The town of Harpers-Ferry is situated at the confluence of the Fotomac & Shenandoah rivers, and at the easternmost outlet of the great Valley of Virginia, contains about 2000 inhabitants, is the seat of the U. S. Armory, and enjoys a water power on the two rivers almost without limit. In addition to its natural advantages, its importance as a placa as trade, will be immensely augmented by the great public works; which now connect it with the City of Baltimore and the District of Columbia on the one hand, and, the ferrils valleys of the Fotomac and file-Kandark, and the Cost region of Cumberland on the others in and near to the centre of business.

It is rarely that capitalists have so desirable as opportunity for investment and speculation as that now presented to them.

The sale will be made on the premises on the day above named, and will be continued from day to day until completed.

The learns are one third in hand—the remaining two filtreds in two equal payments in 2 and 18 inotiths, the purchasers to give bonds for the deferred payments, to be mentred by withholding the title until all the purchase money shall have been paid.

It appears, says the New Orleans Advertiser, that Matagords had fallen into the hands of the Mexicans who had blown up the fortress of Goliad; but a ray of hope still hovers over the cause of freedom, inasmuch as the brave Col. Other accounts state that Col. Fanning had, by orders of Gen. Houston, demolished the fort himself, and effected a safe retreat. These conflicting statements are, however, not calculate to benefit Texas, and should be cautiously put forward by those having the interest of the country at heart. From the Bet.

The following is an extract from Ga-lignani's (Paris) Messenger of March

We have just received the important official intelligence of the acceptation of the mediation of England in the question at issue between this country and the United States, brought to Havre by the New York packet the Albany, which saided on the 10th of February. ny, which sailed on the 10th of Febru-ary. The important news, though ge-nerally expected from the tenour of the yarrous private letters received by the previous arrival, will be hailed with general satisfaction, as putting to rest the anxieties which must of necessity have prevailed while a doubt remained on a subject involving such immense political and commercial interest. BALTIMORE, April 25. Melancholy Suicide.—For some time past, the family and friends of R. Henry, Esq. French Vice Consul for the port of Baltimore, have observed, with much concern, that that gentleman was laboring under a great depression of spirits. They had lioped, however, from his apparent cheerfulness for se-veral days, that his mind was about to veral days, that his mind was about to recover its proper tone, and that the melancholy bour had passed. In this, we lament to say, they were deceived. Yesterday morning, the servant, going to his room to call him to breakfast, discovered him suspended, entirely lifeless, from the tester of his bed. It is presumed, that pecuniary embarrass-ments led him to commit this rash and fatal act.—[Balt. Chron.

THE MURDER OF ELLEN JEWETT.

Though Robinson still maintains that he is guiltless of the murder of his late paramour, the striking emaciation of his frame, and unnatural glaring of his eyes, which have not known sleep since his incarceration in prison, give evidence, not to be mistaken, of the fearful war that agitates his bosom .-

Robinson was in the employ of Joseph Hoxie; Esq. as a clerk, who speaks of his conduct during the two years he resided with him in the most exalted terms. He is from Connecticut, and s of respectable connexions. The unfortunate woman is said to be from Connecticut.

The following is from the Times of hat city :-Among the witnesses examined by the coroner, was Robinson's room mate, who deposed that he went to be out 9 o'clock, and fell asleep; and that waking up in the course of the night, he found Robinson in bed. He asked Robinson how long he had been home, and was told-by him that he came home about 1 past 11. The clock found was not identified as belonging to Robinson, nor as the one he wore on the preceding night; but on being shown to his room mate, the latter, with much agitation, acknowledged that he knew the cloak, and had seen Robinson wear it.

While Robinson was dressing him-self, Mr. Brink noticed that his pantaloons were much covered with white and arsons ever perpetrated in this city, are so fearfully strong, as to warrant scarcely leave a loop to hang a doubt upon, that it was the work of his hand. The deceased was a woman of extraor-tention to a young lady of this city— and Ellen had threatened to expose his habits to her. His intentions can scarcely be doubted, when it is known hat he carried the hatchet with him, and it has been clearly shown since that the hatchet was purchased for the se of the store, by a porter in it. THE PHILADELPHIA TRAGEDY.

Passing, by accident, yesterday, the dwelling of Mrs. Wade, the intended victim of Brown, in the tragedy whiel lost him his life, we were prompted by natural motives of duriosity to ter and survey the apartment where the deed was done, and to make some inquiries respecting the condition of the lady. The room in which the murder was attempted and the suicide accomplished, is small, and was occupied as an office. The deceased could not have stood more than two feet and a half from Mrs. Wade, when he levelled the pistol at her heart. He called her into the front room, for the purpose he said, of showing her some papers.
While fumbling in his pocket for them, he exhibited great agitation, but was smifing all the while. When he drew forth the deadly instruments with such fell intentions, his mahner was playful, and excited no suspicion. He expa-tiated on the beauty of the pistols, and said to Mrs. W. 'I will just snap one at you." On his saying this, she attempted to leave the room. He placed his foot sternly against the door.—
"No! said he, now is my time—I meant to have done this before to day, but now will answer." Providentially the pistol was guarded, and it was ly the pistol was guarded, and if was found necessary to pull back the guard; the weapons both being new. This allowed Mrs. Wade time to get more than half behind the door. When the pistol was discharged, she screamed out to her sister—"Oh! Virginis.—I am shot!" and rushed, exhausted, into the yard. The sister called up the stair-case to another person near by,

GREAT MATCH RACE.

This day came off the great match race between Argyle, a brown Bay Horse, 5 years old, by Tonson, Dam Thistle, and John Bascomb, Sorrel Horse, 4 years old, by Bertram, Dam Pacolet, over the Augusta Course.

It will be reconstructed that at a late

Pacolet, over the Augusta Course.

It will be recollected, that at a late meeting on this Turf, Argyle was matched against Col. Crowell's Stable, for $17,000 against $15,000. The Stable of Col. Crowell, contained, at the same time of making the Race, not only John Baseom, but also Bill Austin, Lady Nashville, and Bolivia. The bet was deemed injudicious in the opinion of many Turfites; because one horse might be out of order on a particular day, but it was not probable that, four horses would be. None acquainted with the powers of Argyle seemed to fear the result if it were certain that he would be in proper condition.

Never was the city of Augusta more thronged, and they could not have been ess than five thousand spectators of the ace. From Louisiana to New York second mile, Bascom passed his opponent with much ease, and was well ahead on reaching the post, which space was gradually but rapidly increased throughout the heat. It was evident Argyle was beaten his heat, and at the commencement of the fourth mile it was likewise evident he would be postpositively denies any knowledge what-ever of the circumstances—denied the fourth mile, Bascom run under a heavy pull, notwithstanding which Argyle was distanced, and the race ended. The following is the correct time of each mile and of the heat;-

First Heat. First mile, 1m. 55 1-4s.—2d do. 1m. 55s.—3d do. 1m. 55 1-2s.—4th do. 1m. 58 1-2s.—7m. 44 1-2s.

From the time made in this race it is evident that John Bascom would have equalled or surpased the time made by Henry and Eclipse, in their celebrated contest. Here we see another evidence of Carolina blood, Bascom being in the direct line from stocks of our breeding. Last year the vote stood: For Griggs, Whig 11; Berry, Whig, 396. Cameron, Adm. 387 dorgan 310. Whole number of votes polled this year 846. is year 846. Thus it will be seen that 400 votes were polled this Spring, than at the excited election of the last year—and at least that number over the vote of any previous election in this county.

It was generally conceded during the can Yass that Mr. Boteler would be elected. The main contest was expected, as it proved to be, between Mr. Davenport and one or the other of the Van Buren candidates. In consequence of unfavorable weather on Monday, the polls were kept open three days. At the close of the first day, Mr. Davenport was 14 votes ahead of Mr. Cameron, the leading Van Buren candidate. On Tuesday, there was comparatively a calm in the contest—the elements were silently preparing for a storm as Wednesday—and but few votes were taken. lively a calm in the contest—the elements were silently preparing for a storm on Wed-nesday—and but few votes were taken. Wednesday came, when, as was expected, the most strenuous efforts were made by both parties. Men, horses, whips, spurs, every thing was brought into setive requisition, to bring voters to the polls. Every nook and corner of the county was scoured—Loudoun, Clarke, Frederick, and Berkeley counties were called on to fly to the rescue. Both parties fought valaintly, and each seemed confident of victory. But, with the evening of Wednesday, came the fulfilment of our predictions. The contest closed. ns we had foretold our Van Buren friends it would, with the success of both of our candidates. Gratified, as we certainly are, at this ree yet we will not give way to any exultation The majorities, we admit, are not so large as we had anticipated. Sufficiently so, however, we think, to remove all doubt in relation to the strength of parties in Jefferson. We believe the election for President, next Fall, will exhibit a most decided majority against Mar race. From Louisians to New York there were visitors, as well as from every intervening State. The course was in splendid order, and the backers of Argyle confident of success. Nor were they without friends to back their opinion. The immediate friends of Bascom were equally confident; but without their circle Bascom found few to back him in equal bets. Two to one was generally required, in some instances 10 to 8 and 10 to 7. After Saturday but few bets of magnitude were concluded. The friends of Bascom had their injustry and perseverance, their cause is not more worthy of their efforts.

P. S. Since the election, our reliah for good old Port has very much improved—a particular, kind of Wine about which our friend of the Richmond Enquirer discoursed so elequently a few weeks ago.—Perhaps he can inform us where a few bottles may be had.

before, and demonstrated. We have said before, and demonstrated. We have the utmost confidence that at this day, the Whige Electoral Ticket would succeed in Virginia by a decided majority. But this is not the most flattering view of the subject. The Whige are a growing, the Van Buren a receding party. The polis prove an accession of strength in avery quarter, some helf dozen consisted excepted. The Whige have really receded no where, cave in Matthews, and perhaps a few votes in Dinwiddle and King and Queen. In Albemaric, they polied more largely than the list year.

NEW YORK ELECTIONS.

We have said, in announcing the progress of the elections in Viriginia, that the Whigs leave reason to be congratulated on the result, as far as ascerained. It is with no ordinary satisfaction that we are now able to say the same of the result of the Corpothe same of the result of the Corpo-ration Election in the city of Nxw York. We feared that our friends were so sunk in apathy, or rather that their strength was so scattered by the division of sentiment among them in the canvass for the Presidency, as not the canvass for the Presidency, as not to be able to rally upon any one point. We are happily undeceived. They yet have strength enough to accomplish any purpose for which they will consent to unite. The elections in Vincinia disclose this fact, and the following result of the election of last week in the city of New York cer-roborates it :- Nat: Int.

From the New York Gazette of Salurday. We give to-day the result of the election in each Ward for Aldermen and Assistants. The result cannot but be gratifying to every Whig. It will be seen that seventeen Wards out of 32, the whole number in the city, have returned their candidate for Aldersea the whole number in the city, have returned their candidates for Aldermen and Assistant Aldermen; giving the Whigs a majority of two in the city councils.

The Whigs could have carried their Mayor with but little effort; but in consequence of the late hour at which Mr. Geer was brought forward, many of them voted for Mr. Lawrence, who has generally discharged the duties of his station in a manner which has given a satisfaction to the public and secured for him, the approbation of all parties.

The result of this election proves what we have always proclaimed to our friends at a distance—that not-withstanding the overwhelming popu-larity of Gen Jackson, Van Buren is in a very decided MINORITY in this Ci-ty and State; and when the Presidential contest comes on, it will be found that even in this State, the cause of the Constitution is destined to triumph over the party in power.

The effect of this exhibition of the real weakness of Van Buren in his own State, cannot fail to be most saland with the indications already ceived from Pennsylvania and Ohio, we may with great justice anticipate a certain triumph in the presidential contest. At all events our friends both here and elsewhere, will now be satisgreat cause for which they contend.

The Virginian of yesterday says we were in error in our last paper, in stating that Mr. Wood intends contesting Col. The Corn Planter—A machine of this name, for which a paicnit has been obtained by Hearty Blair, a free man of color, of an adjoining county of Marryland, is now exhibiting in the Capitol. It is a very simple and ingenious machine, which, as moved by a horse, opens the furrow, drops (at proper intervils, and in an exact and suitable qualitity) the corn, covers it, and levels the earth so as, in fact, to plant the corn as rapidly as a horse can draw a plough over the ground. The inventor thinks it will save the labor of eight men.—We understand he is about to modify the machine, so as to adapt it to the planting of cotton. If it will accomplish (as we are inclined to believe it will) all which he supposes, it will prove to be an invention of great utility.

White Sulphur Springs, Virginia.— The great and growing celebrity of these Springs—the valuable and suc-cessful qualities of the waters, attract ceisful qualities of the waters, attract an immense concourse, not only from New York, but from the North and East. It is supposed that three thousand ladies and gentlemen were at the White Sulphur last season, and as great improvements and accommodations are in progress, it is believed that the number will be considerably sugmented next summer. Upwards of 200 were from New York. Arrangements are about making to have dramatic representations, concerts and balls during the season, and the entire energies of the proprietors, including a vast expensional content of the expensional conten

MOW IS THE TIME! On the 15th of August next.

To be disposed of under the superintendence of the Trustees appointed by an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed a December assains, 1834—to authorize Henry Shafer, George Shafer & H. I. Shafer, To Distribute their Estate by Let.

This property is situated in the village of Penistenes in Washington County, on Saltimore to Wheeling and distant two miles from Hagerstown, being in the centre of one of the most populates, wealthy and thriving counties in the State of Maryland.

The Mile are upon the waters of the Antietam, and driven by said stream (with ample water power) and which is very constant and never-failing.

The advantages attached to those mills are numerous, being in one of the most productive counties in the stale for wheat and sail kinds of grain, wool, &c. being distant only 6 miles from Williamsport en the thegapeake and Ohio Canal, and near Hagerstown, (with a Turnpike leading to both places,) one of the best wheat markets in the stale, where large quantities of grain finds its market from Pennsylvania, &c. The proposed Rail Road contemplated from Chambersburg and passing through Hagerslown, to intersect the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road at Weverton on the Polomae, will pass very near in this place. There is not much doubt but that the Antietam will be made navigable, so as to intersect the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal at the Antietam Fron Works—as there is now a lock at this place, Suilt by the Politamse Company, which will pass a boat from the waters of the dam to the water below it.

In justice to Tyrant his owners do not hesitate to assert, that he never ran in any race in condition, except at Middleburg.

Tyrant is not the only one of fits dam's family that has become distinguished for his racing performances; Veto, his full brother, has acquired a high reputation on the turf—having won three out of four races in remarkably quick time, showing no lack of bottom. And his full sistery who has been trained, is pronounced to be one of the most promising fillies in the lower part of Virginia.

For mares from a distance grain and pasturage will be afforded at the lowest neighborhood prices. The greatest possible care will be taken to prevent accidents and excepts, but no responsibility for any that may happen.

GOLIAM is a handsome bay, 17 hands high, 7 years old—raised by the subscriber, out of a stock celebrated for the draught—himself not uxcelled. His cells (without, I believe, as exception) show great size and muscle, as many in this neighborhood, and a humber on Buliskin, would conclusively evidence.—To gentlemen of either place, I respectfully refer any person desirous of information.—The Groom is authorised to make contracts. He promises much attention and care, but I will not be liable for accidents in the discharge of his duty. charge of his duty. JOHN PETER:
