

Democrat

CHARLESTOWN, JEFFERSON COUNTY, PRINTED AND PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY J. S. & H. N. GALLAHER.

VOL. 29.

THURSDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 15, 1836.

NO. 46.

FREE PRESS.

THURSDAY, AT TWO DOLLARS & FIFTY CTS.

Payable half yearly; but Two Dollars will be received in advance, in full, if paid entirely in advance. Whichever payment is preferred before the expiration of the year, interest will be charged.

For description six months, $1 25, to be paid invariably in advance.

ADVERTISING.

The terms of advertising are for a square for less, $1, for three insertions; for four, $1 50; for five, $2; for six, $2 50; for seven, $3; for eight, $3 50; for nine, $4; for ten, $4 50; for twelve, $5; for fifteen, $6; for twenty, $7; for thirty, $8; for forty, $9; for fifty, $10; for one hundred, $18; for two hundred, $32; for three hundred, $45; for four hundred, $55; for five hundred, $65; for six hundred, $75; for seven hundred, $85; for eight hundred, $95; for nine hundred, $105; for one thousand, $115.

All advertisements not ordered for a specific time, will be continued until formally charged accordingly.

FOR RENT.

That well-known GAVEN STAND, The Valley Hotel,

In Charlestown, Jefferson County, Virginia, situated in the most central part of the town, and in the most convenient location for business, and at present occupied by Mr. I. N. Carter, who intends to move to the West, and under whose immediate management, the house has attained a high reputation.

The house is large and commodious, including private apartments for a family, with convenient stables on the premises, one of which is inferior to no other in the Valley. There is a well of good water in the yard, and in fact every convenience an establishment of the kind requires.

Possession to be had on the first day of April next. The terms will be made known by application to JOHN KENNEDY, Jr., Charlestown, Va.

For National Intelligence and Baltimore Patriot, $1, in country.

BARBERING.

AT HARPER'S FERRY.

SOLOMON WILLIAMS, BARBER, HAS removed from the place where he has been for some time, to the new building, and is now in the possession of the premises, and is prepared to receive his customers, and to perform all the duties of a barber, in the most skillful and agreeable manner.

He has also a new and improved machine, which he uses in shaving, and which he is confident will give more satisfaction than any other in use.

He is also a hair dresser, and is prepared to do all the hair dressing in the most skillful and agreeable manner.

He is also a hair dresser, and is prepared to do all the hair dressing in the most skillful and agreeable manner.

ACID.

YOUNG'S

For sale at

AGNESIA.

YOUNG'S

For sale at

R. REMEDIATES.

YOUNG'S

For sale at

LAST CALL.

YOUNG'S

For sale at

TO THE PUBLIC.

YOUNG'S

For sale at

PATENT.

YOUNG'S

For sale at

FOR SALE.

YOUNG'S

For sale at

NOTICE.

YOUNG'S

For sale at

ADVERTISING.

YOUNG'S

For sale at

ADVERTISING.

YOUNG'S

For sale at

ADVERTISING.

YOUNG'S

For sale at

ADVERTISING.

YOUNG'S

For sale at

ADVERTISING.

YOUNG'S

For sale at

MESSAGE.

President of the U. States.

Received and read in both Houses of Congress, Dec. 8, 1836.

Follow-citizens of the Senate, and House of Representatives.

Addressing to you the last annual message I shall ever present to the Congress of the United States, it is a source of the most heartfelt satisfaction to be able to congratulate you on the high state of prosperity which our beloved country has attained. With no causes at home or abroad to lessen the confidence with which we look to the future for continuing proofs of the capacity of our free institutions to produce all the fruits of good government, the general condition of our affairs may well excite our national pride.

I cannot avoid congratulating you and my country, particularly on the success of the efforts made during my administration by the Executive and Legislature, in conformity with the sincere, constant, and earnest desire of the people, to maintain peace, and establish cordial relations with all foreign powers. Our gratitude is due to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe; and I invite you to unite with me in offering to Him fervent supplication that his providential care may ever be extended to those who follow us, enabling them to avoid the dangers and the horrors of war, consistently with a just and indispensable regard to the rights and honor of our country. But although the present state of our foreign affairs, standing without important change as they did when you separated in July last, it is flattering in the extreme, I regret to say that many questions of an interesting character, at issue with other powers, are yet undisturbed. Amongst the most prominent of these, is that of our north-eastern boundary. With an undiminished confidence in the sincere desire of his Britannic Majesty's Government to adjust that question, I am not yet in the possession of the precise ground upon which it proposes a satisfactory adjustment.

With France, our diplomatic relations have been resumed, and under circumstances which attest the disposition of both Governments to preserve a mutually beneficial intercourse, and foster those amicable feelings which are so strongly required by the true interests of the two countries. With Russia, Austria, Prussia, Naples, Sweden, and Denmark, the best understanding exists, and our commercial intercourse is gradually expanding itself with them. It is encouraged in all these countries, except Naples, by their mutually advantageous and liberal treaty stipulations with us.

The claims of our citizens on Portugal are admitted to be just, but provision for the payment of them has been unfortunately delayed by frequent political changes in that kingdom.

The blessing of peace have not been secured by Spain. Our connections with that country are on the best footing, with the exception of the burdens still imposed upon our commerce with her possessions out of Europe.

The claims of American citizens on Muscat and Siam; the ratifications have been exchanged, but have not reached the Department of State. Copies of the treaties will be transmitted to you, if received before, or published, if arriving after, the close of the present session of Congress.

Nothing has occurred to interrupt the good understanding that has long existed with the Barbary Powers, nor to check the good will which is gradually growing up in our intercourse with the dominions of the Government of the distinguished chief of the Ottoman Empire.

Information has been received at the Department of State, that a treaty with the Emperor of Morocco has just been negotiated, which, I hope, will be received in time to be laid before the Senate previous to the close of the session.

You will perceive from the report of the Secretary of the Treasury, that the financial means of the country continue to keep pace with its improvement in all other respects. The receipts into the Treasury during the present year will amount to about $47,531,595; those from customs being estimated at $23,533,151, those from lands at about $14,000,000; and the residue from miscellaneous sources. The expenditures for all objects during the year, are estimated not to exceed $32,000,000, which will leave a balance in the Treasury for public purposes, on the 1st day of January next, of about $15,737,595. This sum, with the exception of five millions, will be transferred to the several States, in accordance with the provisions of the act regulating the deposits of the public money.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

Yon will perceive that the extraordinary mission from Mexico has been terminated, on the sole grounds that the obligations of this Government to itself and to Mexico, under treaty stipulations, have compelled me to trust a discretionary authority to a high officer of our army, to advance into territory claimed as part of Texas, if necessary to protect our own or the neighboring frontier from Indian depredation. In the opinion of the Mexican minister, who has just left us, the honor of his country will be wounded by American soldiers entering, with the most amicable avowed purposes, upon ground from which the followers of his Government have been expelled, and over which there is at present no certainty of a serious effort on its part being made to re-establish its dominion. The departure of this minister was the more singular, as he was apprized that the sufficiency of the causes assigned for the advance of our troops by the command of General Taylor was seriously doubted by me, and that there was every reason to suppose that the troops of the United States—their commander having had time to ascertain the truth or falsehood of the information upon which they had been marched to Nacogdoches—would be either there in perfect accordance with the principles admitted to be just in his conference with the Secretary of State, by the Mexican Minister himself, or were already withdrawn in consequence of the impressive warnings their commanding officer had received from the Department of War. It is hoped and believed that this Government will take a more dispassionate and just view of this subject, and not be disposed to construe a measure of justifiable precaution, made necessary by its known inability, in execution of the stipulations of our treaty, to act upon the frontier, into an encroachment upon its rights or a stain upon its honor.

In the mean-time, the ancient complaints of injustice made on behalf of our citizens, are disregarded, and new sources of dissatisfaction have arisen, some of a character requiring prompt remonstrance, and ample and immediate redress. I trust, however, by tempering firmness with courtesy, and acting with great forbearance upon every incident that has occurred, or that may happen, to do and to obtain justice, and thus avoid the necessity of again bringing this subject to the view of Congress.

It is my duty to remind you that no provision has been made to execute our treaty with Mexico for tracing the boundary line between the two countries. Whatever may be the prospect of Mexico's soon being able to execute the treaty on its part, it is proper that we should be, in anticipation, prepared at all times to perform our obligations, without regard to the probable condition of those with whom we have contracted them.

The result of the confidential inquiries made into the condition and prospects of the newly declared Republic of Texas, has been communicated to you in the course of the session. Commercial treaties, promising great advantages to our enterprising merchants and navigators, have been formed with the distant Governments of Muscat and Siam; the ratifications have been exchanged, but have not reached the Department of State. Copies of the treaties will be transmitted to you, if received before, or published, if arriving after, the close of the present session of Congress.

Nothing has occurred to interrupt the good understanding that has long existed with the Barbary Powers, nor to check the good will which is gradually growing up in our intercourse with the dominions of the Government of the distinguished chief of the Ottoman Empire.

Information has been received at the Department of State, that a treaty with the Emperor of Morocco has just been negotiated, which, I hope, will be received in time to be laid before the Senate previous to the close of the session.

You will perceive from the report of the Secretary of the Treasury, that the financial means of the country continue to keep pace with its improvement in all other respects. The receipts into the Treasury during the present year will amount to about $47,531,595; those from customs being estimated at $23,533,151, those from lands at about $14,000,000; and the residue from miscellaneous sources. The expenditures for all objects during the year, are estimated not to exceed $32,000,000, which will leave a balance in the Treasury for public purposes, on the 1st day of January next, of about $15,737,595. This sum, with the exception of five millions, will be transferred to the several States, in accordance with the provisions of the act regulating the deposits of the public money.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of appropriation on the 1st day of January next, are estimated at $14,616,062, exceeding by $9,336,062 the amount which will be left in the deposit banks, subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, after the contemplated transfers to the several States are made. If, therefore, the future receipts should not be sufficient to meet these outstanding and future appropriations, there may be soon a necessity to use a portion of the funds deposited with the States.

The unexpended balances of

