THE FREE PRESS.

THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 1834.

It is a matter of just pride to the State, to see the Virginia members, with a few exceptions, acting upon the great principles of truth and justice...

The Virginia members who voted to give Mr. Letcher his seat (to which all impartial men must admit he is fairly entitled) are Messrs. Allen, Archer, Davenport, Fulton, Gilchrist, Gordon, McComas, Mercer, Moore, Patton, Taylor, and Wilson.

Gen. JAMES FINLEY, formerly a representative in Congress from the Cincinnati district, (and once a Jackson man,) is the Opposition candidate for the office of Governor.

We learn, by a gentleman just returned from the West, that the grain crops in Ohio and Missouri have been seriously injured by the unseasonable frosts of the month of May. In some cases, fields have been entirely ruined.

It will be seen, by Mr. Evans' prospectus, that he contemplates the establishment of a newspaper in Shepherdstown. The paper deserves, and will no doubt receive, the active and substantial encouragement of the enterprising citizens of that place.

We refer our agricultural friends to Mr. Rurter's proposal in another column.

RICHARD J. MANNING has been elected, by a majority of more than 600 votes, over Mr. Bess, his opponent, to fill the vacancy in the representation in Congress, from South Carolina, occasioned by the decease of Gen. Beale.

The Jacksons presented a petition to create a belief among the people that the Bank of the United States refused to exhibit their books to the Committee of Investigation.

It is so happened that a judicial opinion, and that, too, by Jackson's Judge, has decided that the copies of the Bank's books, which the section of the charter which authorizes an inspection of its affairs, is silent as to the place where the books shall be examined.

On the day following the rejection of this nomination, the President of the United States nominated to the Senate, for this office of Collector, Mr. Gordon, Junior, the Son of the late Collector, and it is believed, at present a Clerk in the Collector's Office.

There is reason to suppose that the sight which has been witnessed on the banks of the Potomac, shot down from one of our frigates at Toulon, on the King's birthday, may turn out to be unfounded. The New York Journal of Commerce remarks:—"The King's birthday was April 26th. Between that date and May 7th, the date of our latest paper, there was plenty of time to receive authentic accounts of the occurrence, in its regular course of mail. And yet no such accounts appear to have been received. Our Paris paper of the 6th, (Courier Francais) has not a word on the subject; nor do we find any notice of the event on a cursory examination of the previous numbers. The paper of the 4th has a Toulon date, of April 28th, two days after the date of the alleged accident, but it does not mention it. In addition to the obstacles in the way of its truth above suggested, and those hinted by the editor of the New York Journal, we have a letter from an Officer of the Navy, dated at U. S. ship United States, Toulon, May 1st, (the same date with the letter in the New York Journal), and five days after the King's birthday, which communicates various particulars relative to the vessel composing our Mediterranean squadron, but says not a word of any such accident as has been reported. On the 22d of May last, by the Rev. Norval Wilson, Mr. CHARLES BARBER to Miss WILLIAMS G. GRANVILLE, daughter of Mr. William Grantham, of this county.

On Thursday last, by the Rev. Sepimus Tuston, Mr. JACOB BERT to Miss PERRY MERRITT, both of this county.

On Wednesday the 11th instant, at the residence of Mr. Charles Staley, Harpers-Ferry, by the Rev. Mr. Marvin, Mr. STEVEN W. PATTERSON to Miss ANN B. LARKS, both of that place.

On this occasion, the Printers were most cordially remembered. The kind friends, well as the subscribers, are requested to send their contributions to the printer, and that they are generally some "wee things" about the house, look special care there should be in mixing in the composition, a full, plump, and substantial cake of many pounds, with accompaniments sufficient to satisfy most, my old and young. This is what we call a "wedding cake." It is the way to make a sweet and pleasant impression on the memory. And while the years roll on in joy and harmony to the wedding pair, to whom we wish all present and future felicity, and prosperity, and success in all their undertakings, and an example every worthy imitation.

At Albano, near Rome, on the 18th April, the Most Rev. Dr. OLIVER KELLY, the venerable rector, and vicar Apostolic of Albano.

On Sunday night last, in the 79th year of his age, Mr. ROBERT AYS, of Bolivar. Mr. Ays was a soldier of the Revolution, and generally enjoyed, notwithstanding his good old age, a large share of health. In a statement made by him two years ago, he remarked, "I am singular in some respects: I never drank any strong spirits, so as to disguise me; I never wore watches, boots, gloves, or used an umbrella; I never chewed tobacco, snuffed, or smoked; I thought every thing that was in a manner useful, might as well be let alone." Another example of the importance of temperance in all things.

At Philadelphia, on Sunday evening the 25th ult., at the residence of his daughter, Sarah Kurtz, Major JOHN POLKINS, aged 94 years, exactly. During the time that tried our Fathers, Major Polkins raised and fully equipped a Company of his own, and served with credit and fought with distinction at the ever memorable Battle of Trenton—was at the Battle of Monmouth, Germantown, Paoli, and Brandywine, and up to the hour of his death, received no recompense whatever, and no pension of any kind, which he justly deserved. He was a true patriot, and his children are proud to be named after him.

On the 23d ult. in Davidson county, Tenn., at his residence in Jones' Bend, Mr. ALEXANDER DEXTER, sen. aged 83 years. The deceased was the eldest brother of the late Mr. Jackson, wife of Gen'l. Jackson, and was a true patriot, and his children are proud to be named after him.

Departed this life, in the animating prospect of a better, on Friday night last, in the 44th year of his age, Mr. E. P. CLAY of this town. For individuals have ever passed through life more universally beloved, or departed from it more sincerely lamented, than the subject of this notice. He was a true patriot, and his children are proud to be named after him.

PROSPECTUS OF THE PHOENIX GAZETTE, AND Spirit of the Times.

A new paper, to be published by WASHINGTON EVANS, in Shepherdstown, Jefferson Co. Va.

IN offering to the public the prospect of a new gazette in this section, the Editor avers that he is encountering, at the threshold of his undertaking, the objection that there is already published in Jefferson, a paper fully adequate to all local purposes. He has considered this objection, and he thinks it of little weight.

But the great object as it regards the public, of such establishments, the diffusion of useful knowledge, must necessarily be promoted by their multiplication. If they be pushed too far, the loss will not be on the public, but on the rash projector. If the Editor be willing (as he is) to encounter this risk, he does not perceive that others have a right to object that his undertaking is a rash one.

He is determined to spare neither expense or pains to make his paper respectable in its exterior. As for the rest, he can only say, that it shall be devoted to the diffusion of correct intelligence, carefully selected from the mass of truth and falsehood contained in the journals of the sea-port. That it shall be open to a discussion of all questions which bear on the welfare of the public, and that it shall be a republican paper in the true sense of the word, having over the public and good morals, inseparably connected, the humble efforts of the Editor will be unceasingly directed.

The liberties of our country shall, at all times, during the existence of this journal, find in it, if not an able defender, yet a faithful sentinel, who will give timely warnings of impending danger.

If these humble pretensions shall obtain for the Editor a share of the public favour, he will show his gratitude by continually increasing efforts to deserve it.

THE PHOENIX GAZETTE AND SPIRIT OF THE TIMES, will be published once a week, on Wednesdays, at TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable on receipt of the first number, or TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS, payable in advance.

Advertisements not exceeding a square inserted three times in the Gazette for One Dollar, and Twenty-Five Cents for each subsequent insertion.

The publication of the Phoenix Gazette and Spirit of the Times will be commenced as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained to justify the plan.
