Important Letter from Gen. Harrison

In the Richmond Whig of Monday last, we had the following interesting letter from Gen. Harrison, written in reply to one from Gen. Lyon, Esq. of Richmond, who will now say he is in the keeping of a Committee, that he is an Abolitionist, &c.

My Dear Sir—When I received your letter of the 14th April, I was very sorry to find a violent cold in the head, which terminated in intermittent neuralgia, or sun pain, as it is commonly called, which was so much increased by waiting, that I was obliged for some time to do very little in that way. When I recovered, my unanswered letters had increased to so fearful a mass that I have not yet been able to get through it, even with the assistance of my confidential clerks.

I have not yet been able to get through it, even with the assistance of my confidential clerks. And although I have adopted the method of getting rid of a large portion of them by committing them to the flames instead of the committee, such are the constant interruptions to which I am subjected by a constant stream of visitors, that I am unable to do more than to appear in public, which it is essential for me to do, as well from the regard I feel for you in consequence of the long and intimate friendship and connexion between our families. But for these reasons, candor induces me to say, that I could never have brought myself to enter into the political part of your letter. I am convinced that your objection to my will yourself think that it was totally unnecessary, for I cannot suppose that my personal friends and connexions in my native State would think that I was less of a gentleman or an honest man than those ardent politicians farther South, Stansly, Alford, Lezare, Dawson, King, &c.

I have not yet been able to get through it, even with the assistance of my confidential clerks. I have not yet been able to get through it, even with the assistance of my confidential clerks. I have not yet been able to get through it, even with the assistance of my confidential clerks.

I have not yet been able to get through it, even with the assistance of my confidential clerks. I have not yet been able to get through it, even with the assistance of my confidential clerks. I have not yet been able to get through it, even with the assistance of my confidential clerks.

I have not yet been able to get through it, even with the assistance of my confidential clerks. I have not yet been able to get through it, even with the assistance of my confidential clerks. I have not yet been able to get through it, even with the assistance of my confidential clerks.

of a production. I had no conversation with Mr. Adams on politics, farther than to explain to him my views in relation to the change in the system of selling the Public Lands, which I was glad to find approved. As soon as the law was passed for the division of the North-Western Territory, I was informed that it was the intention of Mr. Adams to nominate me to the Government of Indiana. I hesitated not a moment to decline that I would not accept it, although very much pressed to do so by several leading Federal members of Congress. I was not in deprecating the motives of those gentlemen. There had been some meetings of the people of the Territory, in which resolutions had been adopted recommending me to the President for the Government of the Territory (North Western) instead of Gov. St. Clair.

Those resolutions, with corresponding addresses, had been forwarded to the President and Senate. Now it so happened that two distinguished Senators had fixed their eyes upon the same object. One of them, who had been most urgent for me to go to Indiana, had large possessions in the North Western Territory, which, by his going, would be the subject of his wish to go there. But the main object was to secure the Territory to the Federal party when it should become a State, which it was known would soon be.

I therefore accepted the appointment, with a determination, as Indiana had no voice in the choice of the President, that I would take no part in the contest. I have thus given you a full account of my connection with the Presidency of Adams. I will conclude by saying that Mr. Jefferson lost no time after his inauguration, to assure me of his favor and his confidence; and I think there is sufficient evidence that I retained both to the end of his administration.

In answer to the enquiry why I used the word "Abolition" in designating a society of which I was a member in Richmond, in the year 1791, instead of the word "Humanity," which is known to be the one by which the society was really distinguished? All that I can say upon the subject, is, that I did really term it an Abolition Society, a fact which I can still hardly believe. (For I have not been able to see the paper containing my address to the people of the District in 1822.) It must have been from forgetfulness, which might easily happen after a lapse of thirty years.

I have written to a friend in Congress Mr. Joseph Williams of Tennessee, showing the connection which existed between the Hamilton County Corresponding Committee and myself, and authorized him to make it public. I was about to make some further observations, when I was interrupted by a party of gentlemen from Louisville, and must conclude by assuring you that I am, Very truly yours, W. H. HARRISON.

We invite attention to the letter of the Hon. Nathaniel P. Tallmadge, the able and energetic Senator of the United States from New York. His views upon the prospects of the approaching Presidential election are entitled to great weight for no man has better opportunities of acquiring correct information, or is more industrious in gathering it and assiduous in the application of the true means for drawing correct conclusions from it. In regard to his own State, New York, he says it is certain—beyond all doubt, for Gen. Harrison by an overwhelming majority. And he is equally confident of the success of the Whig party in the other States, and gives to every section of the country fully confirmed intelligence from the most reliable sources as to the result of the election. As to the result of the election, he says that the Whig party will be elected in every State, and that the Whig party will be elected in every State, and that the Whig party will be elected in every State.

"The Prospect before us." The inquiry is frequently addressed to us, both at home and from a distance, for our opinion in regard to the probable result of the issue about to be tried by the People of the United States between Martin Van Buren and William Henry Harrison. We beg leave to refer all such inquiries to the subject before us. It is not our business to give our opinion on the subject, but to present the facts and circumstances as they are, and to leave it to the judgment of the people. We believe that the Whig party will be elected in every State, and that the Whig party will be elected in every State.

My Dear Sir—Your letter of the 23rd inst. was duly received. It is surprising to me that Ritchie's bragging in the Richmond Enquirer about New York, should give our friends more credit than it merits. Since their overthrow in Connecticut, Rhode Island, Virginia, and in certain local elections in Pennsylvania, their prospects have brightened wonderfully! They are looking up, because they are not their backs. They know they cannot make anything of it, and they are looking up, because they are not their backs. They know they cannot make anything of it, and they are looking up, because they are not their backs.

It will be seen by the proceedings of the meeting at the Court-House on Monday last, that the Whigs of Jefferson have fixed upon Thursday 30th July for the grand meeting, and that the Whig party will be elected in every State, and that the Whig party will be elected in every State. and inspire, and which impels to greater exertion. It is confidence, in short, which will justify the expectations of our friends, and disappoint the hopes of our enemies. After all we have done in New York, for the last three years, under the most unfavorable auspices, is not a little surprising to us now, with all our bright prospects before us, that a single friend abroad should, for a moment, entertain a doubt of our triumph. New York is just as certain for Harrison, as that the time of election is near. And if my old friend Ritchie, who goes for men and not principles, would like to venture a suit of clothes on the issue, I should be pleased to accommodate him—or if he does not choose to venture it on New York, I will venture it on the Union, for, as Randolph says, he will be "baiter accommodated." I will take a suit on each.

A Democratic Republican State Convention will soon be called at the old headquarters at Syracuse. It will be held about the 1st of October. There will be a Conservative rally on that occasion, such as has not been seen before in the State. The real Democracy will there, to take the most effectual measures against the Federal usurpations of Mr. Van Buren. New York adheres to her old Democratic Republican principles, and will resist the Federal usurpations of Mr. Van Buren. New York adheres to her old Democratic Republican principles, and will resist the Federal usurpations of Mr. Van Buren.

What possible ground, then, is there for Mr. Ritchie or any other man to claim New York for this Federal Administration? The Spenserian has published three times a week, and they appear to be engaged in a warm discussion in relation to the description of emigrants to the colony by England, and in regard to convict labor—the land-holders only being entitled to the labor of the convicts. It is a lucky thing that we are at peace with brother Jonathan, or we should have been molested pretty considerably. We trust that the Government will see the propriety of immediately erecting batteries for our defence.

which we have always endeavored to maintain for candor, will cause our statements to be believed both by Harrison men and Van Buren men. We will promise by saying, that we have viewed matters rather as a philosopher than as a politician—aiming merely to ascertain the truth in regard to the various parts of the issue. From the nomination of Gen. Harrison at Harrisburg, up to the time we left this place, we had but a poor opinion of his prospects in the approaching contest. In common with the opponents of Mr. Van Buren generally in this part of the country, we should have preferred Mr. Clay to Gen. H. as the nominee of the Convention—and, owing to the apathy occasioned by our disappointment, we were in a fit state of mind to reflect coolly upon events occurring in the Old Dominion.

That the State of Virginia has undergone a great change in her feelings towards the Administration of Mr. Van Buren, cannot be doubted by any one who has seen the country. There were three Log Cabins, all admirably designed and constructed, and appropriately ornamented. The celebrated Sharpshooter Cabin, in addition to its other furniture, had a huge bear on its roof, as safely chained and as harmless, with people will-chain and render Martin Van Buren the fourth of July. The Whig party will be elected in every State, and that the Whig party will be elected in every State.

heights from the East. There were the whole-souled, hard working boys from old Antietam Works, who intend going their death against the bad-money currency and the reduction of wages, though they work in hard metals and reduce the cold minerals to consistency and form, for useful parts of the machinery.
