CHARLESTOWN.

Tuesday Morning, January 6, 1858.

THE MORNING QUESTION. Brother BINGHAM seems determined, if possible, to give some trouble to the powers that be. He declares, in emphatic language, his purpose to oppose the government force now in Utah, and that unless it is immediately withdrawn, it shall be utterly and entirely annihilated.

THE ELECTION IN KANSAS ON THE 21st ult., held under the provisions of the Leocompton Convention, adopted by a large majority, the pro-slavery clause of the Constitution. This is rather an unexpected result, and is cause for rejoicing in the South. But that Constitution is yet to be submitted to an ordeal, through which, we fear, it will hardly make its way.

GEN. WALKER AND THE ADMINISTRATION. Our readers have already been advised of the arrest of Gen. WILLIAM WALKER and his followers in Nicaragua. This arrest was made in obedience to an order of Commodore PALMER, of the United States Navy, whose fleet had been sent to blockade the ports of Nicaragua, to prevent the landing in that country of Walker and his army.

ADMINISTRATION MEETING IN PHILADELPHIA. An enthusiastic meeting was held in Philadelphia on the night of the 28th ult., the object of which was to give some expression of approval of the first Annual Message of President Buchanan. The meeting was largely attended, and was addressed by able and eloquent speakers.

WHAT THE KANSAS LEGISLATURE DID. The late special session of the Kansas Legislature resulted in the enactment of only two laws—one submitting the whole Leocompton constitution to a vote of the people, on the 4th of January, and the other making the perpetration of election frauds felony.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS IN KANSAS. The Democracy of Kansas Territory held a Convention at Leocompton on the 7th ult., and nominated the following State officers under the provisions of the Constitution.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT. A Frederick county, while engaged in butchering last week, met with a painful accident. He was assisting in pulling a hog out of the hot water, when, by some mishap, the tub containing the heated liquid was overturned, and it fell through him from the platform, and in its fall struck over him several times very seriously.

It is stated that the highest speed ever made on the ocean was by the clipper ship Flying Dutch on the voyage to California—over six hundred miles per hour.

CHICAGO IMPROVEMENTS. We copy from a late number of the Daily Chicago Times the following exhibit of the improvements in that city during the past year. From this exhibit it will be observed that, notwithstanding the pressure in the money market, there has been a considerable increase in the amount expended for building purposes over the previous year, showing a steady increase in the business of the city, which is now the great emporium of trade in the West, and which is destined, perhaps, to become one of the largest and most populous cities in the country.

CHICAGO IMPROVEMENTS. (Continued) The increase for last year is not large, but if we make improvements to that amount every year for the next five or ten years, will Chicago stand at the head of the cities of the West? Among the buildings enumerated below, the reader cannot fail to notice four elegant churches: St. James Episcopal, on the North Side, and the First Presbyterian, Unitarian and Methodist churches of Wabash avenue. They are all magnificent buildings, and will compare favorably with any in the United States.

CHICAGO IMPROVEMENTS. (Continued) Of the dwelling houses built this year, many are models of comfort and elegance. In this respect, Chicago, considering her youth, is surpassed by no city in the United States. The aggregate cost of these is $150,000, which amount is included in the sum total of $1,000,000.

CHICAGO IMPROVEMENTS. (Continued) The Board of Overseers of the Poor, at their meeting on Monday week, occurred in the action of the County Court, in its purchase of the farm of Misses HUBBS, Esq. The Board also elected Mr. GEORGE W. BOYERS, Superintendent of the Poor, and Messrs. SUPER and HENNING, Assessors of the Poor.

CHICAGO IMPROVEMENTS. (Continued) The Special Term of the Circuit Court of this County, which was ordered at the October Term last, will commence on Monday the 11th of January next. No Grand Jury venire will be summoned to attend the said Term.

CHICAGO IMPROVEMENTS. (Continued) Granville Newton, son of C. W. Newton of Pruntytown, recently received a terrible wound in one of his feet, by its being caught in a portion of the machinery of the steam grist mill of Messrs. Elliot & Co. Webster. The wound is healing up very well, but the unfortunate young man will be a cripple during the residue of his life.

CHICAGO IMPROVEMENTS. (Continued) On the 21st December Acting Governor Denver issued an Address to the people of Kansas, counselling peace and moderation, and exhorting them to vote peaceably on the constitution question. It will be seen, however, by the telegraphic dispatches if it is true, that civil war is actually raging in the distracted territory, and that the subject of voting on the constitution has precipitated a resort to arms and the shedding of blood.

CHICAGO IMPROVEMENTS. (Continued) A man named Thomas Kady, on Friday last, while intoxicated, was caught by the cowcatcher of the Mail Train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad near Piedmont, and literally torn to pieces. Portions of his limbs, his head and feet were scattered along the track for at least one hundred yards, and it was difficult to find the whole of them.

CHICAGO IMPROVEMENTS. (Continued) The Democracy of the North are roasting out loudly and cordially in support of the President on the Kansas issue. The last Union contains the proceedings of the mammoth meeting in Detroit and a County Convention in Indiana, besides the outpouring in New York City, all breathing the true spirit, and asserting the right doctrine.

CHICAGO IMPROVEMENTS. (Continued) The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer tells of a distinguished Virginia member of the House of Representatives, who was through whose influence he obtained an appointment under the new Department of the House. The new member looked at the man he was about to displace, and discovered that he was a cripple.

THE MEXICAN CONSTITUTION OVERTHROWN. New Orleans, Dec. 25. By the arrival of this port to day of the steamer Tennessee the news is received of the overthrow of the Mexican Constitution of the 18th inst. The revolution in the city of Mexico took place on the 17th inst. The movement was sudden, bold and daring, and was crowned with the most complete success. It was planned by Comandante and other military officers, and was executed with the aid of the people. The latter were incited by the cry of "Liberty, Equality and Fraternity," and the overthrow of the Constitution was effected without any serious resistance on the part of the Government. The latter evaded their duty, and the revolutionaries were proclaimed Comandantes as their Supreme rulers.

THE MEXICAN CONSTITUTION OVERTHROWN. (Continued) There were very few arrests made, though among the few were several men of distinction. A number of the military sent in their resignations the same day. The latest advices from the city are contained in a letter to the Revue des Deux Mondes, which represents everything as going well. The country continued quiet, and the military was in possession of the Campeche troops and in a state of blockade, had been captured by the Revolution: but it was not until the 21st inst. that the military was defeated in further assault.

THE MEXICAN CONSTITUTION OVERTHROWN. (Continued) A general sorrow smote the heart of the community at the recent announcement of the death of John Gruber, Esq., the distinguished citizen of his country, who died on the 25th inst. He was in the 80th year of his age. He was born in Strasburg, Lancaster Co., Pa., on the 21st of October, 1778, and died December 25th, 1857. He was married in Germany, and had several children, who are all deceased. Mr. Gruber was the proprietor of the celebrated American Review, published by him in Philadelphia, and was also the author of several works on the history and constitution of the United States. He was a man of high character, and was highly respected by his countrymen.

THE MEXICAN CONSTITUTION OVERTHROWN. (Continued) The subject of this notice was one of the early pioneers of the press in Western Maryland. He established a German paper about the year 1800, and was the first to introduce the English language into the press of that State. He was a man of high character, and was highly respected by his countrymen. He was a man of high character, and was highly respected by his countrymen.

THE MEXICAN CONSTITUTION OVERTHROWN. (Continued) The following we copy from the Frankford correspondent of the Louisville Courier: A bill to prevent run away matches was reported to the House this morning, by Mr. Houston, of Ohio. It contained a provision that any person who should be guilty of such a crime, should be liable to a fine of $100, or to imprisonment for six months, or to both, at the discretion of the Court.
