THE END OF THE DRUNKARD.

A New York Correspondent of the U. S. Gazette, describing an evening on the Battery, concludes his letter with the following peculiarly touching and affecting incident, in which is portrayed in a few words a scene which was melancholy to look upon.

A crowd had gathered near the gate at the southern extremity of the Battery, and several voices were heard at the same moment upon the air, crying for vengeance upon a wretched form that reeled into the enclosure in a beastly state of intoxication. He was apparently about fifty years of age, and was followed by a young, beautiful and interesting girl, not out of her teens. A moment before I saw him, he had raised his arm and struck this lovely being to the earth. For this the crowd was pursuing him, and would doubtless have committed some summary act upon the inebriated wretch, had not the same delicate form interposed to prevent the consummation of the deed. She approached timidly and fondly begged the monster to come home. He swore by the living God that he would never return.

Little did he think, as he uttered the oath, that the vengeance of that God whose sacrilegious lips had profaned, was at that moment hanging over him, and that the angel of death was waiting upon his head to bear him with all its might and upon his head to bear the presence of the Creator he had mocked.

He shook the fair girl from him with a curse, and staggered to the railing. A cluster of boats was at some distance from the shore, and a few voices were singing one of Russell's songs. The drunkard contrived to clamber on the uppermost rail, and having seated himself, calmly to the singers to perform something lively or "—his eye, he would come out there and sing for himself!" In endeavoring to change his position, his foot slipped, and he fell into the waters to rise no more. Great exertions were made by the boats to render him assistance, and more than one daring fellow plunged into the sea; but all in vain—his body has not yet been recovered. The tide was running strong at the time, and he may have floated to the other side of the bay, or to the opposite shore in a few days.

The poor girl was almost frantic—she rushed to the water's edge, crying "Father! dear father! for heaven's sake save my father!"—it was indeed her father. He had once enjoyed a handsome property, but liquor ruined him. He sold his house for it, and at last his garments. His wife died from want, and his daughter had supported him and three brothers by the labor of her hands.

He swore he would never again enter her house because she would not give him liquor; he cursed her, and died while a curse against himself yet hung upon his lips. The daughter did not leave the spot before midnight, and her cries appalled the stoutest hearts around her. Twenty dollars were raised among the spectators, but when handed to her, she exclaimed, "Not a cent give me my father!"

Poor girl, she called in vain. That father was in another presence. She was borne from the place by some friends, and when I left the spot, the lightness of heart which had drawn me to the scene had departed, and I felt it almost a sin to be happy amidst the wretchedness man makes for himself.

Recipe for making good Bread.—Mr. James Roche, so long celebrated in Baltimore as a baker of excellent bread, having retired from business, has furnished the American with the following recipe for making good bread, with a request that it should be published for the information of the public:

Take an earthen vessel larger at the top than the bottom, and in it put one pint of milk-warm water, one and a half pounds of flour, and half a pint of malt-yeast, mix them well together, and set away till it rises and becomes warm, place it in from three to five hours; (it may be set at night if it is wanted in the morning); then put two large spoons full of salt into two quarts of water; and mix it well with the above rising; then put it in about nine pounds of flour and work your dough well, and set it by until it becomes light. Then make it out into loaves. The above will make four loaves.

As some loaves are dry, and others runny, the above quantity, however, will be a guide. The person making bread will observe that runny and new flour will require one fourth more salt than old and dry flour. The water also should be tempered according to the weather—in spring and fall it should be only milk warm; in hot weather cold, and in winter warm.

The True Accomplishments.—A young lady who has possessed all the accomplishments that education and refined society can give her. She may possess an amiable disposition and an untarnished reputation, but can she spin? Can she perform the domestic duties and manage household affairs economically and frugally? Let the young man just entering into life, look to these things, for they are of more importance than is at first imagined.

A "stuck-up" sort of a genius entered a shop in Baltimore, and, turning up his nose at some peaches in the window, exclaimed, "Are these peaches fit for a hog to eat?" "I don't know, try them, and see!" was the instant reply of the shopkeeper.

An old lady, who had been reading the famous moon story very attentively, remarked with emphasis, that the idea of the moon's being inhabited was incredible to believe; "for," said she, "what becomes of the people in the new moon, when there is nothing left of it but a little streak?"

SHANNONDALE SPRINGS, In Jefferson County, Va.

THIS well known watering place was opened for the season on the 10th June, under the management of Mr. ISAAC N. CARTER, who had charge of it in 1838, and gave such general satisfaction, and whose experience that time will enable him to be still more efficient, as to add greatly to the comfort and pleasure of visitors.

To those who have never visited these Springs it may be proper to say, that they are situated on the Shenandoah river, 4 miles from Charlottesville, the county seat of Jefferson, and can be reached in one day from Philadelphia, Baltimore, or Washington. Passengers stop at Harper's Ferry, dine, and then proceed ten miles to the Winchester and Potomac Railroad at the Charlottesville Depot, whence they are taken in Coaches provided by the Company five miles to the Springs.

The virtues of the waters are well known—Hundreds of the most obstinate cases, which would yield to nothing else, have been perfectly cured by these waters. In Dropsy, Dyspepsia, and all Derangements of the digestive organs and liver, and in many other affections, they have proved invaluable.

The proprietors have secured an abundant supply of ICE, and are so indispendable to comfort in warm weather.

THE PROPRIETORS. June 16, 1842

To the Public. My engagement with the Shenandoah Company, to take charge of their house during the Springs season, will in no wise interfere with the management of my Hotel in Winchester, Va. I must, however, be permitted to have the latter concern kept in the best possible style; and my friends and the traveling public may rely upon the utmost exertion to minister to their wants.

My Ice House has well stored for the season. ISAAC N. CARTER. June 16, 1842.

Keep it before the People! Cheaper yet, and no mistake!

MOTHERS, SPARE YOUR CHILDREN. DR. PARIS' SOOTHING SYRUP. For Children Cutting Teeth.

THIS medicine is used and recommended by thousands of families for the immediate relief of those "little, helpless offspring." As soon as this medicine is used according to the directions, the child is relieved, and recovers without the painful use of the lancet. No family should be without this medicine where there are young children.

CAUTION.—There is a deleterious Soothing Syrup, put up in plain bottles, and the name of PARIS, spelled with two R's, when the genuine is spelled with only one, with several other alterations, in order to evade the law. These base villains who sell a counterfeit medicine to destroy the health and lives of "LITTLE BABES," should meet the quantum of every person that has one drop of paternal humanity in them. One of these "baseless villains" has gone so far as to publish a Soothing Syrup for sale at his store, in his own name, and attach the Direct, &c. verbatim as that of DR. PARIS. Any individual that will thus rob the Proprietor of that which is secured to him by law, is worthy a seat in the Penitentiary. HE IS MARKED.

REMEMBER, the only place in Charlottesville for the genuine DR. PARIS' SOOTHING SYRUP, is at the Drug Store of J. H. BEARD & CO. S. KILHAM'S Store, Harpers-Ferry. Price 50 Cents.

COACH MAKING.

I AM still to be found at my old stand—I am determined to keep the wheels rolling, in spite of the "hard times." I have a large supply of my "tough heavy and Ash," which I will warrant when manufactured into Carriages, to stand hard driving and hard times. My friends will please give me a call, as I will be glad to accommodate them.

I am responsible for all debts contracted by the late firm of J. W. HAWKS. March 24, 1842.

STONE CUTTING.

WILLIAM LOUGHRIDGE respectfully informs the owners of the best and latest Frederick and adjoining counties, who may wish to mark the graves of their lamented dead, that he still continues to make and supererob

Monuments—Box, Column, and plain Tomb Slabs, and Head & Foot Stones, of every variety.

Having purchased an extensive QUARRY of the most beautiful White and Variegated MARBLE, and an extensive water power to saw and polish with, his prices will be LOW. One great advantage to purchasers is, that all Stone will be delivered at his risk, without any extra charge.

LETTERING neatly executed. My application to Mr. Horatio G. Gallaher, Charlottesville, those who may desire any of the above articles can be shown the list of prices and the different plans. He will also forward orders, by express, to Baltimore or to the District, or by addressing him, at Leitersburg, Washington County, Md., orders can be filled without delay.

No imposition need be feared, as his prices are uniform. January 21, 1841—11.

WOOLLEN FACTORY.

HAVING erected an extensive building at the Mouth of Bulskin, in a good location, with the best water power in Virginia for the purpose, (being on a stream that is never injured by ice, and is a constant flow,) we are now in operation a very superior WOOLLEN ESTABLISHMENT, to be conducted by WILLIAM JOBE, under the name and firm of JOBE & CO. The best and latest improved Carding Machines ready to card Rolls for country custom between the 1st and 15th June, and to be fully prepared between the 1st and 15th July, and to receive wool from all its branches, such as Cloths, Cassinets, Filled and Plain Linseys, Flannels, Blankets, &c.

Our Machinery is of a superior order, and will consist of the latest improved Carding Machines, clothed with good Cards as can be selected in the United States—also the best and latest improved Spinning Machines with 200 spindles; and the latest improved Power Looms, manufactured by a man who stands higher in the estimation of his countrymen for the workmanship and durability of his looms, than any one in the country.

The whole establishment is to be conducted by an experienced workman, who has ample testimonials of his qualifications. From the location of the Factory, with a constant supply of water, and the fact that no expense has been spared to procure machinery and fuel, we are confident that we have no reason to flatter ourselves that we can turn out as good articles as any establishment in the Valley, and hope thereby to give full satisfaction to all our friends who may be desirous of goods, or favor us with their work.

Our friends in Loudoun will readily appreciate the advantages of this Establishment. It is about five miles above the Shenandoah Ferry, and a Road is about to be opened from the latter point along the River to the Rock's Ferry. We will exchange Goods for Wool on the most accommodating terms, and purchase Wool for cash when in operation.

JOHN KABLE, WM. K. JENKINS, DAVID JOHNSTON, WILLIAM JOBE. May 19, 1842.

IRON & BRASS FOUNDRY.

Machine-making, & Blacksmithing. THE subscriber still continues the above business at his shop near the Depot of the Winchester and Potomac Railroad Company where he is prepared to execute all orders in his line with dispatch, and having a large assortment of Patterns suitable for Merchant, Grist and Saw Mills, and Threshing Machines. He also manufactures Steam Engines, Corn and Saw Grinders and Grinders, Cutting Boxes, Plaster Breakers, Corn Shellers, &c.

TO MILLERS.

The subscriber having secured an interest in Johnson's approved Saut Machine, in the counties of Jefferson, Frederick, Berkeley, Morgan, Hampshire, Hardy, Clarke, Loudoun, Fauquier, Rappahannock, Shenandoah, Rockingham, Warren, Page, and Rockbridge, is now manufacturing this highly approved machine at a reduced price. It has stood the test, and has surpassed all other machines for effectually cleaning grain of chaff, smut, and other impurities. It requires one-third less power to do the same work than other machines now in use, and is warranted to perform well or no sale.

He also manufactures and keeps constantly on hand all approved Corn and Saw Grinders and Grinders. His machinery is now in use, and gives general satisfaction, saving much in feeding stock, and is easily attached to water or steam power. He also manufactures Woodcock's Self-Sharpening Ploughs. There are now a number in use, and they keep up the reputation they have acquired, proving a great saving to the farmer. These ploughs are warranted to perform well, or no sale.

Three-horse Machine Castings, Mould Boards, and all other Mill-work constantly on hand, whole or retail. Having had long experience in the business, he is enabled to say that he feels satisfied that he is able to turn out as good Flour as any other concern in this section of Virginia—being located immediately at the Mill race, and the fair market price. All that grind their Wheat within for every three hundred pounds of Merchantable Wheat he will give a barrel of superfine Flour. His country Mill will be kept in complete order. Any person having anything to do in that line will be accommodated in the best possible manner.
