The senior editor of this paper has, for the first ime, in his own person, realized a political defeat. The portelit of the thing suboths the disappointment, and he feels in a mood quite as philo-sophic "as could be expected."

It would be useless to speculate upon the causes of this disaster-the "fixed fact" is known that he was short of roles! His opponents were ac-Some had "corn to plant," and did not suppose he would need their aid; some didn't like his "Taylor sin; some were a little "sulk?" in refer-are gratified with the result, he hopes they will enjoy it; since he would not deny to any one such an innecest gratification.

He has the proud satisfaction of knowing that his defeat is no dishonor-that his escutcheon is unsullied-and that, in going down, his flag was still unfurled-there was no backing, no trimming, no dodging. Sunchody had to be beaten, and the old soldier might as well take the rubbers as the young one. The people have gratified themselves, and that is sufficient. They have "mended their hand," and they are the gainers. He loses nothing but a budget of cares-and is his faults and foibles, the people have demanded expiation, and they have received it. It is their will, and that is enough. He bows respectfully to their behests, and surrenders the "robes of office" to his successor. His political opponents are doubtless sufficient

JEFFERSON COUNTY .- The contest in this County has been one of unusual interest and exitement. A measure foreign to the questions at ssue, was lugged into the canvass by our political opponents, in hopes of distracting and divi-ding the Democratic phalanx. To some extent, this political manœuvre may have succeeded; but an examination of the polls will prove, that the great mass of our party stood firm in the faith, and could neither be distracted or divided, by an issue upon the "School Bill." We warned and entreated the true friends of this measure to leave it where the people had placed it, and not to pur-sue the suicidal policy of linking it with our political squabbles. If in the conflict, our opponents have been worsted by an issue of their own choosing, upon their heads be the responsibility.

The Democrats had boasted, before the Senatovial nomination, of having made 60 new votes in Frederick. It turns out that they had piepared more than a hundred ! And almost every man was out on their side. At one precinct, a stek voter was taken on a sled some miles, for want of a more comfortable conveyance.

Yet the Democratic majority in Frederick, on the Senatorial poll, was only increased 14 over tor oter thankhourt more than 80 Whigs did 53 votes more in the County, than he did last year, and the largest number ever polled at Winchester for any candidate !

Major Muse, the other Whig candidate, was a stranger to most of the voters, and had not time to make himself personally known. His first vote under the circumstances, is a flattering one. The whole number of votes taken in Frederick, upon the Senatorial poll, was 1723-and many of these upon mere pocket deeds.
