night last, containing about sixty bushels of to George II, 1727. Corn, a large quantity of Straw, Ploughs, Harrows Gearing, &c. &c. The Carriage of Mr. W. was also considerably damaged. It is presumed that the barn was set on fire by some negro, but no arrest has as yet been made. It was fired both from the loft, and from where the carriage was situated. Fortunately the horses and cattle, with a single exception, were not in the barn, or some of them would have been consumed, as the fire was not discovered until the roof was about failing in-at which time the only horse in the barn made his escape, by rushing through the falling cinders and flames. The loss is quite considerable, particularly at this season of the year, and it is to be hoped that the incendiary will be detected.

SAD ACCIDENT.

We learn that quite a distressing accident occorred at Harpers-Ferry on Saturday last, occasioned by the bursting of a small brass cannonbeye. The cannon, tened to a piece of wood, held boy, and on a match pole, it blew off from being applied the wood, striking RBY, (employed by the Manufacturing C , and lately from hich it broke and disfigured very much-proceeding upwards, it laid open the flesh on the crankum, and we understand cracked the skull.

THE BERRYVILLE ROAD.

Have you subscribed for any stock in the Ber ryville Turnpike? If not, and a citizen of the town or county near which the road will pass, go and do so immediately. Examine your financial affairs and see if you cannot take a few more shares, you that have already come up to this work in the true spirit. No man in this community should hesitate a moment about incurring the small risk of a few shares. Even though TAYLOR MEETING IN WASHINGTON cester of Massachusetts were included in the creased trade and business will amply repay you for all that you may take. Rest not under the deluded impression that if you do not take the you had, how ungenerous and unmanly to seek such a subterfuge and take advantage of what by avowing himself a Taylor man-with or other mea's labors will afford. Action on this maner is at once necessary, indeed indspensable. What you intend doing, do at once.

LIEUT. COL. RANDOLPH.

We find among other distinguished arrivals at New Orleans, in the Fashion, from Mexico, the name of Lieut. Col. Randolph, of the Virginia Regiment, who, we presume, is now en route for home. We learn from all quarters that Lt. Col. R. is a decided favorite with that portion of the Army with which he is connected. It will be o'served in another column that Lt. Col. PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

[Correspondence of the Baltimore American.] WASHINGTON, Dec. 30, 1847. SENATE.

The Mexican War was incidentally the subject of a spicy debate in the Senate today, upon the motion of Mr. Cass to take up the Military Bills reported from his Committee.

Mr. Calhoun, in some pointed remarks, idvocated previous action upon his Resolutions. It was due to the country that the policy of the Administration-that the intention of Congress in regard to the War—should be known before voting further supplies for the increase of the

It had been said that his resolutions were apposed to the Administration. It mattered but little whether they were or not. They proposed some declaration of opinion-some proper ground work of action in regard to the objects of the warbefore passing upon such a bill as this.

Mr. Hale of N. H. entered with warm. feeling into the subject, though promising a more elaborate speech in regard to the war hereafter. The war, he said, originated in falsehood and fraud, and in a desire to perpetuate the institution of slavery.— The President's conduct was like the Spanish physician-"blood letting and warm water." The patient was dying under the treatment, and the physician continued to prescribe more letting of blood He could not give up this practice,
