The Dog.

At the late fire, corner of Corland and West streets, the following incident occurred, which tends in a striking degree, to illustrate the sagacity and fidelity of that most excellent animal.

THE VETO.

From the Pennsylvania, July 23. The vetoing held yesterday afternoon was, as we anticipated it would be, an exhibition of the talents of the Jackson party in this vicinity.

THE FREE PRESS. THURSDAY, AUGUST 2.

We notice, in some of the calculations of our friends at a distance, that Virginia is set down as one of the States likely to go against Jackson. Now, we feel bound, in candor, to say, this is all idle. Our "Old Dominion" is always distinguished in error—and nothing earthly is likely to set her right by the first Monday in November.

Frequent inquiries are made, why it is that we have not yet published a paper on the subject of the Indian War? It must be admitted that there was a positive lack of preparation on our Indian frontiers. A government so powerful as ours, ought to be always prepared for aggression from every quarter.

It is, perhaps, not generally known, that, towards the close of the session, Congress passed a bill making appropriations for certain ports and harbors. It was sent to the President, and he failed to return it, and thereby, in effect, placed his veto upon it. This bill, among other things, appropriated $25,000 for the harbor of Baltimore, and $20,000 for clearing out obstructions in James River.

The Enquirer, in its eagerness to show off the Philadelphia Veto Meeting, speaks of a resolution offered "by Mr. Watson, also a member of Congress, who had joined with Messrs. Adams and McDuffie in their report favorable to the President's Veto Meeting." Mr. Watson will not find it in the Enquirer, but it was E. C. Watson, the member who offered the resolution. It was enough for Mr. Horn and Mr. Dallas to render themselves ridiculous by their inconsistency and subserviency.

APPOINTMENT BY THE PRESIDENT. SIXTIES SEVEN to be Register of the Land Office for the District of Louisiana subject to sale at Mount Sales, in the State of Mississippi.

This is independent. Why should a "famous" Senate undertake to counteract the views of one, who, in the language of the Globe, "was born to command?"

The reader must be informed in brief terms, (for we have not room for all the proceedings,) of the history of this case.

"The Senate, in the session of 1827-28, had passed a resolution, that the Executive should be authorized to appoint, in the District of Louisiana, a Register of the Land Office, in which such duties were to be performed, without some evident necessity for such appointment." The propriety of such principles, approved or disapproved, being adopted by the President, was the subject of the resolution.

The nomination of Mr. Gwin was rejected by the Senate, on the 23d Dec. 1831, by the following vote:

Yates—Messrs. Bibb, Brown, Dallas, Dickerson, Dudley, Grundy, Hill, Kane, Knight, Mangum, Marcy, White, Wilkine—13.

Yates—Messrs. Bell, Benton, Buckner, Clay, Evans, Fox, Hanna, Hayne, Hendricks, Holmes, Johnston, King, Miller, Moore, Polk, Prentiss, Robbins, Robinson, Rogers, Seymour, Sibbes, Tomlinson, Troop, Tyler, Webster—25.

Nothing daunted, however, by this rejection, the President, on the 11th June, 1832, re-nominated Mr. Gwin. The Senate declined acting upon it; and on the 24th of July, in defiance of the expressed views of the Senate, the President himself appointed the said Samuel Gwin to the identical office which the Senate had refused him.

If the people bear this, they are ready to bear any thing.

A public meeting is called in Lexington, Ky. by 47 of the former supporters of Gen. Jackson, who declare that "they have been greatly disappointed in the manner in which he has administered the government; and in consequence have withdrawn his support for re-election."

Such calls are made in various parts of the country, and to counteract this, the adherents of the Administration are making a good deal of noise by firing cannon, &c. We give, in another column, extracts on both sides.

The National Republicans of Ohio have formed an Electoral Ticket, at the head of which is the name of the consistent and unwavering old republican, Jeremiah Morrow.

The New York Commercial says the Cholera has decreased ONE HUNDRED PER CENT. According to our Arithmetic, that would reduce it to nothing; whereas the same paper reports a loss of 80 deaths on the 28th ult. How is it, that so few persons discriminate between the operation of per centage added and per centage deducted? We suppose the editor means that it has decreased at the rate of fifty per cent; that is to say, the cases are only half as numerous as heretofore.

The Saturday Evening Post, a paper of a very large class, talks of extending its dimensions. It has more than thirty thousand subscribers, and speaks of a daily increase of nearly fifty. It is a literary and miscellaneous paper of great merit, and deserves all the patronage which it receives. For such a list of subscribers we would agree to employ politics forever, and print a paper as large as a blanket.

An anti-slavery meeting was called in Louisville, (Ky.) on the 20th. The call is signed chiefly by merchants and farmers.

The New-Orleans Argus of the 12th inst. announced that Gen. E. W. Ripley has been elected in Congress from Louisiana, by a majority of twenty-nine votes over Gen. Thomas M. R. Ripley is a Jackson Republican.

Mr. DILLARD, National Republican, is said to be re-elected from the third district of Louisiana.

PHILADELPHIA, JULY 24. Mr. YATES, Editor of the Free Press, writes yesterday on his return to New York.

Judge Manly, of New York, and Isaac Hill, of New Hampshire, were at Harpers a few days since.

RESURRECTION.—The Albany Daily Advertiser states that the following communication was handed to that paper by a subscriber, by a respectable citizen.

"We are informed that Governor Pilecher, M. C. from Washington county, avows himself decidedly opposed to the re-election of Andrew Jackson; that he is decided Clay man; and that unless another electoral ticket should be nominated, he shall vote for that ticket before the public. He says no honorable man could have stayed at Washington the last winter, and not been convinced of the utter incompetency of Andrew Jackson for the situation he now fills."

From the National Intelligencer. The Western papers bring us the following circular from the Commissioner of the General Land Office:

"Sir: I send you the second number of the 'Extra Globe.' It is only one dollar for thirty numbers. As it is of the utmost importance in your view, in the approaching contest for the Presidency, that this paper should be circulated, and read in every neighborhood in Ohio, can you procure five or ten subscribers to it in your vicinity? If you can do so, and I will send the papers forwarded to such persons, and to such post offices, as you shall direct. The back numbers will be sent."

COMMENTS.—General Jackson, in his inaugural address, said: "The recent demonstration of public sentiment (inserted on the list of Executive duties, in characters too legible to be overlooked, the task of reform which will require, particularly, the cooperation of those who have brought the patronage of the Federal government into conflict with the freedom of elections, and the counteraction of those causes which have disturbed the rightful course of appointment, and have placed, or continued power, in unfaithful or incompetent hands."

The Kentucky Observer publishes the following letter from Amos Kendall, the Fourth Auditor of the Treasury, and says that the original may be seen at any time, by applying to the editor.

WASHINGTON, 23d Arr. 1832. DEAR SIR.—I take the liberty to propose to you certain proposals which speak for themselves. The people need only correct information, and the proposed paper will give it on the cheapest terms. It is intended to reach every neighborhood in the Union; and it is peculiarly desirable that it should be circulated throughout all Kentucky. It will contain, you take the trouble for the sake of our good cause, to raise a subscription in your quarter, and make speedy return of names and money.

The time for action is at hand. The President is well, and he is in the habit of signing his decrees with a flourish of his pen, and with a high respect, yours truly, AMOS KENDALL.

There is among the dissolute and depraved of this city, we are pleased to say, a sensible reformation of habit. The startling fact that the drunkard and licentious have every where been the victims of cholera, has opened the eyes of men to the impending danger, and many have entirely abandoned their demoralizing and pernicious practices.

We see few instances of intemperance in the streets, riots and assaults are less frequent, and seldom those most prone to disorder—the inhabitants of filthy places—there are symptoms of a change. We trust that this reformation will be permanent. Providence, in allowing this calamity to visit us, has unquestionably in view some object of good—perhaps to correct a lesson of humiliation perhaps to sweep from the face of the earth those who have long been a burden and reproach; or perhaps, by a display of his awful power, to turn the evil in heart from the error of their ways. To all, there is, in this visitation of distress, a lesson of admonition, by which it should be the business of all to profit.

Philadelphia Sat. Ev. Post, July 21. The Markets. BALTIMORE, JULY 27. FLOUR.—The wagon price throughout the week has been very uniform at $3 25 per bush, though some dealers have paid as high as $6.

WOOL.—Common and 2 Merino, unwashed, 15 a 20 do. washed, 28 a 32 2 Merino do. unwashed, 20 a 22 do. washed, 30 a 35 1 do. unwashed, 23 a 25 1 do. washed, 28 a 32 Full Merino do. unwashed, 22 a 27 do. washed, 40 a 45 ALEXANDRIA, JULY 28.

FLOUR.—No change in the wagon price of Flour; we continue to quote at $6. The stock is so small, that but little business is doing from stores, and we are unable to give a quotation with certainty.

WOOL.—We understand there is no inquiry demanded for Wool; 18 to 20 cents would embrace the extreme prices, but such quotations must be considered nominal.

Married. ON the 23rd ult. by the Rev. Baptists Minister, Mr. Thomas Strawn to Miss Eliza Swan, both of Harpers-Ferry.

Died. In New York, on Sunday morning the 21st inst. of cholera, GEORGE E. SMITH, Esq. Agent of the 4th Ward of that city. He was engaged in his official duties till 11 o'clock on Saturday evening, when he was attacked with the disease at 3 o'clock, and died at 11 o'clock on the morning.

Alderman Smith had been indefatigable in the discharge of the arduous duties which devolved upon him as a member of the Board of Health during the prevailing malarial.

The Rev. Mr. Hark will preach in the Methodist Church in this town, on Sunday next, at 11 o'clock, A. M. Aug. 2.

NOTICE.—The subscribers to the building of a wall around the Grave-Yard on the land of Mr. John Melvin, not having met agreeably to a former notice, are hereby earnestly requested to meet at the Elk Branch Church on Saturday the 18th inst. (August) at 3 o'clock, P. M. for the purpose of adopting this method of presenting to the Board of Health, a petition for the same.

It is hoped that an interest will be felt by all, and that a full attendance will be given. A SUBSCRIBER. August 2, 1832.

Shamondale Springs. THIS well-known establishment, in Jefferson county, five miles from Charlestown, and will be ready in a few days to accommodate visitors who may seek health or recreation. His bar and stabling are well equipped, and all arrangements will all be completed in the course of a week.

The quality of the water has been highly commended by skillful physicians; and it may with confidence be asserted, that no part of the country is more healthy than this situation is at present. JOHN T. HENDERSON, August 2, 1832.

Then Market! THE Board of Trustees of Charlestown, under a sense of the duty devolved upon them by their office, have, at a late meeting, resolved to renew the effort to establish, upon a permanent and useful footing, a TOWN MARKET, to be held on the mornings of Wednesday and Saturday of each week.

Well satisfied that without the cordial, and (for a time at least) zealous co-operation of the citizens, both of town and county, the object in view cannot be accomplished, they have adopted this method of presenting to those who are a few of the considerations which have induced them at this time to make the attempt.

To the citizens of the town, no argument can be necessary to convince them of the great advantages to be derived from a regular and well-supplied public market. The extreme trouble and inconvenience, to which we are constantly subjected, in procuring the ordinary supplies of the table, and the still greater difficulty from the same cause, of making preparation to receive our visiting friends, in a manner worthy the metropolis of a State, are too palpable to need a word, and a substantial good office, (a state of things leading to the appearance at least of a want of hospitality,) are sufficient reasons, if it is hoped, in the absence of many others which might be urged, to induce them, by a cheerful compliance with the prescribed regulations, to aid us in the undertaking.

To those of the county, within the immediate neighborhood of Charlestown, the subject presents itself in a very different aspect, and comes recommended by considerations of far deeper interest. The Board are well aware that complaints have been made, (and it must be admitted with too much justice,) of the extent to which straggling articles of town produce, without the written permits required by law, and which, if it were not, from the necessity of the case, for the supply of our market from the abundant productions of their farms, gardens, dairies, and poultry yards, in the first place the principal inducement to the traffic complained of, will be removed; and in the second, the town authorities pledge themselves, that if the interests as to supply our market from the abundant productions of their farms, gardens, dairies, and poultry yards, in the first place the principal inducement to the traffic complained of, will be removed; and in the second, the town authorities pledge themselves, that if the interests as to supply our market from the abundant productions of their farms, gardens, dairies, and poultry yards, in the first place the principal inducement to the traffic complained of, will be removed; WASHINGTON. It will be recalled by all, that in the autumn of 1859, the year in which President Washington was inaugurated, he made a tour of the Eastern States, and was received in all places which he visited with the homage due to his illustrious character.

Paris special for wings and with a trumpet blew Great Washington is here - what jubilee is this? What rattle shall be heard - she paired and said, His name above strikes every title dead!

Oriental Apologue - A blind man having contracted a violent passion for a certain female, married her, contrary to the advice of all friends, who told him that she was exceedingly ugly.

The difference between rising at 5 and 7 o'clock in the morning for the space of 40 years, supposing a man to go to bed at the same hour at night, is nearly equivalent to an addition of 10 years to a man's life.

A good name will wear out; a bad one may be turned; a nick-name lasts forever.

Negro Wit - Some few years ago, a gentleman crossed the Potomac eastward below Bladensburg, being destined for that place. Coming to the main WANTED, from 50 to 100 barrels of good Whiskey. J. L. R. Harpers Ferry, June 28, 1852.

DE W. JUDKINS Patent Specific Ointment. PAINS have been taken to make this preparation perfect. It may be had at the following places, viz: James Brown, Charlestown. Adam Young's, Martinsburg. Adam Young & Co., Harpers Ferry. Towner & Harris, Shepherdstown.

TO THE PUBLIC. The following communication, addressed to the proprietor of Judkins' Ointment, from the Hon. John Talliferro, member of Congress, is highly interesting. The grateful manner in which it is cured, exhibits feelings of no ordinary character towards suffering humanity; and is certainly well deserving of public attention.

WATCHE, JEWELRY, & C. D. HOLT, Jr. HAS just received a single assortment of the above articles, which he is anxious to dispose of on the most reasonable terms. As Mr. Maxmore has sold his interest in the shop to me, I left the State, it is highly necessary that those indebted should call early, the good effect of this remedy in the cure of Felons, and of every species of fresh wound. It seems to me that any one who will observe the operation of this Ointment, must be satisfied as to its beneficial effect, and with the utmost confidence recommend the use of this valuable remedy.

Stray Horse. STRAYED from the farm of Mr. Abell, on Wednesday night the 11th inst. A SOBREL HORSE, about 154 hands, high, 7 years old - he has a black streak running down his back; and I think he has three white feet - his head and neck are of a darker color than his body - his tail is short and he carries it up - his hips are broad and high - he is marked with the collar, and trots fast. When approached, he appears vicious, but is harmless - he was purchased from a drover last Spring and it is probable will attempt to return to the West. Any information respecting the said horse will be thankfully received, and all reasonable charges paid. GEO. W. LITTLE, Jefferson Co. July 19, 1852.

Stray Horse. STRAYED from the pasture of Mr. John A. Hatch, near Harpers Ferry, sometime last week, a large bright Bay Horse, five or six years old - full tail, and lately nicked - has a white streak on one side of his back - his near hind leg has some hair rubbed off, occasioned by putting point on for the scratches. He has a lofty carriage, trots, paces, and racks well. All reasonable expenses paid, for the recovery of said horse. JOHN SON GARRETT, Harpers Ferry, July 19, 1852.

Stray Horse. PURSUANT to a warrant, to us directed, we have this day viewed and seized a light Bay Horse, black mane and tail, black eyes, 5 years old, and this Spring, shown to by Conrad Leckler of this county; and we do appraise the said mare to the sum of $35. Certified under our hands this 30th day of June, 1852. THOMAS G. HARRIS, ISAAC N. CARTEW, THOMAS TOOLE, July 26.

NOTICE. THE Bonds and Notes given at the sale of John A. Johnston, dec'd, in December last, are now due. All persons indebted to the estate by bond, note, or book account, are requested to make prompt payment, as the situation of the estate will not admit any further indulgence. All persons having claims against the estate are requested to bring them forward, properly authenticated, for settlement. It is to be hoped that this notice will be strictly attended to, as no longer indulgence can or will be given.

JOHN KABLE, Adm'r. Aven Mills, July 26, 1852.

Fresh Drugs, Medicines, PAINTS, &C. At the Charlestown Apothecary and Book Store. THE undersigned is now engaged in opening a large addition to his former stock of Medicines, &c. The assortment is more complete at this time than it has ever been - having added a number of articles never kept by him before. It is considered unnecessary to enumerate many of the articles - suffice it to say, that almost every essential article will be found on his shelves. The public may rely upon the genuine quality of the goods, and the strictest attention will be paid, by himself, to the putting up and delivering of the articles - purchased of him; and the greatest care constantly observed, to avoid mistakes and the often fatal consequences growing out of carelessness. The subscriber thanks, in all these who have hitherto favored him with their custom, and invites a continuance of their dealings with him. He will cheerfully open accounts, at six months' credit, with punctual dealers who may desire it, and furnish the articles which may be wanted, on the most satisfactory terms. The following list of articles is submitted, viz: Sulphate of Quinine; Piperine Crown, Lima, and Common Bark; Quill Bark of the best quality; the Oil of Black Pepper; Pever and Agus Powders; Acetate of Morphine; Camphoric Acidulous Tincture of Opium; Laudanum Paragoric; Turkey Opium; Iodine; Tincture of Iodine; Hydrochloric of Potash; Extract of Taraxaci; Consolidated or Solidified Copaliba; Extract of Elettarium; Concrete Acidulated Kali; Citrate of Potash; James Powder; real Pulvis Antimonialis; Henry's and McKim's Calcined Magnesia; Calomel Magnesia; by the ounce or pound; also in bottles containing from 1 to 4, 8 and 16 ounces; most of the Cathartic or Antibilious Pills; Meade's and Eoff's Anti-Dyspeptic Pills; Tartar Emetic; Ipecacuanha; Colamel; Jalap; Cream Tartar; Rochelle; Epson and Glauber Salts; Dover's Powders; Carbonate, Sub-Carbonate, and Super Carbonate of Soda; hard and soft lump Magnesia; Pearl Barley; Sago and Tapioca; Thompson's Eye-Water; Turlington's Balsam; Godfrey's Cordial; Dalby's Carmine; Bileman's, Anderson's, and Harris' Cough Drops; Carpenter's Syrup of Liverwort; Essence of Cassia; Cassia Tincture; Compound Mustic; Essence of Mustard; Essence of Bergamot; Lemon; Vinegar and Syrup of Squills; Hives or Croup Syrup; Black Vanilla; a general assortment of Tinctures; Extracts; Essential Oils and Syrups; Sweet Oil, by the gallon or smaller quantity; Florence Oil, in Flasks; Sweet Oil, in bottles, from 25 to 75 cents; Bordeaux, Clarified, and common Salad Oil; very superior, Croton Oil; Castor Oil; Cold-Pressed oil, in bottles, from 25 to 75 cents; British Oil; Harlem Oil; Oil Spike; Oil Stone; Camphor - a large supply of Gums and Resins also, of Roots, Seeds, Flowers, and Leaves.
