

IRISH REPEAL MEETING AT HARPERS-FERRY.

Pursuant to notice, a meeting was held on the 13th inst. in the Free Church at Harpers-Ferry...

Whereas patriotic efforts are now in progress in Ireland to recover the all-important and indisputable right of the Irish to legislate for themselves...

Acting Secy. This Society shall be called the Repeal Association of Harpers-Ferry.

21. The object of this Association shall be to afford the people of Ireland such aid as may be in its power, consistently with the obligations of the members as American citizens, to regain their legislative independence.

22. The Officers of the Society shall be a President, Recording Secretary and Treasurer...

23. The funds of the Society shall be held by the Treasurer, and applied by the Society as occasion may require.

24. All questions shall be decided by a majority of the members present.

25. Twenty-two individuals then subscribed to the Constitution, after which Dr. Garry addressed the meeting.

On motion, it was Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting, together with Dr. Garry's Address, be published in the Virginia Free Press.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned till Monday, June 29th.

WILLIAM H. MOORE, Chairman. JAMES GARY, Secretary.

DR. GARY'S ADDRESS.

Fellow Citizens: Ireland has been misgoverned, nay tyrannized over by the British Government for seven centuries...

It is such a country that the British Government defend, and such a people that it grinds in the dust...

It is such a country that the British Government defend, and such a people that it grinds in the dust...

VIRGINIA FREE PRESS.

Thursday Morning, June 22. THE WHIG BANNER. HENRY CLAY AND AMERICAN INDUSTRY.

The South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

"Few men have been so efficient [as Mr. Calhoun] in the defence of the liberties of the country from that dangerous and all-potent enemy of Federalism, a United States Bank."

Now the history of the country, as known to all intelligent men, presents these facts, that the Federalists in Congress, when the bill passed granting the charter, as a party, generally opposed it...

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

THE RICHMOND WHIG.

Mr. Pleasants, co-editor of this paper, takes leave of it in the following manner: RICHMOND, JUNE 10, 1843.

My Dear Sir: The state of my private affairs requiring my undivided attention, I am unable to attend to the Richmond Whig...

The Whig is conducted with great ability by Mr. Moseley, its present editor, who is not only well versed in the politics of the country, but is daily improving in the vigor and piquancy of his style.

The Henrico Agricultural Society keeps up its semi-annual exhibitions with great spirit. Premiums have been awarded for various products, animal and vegetable...

The Ploughing Match was the scene of all the most animating and interesting scenes attending those men farmers with coats of oil...

The Silk Culture. There cannot be much doubt that the silk culture is destined to constitute a new and very important interest in this country.

Mr. Grieve is a practical Scotch farmer, who has lately settled in the vicinity of Richmond, and is infusing new life into the bosoms of his agricultural neighbors.

There was a banner carried by the boys which had a banner carried by the boys which had a banner carried by the boys...

There was a banner carried by the boys which had a banner carried by the boys which had a banner carried by the boys...

There was a banner carried by the boys which had a banner carried by the boys which had a banner carried by the boys...

There was a banner carried by the boys which had a banner carried by the boys which had a banner carried by the boys...

There was a banner carried by the boys which had a banner carried by the boys which had a banner carried by the boys...

There was a banner carried by the boys which had a banner carried by the boys which had a banner carried by the boys...

There was a banner carried by the boys which had a banner carried by the boys which had a banner carried by the boys...

There was a banner carried by the boys which had a banner carried by the boys which had a banner carried by the boys...

COL. JOHNSON AND HIS COMPETITORS.

While the partition of Mr. Calhoun and of Mr. Van Buren, respectively, are contending for the Democratic nomination, without appearing to think that any one else has the least chance of obtaining it...

Among the beautiful products of the season, we have seen nothing superior to a Bouquet of Flowers from Mr. Allen's garden at Winchester, arranged by Mrs. A. for a member of our family.

By the death of Major John White, High Sheriff of the County, all process for the present, will be issued in the name of Maj. John White, the Sheriff.

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

How few the Whigs (the Virginia Republican) will believe, that the South Carolina Convention, which lately nominated Mr. Calhoun for the Presidency, makes the following bold and impudent assertion in its address:

ARRIVAL OF THE COLUMBIA.

The steam ship Columbia, from Boston, arrived at Liverpool on the 28th May, having made the passage in eleven days and two hours.

The day after the sailing of the last steamer, Lord Stables introduced certain resolutions into the House of Commons, based on the long list of measures for the introduction of Canadian flour and wheat at a fixed duty of 1s. per quarter.

The Court Circular contains a long account of the christening of the infant Princess, on the 23rd inst.

It is stated that the French brig of war Vigie has captured the western coast of Africa, and taken into Goree, an English vessel laden with slaves for the West Indies.

Mr. O'Connell will not leave Ireland to attend his parliamentary duties before the 10th of July.

The names selected for the infant Princess are Alice Mary, names thoroughly English.

A fire broke out on the 24th May, at Dobson, in Austria, which destroyed 200 houses, the Catholic church, and the town hall.

The Smyrna Journal of the 28th ult. mentions that a fire broke out at Smyrna on the 30th, which consumed 2,000 shops of the grand Bazaar.

AMERICAN OILS.—It has recently been discovered in Liverpool, that the Americans have been attempting to introduce a spurious article under the name of "lard oil," which consists of 60 per cent. sperm oil and only 34 of lard oil.

IRELAND.—Ireland, as before the present moment, the exclusive attention of the British Ministry and the British people.

IRELAND.—Ireland, as before the present moment, the exclusive attention of the British Ministry and the British people.

IRELAND.—Ireland, as before the present moment, the exclusive attention of the British Ministry and the British people.

IRELAND.—Ireland, as before the present moment, the exclusive attention of the British Ministry and the British people.

IRELAND.—Ireland, as before the present moment, the exclusive attention of the British Ministry and the British people.

IRELAND.—Ireland, as before the present moment, the exclusive attention of the British Ministry and the British people.

THE PITTSBURGH AMERICAN.

"Something new comes to us every day. At Cincinnati, they have commenced the manufacture of a very neat and useful article of floor and hearth cloth, from hogs' bristles, which is first softened by immersion for a given time in lard oil, and then spun and woven into cloth, with the different arrangements of natural colors that fancy dictates."

Horrid Tragedy.—We learn verbally the following particulars of a most atrocious affair, which occurred in Madison. It seems that a young man named Ford was severely cowardly for some offence, by a man named Back. The brothers of Ford, two or three in number, were highly incensed at the account of the occurrence, and threatened revenge.

Defeat of the Texian Fleet. We trust the information contained in the following letter will prove incorrect, although the editor of the New Orleans Courier vouches for its accuracy.

Extract of a letter dated, Vera Cruz, May 28, 1843. You no doubt have heard of the engagement of the 16th inst. between the Mexican steamers alone and the Texian fleet, together with the Campechan barges, which resulted in the triumph of the Mexicans, who did great damage to the Texians. Thirty of their men were killed, among which were three officers, and 9 or 10 wounded.

THE WASHINGTON CAPITOL OF SATURDAY notices a rumor in that city that Dr. Barton, the head of the bureau of Medicine, in the Navy Department, has been removed from office.

THE WASHINGTON CAPITOL OF SATURDAY notices a rumor in that city that Dr. Barton, the head of the bureau of Medicine, in the Navy Department, has been removed from office.

THE WASHINGTON CAPITOL OF SATURDAY notices a rumor in that city that Dr. Barton, the head of the bureau of Medicine, in the Navy Department, has been removed from office.

THE WASHINGTON CAPITOL OF SATURDAY notices a rumor in that city that Dr. Barton, the head of the bureau of Medicine, in the Navy Department, has been removed from office.

THE WASHINGTON CAPITOL OF SATURDAY notices a rumor in that city that Dr. Barton, the head of the bureau of Medicine, in the Navy Department, has been removed from office.

THE WASHINGTON CAPITOL OF SATURDAY notices a rumor in that city that Dr. Barton, the head of the bureau of Medicine, in the Navy Department, has been removed from office.

THE WASHINGTON CAPITOL OF SATURDAY notices a rumor in that city that Dr. Barton, the head of the bureau of Medicine, in the Navy Department, has been removed from office.

THE WASHINGTON CAPITOL OF SATURDAY notices a rumor in that city that Dr. Barton, the head of the bureau of Medicine, in the Navy Department, has been removed from office.

THE WASHINGTON CAPITOL OF SATURDAY notices a rumor in that city that Dr. Barton, the head of the bureau of Medicine, in the Navy Department, has been removed from office.

THE WASHINGTON CAPITOL OF SATURDAY notices a rumor in that city that Dr. Barton, the head of the bureau of Medicine, in the Navy Department, has been removed from office.

THE WASHINGTON CAPITOL OF SATURDAY notices a rumor in that city that Dr. Barton, the head of the bureau of Medicine, in the Navy Department, has been removed from office.

Vertical text on the right edge of the page, likely bleed-through or marginalia.

