We have rarely been more deeply pained than we are at the relation of the casualty we are about to record, which took place in our own county, on Sunday last, in the vicinity of Brownsburg. A man by the name of Reid, a blacksmith and over for Mrs. McBride, who has been for some time past, we believe, neglected of insanity, commenced on Sunday morning a work of destruction at which the imagination recoils with horror. He picked up one of his children, and holding it by the feet smashed its skull against the bedpost and threw it over a high porch out of the house; he also mangled another very severely; we have not heard yet whether they are alive; his wife's next attack, she fled and a goodly number of neighbors, several came and attempted to take him; he was armed with a bar of iron, with which he struck down Mr. Stuart, and next attacking Capt. James McClesney, he struck him on the head and brought him to the floor, where he continued to beat him, until his skull was broken. He was then with great difficulty taken and confined. Mr. McClesney we are told got up and walked to the spring and washed himself; he was asked if he was seriously hurt, he replied, that he did not know; a litter was brought to convey him home, where he died about 4 o'clock on the same day. Capt. McClesney has left a wife, with a large family, and numerous friends and acquaintances, to mourn over his sudden and distressing death. The author of this bloody tragedy is now confined in a jail.

Boil Irish Potatoes—Good and in the manner in which they are prepared for the table. Some cooks always have heavy, hard, watery potatoes, while others, for the most part have them dry, mealy, and excellent. This difference depends generally upon the difference in cooking; the dry potatoes are cooked in cold water, warm them through by a slow fire, and cools them as slowly, while the other puts them in boiling water, stirs the fire till they are just done, takes them out immediately, throws a wet cloth round them, and gently squeezes each with the hand till it cracks open, for the particles of water to escape in the form of steam, then peels them and they are exactly right. By this plan almost any potato will do well.—Nashville Agriculturist.

As good as it were in Japan.—The Nantucket Islander says the following story was lately told by a reformed inebriate, as an apology for much of the folly of drunkards:—A mouse, ranging about a brewery, happened to fall into one of the vats of beer, was in immediate danger of drowning, and appealed to a cat to help him out. The cat replied, it is a foolish request, for as soon I get you out I shall eat you. The mouse piteously replied, that that fate would be better than to be drowned in beer. The cat lifted him out, but the fumes of beer causing nausea, the mouse took refuge in his hole. The cat called upon the mouse to come out—'You recalc, did you not promise that I should eat you?' 'Ah!' replied the mouse, 'but you know I was in liquor at the time!'

A Pair of Beauties.—Kendall in his Santa Fe Sketches, says:—'I trust my readers will not doubt my sincerity when I assert that the prettiest girl I ever saw was selling woolen stockings at twenty cents a pair at Holmes' Hole, Massachusetts. Her twin sister in beauty was in her bare feet upon a mud wall at Albuquerque, New Mexico, with a pumpkin upon her head!'

An Excellent Hint.—The New York Tribune contains the following:
"Passing through Water street yesterday, we noticed a crowd collected near the corner of Wall, and on approaching, discovered a young man very industriously turning a grindstone. Upon making inquiries, we learned that he was asking charity and employment, and some had set him at work to turn the grindstone at a shilling per hour. He had then been turning with the most solemn earnestness for several hours, surrounded by a crowd of spectators."
The fellow that employed that beggar had an equal share of philosophy and humanity in his composition.

Sixteen and Sixty.—An eloquent modern writer observes, that "men look back and laugh over the loves and sorrows of their boyhood, and elderly ladies believe that those are the days of unmix'd happiness. There is indeed a bloom and a purity in early joys, which no after pleasure can rival, no after prosperity revive; but they have little practical knowledge of the manhood, who think the pang less keen, the draught less bitter, at sixteen than at sixty."

Singular Fact.—A correspondent of the Norfolk Herald, in Matthews county, Va., vouches for the fact that it has rained on every Court day in that county for the last eighteen years. There must be something very remarkable in the course of Justice, in Matthews, when it causes the heavens to weep thus, says the Richmond Compiler.

LAST NOTICE.
THOSE whose accounts with Messrs. Fenn & Stevens are unsettled, are again notified that the books and papers of that firm are ready for settlement, and in Charleston, at a convenient place for settlements. And those who have billed and are indebted will be expected to make payment at least in part of their indebtedness by the first of October next.
A disregard of this notice by any, will cause their debts to be enforced by suit, and that without any respect to the debtors.

WOOLLEN FACTORY.
Having erected an extensive building at the Mouth of Bullkith, on a good location, with the best water power in Virginia for the purpose of being a great and better factory, by means of a superior order, and will soon have in operation a very superior WOOLLEN ESTABLISHMENT, to be conducted by WILLIAM JOBE, under the name and firm of JOBE & CO. We expect to have our Carding Machine ready to card Wools for country custom between the 1st and 15th of July, for manufacturing Wool in all its branches, such as Chilts, Cassimere, Filled and Plaid Linings, Flannels, Blankets, &c.
Our Machines are of a superior order, and will consist of the latest improved Carding Machines, clothed with wool Cards as can be selected in the United States—one of the best and latest improved Spinning Machines with 200 spindles and the latest improved Power Looms, manufactured by a man who stands higher in the estimation of manufacturers, for the workmanship and durability of his looms, than any one in this country.
The whole establishment is to be conducted by an experienced workman, who has ample power, and is of the best quality, and a constant supply of water, and the fact that no expense has been spared to procure machinery and materials of the best quality, we have some reason to flatter ourselves that we can turn out as good articles as any establishment in the Valley, and hope thereby to give full satisfaction to all who may be desirous of manufacturing goods, or favor us with their work.
Our friends in Loudoun will readily appreciate the advantages of this Establishment. It is situated on the Shenandoah Ferry, and a Road is about to be opened from the latter point along the River to the Rock Ferry.
We will exchange Goods for Wool on the most advantageous terms, and purchase Wool for cash when in operation.
