

VIRGINIA FREE PRESS.

THE FREE PRESS.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1831.

As a part of the political history of the times, and through respect to a high officer of the government, we feel bound to publish Mr. Carr's exposition. Its length is rather a serious objection, but we must give it in broken columns.

The tenacity with which Mr. Calhoun clings to the Virginia Resolutions of 1798, and to the opinions of Mr. Madison, is a striking illustration of the old Virginia Democrats to push him off with the cry of "Nullification."

That Mr. Calhoun has friends in Virginia, it would be idle to deny; and that he is receding an accession, though slowly to be sure, it would be equally idle to deny. But this recession is not from the ranks of Mr. Clay. The friends of the latter gentleman will stand firm, as long as Hope sheds a solitary cheering ray.

Many of the counties below the Ridge have appointed delegates to the Anti-Tariff Convention, to assemble in Philadelphia on the 30th of September. About a month hence, we shall have a long detail of the proceedings produced by the "bill of abominations" (the Tariff), with a string of resolutions, reiterating a "thrice-told tale."

We have received delinquent land lists for the counties of Monongalia and Ohio.

The returns received, justify us in stating the election of the following named gentlemen to the next Congress, from Virginia:

Mark Alexander, Thomas Davenport, Robert Allen, Philip Doddridge, William Armstrong, William F. Gordon, William S. Archer, John V. Mason, John S. Barbour, Charles F. Mercer, Thomas T. Bouldin, William McCoy, Joseph W. Child, Thomas Newton, N. H. Claiborne, John M. Patton, Richard Coke, Jr., John J. Hoane, Robert Craig, Andrew Stevenson.

The districts represented by Lewis Maxwell and Joseph Draper, not finally heard from.

On Monday next, the election for Electors of the Senate, will take place in Maryland, and on the first Monday in October, for members of Congress and delegates to the Legislature.

The official returns from the 11th Congressional district have been at length received, by which it appears that Mr. Hayes has succeeded over Mr. Chilton, by a majority of nine votes. This was a very close vote, as there were upwards of 700 votes polled for the two candidates in the district.

Indiana. Gen. Noah Noble, Nat. Republican, has been elected Governor of Indiana, by a majority of upwards of 3000 votes.

Tennessee. The following gentlemen have been elected to the next Congress from Tennessee. Messrs. Isaacs and Arnold are opposed to the present administration.

Alabama. The late election for Governor in the State of Alabama has resulted in the election of Judge Gaxby.

Appointment by the President. ANTON SWANEY, of Pennsylvania, to be Marshal of the United States for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, vice George B. Porter, resigned.

Florida. We were shown, the other day, by a gentleman of this county, a specimen of the Florida orange which, about 12 from the ground, a Sun-Flower Stalk has grown up, probably four feet in height. It is now in bloom.

Hilton. Congress—Dade 215, Patton 153. Patton is elected by a majority in the district of 369.

Linn Banks re-elected to the House of Delegates without opposition.

From the Washington Globe, Aug. 24. We learn from the Mississippi, that on the 31st of July, two or three hours before day, a party of from 80 to 100 Sacs and Fox Indians, surprised a Menominee camp, 3 or 400 hundred yards above old Fort Crawford.

The party killed, consisted of one war chief, three head-men, four warriors, six women, and eleven children.

This massacre of the Menominees is a most audacious aggression, not only against the unfortunate sufferers, but against the authority of the U. S. States.

The late election for Governor in the State of Alabama has resulted in the election of Judge Gaxby.

Appointment by the President. ANTON SWANEY, of Pennsylvania, to be Marshal of the United States for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, vice George B. Porter, resigned.

INSURRECTION.

The two last mails brought various reports of an insurrection among the blacks in Southampton county. The accounts vary materially as to the number engaged. The following article embraces all that is important, and shows that the danger is over.

INSURRECTIONARY MOVEMENT.

The following is from the Richmond Whig of 27th afternoon. The Artillery Company returned this morning. They had landed at Smithfield, and were about to take up their line of march for Southampton, when they received an order from General Epps to return, as their services were unnecessary.

The following is an extract from General Epps' despatch to Captain Richardson: "Southampton, Jamaica, Aug. 24. 'I have to request you will direct the troops to return—perfectly satisfied."

The party are dispersed, and from the best information we have been able to ascertain, are assembling—certainly not for some time.

"P. S.—The insurgents are nearly dispersed. Fifteen have been killed and twelve in jail."

It is now well ascertained that the band of negroes who committed the horrid murders in Southampton, were composed chiefly or entirely of runaways, who have long infested the swamps of that country.

Their object was probably to raise an insurrection among the slaves. But they have completely failed.

The Richmond Dragoons arrived in Southampton on Wednesday night. They will probably get back this evening or to-morrow.

We have obtained from two sources the following list of the persons massacred by the blacks:—Mrs. Waller's 14; Mr. Williams' 3; Mr. Barrow's 2; Mrs. Vaughn's 5; Mrs. Turner's 3; Mrs. Travis' 5; Mr. J. Williams' 5; Mr. Reice's 4; unknown 10—Total 58.

A letter from Petersburg, written last night, gives the following information: "I have just read a letter from— to his father, dated yesterday [at Southampton]. He states that he was among the first that went in pursuit of the negroes. They commenced near the N. Carolina line, directing their course towards Jerusalem, led on by a fellow called Captain Nat. Turner (a black)—the banditti consisted of about 25 to 30, no others joined. He says that he has counted 40 corpses—mostly women and children—Another letter says 70. They had secured several in jail. For many miles around their track, the country is deserted by the women and children, but armed troops are in every mile in squads—it is not general and has subsided. When the first party came upon them they (the party) had dismounted, else they would have taken them all."

The Whig of Saturday afternoon makes no further allusion to the subject.

Steam Boat Explosion.—The Cincinnati Commercial of August 20, states, that the steamboat Phœnix, which plies between that city and Maysville, when putting off from Augusta, two days before, collapsed a flue, which caused the death of one man and scalded two or three others.

Proceedings of the Harpers-Ferry Temperance Society. At an adjourned meeting of the inhabitants in the neighborhood of Harpers-Ferry, the following Constitution for a Temperance Society, prepared by a committee appointed at a previous meeting, was presented and unanimously adopted.

1. The Society shall consist of all those who subscribe to its Constitution and Rules—and act in conformity to them—and the latter shall be presumed to be the case with every subscriber, until he shall have been expelled by the Society.

2. It shall be called the Harpers-Ferry Temperance Society.

3. The meetings of the Society, on the first Monday in May, and at such other times as may be determined on.

4. The management of its concerns shall be entrusted to a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, and five Councilors—all and each of whom shall be chosen by ballot, at the annual meeting in May; and when chosen, shall continue in office until others are chosen in their stead.

5. A majority of the votes of the members present shall be sufficient to constitute a choice, and also for the transaction of all other business by the Society: Provided that not less than one-third of its members be present at all meetings, and that they shall have assembled in consequence of due public notice.

6. The President shall have in charge one copy, at least, of the Records of the Society, and shall attend to the general management of all its concerns: He shall cause public notices to be given of all its meetings, three days before they are to take place; and, when present, act as a moderator;—and, in general, perform all the duties of the office.

7. The Secretary shall keep a copy of the proceedings of the Society, and of its officers in their official capacities—making two copies of them, one for the President, the other for himself; and he shall attend to the execution of the duties of a Secretary pro tem.

8. The Councilors shall aid the President in the execution of his duties, and shall discharge the duties of a President in the absence of both the President and Vice-President, exercise all the functions of the President, and perform all his duties;—and shall discharge the duties of a Secretary pro tem.

9. The Councilors shall aid the President in the execution of his duties, and shall discharge the duties of a Secretary pro tem.

10. The Councilors shall aid the President in the execution of his duties, and shall discharge the duties of a Secretary pro tem.

13. The Councilors shall aid the President in the execution of his duties, and shall discharge the duties of a Secretary pro tem.

14. The Councilors shall aid the President in the execution of his duties, and shall discharge the duties of a Secretary pro tem.

15. The Councilors shall aid the President in the execution of his duties, and shall discharge the duties of a Secretary pro tem.

16. The Councilors shall aid the President in the execution of his duties, and shall discharge the duties of a Secretary pro tem.

SOCIETY.

Society, to exert himself, perseveringly, but discreetly, against the use of ardent spirits, Whiskey, Brandy, Rum, &c. and to temperance, at all times, both by example and well-timed advice, in discouraging the habit, and, in strong denials, and especially to strive to prevent its constant use at regular periods, daily, as a practice tending to produce incurable habits of intemperance.

To obtain from the use of ardent spirit himself. To abstain from offering it to others. To abstain from buying and selling it. To use his influence with those who are not members of the Society, to induce them to abstain from selling it, and if he cannot fully succeed, to abstain from buying and selling it, and to abstain from offering it to others.

Members shall, also, both by advice and example, endeavour to discontinue the frequent and excessive use of fermented liquors, and to abstain from drinking any such liquors, except in a social and temperate manner, and to abstain from drinking any such liquors, except in a social and temperate manner.

A proposition was then agreed to, providing that every merchant who might become a member, should be invited to deliver an address on hand at the time and place to be appointed by the Society, on some subject of temperance, and to become general. As soon as it was completed, the subscribers proceeded to the choice of officers for the Society. Whereupon, JOHN H. HALL was chosen President, JOSEPH G. HAYES, Vice President, JAMES B. DODD, Secretary, Benjamin Moore, William Anderson, William Chambers, J. William Roper, Thomas Hughes.

It was then resolved, that the Rev. Thomas J. Dorsey be officially invited to deliver an address to the Society on the subject of Temperance, in the Methodist Meeting House at Harpers-Ferry, at as early an opportunity as may be convenient for him to do so.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Virginia Free Press.

The meeting then adjourned sine die. JAMES B. DODD, Secretary. Harpers-Ferry, 23rd Aug. 1831.

THE MARKETS. BALTIMORE, AUG. 26. FLOUR.—The wagon price at $5 50, and steady throughout the week at $5 50.

Yesterday the current price of new wheat flour was $5 25. Two or three loads were said to have been purchased for less. The article was dull, and would not command $5 25 from stores, the scarcity partly caused by the scarcity of vessels. The receipts continue light.

DIED. On Tuesday last, MARTHA ANN, infant daughter of Mr. CHARLES WATTS, of this place, aged about 15 months.

In Lexington, Ky. on the 4th ult. the Rev. O. B. Ross, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and Editor of the Gospel Herald.

At his residence, in Better Springs, Ohio, on the 13th ult. the Hon. JAMES SULLIVAN, a member of the last Congress.

Rev. S. TREVOR will preach a funeral sermon on the occasion of the death of Mr. Joux Orr, at the house of Mr. Stephen Dalgray, (the farm of the late Daniel Allstadt), on Sunday the 4th inst. at 8 o'clock, P. M.

POLITICAL MEETING. The citizens of Jefferson County, friendly to the election of HENRY CLAY to the Presidency of the United States, are requested to meet at the Court House in Charlottesville, on Monday the 19th of September next, (Court Day) for the purpose of taking into consideration the propriety of appointing a delegate to the National Republican Convention, to be held in Baltimore in December next.

August 25, 1831.

FOR SALE. A FARM, containing about 174 acres, adjoining the town of Bolivar, near Harpers-Ferry, in Jefferson county, about 80 acres of which are in young timber of a thrifty growth. A part of the land is enclosed by a good post and rail fence; and there is upon it a small but comfortable stone house. For terms apply to JAMES B. WAGER. Sept. 1, 1831.

NOTICE. THE subscriber has commenced the Apothecary business next to Captain M. Thompson's Hotel, and directly opposite the U. S. Arsenal, at Harpers-Ferry. Those who may favor him with their custom, may rely upon getting good and genuine medicines. Prescriptions attended to with accuracy and despatch. The public's humble servant, JOSEPH G. HAYES. Sept. 1, 1831.

WANTED. A youth from 14 to 16 years of age, of steady and moral habits to serve in the above business—one from the country would be preferred. J. G. H. Sept. 1, 1831.

Sale of Law Books. ON Saturday the 30th instant, I will offer at public sale, at the office of Edward H. Fry, a variety of valuable Law Books, Chairs, Tables, Bed and Bedding, &c. &c. taken under a distress for rent.

HENRY BELLER, Constable. Also, at the same time and place, will be offered two hand-saws, SOFAS and several new HAIR MATTRESSES. A credit of three months will be given, the purchaser giving note and approved security. Sale at 11 o'clock, A. M. Sept. 1, 1831.

TAILORING. G. W. CUTSHAW takes this method of informing his friends and the public of Harpers-Ferry and its vicinity, that he has taken the room adjoining P. C. Marcab's law office, formerly occupied by Dr. Marrison, where he intends carrying on the above business in all its branches. Having, for the last four or five years, been working in all the principal cities, he flatters himself that those who may favour him with their custom may rest assured of having their work done as well as at any other shop in the country.

He would also inform the public, that he has taken into copartnership, L. T. SKEGGS, who has been cutting for the last three years in New York, and who served his apprenticeship in Philadelphia, and has been employed as foreman in one of the most extensive and elegant tailoring establishments in the city of New York.

CUTSHAW & SKEGGS therefore flatter themselves that with the knowledge they possess of the business, and with punctuality and assiduity, to merit a liberal share of public patronage.

N. B.—Garments cut on the shortest notice, and in the most fashionable manner. Sept. 1, 1831.

A REQUEST.

THE undersigned politely requests all persons who hold prize tickets in any of the classes of the Virginia Free Road Lottery, to return them to him for settlement as early as may be convenient.
