THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 3, 1845.

WOMAN'S LOVE.

BY A SISTER OF MRS. HEMANS. Men cannot love as women do ; they may Be all devotedness, and seem to live And breathe but in the idol's sight; may look On all things she has touched as sanctified; May think of her all day-dream all the night Of her fair face, and her remembered voice ; Be feverish-maddened into jeslousy, If she have but a smile that is not their's ; May be lured back to tenderness again By a kind word; may linger on her steps-Hang on her smiles-but still they exent love As women do. Their love is but a dreamwitchery an enchantment and it dies, ving prechance, some little lingering light e horizon of their thoughts, but not evand the beauty of its dawn !-'s! if it be dreamy, never dream

REMOVALS.

We hope the editors of the National Intelli encer will take the trouble to explode the miserably deceptive statement of the "Union," in reference to the number of Removals under the Jackson and Van Buten Administrations. The deception is in this, that it refers to removals of "high efficers" only. The truth is, in 1829 and 1830, Jackson swept out almost every opponent from office, except in a few cases where personal considerations-such as connection by blood or mar lage with high functionaries-saved the incun bents and clerks in the departments who had no votes or political influence.

When Yan Buren came into cffice, he found but few to remove, and the same with him would have been, "dog eat dog." Even now, there are but few Whigs in office, Capt. Tyler having ferretted out the "Clay men" in all important positions. Mr. Polk, therefore, must remove Tyler democrats, for his game in reference to Whigs will be necessarily rather limited.

The statement in the "Union" is a gross cheat, and the records will prove it. The files of the Globe and National Intelligencer of 1829 and 1830 will give it the lie, when examined.

THE ADMINISTRATION.

It is really amusing to see what an excellent performances on the organ at Washington.

"Mr. Polk, whose administration is so popufar, that the Whigs are puzzled for something to go upon and say against it-except fabricating us!" squibs at "the organ," or fables against himis to be compelled to resign the reins into the hands of Mr. Dallas!"

This is both amusing and rich in character, and the Baltimore Patriot makes an admirable hit at its popularity, when it remarks-"A President popular! who in six months has lost the confidence of nearly all those who elected himwho is openly denounced by the great Ajax of the party-who is so fickle-minded, that in Charlestown will be closed on the Fourth of ally an important reduction. It is a rich joke, and is quite in time to relieve the dullness of the hot season."

TEXAS.

The aspect of things in Texas takes some new coloring at every arrival bringing intelligence from that quarter. We have now the President's Proclamation of the 4th June, by which it appears that instead of pending hostilities with the Mexicans on this side of the Rio Grande, a truce is declared for an indefinite period between Texas and Mexico.

A Secret .- 'How do you do, Mrs. Tome, have you heard that story about Mrs. Ludy?' 'Why, no, really, Mrs. Gad, what is it-do tell!' 'O. I promised not to tell for all the world! No, I must never tell on't. I'm afraid it will git out.' 'Why, I'll never tell on't as long as I live, just as true as the world; what is it; come tell?' 'Now you won't say any thing about it, will you?' 'No, I'll never open my head about it-never. Hope to die this minute.' 'Well, if you'll believe me, Mrs. Funday told me last night, that Mrs. Trot told ber that her sister's husband was told by a person who dreamed it, that Mrs. Trouble's oldest daughter told Mrs Nichens that her grand mother heard by a letter which she got from her third sister's second husband's oldest brothers's stepdaughter's nephew, that it was reported ties of Jefferson, Berkeley, Morgan, &c. by the captain of a clam boat just arrived from the Feejee Islands, that the mermaids about that section wore sharkskin bustles stuffed with pickled eels' toes!'

Man's Chief End .- What is the chief end of man? inquired a school teacher of Berkeley, Clarke, and Frederick Couna pretty Miss. 'Why, I suppose it is to fies pop the question,' was the reply.
