

TRAVELING.

ON THE RAIL-ROAD.

Passenger Train of Cars will leave the Ticket Office at Winchester every day at a quarter past 5 o'clock, A. M. By this arrangement...

DR. DREBACH, Kuhn & Fryor's DYSPEPTIC CORDIAL.

Diagnosis, Sick Head, Ache, Rheumatism, Ac. Sc. THE Proprietary of this preparation of the Cordial...

G. E. Fryor & Co. having in August, 1839, become the proprietors of the Dyspeptic Cordial...

TESTIMONIALS.

From the Rev. James H. W. Munroe, Librarian of the American Library, Frederick County, Md. May 9th, 1840.

From the Rev. William Runnels, Having frequently used the Dyspeptic Cordial prepared by Drs. Drebach, Kuhn and Fryor...

From the Rev. Leonard B. Gurley, I have confidence in the Dyspeptic Cordial prepared by Drs. Drebach, Kuhn and Fryor...

By Judge Briggs, Having suffered for a length of time under the complaint of the Dyspeptic Cordial...

To Dr. Drebach, Kuhn & Fryor, I was for two or three years afflicted with a dyspeptic condition...

To G. E. Fryor, I will comply with your request to furnish a statement of the case in which your Dyspeptic Cordial was used...

By Judge Briggs, My wife, after having been afflicted with dyspeptic disorder for a length of time...

By Judge Briggs, My wife, after having been afflicted with dyspeptic disorder for a length of time...

By Judge Briggs, My wife, after having been afflicted with dyspeptic disorder for a length of time...

By Judge Briggs, My wife, after having been afflicted with dyspeptic disorder for a length of time...

By Judge Briggs, My wife, after having been afflicted with dyspeptic disorder for a length of time...

By Judge Briggs, My wife, after having been afflicted with dyspeptic disorder for a length of time...

By Judge Briggs, My wife, after having been afflicted with dyspeptic disorder for a length of time...

By Judge Briggs, My wife, after having been afflicted with dyspeptic disorder for a length of time...

By Judge Briggs, My wife, after having been afflicted with dyspeptic disorder for a length of time...

CHARLESTOWN, JEFFERSON COUNTY

VOL. 33.

BUNKER-HILL DECLARATION.

When men rise from their ordinary occupations, and assemble in great numbers, proper respect for the judgment of the country, and of the age, requires that they should clearly set forth the grave causes which have brought them together...

In the next place, we declare our warm and hearty devotion to the Constitution of the country, and to that union of the States which has so happily cemented...

We believe, too, that party spirit, however natural or unavoidable, it may be in free Republics, yet when it gains such an ascendancy in men's minds as leads...

We are in favor of the liberty of speech and of the press, and we are the friends of free discussion; we espouse the cause of popular education; we believe in man's capacity for self-government; we desire to see the freest and widest dissemination of knowledge and of truth; and we believe, especially, in the benign influence of religious feeling and moral instruction...

But, unhappily, he became involved in a controversy with the then existing Bank of the United States. He manifested a decided hostility to the Bank, and it is probable that his opposition to it was the cause of his removal from office.

OUR COUNTRY—THE HOME OF THE FREE STATE-UNION AND LIBERTY.

Printed and Published Weekly.

THURSDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 24, 1840.

reprobation, that no man raises his hand or opens his mouth in his favor. It was during the progress of the late Administration, and under the well-known auspices of the present Chief Magistrate...

We believe that the general tone of the measures of the Administration, in the manner in which it confers favors, its apparent preference for partisans of extreme opinions, and the readiness with which it bestows its confidence on the bold and most chicaning, are producing serious injuries upon the political morals and general sentiments of the country.

And standing here, this day, with the memory of those fathers fresh on our hearts, and with the feelings of their glory and the monuments of their fame before our eyes, we feel that we are bound to stand by the principles of our fathers, and to stand by the principles of our country.

Those who desire a change, throughout the whole country, have agreed, with extraordinary unanimity, to support Gen. WILLIAM H. HARRISON for the office of President. We believe him to be an able and patriotic statesman, who has distinguished himself by his services to our country...

It is not a local, but a national question, and the Union of the States, on whatever link the blow of injustice or corruption falls, it is felt, and ought to be felt, throughout the whole chain.

But, unhappily, he became involved in a controversy with the then existing Bank of the United States. He manifested a decided hostility to the Bank, and it is probable that his opposition to it was the cause of his removal from office.

BY JOHN S. & H. N. GALLAHER.

NO. 85.

and ending stain on the early history of the Government. Finally, on this spot, the fame of which began with our liberty, and can only end in it, in the presence of these multitudes...

Every person knows I do not care myself, and yet my money and my time, which might have been devoted to other pursuits, have been bestowed on the cause of the Republic.

Every person knows I do not care myself, and yet my money and my time, which might have been devoted to other pursuits, have been bestowed on the cause of the Republic.

Every person knows I do not care myself, and yet my money and my time, which might have been devoted to other pursuits, have been bestowed on the cause of the Republic.

Every person knows I do not care myself, and yet my money and my time, which might have been devoted to other pursuits, have been bestowed on the cause of the Republic.

Every person knows I do not care myself, and yet my money and my time, which might have been devoted to other pursuits, have been bestowed on the cause of the Republic.

