TO THE POLLS.

WILLIAM J. STEPHENS,

This is the day for the whole people of the State to make choice of representatives in the State Legislature. Eight Senators are to be chosen, and 134 delegates. The people of Jefferson, it is aros of the occasion, and will doubtless exercise their judgment impartially and fearlessly. All know the extraordinary exertions which have been made to bias voters, and to turn them asainst the Whis some of the means and the means but we may be permitted to ask every freeman to think and judge for himself, and to resist the importunities of those who undertake to instruct him on the subject. There is something more than political feeling mixed up _" We are surprised to find Mr. Calhoun's in this matter. There is personal malice, and some degree of uncharitableness evinced, in the antiring efforts to coax and "whip in" the Need we ask a generous and high-minded people to do justice? Need we ask them to discard prejudices, and cast their votes according to their own best judgments? That is all we ask ; and that we feel some confidence they will do. Let every man, then, attend the polis-and let each one act as though he were acting for his country, and not for an individual.

The Whig candidates for the County are gentlemen well deserving public confidence, and eapable in all respects of representing your interests truly. Against their competitors we have nothing to say. Let the policy likely to be puraued by each be well considered, and judge between them. Let us consider well whether the policy under which the country has prospered, is to be continued -or whether new doctrines and new experiments are to be tried.

TAILORING.

To the Citizens of Charlestown and surrounding country!

MOULD hereby give notice that I have just received from the Eastern cities the latest improved and most approved FASHIONS now extant—to which a special invitation is given to all the fashionable gentlemen of this community tention of my friends, and the public generally.

AM now opening a very general stock of and the investigation of claims on said lands; and the investigation of claims on said lands; and to the prosecution and defence of suits in the Circuit Court of the United States for Ohio, are decidedly the best executed of any now to be seen; and I believe that every unprejudiced man, after examining my Reports of Fashions, will say they are what I represent them to be .-They are not only adapted to the fashionable and young, but suitable to the old and middle aged. I want it distinctly understood, that I cannot be beat in any shape or form-cutting, making, price, cash, or trade. I will go a little farther than this : to the man in the country who will make better Fits, or better Made Clothes of any kind, I pledge myself to give the best COAT the country can afford. Understand me: I don't offer this to any as a bet; but I think that the mouth's of some should be closed, not only in Charlestown, but near it.

Garments cut to order at the shortest Thankful for past favors, I hope, by using all diligence to please, as heretofore, shall receive a liberal share of the public's patronage. JAMES CLOTHIER.

April 25, 1814 NB I have a Renovating Process, which will, without mistake, remove all Stains and Grease spots, and not injure the garment, I shall be happy to wait on any or all this way.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10, 1838. Dr Jayne-Dear Sir : I feel that I can hardly say enough in favor of your Hair Tonic. My hair had been falling off for about two years, and had become very thin, threatening speedy baldness when I commenced using your remedy. In about one week it ceased to fall off. I have used it now for about three months and have as full and thick a head of hair as I can possibly lesire. I have recommended its use to a number of my friends, who all speak well of it. If faithfully employed I have no doubt of its general success. I may add that before using your Tonic, I had tried many of the various articles employed for the hair, such as the Macassar Oil. all the different preparations of Bear's Oil, Vegetable Hair Oil, &c., without experiencing much, if any, benefit. Respectfully yours, S B Firen, M D.
