THE VINEGAR VAT TRAGEDY.

From the Philadelphia Bulletin we take the following particulars of the singular and horrible suffocation of two persons in a vinegar vat, in that city, on Mon-lay morning last. "Mr. Joseph S. Richie, and his father, Mr. Robert Richie, manufacturers of vinegar, have their place of business at the northeast corner of third and Noble streets. Between seven and eight o'clock this morning, a colored man, known by the name of George Gibson, employed in the establishment, removed the top from the vat, to cleanse it. It contained nothing except damp sediment. The colored man put a ladder in the vat from the aperture at the top, and descended. A moment afterwards, Mr. Joseph Richie heard him groan, and instantly suspecting the cause, chained a rope, and immediately proceeded to the top of the vat, backed by another person, with the view of extricating the sufferer. In the excitement and his eagerness to help an unfortunate fellow-creature, he forgot his own imminent peril, and descended the ladder too. From the noise of a fall heard by the one outside, the impression is that he must have been overcome by the foul gas, and fallen, before he was half way down the ladder. The excitement at this time increased, and the alarm spread. The feeling was intense and distracting. It was found that the only feasible plan was to capsize the vat, which was done with great difficulty, and after the lapse of some considerable time. In the meanwhile, a brother of Mr. Richie having ventured an effort to assist him, felt the suffocating effects of the gas and had to desist.

The bodies when taken out were discovered to be lifeless, and medical aid was found of no avail. Mr. Richie, the deceased, was aged about 36 years. He leaves a wife and four

Respectfully, THOMAS H. WILLIS.

RICHMOND, April 1st, 1848. Dear Sir: Observing from articles in the "Free Press" that you are about to give a new impulse to business upon the banks of the beautiful Shenandoah, I am reminded of the place of instance, he has said over and over again that he my birth, and I am reminded too that your faithful representative in the Senate, Mr. Gallaher, is is a Whig. He has repeated this in conversation address the youths, and some two or three brief also a native of the same region. Beginding the world as we both did, without fortune and other advantageous circumstances, which give then a cosition among their fellow men, I very naturalfeel an interestin his welfare. I am surprised h ar that there is the slightest doubt or hesitation about retaining him in the public circles; and so general is this feeling here, that I feel authorized in saying that if he were now a citizen of Richmond, and eligible to office among us, we should promptly take him up for the vacancy in our delegation, and elect hith almost by acclamation. This we would do as a testimony of our majority in favor of the three months' terms of high estimate of his business habits and enlarge views of State policy-and we should feel in ho noring him that we advanced the best interest of the whole Commonwealth. This I feel free to say, not as an evidence of my own feelings, but as the sentiments of an intelli ent and discriminating community. Yours, very truly. WALTER GWYNN.

We copy from the Baltimore American, for which paper the Address was telegraphed from CINCINNATI, April 12, 1848.

I transmit you the following important communication from Henry Clay, which has just come to hand. It is published by his authority: TO THE PUBLIC. The various and conflicting reports which have with respect to the next Presidency, appear to me to furnish the proper occasion for the full, frank and explicit exposition of my feelings, wishes and views upon that subject, which it is now my purpose to make. With a strong disinclination to under a determination to announce to the public. in some suitable form, my desire not to be tho't of as a candidate. In my absence, I frequently expressed to different gentlemen my unwillingness to be again in that attitude, but though no one was authorised to publish my decision one way or the other, having reserved the right to do so exclusively to myself, on reflection, I thought it due to my friends to consult with them before ! took a final and decisive step.

Accordingly, within the course of the last three months, I have had an opportunity of conversing fully and freely with them. Many of them have addressed to me the strongest appeals and the most earnest entreaties, both verbally and written, to dissuade me from ex-cuting my intended purpose. They represented to me that the withs drawal of my name would be fatal to the success and perhaps lead to the dissolution of the party with which I have been associated, particularly in the free States; that at no former period did The communication of "U." was re- there exist so great a probability of my election; ceived just as we were going to press. STEAM WAGON .- Recently, two pedlars, travelling on the road to Caudebee in a cariole, were smoking cigars, from the fire of which some straw at the bottom of the wagon became ignited. The flames soon drove them from their seats, and while they were busy in extinguishing the fire, a countryman, who had been for some time following them on horseback, alighted to assist them.

"I have been watching the smoke for some time," said he.

"Why, then, did you not give us notice?" asked the travellers.
