Spirit of Jefferson. DALGARN & HAINES, Publishers. CHARLESTOWN, VA. Tuesday Morning, July 5, 1870. Charles Dickens.

The following from the Prince Georgian, the paper of the largest circulation in Southern Maryland, has attracted our attention as the best obituary notice of the Great Novelist which we have seen.

Charles Dickens has gone down to the grave with seventy-five millions of people mourning for his loss. England and America, jealous and envious of each other as they are in matters of politics, seeking for opportunities, as they both do, to get the better of each other in the march of power and governmental aggrandisement, still recognize the claims of this poor reporter of a London paper, from the coffins of whose ancestors no lusty heraldry was dug up at his birth to add a lustre to the name of the infant scion of that line of nobles whose pedigree was made by themselves, and whose lineage is traced to the creations of their own genius.

Strange Tragedy—A Chapter of Misery and Most Probably Crime. Mrs. Mary Stokes, widow of John Stokes, dec'd., who has been residing on Dry River, in Rockingham county, was committed to jail in this place a few days since, after examination before Justice James McDorman and G. M. Rogers, a commission appointed to inquire into certain facts indicating either that she has been guilty of murder or that she now is and has been, for some time, laboring under insanity.

County Papers.—We beg to remind our Democratic friends in every section of the State of the very important duty of giving the Democratic paper printed in their own county, a liberal support.

REMOVAL. THE undersigned, proprietor of the MARBLE HOTEL in Darksville, Va., has taken charge of THE PARKSWORTH HOUSE, in Idlewild, Jefferson Co., West Va.

Little Savings Banks. "There is no use in keeping a pig this year," said Mr. Positive to his wife. "I haven't a doubt but the pair we fattened last year cost us thirty cents a pound. It's a great deal better to buy one ready dressed in the fall and put it up."

Shun Affectation. There is nothing more beautiful in the young than simplicity of character. It is honest, frank, and attractive. How different is affectation? The simple minded are always natural. They are not affected, they are not affected.

How Monkeys are Caught. The following plan to catch monkeys beats the old trick of pelting the same animals with stones to make them pick coconuts out.

DICKENS ON DEATH.—Mr. Dickens made one of his finest allusions to death when he wrote as follows: "The golden ripple on the wall came again, and nothing else stirred in the room. The old, fashion that came in with our first garments, and will last unchanged until our race has run its course, and the wide garment is rolled up like a scroll. The old, old fashion—Death!"

VALUABLE PRESENTS.—Some one speaking of presents, says: "The best thing to give your enemy is forgiveness; to your opponent, tolerance; to a friend, your heart; to your children, a good example; to your mother, respect; to your mother, love; to yourself, respect; to all men, charity; to God, obedience."

THE FOURTH OF JULY.

Yesterday was the ninety-fourth anniversary of the day upon which that immortal instrument, the Declaration of Independence, was promulgated, and American freedom proclaimed. Up to within a few short years ago, this day was hallowed and revered all over our broad land, from the St. Lawrence to the Rio Grande, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific—but now how changed! The people of the South, down-trodden and oppressed, have but little desire to celebrate the day upon which our fathers proclaimed their freedom from the thraldom of tyranny, when they themselves are groaning and writhing in shackles far more galling and oppressive than ever King George dared think of placing upon the patriots of '76. But let us look forward to a more glorious future. The present ignominious and corrupt government of this fair land has almost run its length; Radicalism is tottering to its fall. Already we hear the battle-cry in the distance, and soon we hope to see the people of the United States rise in their might, hurl from power the blood-hounds now gnawing at the vitals of the Republic, and restore to our once happy country its original glory and renown.

REJECTION OF THE SAN DOMINGO TREATY.

The San Domingo Treaty, upon which President Grant had set his heart, and promised, no President ever did before, to use "privately" whatever influence he might possess over Senators to have confirmed, came to a vote on last Thursday, and was rejected by the Senate. The vote stood twenty-eight to twenty-eight—two-thirds being necessary—and the Treaty was thus defeated, not even receiving a majority of the votes cast. Wm. H. Seward inaugurated the fashion which has now become a favorite policy at Washington, of going down in South America and the West Indies, or up among the tumbling icebergs of the North Pole, upon a real estate speculation. The fact is, the Executive department has become a wholesale Land Agency Office, and the brokers, speculators and vagabondizers find a ready market for their worthless and uninhabitable wastes in the meridian of Executive square. The President acknowledged great disappointment upon learning of the defeat of his pet San Domingo scheme, but measures are already in progress for the negotiation of a new and more acceptable Treaty. The revelations made before a Senate committee of the manner in which this whole business has been managed by the agents of President Grant, no doubt brought the Treaty to grief. A big job and rich pickings were exposed to view, and the extraordinary zeal of the Executive to secure a favorable vote on the Treaty, as well as the indecent and unconstitutional promise of President Grant to use private influence to consummate the speculation, have reflected disgracefully upon all those engaged in the negotiation. It has the flavor of the "black Friday" about it; the gigantic gold swindle of the 24th of September, 1869, in which Jim Fisk swore to the President's participation. We are happy to have an opportunity of offering our congratulations to the Senate for an honest vote. Go on, gentlemen, with the good work. The breach widens and the "man on horseback" is buckling on his sword for another tilt at your high mightinesses.

NOT A RUM BLOSSOM VISIBLE.

The Wheeling Intelligencer, in its account of the Parkersburg Pow-Wow, says:—"The faces that met the eye were fully three-fourths of them young men from 21 up to 35, and not a rum blossom was visible in the crowd. It is worthy of remark here as to the Panhandle delegations, that the bar-keeper on the Major Anderson was disgusted with them. He declared he 'would just as soon have a Methodist Conference on board!' The bar-keepers in Parkersburg will doubtless be willing to second the declaration as to the whole Convention. It was a fresh, healthy, intelligent looking 'sea of up-turned faces' that met the gaze as the large auditory was called to order."

GRAND ARMY RE-UNION.

Of all worthless and unconstitutional organizations that of the Grand Army of the Republic is the most conspicuous. Presided over by a Sioux chief, one Logan, and composed of red-hot Radical adventurers, its continuity is a continual menace to the peace and harmony of the Union. Our history affords a suggestive chapter upon such odious bodies in the fate of the Cincinnati which sprung up at the close of the revolutionary war of '76. Many gentlemen of high military rank and social respectability gave their countenance to this organization, but Thomas Jefferson opened all his batteries upon it and secured the co-operation of General Washington to crush it out. It languished and died in the face of such opposition. It was pronounced and proved to be dangerous un-American, anti-republican, and to carry an ugly sting in its tale of aristocratic poison. The Grand Army of the Republic partakes of the most odious features of the Cincinnati without the brains of the latter or the respectability to lift its treasonable ravings into serious notice. Its annihilation will be accepted as a favorable auspice for the perpetuity of free institutions. In the meantime a re-union of the G. A. R. has just occurred at Washington, and was attended by many Senators and Representatives.

Hon. John Randolph Tucker, has been elected Professor of Law at Washington College at a salary of $3,200. If he accepts the position the school of law will be divided between Judge Brockenbrough and himself.

REMOVAL.—The subject of moving, the Courthouse of Loudoun is agitated, and Hamilton is putting in a strong claim to the honor and convenience of a Court-house and jail—Purcellville and Mt. Gleed both claim superior charms.

—Jeter Phillips, who was to have been hung on Friday for the murder of his wife, has been respited by the Governor until July 22d.

—Be sure to read the advertisements "Greatest Work of the Age," in this paper.

RADICAL DELEGATES.

We had intended to give to our readers a full list of the delegates from this county who attended the Mixed Convention at Parkersburg, but have been unable to procure it entire, and therefore give the following, so that the names of the so-called white men may be placed upon record, and they held up for the future scorn and contempt of decent men of all classes.

Since writing the above we have received the Shepherdstown Register, (which, by the way, seems to be the special pet and organ of the Radical party in this county,) and in it find the names of the entire delegation:

- From Bolivar Township: Daniel Adams, (white); William Clemmer, (white); George Koonce, (white); A. C. Brackett, (white); Benjamin Roberts, (white); From Charlestown: REV. JARRETT BOWMAN, (col'd); Thomas Licklider, (white); Wm. W. Chase, (white); W. G. Butler, (white); From Shepherd: WM. JOHNSON, (colored); DANIEL HARBEN, (colored); C. E. Stubbs, (white); J. V. Underdonk, (white); M. L. Ingles, (white); I. L. Chapline, (white); J. D. Staley, (white); From Grant: HENRY HOUCK, (colored); ALFRED WILSON, (colored); Samuel Tidener, (white); From Averil: JAMES W. BROOMSICK, (colored).

THE OLD THING OVER AGAIN.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, referring to some remarks in the Herald, says:—"Now, the Chinese is nothing but a new edition of the African question over again. A century or so ago it was not thought that the bringing of negroes by the thousand to this continent as slaves would make any trouble. The cloud in the distant horizon was not perceived. —But we of this generation have seen the storms of blood and fire which it has discharged—the misfortune which it has brought upon the United States. Men may be pardoned for making an error once, but hardly for its repetition. The Chinese will prove to be to the West of the United States what the negro has been to the South—the greatest injury and drawback upon its prosperity. Like locusts, they will overspread the fertile and uninhabited plains of the Pacific. They will occupy room which should be filled by men of our own race and lineage. Their presence will only to degrade and weaken the country. Who would not rather see this country peopled by the European races than by the African and Mongolian? The policy the country has pursued on this question thus far is as short-sighted as it formerly was on the African slave-trade; and our descendants, whom we threaten to leave with millions of Chinese, will heartily denounce our blindness and folly. It is for us to say whether we will have New Ohio or New York on the Pacific shores, or a new China or India."

Who are Entitled to Vote, and How to Obtain Registration.

There are a great many lawful voters in this State whose names do not appear upon the registration lists. Some of these have never applied for registration; others have applied and have been illegally refused, while another large class have been legally enrolled, but illegally stricken from the lists. In order to aid all of those persons to acquire the right to deposit their votes on the fourth Thursday of October next, we desire to advise them how, and when, and where they may be registered.

Who are Entitled to Vote.

The Constitution, Art. 3, Section 1, says "the white male citizens of the State shall be entitled to vote at all elections held within the election districts in which they respectively reside." To this rule, however, the same instrument makes the following exceptions: First, minors; second, persons of unsound mind; third, paupers; fourth, those who are under conviction of treason, felony or bribery in an election; fifth, those who have not resided one year in the State and thirty days in the county where they propose to vote; sixth, those who are held in bondage; seventh, those who are held in bondage; eighth, those who are held in bondage; LOCAL MISCELLANY.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.—For the convenience of our subscribers in different sections of the county, we have left a number of accounts with the following gentlemen, who are daily authorized to collect and receipt for the same: ROBE. IRON LUCAS—Harper's Ferry. JOSE. W. ROBERTS—Midway. JACOB S. MELVIN—Duffield Depot. FRANK SIMPSON—Unionville.

We dislike to dun our patrons, but we are compelled to have money to properly conduct the business of this office, and earnestly request those who are indebted to us for subscription, job work and advertising to come forward and settle their accounts. We have to pay cash for paper, ink and material of all kinds, and have our employees to pay, and cannot, therefore, conduct our business on a credit basis.

Parties knowing themselves indebted to Benjamin F. Beall, for subscription, job work or advertising, up to the 1st of January last, will find their accounts at the same places, to which their immediate attention is requested, as this business should have been settled long ago.

THE METROPOLITAN POTOMAC RAILROAD.—This road is one that is greatly needed by those visiting Washington from the West, as it will enable passengers to reach the city of "Magnificent Distances" by a through train from Point of Rocks to Washington.

We are glad, says the Washington Star, to note some further indications that Mr. Garrett means "business" on this road from Washington to the Point of Rocks. On Tuesday last, we were informed, fifteen sections of the road were awarded to responsible men, conditioned that the work on each section shall be finished in twelve months.

RELIGIOUS.—On Sabbath afternoon last, at 4 o'clock, the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church was filled by the Rev. W. S. Peick, (Baptist), who preached an able and interesting sermon. It is much to be regretted that the Baptist congregation of this place have not as yet been able to recover from the loss of their church property, destroyed during the late war, but we trust that it will not be many months before sufficient funds will be raised for this purpose, and this edifice rebuilt.

Important Movement of Railroad Men.

The Shenandoah Valley Connection. From the Hagerstown Mail we make the following extracts in regard to the visit of the Northern capitalists to this county, anticipated in our paper of last week:—

By the soon train of the Cumberland Valley Railroad, on Wednesday last, there arrived in our town a large and important delegation of Pennsylvania and New York capitalists, headed by Mr. J. H. Shepherdson, having in view the double purpose of an examination of the valuable and extensive Iron Works of the Messrs. Ahl Brothers at Antietam and the advancement of the project designed to connect the Northern and Southern system of Railroads at Hagerstown and Shepherdstown on the Potomac River. The party which arrived here on Wednesday was headed by Col. D. V. Ahl, President of the South Mountain Railroad Company, upon which the track is now being laid from the C. V. Railroad to Mercersburg, and one of the proprietors of the Antietam Iron Works, in our County. Col. Ahl is one of the projectors of the great Valley system of railroads, designed to connect the Eastern coast with the Gulf of Mexico by the way of the Cumberland, Antietam, Shenandoah and Potomac Rivers, and until the Cumberland Valley Railroad Company made the selection of the Martinsburg route he had acted in concert with that Company. When, however, that route was adopted he united himself with the Reading interest and is now working with all the energy he can command the construction of the Shenandoah Road in connection with the Reading interest, and to bring about this connection at Hagerstown and to secure the road through Shepherdstown and the delegation from Pennsylvania and New York are now, by invitation of the Shepherdstowners, on this visit.

The above delegation reached Shepherdstown on Wednesday evening. Of their visit the Register says:— The party remained all night at the Eatler Hotel and next morning after a full conference with some of our leading citizens and an examination of the mill sites and situation of the Shenandoah Valley, and until the Antietam Iron Works by invitation of the Messrs. Ahl, accompanied by Mayor Feyman, Hon. A. R. Boteler, David Billmyer, John Cameron, J. S. Bragonier, and other citizens. On their way down the canal, they stopped to view the magnificent water power of the Potomac Mills property. At Antietam, where they were joined by Governor Gerry of Pennsylvania, Hon. A. K. Syster, of Hagerstown, &c., the whole party were hospitably entertained by the Messrs. Ahl, and had ample opportunity to discuss, with their champagne dinner, the important topics of internal improvement and natural development.

The following named gentlemen composed the delegation:— H. K. Nichols, New York, Contractor and Railroad man; Col. Z. P. Boyer, Pennsylvania, Contractor and Railroad man; Henry C. Syster, Governor of Pennsylvania; Hon. A. K. Syster, of Hagerstown, &c., the whole party were hospitably entertained by the Messrs. Four Hundred Miles up Stairs.

"Reading about electricity, lightning, and the telegraph, the other day," said Uncle Peter.

It seems there was a newspaper in the city of Glasgow, in Scotland which employed a London correspondent.

He made an arrangement with the operator at a certain office, by which news was sent to Glasgow at a reduction by the year.

One night he arrived at the lower door, at the foot of the stairs leading up into the telegraph office.

The door was locked, and he could not open it. The telegraph office was up to the top of the building, in the sixth story.

The operator had a bed there, to which he retired promptly at three o'clock, and it was now half past two.

The operator up stairs yawned and looked at his watch. "Hullo, Jones! Somebody has been here," said he.

"Hullo, up there!" he cried, looking at the window of the telegraph office, that glowed with light.

"What's the row?" said a policeman coming along. "I'm locked out," said Jinkins.

"Here I've got a batch of the most important news for my paper—a murder, three fires, and a riot—and the door locked in my face; and I can't get in."

"So the policeman began banging the door, but Jones, the operator, up in his office, was as unconscious of the tumult as if it had been in the moon.

"Why don't you go to some hother office?" asked the policeman.

"No authority to use any other line," said the correspondent. "A. H. I've got it," he added, and before the policeman could ask what it was, the excited Jinkins dashed off down the street as if a mad dog was after him.

Jinkins rushed breathlessly into another telegraph office, six blocks off. "I say," said he to the operator, "I'm in a fix. Got news to go off inside of half an hour, and the stupid operator at my office has gone to sleep, and I can't get in—and—"

"Well, that is a fix," said Jinkins, endeavoring to catch his breath; "I want you to telegraph down to Glasgow ask the operator there to telegraph up here to Jones, and bid him come down stairs and let me in."

The operator roared with laughter at this, but went at once to his instrument, and began rattling away at a great rate.

"This is the message he sent: 'Glasgow. Wake up Jones, Station X. Tell him Jinkins' at the foot of the stairs; can't get in.'"

Jones was looking at his watch again, and concluded that the long wait had better put out the lights and go to his little bed room across the hallway, when clatter, clatter; went his instrument.

"There's Glasgow calling me," said Jones, and hurried to his instrument and tickled it: "What's wanting?"

"Back come the answer: 'Jinkins down stairs—door fast—let him in.'"

"Off went Jones down stairs with a rush; and at last the anxious Jinkins got up and sent off his news.

So you see how a man sent a message through a solid door, and up four pairs of stairs, four hundred miles around, and by way of Glasgow, and all within twenty minutes. Wasn't that four hundred miles up stairs?"

BADLY CONSIDERED.—A traveler, fitted up with the monitor of a long and heavy trunk, a specially selected region of the country, rode up to a boy who was engaged in trimming and dressing out a sickly looking flock of corn, and relieved the oppression of his spirits thus: "My young friend it seems to me your corn is rather small."

"Yes, daddy planted the small kind," said the boy. "Ah, but it appears rather yellow, too."

"Yes, daddy planted the taller kind," said the boy. "From appearances, my lad, you won't get more than half a crop."

"Just half, stranger—daddy planted it on halves." The horseman proceeded on his way, and has not been known to speak to a boy since. He considers them horses.
