DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET. FOR GOVERNOR. JOHN LETCHER, OF MIDDLESEX. FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR. R. L. MONTAGUE, OF MIDDLESEX. FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL. JOHN R. TUCKER, OF FREDERICK. FOR CONGRESS. Charles J. Faulkner, OF BEDFORD. FOR SENATE. THOMAS M. ISBELL, OF BEDFORD. FOR HOUSE OF DELEGATES. WILLIAM A. MORGAN, OF MIDDLESEX. THROUGH.

SUPPRESSING THE TRUTH. Our neighbor of the Spirit lately received an extra from the 'Beth Constitution'... A Faulkner paper published at Bath, Morgan county, and which was headed in flaming capitals 'The Truth'... He was a man of some consequence in Congress and what he had done in Congress and what he had done in the South... He had done in the South... He had done in the South...

GOGGIN AND MONTAGUE. THE DISCUSSION AT CHARLESTOWN. Quite a large crowd of the citizens of this county were in town on Monday last to hear the discussion between Mr. Goggin, the opposition candidate for Governor, and Mr. Montague, the Lieutenant on the Letcher ticket. The discussion was opened by Mr. Goggin in an aspect of an hour and a quarter in length, in which he showed himself worthy of the high fame which had preceded him... He briefly referred to the presence of Mr. Montague, and said that gentlemen he had nothing to do with... He had nothing to do with... He had nothing to do with...

A poor Old Con, who was the intimate friend of the Hon. Charles Jones in '40, '41, and even as late as '52, having lost his seat in the House of Representatives in the late election, he had been elected as a member of the Virginia Convention, and was one of its members... He had been elected as a member of the Virginia Convention, and was one of its members... He had been elected as a member of the Virginia Convention, and was one of its members...

OLD SOLDIERS' REAR! In republishing the speeches of the Tennessee members in favor of the anti-slavery presidential candidates, which have been published in the Richmond Whig, we are giving the following account of a meeting of the old soldiers... Who Mr. Letcher was voting against... Who Mr. Letcher was voting against... Who Mr. Letcher was voting against...

FOR THE FREE PRESS. THE ANTI-FANKLINER DEMOCRATS. AND THE SPIRIT OF JEFFERSON. Mr. Goggin. The following paragraphs were taken from the Spirit of Jefferson, dated May 1st, 1866, and published in the Richmond Whig... The course of conduct. The Anti-Faulkner Democrats should be especially careful to avoid the charge of unpopularity and unpopularity...

A QUERITION FOR DEMOCRATS TO ANSWER. The Frederickburg Democrat following toughly upon the issue of the present canvass, with some of them will make a little... 'With a President who has every professor of principle of State Democracy with a ready hand for not sustaining... The course of conduct. The Anti-Faulkner Democrats should be especially careful to avoid the charge of unpopularity and unpopularity...

We ask the calm attention of our readers of all parties, to the card of Mr. George W. Wicket, of Martinsburg, which appears in this paper... We ask the calm attention of our readers of all parties, to the card of Mr. George W. Wicket, of Martinsburg, which appears in this paper...

LET THE PEOPLE REMEMBER. That the Hon. C. J. Faulkner boasted in his speech before the people of Page county, that he had saved several millions to the Treasury by desisting from grants against the Government, but the truth of the assertion needs that very important consideration... Let the people remember... Let the people remember... Let the people remember...

CHANGED FRONT. Most fare in all of his previous addresses, Faulkner has noted or attempted to set the dictator to the hard-working Amory men at Harper's Ferry... Most fare in all of his previous addresses, Faulkner has noted or attempted to set the dictator to the hard-working Amory men at Harper's Ferry... Most fare in all of his previous addresses, Faulkner has noted or attempted to set the dictator to the hard-working Amory men at Harper's Ferry...

THE OLD SOLDIERS. Mr. Faulkner is truly a remarkably self-sacrificing patriot... He has done so much for his country, and he has done so much for his country, and he has done so much for his country... He has done so much for his country, and he has done so much for his country, and he has done so much for his country...

THE TRUTH. Having listened with attention to the discussion between Messrs. Faulkner and Boteler on Friday last in our town, and having mainly from that discussion, ascertained the following incontrovertible facts... The following incontrovertible facts are that we refer to in our editorial... The following incontrovertible facts are that we refer to in our editorial...
