

THE WHIG TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR. Hon. GEORGE W. SUMMERS, OF KANAWHA. FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR. SAMUEL WATTS, OF NEWPORT COUNTY. FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL. SIDNEY S. BAXTER, OF RICHMOND. FOR HOUSE OF DELEGATES. ROBERT V. SHIRLEY.

We are authorized to announce WILLIAM BRANTHAM, Esq., as a candidate for Governor of the Commonwealth, in the next election. He is a native of this State, and has spent his life in the study of the law. He is a man of high character and ability, and is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office.

The victory obtained by the Conservatives, as they are called, is scarcely a matter worth rejoicing over by Union men. All parties in this State claim a right of succession—and the only difference is as to the mode. The Conservatives claim the right to succeed to the office of the President, and the Union men claim the right to succeed to the office of the President.

The Revolution in the Northern part of Mexico is in a very bad state, and it seems to be going ahead. It is in charge of Canales and Carvajal, two bandit chiefs, who are engaged in a series of depredations. They have taken a large number of captives, and are holding them in a state of slavery.

The Mexican Government, under the charge of President Comonfort, is in a state of weakness. It is unable to maintain order in the country, and is being overthrown by the forces of the revolution. The people are suffering from the effects of the war, and are in a state of distress.

It seems that this gentleman desires any knowledge of or agency in the London correspondence in reference to putting him up for the Presidency on the Free Soil platform. The General thinks the whole correspondence was gotten up to injure him in the Presidential canvass.

No doubt this Mr. Sumner was a roller in the business, but certainly it is brought out in the rich matter on the subject. Hall admitted the Democracy of Massachusetts were absorbed by the Free Soilers, and other gentlemen made a mischievous equally conclusive. But they all looked forward to the "spoils" as the great object of attraction.

The Constitution. It now seems placed beyond all doubt that the new Constitution is adopted by a very large majority. The elections, therefore, for members of the Legislature will be set aside, and measures for a new canvass will be promptly taken.

It is to be hoped that the new Constitution will be adopted by a very large majority. The elections, therefore, for members of the Legislature will be set aside, and measures for a new canvass will be promptly taken.

TENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

The election in this Congressional District, gratifying to every lover of the Union. Canvass by about 400 majority over Henry Brantham, Esq., the candidate of the Secession party. We do not call this a Whig triumph, for the Democracy has really an "Union" triumph. A few secessionists, trusting upon the loyalty of the Democracy of the District, imagined they would carry a lesson on which we will not rest. That our readers may know the spirit of our neighbor of the Spirit at the defeat of his "standard bearer," we insert the following extract from the "Standard" of the 12th inst. In conclusion, we can only say, that if a secessionist man is an evidence of the "sympathy and affection" of the Democratic party, we should rather be without their sympathy than with it.

The "Standard" of the 12th inst. displays an amount of bad temper since the result of the recent election has been ascertained. The sheet to which we have referred certainly has been very great. For what reason we do not know, but it is certainly a very great one. It is a very great one, and it is a very great one.

The attempt to identify the opinions of Mr. Faulkner as tending to "consolidation," "federal encroachments," and all that sort of thing, is hardly worth notice. It is a very great one, and it is a very great one. It is a very great one, and it is a very great one.

Our neighbor, in closing his long tirade about the District, says that Mr. Faulkner is a man of high character and ability, and is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office. He is a man of high character and ability, and is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office.

It is with proud satisfaction we announce to the people of Virginia, and particularly of the Valley, the success which has crowned the efforts of the gentleman, who heads this article, in favor of the new Constitution. It is a very great one, and it is a very great one.

The following are the premiums awarded him by the late Maryland State Agricultural Society. They were generally for improved Cotswold sheep—some of them were "winners" of the high prizes of the Royal Agricultural Society of England. It will be understood that he is neither good nor better!

For the best bred cow, 2 years old, 7.00 For the best imported buck, 5.00 For the best do do, 4.00 For the best do do, 3.00 For the best do do, 2.00 For the best do do, 1.00 For the best do do, 1.00 For the best do do, 1.00

We understand that the Committee decided on the best bred buck and pen of ewes, they were under the impression they were the best, and included them—Col. W. however, extracted the buck, but did not insist on a revision of their selection. We hope in our next issue, to give the premiums awarded the Col. on our own Fair.

OUR NEW YORK CORRESPONDENCE.

Editors of the Press: The arrivals and departures of various steamships, at and from this port, on Saturday, were numerous as to present a very lively scene in our harbor, from morning till night. At about 8 A. M. a rather large steamer, came in from England, and started for Liverpool, at 12 M. The Atlantic, Georgia and Liberia, left this port for Havana and Chagres. These were followed shortly afterwards, by the steamer Florida for Savannah; the South Carolina for Charleston; and the Boston, for Richmond. This was not a very bad business, for one single day.

At about 10 P. M. last night, it was reported that the steamer Pacific, had arrived, with four days later news than that brought by the Niagara; and subsequently ascertained that the vessel was; but the Atlantic, which had returned from sea, through fear of severe weather for the first night while off the coast. The Niagara brought further news about the ill-fated Hungarian exile. He was expected to arrive at Southampton on the 12th inst. and great preparation has been made for his reception, both at that port and in London. The Liverpool and London Market was quite dull. The near closing of the Crystal Palace had caused a tremendous flow of capital, and of other funds. On Oct. 6, there were 107,615 visitors, who paid nearly $300,000 for admission! Notwithstanding this immense throng, everything went off with perfect order.

The late Congressional election. The "Standard" of the 12th inst. displays an amount of bad temper since the result of the recent election has been ascertained. The sheet to which we have referred certainly has been very great. For what reason we do not know, but it is certainly a very great one. It is a very great one, and it is a very great one.

Our neighbor, in closing his long tirade about the District, says that Mr. Faulkner is a man of high character and ability, and is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office. He is a man of high character and ability, and is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office.

It is with proud satisfaction we announce to the people of Virginia, and particularly of the Valley, the success which has crowned the efforts of the gentleman, who heads this article, in favor of the new Constitution. It is a very great one, and it is a very great one.

The following are the premiums awarded him by the late Maryland State Agricultural Society. They were generally for improved Cotswold sheep—some of them were "winners" of the high prizes of the Royal Agricultural Society of England. It will be understood that he is neither good nor better!

For the best bred cow, 2 years old, 7.00 For the best imported buck, 5.00 For the best do do, 4.00 For the best do do, 3.00 For the best do do, 2.00 For the best do do, 1.00 For the best do do, 1.00 For the best do do, 1.00

We understand that the Committee decided on the best bred buck and pen of ewes, they were under the impression they were the best, and included them—Col. W. however, extracted the buck, but did not insist on a revision of their selection. We hope in our next issue, to give the premiums awarded the Col. on our own Fair.

RECOVERED CORRESPONDENCE. RIDGLAND LETTERS.

My Dear Clara—Your kind remembrance of me was most welcome, and I was glad to hear that you were all well. I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

THE AMERICAN ART-UNION FOR THE PROMOTION OF THE FINE ARTS.

It is a pleasure to announce that the American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

RECOVERED CORRESPONDENCE. RIDGLAND LETTERS.

My Dear Clara—Your kind remembrance of me was most welcome, and I was glad to hear that you were all well. I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have been very busy lately, and have not had time to write you more often. I am well, and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

CORRESPONDENCE.

CHARLOTTEVILLE, Sept. 26, 1851. Sir—As a committee in behalf of the State Convention, now in session at this place, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your nomination for the office of Lieutenant Governor, under the amended Constitution of Virginia, and to express our sincere thanks for the honor conferred upon us.

It is a pleasure to announce that the American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

THE AMERICAN ART-UNION FOR THE PROMOTION OF THE FINE ARTS.

It is a pleasure to announce that the American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

The American Art-Union has received a large number of contributions from the public. The amount of the contributions is very large, and it is hoped that they will be sufficient to enable the Union to purchase a large number of works of art for the benefit of the public.

