POETRY.

From the Louisville Journal.
DEARLY LOVE ONE LITTLE SPOT.
 I dearly love one little spot,
 My heart strings round it cling,
 'Tis mingled with the memories
 Of many a cherish'd thing—
 Days, when all the world seem'd bright
 And beautiful and gay—
 'Tis that old childhood's dream
 Should thus have pass'd away!

dearly love that little spot,
 And ever now it lies,
 A sunny speck amid the gloom,
 Before my dreaming eyes!
 Oh! vividly the time comes back
 When there we often met—
 And are they gone, who met me there?
 I hear their voices yet!

I dearly love that little spot,
 Where a sweet fountain flows,
 Whom I was wont to bathe my brow
 Within its branches clear,
 And love to fancy that my lot
 Would be like that will pool,
 That lay amid the forest trees
 Bubbles, and calm, and cool!
 I learned to love a gentle girl
 Down by that fountain's side;
 Ah! memories of my heart's first love
 Do ever me like a tide!
 My days have been full sad since then,
 But in despite of care,
 Within my heart her image rests,
 Fresh as that fountain there!

"ROUGH AND READY?"—A letter from the Camp to the Newark Advertiser says:
 —Gen. Taylor is quietly, but rapidly making every preparation for an early and active campaign. Supplies of all descriptions are accumulating, and volunteers, eager for actual service, are joining every day. We feel assured of victory, and believe old Rough and Ready to be the best Major-General this side of sunrise.

THOMAS J. CHEW, late of the U. S.
 Navy, died at Brooklyn a day or two since in the 70th year of his age. Mr. CHEW was the person to whom LAWRENCE uttered the words, "Don't give up the ship!"
 CHEW fought with great gallantry in several naval battles in the war of 1812. He was on the deck of the Constitution in the memorable fight with the Guerriere, and contributed to the capture of that ship. At the time of his decease he held the office of purser in the navy.

COUNTERFEIT DOLLAR—The editor of the Louisville Journal has been shown a counterfeit on a Mexican dollar which is well calculated to deceive. The main body of it is copper, with a pretty thick coating of silver surrounding it. The exterior being silver, it resists the test of acids, and is therefore difficult of detection. The impression is not as deep as that of the genuine coin and the letter A in the word Republica is farther from the letter C than in the genuine. It is a counterfeit of the coin of 1846.

ACCIDENT—We learn, says the Harpers-

 a highly respectable citizen of that county, while engaged in threshing grain a day

LEADING CHILDREN TO GOD.

A mother, sitting at her work in her parlor, overheard her child, whom an elder sister was dressing, in an adjoining bed room, say repeatedly as if in answer to his sister: "No, I don't want to say my prayers, I don't want to say my prayers."
 "How many church members in good standing" thought the mother to herself,
 "often say the same thing, in their hearts,
 though they conceal even from themselves
 the feeling."

"Mother," said the child, appearing in a minute or two, at the parlor door; the tone and look implied that it was only his morning salutation.

"Good morning, my child."
 "I am going to get my breakfast."
 "Stop a minute, I want you to come and see me first."

The mother laid down her work in the next chair as the boy ran towards her.
 She took him up. He knelt in her lap, and laid his face upon her shoulder, his cheek against her ear. The mother rocked her chair slowly backwards and forwards.

"Are you pretty well this morning?"
 said she, in a kind, gentle tone.

"Yes, mother, I am very well."
 "I am glad you are well. I am very well too; and when I waked up this morning and found that I was very well, I thanked God for taking care of me."

"Did you?" said the boy in a low tone —half a whisper. He paused after his word—conscience was at its work.

"Did you ever feel my pulse?" asked his mother, after a minute of silence, at the same time taking the boy down and sitting him in her lap, and placing his fingers on her wrist.

"No, but I have felt mine."
 "Well, don't you feel mine now—how it goes, beating?"

"Yes!" said the child
 "If it should stop beating I should die."
 "Should you?"

"Yes, and I can't keep it beating."
 "Who can?"

"God."
 A silent pause.

"You have a pulse too; which beats in your bosom here, and in your arms, and all over you, and I cannot keep it beating nor can you. Nobody can but God. If

TARIFF BILL PASSED.

The Tariff Bill introduced into Congress by Gen. McKAY, is now the law of the land, and the Tariff of 1842, consequently repealed.

The New Tariff Bill is the hybrid progeny of the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means in the House, and Sir Robert Walker, Secretary of the Treasury—assisted by British Manufacturing Agents.

While it claims to have revenue as its basis, it furnishes abundant data to prove itself incapable of supplying the wants of the Treasury.

While the Tariff of 1842 rendered us independent of foreign countries, the New Bill makes us dependent. While the Whig Tariff gave preference to American mechanics, the new one gives preference to Foreign industries.

Yates—Messrs. Allen, Ashley, Atchison, Atherton, Bagby, Beaman, Breese, Bright, Colhoun, Cameron, Cass, Chalmers, Dickinson, Dix, Fairfield, Hannegan, Houston, Lewis, Niles, Pennycuik, Rusk, Sempie, Sevier, Speight, Turney, Westcott, Yulee—28.

NAYS—Messrs. Archer, Barrow, Berrien, Gilley, T. Clayton, J. M. Clayton, Corwin, Crittenden, Davis, Dayton, Evans, Greene, Huntington, Johnson of Md., Johnson of La., Mangum, Miller, Morehead, Peerce, Phelps, Simmons, Upham, Webster, Woodbridge—25.

During the pendency of the question before the Senate, Mr. Benton gave it some "hoarse thrusts," which were the more poignant from the fact of being "received in the house of a friend."

Mr. Benton said he had assisted in framing the late Sub-Treasury Bill, but after it went into operation he found that it was a HUMBLED, and that he had been bamboozled.

An amendment was offered by Mr. Lewis to the 21st section, which after much debate was rejected, authorizing the issue of paper money by the Government, in the shape of Treasury drafts, in sums of fifty dollars, one hundred dollars, and five hundred dollars, which was vigorously opposed by Mr. Benton, in a hard money speech.

It is a fact no less true than astounding that these Government editors—these pensioners on the Treasury—actually make $75 clear on every $100 paid by the Government!

They have received $114,000 for printing a single document—the Report of the Commissioner of Patents. Just think of that, Democrats as well as Whigs: $114,000 for printing a pamphlet of but little importance, which is read by a dozen citizens of each State.

THE CHAPMAN.

The enormous charges made by Ritchie & Heiss, has induced Congress to pass a resolution giving out, hereafter, the public printing to the lowest bidder.

The profits made by these gentlemen fully evidence the truth of the adage that that they have "battered their toast" to some purpose.

It was high time that the Representatives of the people were breaking up this Government Printing House, which holds its term during the pleasure of the President, and which was chartered and set afloat on the sea of politics by him, with the mutual understanding that its charter should be considered forfeited, null and void, the moment its editor should exercise his mind and thoughts, and think, speak and write like a freeman.

Things have come to a pretty pass, truly, when a member of Congress is to be the Executive in his Congressional District. It is a burning shame and a stigma on popular rights, to thus suffer a system of espionage to be kept up by a partizan in Congress.

perceive from a communication in the Richmond Whig, that Gen. Chapman has been endowed with the functions of Assistant Postmaster General for his District.

"Dear Sir—I received your letter some time since relative to the appointment of a Postmaster at the Warm Springs, and I waited some time for the arrival of the resignation of Mr. Crawford; but that failing to come, I have determined to have the change made, and have appointed Mr. McGuffin the Postmaster at the Warm Springs.

GEN. TAYLOR has two enemies upon him now; first, the Mexicans, and next the lococo press. The "Jeffersonian," a leading organ of the party in New Orleans, broke the ground against him for bad management of the war on the Rio Grande.

THE WAREHOUSING BILL.—This bill has now passed both Houses of Congress, and only requires the signature of the President to make it a law.

DEATH OF EX-GOVERNOR HOWARD.—We have an unpleasant duty to perform in announcing the death of George Howard, Esq., formerly Governor of Maryland.

VETO OF THE RIVER AND HARBOR BILL.—It will be seen by our Congressional Proceedings that President Polk has sent to the House of Representative a veto of this very important Bill.

Struck by Lightning.

The Store-house of Mr. Wm. R. Seever, at Thomson's Depot, was struck by lightning on Wednesday evening the 29th instant, without, however, materially injuring the building.

"A Fire in Front and from the Rear." GEN. TAYLOR has two enemies upon him now; first, the Mexicans, and next the lococo press.

THE PENNSYLVANIA INTEREST.—The State Treasurer paid out on Saturday, at the counter of the Pennsylvania Bank, nearly $200,000 of the interest just due on the funded debt.

THE PHILADELPHIA SUN, a Native paper says: THE DEED IS DONE—THE COUNTRY SOLD!—It will be seen, by our Telegraphic Despatch, that the House of Representatives have concurred in the amendments of the Senate to the British Tariff Bill in favor of Foreign Labor.

GROANS OF THE PENNSYLVANIANS.

The whole press of Pennsylvania, with an exception or two—both Loco and Whig—are execrating the New Tariff Bill. The news of its passage was received with both alarm and indignation.

REASON TO BE CONSUMMATED!—The infamy has been consummated! and by the vote of George Mifflin Dallas of Pennsylvania!

posed. Out upon such hypocrisy—vengeance for such treachery—such are the sentiments, and such will be the action of an insulted, deceived, and outraged people.

THE KEYSTONE attempts to justify the vote of Mr. Dallas on the Tariff bill, and in so justifying pretty clearly substantiates the Whig assertion that the vote of Pennsylvania was secured by fraud and falsehood.

REPEAL is the word! Take it up Democrats! echo it iron men! echo it mechanics! There shall be no rest, no respoing until this British Triff Bill is repealed!

Congressional Proceedings.

THE TARIFF BILL PASSED.

TUESDAY, JULY 23. After the transaction of some business, by the SENATE, Mr. Lewis reported back from the finance committee the Tariff bill, with a resolution that the committee be discharged from its further consideration.

This caused some debate between Messrs. Evans, Lewis, Johnson, of Md., Speight, Benton, and Huntington.

Mr. Benton said the motion to discharge was a test question, and he called upon the Senate to come up and vote for it as such.

After protracted debate, the question was taken upon discharging the committee, and it was carried—Yeas 28, Nays 9.

Mr. Webster then moved to strike out the 9th section.—Agreed to. Yeas 28, Nays 26.

Mr. Johnson of Md. then moved to refer the bill to a special committee, which was also agreed to.

Mr. Niles made a long and able speech, contending that a majority of the people and a majority of States are against the bill.

In the HOUSE, the Post Office bill was considered.

The first amendment pending was upon allowing the Postmaster General to select the newspapers in which the lists of letters shall be advertised.

This was moved by Mr. Hamlin of Me. with the design of doing away with the present law, which requires the lists to be published in the newspapers having the largest circulation.

This was lost, and after further debate deemed equivalent to a defeat of the bill, but no action was had.

The French Spoliation Bill was considered, but not finally acted upon.

The bill for refunding duties imposed upon Java Coffee was agreed to, and passed.

The bill for the payment of evidences of public debt in certain cases (referring to the Treasury Notes stolen at New Orleans) was also passed, and the House then adjourned.

FRIDAY, July 31.

In the SENATE, a bill was passed, to surrender certain lands to the State of Tennessee to endow a State College.

The bill concerning a grant of the public lands to Asa Whitney and others, to construct a railroad to Oregon, was ordered to be printed, after opposition by Mr. Benton.

A bill to incorporate the Navy of Texas with that of the United States, was postponed indefinitely by a vote of 13 to 18.

The Sub-Treasury bill was up for passage—and after remarks by Messrs. Lewis, Evans, and Huntington, Mr. Webster intimated a wish to speak fifteen minutes, and the bill was laid over.

The Naval appropriation bill was then considered, but not concluded.

In the HOUSE, the Warehouse bill was considered, and debated, but no decision was had.

SATURDAY, Aug. 1.

The SENATE (the committees of conference not being able to agree) insisted upon its amendment to the Army Appropriation bill, and to its disagreement to amendments of the House.

A House bill defining the boundaries of Iowa was passed.

Superior all the mineral lands on Lake Superior were taken up, and passed.

This bill for the Currency Bill Passed.

Mr. Webster then under consideration, rect a gross error that his duty to refer in reference to the Treaty by the Union, the value of the goods, in stating that it was not by the import, but to be set by competent and still living appraisers——that market value is to be set by appraisers.

Mr. Webster said, a more than ever had never been committed to the opposite of what was stated to be true. The new law would be to be appraised at value in the principal country whence the importations have been made.

Arrival of the Hibernia.

Nine Day Later from Europe—Ratification of the Oregon Treaty.

Boston Aug. 31, 5 P. M. The steamer Hibernia, with news from Liverpool to the 19th ultimo, was telegraphed at an early hour this morning, and has since arrived at the wharf. She brings the Oregon treaty ratified by the British Government under the seal of the new Oregon Secretary, Lord Palmerston. This document was signed by his Lordship and Mr. McLane on the 17th ult., at the Foreign Office, and afterwards conveyed by express for despatch by the Hibernia, by his Excellency Mr. McLane, Minister of Great Britain.

In the House of Lords, on the 17th of July, the Marquis of Lansdown rose and said that it was his duty to lay before their Lordships and the House the treaty which had just been concluded between Her Majesty and the Government of the United States in reference to the Oregon territory. He bid the satisfaction of informing their Lordships that ratifications had that day been exchanged.

A similar notice was given in the House of Commons, by Lord Palmerston, who appeared at the bar and stated that he had a paper to present by command of Her Majesty.

The new Ministry had got to work, and the business of the country is again in a state of progression. All the members have been returned in the Opposition except Mr. McCauley and Lord Evington. In every quarter a disposition exists to give the new Ministry a fair trial.

PARLIAMENT.—The proceedings in the House of Parliament possess considerable interest.

Lord John Russell declined this categorical analysis, but while doing so said sufficient to point the moral of his future career as Minister. To the principles of Free Trade he avowed his unwavering attachment. Justice he would literally carry out, but with respect to the Established Church of that country he Premier though it impudent to meddle, in this early stage of the business.

The late evening Lord John Russell respecting the Sugar duties known on Monday.

The papers, without distinction of party, are busily engaged in discussing arising out of the war between the United States and Mexico. —The manufacturing district, and confidence prevails. —The cotton market is firm, with a good steady business, and prices have an upward tendency.

LATER FROM THE ARMY.

Arrival of Steamer Fashion—Departure of Troops.

DIED.
On the 22d ult., Wm. MONTGOMERY ROBINSON, son of Mr. Edward Robinson, of Bolivar, aged 4 years, 10 months and 25 days.

Departed this life, at his residence in Frederick county, Md., on Sunday the 26th ult., EDWARD DORSEY, Esq., in the sixty-fourth year of his age, leaving a wife and nine children to mourn his irremediable loss.

In Leesburg, on Wednesday night, 29th ult. Mrs. MARY VAN DYKE, consort of the late Captain Isaac Vandevanter, in the 57th year of her age.

BEAL AT PRIVATE SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale the estate, situated 31 miles from Charlestown, 5 from Happers-Ferry, and 2 mile from the Smithfield and Ferry Turnpike, bounding on the Winchester and Potomac Rail Road, and Containing about 530 Acres, About 380 cleared, and the residue in Timber. The cleared land lies compact and nearly in a square; the timber contiguous. This has justly been considered one of the most desirable Farms in the county of Jefferson, as regards location, fertility, and exemption from broken or waste land, every field being accessible to running water. There is a never-failing well of good spring water in the back fields, and several fine springs on the buildings.

The improvements consist of a comfortable Stone Dwelling House,

STONE STABLE, STONE HOUSE, with cement floor, Stone Dairy HOUSE, 2000 Frame Stable and Carriage-housing, containing for 24 horses, a superior Corn-crib with Gable for servants, blacksmith and carpenter's Shops, Bath-house, Ice-house, and there is a large ice-pond of spring water in the meadow. There have been a large number of choice Fruit Trees of every variety set out within the last few years and beginning to bear.

Any one desiring further information can address the subscriber on the premises, near Halls-town, Jefferson county, Va.

Winchester Medical College.
THE Course of Lectures in this Institution will commence on the 1st Monday of October, and terminate the last of May.
The chairs are filled by the following gentlemen—
HUGH B. McGUIRE, M. D. Professor of Surgery.
DANIEL CONRAD, M. D. Professor of Anatomy and Physiology.
J. PHILIP SMITH, M. D. Professor of Theory and Practice of Medicine.
JOHN J. H. STRAITH, M. D. Professor of Obstetrics, Diseases of Women and Children.
JIM J. BRADFORD, M. D. Professor of Chemistry and Materia Medica.
The term of instruction being 8 months, (double the usual period.) will afford ample time to the Student to revise and keep pace with the Lectures, thus obviating the necessity of preparatory study.
The Student will also have frequent opportunities of attending Clinics, and the very extensive surgical practice of the Professor of that branch, will afford a large field for observation and improvement.
Every facility will be offered for acquiring a thorough knowledge of Practical Anatomy.
The fee for each course of Lectures is 20 dollars.
Dissecting ticket 10 dollars. Boarding can be procured in Winchester, Va. at a very low rate, perhaps cheaper than any town in the Union of the same size.
Individuals desirous of attending the Lectures can procure information by applying to any of the Professors.
DANIEL CONRAD, Dean.

UNITED STATES HOTEL, Harpers-Ferry, Va.
THE undersigned most respectfully informs the public that he has leased the Hotel at Harpers-Ferry, known as the UNITED STATES HOTEL. He has been flattered by the kind testimonials he has received of the satisfaction and approval of his conduct as a landlord, and bringing to his residence the best character among his friends, and determined to improve the Hotel, and to make it a national Historical Park, in honor of the National Government, and to be a source of interest to the people of this country.

SHANNONDALE SPRINGS.
THIS delightful and popular watering place will be opened early in June, under the superintendence of Mr. A. P. FITCH, who for two years has given great satisfaction to guests, and the proprietors will use all proper efforts to keep up the reputation of the concern.
Shannondale is five miles south of Charlestown, in Jefferson county, and is only 8 hours travel from Washington and Baltimore. Its water is of the same quality of the famed Bed- ford, and the salubrity of the atmosphere and beauty of scenery are unsurpassed.
The charges are moderate, and the fare equal to any in the Union.
