THE SEA SERPENT.

The Eastern press announce that on the evening of the 5th instant, a schooner, off Nahant, the favorite lounge of the Old Serpent, sailed the steamer Connecticut upon her passage from Boston to Portland, and told Captain Porter, that if he would look out he might see the Sea Serpent, for "he bore east of Nahant."

The Connecticut sailed on the evening of the 5th instant, a schooner, off Nahant, the favorite lounge of the Old Serpent, sailed the steamer Connecticut upon her passage from Boston to Portland, and told Captain Porter, that if he would look out he might see the Sea Serpent, for "he bore east of Nahant."

The Boston Morning Post has also received a letter from a passenger on board, corroborative of the preceding statement, and says: "Their heads bore a resemblance to the pickering, and the crease of their mouths, marking the division of the jaws, was like that of a common snake. The engine of the boat was stopped, and for three quarters of an hour we had a cool and deliberate view of these monsters."

The Boston Mercantile Journal says: "We have heard the statements of Captain Porter and his passengers, and we are free to say that they leave but little doubt of the existence of the Sea Serpent."

The performance of at least one of the marine monsters—probably the imago for the whole tomorrow. The imago, particularly, is very solemn as well as minute in his manner. He gives the date and distance precisely, having stationed himself yesterday in the fore-rigging, for the express purpose of reconnoitering. The snake, to which he chiefly directed his attention on the latter occasion, was a mile or so S. W. off Nahant. He made his course for him with a steam of 11 inches, and came so near crossing the animal that he solemnly believes he could have jumped upon the vessel's back, had he been in the boat below. Captain Porter left the city this morning at 10 o'clock, accompanied by a large party of gentlemen, in the Connecticut, armed and equipped, on an expedition against them.

The expedition of reconnoissance, referred to above, took place on Monday morning, when a party of eighty to a hundred ladies and gentlemen embarked in the Connecticut, with the expectation of getting a view of His Serpentine Majesty. About 12 o'clock, when the steam boat was half-way between Nahant and the Greaves, the monster was seen approaching. A number of gentlemen took the small boat and made directly for it; but unfortunately did not run upon the animal as intended, owing to a little mismanagement in rowing. The Serpent came within an arm's length of the boat, and without appearing at all alarmed or uneasy, took a slight curve towards the steamer, passed under her stern, within fifty or sixty feet, and then disappeared. At this time his motion was not undulating, as has sometimes been stated, but rather like the movement of an eel, or common water snake.

The excursion of yesterday, says the Columbian Sentinel, has afforded a much better opportunity of seeing this strange animal, than has occurred for years, and it is not inconsistent with the whole tenor of the statements that have been made at different times by great numbers of persons for the last 15 years, since a monster of this description was first announced in our waters. It is admitted on all hands that the appearance of a marine animal of this description, would be a most extraordinary occurrence. But it may be said as an objection, that it would be still more extraordinary, if so many witnesses should be so grossly deceived, as would be the case, if no such animal had appeared. We learn that a gentleman fired at him with a musket, from the steamer, but without effect. The shot was given before he had approached so near the steamer as he did a few minutes afterwards.

We, the undersigned, passengers on board the steamer Connecticut, do hereby testify, that we were in the small boat which put off from the steamer, and approached within ten feet of a Sea Serpent, which passed under our bow at a very rapid rate. As near as we could judge from the view we had of him, his head resembled that of a pickering. His head only appeared on the surface; as to the length of it, it is impossible to determine. The motion was not like that of the porpoise, but resembled that of a common snake.

A New York paper, giving the details of a riot which occurred in that city, says that a person was struck with a brick-bat, and knocked into a wheel-barrow. We have before heard of persons being "knocked into a grease spot," and others who had been threatened with being "knocked into a cooked hat," but this is the first time we have ever heard of any one being "knocked into a wheel-barrow."

Did you ever hear of any one being "knocked into the middle of next week?"

General Intelligence.

MESSRS. RIVES AND GILMER.

A good deal of sensation was produced among the people on our last court day, which was made on the person of our Senator, Mr. Rives, by Thomas W. Gilmer, one of the representatives of our county. It seems that some correspondence had existed between them as to the character of their relations. Mr. Rives having frankly told him of the circumstances, which had induced a reluctant mistrust of his friendly professions, and Mr. Gilmer requiring him to acknowledge the injustice of that mistrust. From the correspondence, which was read in court, on the pendency of the question whether they should be bound in recognitions for keeping the peace, it appeared that Mr. Rives had written the last letter, which expressed in very temperate and inoffensive language, his determination to close the correspondence on his part, as Mr. Gilmer's previous letter was, independent of other evidence, alone sufficient testimony of his unfriendly feeling towards him, and particularly as he had no right or intention to complain that he was not his friend, that having thus ascertained their true relations, and divested their intercourse of those delusive appearances which might prove as injurious to him as they certainly were repugnant to his feelings, he had accomplished the only object which he had in view. Before the reception of Mr. Gilmer's last letter, it is true that Mr. Rives proposed to converse with him on the subject of their difference; but that letter, and especially his reply to it, superseded the necessity of any such conference. They, however, met at one of our taverns, and conversed for the purpose of talking over the subject of their correspondence.

At the close of the conversation, Mr. Gilmer demanded that Mr. Rives should acknowledge the injustice of his mistrust of his friendship, which Mr. Rives refused to do, as he said that he could not do so without falsifying his conscience. Upon this, Mr. Gilmer rose, as Mr. Rives supposed, to leave the room, having failed in the object of the interview, but after suddenly using some offensive language towards him, which was, of course, quickly returned in kind, he tried to inflict on Mr. Rives the Lieut. Randolph outrage, which he was prevented from doing by the presence of the court.

Mr. Rives was still sitting in his chair, totally unapprehending such an attack. There ensued a scuffle, in which Mr. Rives was a little wounded before they were parted. There are, of course, many versions of this affray, materially variant from this, but we give it as the one to which we incline after hearing the different statements. There was no person present at the commencement of the combat, in which Mr. Rives was found quite spiritedly engaged, considering that he was neither by practice nor theory as much celebrated for his pugilistic powers as his antagonist.

From the Virginia Advocate.

We had anxiously hoped to be spared the painful necessity of saying one word, in relation to the very unpleasant affair which occurred in this place on Monday last, between the Hon. Wm. B. Rives and Thomas W. Gilmer, Esq. After the free and full exposition of all the circumstances of the case, which both parties had ample opportunity of making to their respective friends, and which actually was made in the presence of the entire action of the judicial tribunal of the country; and more especially as both gentlemen avowed their determination to give to the public, the entire correspondence between them, we did not for a moment doubt, that the propriety of refraining from any separate statement of the circumstances, under the circumstances which led to it, would be at once recognized and cheerfully acquiesced in, by all.

Notwithstanding this expectation, however, the course which a contemporary has thought proper to pursue, has left us no alternative, in the absence of Mr. Gilmer, who has been called to Lawburg by professional business in the Court of Appeals, we should be wanting in justice as well as friendship to that gentleman, were we to suffer public sentiment to be forestalled, by passing unnoticed, a statement, which had he himself an opportunity of doing so, we know he would promptly reject as his estimation widely varied from the truth. With the issue thus made up between the parties, we have nothing to do. Our business is not to render a verdict;—but to do justice to an absent man, by submitting to the public what we believed to be his version of the occurrence, lest the truth of that which has emanated from another source, be thus unduly, should be deemed undeniable.

Of the correspondence between Mr. Gilmer and Mr. Rives, as it will very soon be in the possession of the public, we even now feel a reluctance to say any thing. It will speak for itself—and the public can decide from its tenor and the facts which it will develop, whether Mr. Gilmer merely complained of Mr. Rives' injustice in mistrusting his friendship, or demanded reparation for the wrong he had done him, by charging him with gross duplicity and double dealing.

With respect to the assault made by Mr. Gilmer upon Mr. Rives, the statement, which has been submitted to the public, differs very widely from Mr. Gilmer's own account of the occurrence. It is alleged that he not only committed upon Mr. Rives, the "Randolph outrage," but actually inflicted a violent blow while he (Mr. R.) was yet in his chair, and altogether unsuspecting the attack, because Mr. Gilmer had risen, for the purpose as he believed of leaving the room.

This statement having been heard by Mr. Gilmer, before he left here, he declared that it was utterly untrue; that he was sitting in his chair, immediately by the side of Mr. Rives, when after several ineffectual demands for an acknowledgment of the wrong he alleged had been done him, he told Mr. Rives, that no alternative was left him, but to pronounce that his "hypocrite," that Mr. Rives, quickly retorted language equally offensive, that whilst he was uttering the retort, both parties were simultaneously rising from their seats. That they were in the act and attitude of rising, when he did commit the "Lieut. Randolph outrage."—This done, Mr. Rives commenced striking him with the butt end of his horse-whip, and inflicted with it one or two slight blows. That whilst this was passing, he attempted to seize Mr. Rives by the coat with his left hand, but in doing so, was so unfortunate as to get his finger into Mr. Rives' mouth, a circumstance which resulted in the

The Pestilence.

Lexington, Va., July 31st.—On Wednesday evening last, a gentleman arrived in this place from Kanawha, who states that the cholera is in that county. Up to the time of his departure, twenty cases had occurred at the Falls, a majority of which had proved fatal.

Both County, Va.—The Lexington Union of July 6, informs us that there had been several sudden deaths in Bath county, Va. within the preceding fortnight, "which are believed by many intelligent individuals to have been cases of the cholera, all of them sporadic or incidental in their character. Others believe they were nothing more than common cholera morbus, induced by eating fruit, and exposure. About ten days have now elapsed since the last death is said to have occurred, and we hear of no other cases or deaths."—The same paper remarks—"The disease is said to be spreading in the country, in Mass county, in this State."

THE FREE PRESS.

THURSDAY, JULY 18.

THE ESSAYS OF "LOCKE."

We will commence, in our next paper, the publication of "An exposition of the Virginia Resolutions of 1799; in a series of Essays, addressed to Thomas Ritchie, by a distinguished citizen of Virginia, under the signature of LOCKE." These essays first appeared, last winter, in the Richmond Whig, and are ascribed to the pen of John Ursum.

We consider nothing more useful to an inexperienced mind, than the perusal of the works of a stern, though friendly, critic. Such an appliance, like the birch of the pedagogue, tho' it may sting, seldom fails to make the pupil "smart"—and he that cannot bear, with possible equanimity, the lash of the critic—and improve by it too—had better throw down his quill and take up the grubbing hoe.

Mr. LEIGH seems to have been remembered at many of the 4th of July celebrations throughout lower Virginia. He is now frequently spoken of as a candidate for the Presidency.

The Orange Democrat suggests the Hon. P. P. BARBOUR, as a candidate for the Presidency, and thinks his chance superior to Mr. Leigh's, on account of his long political career having rendered him better known to the public.

Mr. T. W. WITZ, an enterprising printer in Richmond, (of whose professional merits we have had occasion to speak heretofore,) has forwarded to us a copy of a small work just issued from his press, to which we invite the attention of military men. It is entitled "A Short System of Company Drill—compiled by an officer of the 6th regiment."

A very serious accident, the particulars of which we did not learn until lately, occurred a few weeks ago, on the line of the Canal near Harpers-Ferry. A team belonging to Messrs. Edward, Robert, and William Leuk, of this county, was precipitated from the bank into the river, and five of the horses drowned.

The storm of Sunday last, did considerable damage to many of the corn-fields, fences, and trees, a few miles north of this town. A good deal of hail fell from some of the clouds, which broke the windows of several farm-houses, and cut up the corn-fields very much.

We have assurances from medical gentlemen, that all alarm on the subject of Epidemic Cholera at Harpers-Ferry, is groundless. The place enjoys an extraordinary degree of good health.

JOHN A. THOMPSON, Esq. of this county, has procured at great expense, a very fine Bull, of the Durham short-horn breed, and a heifer of the same stock. They passed through town on Tuesday last, and attracted much attention.

On the 2d of July, the following gentlemen were chosen to manage the affairs of the town of Bolivar for one year:

A meeting has been held in Caroline county, on the subject of a Rail Road from Richmond to Fredericksburg. A committee was appointed to request the Governor to order a survey, and another to correspond with the citizens of other counties, and request their co-operation.

The Lieut. Governor, in the absence of the Governor, has issued a proclamation, offering a reward of $300 for the apprehension of Harold W. Doss, charged with the murder of Morris Roberts, of the county of Campbell.

The first number of "THE EXAMINER," a new weekly paper, by Dr. E. S. Davis, has been issued from Washington City. It is in favor of the present administration, and gives indications of supporting Mr. WEBSTER for the next Presidency.

A Dr. Jennings, of Cambridge, talks of curing cholera by fasting. He says "I was assured by the late Dr. Marshall Spring, that he had never, till seventy years of age, been afflicted by any malady which he did not overcome by abstinence."

We hear, with unfeigned sorrow, of the death of FAUCUS G. YANCER, Esq. senior editor of the Petersburg Intelligencer, who departed this life in Petersburg on Saturday evening last.

THE PENNSYLVANIAN has the following report on the subject of the President's health: "We learn from Washington that the health of the President is tolerably good, considering the fatigue he has recently encountered in his eastern tour."

THE NEW YORK DAILY ADVISER states that the city corporation expenses of the President's late reception in that city, are upwards of seven thousand dollars.

At New Orleans, on the 24th ultimo, after an illness of 24 hours, of Cholera, and in the 77th year of his age, Mr. JOHN RICHARDSON, eldest son of the late Mr. Thomas Richardson of Richmond, Virginia.

THE REV. MR. VARNER of the Methodist Protestant Church, will preach in the Free Church at Harpers-Ferry, on Sunday next at 11 o'clock.

THE REV. MR. HUMPHREYS will preach in the Methodist Church in Charlestown, on Sunday next at 11 o'clock, in aid of the Colonization Society. A collection will be taken up.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Shepherdstown Temperance Society, will be held in the Presbyterian Church, on the 2d Thursday of August, at 3 o'clock, P. M.

LAMENT OF A SINGLE LADY.

It really very strange... I cannot make it out... I'm ruminated, I'm poetized... I'm ruminated, I'm poetized...

Lilly, the famous astrologer, informs us that, in his various conferences with angels, their voice resembled that of the fish.

A Quaker lady was the other day told by her servant that a box of soap had been given her upon leaving her situation.

A Servicable Coffin.—Talking of iron coffins, an Irishman observed, "Ah, that is a coffin that will last a man all his life!"

The Miners' Journal advertises as a runaway from the neighborhood of Potomac, a school master. It is a creditable thing to the neighborhood to have it generally known that "the school-master is abroad."

Lee's Celebrated Medicine ARE NOW SOLD BY JAMES BROWN, DRUGGIST, Charlestown, and JOSEPH C. HAYS, DRUGGIST, Harpers-Ferry.

WHO has just received, and offers for sale, the following tried and highly approved valuable Medicines. Prevention Better than Cure.

Lee's famous Anti-Bilious Pills, (25 cents per box.) The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used in safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

Lee's Nervous Cordial, an excellent medicine for all nervous affections, weakness, pains in the back, loins, &c.

Lee's Essence of Mustard.—No medicine ever so excellent as this, in curing rheumatism, sprains, bruises, frosted feet, &c.

Lee's Sovereign Ointment, warranted to cure the Itch by one application.

Lee's Persian Lotion, an excellent medicine for curing letters, ring worms, prickly heat, &c.

Lee's Vegetable Indian Specific, an effectual cure for the venereal and gonorrhoea.

To Rheumatic Invalids.

THE undersigned takes pleasure in announcing to the public, that he has discovered a sovereign remedy for both the Chronic and Inflammatory Rheumatism. It never fails to cure where the disease is strictly Rheumatic, and the medicine taken agreeably to the directions which accompany each bottle.

NUMERABLE instances might be given of the happy effects, and powerful virtues of this preparation, in the cure of the above very painful and torturing disease, against whose restless attacks the artillery of Medical Science has so long been directed in vain.

DR. JAMES ANDREWS & CO., Agents. N. B. Also, a general assortment of Family Medicines, Confectionary, Fruits, Garden Seeds, &c. &c. to be had at the Baltimore retail prices.

ONELL'S CURE FOR RHEUMATISM. We are not in the habit of expressing an opinion of the efficacy of patent medicines, but in the case of the above mentioned remedy for rheumatism, we feel called on by principles of humanity to state that it has had the most surprising effects.

FOR RENT,

A comfortable dwelling House, near the Presbyterian Church in Charlestown. It has a large and fine garden attached. It will be rented until the first of April next, and possession given immediately. For further particulars, apply to ABRAHAM ISLER. June 13, 1833. A table, &c. are also conveniently situated on the lot.

COACH MAKING. THE subscriber renders his grateful thanks to his friends and the public for the liberal patronage heretofore received, and is determined, if prices to suit the times, and strict attention to business, are any inducements to make, for Smith Shop, and a generous public. Having selected a first-rate stock of materials, and experienced workmen in his employ, he feels confident in stating to those who may favor him with their custom, that they may depend on having their work well executed. He has attached to his establishment a mechanic Smith Shop, and is therefore enabled to make and repair Steel Springs of all sorts; and furnish work with punctuality, and at a lower price than formerly. Carriages of all sorts on hand suitable for any purpose. Old Carriages, Cigs, &c. &c. taken in exchange for better ones. All sorts of work in his line repaired at any notice, and at fair prices. Silver and Brass Mounting kept on hand; and if Kirk halt got 'em, he'll get 'em. His Shop is two doors east of the Stage Office. Shepherds town, May 30, 1833. N. B.—Three Apprentices will be taken to the above business, if immediate application be made: Boys from 14 to 16 years of age will meet with a tolerable chance.

COACH MANUFACTORY. THOMAS SHEPARD (Fletcher, Loudoun street, a few doors North of the Valley Bank) RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public generally, that he has just returned from the Northern cities, at which places he purchased a general assortment of materials, among which are all sorts of Brass Mounting. He feels assured that he can furnish his work at lower prices as can be had of the same quality in this or any other place. He is now prepared to make, at the shortest notice, any description of CARRIAGES; and when novelty is required he will prepare a drawing to suit the ideas of persons wishing it. Repairs of every description, in his line, done in the best manner, and on the most accommodating terms. Old work repaired with the same care as new; and with despatch. He has several second-hand Carriages, Barouches and Cigs, which he will sell low. Orders from a distance executed with punctuality. All kinds of silver and brass plating done at his establishment, in the best and cheapest manner. April 11, 1833.—14.
