

Virginia Free Press

CHARLESTOWN, JEFFERSON COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 26, 1848.

VOL. 11.

Virginia Free Press. THURSDAY MORNING.

OCTOBER 26, 1848.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

ZACHARY TAYLOR OF LOUISIANA. MILLARD FILLMORE OF NEW YORK.

STATE ELECTORS.

- 1. JAMES J. JONES, Norfolk Borough. 2. GEORGE W. BOHANNON, Petersburg. 3. HENRY B. BARNES, Warrenton. 4. JAMES K. LEVING, Lynchburg. 5. WILLIAM MARTIN, Franklin. 6. WILLIAM M. RYAN, Albemarle. 7. ROBERT E. SMITH, Fauquier. 8. HENRY L. GARNETT, Westmoreland. 9. JOHN A. MURPHY, Richmond City. 10. ROBERT S. WALKER, Williamsburg. 11. ANDREW HENNER, Jefferson. 12. ALEXANDER H. H. SCREVEN, Augusta. 13. SAMUEL M. DAVIS, Washington. 14. GONZALEZ P. TROTT, Washington. 15. GEORGE W. SIMMONS, Kanawha. 16. JAMES D. GARDNER, Harrison. 17. FRANCIS H. FLETCHER, Meigs.

THE TAYLOR PLATFORM.

The power given by the constitution to the Executive to remove his officers, is a high and sacred power, which should never be exercised except in cases of clear violation of the constitution, or of such a nature as to require the removal of the officer from office.

The removal of an officer from office, is a high and sacred power, which should never be exercised except in cases of clear violation of the constitution, or of such a nature as to require the removal of the officer from office.

ELECTORAL TICKETS.

It is time the Whig Clubs and others interested in the election, should be reminded that the tickets for the 7th of November are now ready for distribution.

FRIENDS OF TAYLOR!

On Tuesday the 7th of November, you will be called upon to discharge a high and solemn duty. On that day you must declare by your votes whether you will support the present Executive or the Whig candidate.

WATCH LEGAL VOTERS.

Keep a vigilant eye upon them, and suffer no man to vote who is not qualified to do so. If you do not see a man qualified to vote, do not allow him to vote.

GET THE VOTERS OUT.

Our opponents always manage to get their friends out. It is right sometimes to learn of our opponents. We should all do so.

BEAR IN MIND.

That we have voted for Taylor is the majority on the 7th of November. On that day you will have all his friends with you. Our opponents will have all their friends with them.

THE COUNTRY WILL BE REDEEMED!

Our country will be redeemed! Our country will be redeemed! Our country will be redeemed!

THE DAY OF BATTLE IS NEAR.

Our day of battle is near! Our day of battle is near! Our day of battle is near!

THE TESTIMONY OF AN OLD SOLDIER.

The President (Ky.) "Commonwealth" of the 10th instant says: The following letter, addressed to Governor Letcher, has been handed to me for publication. The writer is an old soldier, a citizen of Owen County, and a plain old gentleman of the old school. He knows Old Zachary, and knows him from his boyhood.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

ZACHARY TAYLOR OF LOUISIANA. MILLARD FILLMORE OF NEW YORK.

STATE ELECTORS.

- 1. JAMES J. JONES, Norfolk Borough. 2. GEORGE W. BOHANNON, Petersburg. 3. HENRY B. BARNES, Warrenton. 4. JAMES K. LEVING, Lynchburg. 5. WILLIAM MARTIN, Franklin. 6. WILLIAM M. RYAN, Albemarle. 7. ROBERT E. SMITH, Fauquier. 8. HENRY L. GARNETT, Westmoreland. 9. JOHN A. MURPHY, Richmond City. 10. ROBERT S. WALKER, Williamsburg. 11. ANDREW HENNER, Jefferson. 12. ALEXANDER H. H. SCREVEN, Augusta. 13. SAMUEL M. DAVIS, Washington. 14. GONZALEZ P. TROTT, Washington. 15. GEORGE W. SIMMONS, Kanawha. 16. JAMES D. GARDNER, Harrison. 17. FRANCIS H. FLETCHER, Meigs.

THE TAYLOR PLATFORM.

The power given by the constitution to the Executive to remove his officers, is a high and sacred power, which should never be exercised except in cases of clear violation of the constitution, or of such a nature as to require the removal of the officer from office.

ELECTORAL TICKETS.

It is time the Whig Clubs and others interested in the election, should be reminded that the tickets for the 7th of November are now ready for distribution.

FRIENDS OF TAYLOR!

On Tuesday the 7th of November, you will be called upon to discharge a high and solemn duty. On that day you must declare by your votes whether you will support the present Executive or the Whig candidate.

WATCH LEGAL VOTERS.

Keep a vigilant eye upon them, and suffer no man to vote who is not qualified to do so. If you do not see a man qualified to vote, do not allow him to vote.

GET THE VOTERS OUT.

Our opponents always manage to get their friends out. It is right sometimes to learn of our opponents. We should all do so.

A GRAPHIC OUTLINE.

The following graphic sketch is from a speech delivered by the Hon. CURTIS ALLAN, at Wheeling, Kentucky, Mr. A. represented for several years the Lexington district in Congress.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

ZACHARY TAYLOR OF LOUISIANA. MILLARD FILLMORE OF NEW YORK.

STATE ELECTORS.

- 1. JAMES J. JONES, Norfolk Borough. 2. GEORGE W. BOHANNON, Petersburg. 3. HENRY B. BARNES, Warrenton. 4. JAMES K. LEVING, Lynchburg. 5. WILLIAM MARTIN, Franklin. 6. WILLIAM M. RYAN, Albemarle. 7. ROBERT E. SMITH, Fauquier. 8. HENRY L. GARNETT, Westmoreland. 9. JOHN A. MURPHY, Richmond City. 10. ROBERT S. WALKER, Williamsburg. 11. ANDREW HENNER, Jefferson. 12. ALEXANDER H. H. SCREVEN, Augusta. 13. SAMUEL M. DAVIS, Washington. 14. GONZALEZ P. TROTT, Washington. 15. GEORGE W. SIMMONS, Kanawha. 16. JAMES D. GARDNER, Harrison. 17. FRANCIS H. FLETCHER, Meigs.

THE TAYLOR PLATFORM.

The power given by the constitution to the Executive to remove his officers, is a high and sacred power, which should never be exercised except in cases of clear violation of the constitution, or of such a nature as to require the removal of the officer from office.

ELECTORAL TICKETS.

It is time the Whig Clubs and others interested in the election, should be reminded that the tickets for the 7th of November are now ready for distribution.

FRIENDS OF TAYLOR!

On Tuesday the 7th of November, you will be called upon to discharge a high and solemn duty. On that day you must declare by your votes whether you will support the present Executive or the Whig candidate.

WATCH LEGAL VOTERS.

Keep a vigilant eye upon them, and suffer no man to vote who is not qualified to do so. If you do not see a man qualified to vote, do not allow him to vote.

GET THE VOTERS OUT.

Our opponents always manage to get their friends out. It is right sometimes to learn of our opponents. We should all do so.

POETRY.

TELL ME, MY HEART, WHAT LOVE'S HERE. Translated for the New York Evening Mirror. Tell me, my heart, O answer! What is the thing called Love? Two souls and but one feeling, Two hearts and but one move.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FEMALE BEAUTY. True female beauty does not consist in any particular form, or external appearance alone, but in symmetry and elegance, together with the assemblage of those interesting qualities which attract and render their persons permanently pleasing.

PUNCTUALITY.

Ab! that's a jewel—punctuality. If you borrow a few dollars of a friend, pay him the amount you promptly declines. We're not stingy, but we're punctual against you.

THE COMMON LOT.

May we not read our own history in every leaf and every flower? Are not our days like a shadow that passes, and our years like a dream that fades?

CONSEQUENCE OF NOT TAKING THE PAPERS.

Some years ago, a lady, noticing a neighbor of hers was not in her seat at church on the Sabbath called, on her return home, to inquire what should detain so punctual a attendant.

HALF AND HALF.

We heard a good one a few days since, of an old German woman, who keeps an inn somewhere in the West county of Somerset. Be it remembered that this old widow was quite enough in her particular line.

DUTCHMAN VS. THE POST-OFFICE.

A Dutchman told us his grievances the other day, which were as follows: "De lost master in dere ish de most meastest man I ever seed. I galls and I galls for letters, Ivo, free hundred times, and he say, 'no lether' every dime, and dat's all he will say."

LUCKY.

A lawyer sent his son before a school committee to give his qualifications. The committee, after examining every thing given, said to the father, "I will give you a certificate if you will give me a certificate."

A SQUARE YARD.

A square yard of ground is a square yard of ground. A square yard of ground is a square yard of ground.

THE TESTIMONY OF AN OLD SOLDIER.

The President (Ky.) "Commonwealth" of the 10th instant says: The following letter, addressed to Governor Letcher, has been handed to me for publication. The writer is an old soldier, a citizen of Owen County, and a plain old gentleman of the old school.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

ZACHARY TAYLOR OF LOUISIANA. MILLARD FILLMORE OF NEW YORK.

STATE ELECTORS.

- 1. JAMES J. JONES, Norfolk Borough. 2. GEORGE W. BOHANNON, Petersburg. 3. HENRY B. BARNES, Warrenton. 4. JAMES K. LEVING, Lynchburg. 5. WILLIAM MARTIN, Franklin. 6. WILLIAM M. RYAN, Albemarle. 7. ROBERT E. SMITH, Fauquier. 8. HENRY L. GARNETT, Westmoreland. 9. JOHN A. MURPHY, Richmond City. 10. ROBERT S. WALKER, Williamsburg. 11. ANDREW HENNER, Jefferson. 12. ALEXANDER H. H. SCREVEN, Augusta. 13. SAMUEL M. DAVIS, Washington. 14. GONZALEZ P. TROTT, Washington. 15. GEORGE W. SIMMONS, Kanawha. 16. JAMES D. GARDNER, Harrison. 17. FRANCIS H. FLETCHER, Meigs.

THE TAYLOR PLATFORM.

The power given by the constitution to the Executive to remove his officers, is a high and sacred power, which should never be exercised except in cases of clear violation of the constitution, or of such a nature as to require the removal of the officer from office.

ELECTORAL TICKETS.

It is time the Whig Clubs and others interested in the election, should be reminded that the tickets for the 7th of November are now ready for distribution.

FRIENDS OF TAYLOR!

On Tuesday the 7th of November, you will be called upon to discharge a high and solemn duty. On that day you must declare by your votes whether you will support the present Executive or the Whig candidate.

WATCH LEGAL VOTERS.

Keep a vigilant eye upon them, and suffer no man to vote who is not qualified to do so. If you do not see a man qualified to vote, do not allow him to vote.

GET THE VOTERS OUT.

Our opponents always manage to get their friends out. It is right sometimes to learn of our opponents. We should all do so.

THE TESTIMONY OF AN OLD SOLDIER.

The President (Ky.) "Commonwealth" of the 10th instant says: The following letter, addressed to Governor Letcher, has been handed to me for publication. The writer is an old soldier, a citizen of Owen County, and a plain old gentleman of the old school.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

ZACHARY TAYLOR OF LOUISIANA. MILLARD FILLMORE OF NEW YORK.

STATE ELECTORS.

- 1. JAMES J. JONES, Norfolk Borough. 2. GEORGE W. BOHANNON, Petersburg. 3. HENRY B. BARNES, Warrenton. 4. JAMES K. LEVING, Lynchburg. 5. WILLIAM MARTIN, Franklin. 6. WILLIAM M. RYAN, Albemarle. 7. ROBERT E. SMITH, Fauquier. 8. HENRY L. GARNETT, Westmoreland. 9. JOHN A. MURPHY, Richmond City. 10. ROBERT S. WALKER, Williamsburg. 11. ANDREW HENNER, Jefferson. 12. ALEXANDER H. H. SCREVEN, Augusta. 13. SAMUEL M. DAVIS, Washington. 14. GONZALEZ P. TROTT, Washington. 15. GEORGE W. SIMMONS, Kanawha. 16. JAMES D. GARDNER, Harrison. 17. FRANCIS H. FLETCHER, Meigs.

THE TAYLOR PLATFORM.

The power given by the constitution to the Executive to remove his officers, is a high and sacred power, which should never be exercised except in cases of clear violation of the constitution, or of such a nature as to require the removal of the officer from office.

ELECTORAL TICKETS.

It is time the Whig Clubs and others interested in the election, should be reminded that the tickets for the 7th of November are now ready for distribution.

FRIENDS OF TAYLOR!

On Tuesday the 7th of November, you will be called upon to discharge a high and solemn duty. On that day you must declare by your votes whether you will support the present Executive or the Whig candidate.

WATCH LEGAL VOTERS.

Keep a vigilant eye upon them, and suffer no man to vote who is not qualified to do so. If you do not see a man qualified to vote, do not allow him to vote.

GET THE VOTERS OUT.

Our opponents always manage to get their friends out. It is right sometimes to learn of our opponents. We should all do so.

THE TESTIMONY OF AN OLD SOLDIER.

The President (Ky.) "Commonwealth" of the 10th instant says: The following letter, addressed to Governor Letcher, has been handed to me for publication. The writer is an old soldier, a citizen of Owen County, and a plain old gentleman of the old school.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

ZACHARY TAYLOR OF LOUISIANA. MILLARD FILLMORE OF NEW YORK.

STATE ELECTORS.

- 1. JAMES J. JONES, Norfolk Borough. 2. GEORGE W. BOHANNON, Petersburg. 3. HENRY B. BARNES, Warrenton. 4. JAMES K. LEVING, Lynchburg. 5. WILLIAM MARTIN, Franklin. 6. WILLIAM M. RYAN, Albemarle. 7. ROBERT E. SMITH, Fauquier. 8. HENRY L. GARNETT, Westmoreland. 9. JOHN A. MURPHY, Richmond City. 10. ROBERT S. WALKER, Williamsburg. 11. ANDREW HENNER, Jefferson. 12. ALEXANDER H. H. SCREVEN, Augusta. 13. SAMUEL M. DAVIS, Washington. 14. GONZALEZ P. TROTT, Washington. 15. GEORGE W. SIMMONS, Kanawha. 16. JAMES D. GARDNER, Harrison. 17. FRANCIS H. FLETCHER, Meigs.

THE TAYLOR PLATFORM.

The power given by the constitution to the Executive to remove his officers, is a high and sacred power, which should never be exercised except in cases of clear violation of the constitution, or of such a nature as to require the removal of the officer from office.

ELECTORAL TICKETS.

It is time the Whig Clubs and others interested in the election, should be reminded that the tickets for the 7th of November are now ready for distribution.

FRIENDS OF TAYLOR!

On Tuesday the 7th of November, you will be called upon to discharge a high and solemn duty. On that day you must declare by your votes whether you will support the present Executive or the Whig candidate.

WATCH LEGAL VOTERS.

Keep a vigilant eye upon them, and suffer no man to vote who is not qualified to do so. If you do not see a man qualified to vote, do not allow him to vote.

GET THE VOTERS OUT.

Our opponents always manage to get their friends out. It is right sometimes to learn of our opponents. We should all do so.

WHIGS.

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

TAYLOR CLUB MEETING.

The "Rough and Ready Club" had quite a spirited meeting at the Court House on Friday evening last. Col. J. F. HAMMACK was first introduced, and entered at length into a review of the military services of Gen. Taylor, commencing with the gallant defense of Fort Harrison, and extending through the actions told at Prairie La Poudre, in which Col. H. was himself engaged, his services in closing the Florida war, and his brilliant exploits in Mexico...

THE BERRYVILLE TURNPIKE.

An election for officers of the Berryville and Charleston Turnpike Company was held on the 18th, which resulted in the selection of the following officers: President—Alfred Castleman. Treasurer—Samuel W. Laskland. Directors—Wm. F. Turner, Thomas McCormick and Wm. S. Lock.

THE LARGEST VOTE EVER POLLED.

The most encouraging feature in the late election in Pennsylvania is the fact that the vote for Governor is the largest ever polled in that State. The organs of Gen. Cass had their full vote had not been polled. But even this record is taken from them when we examine the returns. We confess that we were not without our misgivings as to the truth of their story—but in this case their fears seem not to have been well founded, and our fears likewise and completely dispelled by the facts of the case. We submit several views in order that all may see and judge for themselves.

THE TELEGRAPH.

The regular operations of the Telegraph were commenced at Winchester on Monday last, and every thing works smoothly. The Company have located an office in this place, in the building belonging to Capt. Sappington, in rear of his Hotel, and were now placed in communication with all the principal points in the United States through the medium of the telegraph line. The Messrs. Townsend and Mr. Cerrus deserve great credit for the energy and perseverance which have marked their efforts in this work.

MILLAR OF NEW YORK.

- STATE ELECTORS. 1. JOHN J. JAMES, Norfolk City. 2. GEORGE W. BOLLING, Petersburg. 3. HENRY F. IRVING, Culpeper. 4. HENRY F. IRVING, Lynchburg. 5. WILLIAM M. BROWN, Franklin. 6. WILLIAM C. RYAN, Albemarle. 7. ROBERT E. SCOTT, Fauquier. 8. HENRY T. GARNETT, Westmoreland. 9. JOHN A. MANNING, Richmond City. 10. ROBERT SANDERS, Williamsburg. 11. ANDREW H. JONES, Jefferson. 12. ALEXANDER H. H. SPURRY, Augusta. 13. SAMUEL M. D. MOORE, Rockledge. 14. CONNELL F. TAYLOR, Washington. 15. GEORGE W. SCUMMER, Rappahannock. 16. FRANCIS D. CAMERON, Harrison. 17. GEORGE H. PIERPONT, Marion.

EXAMINE YOUR TICKET.

Let every Taylor man examine well each name on the ticket he is about to vote for. Compare the names, and the spelling of each name, with the Electoral Ticket published in to-day's paper. An error seems to have been made, heretofore, in the spelling of the name of FRANCIS H. PIERPONT, and though it was a mistake of an immaterial character, yet it would be well to have each voter examine, and the whole ticket correct, and "nothing else." The Governor has appointed Locooco Commissioners throughout the entire State, and true to the purposes for which they were appointed, they have given their party an undue ascendancy, by appointing their own partisans to decide the legality of votes, and other matters connected with the election.

THE GREAT ODDS AGAINST US.

Let our single Taylor man in the Old Dominion stand up on account of the odds against us to the last Presidential election. Suppose Old Zack had had the odds opposing him, where would have been his chances? Where the Star Spangled Banner? The regions of the enemy would have never been defeated from the hands of our heroes, or perched in triumph on the Palms and Reeds of our conquering force.

OLD ZACK IS COMING.

At a most critical period of the battle of Buena Vista, a soldier, as we learn from Capt. Brazz, fringed in a loud clear voice the shout, "Old Zack is coming!" and that shout, caught up and repeated through the army, was equal to re-inforcement of ten thousand men.

SAVE THE PIECES!

The Locooco prints have discovered a dreadful plot to deceive the intelligent voters of their party. It seems that Taylor tickets have been printed at the office of the W. Y. Whig, with the name of Wm. O. Butler in place of Millard Fillmore. Now the simple explanation of this affair is this:—That Col. Smyth, the editor of the W. Y. Whig, is himself a Democrat, who is voting for Old Zack, but prefers Butler as Vice President. He and his brother Democrats have a right to vote as they please, and to prepare tickets to suit themselves. It is a poor comfort to popular intelligence to suppose that a Democrat could be deceived by such a ticket. A man will take good care to see that his ticket is his own. The Whigs are not bound to furnish a ticket to every voter who may be so ignorant as to be doing. They use only their own.

POOR MEN CAN'T RIDE WITH ME!

The honest laborer remember that Lewis Cass is too much of an aristocrat, in 1841, only four years ago, to suffer Samuel Hunter, a plain and honest farmer, residing in Wayne county, Ohio, to ride in the public stage coach with him. Probably Mr. H.'s clothing was home-made, which would do to ride against the French cloth of Mr. Cass. Remember, my workmen, that although there was no one on the same seat with Lewis Cass, he yet rode in the same stage with him, and he was not a ride outside of his (Cass) coat! What a spectacle is here presented! Gen. Cass, the blunted and purr-purr aristocrat, then fresh from the Court of France, and King in the latitude of which he had taxed his genius to the utmost that he might obtain county smiles and kindly favors—sprung from his presence an American Farmer, and condemning him to the society of the manual whose occupation is to brush his master's boots!

WHOM WILL YE HATE?

Lewis Cass takes James K. Polk's administration for his model. Gen. Taylor promises to administer the government "strictly according to the Constitution, as it was construed by Washington and the earlier Presidents." The expenses of the Government under Gen. Taylor, will be reduced to such an extent, that the budget, compared to the expenditures under Mr. Polk for only four years. We append the expenses under each of the Administrations:

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

WHY NOT VOTE FOR TAYLOR?

There really seems to be no good and substantial reason why all parties—both Whig and Democratic—should not vote for Gen. Taylor in preference to Gen. Cass, who, to say the least of it, has from a very suspicious quarter of the country, to have any...

