To die and leave behind... Naught of surviving fame... Of the rhyme, creating mind... No trace, no single name...

Every one must recollect the tragic story of young Emmett, the Irish patriot... it was too touching to be soon forgotten...

But there was one heart, whose anguish it would be impossible to describe... In happier days and fairer fortunes...

To render her widowed situation more desolate, she had incurred her father's displeasure by her unfortunate attachment...

Denials appear to excel most of the puffing gentry in the invaluable attribute of impudence...

Rodily Strength.—A friend of ours says he is growing weaker and weaker every day...

Inconveniently Handsome.—A late number of the North River Times says the personal appearance of the editor of the Newburgh Journal...

LADIES' CORSETS.—Mr. Jno. Hand, of Somerfield, Pa., gives notice that he has invented a very simple apparatus to be attached to ladies' corsets...

ing. She declined his attentions, for her thoughts were irrevocably engrossed by the memory of her former lover...

It was on this lady that Moore composed the following lines: She is far from the land where her young hero sleeps...

INDIAN MARRIAGE PROMISE.—A young Indian lately failed in his attention to a young squaw. She made complaint to an old chief, who appointed a hearing or trial...

LOVE'S TELEGRAPH.—If a gentleman wants a wife, he wears a ring on the first finger of the left hand...

THE PERSON.—The person, says the eloquent author of the Sketch Book, who told her story, had seen her at a masquerade...

ODD FELLOWSHIP. VIRGINIA LODGE, No. 1. Anniversary Meeting, May 19, 1887. CORRESPONDENCE. BROTHERS:—In pursuance of a resolution adopted at a meeting of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Virginia Lodge, No. 1...

ADDRESS. Ladies, Gentlemen, and Brethren: I arise not for the purpose of making a formal address, but of offering a few concise remarks upon our prosperity in Virginia...

Destructive Conflagration.—A slip from the office of the Norfolk Beacon, dated June 4th, says: "The beautiful village of Suffolk has suffered from a most destructive conflagration..."

The U. S. Circuit Court, sitting at Washington, has ordered that R. H. White, who has been in close confinement since his last trial for burning the Treasury building, be admitted to bail in the sum of one thousand dollars...

The Hon. Arthur P. Hopkins, Chief Justice of Alabama, has resigned that office, in consequence of the inadequacy of the salary. He intends to resume the practice of the law.

June 9, 1837. The body of our lamented townsman, John P. Alvey, was found on Monday last. It had risen to the surface, and drifted about a mile and a half below the "Deep Bottom," where it was discovered by the hickman the day he disappeared. There is no doubt but it was a deliberate act of suicide with him; yet, from all the circumstances, he must have resolved on it but a short time previous to its commission. His great anxiety to overtake the boat, connected with his arrangements, and other facts, prove conclusively his intention of going to Philadelphia; and not the slightest evidence is afforded of his abandoning the idea until the day of his disappearance. His reflections about his condition, then, no doubt, returned with triple force upon him; and his body, faint and feeble from the effects of his malady, left him not enough of resolution to resist the temptation of self-destruction. (Richmond Compiler.)

PHILADELPHIA, June 6. GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH. A Protest, signed by the Commissioners from the Synods of Geneva, Genesee, and Union, against the resolutions of this Assembly, declaring the Synod to be received of the Presbyterian Church, was read, and referred to Messrs. J. Witherspoon, Murray, and Simpson, to be answered. Mr. Plummer, from the committee to answer the protest signed by the Commissioners from the Western Reserve Synod, made a Report, recommending that the Protest be entered on the minutes, accompanied with the answer prepared by the committee. The report was read, accepted, and adopted, and the protest and the answer were ordered to be entered on the minutes. Mr. Plummer offered a resolution. That a committee be appointed to prepare a Circular Letter to the Churches of Jesus Christ, throughout the World, explanatory of the course of this Assembly, and assuring them of our best wishes for their highest interests. Mr. Plummer also offered a resolution in substance as follows:—That a committee be appointed to prepare a letter to be addressed to all the churches formed on the "Plan of the Union of 1801," advising them to adopt such action as they may deem proper before the first day of April, 1838, either to connect themselves with the Presbyterians in due constitutional form, or to organize on the Congregational principles; and also recommending the ministers, in each and every case, to yield their preferences to the majority, in order that the ordinances of the gospel may be maintained in vigor and unity. After debate, the previous question was demanded, and decided in the affirmative—so the resolution was adopted. The General Assembly being informed that the Commissioners to this body from the Synods of the Western Reserve, having served a notice on the Trustees of the General Assembly, to meet to consider any orders drawn on resolutions passed by this Assembly, in resolving the Synod of the Western Reserve no longer in connexion with the Presbyterian Church. Mr. Breckenridge offered the following resolutions:— 1st. That this Assembly expects of its Trustees full compliance with all its acts as in past times, and relies confidently on their continued fidelity to the Church in the discharge of all the important duties of their office. 2d. That the Presbyterian Church is morally responsible, and will fully and cheerfully meet that responsibility, to sustain their Trustees in all their acts in consequence of any resolution passed, or order given, in virtue of such resolution of the present or any other General Assembly, and to hold said Trustees harmless, by reason of any loss or damage they may personally sustain thereby. 3d. That this Assembly, in virtue of the powers vested in it by the act incorporating its Trustees, do hereby, in writing, direct their Trustees to continue to pay, as heretofore, and to have no manner of respect to the notice mentioned above, nor to any similar notice which may come to their knowledge. And these resolutions, duly signed and certified, shall be delivered to them on the part of this Assembly. FINAL CLOSE OF THE PROCEEDINGS. The last business transacted on Wednesday evening, was a vote on the question for dissolving the Third Presbytery of Philadelphia. The following was the result:— For dissolving, 75 Against, 61 All judicial cases, now pending, were referred by vote, to their respective Synods, or to the next General Assembly. Various protests were read on the part of the minority against the doing of the majority, on the questions we referred to in our report of yesterday. They were ordered to be entered on the minutes. A considerable quantity of routine business was then transacted, and the House dissolved with prayer and benediction; on the motion of Mr. Plummer, that the General Assembly should re-organize on the third Tuesday of May, 1838, in the same place—the Seventh Presbyterian Church.
