

Virginia Free Press. BY H. N. GALLAHER & CO. THURSDAY MORNING. JULY 1, 1852.

NATIONAL WHIG NOMINATIONS. FOR PRESIDENT, GEN. WINFIELD SCOTT, OF NEW JERSEY. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Resolved, That we are opposed to slavery in any form, and in favor of freedom for all men, and that we will support any measure that will secure the freedom of the African race.

DEATH OF HENRY CLAY—THE PATRIOT STATESMAN.

HENRY CLAY IS DEAD! No more shall the voice of Henry Clay be heard on earth! No more shall his eye gleam forth from the halls of our legislative council! No more shall his name be greeted with the plaudits of his admirers and grateful countrymen!

IMPULSIVE DICTATION.

After playing the beggar under false pretences for the last six months, Kossuth has ventured to take an open stand in the Presidential election.

STRENGTH OF TESTIMONY.

As some of our readers have undertaken to impugn Gen. Pierce, a Northern man, and our interests of the South, then Gen. Scott, we desire to remind them of their endorsement of one Joseph Johnson, who was not just so much a disgraceful, but a man of high character.

HENRY CLAY'S DEATH ANNOUNCED—CONGRESS IMMEDIATELY ADJOURNS.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock, and after prayer by the Chaplain, Mr. Hunter said:

THE LETTERS OF ACCEPTANCE.

The letters of acceptance of Messrs. Scott and Graham will be read with pleasure. The language and spirit of both are frank, plain and unmistakable.

HANDSOME COMPLIMENT TO MR. GRAHAM.

The following is the result of the balloting for Vice President:

WISDOM'S RIGHTS!

Mr. J. RANDOLPH TUCKER, Honorable Elector for this district, objected in his speech at the Court House to the nomination of Gen. Scott, and would have voted for the other candidate, if he had been allowed to do so.

HARVEST.

Our farmers are in the midst of their usual harvest. The crops will fall far short of the usual amount, and we trust not to the extent supposed by some.

THE WHIG NOMINATIONS.

The cordial satisfaction with which the nomination of Gen. Scott for President is hailed by the Whigs throughout the country (says the Baltimore American) is an appropriate expression of the satisfaction which that event has caused among our political opponents.

LETTER TO GENERAL SCOTT.

Sir: I am instructed by the Whig National Convention to inform you of your nomination as President of the United States.

LETTER OF GEN. SCOTT IN REPLY.

The Honorable J. G. CHAPMAN, President of the Whig National Convention, has the honor to inform me of my nomination as President of the United States.

ACCEPTANCE BY GEN. SCOTT OF THE WHIG NOMINATION.

At last, the struggle is over—General WINFIELD SCOTT has been elected President of the Whig party of the United States.

THE WHIG NOMINEE.

At 9 o'clock the spontaneously assembled thousands of our citizens, with the Light Infantry and militia, marched in procession along Pennsylvania avenue to the residence of General Scott.

PROCESSION, &c.

The Washington Telegraph has the following account of what transpired in that city on Monday evening after the nominations of Scott and Graham became known.

LIFE AND SERVICES OF GEN. WINFIELD SCOTT.

From the Baltimore Patriot. Winfield Scott was born near Petersburg, Virginia, on the 13th of August, 1781.

ACCEPTANCE BY GEN. SCOTT OF THE WHIG NOMINATION.

At last, the struggle is over—General WINFIELD SCOTT has been elected President of the Whig party of the United States.

THE WHIG NOMINEE.

At 9 o'clock the spontaneously assembled thousands of our citizens, with the Light Infantry and militia, marched in procession along Pennsylvania avenue to the residence of General Scott.

PROCESSION, &c.

The Washington Telegraph has the following account of what transpired in that city on Monday evening after the nominations of Scott and Graham became known.

LIFE AND SERVICES OF GEN. WINFIELD SCOTT.

From the Baltimore Patriot. Winfield Scott was born near Petersburg, Virginia, on the 13th of August, 1781.

ACCEPTANCE BY GEN. SCOTT OF THE WHIG NOMINATION.

At last, the struggle is over—General WINFIELD SCOTT has been elected President of the Whig party of the United States.

THE WHIG NOMINEE.

At 9 o'clock the spontaneously assembled thousands of our citizens, with the Light Infantry and militia, marched in procession along Pennsylvania avenue to the residence of General Scott.

PROCESSION, &c.

The Washington Telegraph has the following account of what transpired in that city on Monday evening after the nominations of Scott and Graham became known.

LIFE AND SERVICES OF GEN. WINFIELD SCOTT.

From the Baltimore Patriot. Winfield Scott was born near Petersburg, Virginia, on the 13th of August, 1781.

ACCEPTANCE BY GEN. SCOTT OF THE WHIG NOMINATION.

At last, the struggle is over—General WINFIELD SCOTT has been elected President of the Whig party of the United States.

THE WHIG NOMINEE.

At 9 o'clock the spontaneously assembled thousands of our citizens, with the Light Infantry and militia, marched in procession along Pennsylvania avenue to the residence of General Scott.

PROCESSION, &c.

The Washington Telegraph has the following account of what transpired in that city on Monday evening after the nominations of Scott and Graham became known.

LIFE AND SERVICES OF GEN. WINFIELD SCOTT.

From the Baltimore Patriot. Winfield Scott was born near Petersburg, Virginia, on the 13th of August, 1781.

ACCEPTANCE BY GEN. SCOTT OF THE WHIG NOMINATION.

At last, the struggle is over—General WINFIELD SCOTT has been elected President of the Whig party of the United States.

THE WHIG NOMINEE.

At 9 o'clock the spontaneously assembled thousands of our citizens, with the Light Infantry and militia, marched in procession along Pennsylvania avenue to the residence of General Scott.

PROCESSION, &c.

The Washington Telegraph has the following account of what transpired in that city on Monday evening after the nominations of Scott and Graham became known.

LIFE AND SERVICES OF GEN. WINFIELD SCOTT.

From the Baltimore Patriot. Winfield Scott was born near Petersburg, Virginia, on the 13th of August, 1781.

ACCEPTANCE BY GEN. SCOTT OF THE WHIG NOMINATION.

At last, the struggle is over—General WINFIELD SCOTT has been elected President of the Whig party of the United States.

THE WHIG NOMINEE.

At 9 o'clock the spontaneously assembled thousands of our citizens, with the Light Infantry and militia, marched in procession along Pennsylvania avenue to the residence of General Scott.

PROCESSION, &c.

The Washington Telegraph has the following account of what transpired in that city on Monday evening after the nominations of Scott and Graham became known.

LIFE AND SERVICES OF GEN. WINFIELD SCOTT.

From the Baltimore Patriot. Winfield Scott was born near Petersburg, Virginia, on the 13th of August, 1781.

THE TRUE SPIRIT.

A correspondent from Stanton writing on business, after expressing the regret felt by the Whigs of that district, at the failure of Mr. Fillmore's nomination.

THE TRAGEDY.

In a letter from this city we will perceive how our second thought pertained to the only practical question now, shall we take the alternative of a Whig Party fairly and fully open to the Northern Whig Party?

THE TRAGEDY.

On the 16th of March, 1847, Gen. S. arrived at the place where the stars and stripes were to be hoisted in the city of Mexico.

THE TRAGEDY.

On the 9th of March, 1847, when only twenty years of age, Scott was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

THE TRAGEDY.

On the 10th and 11th of November, 1813, Scott was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

THE TRAGEDY.

On the 10th and 11th of November, 1813, Scott was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

THE TRAGEDY.

On the 10th and 11th of November, 1813, Scott was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

THE TRAGEDY.

On the 10th and 11th of November, 1813, Scott was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

THE TRAGEDY.

On the 10th and 11th of November, 1813, Scott was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

THE TRAGEDY.

On the 10th and 11th of November, 1813, Scott was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

THE TRAGEDY.

On the 10th and 11th of November, 1813, Scott was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

THE TRAGEDY.

On the 10th and 11th of November, 1813, Scott was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

THE TRAGEDY.

On the 10th and 11th of November, 1813, Scott was promoted to the rank of Major-General.

