I have thought it incumbent on me to state, that she has been under my protection for the last seven ute elituation which her would-be friend or friends would attempt to make it appear. Nor is it with my approbation that the appeal in her behalf has been made through the Free Press. and I have no reason to believe that she herself cels under obligations to the authors of those eces, for thus lugging her before the public an object of general charity. She, it is true, has received a small yearly "stipend" from the County, and many favors from time to time from kind friends for all of which she it know. feels duly theakful; but neither she nor I can ave any thanks to bestow upon those who appear more anxious to write about her in the pe persethan to practice upon the charitable sug-gestions they make for the use of others.
