FRANCE AND PRUSSIA. From the condensed news column of the Baltimore Gazette, we make up the following summary: TUESDAY'S NEWS.

THE best feeling is said to prevail in Paris, and the sentiment is that the war must be carried on until Prussia proposes honorable terms of peace.

Some French journals demand a suspension of judgment as to the affair of Metz, and condemn the strong language used by Gambetta in his proclamation.

Late advices from Paris represent the ardor of the people unabated, and no doubts are expressed as to their ability to hold out a considerable time, perhaps for months, as far as concerns supplies of food.

NEGOTIATIONS for the formation of a German Empire, between the North and South States, are making favorable progress.

Samuel J. Randall, D. 4,148. John W. Creely, Ind. 925. Leonard Myers, R. 1,825.

General G. W. Custis Lee, a son of General Robert E. Lee, has been elected to succeed his father as President of Washington College.

Lee Memorial Meeting in Kansas City. A large and imposing meeting, in honor of the memory of the late Gen. R. E. Lee, was held in Kansas City, Mo., on the evening of the 21st of October.

Political Demonstration in Baltimore. A grand demonstration of the Democratic Conservative party of Baltimore, comprising an immense and brilliant procession, with torches, banners and devices, and an overwhelming mass-meeting in Monument Square, took place on Monday night of last week.

THE procession was one of the largest demonstrations of the kind witnessed in Baltimore for many years.

Third Ward. This ward paraded first, consisting of the first to the ninth wards, inclusive, turned out very strong, each ward having its own music, and nearly all proceeded by a cavalcade of horsemen.

Fourth Ward. The fourth was preceded by a number of mounted men, and the line was profuse with lights of every description.

Fifth Ward. This ward turned out strong, and was headed by a number of horsemen.

Sixth Ward. The sixth ward was headed by a number of mounted men, and the line was profuse with lights of every description.

Seventh Ward. The seventh ward was headed by a number of mounted men, and the line was profuse with lights of every description.

THE CITY OF HEREAFTER.—Says a divine: "When I was a little boy I thought of heaven as a great shining city, with no one in it except white angels, who were strangers to me."

THE individual who was "hauling in suspense" was a horse thief.

THE man who "lost his little awl" was a shoe maker. He still clings to the last.

THE man who "lazes off his leg" is a revenue officer.

THE man whose "first impressions were often wrong" was a printer.

THE man who "gained more than he lost" was a gambler.

THE lady with a "single purpose" is an old maid.

THE boy who was "in thought" has been found in Chicago.

THE man who was supposed to have "gone up" has come down handsomely.

MISCELLANEOUS. The Story of a French Freg-Mason. This present war has been prolific in illustrations of the value of Freemasonry in dangerous emergencies, and the anecdotes are endless of lives saved by its means.

Their story was a very simple one. The Prussian, who is an officer, and a man of 35 or so, with a stern, grave face, and a heavy overhanging moustache, had met the Frenchman, who is at least a dozen years his junior, on the battle-field, the latter being supported by a couple of comrades.

Twice did the wave of the conflict bring these men in contact, on the last occasion the Prussian, who was himself badly wounded in the chest, pressed the young Frenchman hard, and had, indeed, his sword uplifted to administer the coup de grace, when the latter who was faint from the loss of blood, made a dash for it, and the latter being supported by a couple of comrades.

By a strange coincidence, their wounds were such that each could give the other some slight relief, and the late enemies employed their weary hours, in which they lay disabled and untended, in rendering little kindness to each other, and in discussing the friendship which had begun, so strangely.

The wounded men are supremely satisfied with the result, and their story has given them quite a celebrity among their fellow-soldiers.

At length, where the French prisoners were placed after the capitulation of Sedan, and where, it is but too true, they were all but starving, some of their numbers contrived to make it known to their captors that they were Masons, and though this was inefficient in many instances, the sturdy and uninitiated Prussian laughing the Masonic gestures to scorn, wherever it succeeded the men obtained little comforts which were priceless.

A stout trooper was seen handing a warm freeze coat to one prisoner, and giving a pair of iron rations to another; and explained his conduct to an inquirer with sheepish smile, which spoke volumes. "They are my brothers, though I have fought with them, and they are hungry and cold, and must be helped. They would do it for me." These are mere typical cases. But it is impossible to mix much with the troops particularly after a battle, without hearing of kindred instances of masonic usefulness.—London Times.

FATE OF DISTINGUISHED INDIVIDUALS.—The young lady who was "carried away with her feelings" came back with her unfeeling father, feeling lost; but the maiden lady who couldn't express her feelings telegraphed them.

Spirit of Jefferson.

WANTED.—Eight or ten loads of Wood, and a dozen barrels of Corn, are wanted at this office, for dues on subscription. Send them in at once.

GENERAL WEATHER.—Thus far, the autumn has been more mild and genial than any remembered for many years. Its continuance through the present month will greatly shorten the winter, and give our farmers great advantage in housing their corn and fattening of stock. As evidence of the season, we have been shown, by Mr. Wm. B. Smith, two blossoms as vigorous, and the vine as green, as in the month of May. He has a whole square of them, being volunteers from the last season. If no mishap should befall, the old gentleman has promised us peas and turkey, (if not lamb,) for Christmas.

RAN AWAY.—A horse belonging to Mr. John Hilbert, attached to a spring wagon in which was seated Mr. Philip Sheets, Mr. Hilbert and his little son, Strath, ran away on Liberty street on Sunday afternoon last, dashing the vehicle against a tree in front of the residence of Dr. Strath, and throwing the little boy against the house. Luckily no damage was sustained beyond a few scratches to the occupants of the vehicle and the horse, and the breaking of one wheel of the wagon.

IN OPERATION.—We are pleased to learn that the steam saw-mill of Messrs. Elsieherberger & Manning, on the Shenandoah river, has been put in thorough repair, and is now ready for business. This improvement comes at a very opportune time to our citizens, as nearly all the saw-mills and lumber on the river were carried away by the late freshet, giving but little promise of any large quantity of lumber from the upper country, for some time to come. A view of the lumber yard of Maj. Jas. Law, Hoop, in the rear of our office, will show a quantity of first-class building material from the mill of these gentlemen.

HALLOW EVE.—This anniversary was celebrated by our youngsters, with the usual fun, on Monday evening of last week. On Hallow Eve, or the last night of October, according to Scotch tradition, fairies and witches held their annual, and festivities and fortune-telling often characterized its celebration in the olden time. It was in keeping with this view that Burns wrote his celebrated poem, "Hallow-een."

MAJ. WM. P. CRAIGHILL.—The gentleman whose name heads this paragraph, a native of our town, has attained a high position in the army in the Engineer department, and his name is associated with many works of importance—not only of defence but of improvement of rivers and harbors throughout the United States. Upon the recommendation of the chief engineer, he has just been ordered to relieve Col. J. M. Simpson, and will be in charge of all river and harbor improvements and surveys now in his charge. [Free Press.]

PROFESSIONAL.—The Union, Mo., Appeal, furnishes the following complimentary notice of a former Jeffersonian, Luke C. Strider, son of John H. Strider, Esq., of this place:—"We are pleased to learn that L. C. Strider, of Pacific, was admitted to the bar at the last meeting of that body. Mr. Strider is a young man of more than ordinary abilities, and in this addition, the public will find an active, energetic, capable lawyer, and one deserving of a liberal share of patronage."

ARRESTED.—A colored man named Cook was arrested on Thursday by officers Etchison and Myers upon the charge of stealing some wool clothing from the residence of Mrs. Margaret Walper, near Walper's crossing, a few days ago, in the absence of Mrs. W.—He had a hearing before Justice Wiley and was committed to jail to await the action of the Grand Jury.—Register.

LEISURE HOURS, $2 per annum, published by J. Trainor King, Philadelphia, Pa. The November number is received, and is one of the most interesting and entertaining monthlies on our table. The attention of the ladies is called to advertisement in another column.

SABBATH SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—Arrangements are in progress for a grand Sabbath School Exhibition, to be given by the school connected with the M. E. Church, South, of this place, in a short time.

AMERICAN SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKER.—We have received the October number of the above named excellent Journal, published by J. W. McIntyre, St. Louis. It deserves the many encomiums passed upon it.

THE GRAND BARBECUE.—Don't forget the grand barbecue to-day, but come prepared for a real old-fashioned day of enjoyment.—Let freeman meet freeman in friendly greeting, and "all go merry, as a marriage bell."

CINCINNATI COURT.—A telegram having been received from Judge Hall to that effect, the Circuit Court of Jefferson will not convene until to-morrow, (Wednesday), instead of to-day.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—An Association will begin on Thursday night next (7 o'clock), in the Episcopal Church. Services may be expected morning and evening on Friday and Saturday.

ILLUMINATE YOUR HOUSES.—We hope the Ladies will give their attention to the light part of the programme to-night, and see that their houses are illuminated.

WANTED.—One Thousand Freemen, to bear Transparencies, Lanterns, Torches, &c., in the grand procession to-night.

Daniel Newwander, of Dayton in Rockingham county, who had been a Magistrate in his district, under military authority, for some time, was committed to jail in Harrisonburg, a few days ago, charged with horse stealing.

For the Spirit of Jefferson: LINES ON THE DEATH OF GENERAL LEE. Another great spirit has crossed the dark tide "To rest in the shade of the trees." And the wail of the South—or the autumn winds As they sweep for him, low on barrens.

To join the great army of heroes, who fell, While struggling for Freedom, in vain; He's gone, and those spirits, who loved him so well, Will hail their old chief again. The world, at the mention of Washington's name, In reverence low bows to his fame: Of Lee, too, our immortal Lee. That star, which illumined our land with its beams, Thank God! has not gone down in blood. With heroic sorrow-stricken, we wept as we knelt; By the graves of our noble boys slain, At that, our fountain of tears had been sealed, But 'tis opened with ruddiness again. He rests with a Jackson, a Stuart, a Hill, Why, when he died, success was so near, Where, from peaceful waters, so pure and so still, By the blessed Kyian shore.

The Synod of Virginia. The Synod of Virginia met in this place in the Presbyterian Church, November 1st, and was opened with a Sermon by last Moderator, Rev. R. Mellwine, from Proverbs 28:4. After public worship Synod was constituted with prayer and the Roll being called, the Rev. J. A. Lefever, of Baltimore, was unanimously elected Moderator, and Rev. A. C. Hopkins, of Staunton, Recording Secretary, and Rev. Wm. Divinide, of Staunton, were elected Temporary Clerks. Synod then adjourned with prayer until Wednesday morning. Wednesday morning Synod met and was opened with prayer at 9 o'clock. The minutes of yesterday were read and approved. A number of Ministers and Elders appeared and were admitted. A letter was read from Rev. Wm. Divinide, stated clerk of Synod, referring his office, he having removed to Kentucky. The Rev. J. P. Smith was elected to his place. The Report of Directors of Union Theological Seminary was read and referred to the Standing Committee on that subject. The Committee on Devotional Exercises reported, proposing that the Synod meet at 9 o'clock A. M. each morning, take a recess at 12 o'clock for public worship, resume business until 3 o'clock, then take a recess until 7 P. M. and adjourn at 10.

Reports were read from the Presbyteries on State of Religion, Statistical report, Evangelistic labor, Systematic Benevolence, and Sunday Schools. Synod took recess at 12 o'clock for Public worship and heard a Sermon from Rev. H. C. Alexander, D. D., on Psalm 90:4. Synod took recess until 7 o'clock P. M. [Fredericksburg Herald.]

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for December is on our table in advance. It is unusually splendid, even for "Peterson." It has two superb steel plates, a mammoth colored fashion plate, a costly colored leather pattern, and more than fifty wood engravings. "Peterson" is unquestionably one of the cheapest and best of the lady's books. It will give, in 1871, one thousand pages of reading, 14 steel engravings, 12 double-size colored steel fashion plates, 24 pages of music, and about 900 pages of text. It is a most beautiful fashion plate than there is in this number. Another leading merit of this magazine is its unequalled stories and novelets.—The price of "Peterson's" is only $2 a year to single subscribers; to clubs the terms are lower still, viz., five copies for $8, or eight copies for $12. Every person getting up a Club of five, six, seven, eight, nine, or ten, will receive a copy of "Peterson's" for 1871 gratis, and also a splendid right engraving, "Washington at the Battle of Trenton," of the merit of which we can speak from personal inspection. Specimens of the magazine sent gratis if written for. Address Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.—For the convenience of our subscribers in different sections of the county, we have left a number of accounts with the following gentlemen, who are duly authorized to collect and receipt for the same: GEO. LEAGUE—Lecton. DALQARN & HAINES.

Parties knowing themselves indebted to Benjamin F. Beall, for subscription, job work or advertising, up to the last of January last, will also find their accounts at the same places, to which their immediate attention is requested, as this business should have been settled long ago.
