CHARLESTOWN. THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 1834.

The reader will be struck with the fact, which is periodically announced by Mr. CLAY, that it is now more than twelve months since we have had a Constitutional Convention...

Another gross usurpation is alluded to by Mr. Webster, in his speech on the Protest. An officer is appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury, to inspect or superintend the deposits in the Bank...

For the recent seat of Mr. STEVENSON, in the House of Representatives, several gentlemen have been already suggested: John Robertson, Esq. (at present the State Attorney-General)...

Mr. WEBSTER'S speech upon the Protest, is a production which, of itself, would have built up the reputation of any man. It is a combination of logical reasoning and sound views, clothed in language plain yet thrillingly eloquent.

NEWSPAPERS.

We omitted, inadvertently, to notice several newspaper changes at the time they occurred, and some new establishments. We now group them together.

The Independent Register.—This is the successor of the Political Spectator at Warrenton, Va. It is edited by EDWARD E. COOKS, Esq., and is devoted to Whig principles. It has been raised to the imperial size.

The Frederick Times.—EDWARD A. LYNN, Esq. has been associated with Col. Shelman, in the management of the Times. It is to be continued as a neutral in politics—devoted principally to literature—and to be enlarged, in order to contain a greater variety. It is an interesting publication.

The Courier and Enquirer.—This is a handsome Mammoth paper, just commenced in Harpers Ferry, by Mr. F. G. W. KERR.—It is judiciously arranged, and the number received by us gives fair promise of usefulness and attraction.

The Franklin Whig and Weekly Messenger.—Mr. J. PERRY has again appeared before the public, in Chambersburg, with a new paper under the above title. It is to be published at the low price of $1 per annum.

The Martinsburg Gazette.—In noticing the change here, we adopt the language of the Winchester Republican:—“Edward Vernon Sparhawk, Esq., formerly of the New York American, has become associated with Mr. Hunter, in conducting the Martinsburg Gazette. Mr. Sparhawk is a gentleman of talents and accomplishments, and of great editorial experience. We wish our friends of the Gazette all imaginable success.”

IN CHANCERY.

THE Master Commissioner Worthington having returned his report of the debts against the estate of Hamilton Jefferson, deceased, and it appearing on review that several of the creditors have not yet had their debts settled, on motion of Barbara Hinkle, executrix, and John T. Hinkle, executor of the report be opened, and that the aforesaid Commissioner do further audit such debts, and settle the same.

Hamilton Jefferson, deceased, and heirs, &c., DEBTORS, AGAINST J. A. BENTZ, ADMINISTRATOR.

Mr. C. Herston, Frederick City, Md., proprietor of Shepherd's P. S. Ointment, (formerly called Judkins').

Mr. Herston—In the fall of 1822, Mr. Nicker, of this county, was afflicted with a severe case of Rheumatism, which he had for several years, and which he had been unable to cure by any of the usual means. He applied to me in many instances in my own family with great success; in burns and scalds I do think it stands unrivalled. It is well worth the attention of every family.

DAVID BROOKHART, NEW-MARKET, FEB. 21, 1833.

Mr. Herston—Since I thought an article in Baltimore, bearing the name of Shepherd's P. S. Ointment, was sold under the name of my name, and not being good. It is true it had your name on the label, but it was not your Ointment. I have since found the way, which I now understand is on the genuine article, and I have since found the way to give notice that the public may be guarded against an imposition of the kind. YOURS, &c.

Dr. Drish, a Druggist in Leesburg, Va. informed the subscriber that three persons had each obtained from him a pot of Judkins' Ointment (not of the subscriber's make). After having tried it, they found it was not good, and returned it to him.

Having had much experience, for many years, in making this Ointment, and being again concerned in the patent right, the public have a right to be cautioned against imposition—and, in order to effect this, and to secure to them the genuine article, it has been thought advisable, as above stated, to cause the subscriber's name, Mr. Shepherd, and to call it over the proprietor's own name.

The following will be heretofore attached to each pot—SHEPHERD'S PATENT SPECIFIC OINTMENT, (formerly Judkins'), made and sold wholesale and retail, by G. HERSTON, near Frederick, Md. To more fully guard the public, (the proprietor's name) C. Herston's name will appear in his own hand writing, written through the circle about the genuine pot.

For sale by JAMES BROWN, Charlestown; HUMPHREY KEYS, do. JOS. G. HAIN, Harpers-Ferry; F. A. McNEILL, Shepherdstown. June 19, 1834.

Further particulars will be given, when prepared for active operations. JOHN B. SAPPINGTON. May 29, 1834.—G.

Wanted to Hire.

THE Master Commissioner Worthington having returned his report of the debts against the estate of Hamilton Jefferson, deceased, and it appearing on review that several of the creditors have not yet had their debts settled, on motion of Barbara Hinkle, executrix, and John T. Hinkle, executor of the report be opened, and that the aforesaid Commissioner do further audit such debts, and settle the same.

Hamilton Jefferson, deceased, and heirs, &c., DEBTORS, AGAINST J. A. BENTZ, ADMINISTRATOR.

Mr. C. Herston, Frederick City, Md., proprietor of Shepherd's P. S. Ointment, (formerly called Judkins').

Mr. Herston—In the fall of 1822, Mr. Nicker, of this county, was afflicted with a severe case of Rheumatism, which he had for several years, and which he had been unable to cure by any of the usual means. He applied to me in many instances in my own family with great success; in burns and scalds I do think it stands unrivalled. It is well worth the attention of every family.

DAVID BROOKHART, NEW-MARKET, FEB. 21, 1833.

Mr. Herston—Since I thought an article in Baltimore, bearing the name of Shepherd's P. S. Ointment, was sold under the name of my name, and not being good. It is true it had your name on the label, but it was not your Ointment. I have since found the way, which I now understand is on the genuine article, and I have since found the way to give notice that the public may be guarded against an imposition of the kind. YOURS, &c.

Dr. Drish, a Druggist in Leesburg, Va. informed the subscriber that three persons had each obtained from him a pot of Judkins' Ointment (not of the subscriber's make). After having tried it, they found it was not good, and returned it to him.

Having had much experience, for many years, in making this Ointment, and being again concerned in the patent right, the public have a right to be cautioned against imposition—and, in order to effect this, and to secure to them the genuine article, it has been thought advisable, as above stated, to cause the subscriber's name, Mr. Shepherd, and to call it over the proprietor's own name.

The following will be heretofore attached to each pot—SHEPHERD'S PATENT SPECIFIC OINTMENT, (formerly Judkins'), made and sold wholesale and retail, by G. HERSTON, near Frederick, Md. To more fully guard the public, (the proprietor's name) C. Herston's name will appear in his own hand writing, written through the circle about the genuine pot.
