POLITICAL.

Political Affairs in Virginia.

Under this head the New York Times has the following paragraph from a correspondent: Party lines are being rapidly drawn in Virginia. Hunnicutt is the acknowledged leader of an extreme confiscation party. Gov. Peirpoint represents the support-ers of the Congressional policy, whose numbers include a majority of the original freedman. Anyhow, we trust that the New Union men, and a third party exists with York Tribune and Forney's Press will make Robert Ould and Judge Crump as representative men, who will join forces with the Mississippi and Georgia injunction petitioners.

The great struggle is between the Hunnicutt and Peirpoint factions, both of which are trying to get the control of the organizing Conventions, with the chances in favor of the latter. It is probable that, if he will accept it. Governor Peirpoint will receive a nomination. The Ould Crump combination, consisting in the main part of discontented grumblers, will probably not make any nomination.

This will reduce the number of persons disqualified to vote-or hold office to a very small margin. The disqualification will be confined altogether to those who volunteered in the early part of the war, few of whom are now living. The survivors are principally of the conscript class, save perhaps a few officers who held ranks from the beginning, and obtained their commissions by

We can assure our friend of the Washing tonian, that nothing would afford our people more sincere pleasure than to "sever the illicit bonds of their unnatural alliance." We want to get back to the bosom of our old mother, for whom we entertain an affection which even the tyranny of West Virginia cannot crush; and we are making the effort which we hope will result in our disenthralment. MISCELLANEOUS. Odd Fellowships

An article in the Memphis Appeal, gives the history of the Order of Odd Fellows, with an account of its origin, name, secrecy, government, religious or moral aspect, benefits, &c It says it is a moral society, for mutual relief and protection, for the best ends, and with the best purposes. It then goes on to add:

" Strange as it may sound to the uninitiated t is nevertheless true that Odd Fellowship is not a secret society. By far the larger por-tion of its ritual, or work, is in print, and is known to thousands and hundreds of thousands; all of its general legislation, comprisi volumes of matter, is accessible to the public eye, and much of its ceremonial is constantly displayed to the public gaze. True, it possesses an unwritten and unspoken language intelligible only to the membership. The heir joint labors and contributions have storbe thrown around these claims-how otherwise could a mutual relief society, in the secular sense of the word, be sustained? This is all the secrecy of Odd Fellowship.

Vices of Genius.

Coleridge was such a slave to liquor that he had to be kept an unwilling prisoner, by Christopher North, on an occasion when some iterary performance had to be completed by certain time, and on that very day without even taking leave of any member of the family the ran off at full speed down the avenue at Ellerary, and was soon hidden, not in the groves of the valley, but in some obscene den, where, drinking among low companions, his magnificent mind was soon brought to a level with the vilest of the vile." When his spree was over, he would return to the society of ther Surratt will be tried at the present term

De Quincey was such a slave to the use of opium, that his daily allowance was of more importance than eating. "An ounce of laud-anum a day prostrated animal life during the forenoon. It was no unfrequent sight to see him asleep on the rug before the fire in his own room, his head on a book, his arms crossed on his breast. When this torpor from he opium had passed away, he was ready for company about daylight. In order to show him off, his friends had to arrange their supper parties so that, sitting until three or four in the morning, he might be brought to that point at which, in charm and power of conversation, he was so truly wonderful." Burns was not less a drunkard than Coleridge. It was the weakness of Charles Lamb. And who can remember the last days of Poe without an irrepressible regret? He who was on the way to marry a confiding woman, stopped in Baltimore, and was found by a gentleman who knew him, in a state of beastly intoxication, unconscious as a log, and died in the ravings of delivium tremens. Douglas Jerrold was a devotee of gin. Byron was a tippler, and his vile Don Juan was written under the inspiration of rum.

Steele, the brilliant author of the Christian Hero, was a beastly drunkard. Men wrote of him that very often he would dress himself, kiss his wife and children, tell them a lie about his pressing engagements, heel it over to a grogery called "the Store," and have a revel with his bottle companions.— Rollin says of Alexander the Great, that the true poison which brought him to the end

A NEW CURE FOR WHOOPING-COUGH.—A discovery made by a French physician has been put into practice in the orphan asylums. The invention is a liquid called gazeol, which is said to produce remarkable results in whooping cough. A teaspoonful of it is placed in an open vial, which is put into a water-bath always kept at the same temperature. Children suffering from the whooping cough are taken into the room, and are cured by inhaling the emanations from the gazeol as it mixes with the air of the room. It evaporates very rapidly.

CHARLESTOWN, VA. Tuesday Morning. April 23, 1867.

THE NEGRO VOTE. The extension of the right of suffrage reconstruction bill, is attracting some attention at Richmond, and other prominent points in the South. The negroes-or the better part of them-seem to desire instruction, and with that view, are calling upon the leading citizens to address them. One evening last week, a large meeting of this class, was held at the Richmond Theatre, which was addressed by Messrs. R. T. Daniel, Marmaduke Johnson, and Wm. H. McFarland. The addresses of these gentlemen were in the main well received, and there is some ground for hope that many of the negroes will take sides with their old masters, in grappling with radicalism. Two parties are likely to grow up-the one composed of the most intelligent negroes of the country-such as are not so easily influenced by the fanatical demagogues of the Hunnicutt school; the other party embracing the lower strata of the black population-the negroes who do nothing all the week and go fishing with red-headed grub worms on Sundays. The first will gather in the barbers, head-waiters, groomsmen, porters and mechanics, of the colored race; the latter will have within its organization the lazy vagabonds who have hung on to the Freedmen's Bureau since its unfortunate organization, and who will be led captive at the will of the officers of that institution.

The aristocratic negroes will vote with and sustain the conservative party, and endeavor to maintain their respectability; the destitute of self-respect and no-idea negroes will support radicalism in all its forms, simply because they are not instructed and not instructible. They know they are free - which means with them that they have no obligations, and the demagogues of the radical party will vote them in the interests of that party.

A convention composed of the latter class, and of mean white men, such as Hunnicutt, George Rye and Hauxhurst, was held in Richmond last week. It was a mean gathering, composed of mean men. In winding up their proceedings, an address to the people of the State was reported, and a series of

The address first recites their wrongs by the "rebels," but says those who fought unwillingly ought to be forgiven. It then declares allegiance to the radical party, and the following platform: Honor and rewards to labor, homes for the homeless, who are willing to work; property and not the polls to bear the burdens of taxation; the property of the State must educate the children of the State; free schools and universal education. It threatens the land monopolists of the State with confiscation if they oppress the laborer, or attempt to control his vote, or molest the school teachers and friends of the freedmen.

The resolutions thank the 39th Congress for its legislation, and pledge the Convention to aid in carrying it out as the only means of early admission into the Union; adopt the principles and platform of the National Republican party; advocate equal rights to all, including the right to hold office, and refuse to support for office any man who does not openly identify himself with the radical party. Both the address and resolutions were adopted unanimously.

A resolution favoring confiscation was, after a sharp debate, referred.

OUR MENAGERIE.

For the past few months, so quietly has flowed the current of events in our county that many of the lights of radicalism, whose brilliancy shone on the horizon of politics, have been lost sight of, and many of our people are amazed at the serenity which pervades the political atmosphere. The head-centres are passive, and things seem to be working with a smoothness which would do credit to the most perfect machinery. Boreman's polite officials are silently, though efficiently, gathering in the revenue, and so harmonious is the progress of affairs, that there seems strong probability of stagnation. We dislike to disturb this repose, but we have endured it long enough. In our opinion, the monkeys need stirring, and we mean to punch them a little by way of divertisement. During the past week we have been making diligent inquiry as to the locality, the occupation, and the disposition, of some of the gentlemen. with an expose of whose political conduct, we have so often entertained our readers .-We know that it will be highly gratifying to our patrons to learn that these worthies are. in the main, in the enjoyment of good health -whoever knew a radical to be sick-and that the wholesome and interesting lessons we have read them from time to time, have not been entirely without effect. It will not of course be expected of us-for such a task would be herculean-to notice by name all the parties who have shuffled on the stage of politics since the spring of 1865. We shall confine ourselves to the magnates of the party in this county—the high-cockalorums, who posish, proving inadequate to the support of the grand drama of West Virginia theatri- pulled up stakes and has already, or is about difference in the course of the Radicals tocals. BALCH, L. P. W .- When success crowned the protracted struggle of our revolutionary fathers, and the haughty King of England had been forced to confess their independence, three officers who had borne a conspicuous part in the Continental army, sought retirement amid the rural shades of Leetown-a small village, which though little, is not unknown. These were Generals Charles Lee, Horatio Gates, and Adam Stephen. These having lived their allotted time, were summoned from the theatre of life, and gathered home with their fathers. For a long period— already been shipped from learning perhaps fifty years—no distinguished charac. Northern cities this season.

ter appeared upon the boards to sustain the reputation which Leetown had acquired as having furnished local habitation for three revolutionary officers. But it was the will of Providence that additional lustre should be shed upon this historic and romantic spot and Leetown became again the glory of her former self. Lewis Penn Witherspoon Balch -not then judge or ex judge-like Lee, and Gates, and Stephen, sought a home, and found negroes, under the provisions of the Sherman it here. In the lapse of years another revolution burst upon the country, and during its progress the subject of our sketch cautious! watched both ends of the road-first spread ing his table for Confederates and then for their enemies, but all the time identifying himself with what he was pleased to term the cause of his country. Near the blowing of the last horn in the contest, his patriotism was rewarded by a seat upon the bench—he was made judge. His judicial career was brief, brilliant and bully, and such an impression did it make upon his admiring countrymen, that he was allowed to retire at the end of a short term, and a requisition had to be made upon a remote county outside of his district to furnish a successor. Strong efforts were subsequently made to induce him to stand a poll for prosecuting attorney, so that the criminal docket of the county might undergo his legal supervision, but the regard which he entertained for a more youthful practitioner-already in the field caused a peremptory desion of the honor sought to be imposed The labors of the bench, and his advancing years, called for rest-refreshing rest from the agitation and stirring of the political

CHAPLINE, JOSEPH A .- During the last entury an eccentric genius, indulging the euhonius signature of "Junius" wrote a series of letters which surpassed anything of the kind that had ever before appeared in the English literature. Subsequently, in our own country, Gen. Lewis Cass penned a document which enjoyed a wide celebrity as the Nicholson letter; and his competitor for the Presidency, Gen Zachary Taylor, wrote the no less celebrated Allison letter. In imitation of these distinguished men, the Senator from this district has written and published a letter -not of national importance-but upon the interesting question of the most suitable point for the location of the county seat of Jeffer-

The Nicholson letter failed to make Gen, Cass President, and we are inclined to think the "X" communication will have the same effect upon Joseph. It may be possible, however, that he will become the successor of Judge Balch's successor, and in that event, "rebs stand from

We have since learned that he is a lineal descendant of the man who, on a memorable occasion, climbed the sycamore tree, of stature; and further that he is a grand nephew of Gen. Tom Thumb, who stood just twenty-seven inches in his stocking feet -The strong resemblance of the prosecutor to his illustrious uncle, it is said, only extends to the physical, and does not reach the intellactual development-the latter in the general's case predominating, whilst with the prosecutor it is not more than equally balanced. He is now in the performance of the functions of his office, and in his addresses is said to imitate closely the Athenian style of Charles Summer.

The little Duchy of Luxemburg is wanted by Napoleon to protect him from Bismark, and the latter sists on retaining it to keep France in check. Hence there is a stir in the camps, two mil-lions of men menance each other, the markets of the world vibrate and fluctuate with sympathy and suspense. Before another autumn it is not improbable that battles, bloodier than those of last summer will have crimsoned the fields and again remodeled the map of Europe. -The Democracy last fall carrid the city of Albany, N. Y., by a majority only of two hundred and fifty. This spring, at a hotly-contested municipal election, they have succeeded by a majority of seventeen hundred, being a Democratic gain of fifteen hundred. This large increase in the Democratic strength in the Capitol of the Empire State, tory in Connecticut, is significant that the tide of revolution is now running steadily in while curtailing our beard. His nasal twang the Democratic direction. Other towns and indicated his nativity, and we learned before cities in new York have done almost equally as well as Albany. A TRIP TO WINCHESTER .- For want of a better place to go, we last week visited Winchester. Found the town where it used to be, at the end of Capt. Barley's railroad. Needing a shave before moving around among the well dressed citizens of the place, we dropped into a barber shop in the basement of the Taylor Hotel, where we made the acquaintance of a pious and agreeable gentleman who runs a tonsorial machine. He seemed gratified to see us, and spoke with great warmth of feeling of our mutual obligations. Inquired after the crops, and with still greater fervor, expressed the wish that there would be no lack of gratitude to the giver of all good for his manifold kindness. Branched off with a dissertation on cleanliness, and its importance to the health of both body and mind. Uttered unmeasured condemnation of Maj. Gen. Hunter for the wanton destruction by fire of the fine residence of his cousin in this county-thought it such a pity. Complimented himself highly upon the general order and decorum which he caused to be observed in his eight by ten shop. Wanted to know of the chances for the establishment of happening so soon after the Democratic vic- first class barber shop in Charlestown. And with divers other matters he entertained us,

DEATH OF CHARLES JOHNSON .- We are called upon to record this week the unexpected death of Mr. Charles Johnson, which occurred at his residence in this town, on Fri Speaking of the application made to day last. Mr. J. was raised in this town, but many years ago he left here for Harper's Ferry, where he successfully conducted the mercantile business until the breaking out of the war. Since then he has been a resident of this town, and at the time of his death was township supervisor. He leaves a wife and several children to lament his loss. His age was nearly 47.

SUDDEN DEATH,-We regret to announce the death, on Saturday morning last, of Mr. Samuel D. Bryarly of this County. The deceased was in his usual good health the evening previous; eating his supper without complaining of indisposition, he repaired to his barn to feed the stock. Not returning, it was volved, co-extensive with free-government in | the impression of the inmates of his household that he had visited a neighbor's; but not getting back at bed time, a search was made about 12 o'clock at night, when he was found in the barn yard, lying on his face, in the last agonies of death, and expired in a few minutes after being discovered.

Mr. B. was a highly esteemed citizen, aged about 52 years, was unmarried, but leaves many relatives and friends to lament his sudden death .- Free Press.

THOSE BONNETS .- If the ladies of this community desire something really handsome to wear over their water falls, let them call at the Millinery Store of Mrs. A. C. MITCHELL & Co., on Main Street, opposite the Methodist Parsonage. The pattern bonnets there on exhibition are models of the latest style, and are really loveable little affairs. They could not well be smashed up without injury to the head, and if caught out in a shower, you can save your new bonnet from harm by laying your hand gently upon it. And then the stock of Flowers, Ribbons, and other Trimmings at this store, makes it a place peculiarly attractive. We have a notion to wish we were a lady, but we are too tall for that. Ladies call at this store at once, and select your summer head-gear.

HORRIBLE SNAKE STORY !- A citizen his county who has returned from a tour in the West, tells of the most horrible menster ever born of woman, and if true, will afford the learned in such matters a wide margin States in which he travelled, gave birth to a monster, having the body and limbs of a with the most deadly enmity! The woman survived but a short time after being delivered of this hideous lusus nature. No account of this affair was given in the papers, se far as we know, but our informant says he knows it to be true—Shenandoah Herald.

—Vera Cruz letters of the 5th inst., report that place still closely besieged, and that the garrison is attacked every night. The vomito, the worst form of vellow fever, has appeared, and the dead bave been buried in the Castle of San Juan De Ulloa, but a norther having set in on the coast on the 4th and 5th inst., they had to be buried in the city. The supply of water is cut off, there are no vegetables, fruit or fuel, the beef is all gone, and the people are living on salt provisions obtained from the vessels.

Nomadic Character of the Black Popu- Sumner's Bill for Forcing Negro Suffrage on all the States.

The New York Evening Post calls the attention of the political calculators to the fact that a great change has been made in the last few years, in the distribution of the negroes as compared with the census of 1860. Apartfrom those who went Northward, and from the increased mortality, the more northern of roes have wandered at will, someting wards the cities, but generally southwards .-Virginia the number of laborers has been re-duced full one half, and throughout the State the negroes have noticeably thinned out. No figures are given in Kentucky to show the extent of the exodus from that State, but there is a general complaint of the loss of la-bor, and the local journals say that all the best field hands are going to the Southern cotton grounds.

"From States South-of Kentucky and Virginia the negro movements is still southward. Within a year the two Carolinas are estimated to have lost from one-fourth to one-third of their negro population, though the Charleston News thinks that only 25,000 field hands have gone from South Carolina, and these went, it says, to Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama, Texas and Florida. Still further South, the Macon Telegraph is confident that Geor-gia has lost one-third of her negroes, and that the loss of North Carolina and South Carolina is still greater. The Augusta Constitutionalist says, 'if a correct census should be taken of the negro population of Georgia a startling exhibit of decrease would be manifest;' and that one of the chief causes of this decrease is migration to the South and Southwest.' Even in Alabama, which would seem, at least in summer, about as far South as the most aspiring or perspiring colored la-borer would desire to go, there is a marked scarcity of labor, which the Selma Times explains by stating that the depletion is due to the agents who are everywhere offering extraordinary inducements to the negroes to go to Mississippi, Louisiana and Texus.' In commenting upon the above the Richmond Enquirer very sensibly remarks: This disposition to migrate will interfere very much with the calculations of the radical politicians, even could they control the negro vote as they hope. As twelve months residence is requisite to voting, most of these rovers will be disfranchised everywhere; so that while the States which they have left will have the white preponderance greatly in-creased, those to which they have gone will Ordered, by the Board of Supervisors that be but little affected. This emigration will vholly above any serious interference through able to maintain themselves without difficulty. Nor will Texas, which has drawn off so many of the blacks, be in any jeopardy of coming under their control, as its white population exceeds the black nearly three to one. It will be seen, therefore, that those who would organize the black population ugainst the whites, would engage them in an utterly hopeless contest in every State in the South. They would be outvoted everywhere, and would besides forfeit that good will which isinfinitely more important to them than votes.

The Pennsylvania Insane Asylum.

During the last twelve months there were 4776 patients admitted into the Pennsylvania Hospital for the Insane, and the statistics of

Of these 2581 were natives of Pennsylvania, 234 of New Jersey, 132 of Maryland, 121 of New York, and 105 of Delaware. The other States of the Union, although all were represented, were small in the number of their citizens. Of Irish born people there were 614; of German, 258; of English, 214.

Of sexes, the majority of cases are men .-Thus 2245 are women, 2431 are men. The troubles of business and the care of everyday ife in trade, a friction of mind from which women are generally free, are the cause seem more addicted to insanity than those who are married, while the reverse holds were bachelors, and 1133 benedicts, while 932 women were unmated in wedlock, 1024 were married. The age at which insanity is developed is generally between twenty and forty. Of the inmates treated last year, we thus find that there were 751 patients admitted between the ages of twenty five and thirty; 701 between twenty and twenty-five, 1219 between thirty and forty. There were five cases which developed before ten years comes fixed until the mind begins to mature, when its growth is abnormal, and the sure rogress of disease is marked and definite. Of all the features in the insane asylum rehe most interesting and the most useful.— So, here, there 337 farmers, the largest numher of any profession. The merchants number next, aggregating 240, and of clerks 201, and of laborers 182. Nearly similar, the avocations of the women are of domestics 244. eamstresses 225, farmers' wives 193, farmers' daughters 112, merchants' wives 142, merchants 126, and laborers' wives 131, Profession is a leading cause of insanity, and to the cares of business the majority of cases may be perhaps accredited. The great ex-cess of the disease among farmers and their families is accounted for by the larger pro-portion of agriculturists than of any other class of working people. To obtain the ratio each profession or avocation bears to the general body politic is the only test of the prevalence of insanity among a special class of producing or laboring communities, and this proportion any reader can easily make. Ill reportion any reade. United the reported by Dr. Kirkbride as the ause of the insanity of 839 patients; intemperance, 334; loss of property, 158; grief, 248; mental auxiety, 305; religious excite-These are the great causes, but there are mi- the Pe

The following is the full text of the bill to nforce negro suffrage throughout the country, recently introduced in the United States Senate by Sunner of Massachusetts:

Whereas, The Constitution of the United States abolishes slavery every where within the jurisdiction thereof, so that all Constitutions, laws or regulations of any State or Terthe Southern States have suffered a large loss from the tide of emigration that sets same, are null and void; and, whereas, the same Constitution in another provision recently adopted declares that "no State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privilege or immunities of citizens of the United States;" and, whereas, also, Congress is empowered by appropriate legislation to enforce these several provisions, which cannot be done without securing the elective franchise to citizens who have been slaves, or who are the descendants of slaves, or who are deprived of equal rights by reason of race or color; and, whereas, further, it is expressly declared in the Constitution that the United States shall guarantee to every State in the Union a republican form of government, and it is plain that any inequality of rights is inconsistent with a republican form of government, and the promises of the Declaration of Independence; now, therefore,

Be it enacted, &c., That every citizen of the United States, although he may have been a slave, or is the descendant of a slave, or by reason of race or color is deprived of canal rights, shall, in every State and Territory, have the right to vote at an election for members of Congress, for Presidential electors, for Representatives and Senators to State or Territorial Legislatures, for all State, county, city, town, and other officers of every kind, upon the same terms and conditions, and no others as white citizens are and may be allowed to vote, and every provision of every State and Territorial Constitution, statute and ordinance which is now, or hereafter may be enacted, and every custom and principle of law heretofore recognized in any State or Territory contrary to the foregoing provisions are hereby declared null and void.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That any person who shall wilfully hinder or obstruct, or attempt to hinder or obstruct, any citizen once a slave, or the descendant of a slave, or not belonging to the so-called white race, from voting at any election where he is entitled to vote, according to the provisions of the foregoing section, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than three thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the common jail for not less than hirty days nor more than one year.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That any person holding or conducting any election to which the first section of this bill is applicable, who shall wilfully refuse to receive, count, return, or otherwise give the proper legal effect to the vote of any citizen once a slave, or the descendant of a slave, or not be longing to the so-called white race, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred nor more than four thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the common jail for not ess than three calendar months nor more than

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted. That the District Courts of the United States. within their respective districts, shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all offences committed against this act, and the District Attorneys, Marshals and Deputy Marshals, of the United States, the Commissioners appointed by the Circuit and Territorial Sourts of the United States, with powers of arresting, imorisoning, or bailing offenders against the laws of the United States, the officers and agents of the Freedmen's Bureau, and every other officer who may be specially empowered by and they are hereby, specially authorized and required at the expense of the United States. to institute proceedings against any person who shall violate the provisions of this act, and cause him to be arrested and imprisoned. or bailed, as the case may be, for trial before such court of the United States or Territorial court as by this act has cognizance of the

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted. That any citizen once a slave, or the descendant of a slave, or not belonging to the so called white race, if he shall be unlawfully deprived of his votë, may maintain a suit against any person so depriving him, and recover damages in any District Court of the United States for the district in which such person may be found.

FATAL AND DISTRESSING RAILROAD AG-CIDENT .- Mr. J. W. Townsend, aged about hirty-six years, chief clerk of the general freight agent of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at Camden Station, was almost instantly killed Wednesday morning by falling from a train at the Relay House, on the Washing-ton Branch. From the facts learned, it appears that the deceased had on Tuesday even ng removed his family, consisting of his wife and four children, together with his furni-ture, from the city to the Reby, where he ntended to reside. Coming back to the city the same evening he returned by the 3.50 train, which does not stop at the Relay House, and on reaching that point it is thought, he attempted to jump off, but the train being at full speed, he was thrown under the train, several of the cars passing over his body, crushing his head and both legs, cutting one of the latter almost entirely off, and killing him almost instantly. It was not until the next train came up that the body was discovered, when it was identified. An inquest was held on the body, the jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts. The oody was yesterday evening brought to the city, preparatory to its removal to New Brighton, Pa., where Mr. Townsend's relatives live. The deceased is spoken of as a gentleman of fine personal and social characeristics, and as an employee of the railroad company was esteemed by all with whom he was brought in contact. His sudden death has caused quite a quite a gloom amongst his

AN ELECTION .- The election for Mayor of Pensacola under the Military bill called out a large white and colored vote. The issue was whether the whites or the color a major in a colored regiment stationed at Pensacola Navy Yard. The opposing didate had been a captain in the Confederate service. All the white men in Pensacola except two or three, and a great many of the colored people voted for the latter. For the former a large colored vote was east, but he was beaten by one hundred and thirteen votes. The colored people who voted for the Radical candidate were extremely indignant that he should have been beaten and threats were boldly made of their intention to burn

The matter became so serious that the reing Mayor sent to Gen. Seymour at Barraneas for troops to quell the outbreak. A detachment of mounted men were promptly sent and the excitement speedily quieted.

A Young Lady returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainty told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invalucircassian Balm, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Genth man can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. REPARATOR CAPILLI. For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the heard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to-three months. A few ignorant prectutioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are laise, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can beard. Their assertions are laise, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the epurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different preparations accertised for the bair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. And there they sat and shelled the corn, And raked and stirred the fire, And talked of different kinds of ears, And hitched their chairs the nighter-Then Susan, she the popper shook,
Then John, he shook the popper,
Till both their faces looked as red

And so they shelled, and popped, and ate— All kinds of fun a-poking, While he haw-haw'd at her remarks, And she laughed at his joking.

And still they popped, and still they ate— John's mouth was like a hopper— And stirred the fire and sprinkled salt, And shook and shook the popper.

The clock struck nine, the clock struck ten, And still the corn kept popping—
It struck eleven, and then struck twelve,
And still no sign of stopping!

And John, he ate, and Sue, she thought-The corn did pop and patter, Till he cried out, "the corn's a-fire? Why, Susan, what's the matter?"

Says she, "John Stiles, it's one o'clock; You'll die of indigestion.
I'm sick of all this popping corn —
Why don't you pop the question?"

MISCELLANEOUS.

Poking Fun at Seward and the Russian - Treaty.

The New York Herald gets off the following lively paragraphs at the expense of Seward and his Russian acquisition of Esquimaux, Iceburgs, Walruses, &c:

Real Estate Wanted .- Wanted to purchase, real estate, in lots of 371,875 square! miles and upwards. Not particular as to location. Apply to W. H. S., State Department, Washington, D. C.

N. B .- All payments made in gold or its equivalent. No agents need apply. Cash! Cash! Cash !- Cash paid for east off territory. Best price given for old colonies. North or South. Any impoverished monarchs retiring from the colonization business may find a good purchaser by addressing W. H. S., Post Office, Washington, D. C. All communications strictly confiden-

C. No questions asked as to title. Proparty may be improved or unimproved. No jection to bull frogs or half-breeds.

The Northwest Passage.-The Kvichpak through Bussian American. "Big thing on

Our Next Eastern Question .- The annexation of Ireland.

Messrs Seward and Company, Washington, D. C. are ready to receive proposals from any prince, potentate or powers possessed of more land than they know what to do with, for the sale of the same. If it is virgin soil, all the better, as the firm can make no use of the worn out and trebly used up lands of long inhabited countries. Some millions of square miles of primeval forest would be especially desirable, as the firm would like to drive into it a few thousand Indians that have lately killed chickens in Uncle Sam's doorvard. N. B .- Walrus parks and spermaceti mines are especially desired.

Sell Your Property and Save Taxes!— William H. S., dealer in real estate, Washington, D. C., is prepared to purchase land, North or South, islands or continents, in large or small parcels, and pay the best cash price in gold. Now is the time to get rid of your unproductive property and save taxes.

To Crowned Heads—Special Notice.— Any crowned heads in need of money to suppress insurrections at their capitals, pensions off their relatives and connections, put down Fenianism, stop reform movements or reimburse themselves of losing expeditions, can be accommodated with loans on real estate, in sums of seven millions and upwards, in gold, by applying, in strict confidence, to W. H. S., Washington, D. C. References exchaged. No person not in actual possession of the property need apply.

Willam H. Seward, having gone into the real estate business, is prepared to buy property, improved or unimproved, either North or South. Land that grows oranges or icebergs preferred. Apply to Washington, D. C. Unexceptionable references as to title requir-

A Few West Indian Islands Wanted .- Any distressed person having a few islands to dispose of in the Spanish Main can find a purchaser by applying to W. H. S., Washington, D.C. No objections to Jamaica. Soulouque and Geffrard will be taken in with the purchase. References exchanged.

Money to Loan .- On landed property, in sums of from seven to ten millions. Apply by mail to W. H. S., Washington, D. C. -The remoteness of Russian America makes it a fur country.

-Mother, where is the man going to sleep? asked a girl of fifteen of her mother, who had just promised a traveler a night's rest in their out-of-the way hut. 'I'll have to put him in with you, and Jack, and Kate, and Sue, and Bet, I suppose, was the reply; and if it is too crowded, one of you must turn in with me and dad, and Dick, and Tommy, and the twins.'

-Little Jimmie, only about ten years old, was standing on the steps of his father's store, smoking a cigar. A gentleman passing, him, with surprise: 'Why, Jim! when did you learn to smoke?'—'Oh,' said the child, very coolly, taking his cigar between his fingers, 'when I was a little fellow.'

-Bishops Andrews, Wightman, Pierce, Early, and Doggett, of the Methodist Epis-copal Church South, arrived at Nashville, Tenn., on Thursday evening, and Bishops Marion and Paine were expected. The meeting it is understood, is for the purpose of discussing important ecclesiastical questions. A boy in Portland, Me., who wanted spending money, recently stole his mother's $150 gold watch and sold it for $30. -The duration of human life in the United States is said to be longer than in any other nation.

- Rev. Charles Read, of the Presbyterian Church, Richmond, is now on a visit to Memphis, Tenn.
