

Late From Europe.

The steamship Britannia, from Liverpool, arrived in Boston on the 31st inst., after a passage of fourteen days and a half.

Mr. King, the new Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States at the Court of France, had arrived in Paris on the 19th ult. says that the Cotton Market was slowly but steadily recovering from the depression it had long experienced.

The London money market had been affected in some degree by the reports of affairs between France and Morocco, and the course which the President of the United States pursued with respect to the annexation of Texas.

The demonstrations of sympathy with Mr. Daniel O'Connell have been strongly evinced throughout Ireland. The repeal button has been universally adopted.

On Thursday evening, Sir R. Peel intimated that Lord de Grey contemplated a resignation of the office of Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, solely on the ground of continued ill health.

The connection existing between the Rev. Robert B. Whyte, as pastor of the Presbyterian Church of this place, at his request, was a vote of the members of the church dissolved on Wednesday evening last.

James How, jun. has been appointed by the President of the United States, since the adjournment of Congress, to be Postmaster for the city of Philadelphia.

It is announced that Mr. Thomas Lloyd has been appointed by Mr. Tyler, Surveyor of the Port of Baltimore, in place of Mr. William Pinkney, removed.

There is nothing of much interest in the accounts received from Spain. The Turkish forces prove unequal to the task. Permission has been granted for the erection of a Protestant Church at Brussels.

Arrival of the G. G. The favorite steamer ship Great Western, Captain Matthews, arrived at New York at 1 o'clock on Sunday morning.

At the present time, I have the honor to be your obedient servant. To Messrs. Henry Hubbard, William H. Roane, Benjamin H. Grew, Roswell M. Saunders, Robt. Nassau, Jr., committee of the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore.

which great staple has advanced fully one eighth. The cotton market is active and buoyant indeed, it is just in the condition which might have been anticipated from the report of our remarks in the 'European Times' which went out by the Britannia.

The weather has broken, and the country almost broken up by the long drought, but it has been favored with some general showers, and the improvement in the face of nature is striking, and its influence might be read in the countenances of the brokers and dealers on the Corn Exchange yesterday.

The London money market had been affected in some degree by the reports of affairs between France and Morocco, and the course which the President of the United States pursued with respect to the annexation of Texas.

The demonstrations of sympathy with Mr. Daniel O'Connell have been strongly evinced throughout Ireland. The repeal button has been universally adopted.

On Thursday evening, Sir R. Peel intimated that Lord de Grey contemplated a resignation of the office of Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, solely on the ground of continued ill health.

The connection existing between the Rev. Robert B. Whyte, as pastor of the Presbyterian Church of this place, at his request, was a vote of the members of the church dissolved on Wednesday evening last.

James How, jun. has been appointed by the President of the United States, since the adjournment of Congress, to be Postmaster for the city of Philadelphia.

It is announced that Mr. Thomas Lloyd has been appointed by Mr. Tyler, Surveyor of the Port of Baltimore, in place of Mr. William Pinkney, removed.

There is nothing of much interest in the accounts received from Spain. The Turkish forces prove unequal to the task. Permission has been granted for the erection of a Protestant Church at Brussels.

Arrival of the G. G. The favorite steamer ship Great Western, Captain Matthews, arrived at New York at 1 o'clock on Sunday morning.

At the present time, I have the honor to be your obedient servant. To Messrs. Henry Hubbard, William H. Roane, Benjamin H. Grew, Roswell M. Saunders, Robt. Nassau, Jr., committee of the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore.

VIRGINIA FREE PRESS.

Thursday Morning, July 11. FOR PRESIDENT, HENRY CLAY, OF KENTUCKY.

THEODORE FREILINGHOUSE, OF NEW JERSEY. THE TRADE IS NOW COMING FORWARD AND BUYING LIBERALLY, WHICH IS MET BY HOLDERS IN A CORRESPONDING SPIRIT.

The weather has broken, and the country almost broken up by the long drought, but it has been favored with some general showers, and the improvement in the face of nature is striking.

The London money market had been affected in some degree by the reports of affairs between France and Morocco, and the course which the President of the United States pursued with respect to the annexation of Texas.

The demonstrations of sympathy with Mr. Daniel O'Connell have been strongly evinced throughout Ireland. The repeal button has been universally adopted.

On Thursday evening, Sir R. Peel intimated that Lord de Grey contemplated a resignation of the office of Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, solely on the ground of continued ill health.

The connection existing between the Rev. Robert B. Whyte, as pastor of the Presbyterian Church of this place, at his request, was a vote of the members of the church dissolved on Wednesday evening last.

James How, jun. has been appointed by the President of the United States, since the adjournment of Congress, to be Postmaster for the city of Philadelphia.

It is announced that Mr. Thomas Lloyd has been appointed by Mr. Tyler, Surveyor of the Port of Baltimore, in place of Mr. William Pinkney, removed.

There is nothing of much interest in the accounts received from Spain. The Turkish forces prove unequal to the task. Permission has been granted for the erection of a Protestant Church at Brussels.

Arrival of the G. G. The favorite steamer ship Great Western, Captain Matthews, arrived at New York at 1 o'clock on Sunday morning.

At the present time, I have the honor to be your obedient servant. To Messrs. Henry Hubbard, William H. Roane, Benjamin H. Grew, Roswell M. Saunders, Robt. Nassau, Jr., committee of the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore.

PUBLIC LANDS.

We have been, by our friend R. H. Williamson, Esq., Washington, with a copy of the Annual Report of the Commissioner of the General Land Office.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

VALLEY TURNPIKE.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

The report of Dr. John W. Rice, President of the Valley Turnpike Company, in his report to the Stockholders, shows that notwithstanding the various difficulties, the affairs of the Company are improving.

THE GREAT FLOOD.

On the 10th inst., the accounts of the damage done by the great flood in that region. We copy a few paragraphs.

The accounts of the flood are most disastrous. Kaskaskia, Chester, &c., are ruined. The office of the Republican at the former place has been underground, and the press and materials lost in the water.

The business of Missouri and the mechanics and gardeners, all have suffered; and brick yards, woodyards, and the necessaries of life along the rivers have been destroyed.

The Republic gives the following picture of the distress occasioned by the flood. The editor went on Saturday with the Mayor in search of La Bue a Reynolds, the only point of land on which water in 1785.

At Bon Secour, there are engaged, all in open camps, one hundred and twenty-two persons. Several of these families left their homes with from five to nine children.

At John Coben's, eighteen persons. At John Sharp's, five persons. At Carner's, twenty-one persons.

At Falling Spring, thirty-one persons. At Edward Herbert's, four persons. At Francis de Point, forty-one persons.

At Jos. Bower's, forty persons. At the Grand Marais Pass, fifty families. In all, we believe we may say, that we ascertained something of the condition of full three hundred persons.

There were many other statements which we had not time to visit. A few are lodged in houses, a large number in the same room, but generally they are in rude tents, erected on the spur of the moment.

The committee in this city have at their charge quite as many as their means will justify the expectation of supporting.

Yesterday morning, the ladies from up from Kaskaskia the Sisters of Charity at the convent, the priests connected with the church at that place, and several families, and such furniture as they had saved. The town is from ten to twenty feet under water.

The Vicksburg Whig says that the damage in that region caused by the rise in the river is very great—estimated at 40,000 bales of cotton have been lost by it.

Examination of the Deaf Mute. We had the pleasure of attending the examination of the candidates for graduation in the Deaf Mute Department of the Va. Institution on Saturday last.

The following is a list of the graduates: John J. Skelton, Richmond. John Storr, Augusta. John L. Hopkins, Alexandria.

MORE RIOTS IN PHILADELPHIA.

The correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, under Sunday's date, gives an account of another outbreak in Philadelphia on Saturday morning.

It seems some arms and ammunition had been found in the Church of St. Philip. It appears, too, that these arms had been placed there by the authority of the Governor.

At this time, Thomas Grover and Lewis C. Levin arrived, and the latter, mounting on the roof of the building, addressed the crowd, at the same time throwing stones flying against the walls and the windows on the left side of the altar.

Mr. Levin was followed by Mr. Grover and others, who succeeded in pacifying the crowd so far that they promised to spare the church if the Hibernia Greens were taken out of the building.

At the head of a few well disposed citizens, took the cannon from the rear of the Church down to the wharf, and spiked them. The Grand Bank is opened as the head quarters, and the military are gathering in the State-house yard.

The Philadelphia Inquirer in its account of the riot of Sunday night, says:—The heaviest discharge of fire arms took place at about half past 10, when two pieces of artillery were fired in quick succession against the military.

A volley of musketry was fired by the Natives, from an open space in a wide alley in Third street, below Second, into the church of St. Philip de Neri, where the Washington Blues were stationed.

The Natives possessed a great advantage over the military, in their position, being in a hollow, while the latter were at the top of a hill.

At one time during the night, for about two hours, all communication with the city was cut off by his side, was suspended. Natives were stationed in hiding places, along the streets which the soldiers and the fire were upon, and the mob was mostly the blood of the military, drawn by the Natives.

At one time during the night, for about two hours, all communication with the city was cut off by his side, was suspended. Natives were stationed in hiding places, along the streets which the soldiers and the fire were upon, and the mob was mostly the blood of the military, drawn by the Natives.

At one time during the night, for about two hours, all communication with the city was cut off by his side, was suspended. Natives were stationed in hiding places, along the streets which the soldiers and the fire were upon, and the mob was mostly the blood of the military, drawn by the Natives.

At one time during the night, for about two hours, all communication with the city was cut off by his side, was suspended. Natives were stationed in hiding places, along the streets which the soldiers and the fire were upon, and the mob was mostly the blood of the military, drawn by the Natives.

At one time during the night, for about two hours, all communication with the city was cut off by his side, was suspended. Natives were stationed in hiding places, along the streets which the soldiers and the fire were upon, and the mob was mostly the blood of the military, drawn by the Natives.

At one time during the night, for about two hours, all communication with the city was cut off by his side, was suspended. Natives were stationed in hiding places, along the streets which the soldiers and the fire were upon, and the mob was mostly the blood of the military, drawn by the Natives.

Vertical text on the right edge of the page, likely bleed-through or a separate column.

