Reese, the letter was referred to a special committee of three, to be ap-Pointed by the chair. Rer. J. A. Collins called the attention of the Conference to some lithographed likenesses of Rev. Al-fred Griffith, which he considered excellent, and could be procured for one dollar apiece. He remarked that the proceeds arising from the sale was to liquidate a debt upon the parsonage property of the Ryland Chapel Congregation, Washington city. Bay, Messre, Maddox and Carsner, of the Philadelphis Conference, were introduced to the Confereace by Bishop Janes.

The Stewards now proceeded with the call for elements, in the effective ministry, on the Confer-ence funds; this done, the claimants among the supernumerary ministers were called; and then ong the superannuated members; and concluded with the call of the widows and orphans of those preachers who have fallen in the work. The claims of Revs. Mezsrs. Thomas and Billman were disallowed. The Conference and ten cent. collections were now called for, and when gone through with, the Conference took up the 2d question in the general minutes, viz: Who remain on trial? The following named ministers were called under this question, and continued on trial :- J. M. McGarrh, N. Cole burn, S. Creighton, J. F. Porter, R. E. Wilson, R. A. Bothwist, J. E. Wasson, J. W. Stout.

Rev. W. E. Buckingham asked, and the Conference granted him a location. The hour of adjournment having arrived, several notices were announced, among which was the fol-lowing by Rev. Robert Cadden: All the preachers who are opposed to the use of febacco, will meet in the basement of Exeter street Oburch to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock, to form an enti-tobacco society. Conference adjourned to meet at 9 o'clock to-mor-

LATER FROM EUROPE.

Arrival of the Pacific--Ten Days Later Intelligence--The British Ministry Re-Canstructed. NEW YORK, March 14 .- The steamship Pacific has just arrived from Liverpool, bringing ten days later intelligence than that by the last steamer.

She brings 81 passengers. She arrived out at Liverpool on the 23d.

The intelligence is highly interesting, and in some points quite important.

England. Great distress has been experienced in England from the severity of the winter. Great riots have taken place among the unemployed in London and Liverpool, but the weather having changed, shipping was arriving which would furnish employment and prevent further disturbances. On the 19th ult., Royal assent was given to the North American Fisheries bill. Debate in Parliament.

An interesting debate arose in Parliament upon the question of going into committee on the army estimates. Lord Palmerston contended that the sufferings of the army in the Grimea arose from physi cal causes in the power of no man to control. The sufferings were not confined to the British army .-The Russian list of sick and wounded amounted to Lord Palmerston announced that Earl' Eucan had been re-called in consequence of his differences with Lord Raglan.

It was deemed not advisable to lay before the flouse the correspondence between Great Britain and the United States on international arrangements, during a time of war. It was howeve stated that the two countries are on the most friendly terms.

Lord Palmerston's Ministry Fallen. Lord Palmerston's Ministry has fallen to pieces .-The resignation of Graham, Gladstone and Herbert was ostensibly on account of the passage of Mr. Roebuck's motion. Private squabbles in the Gablnet were also believed to be the cause. Report says that Roebuck's party will not rest satisfied without the impeachment of Lord Bagian and one or more of the Ex-Ministers. No important change was made except that

Lord John Russell has accepted the Colonial Secretaryship. Sir Charles Nead takes the place of Sir James Graham as first Lord of the Admirality. The Peace Conference.

The Vienna Conference was to be opened in few days. All parties profess a desire for peace. The members of the Government express confi dent hopes that the pending negotiations will lead bonorable peace, although war measures to an continued to be actively prosecuted all over Eu-

Affairs are unchanged. Lord Raglan is reported to have resigned, and General Lucan has been recalled. The Russians were actively engaged in fortifying their positions, especially on the right flank. Se-bastopol is now considered more impregnable than t has been since the commencement of the siege. Thousands are still at work strengthening the fortresses and other points. Louis Napoleon seems determined to proceed the Crimea. England and Austria advise him to stay at home.

The report is that Russia has declared war against Sardinia, but it needs confirmation. Tuscany has joined the Western Powers but Na-and financial condition as good, and the number of conversions from five to eight hundred. Conference then adjourned to meet at 9 o'clock to-

I TTOW. PIGHTE DAY, March 15 .- Bishop Janes at 9 o' clock, took the chair, and devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. G. Bergstresser. Minutes were read and approved.

A paper was presented by Rev. Thomas B. Sargent from the Quarterly Conference of the Northemberland Circuit, requesting the Baltimore Conference to admit Rev. Mr. Dawson into communion with the body. This minister was expelled the church about thirty-three years ago, on account of aileged immoral conduct; but as the subsequent testimony of the woman upon whose evidence he was deposed contradicts her former testimony, and econits him of all blame, the authorities of that eircuit think he should be again clothed with min-isterial powers. Objection was made, and as the paper would likely excite protracted discussion, it was withdrawn.

An examination of effective Elders was then reramed, the Northamberland district, under the charge of Rev. Thomas B. Sargent, being in order. This gentleman, in his usual pleasing manner, gave s good account of the churches, therein, both in things temporal and spiritual, and the prospects were that a continual increase of membership would be realized.

Rev. Aquilla A. Reese, presiding elder of the Carlisle district, succeeded Mr. Sargent, and spoke succinctly of the preachers working in that district. all of whom sustained good characters as effective and useful men in the ministry.

Bishop Waugh here introduced Rev. Mr. Given, of the New Jersey Conference, and Rev. Mr. De Hass, of the Pittsburg Conference.

On motion of Rev. John A. Collins, Rev. S. Bell. of the Methodist Protestant Church of Concord Circuit, was admitted into the connection as a local deacon, provided he take the ordination vows. Rev. John A. Collins here introduced a copy of a work written by the late and eminent man Robert Hall, M. A., of England, with the following title: "On Terms of Communion, with a particular view in the case of the Bishops and Paedo Baptists." He proposed to refer the work to a committee of five to be appointed by the chair, to report upon the propriety of its publication by the Methodist Epis-sopal Book Concern, with such modification as may render it more acceptable to the polity and general economy of the Methodist. The committee, to whom was referred the com munication emanating from the Staunton Fedale Institute, reflecting injuriously upon the character of the Rev. Aquilla A. Reese and Rev. Mr. Hedge, submitted their report, in which they state that the paper ought not to have come before the conference; that, after a full and thorough investigation of all the facts in the case, they believe that the preachers complained of pursued a wise and honorable poliey; that the communication was signed only by A. D. Trotter; and that the said Trotter was undoubtedly misled by erroneous statements. The report was unanimously adopted. Conference then adjourned with singing the Doxelogy, closing with prayer by Rev. Joseph A. Ross. The afternoon session of Wednesday saved Con-ference the time of a morning sitting, as it transacted considerable business, especially of a financial character. Rev. Henry Slicer presided with ability. and business was dispatched promptly and quickly. The session was opened with devotional exercises by Rev. Isaac Collins, and closed with the doxology and benediction by Rev. Charles B. Tippett.

Fearful gencontre with a Bear. On the 28th ult, a citizen of Morgan county was hunting on the Cacapon mountain, when his attention was drawn by the barking of his dogs, to a ledge of rocks. Approaching the spot, he perceived some object which appeared to be the head of some animal. He raised his rifle and fired, and immedistely a huge bear came rushing upon him. What ensued, is thus described by the Bath Enterprise :

The hunter attempted to defend himself with his empty gun; this the bear threw from him with a stroke of its paw and hurled him upon the ground and bit him severely. The hunter then called his little brother of the sick child a shilling, and told dogs to his assistance, which engaged the attention | him to take it to some person who would give him of the earaged animal and enabled the prostrate man the worth of it in good rich milk for his sick little in his feet. He then had recourse to his tom-

From Sebastopol.

The weather had moderated at Sebastopol. The snow had almost disappeared, and the health of the army was better. The siege operations were progressing with vigor. Orders had been received at Constantinople to repare hospital beds for five thousand men, from which it is inferred that an assault was to be made on Sebastopol.

Baltic Expedition.

The new Baltic fleet is to cousist of 55 war steamers carrying 2060 guns, 5 floating batteries of 5 guns each, 8 mortar ships, 28 steam-gun boats of 66 guns-making a total of 100 ships and 2278 cuns.

Arrival of the Africa-Still Later News The Emperor of Russia Dead-His As-sassination Rumored, but not Credited. HALIFAX, March 15 .- The Royal mail steamer

Africa arrived here this forenoon, with Liverpool dates to Saturday, the 3d instant. Her advices are intensely important, bringing the startling an-nouncement of the death of the Emperor of Russia. Early on Saturday morning, it was announced by telegraph from Lond on, that reliable intelligence of the death of the Czar had been received. It was previously known that his physicians had given him up, and this fact on Friday caused the funds to advance. There is no mistake about the matter. The fact was announced in the House of Lords by Lord Clarendon, and in the House of Commons by Lord Palmerston. No details are known, and there are surmises that his death was caused by assassination, but it is most probable that it was from pulmomary apoplexy. The death of the Czar happened at 10 o'clock on the morning of Friday, the 2nd instant, and was telegraphed with extraordinary rapidity to the cap-itals of Austria, France and England. In England and France, it caused intense excitement. Peace expectations were stronger. The confer ence would open on the 5th.

New York, March 1, 1855. GENTLEMEN: I have just received, through the Hon. Mr. Hibbard, M C., at Washington, your joint letter dated the 24th ultimo, in which you say to me that in some recent political address, delivered in your neighborhood and in your presence, the speaker declared substantially that in the last Presidential canvass "Bishop Hughes, of New York, proposed to Gen. Scott to sell the Catholic vote, who hesitated to reply; when the proposition was made to Gen. Pierce and accepted, and a Jesuit was placed at the head of the Post Office Department. "That Bishop Hughes' demands were assented to by the party to whom he first proposed, except that it demanded a cabinet officer, upon which you hesi-tated; and the proposition was made to Gen. Pierce, and he assented."

And your letter to me is thus concluded : "Believing the statement to be false and basely

calumnious of the fair fame of yourself and the other distinguished gentlemen implicated thereby, we would respectfully request of you to inform us at your earliest convenience whether the statemen of Mr.----, so far as it relates to you, is true." I hasten to say that the statement or state ments I have quoted from your letter, as above, are, in respect to myself, ABSOLUTELY FALSE, and J have no doubt they are equally so in respect to my political friends and opponents in the canvass alluded to. I remain, gentlemen, with great respect, your obe-light servant. WINFIELD SCOTT.

dient servant. Excitement in Pittsburg.

The negroes in Pittsburg, who seem by the imounity with which their outrages are committed, to rule the city, recently conceived that a negro woman who was passing through there in company with a Mr. Slaymaker was a slave, and in the excess of their anti-slavery feelings forcibly seized her at the hotel where she was staying and carried her off. Both Mr. Slaymaker and the woman protested The treaty signed by the Allies and Prussia was that she was free, but despite their expostulations he same as that of December 2d, except the omis- she was taken away and secreted. Mr. Slaymaker subsequently applied to the Mayor and the woman was restored through a process which the Pittsburg Gazette details as follows: As soon as the woman left the IIo'el, Mr. Glass, one of the proprietors, suggested to Mr. Slaymaker that he had better instantly apply to the proper au-ted the case. He also produced the necessary papers to prove that the woman was born in the State of ennsylvania and was free. It was then suggested that if these facts be made known and substantiated to some respectable colored citizen, that there would be no difficulty in getting the woman back. Mayor Volz accordingly called on Dr. Martin Delaney and requested his presence at the Mayor's Office. Dr. Delaney repaired thither, and on an examination of the documents declared himself satisfied that the woman was free. Accompanied by officer Frost, he then proceeded to a house near the head of Webster street, where ten or twelve colored persons were assembled ; a consultation was held and the papers examined, when it was decided that the woman should be returned. The party then started down and got the woman from a house somewhere near the intersection of Cherry alley with Strawberry alley .--Frost was permitted to go to the house. The woman was then conducted back to the City Hotel and delivered in the charge of Mr. Slaymaker. Dr.

Delaney furnished Mr S. with a certificate addressed to "the Friends of Liberty," in which he, President of an association or club, (the name we did not get,)declared the woman as free. She expressed her-self much gratified at being returned. Mr. Slaymaker stated that she was considerably injured by the rough handling she got, and was confined to her bed all day yesterday.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT .- On Tuesday night, while two servant girls, the property of Mr. John Priddy, who resides on 17th street, in the Valley and a free girl, who was on a visit to the premises of Mr. P. were in his kitchen quietly engaged in conversation and the ordinary domestic duties of the place, a sudden and loud explosion took place in their midst which for a time was supposed to have been caused by a gun fired at them through a window from the outside of the building. After the smoke had cleared away, the alarm somewhat subsided, and an investigation was had, it was discovered that the alarming occurrence had proceeded from the explosion of a bottle filled with powder, into which some of the servants had stuck a candle, without knowing the explosive and dangerous character of the contents .---

One of them had an ugly gash ent in her throat by a piece of the flying glass, and all we believe were burned on their hands and the exposed parts of their persons by the blaze from the powder. The powder belonged to a boy, who had sometime since obtained it, and left it in the kitchen until he should have occasion to use it in his chidish

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR, HENRY A. WISE, OF ACCOMAC FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, E. W. MCCOMAS, FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL, W. P. BOCOCK, OF APPOMATOX.

FOR CONGRESS, HON. CHARLES J. FAULKNER, OF BERKELEY.

FOR STATE SENATE, COL FRANCIS YATES, OF JEFFERSON.

The Know Nothing Nominations. The Know Nothing Convention held at Winchester, on the 14th. inst., nominated THOS. S. FLOURNOY of of Halifax, for Governor, J. M. BEALE, of Mason, for Lieut. Governor, and Jso. M. PATTON, Esq., of Richmond city, for Attorney General. Thus presenting to the people of Virginia a mongrel, renegade Democratic and Whig Know Nothing ticket. The Richmond Whig comes out on the very next day with the names of these gentlemen in fiving colors at the head of its columns. And says :

"We think that the people of Virginia, without distinction of party will agree with us that it is in all respects an admirable one, and an exceedingly strong one. We doubt whether a better or stronger one could have been selected. In short, it is one that we can sustain cordially and enthusiastically.— And we invoke the gallant and glorious Whigs of the State, to rally to its support with indomitable real, and with the quickened spirit of the days of yore. A mighty victory will surely be ours, if we will only put forth even ordinary exertion."

of the Senatorial Convention, recently held at Mar-Do the Democracy want any better evidence of tinsburg, on the 13th inst., as the Democratic canthe fact that the Know Nothing party, is the same old Federal Whig party, with which they have so long, and so successfully contended in Virginia, galvanized and resuscitated, in support of whose ticket the Whig "invokes the gallant and glorious, Whigs of the State, to rally with the quickened spirit of the days of yore. And a mighty victory will surely be onrs." Thus not only endorsing the ticket fully, but actually claiming it in plain and unequivocal terms. And moreover, one which it " will cordially and enthusiastically sustain." How beautifully does this contrast with the denunciatory language of that paper, used towards the order, when first organized in Virginia? The Whig then could see the odious and dangerous aspect presented to Southern men and Southern institutions by a party having its origin in the North, and flourishing most rankly beneath the shade of abolitionism. But now, alas! its eves have been closed to the truth. and since it sees a prospect of Whig success they has become dazzled by the brightness of the idea. and it hugs to its cordial embrace the ally of Abolitionism, and arch enemy of Southern Rights. But Democrats are not to be thus deceived : they will see at once the delusion and those who have joined the order will be made sensible of their error, and withdraw from it at once. Discussion at the Court-House. After the adjournment of Court on yesterday, at the earnest desire of the Democracy assembled in town, the Hon: CHARLES J. FAULENER, our present able and talented representative in Congress, addressed them. He made one of the strongest speeches which it has ever been our pleasure to listen to. He acted the part of a skillfull surgeon, desected the poor body of this new Know Nothing party. He showed it up in all its different phases, and exposed the rottenness of its Northern-wing. He proved by example that it has sacrificed every tried friend of the South and in their stead have sent rank, rabid, ultra Abolitionists. He made eloquent appeals to the South and exhorted them to sustain that party which has ever sustained the South, the great, pure Democratic party. He spoke of the name of this new party, the self styled "American party," and then with the most withering sarcasm tore and divested it of its assumed garb, and turned it forth maked and deformed. We will not attempt to give a synopsis of his remarks, for we are unable. After Mr. FAUEKNER was done, FRANKLIN THOMAS, Esq. of Berkeley, an in lependent candidate took the stand. We had not the pleasure of listening to this gentleman, but understand he made a very creditable speech. He is running as a States Right man. ginia as a bulwark against the hordes of misguided fanatics who would deluge the land in blood, are ALEX. R. BOTELER, Esq., followed. It is needmore anxious than ever that the Old Dominion less to say that he made a finished, cloquent speech. should stand fast to her moorings, and thus contin-He is one of the finest orators in Virginia, and he proved on this occasion, what he has done heretofore-that he is an able, adroit debator. But alas ! he had a sandy foundation, and the beautiful structure which he reared, fell to pieces under the resistless words of truth. Mr. FAULENER replied to his remarks and they crumbled to atoms. Mr. BOTELER rose again, but his rhetorical flourishes, beautiful figures, and rounded periods, failed to call forth any feeling, save that of admiration for the gifted orator, and a regret that he had not a better cause to do battle for.

Senatorial Nominatio On Tuesday last, the 13th inst., the Democrati Senatorial Convention met in the town of Martinsburg, and nominated Col. FRANCIS YATES, as the Dem peratic nominee for the office of Senator. The Convention was largely attended, delegates were in attendance from every precinct in the two counties.-We have not received the proceedings from the Sec-retaries, and therefore, caunot give them. Bowann AISQUITH, Esq., of this place, was called to the Chair and SAMUEL ALBURTIS, Esq., and ---- SHRIVER, Esq., Secretaries, Jefferson County voted by precincts, and Shepherdstown, Smithfield, Kabletown and Charlestown cast their votes for Col. gates of Jefferson, the Berkeley Delegates voted This nomination is certainly the strongest which could have been made; Col. YATES is a gentleman of five abilities, high toned moral character, unassum-ing and affable in his manner, generous in his dis-767 position, and sterling and fixed in his political principles. He is a fine representative of old Virginia Democracy, and if elected, of which we have no

He has not sought this position, and if his own feelings and desires had been consulted, he would have much preferred that some other member of the party should have use every honorable means and make every honest effort to secure the triumph of the Democratic nomty which characterizes the whole paper.

FLOWING SPRINGS, March 15th, 1855. Gentlemen :- Your favor, apprising me of my nomination by the Convention which assembled in Martinsburg, on the 13th inst., as a candidate of the Democratic party to represent the District in the Senate of Virginia, has been received. I would be wanting in gratitude to my fellow-citizens of the Convention, and those who delegated them, were I not to say that I cheerfully accept the nomination. This evidence of their good will is the more to be appreciated, as it is voluntary on their part, and unsolicited on my own. I am but an unpretending member of the party, and have not aspired to the honor of marshalling their forces in the coming conflict. If I have been a State-right Democrat from my youth up, and at a time too when it was a reproach in some quarters to be known as such, I claim no credit for having followed out my conscientious convictions. My feelings and sympathies have always been with the masses of the people, and hence I have ever advo cated that system of governmental policy that enlarges and secures popular rights, invites free and open discussion, and trusts to the intelligence of a epublican people. The principles of the Democratic party, based as they are upon the bread foundations of the Constitution, and coeval with the Government itself, will ever appeal to that innate scarcely anything, and no American would have love of liberty and equality which abounds with them. It becomes, therefore, frequently necessary to the American people. These principles and that party have pioneered give them to citizens and to residents of the places us in a career of National prosperity and greatness in which the consulates are located. that has fallen to the lot of no other people, ancient It is proper also that the reader should be acquaintmodern, in the same space of time. And it there be, or can be, any party that can safely coned with the kind of foreigners which receive the apduct us through perils from without, or the internal pointments. There are, it will be perceived, 12 fordangers which now environ us and threaten to reneigners in the State Department, and here is their der in twain our Union, that party is the National Democratic party of this country. JEFFERSOS MACHINE SHOP AND IRON AND BRASS FOUNDER: THE subscribers would return their sincere thanks to the Farmers and the public generally, for their liberal encouragement during the past search, and hope by strict attention to business to insure a continuance in the future. From the extraordinary demand for our justly celebrated PATENT PREMIUM THRESMER, CLEANER AND UACGER.

PATENT PREMIUM THRESHER, CLEANER AND BAGGER, we have prepared for the criming sensori the largest assortment of Threshers and Powers in the Start, in-cluding our improved Tombing Shaft Geer Horzor Power and Cleaner—the only Separator the farmer can with safety place in the hance of his servents.--It has but one small strop about the whole machine, and we warrantit to thresh more grain and break and waste less than any other Separator new in uso with the same number of hands and horses, we also make them with straps, equalled by no strap machine in the country. Also, the very best simple Thresh-er and Shiker with Tombing Shaft or Strop. Our Stock consists of the following sizes, and their prices at the Shop. viz: Feb. 6, 1855.-ts. MILL PROPERTY AT PRIVATE SALE. THE FLOURING MILL, known as the Bloomery Property, is for sale. It is a very desirable and very convenient properity. The Mill has two sets of wheat burrs, and one set of Chopping and Plas-ering stones. The water power is the best in the County off the river, never failing, and it never freezes. During the past dry season there has been plenty of water, and the Mill has been doing its usual amount of work. It has all the advantages of the navigation of the Shenandoah river, but is not subject to any of the freshets. The Mill is situated in one of the finest agricultural portions of Jefferson County. It is capable of grinding thirty thousand bushels of wheat, which amount can be purchased within two miles of the site. There is attached to the Mill TWELVE ACRES AND A HALF of first quality of Line Stone Land, being almost entirely botton, on which is eracted a commodious and comfortable dwelling, stable, meat house, and all other necessary out buildings. In fact the property is one of the most desirable and profitable in the Vatley of Virginia. Terms made to suit the puchaser. ## A Sneer at Methodism.

In his speech, recently delivered at the African Church in Richmond, Henry A. Wise made the following uncalled for, unkind and undescrved sneer at the Methodist Church :

"IF WE ARE TO HAVE A POPE, FOR GOD'S SAKE LET US HAVE A CATHOLIC POPE, AWAY OVER YONDER IN ITALY. AND NOT ONE OF YOUR PROTESTANT PRIESTS KNEELING AT YOUR LOVE FEASTS."

Such an insult as this, voluntarily thrust in the face of one of our Protestant denominations, shows the desperate shifts which men will make to sustain a bad cause. This is the second assault that Locofocoism has made upon the Methodist Church. The first was made by the Southside Democrat charging the Bishops of that Church with " wielding a money influence to which that of the Pope is a mere begatelle."- Lexington Gazelle.
